

GREENWICH ITEMS

The many friends in this place of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merry, who spent the past two summers here with the former's sister, Mrs. C. A. Bishop, were much interested in hearing of their golden wedding, on Dec. 4th, which was spent at the house of their daughter in the city of Montreal. Best wishes go to this couple of years and it is hoped they may visit their sister here next summer, as they have a strong feeling of affection for old Kings County, Kentville was their former home, but they were in Halifax at the time of the explosion five years ago and received injuries then.

Mr. Harris Forsythe recently spent a few days in Halifax on a business trip. Mr. Harold Dodge and bride, a Miss Schurman of Falmouth, but lately of Wolfville, spent a few days last week at his home in Sunnyside. We hear the "newly-weds" will live in Ontario for the winter.

The appreciative audience who attended "Community League" last Friday evening thoroughly enjoyed the whole time. The violin solo by Mr. Robert Bishop, with Jessie Bishop accompanying him, was much enjoyed, as was the amusing recitation by Miss Bessie Fraser. The President, Rev. Mr. Hemmeon, then gave a continuation of his lecture and every minute of it was full of interest, very helpful, instructive, and mixed with humorous sketches. These splendid lectures given free by Mr. Hemmeon should be deeply appreciated. On next Friday evening the Dramatic committee have all arrangements made for a first class Radio concert and a crowded hall should enjoy this treat in Greenwich. Everybody welcome so be there at our hall, on Friday evening of this week.

Mr. Goodwin, of Acadia College, delivered a splendid sermon at the church here last Sunday afternoon and was enjoyed by those present. Our Pastor Rev. Mr. Hemmeon, was called to South Farnington, Annapolis county, to conduct a service there.

Mrs. A. K. Forsyth entertained at a tea party last Saturday afternoon, the guests being a number of the young girls of the place.

Quite a good number enjoyed the "Sing" at the home of Miss Lillian Bishop on Sunday evening.

Miss Joyce Harvey, of the school staff at Kentville, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mrs. Gammon, of Medford, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Neary, returned to her home last Saturday.

Mr. Stuart Hiltz, of Kentville, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cox, on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Miss Elsie Piper spent the week end in Kentville visiting friends.

Miss Majorie Haley, Wolfville, was an over-night guest of her friend Miss Isabelle Hawley, on Monday.

Our school is planning to hold a Christmas concert in the hall on Thursday evening, the twenty-first. All should enjoy this and encourage the children, all of whom are much interested.

The Dramatic and Social Committee of the Greenwich Community League were called for a special meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Bishop on Monday evening. Also a few other friends were invited. Soon after all had gathered, Jessie, a daughter of the home, stepped to the piano and commenced playing a wedding march and Miss Hawley stepped forward, placing a perfect miniature bride doll up on the table. A heart was suspended from one hand, upon which was written the two names, Miss Isabelle Hawley and Mr. Frederick Baker. Thus the secret of the "Special Meeting" was out and it was termed an "Announcement Party". The surprise was further added to by Miss Hawley, as she then resigned her office as Conventor of the Dramatic Committee. Turning to Miss Jessie Fraser, one of the committee, she appointed her in her place, stating she was leaving for Boston the next morning. A very enjoyable evening followed, with conversation, games, piano and violin music, the latter being played by Mr. Robert Bishop. Dainty and plentiful refreshments were served during the evening. The secret has been well kept and the young people of the League fully expected to have Miss Hawley's help during the winter. She has won a number of true friends during her stay of several months here. A few friends met at the station on Tuesday morning to "see her off". Her wedding will take place before Christmas.

Rev. D. B. Harkness, a former pastor of the Wolfville Baptist Church, has resigned as Secretary of the Social Service Council of Manitoba to accept a Judgeship in the Juvenile Court of that province.

The Sir Robert Borden Chapter of the I. O. D. E. held a successful Rummage Sale at the Parish Hall last Saturday, which netted the Chapter about $25.

SENATOR JAMES COUZENS

The Canadian-born Mayor of Detroit, who resigned that post last week to go to the U. S. senate. His family home is Chatham. He bought an interest in the Ford P cars years ago for $2,500 and when he broke with Ford over the Peace Ship he sold out his interests for $29,000,000.

