

WILL PUSH WORK ALONG

Street Railway Anxious to Get Barton Street Done.

Doctors Approve of the Board of Health Pure Milk Idea.

East End Property Available For Manufacturing Sites.

Traction Manager Coleman, of the Dominion Power & Transmission Company, had a conference this morning with City Engineer McCallum about the street railway work.

Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, believes that the milk commission, which has just been appointed by the Ontario Government, will be able to do a lot of good work in ensuring a pure milk supply.

The Hamilton Medical Association wishes to emphasize the fact that it is heartily in sympathy with the move the Board of Health is making to guarantee pure milk for babies in the warm summer months, and it has appointed a committee to co-operate with the local Boards of Health.

The city clerk has received a copy of a petition from William Strong and others asking that 48 acres of land near the Jockey Club be annexed to the city.

William Baxter has been granted a permit for three brick houses on Sophia street, between King and Main streets, to cost $6,000.

The James street reservoir is being cleaned out to-day, and the pressure at the City Hall dropped to 40 pounds.

The Board of Education last night granted the senior public school pupils permission to attend the Ontario Tuberculosis Exhibit, which will be shown here next week.

The Sewers Committee has considerable business to transact to-night.

Mayor McLaren said to-day that while he had not inspired the report about drinking among civic employees at the same time he was heartily in sympathy with any move to prevent it.

The Times' experience, based on many years of intimate association with the City Hall employees, is that they are exceptionally free from anything that would justify the insinuation that has been thrown out.

GRIM TRAGEDY OF OLD LAKE ONTARIO.

Little Note in Valise on Shore Tells of Suicide of Mr. A. W. Maguire.

A sad tragedy was revealed yesterday afternoon, when a coat, a small valise and a note were found on the lake shore at Crescent Beach, near the Stoney Creek road. On the valise were the initials of one of Hamilton's prominent business men, and the contents of the note signified that the owner intended to commit suicide. The find was made by Mrs. A. M. Ewing, who, together with her daughter, maid and coachman, had driven to the Beach to picnic. The party were seated on the lake shore, lunched, when Mrs. Ewing noticed the coat and valise on the sand near a bush about twelve feet from the lake shore. They speculated upon how it came there for some time and finally the coachman was sent over to investigate. He returned in a few minutes, and Mrs. Ewing, as soon as she saw the valise exclaimed, "Why, that is Mr. Maguire's valise." It was hurriedly opened and inside was found a note instructing the finder to deliver it to William Maguire. By this time the party had no doubt but that the writer was drowned and all haste was made to the city and the valise and coat, together with explanations, were given to William Maguire, who instantly notified the police and, hiring a rig, drove with a friend and Mr. Ewing's coachman to the scene of the tragedy. Arriving at the Beach, they called at the cottage of Mortimer Corey, a fisherman, and asked him to assist them in dragging for the drowned man. Mr. Corey got three or four of his assistants and, armed with grappling irons, set out in an endeavor to find the body of Maguire, senior. They explored the place where the coat was first found, and footmarks were to be plainly seen in the sand leading from the coat into the lake. On account of the darkness it was impossible to see much, and after two hours' fruitless search, it was decided to postpone the dragging until 7 o'clock this morning, when it was resumed. The contents of the letter found were to the effect that the writer would be dead when it (the letter) would be found. It was the last letter he would ever write, it said. He expressed regret at what he was about to do, and stated (Continued on Page 5.)

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Beamsville Jesse James is Only 19 Years of Age.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Beamsville, May 14.—That bold young highwayman, Jesse V. Strickler was brought from the county jail yesterday afternoon for his hearing before Magistrate Riggins. Crown Attorney Brennan was prosecuting and brought out the facts of the case exactly as outlined in the Times on Saturday. The Magistrate committed the man to jail to await his trial in St. Catharines. Strickler is only 19 years old, and married. It is quite evident that the fellow is a trifle queer as he smiled and winked at the benchers all through the hearing. He said he was drunk when he bought the revolver and belt of cartridges in Toronto. He was taken back to the county jail last night under double escort, as for all his unconcern, the officers of the law are rather wary about him.

Mrs. Amelia Terryberry, an aged lady from the township, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon about five o'clock. Sitting in a waiting rig near the Bank of Hamilton it is supposed the outfit was not seen by Mr. English, the driver of a horse and wagon which was proceeding up an alleyway leading from the rear of the shops. The outgoing rig struck the hubs of Mrs. Terryberry's vehicle and almost capsized it, throwing the woman out in the road on her head. She was not severely injured, as she struck the earth in a side direction, but that she escaped so easily looked rather miraculous to the bystanders.

Mr. Arnott M. Patterson, an ex-pupil of the Hamilton Collegiate Institute, has most successfully completed another year at Queen's University, being successful in the past class, senior mathematics, and obtaining first class honors in both final honor animal biology and final honor botany.

BODY NOT RECOVERED.

Up to press time the body had not been recovered. The grappling party dragged all along the shore, but their morning's work was fruitless. The task was continued this afternoon.

Sent to Siberia

St. Petersburg, May 14.—The trial of the members of the local Social Democratic organization came to an end here to-day. Eighteen of the prisoners were sentenced to perpetual exile in Siberia and twenty others are to be imprisoned in a fortress for terms varying from one to three and a half years. Among the prisoners are Police Judge Sparsky and Instructor Prosin, of the University of Moscow, who will serve respectively terms of two years and eighteen months' imprisonment.

IN KINGSTON.

Capt. Brewster There Looking After Fire Chief Job.

Kingston, May 14.—Capt. Brewster, of the John street fire station, Hamilton, is in the city, making his application for the position of chief of the local department, for which the salary is $1,200. Mr. Brewster was born in this city, and lived here for seventeen years, and many old friends are glad to greet him and promise him every possible assistance in his endeavors. Staff Sgt. Hughes, of the local permanent Army Service Corps detachment, left here to-day for Hamilton, where he will conduct a course of instruction for the volunteer Army Service Corps there.

BOY DROWNED.

Martintown, Ont., May 14.—Sparling Warner, a young son of B. Warner, was drowned while fishing below the dam. Nobody witnessed the accident, which was discovered through the finding of the lad's cap floating on the water. The body was recovered.

FIVE DROWNED IN NEW YORK

Two in East River, One in a Pond and Two in North River.

Guatemala Student Drowned While Swimming in Pond.

One Man Jumped Into River and Committed Suicide.

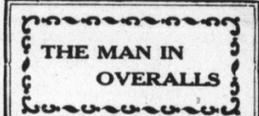

New York, May 14.—Five persons were drowned yesterday within the city's limits. Two met death in the East River, one in a Staten Island pond, and two more in the North River.

Abraham Ribera, a student, 20 years old, and a member of a wealthy family of Guatemala, Central America, was drowned at West Newbrighton while trying to swim a pond there.

