The Exchequer Court of Canada constituted a Prize Court in time of war.

By a warrant dated the 17th August, 1899, addressed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the Exchequer Court of Canada, the said Court, upon any proclamation being made by the Vice-Admiral for the time being of Canada that war has broken out between His Majesty and any Foreign State, and not otherwise, is authorized and required to take cognizance of and judicially to proceed upon all Captures Recaptures Seizures Prizes and reprisals of all Ships Vessels and Goods seized and taken and which are or shall be brought within the limits of the said Court. The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty suggested Halifax and Victoria, B. C., as places within the jurisdiction of the Court at which it would be convenient for Prize Courts to sit.

The Judicial Bench in the Dominion of Canada—Concluded.

Territorial Court of the Yukon Territory.

(61 Vict., Chap. 6, Sec 10, assented to 13th June, 1898)

A Superior Court of record in and for the Yukon Territory, called the Territorial Court, and consisting of one or more judges to be appointed by the Governor-in-Council, was constituted by section 10 of the Act 61 Vict., Chap. 6, assented to 13th June, 1898, (The Yukon Territory Act.)

Under the provisions of section 14 of the said Act, the judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories assigned to the Yukon Judicial District at the time this Act came into force (Mr. Justice McGuire) became the judge of the Territorial Court.

The Yukon Judicial District, as constituted by proclamation bearing date the 16th August, 1897, was declared to be a separate territory under the name of the Yukon Territory—no longer forming part of the North-West Territories—by section 2 of the Act above mentioned and by section 13 of the Act 1. Ed. vii., Chap. 41, assented to 23rd May, 1901, the boundaries of the said Yukon Territory were changed in accordance with the schedule attached to the latter Act.