SPLENDID PERFORMANCE

Given by St. John's Dramatic Society at the Opera House

On Thursday evening of last week the Dramatic Society of St. John's Church presented "The District School of Blueberry Corners" at the Opera House. An enthusiastic audience greeted these amateur actors who did splendid work. The old time costumes were very cleverly designed and added much to the enjoyment of the scenes. The acting of each, from Mr. Nat Evans as school-teacher, to Mrs. Gue, as the little colored scholar, was excellent, and the interest was well sustained. Principal Silver and Miss Duncanson delighted the audience with choice solos while a lively orchestra of young people dressed in clown costumes, helped with gay music. The clubs represented were Digby, Annapolis Royal, Bridgetown, Middleton, Kentville, Canning, Windsor and Wolfville, and with eight teams in the league prospects are bright for a most successful season. The new league will be known as the Valley Amateur Hockey League and the clubs will operate in two sections, Digby, Annapolis Royal, Bridgetown and Middleton forming the western section, and Kentville, Canning, Windsor and Wolfville the eastern section. The officers elected were as follows:

Special trains will be at the disposal of the Valley fans during the season.

It has been arranged to have the finals in the playoff games between the two sections staged not later than February 17. A schedule for the Eastern Section was drafted as follows:

5—Wolfville vs. Windsor.
6—Canning vs. Kentville.

DEVELOPMENT OF NEW APPLES

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 11.—Two new apples, the Cortland and the Tioga, the former a cross between the Ben Davis and McIntosh and the latter from the Northern Spy and Sutton, have been developed by the horticulturalists at the State agricultural experimental station at Geneva, according to reports from that city today.

The Cortland is said to be most promising for New York, New England and the commercial apple regions of Canada. They are larger and brighter hued than the McIntosh, have the same flavor but keep longer.

The Tioga is described as a "late keeping yellow apple, with a springy flavor."

SIR HENRY THORNTON

The new president of the Canadian National Railways, who has been in Nova Scotia this week on a tour of inspection.

FRUIT GROWERS' ASSN.

The likelihood of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association holding its annual meeting in Wolfville will be heard of with interest by citizens who remember when the meeting was of yearly occurrence. During recent years the meetings of the association have been held from place to place and we are inclined to think that the change has not in every instance been advantageous. In the old days when the N. S. F. G. A. had permanent headquarters in this town its annual meeting was an important function and largely attended. Formerly this grand old organization had its own building here and held regular fall apple shows which were looked forward to eagerly. Such prominent members as Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Henry Chipman, J. W. Bigelow, R. W. Starr, C. R. H. Starr and other leading apple growers laid well the foundation upon which enterprising present day growers have developed an industry of incalculable value to this section.

COLLEGE FEDERATION

In Monday's Morning Chronicle appeared a letter from the pen of Prof. F. R. Haley, of Acadia University, on the subject of College Federation, which is of interest. Prof. Haley suggests a plan which is certainly the most practical that has so far been offered by which the proposition of the Carnegie Foundation might be carried out along the lines of the N. S. School of Technology. While the proposition, as the writer suggests, has some objectionable features it is certainly worthy of careful consideration and we advise all interested, and who is not, to give it a careful perusal.

STREET LIGHTING

Some weeks ago when it was announced that the business section of Wolfville was about to be adequately supplied with street lighting it was hoped that during the dark nights of late Autumn and especially at Christmas time the new system would be in evidence. The days have come and gone with no sign of activity in the direction of the installation of additional lighting and it is now apparent that some one must have blundered. Any person who can throw light (either electric or otherwise) on the situation will be gladly given a hearing.

The town of Bridgetown recently rewarded its chief of Police for faithful persuance of duty by giving him a week's holiday. This official also performs the duty of collector of town taxes and it was for this work especially that he gained the approval of the town fathers. At a recent meeting of the Council the Chief reported that out of seventeen hundred dollars water rates all except forty dollars had been collected and that this would be shortly forthcoming. What the salary of this much-employed official is we are unable to say but he certainly deserves a liberal one.

Sir Gilbert Parker is reported as predicting that in two years there would be peace in Ireland and from the newspaper stories of shootings and executions this does not seem improbable. The process of elimination appears to be going on merrily in the Emerald Isle.

KING'S CO. MAN POISONED BY GAS

Canning, N. S., Dec. 8.—Poisoned by gas fumes in his garage, Frank Brady, of Woodside, met with a tragic death at his home two miles from here this morning. Mr. Brady left the house at 10.30 for the garage to work on his auto, and failing to return at noon his brother went in search for him—and found him lying dead beside the motor car, with the doors of the garage closed. Dr. Frank Chute was called and found life extinct.