Two unknown men were drowned in the Hudson River when a small boat in which they were rowing was upset by the wash of a steamer. Hundreds of persons on shore saw the men drown, but were powerless to help as they were too far away.

Thomas A. Hayes, 45 years old, fell into the North River from a pier off the coal wharves where he was employed, and was drowned.

An unknown man, of about middle age, jumped from a lighter at pier 48, North River. After swimming about ten feet toward the middle of the river he stopped swimming and went down. The body was not recovered. The captain of the vessel, Chas. Petersen, and the mate told the police that the suicide a few minutes before jumping had asked them to give him a nickel with which to get food.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

The Magistrate is determined that he won't have to dodge bicycles on the sidewalk. Selah!

The Maple Leaf Park will be a good substitute for the proposed White City that Commissioner Van Allan slayed at its birth.

Tastes differ. While some men are jailed for having too many wives, some men find one wife too many.

Come on in; the water's fine. Why wear that worried look? It's not so bad as all that.

If they "got a tip," why didn't the lady folks skip? Answers received in Saturday's kickers' column.

The cemetery would be a beautiful place were it not for the monuments and the iron fences, especially the fences. Will they ever be got rid of?

As long as Adam Ballentine is on this side the river you may depend upon it that the grocers' picnic will be held at Niagara Falls.

Now who is this that is drinking over at the City Hall? Or is it just another newspaper yarn?

This talk of the late Kinrade jury holding an indignation meeting will make Galt snicker in its sleeve again.

Hamilton postmen get along better with Lemieux than the Paris chaps do with Clemeceau.

The Cemetery Board objects to having a mausoleum on the ground. How would a crematory catch them?

Cresote and concrete should make a good combination. The very words sound sticky.

See what our advertisers have got to offer you this evening. Always something interesting to say.

And it is not so long since Barton street was just a corduroy road.

Some time ago some residents of James street south took down their fences in front of their property, but they are now putting them up again.

Flower thieves and other vagabonds were so destructive and rampant last year that the residents just couldn't stand it another season. Toronto excursionists are blamed for a lot of it. In the summer months a police patrol should be there and thereabout all the time.

Three years is not a long time to look back to, but it is an awful long time when you count the hours and days as they pass until the three years are up. Three years in the penitentiary, shut out from the world, would be a sort of living death for some men. Yet that is what one fortunate man will have to serve because in an evil moment he listened to temptation and fell. But all the punishment, severe as it is, is not in the mere confinement or hardships endured in consequence. Perhaps the worst part to bear by the man in question is the thought that he is a criminal, that he has brought disgrace upon his friends and dragged his good name in the dirt. He has brought a blot upon his character and reputation that he may never be able to live down. A good name is above riches and each young man should endeavor to preserve that even at the risk of his life.

CANADA LIFE.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, Ont., May 14.—The Banking and Commerce Committee of the Commons this morning decided to report the Canada Life Assurance Company's bill. There was no opposition to the measure in the committee and it was passed without objection.

LOOKS MUCH LIKE A CLOSED CASE.

Little Likelihood of Kinrade Mystery Being Solved—House Cleaning at the Home.

It has been finally decided that the Kinrade murder mystery a closed book at last? For a week or more public hope has been keyed up with promised developments as soon as the Provincial Cabinet had a chance to discuss the case and the recommendations made by the Crown representatives.

Mr. Spera is much annoyed at Hon. J. J. Foy, Attorney-General, making public a letter written to him the day after the jury delivered its verdict. Mr. Spera in this letter voiced his own opinion and he declared today that the letter was of a confidential nature and should not have been given to the press.

The fact that housecleaning operations began yesterday at the Kinrade residence on Herkimer street has given rise to a report that the family intends living in the old home again, although it was generally understood after the tragedy that the place would be sold.

Neighbors say that yesterday a quantity of bedding, clothing, a carpet, etc., were burned. A CLOSED BOOK? Is the Kinrade murder mystery a closed book at last? For a week or more public hope has been keyed up with promised developments as soon as the Provincial Cabinet had a chance to discuss the case and the recommendations made by the Crown representatives.

W. M. MCCLEMONT, Honored by Canadian Club by being elected president for third term.

GOING WEST.

Presentation to Mr. John Percy Before Leaving.

The pretty home of the Misses Yorrell, 307 John street north, was the scene of a festive gathering, the occasion being a farewell to Mr. John Percy, a member of the crew of the yacht Shamrock. Progressive euchre was played, and the prizes awarded to Miss T. Raigun, first for ladies, and Miss Hurley, booby; Mr. Theoret first and J. Campbell booby for men. After cards had finished a very dainty repast was served to the guests, presided over by the hostesses.

Then came the surprise part of the programme. Miss Yorrell, on behalf of the crew of the Shamrock, read a beautiful address, expressing the regret of all that Mr. Percy was leaving their midst, to go out West, and wishing him every success in his new field. Then Mr. Joseph Campbell presented him with a beautiful gold watch, suitably inscribed. The recipient responded feelingly, although completely taken by surprise. The rest of the evening was given up to dancing.

Young Speculator

St. Louis, May 14.—With his 25th birthday still to come, William N. Aubuchon, jun., is said to have made a little more than $100,000 by following the lead of James A. Patten in wheat deals out of a working capital of less than $1,000. Aubuchon trades exclusive on three cent margins. He declines to admit how much less than $1,000 he invested, but he turned his capital many times and reinvested all of his profits.

THE BATTERY.

Good Turnout For First Parade With New Guns.

The Fourth Field Battery had its first drill with the new 18-pound quick-firing guns last night, and though somewhat difficult at first, the peculiarities of the new gun will soon be mastered. The turnout was large, and Major Tidswell, after expressing his satisfaction at the arrival of the guns, told the men that they would have to buckle down and learn how to use them if they intended to uphold their reputation at the target while at camp this summer.

TOUGH BUNCH GATHERED IN.

Quartette and a Whiskey Bottle Arrested on Mountain.

Hildrith and Walsh Did Not Retain Liberty Long.

Crusade Against Sidewalk Riders is Being Kept Up.

William Hildrith, 28 Emerald street north, and John Walsh, 222 Mary street, have great difficulty in keeping out of the toils of the police. A few weeks ago this precious couple appeared in court charged with robbing James Phillips. They were discharged, however, at the higher court, as Phillips was in police court on a charge of drunkenness when the case was called, and the judge held that the evidence was not sufficient.

This morning they were up before Magistrate Jelfs in answer to a charge of vagrancy. Again both pleaded not guilty and intimated that they were a much persecuted pair. Constables Clark and Hill made the arrest on the Mountain Top about a quarter of a mile east of the east end incline. They were in company with a man named Masters, and a young woman, Ethel May. The police officers said the quartette were resting on the grass and seemed to get great enjoyment out of a large whiskey bottle which was kept continually on the move from one hand to another.

Ethel was doing her part with the liquid and looked very chic with a cigarette in her mouth. Consternation reigned when the police appeared, and all four were taken to the cells. They pleaded not guilty. P. C. Clark said that several complaints had been made about them and their untoward actions, which had been going on since early morning. He knew the girl, having seen her on the streets on different occasions, but each time with different men. Detective Sawyer said the girl came to this city from Ottawa about three months ago and had been living loosely since her arrival here. Masters swore that he had not been with the other three, and defied any person to prove that he had taken a drink in three weeks. He could see no reason why he should be arrested.

"You say I don't work," said Walsh as he took the stand, "Why don't you give me a chance. I was working when I was thrown in jail over that Phillips business, and though I was discharged, I had to lay in jail for 21 days. I just got out Tuesday and after being out 48 hours I am arrested again. How could I get work in that time? We were just sitting on the grass when the policemen came over to us and said that they were going to arrest us. I asked him what for and he said for being drunk and disorderly. I'm not drunk, I replied, but they would not listen to me."

Masters was let off with a $5 fine, as he had never been in court before, but Walsh and Hildrith were each fined $20, or thirty days in jail. Ethel May was sentenced to the Mercer school for an indefinite period.

David Croxley was a very penitent vag. He said that he was tired and sat himself down by the wayside to rest for an hour or so, when a big copper made his appearance and ran him in. "Give me a chance," he said. "I never was before you before, and I have not done anything wrong."

"What possessions have you?" queried the Magistrate. "Nothing but what I have got on my back," answered David.

"Well, it is never too late to mend," was the cheerful response. He was fined $20 or sixty days, and given until tomorrow to pay it.

James Eagan and Dennis Bennett were each fined $2 for being drunk.

The crusade against bicycle riders who use the sidewalk for a track goes merrily on, and to-day three more offenders appeared in court and were each fined $5.00.

JOIN UNION.

A Number of the Non-Union Moulders Want In.

No developments have taken place in the moulders' mix-up since yesterday, with the exception of the fact that several of the striking non-union men have applied for cards in the union. Several have been accepted, but those who are believed to be professional strike-breakers have been refused. As the situation now stands, the Gurney-Bliden foundry is not working, and will not be doing so until either a new batch of non-union men are secured or the firm comes to terms with the union men. So far there has been no sign of the strike spreading to other foundries.

THE RANGES

Will be Improved Before the Season Opens.

Captain Lindsay, officer commanding the engineer corps for Western Ontario, was in the city this morning. He was in consultation with Col. Logic regarding some proposed improvements at the rifle ranges. Capt. Lindsay said that nothing would be done in the way of extensions, but that there were several improvements of a minor nature that were needed before the season opened. It has not been decided yet what the improvements will consist of.

A Love Affair

"Oh, I know you rely on him to protect you," said Lady Ruth, with a sneer. "He left the house at dawn, and will not return till night. We have a clear course. If you accept my terms, you refuse to tell me, and I will not only proclaim your wickedness to the marchioness, but every man and woman in the place shall know the real character of the adventures you crept into Brakespeare Castle and planned midnight meetings with its master."

CHAPTER XI

With feverish eagerness Constance commenced packing her things. She felt that, short as was the time Lady Ruth had given her, it was all too long for her to remain in Brakespeare Castle. Her one desire was to get away—and yet she paused a moment, and a strange thrill ran through her as she thought of the man who would say when he heard she had gone.

two of consideration on the part of the driver, and went in the direction of Kensington; Constance wondering listlessly whether her fate was taking her. Constance went up a short flight of steps, and saw a woman whom the cabman, with the quick perception of his class, had rightly described as a lady. She was young, scarcely of middle age, indeed, with a rather pretty face, with that expression of subdued sadness which speaks of past trouble, and was dressed in black. Constance and she stood for a moment regarding each other, then the woman's face relaxed into a softer and welcoming expression which brought an intense feeling of relief to poor Constance, who was dreading another rebuff.

THE BAKERSLIDERS. (Grimsby Independent.) Without doubt, professional revivalists do good, in fact, do a great deal of good, but what about the "sliders," what about a year after, when the spirit of excitement has worn off, then the state of the church is practically as bad or worse than it was before the appearance of the evangelist, and another spiritual doctor has to be called in to revive, enliven and excite the people once more.

CHALLENGES THE EDITOR. (Toronto World.) School Inspector Hughes, riled by an editorial in an evening paper which said the city schools could turn out pupils to shoot about the colleges, turned out pupils who could spell, has challenged the editor to a spelling "bee," with "pupils in even a third book class, but giving him the right to choose a fourth or fifth book class if he prefers."

HIS LIMITATIONS. (Canada Courier.) Mr. George Tait Blackstock is a legal authority of artistic perceptions, who is said to know more than the average Canadian lawyer about pictures and porcelain.

THE KINRADE CASE. (Toronto Star.) Mr. Samuel Barker, M. P. of Hamilton, thinks that the Kinrade case would have been conducted more satisfactorily if a system which he advocates had been in operation.

Maple Leaf Park Will be a Sight at Night.

The electricians are at work at Maple Leaf Park, and the new amusement resort will be a grand sight at night. It will be the best lighted park in Canada, and it is doubtful if there is a park across the border that has as many lights.

Love is what prompts a woman to be miserable with one man rather than to be happy with another. Lots of the men who make the most noise in the world are really in the blank cartridge class.

BABY'S EYESIGHT WAS THREATENED

By Terrible Eczema--Head Became a Mass of Itching Rash and Sores--Wound Scratch Till Blood Came--Much Money Wasted in Fruitless Treatments--Disease Was Soon CURED AT SLIGHT COST BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our little girl was two months old when she got a rash on her face and within five days her face and head were all one sore. We used different remedies but it got worse instead of better and we thought she would turn blind and that her ears would fall off. She suffered terribly, and would scratch until the blood came. At night we had to pin her hands down. This went on until she was five months old, then I had her under our family doctor's care, but she continued to grow worse. He said it was eczema. When she was seven months old I started to use Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent, and in three weeks--what a change! I kept using the Cuticura Remedies for two months and our baby was a different girl. You could not see a sign of a sore and she was as fat as a new-born baby, and all for the small cost of a dollar and seventy-five cents where we had spent ten times the money for doctors' bills. She is now two years old and has not had a sign of the eczema since. Mrs. H. F. Budke, R. F. D. 4, Leslie, Minn., Apr. 15 and May 2, 1907."