Mr. Brady was forty-one years of age and the son of Mrs. Brady, of Woodside, Kings County. He was a graduate of the Nova Scotia Agricultural College, Truro, and also of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. He was employed by the Government for many years as an entomologist in Kings County. The deceased is survived by his mother, two brothers, James, at Woodside, and Daniel, in New Hampshire; and two sisters, Nellie and Elizabeth, at home.

PLANT AN ACORN

How do oak trees grow? There must be a start. We look with admiration upon the stately, deeply rooted oak, weathering the storm serenely, basking in the sunshine of prosperity.

Yes, advertising must have a start—a seed must be planted. We see the results of advertising on every side. And yet the success of this advertising is not something that has sprung up overnight. Steadily, consistently, results have come, expenditures have been increased—a growth has taken place. Then the harvest.

Start a seed. Start small, modestly. Advertise sincerely and consistently. There is room for the small advertiser and he will grow as surely as his faith in his advertising and in his business continues. Plant an acorn.

FRANCE GIVES LAND TO CANADA

250 Acres on Vimy Ridge Now Belong to Dominion—Memorial Will be Erected Thereon

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—The gift of 250 acres of land on the Vimy Ridge, France, to Canada by the French government was officially confirmed today by Premier King. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Speaker in the House of Commons, who is at present in France was cabled today to sign the deed on behalf of Canada and officially accept the title.

In the centre of this tract of land, situated in the heart of the area so well known to Canadians, will be erected the beautiful Allward memorial. This memorial will contain the names of over 19,000 Canadians who have been reported missing. The donated area will be turned into a great "national park", stated the Premier today, and the Canadian government will look after its up keep in its entirety.

"As soon as parliament meets", stated the Premier, "the proper measures will be introduced so that our grateful thanks may be extended to the government and people of France for their great kindness and everlasting gift."

W. C. T. U. MISSIONARY

Miss Agnes Sproule gives a vivid and interesting report of good work, faithfully done, since coming to British Columbia in June, 1921. Her work lies among the needy of our land, as well as the foreigner. Miss Sproule has addressed Missionary Societies and L. T. L.'s, three of which she had organized, has spoken in the prison, and paid numerous visits to the sick in hospital, has taught girls in the Rescue Home, and the Chinese Mission—thus it can be seen at a glance how all-embracing her labour is. Very modestly she remarks:—"I know that a good many of these think it was a good day when they first came in touch with the W. C. T. U." During eight months, Miss Sproule has given no less than one hundred and eight addresses; has organized a Union at Powell River, and the L. T. L.'s already mentioned; has provided relief for the various sufferers, toys and warm garments. With spring days Miss Sproule is hoping to visit other parts of the Province. It is her great desire to enlarge her sphere of labour, and to make acquaintance with many more of our members. To all, this wonderful, appallingly necessary missionary work must bring an appeal, and our prayers follow the Missionary in her difficult task.—Canadian White Ribbon Tidings.

THE TREES DON'T STRIKE

One day, this summer, after reading all the news about the coal and railway strikes, I happened to be taking a ramble through the woodlot. In the course of my walk I passed several fine piles of all-body maple stovewood that was cut last spring and is seasoning properly for use next winter. It is true that we only meant to use it in the kitchen stove, but if there is any shortage we will not find it necessary to burn the furniture or tear up the floors to get fuel to keep us warm. We went through a winter in the war without using the coal stove, and can do it again. Of course coal is harder to use and needs less attention, but if the coal operators and their employees will quarrel it doesn't mean so much to us as it does to the city people. The woodlot is a kind of insurance for the home that is worth keeping up. A shortage of coal for fuel will stimulate reforestation in the country, for many farmers already realize that it is not safe to be entirely dependent on outside supplies of fuel.—It will also promote the development of electricity for the transportation companies, and all users of power see the danger of being entirely dependent on coal. These things in turn will help to conserve the world's coal supply, which is in danger of being used too rapidly in our modern enterprises. So that we can see that even strikes may serve useful purposes never dreamed of by those who promote them. If we haven't sense enough to practice reforestation and conservation Providence makes use of our struggles and foolishness to lead us to the right course.—Peter McArthur.

EQUAL TO SITUATION

American visitors in London are specially interested in our costers' barrows covered with fruit. A man from New York the other day came up to one of these stalls and, pointing to some melons, asked with a twinkle behind his horn spectacles: "Are those the largest apples you have?" The coster replied promptly: "Put the bloomin' grape dahn, will you?"—English Paper.