SLEEP KILLED

By an Itching Humor. Another Cure by Cuticura Remedies. "I broke out with a humor which spread almost all over my body. The itching would get worse on retiring, so I could not sleep. I tried several remedies but it grew worse until I got some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Pills which began to relieve me at once. By the time I had used one vial of the Pills, the humor was entirely gone. I wish every sufferer could secure the Cuticura Remedies. Travis Bates, Hamburg, Ark., April 26, 1907."

PROUD ALMA DAUGHTERS.

Enjoyable Reunion at the Battlefield Yesterday.

Ex-students of Alma College, St. Thomas, residing in and near Hamilton, to the number of forty, held a most enjoyable reunion at the battle ground, Stoney Creek, yesterday afternoon. Miss Nisbet had made all arrangements for the use of the grounds for the Alma Daughters, and when the 3 p. m. car from Hamilton arrived Miss Nisbet was awaiting the company and escorted them all through the grounds and the old house, with its curiosities, explaining each article as the procession moved from point to point.

At about 4 p. m. an excellent programme was rendered in the spacious parlour. Mrs. H. D. Petrie, the president of the Hamilton branch, was in the chair, and called upon Rev. Dr. Warner, principal of Alma College, for an address, in which he congratulated the Hamilton daughters on their fine organization, their energy and zeal on behalf of Alma Mater. This was followed by an address by Rev. Dr. Williamson, who is the only minister living who was a member of the original Board of Management and who is now on the board, except Rev. Dr. Carman. He was delighted with the present gathering of Alma Daughters, and believed a great future was before the college.

The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fotts, read greetings from the London branch. Miss Sisk, a former preceptress, now of Toronto, gave an excellent address, at the same time conveying the greetings of the Toronto branch. She said the Alma Daughters was organized in the college, Feb. 5, 1901. Now there are four branches, St. Thomas, London, Toronto and the youngest of the group, Hamilton. While the daughters were not organized for financial purposes, they had erected the beautiful fence in front of the college at a cost of $1,200.

Miss Nisbet gave a fine account of how 750 Canadians defeated 3,500 of an invading force at the battle of Stoney Creek, which was perhaps the chief feature in deciding the destiny of the war. She received a hearty vote of thanks for her address and for securing the grounds for the occasion.

the large dining rooms. Rev. R. Whiting, Mrs. H. D. Petrie and Mr. Frank McIlroy were unable to be present during the early part of the afternoon, but were present at a later hour, as with the happy crowd. The company retired about 7 p. m., all voting the reunion a decided success and joining in the college song, "Hurrah for Alma."

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

A little more care should be exercised by the parents of small children who play near the car tracks as according to the motormen's observations the children are becoming more careless and a number of accidents have been averted only by the care of the motormen. On York street a number of small boys make it a practice to play ball near the track and are not straight heavers. They try to throw the ball as many times as possible before the car reaches them and the motormen are complaining of the trouble it causes them.

AQUATIC CARNIVAL.

So many inquiries have been received by the committee in charge of the Aquatic Carnival that it has decided to make arrangements to run excursions from all points on the electric roads leading into Hamilton. Fares are being arranged now, and will be announced later. The Carnival will take place during the Greater Hamilton Exhibition, and as there will be no doubt be a large number of strangers here who will want to take this in, tickets are being gotten out now, so as to give Hamilton people the first opportunity of getting them. They can be had at Anderson's music store, Kennedy's store, James and Robert streets, Walter Howell's drug store, and from members of the 13th Band. No tickets will be sold at the wharf, until after 8 p. m., and not then if the limited number have already been sold, as there will be no crowding on board the boats.

The man of letters who shows the stamp of ill fortune must be enveloped in gloom. Do you suppose that every man in Maine approves of prohibition? No, not by a jug-full.

CITIZENS OF VALLEY TOWN

S. J. Lennard Again President—Committee Appointed.

Dundas, May 14.—The Dundas Citizens' Committee got off to a good start last evening, for its operations for the season of 1909. For three years past this committee has done yeoman's work in improving and beautifying the town's park. There is no end to the work that may yet be done, and the interest and enthusiasm shown at last night's organization meeting shows that the promoters of town and park improvements still mean business. There was a good attendance of citizens, and President S. J. Lennard was in the chair. The chief business of the evening was the reading of the financial report of last year's operations by the President. This report showed that the receipts amounted to $1,626.28; expenditure $1,667.94; leaving a balance of $18.34.

The correctness of the report was certified by the auditors, W. R. Saunders and W. F. Moore. The election of officers and directors for the ensuing season was next proceeded with, the officers elected being: President—S. J. Lennard. Vice-President—Reeve Lawson. Secretary—John Sawyer. Treasurer—G. C. Wilson. The directors elected were: Deputy Reeve Spittal, Councillor Boyle, Col. Grafton, Bandmaster Thornton, Dr. Bertram, Dr. Smith, T. W. Whalley, C. H. Frost, Fire Chief Knowles, Street Foreman Hyatt, J. Ross Buckley, James Kirwin, H. G. Smith, Ernest Paquet, Robt. Arthur, A. S. Parker, F. C. G. Minty, F. D. Suter, Thos. M. Stock, W. H. Bates, W. H. Rusby, J. R. Murray, W. W. Forsythe, F. J. Cummings, Thos. Earlight, Jas. B. Bertram, R. H. Findlay. At a meeting of the Directors it was decided that seven should form a quorum.

An Executive Committee was appointed, consisting of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and another, to be selected from the directors, three to form a quorum, and the committee to have power, the same as last year, to vote any sum not exceeding $50, for any desired purpose, without consulting the directorate.

Last year's Auditors, Principals Saunders and Moore, were re-appointed. A very hearty vote of thanks was given the Ladies' Auxiliary for their valuable assistance last season, especially in furnishing and making improvements to the much prized log cabin. Their assistance was also desired for the present season. A discussion of some length took place regarding "ways and means." Some appointment was expressed that the Town Council was averse to the Mayor's desire to have all the band concerts for the coming season in the park, the Mayor's desire being to popularize the park as a citizen's resort, and the Citizens' Committee to take advantage of the concerts to sell grand stand tickets and refreshments. As this scheme had been practically "quered" by the Council, a proposal to hold concerts, given by the 77th Band and other outside bands, was talked of, but nothing definite decided upon, more than to authorize the Executive Committee to make arrangements for such concerts if found practicable. After deciding to hold a consultation with representatives from the four athletic associations of the town, with regard to the use of the dressing rooms, etc., at the park, the meeting adjourned. It should be mentioned that the expenditure of last year included an outlay of $202.25 on the log cabin. The funeral of the late Charles Sturrock takes place at 3.30 p. m. on Sunday, it having been postponed a day to enable a daughter from Calgary to be present.

AMUSEMENTS

New York, May 14.—Once more it is possible to anticipate the directors of the New Theatre in the dissemination of news relative to the conduct of their big enterprise by stating that Louis Calvert, one of England's best known players, has been engaged as one of the stage producers and actors.

A contract was entered into between Winthrop Ames and the veteran Calvert during Mr. Ames' recent visit to London. Calvert was offered an engagement of two years, but at his own suggestion the term of office was reduced to one.

He will arrive in America about the middle of July and take active charge in August, preparatory to the opening of the New Theatre early in November. His duties are limited strictly to the production of classical plays—Shakespearean and old English comedies. He has agreed also to appear personally during the season in four roles, two of which are to be selected by himself. He already has nominated as the roles of his choice those of Sir Peter Teazle and Caliban.

MELODRAMA TO-NIGHT. "Shadows of a Great City," one of the best plays of the kind seen here will be offered at the Grand to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening, with an excellent cast and staged in the same magnificent manner that has always characterized its presentation. It is a play much above the average of those seen at popular prices. The view of East River, New York, with its river of real water, with boats moving about, is as near realism as it is possible to produce.

"AN ENGLISHMAN'S HOME."

The much talked of "An Englishman's Home" will be shown to local playgoers on Wednesday and Thursday of next week at the Grand. Major Guy du Maurier's play will be given its first presentation in this city under the direction of Charles Frohman by the same English company with which the piece was first offered at the Criterion Theatre in New York. That its influence has been greater upon the English people than that of any other drama in their history, it is said, there can be little doubt. It has served to awaken a new interest in nothing else could have done, and has accomplished for the British army and navy what even the Boer war failed to do. Mr. Charles Frohman has given the play an unusually fine production, and is presenting it with an English company of remarkable quality. Although the entire production requires but one setting, and that an interior, the scenic equipment of the play is unusually interesting, as it shows the almost total demolition of a home by fire and shell. Certainly nothing more realistic than the burning roof of this dwelling and the falling walls have been shown in many a play.

BURKE MADE GOOD.

London, May 12 (C. A. P.)—Mr. Edmund Burke, the Canadian baritone, whose singing at the Royal Opera, The Hague, has created much interest in musical circles during the last year, received an ovation yesterday, when he appeared at Alva Bateman's recital in Aeolian Hall. On May 24th, Mr. Burke, at Queen's Hall, with Patti, Santley and Muriel Foster.

"A BROKEN IDOL."

"A Broken Idol," which has just terminated its long and successful engagement at Manager Whitney's home of musical comedy in Chicago—the Whitney Opera House—is announced as the attraction at the Grand next Saturday. The leading songs were sung by Hal Stephens, Williams and Van Alstyne. The company, headed by Otis Harlan, will be brought here in its entirety, and the production down to the smallest detail is typical of B. C. Whitney, and is said to be the best effort of Gus Soblike from a spectacular standpoint.

WONDERFUL BOY ORGANIST.

Reference from the Edinburgh Scotsman and Toronto Globe speak eloquently for the phenomenal abilities of Master Ernest MacMillan as organist. The Edinburgh paper contained the following:

"A remarkable performance on the organ was given in Fountain Hall Road United Free Church last night by a Canadian boy, E. A. C. MacMillan. The youthful organist made himself responsible for the performance of a program of music which might be considered a severe test of ability by an old and experienced player. His performance showed him to be possessed of rare musical talent in the case of one so young, amounting almost to genius." In the Toronto Globe is a reference to the opening of the new organ in Westminster Church. The principal numbers were contributed by Ernest MacMillan, A. R. C. O., the youthful organist of Knox Church, whose reappearance after the completion of a comprehensive course of study in Scotland, was awaited with keen interest. All his numbers were interpreted in a manner which left no room for doubt as to the artistic development of the boy prodigy of a few years ago."

Master MacMillan will give an organ recital in St. John Presbyterian Church on Tuesday the 18th at 8 p. m. The tickets for admission are 15 cents.

Mrs. YULISSE HARRISON.

Grimby, May 14.—(Special)—Before a capacity church and all the music-loving citizens of her home town, Beamsville, Winona and Hamilton, Mrs. Yulisse Harrison scored last night a decided triumph. She made a splendid effort to please in all her selections, and they were crowned with success. That her fine soprano voice has lost none of its purity or freshness, and that it captivated the immense audience to a recall on each occasion, would be putting it mildly. The assisting artists also did nobly, and the concert altogether was enlivened with a halo of success.

Call a fellow a bird and he will never stop to consider that you might think him a jay. The only people who really seem to enjoy living close to nature are those who don't have to.

GRIM TRAGEDY OF OLD LAKE ONTARIO.

that he was sorry for any mistakes he had made in business in the past.

While believed to be under temporary mental depression he left his home on Tuesday, early in the afternoon, and walked to the beach, and apparently deliberately took his own life. For some days past business men who have had dealings with him have noticed a peculiar absent-mindedness about him, and a persistency in referring to certain things, in conversation, which had already been disposed of. He was seen on Van Wagner's Beach about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. He was walking past the school house here, and this same absent-mindedness was very marked. He did not look where he was going, and ran into one of the school children, Eva, daughter of Mr. Lutz. Placing his hand upon her head, he spoke to her and then continued his walk.

From then on until nearly 7 o'clock that night he was seen by the fishermen walking up and down the beach, and appeared to be deeply preoccupied. For a while he stood and watched one of the gasoline fishing boats and the somberness of his face impressed itself upon the fishermen so that they easily remembered him. Harvey and Roy Lutz were the last to see the unfortunate man. About 6.45 p. m. on Tuesday they were walking along the Beach road when they noticed him sitting on the sand near the shore. He had a very depressed look, they said, and was bowed down as though crushed with overwhelming grief. No words were passed, and the two boys continued on to their homes.

The place where the coat and valise were found is about a quarter of a mile past Colonel Van Wagner's residence, near the intersection of the Beach and Stoney Creek roads. It is not expected that much difficulty will be experienced in recovering the body, as that part of the lake into which he is supposed to have walked is free from currents, and there has been very little wind since Tuesday. One experienced fisherman gave it as his opinion that the body

ST. A. BROTHERHOOD

Mr. J. A. Catto, of Toronto, Addressed Meeting Here.

The regular meeting of the Hamilton Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held in St. Thomas' Church school room last night, and there was a fair attendance of delegates from Hamilton, Burlington and Stoney Creek Chapters. Mr. H. E. McLaren, president, occupied the chair, and an address of welcome was delivered by Rev. E. J. Etherington, rector of St. Thomas' Church. He spoke of the excellent work being done by the Brotherhood, and emphasized that it was not numbers that the Brotherhood required, it was quality. Reports were received from the secretaries of the various chapters, Church of Ascension Chapter announced that it will hold Sunday night meetings on the Wood Market square during the summer.