ARTISTIC BOXES FOR CHRISTMAS

If you are somewhat weary of the conventional holly-papered boxes heaped high on the counters at this time of the year, why not put your ingenuity to work to devise something individual, individuality being an endearing note in all gifts.
 A box is a box to most of us, but it may be made to be something more with a little artistic treatment. And this year, when we are trying to put everything to some use, it is desirable to plan Christmas wrappings that may serve some other purpose other than mere transportation.
 A very good place to look for something different with which to cover boxes is in the wall-paper stores. Many firms will gladly give away old sample-books, or sell cheaply odds and ends of out-of-date patterns, which, though too stale for progressive decorators, may supply just the quaint touch needed to set off a certain gift.
 A clever idea is to have the box representative in some way of the gift, or the use to which it is to be put. For instance, a set of blue and white checked tea-towels will look doubly attractive sent in a common shoe-box covered with washable blue tiled paper, such as is used on kitchen walls. Or, if you wish to make a box more permanent that may later be put to practical use in the kitchen, cover it with oilcloth or blue checked gingham. Recipes, card indexes, flat silver, chess-cloth bags, wax paper and string, rubber bands—there are dozens of things a receptacle of this sort will take care of.

Folding candy or cracker boxes are very easy to cover, as they may be laid out flat and the work done very quickly. One of the oddest gift boxes I have seen was merely a pint ice-cream paper pail pasted over with khaki cloth, and a small pair of flags crossed on each side for decoration. The handle was wrapped with red, white, and blue ribbon. This box contained a pair of silk hose sent to a Boy Scout, who afterwards hung it above his desk and used it for a twine-holder by punching a hole large enough for the string to pass through the bottom.
 This gave me the idea for a present to send a busy housewife. I covered one of those pails with plain blue cambric and pasted Dutch figures, cut from a well-known cleansing powder, around it. Then put a ball of twine in the box and tied a cheap pair of embroidery scissors to the handle.
 A round box is always more pleasing to the eye than a square one and is usually easier to cover. There is a brand of oatmeal that comes in a large round box that adapts itself nicely to such gifts as vases, cups, or similar articles. A simple way to ornament such a container is by winding around it alternate strips of red and green (or other combination) passe partout.

The round tin boxes that marsh-mallows are sometimes packed in make lovely boxes for sending out home-made candy or any small gift. Remove the paper covering and paint the outside, or else cover with plain green paper. Then cut tiny circles about the size of a holly berry from red passe partout and paste around the edges. I know one country woman who made quarts of candied cherries every season for Christmas gifts and sends them in boxes like these. It would be hard to find a more Christmassy-looking gift. And as every housewife delights in tin boxes for keeping various foodstuffs, this same thoughtful woman sent as her gift to a bride a coffee-can packed with home-made cookies, and as an incentive for the youthful housekeeper to keep the can filled, the recipe was typewritten and pasted inside the lid, and the can itself made dainty with several coats of white enamel. Large dots of blue passe partout were then pasted on and the whole treated to a coat of white shellac as a preventive measure.—By May Belle Brooks in Modern Priscilla.

DEATH'S HARVEST

The death of Jean, the little six years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford, occurred on Tuesday under peculiarly sad conditions. The child was taken ill on Friday last but as her condition was not regarded as serious by her parents the doctor was not called until Monday. When Dr. Grant arrived he saw that there was little hope and summoned Dr. Elliott. It was decided that the sick child be taken to Westwood Hospital for an operation if possible, but it was too late. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Bennett, of Gasperau, officiating. The sorrowing parents have the profound sympathy of neighbors and friends in their bereavement.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS

This week THE ACADIAN will perhaps be received at homes at which it has not heretofore been a regular visitor. The publishers bespeak for it a careful examination and if satisfactory shall be glad to send it each week on request. We think we can please you and will gladly place your name on our rapidly growing subscription list.

The increased demand upon our adv. space this week makes necessary the addition of several extra pages. Our patrons have interesting announcements to make every line of which should be carefully read. The time thus spent will be well employed and may save you dollars in your Christmas shopping.

There is no gift that would be more keenly appreciated by an absent relative or friend than a year's subscription to the newspaper from the old home town. We commend to our readers for this use THE ACADIAN which is a veritable home letter coming each week brim full of interesting items regarding the friends and surroundings of other days to the absent member of the family. It will be prized by the recipient and during the whole year through prove a constant reminder of the sender. Order now so as to be in time for Christmas.