Mr. A. G. Alexander, President of the Dominion Council, stated that no Dominion convention will be held this year, but instead a number of district conferences will take place. The first will be held at Orangeville on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 22, 23 and 24—and he strongly urged all the local members who possibly can attend to do so. Canon Cody, Toronto, will be one of the speakers.

A very interesting and helpful address was delivered by Mr. James A. Catto, of Toronto, a member of the Dominion Council. He spoke particularly of the motto of the Brotherhood—work and pray.

A PAGE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Story of Robber Fox

RIGHT back in the month of May, many months ago now, Robber Fox woke up one evening with a bad temper and a good appetite, and as for his appetite, well, he had taken a short stroll in the cool evening breeze that only got worse. Thousands of white-tailed rabbits were busily sniffing the cool air and chasing each other in and out of their holes, and on them Robber Fox fixed his bright, hungry eyes as he crept stealthily forward under the thick bushes. A little way ahead, not more than a dozen yards, there were five fat young rabbits, having no end of a game. They were leaping this way and that way. "One of them will leap my way presently," thought Robber Fox, "and then I'll—"

PRAS-CO-VE WAS STANDING NEAR

JUST 100 years ago this time there lived a little girl of 10, whose name was Pras-co-ve. Pras-co-ve's father was a political exile and having been banished from St. Petersburg, was now leading a wretched existence in cold Siberia, and with him were his gentle, delicate wife and little daughter, Pras-co-ve.

THE COURT LACKEYS SAID "GO AWAY"

Rabbit, who was still looking toward the roof with his ears standing right up straight and twitching nervously. "Do you hear anything?" he asked. Mrs. Rabbit listened, and presently her two ears grew as bright with light as it's a wonder they didn't light up like the dark burrow like a pair of candles. "Oh, yes, Rabbit," she cried. "Robber Fox! And he's digging down to steal our two little ones presently, and then—"

POOR, TEARFUL PRAS-CO-VE!

Many strange adventures the brave little girl had on the long journey from Tobolsk to St. Petersburg. Five miles from home, she had a narrow escape from the wolves, and owed her rescue to a trained bear, which was wandering in the vicinity, and grabbing her across between his teeth, swam with her across a lake to a safe place.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM WOLVES

And that was the beginning of happiness for Pras-co-ve. What do you suppose? Why, the jay was the Duchess, who was the Empress's favorite sister, and when she learned from Pras-co-ve that the child wished to see the Empress, she took her straight into the Palace, and there the brave little girl told her story and made her plea for her father and mother.

THE LADY WAS THE EMPRESS SISTER

Before many weeks Pras-co-ve had the joy of welcoming her father and mother back to St. Petersburg, and from that time on they were a happy, prosperous family.

Story About Dominoes

WITH regard to the game of dominoes there is a very interesting story connected with its origin. It runs thus: There were two monks who had been committed to the penalty of a long seclusion, and were condemned to keep absolute silence. To relieve the monotony they played a game by showing each other small flat stones marked with black dots. By a well-understood arrangement the monk whose hand was used at first informed the other player by repeating in an undertone the first line of the vesper hymn, "Cantate Domino" ("Sing unto the Lord").

Plays Violin Without Hands

Frank Clawson, of Atlanta, Ill., is a handless violinist. Many years ago he was caught in a blizzard, and his hands were frozen so badly that amputation was necessary. For a long time his violin was silent, but his love for the instrument inspired him to experiment, and he now is able to play it as well as the hands of a popular all through Italy and from there extended to the whole world.

A Needle-and-Thread Tree

The Mexican mayague tree furnishes a needle and thread. The tip of each dark green leaf is a slender thorn needle that must be carefully drawn out. The thread is a long, strong, smooth fibre attached to the needle and capable of being drawn out to a great length.

Your Pets in June

IF YOU have canaries in your house you will be interested to know that if the canary gives signs of leaving again before her first brood have been reared, you should not delay providing her with plenty of nesting material, or she will very likely commence plucking the feathers from her young to line the nest.

May Rain Healthy

In Germany, during the month of May, hundreds of children run about the streets without hats on when it rains, as it is generally believed that May rain is most healthy, and that when it falls on their bare heads the children will grow quicker and gain in strength.

The Seismograph

THIS is the picture of the seismograph—the earthquake foreteller—which was first put into use by the Japanese in 1881, and has since been adopted by all nations. Every oscillation of the earth, no matter how slight, causes the needle in this instrument to scratch a line on a plate of glass, whose surface is covered with a thin film of lampblack.

The Last Straw

IT was Saturday night, and owing to the temporary absence of his wife, it fell to Mr. Brown to attend to the usual process of giving his eight-year-old son a bath and putting him to bed. He had left his evening paper with a man's reluctance, and had hurried matters along with more speed than the little chap was accustomed to. However, he endured it all without a protest until it came to the prayer. It was his habit after "Now I lay me," to ask the Divine blessing upon a long list of relatives and friends, calling each by name.

The Cougling Bean

WHEN you have heard of the pitcher plant that captures unwary insects and eats them, and we have been beguiled by the tales of the singing tree, you never heard of any product of the tropics more strange than the cougling bean. This bean is not the product of an excited imagination, the fantasy of a vision-painting-magician, but a very material cougling fact. What makes the bean cougling, either that, handling was a pain distasteful to her, and that a case was quite too wretched an affair for her to honor with her presence.

A Jolly Game

BOOKBINDERS is a game described by Mrs. Kingsland. The leader stands in the centre of a circle. Each one holds out his hands, palms upward, and upon them a book is placed. The leader then goes around the circle, catching up the books in turn, and trying with each book to strike the hands that hold it.

Boys' Life Brigade

A VERY original and useful organization for boys which is making great headway in the Sunday-schools of Great Britain is the Boys' Life Brigade. This picture shows a company of the brigade boys at fire drill. A temporary house, has been erected, and some boys are shown in the act of scaling it with ladders, and having away imaginary burning rafters with fire axes, while other boys are seen carrying from the burning building imaginary inmates whom they are supposed to have rescued.

PLEASE DO NOT HANDLE

WHEN Sylvia was brought to us she was hardly more than a baby, and one of the prettiest babies I ever saw. She was a gray squirrel, with a saucy, frisking, bushy tail and lovely, big, dark eyes—two marks of beauty highly esteemed in squirrels. If Sylvia was only a baby, she was a very independent one, with a strong will of her own, which she first manifested by stating firmly, not very loudly, either, that handling was a most distasteful to her, and that a case was quite too wretched an affair for her to honor with her presence.

The Art of Walking on One's Head

YOU boys and girls have all been to show above and seen trained dogs walk on their hind legs, and you know that it required long and difficult practice for them to learn the trick. You and I, of course, walk on our two legs with ease. But you must remember that the human race has had 6000 years of practice to make it perfect in the art of walking. Perhaps 6000 years ago human beings found it as difficult as dogs do now to walk on two extremities.

and were born in Denmark. When they were tiny little boys they began this practice of not only standing on their heads, but walking, as it were, on their heads; that is, making little hops or bounds from point to point until they reached whatever destination they had in view. In the great amusement and admiration of their playmates.