When a representative of THE ACADIAN called upon a Wolfville business house—not represented in our advertising columns this week—he was informed by the manager that in his opinion it did not pay to advertise unless the advertiser was in a position to offer some inducement to buyers. We think so too. The store that cannot give some reason why people should deal with it ought not to expect to do much business.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Mr. Lawson Henry Schofield and Miss Dorothy Kathleen Schofield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carmel Schofield of White Rock took place at Gasperau parsonage Wednesday evening Nov. 22nd at seven o'clock by the Rev. At the appointed hour of eight o'clock a dainty tea was served to about twenty-five guests. The bride looked nicely in a gown of white silk, trimmed with gold beads.

The bride received many useful and handsome presents from her relatives and friends including silver, cut glass and money. Mr. and Mrs. Schofield will reside at White Rock.

BOY SCOUT COUNCIL

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Boy Scout Council was held at the Town Hall on Monday evening. The conditions of the work were thoroughly discussed and a committee composed of Messrs. E. Percy Brown, George C. Nowlan, G. K. Prescott and C. A. Patriquin, was appointed to superintend operations for the present and until permanent arrangements can be made. It was decided to employ a janitor for the Club Rooms and provide capable leadership for all groups having use of the building. The members of the Council, in common with citizens generally, are satisfied that the work is of such importance as to make even a temporary suspension out of the question.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE

Acadia debates with Dalhousie this year in the intercollegiate series, and the debate will be held at Wolfville either in February or early in March. Some weeks ago Dalhousie submitted the following subject and Acadia has chosen the affirmative:

"Resolved, that the right of appeal from the Canadian courts to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council should be abolished."

Among the leading jurists and judges of Canada this question has been a live one and the considerable part of the sessions of the Canadian Bar Association was devoted to the expression of views, for and against, at the last meeting of that body in Vancouver.

On Thursday afternoon of last week the ladies of the Methodist church held a sale of fancy work and served tea in the school room of the church. Over ninety dollars was realized.

The Annual Meeting of the Kings County Liberal Association will be held at the Court House, Kentville, on Monday, Dec. 18, at 3 p. m. All friends of the Liberal party are invited to be present. A special invitation is extended to all ladies of the party. M. S. Chase, Ass't Sec'y.

GREEN STOCKINGS

One of the paramount theatrical features of the season will be offered to the Wolfville patrons on Monday evening December 18, 1922, when the Acadia Dramatic Society will present "GREEN STOCKINGS" at the Opera House.

"Green Stockings" is one of the brightest and most successful of the three act English comedies. The situations are exceedingly complicated at times and intrinsically funny. The plot is well worked out, and the dialogue snappy. A strong cast of bright young men and women, under the direction of Misses Griffith and Cogswell are presenting the play in aid of the University Student Christian Association. The Acadia Orchestral Club under the direction of Mr. Farnsworth, will render musical selections between the acts. The performance promises to be a decidedly successful and enjoyable one, and we bespeak for the students a generous share of patronage.

QUESTIONS OF THE HOUR ANSWERED

"At Home—Fridays" Do you know why the ladies make Friday their "At Home" day? Neither do I. However, here is the way Elizabeth Elliott figures it out, and, being one herself, she ought to know. Anyway, it is good:

"The really finished hostess of our town," says she, "always plans her teas for Friday. Why? Because Friday morning our local paper is published, and is read and digested with the noon meal. This is a rigid law of the town, and no citizen is expected to mingle with his fellows on a Friday afternoon without first having mastered the gems of gossip contained in our great family journal. Any woman invited out for Friday tea may be obliged to skip on the dish-washing in order to be up-to-date in a literary sense. But, having mastered THE ACADIAN she merges into society, her joins girl about, her mind at rest knowing full well that in the snappiest circle she can hold her own.

"The hostess having seated her guests diplomatically and congenially breaks the first formalities by charging brightly into the arena with 'I see by THE ACADIAN that the Methodists are holding another tea.' (She has wisely refrained from inviting any Methodist ladies.) 'The way those people expect us to patronize all their teas is a scandal.'

"From then on things go merrily, and one hears blurry snatches such as: 'I see Mrs. Jones has an ad for piano pupils. They must be sort of up against it. Did you notice all her qualifications? Whatever in the world do all those letters stand for I wonder—every moral thing but the O. B. E.'

"Now, why do you suppose Mrs. Thomas is advertising for a maid? What does she do with all her time, anyway? Bill says she is downtown every blessed morning of her life before 10 o'clock. It does seem to me—"

"So the Browns have left for the West! Now will you just tell us where all the money comes from? The butcher business must certainly pay. Do you remember when first they came to—"

"And the Eversmans, too, are off on a big motor tour—though they do say that the bank is hounding Bill Eversman every minute. Well, some people don't worry, no matter what."

"Oh, and wasn't that a great editorial on the 'Chronic Uplifters.' The men downtown are betting that six of our leading citizens will withdraw their subscriptions immediately. They say our editor is going to pack his trusty bowie knife till the storm is over. 'Ware the uplifter.'

"And so our interesting invalid, Mrs. Smithers is in hospital again—another operation, my dear—great complications. Really, she'll soon have her interior entirely dismantled—that lady. Fity she wouldn't have."

"But did you see that Mrs. Eph. Billings has had another baby. Yes, that is the woman with the dozen assorted ones already. We really should do something for her. Now, I have three baby shirts that I had meant to hang on to—its safer, you know; but in a case like that—"

"Couldn't we get together and send a little parcel through some friend?"

"And that other poor woman out in Squaw Coulee died after all. They say she put up such a fight! Who wouldn't with three children to leave behind. To be sure, her husband is a Mason. Some one must page the Eastern Stars."

"We are pretty small, of course, in our interests—pretty contemptible, often. But very human always."

"And those really deserving of help and sympathy usually find it in liberal measure, just from fellow townspeople."

"The small town paper 'puts us wise' to everything. And the really initiated Main Streeter can discern chasms of tragedy, high light of humor or blossoms of romance in the most casual little four-liner."

Newspapers with stringent regulations against fake advertising allow political candidates to say any thing they want to.

YOUR ASSISTANCE REQUESTED

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN

Dear Mr. Davidson,—Will you grant me the privilege of saying something to the Temperance Electors of Kings County through THE ACADIAN. It is concerning the Collection that I write, and I am the man who was asked, and who agreed to act as a Social Service Council Missionary in Kings County. My duties are to advocate Social Service principles in all parts of the County as I may find opportunity, and to collect money for the support of the Provincial Social Service Council, of which the heroic Rev. H. R. Grant is Secretary. I believe that this means the application of the laws of the Kingdom of Heaven to Nova Scotia, and I have begun my task by addressing several congregations of the county and by collecting funds for the work, which is being done. I am asking that fifteen hundred of the Christian and Temperance Electors of this county (men or women) give me their names and the sum of one dollar for this purpose. I have known churches when funds were low and faith needed reviving, make an appeal for a dollar collection. This is a dollar collection for a much needed work and at a time of crisis conditions in the conflict between good and evil. Two hundred and seventy five names have been enrolled in my books. $417.00 has been subscribed, only $24.00 of this is not paid at this moment. I am too old a man to do much personal canvassing during the winter months. My Post Office address is Berwick, N. S. Will the good people who read this letter respond by sending me their names and contributions by mail, which names and amounts will be recorded and acknowledged later. I hold myself in readiness to visit any community, asking or offering me an opportunity to do so.

And I write myself Mr. Editor,
Yours for the Kingdom of God
Arthur Hockin.
Berwick, Dec. 7, 1922.

AN HONORABLE SERVICE

Of all the people, in all the autos, that go whirling by that uninteresting looking place that, until recently, was the Horton Farm, I wonder how many know that within those plain walls there has been rendered to the Township a service so fine in its spirit as to call to mind the words of a writer who said that greatness belongs to one who can take a mean task and perform it in such a manner as to glorify it, bringing dignity both to the task and to the doer of it.

Such has been the spirit and service of Mrs. Andrew Fenwick, for the past eight years Matron of the Horton Farm.

The very name of "Poor House" has been hated by the poor since poor houses began: and how many of us would be able to impart a feeling of home to an institution which every inmate of normal mentality must have dreaded to enter?

Observing people who, were frequent visitors say that the place, under Mrs. Fenwick's regime, had a very perceptible "home atmosphere", the "how" of which accomplishment must be sought in the personality of the Matron, who treated the people under her care as if they were "real folks".