THE ART OF WALKING ON ONE'S HEAD

They kept up the practice as they grew older and decided to make their living by exhibiting their skill in it. Finally, when they came of age, they decided to "do" Europe in this remarkable manner. So they started out from their Danish home and walked on their heads from town to town until at last they reached Paris.

Suppose I ask you: Is there any other way for you and me to make our bodies travel than by using our legs? Most people would certainly say, "No." But a good many people in Europe have found out otherwise, for they have seen the two young men who are now astonishing Paris by going around easily and rapidly on their heads.

BUT TO STAND ON ONE'S HEAD AND RUN AN AUTOMOBILE IS STILL MORE REMARKABLE

They are brothers, about 25 years old, and were born in Denmark. When they were tiny little boys they began this practice of not only standing on their heads, but walking, as it were, on their heads; that is, making little hops or bounds from point to point until they reached whatever destination they had in view. MR. REAUME BROKE FAITH.

Mr. Brodeur on Publication of Fisheries Regulations.

Sam. Hughes Speaks on Imperial Unity and Defence.

T. J. Stewart and Management of the Foresters' Funds.

Ottawa, May 13.—Progress with the legislative programme, nearing completion, was impeded in the Commons today by a desire evinced on the part of some members to record their views upon the questions in which they are particularly interested.

The House derived entertainment from listening to Colonel Sam Hughes beat his annual tattoo on the Imperialist drum. The gallant member for Victoria and Haliburton takes his advocacy of a full partnership union very seriously, and though tolerably familiar now, his reflections upon the empire and Canada's place in the universe had all the piquancy which marks the Colonel's utterances. He talked of "top-penny-hat-penny" republics and of the foolish fad of Goldenism, and in picturesque language built up an empire of partner States, each having its own Parliament, but also having representation in an Imperial Parliament, and contributing proportionately to an Imperial navy and an Imperial army. The problem of finding an equal basis of representation in the Imperial Parliament for the colonies, who informed Hon. Mr. Lemieux that he believed in representation according to population.

"What about the color line?" inquired Hon. Mr. Fielding.

"That is another issue," replied Col. Hughes. "But I have never yet seen any reason why a decent colored man who becomes a good citizen and pays his taxes should not receive as much consideration as an anarchist."

"Have you heard of an agitation in British Columbia?" put in Mr. Fielding.

"There was no agitation there against Hindus," declared the Colonel.

"Perhaps it was all here," replied the Finance Minister, amid laughter.

Continuing, Colonel Hughes claimed that Canada was beginning to realize the unfairness of looking to the British taxpayer to pay for our defence, and ridiculed the idea that Britain could preserve the peace of the world by relying on the good-will of other nations. Britain must retain the supremacy of the seas, and he was convinced that a full partnership union would secure that and effectually ward off Germany.

As no one seemed anxious to go to the support of Colonel Hughes, Sir Wilfrid Laurier ventured the suggestion that, as the subject was too big to discuss fully so late in the session, the resolution might be withdrawn, and after a few observations by Major Currie the Colonel accepted the suggestion.

Ontario's Breach of Faith. Mr. Taylor (New Westminster), in discussing the Fisheries in British Columbia, raised a hornet's nest about his ears by referring to a printed document which, he explained, contained the regulations concluded between the United States and Canada with reference to the protection of food fishes in water contiguous to the United States and Canada.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur asked where he got the document.

Mr. Taylor replied that it had been issued by the Government of Ontario.

"These regulations were given to the Minister of Public Works in Ontario in confidence," said Mr. Brodeur, "and if he has made them public I cannot qualify his conduct."

Mr. Taylor explained that the regulations were published in the United States press.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur asked to see the document. It was entitled, "International regulations, restrictions and provisions for the protection and preservation of food fishes in waters contiguous to the United States and Canada, prepared pursuant to the convention concluded between the United States and His Majesty King Edward VII., April 11, 1908, at the International Fisheries Commission, appointed and selected by the said convention."

The document bore the inscription that it was printed for the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

Mr. Brodeur said the regulations had not been finally decided upon, but a draft of the proposed regulations had been supplied to the Minister of Public Works, marked "private and confidential," and in publishing it the Ontario Government had been guilty of a grave breach of faith. Besides, it was a most unfair presentation of the case.

Messrs. Henderson and Blain assumed the role of apologists for the Ontario Government, and sought to assure the Minister of Marine and Fisheries that the Minister of Public Works could never be guilty of such conduct as had been imputed to him, but Mr. Brodeur pointed out that the printed document spoke for itself.

It was not until 11:20 that the House got into supply.

I. O. F. MANAGEMENT CRITICISED. Mr. Stewart, of Hamilton, drew the attention of the Government to a feature of the Independent Order of Foresters' management that, he thought, deserved the attention of the insurance department. Since 1905, he said, $60,000 had been taken from the mortuary fund, from the contingency account and from the sick and funeral expenses fund and used for current expenses. But any expression of public opinion was stifled by a rule of the Supreme Court that any member criticising any action of the Supreme Court without the consent of the High Chief Ranger was liable to expulsion from the order. In one instance this rule had been actually enforced against Mr. Gage, of Hamilton, though he had been subsequently reinstated. A copy of the judgment had been sent to all lodges as a warning to recalcitrant members. Mr. Stewart noted that in the evidence taken before the Insurance Commission the late Supreme Chief Ranger, Dr. Oronhyatקה, had asserted that the Supreme Court could take all the funds of the order if the court saw fit and the Government could not interfere.

All the public works estimates and a number of supplementary appropriations were passed before adjournment.

USE OF OLD FORT. Mr. Foster asked whether there was any proposal to use the grounds of the Old Fort at Toronto for street car purposes.

the hands of the city of Toronto. The plan of restoration would be filed with the Government before any action was taken.

TOMLINSON'S DEATH

Growing Belief in St. Thomas That Man Was Murdered.

St. Thomas, May 13.—Detective Greer has made little headway in solving the mystery surrounding the death of William Tomlinson, a M. C. R. machinist's helper, whose body was found buried in a sandpit in Kettle Creek, below the M. C. R. bridge, last Friday. Harry Walden, who knew the deceased, says he saw Tomlinson on the day before the body was found, which dispels the theory that the body had been in the water over a week, and had been washed upon the sandpit when found. It also deepens the mystery of how, surmising that death was accidental, his head and legs came to be covered with sand in less than twenty-four hours.