Here were a few normal people, aged and homeless; a larger number mentally deficient—some blind or terribly afflicted with St. Vitus' dance; and a few normal children. The matron considered the whims and sensitive pride of the aged, was patient with the deficient; and in one case made an effort to teach a girl of sixteen to read, hoping to strengthen her weak mind. To do this she could only snatch a moment now and then, but patiently, day after day she would pause in her busy rounds to write lines of letters or figures on Rachel's slate and encourage her to copy them. At the time there were fourteen inmates under her care besides her own family of four, and only one of the inmates able to help in the work.

With the children she was like a mother, taking a keen interest in their school work, and when they appeared in school entertainments feeling a mother's pride in seeing them do their parts.

Little Arthur Parker, now three years old, who with his mother came there at the age of five months was kept most of the time in the Matron's rooms and was lovingly cared for and proudly dressed as other little tots are dressed. As he grew he returned the affection of the Fenwick family, and always at bed-time his "Good night, Niss," (mistress) and "Good night, Boss", with a kiss for each showed how that much talked of and deadening "Institutional Environment" had been overcome.

Once when a friend took the Matron for a drive, some of the older inmates, to tease the children, told them she had gone away "for good". When she came back, therefore and alighted from the carriage the friend was surprised to see all the children run out and meet her, clinging to her skirts and hugging her around the knees! The "Boogy" story was confessed in explanation.

At the time of the merging of the old institution into the larger and happier named "County Home" at Waterville, a lady interested in one of the older inmates presented Mrs. Fenwick with a half dozen dessert spoons of fine "Community Plate" in recognition of her kind consideration for the aged, who particularly enjoyed the gist of daily news she gave them from the papers.

In mentioning Mrs. Fenwick especially; there is no thought of belittling the services of Mr. Fenwick or of former superintendents or matrons. They were kind and efficient: they did all that the Municipality expected or paid for. She did that, and more.

We are glad that Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick are to remain in our neighborhood, and extend sympathy to Mr. Fenwick in his present illness.

Lillian E. Bishop.

PRODUCTION OF COAL INCREASED

In All Provinces in Canada, Except Nova Scotia.

Ottawa, December 6.—With the exception of Nova Scotia the coal producing Provinces reported increased production in August last over the preceding month, but for the whole of Canada the output was 8 per cent. less than in July, and amounted in all to 789,000 tons, as compared with 858,000 tons in the preceding month. The cumulative production for the first eight months of the present calendar year was 7,745,000 tons, as compared with a three year average for the same months of 9,319,000 tons. The output this year to the end of August was, therefore, 17 per cent. below the three year average for the period, while at the end of July the cumulative production was within 14 per cent. of the three year average.

Imports of coal during August were 12 per cent. below the shipments received in the preceding month and amounted to only 18 per cent. of the three year average imports for August. The shortage in imported coal was further emphasized by the fact that the imports from January 1st, 1922, to the end of August totalled only 5,953,000 tons, or but 51 per cent. of the average quantity imported during the same period in the three preceding years.

SEEDLESS AND CORELESS APPLE

Quebec Grower of Famous Fameuse Offered Million Dollars if He Can Produce the Tree

Montreal, Dec. 6.—Much enthusiasm was evoked at the annual meeting of the Promological and Fruit Growing Society of the Province of Quebec at MacDonald College, St. Anne's, to-day by the announcement of the discovery at Abbotsford of a seedless and coreless variety of Fameuse apples. Business was suspended for a time while the apple growers assembled examined and tested specimens.

The fruit was found to be genuine Fameuse, slightly different in shape to the typical variety, longer and flatter at the ends, but of the same coloring and flavor. A slight marking in the heart of the apple was the only indication of where the core of an ordinary specimen would have been.

The representative of a large fruit distributing firm in Montreal assured the grower of these coreless apples that if the latter would produce the parent apple tree from which they were grown and prove that it reproduces trees by grafts giving similar fruit, he would guarantee him a million dollars for it, as it would revolutionize apple growing in Canada.

Prof. F. C. Seers, of the Amherst, Mass., Horticultural College, who was present, examined the fruit and pronounced it evidently Fameuse in every essential detail. He too agreed that it could be reproduced it would prove of very great value.

The discoverer said he had made his discovery purely by accident.

BOTH NIGHTS

"And now," said the monocled gentleman who had borrowed a match from the traffic cop "I suppose you would like to know who I am?"

"Sure."

"I am Sir W. Gabriel Birkenham, Knight of the Bath, Knight of the Garter, Knight of the Double Eagle and Knight of the Golden Cross."

"And, I," said the cop, "am Mike O'Flanagan, to-night, last night, to-morrow night, and every other night."

"I Was a Fright!"

"Nothing I Could Take Made Me Any Fatter."

"Up to the time I was seventeen years old, I believe that I was the most miserable and unhappy girl that ever lived. Honestly, I was a sight. I was the most ungainly looking creature you ever saw. I was thin and scrawny—straight up and down. My height was five feet nine inches and I weighed exactly ninety-one and three quarter pounds. No matter what kind of clothes I put on I looked like a fright. I was clumsy and awkward. I used to stand before the glass and study my features. I found I had a good nose, good eyes and a good mouth, but my cheeks were sunken and my face looked like a skull with a piece of parchment stretched over it. But nothing I could do or take made me any fatter. Men rarely even glanced at me. When they did, they merely gave me a casual, amused or pitying look—an expression which I am sure meant, 'why is a being like that allowed at large?' I used to lie awake at night for hours at a time wondering why there were so many beautiful girls in the world and I was so hideous. I met a friend of mine one day, Elsie W. and I hardly knew her. While she had never been as thin as I was, a year or more ago she ran me a close second, but when I met her she had taken on flesh and had developed into a fine handsome girl with one of the prettiest figures I had ever seen. I asked her what had caused the big change. She said Carnol. She told me she had been taking it regularly for the last three months and that from the first week of taking it she had begun to put on flesh. I was so encouraged by what she said that I couldn't get to the druggist fast enough. I bought a bottle and since then I have been taking it regularly. It has made the greatest change in me you ever saw. I now weigh 165 pounds and all my friends tell me what a wonderful figure I have and I know that I am admired."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund you money.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jess are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Tuesday, Dec. 11th.

The skating rink has again opened for the winter and was well patronized on Saturday and Monday evenings, the ice being in excellent condition. Mr. Ralph Smith has charge this season.

A very pleasant evening was spent on Friday, Dec. 1st, when the Tuxis Boys gave a banquet to the "Delta Alpha" class of girls in the vestry of the Baptist church. Other guests were the officers and teachers of the S. School. After supper the toasts were as follows: "The Church", proposed by J. L. Jess, responded to by the Pastor; "The Sunday School", proposed by D. C. Clark, responded to by T. S. Lockwood; "The Delta Alphas", proposed by Tuxis Boys (in concert), responded to by "Delta Alphas" (in concert); "The Crusaders", proposed by Mr. Cogswell, responded to by Lloyd Jess. Mr. N. T. Morton, student at Acadia University, gave an interesting talk on the characteristics of Christ as a young man. Several of the teachers made short speeches and with the singing of old favorite songs an enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

The Sunday School is preparing for their annual Christmas Tree. This will be as in former years combined with the Public School in the Exercises. On Sunday evening (Christmas Eve) the Sunday School will have an old fashioned Xmas Concert for which a program of exercises and music is being prepared by the scholars.

The other window has the fire-place and Xmas tree. The store is well stocked with a fine class of goods suitable to the tastes and pocket-books of the would be purchasers.

MOTION PICTURE PROVES THAT BEARS LIKE HONEY

Story book, novel and natural history since time without memory, have always made it known that bears are famous for the proverbial sweet tooth. Likewise everyone of them have agreed that honey is bruin's delight in any country or clime. Good proof of this may be obtained by those who see the big James Oliver Curwood photoplay production, "God's Country and the Law," which comes to the Opera House on Tuesday, Dec. 19.

In this picture a big black bear takes part in the action of the early scenes when in one especially interesting scene he is shown performing a notorious bear's trick of stealing honey from the cabin of a woodsman. The old bear used in this scene, while not a highly trained animal, was the property of a Maine farmer. His master doubted his ability to go through with the scenes when Sidney Olcott, the director, asked for a loan of him. According to the director, the bear performed his task with less rehearsal than any of the human members of the cast, due, of course, to the lure of the honey and several pounds of his good fresh sweet stuff, which was used to make the act.

Speaking of buying out of town, yesterday we sold a hard buyer from the city, who just dropped in to look around on his way to the station, the following:—

- 2 lbs. Mixed Nuts 19c.
- 1 lb. Special Mixture 28c.
- 4 1/2 lb. Boxes Moir's Chocolates 37c.
- 12 pkgs. Raisins per pkg. 17c.

Nothing peculiar about this, but with 106 grocery stores in Halifax, we know competition is pretty keen, and it just pleased us to know we had them all beaten.