The Crown authorities firmly believe that the wounds on the deceased's head and the injury to the abdomen were not caused by the accident, but that the man was murdered somewhere in the city or the outskirts, carried to the creek and buried in the sand, but that the rising water washed off some sand and exposed the body to view.

SUNG THEM DOWN.

Disorder at a Socialist Meeting in New Zealand.

Wellington, New Zealand, May 13.—Mr. R. McNab, formerly Minister of Defence, who is stumping the country, advocating compulsory military training, addressed a crowded meeting here tonight. The Socialists and ultra-Radical Laborites endeavored to pack the meeting. The speakers were refused a hearing and the utmost disorder reigned. The Socialists sang "The Red Flag" and the Loyalists drowned out the chorus with "Rule Britannia," "Boys of the Bulldog Breed," and other patriotic songs.

At the finish some one started the National Anthem, which, amid intense excitement, was sung with a patriotic fervor seldom heard, even in New Zealand. The Socialists are in a decided minority in the colony, which is solidly in favor of the Dreadnought offer. It is believed the attitude of the Socialists will stimulate the majority of the people to favor compulsory training.

MR. KELLY'S DENIAL. A sensation prevailed when Mr. Kelly put in writing immediately the accusation he has just made. I declare here that this accusation is false. There was not a question of a single lot, and I can bring here Hon. Senator Edwards to prove it. I say, sir, that if the member for Terrebonne placed in writing on the table of the House the charge he has made and that if I do not prove it is a calumny I will not only resign, but I will never enter politics again.

Mr. Provost argued against having to make the declaration in writing. Then the Premier read the rules showing that if the members agree any member making a charge against another may be asked by the Speaker to put it in writing.

Mr. Provost said he had nothing to withdraw, and if the member for Bonaventure wanted an investigation he would vote for it and would prove his charge before the Committee on Privileges and Elections. Premier Gouin also insisted on the declaration being written out immediately.

Englishman on the Teutonic Lost His Mental Balance.

New York, May 13.—William J. Hawke, of St. Austie, Cornwall, was confined in the hospital of the Teutonic when she arrived in this port today from Liverpool. Hawke was accompanied by his brother, George E. Hawke, and the first two days out was very seasick. Sunday night he started through the boat's cabin, informing everyone that New York had been reached, and in many ways acting strangely. He was put under the care of the boat's surgeon, Dr. Fleming, but had not recovered his mental balance when the boat docked.

He was taken to Ellis Island, where his physician hopes that a few days of quiet will restore his health and he will be able to continue his journey to Chicago.

BIG SQUABBLE IN QUEBEC.

Mr. Provost Becomes a Critic of the Government.

Mr. Kelly's Reply to Mr. Provost's Charges.

Provost Makes a Declaration in Writing of His Charges.

Quebec, May 13.—The Quebec Legislative Assembly is the scene of passionate debate these days. One of the disturbing elements is the ex-Minister of Colonization, Hon. J. B. Provost, who has fore sworn his Liberal principles and formed an alliance with the Conservative and National factions against the Gouin Government. The member for the county of Terrebonne was forced to resign from the Gouin Government, and seizes every opportunity to demonstrate his personal feeling against the Premier, Sir Lomer Gouin. The words "liar and coward" were hurled across the floor of the house at an early hour this morning by Mr. John Hall Kelly, member for Bonaventure, in answer to allegations made by Mr. Provost, who insinuated that Mr. Kelly had profited by a sale of limits purchased by a syndicate headed by Senator W. C. Edwards. The incident arose from a six hours' speech previously delivered by Mr. Kelly on the question of Crown lands and the evils of speculation by men who obtained loans for colonization purposes taken from the profits sold by the Government to lumber firms, in which Ontario as well as Quebec lumber merchants were interested.

Mr. Kelly, in the course of his speech, charged Mr. Provost with the direct responsibility of speculation while he was Minister of Colonization. The member for Bonaventure, speaking directly to Mr. Provost, declared that in 1896 Mr. T. A. Christian, agent of Crown lands, had written to Mr. Provost's department while the latter was Minister and informed him of the whole plan of the Miquelon speculation in Nominique.

Another letter, Mr. Kelly claimed, giving details of the transaction, was written on March 4th. Two days after Mr. Provost's department wired Mr. Christian, the agent, to sell the lots to Miquelon and his men. "How is it," demanded Mr. Kelly, "that this speculation went through with the honorable member's sanction and under his responsibility? How is it that the member for Bonaventure, speaking on Crown land lots that this Province has seen since decades went through when you were Minister? How is it that you who pretend to be the settlers' friend consented to this?"

"Parliamentary rules do not permit me to give the reason why nor the injury to the abdomen were not in the letter of the Rev. Mr. Moullet. The facts are before the House, and the members can appreciate them."

This startling charge was repeatedly interrupted by loud protests and repeated points of order from Mr. Provost, but Mr. Kelly continued. Mr. Provost, responding, made the following startling charge against the member for Bonaventure:

"That Mr. Kelly had for two years agitated in the Legislature to secure the operation of the Robitaille limits; that during the whole of that time a man named Leblanc had been operating a mill worth $60,000, and was cutting a very large quantity of timber on the limits without having any timber license; that this man Leblanc and the Crown lands agent of the district had secured upwards of sixty lots in the names of pretended settlers; that the man Leblanc purchased the Barachois, or said banks, at the mouth of the Bonaventure River; that when W. C. Edwards & Company purchased the Robitaille limit they were more or less forced to purchase Leblanc's interest in the mill in the Barachois and in the settlers' lots; that immediately the said lots were abandoned and fell back into the limits; that W. C. Edwards & Company paid $150,000 for this purpose, and that Mr. Kelly received a certain amount out of that sum."

MR. KELLY'S DENIAL. A sensation prevailed when Mr. Kelly put in writing immediately the accusation he has just made. I declare here that this accusation is false. There was not a question of a single lot, and I can bring here Hon. Senator Edwards to prove it. I say, sir, that if the member for Terrebonne placed in writing on the table of the House the charge he has made and that if I do not prove it is a calumny I will not only resign, but I will never enter politics again.

Mr. Provost argued against having to make the declaration in writing. Then the Premier read the rules showing that if the members agree any member making a charge against another may be asked by the Speaker to put it in writing.

Mr. Provost said he had nothing to withdraw, and if the member for Bonaventure wanted an investigation he would vote for it and would prove his charge before the Committee on Privileges and Elections. Premier Gouin also insisted on the declaration being written out immediately.

Finally Mr. Kelly arose and said: "Mr. Provost has made an accusation against me. I am going to make a statement which I will have to withdraw, but I say that if the member for Terrebonne does not make the declaration in writing he is an infamous liar and a coward."

Mr. Kelly repeated these words three times, when the Speaker checked him and said he must not make such a statement.

Every effort was made by the Ministerialists to force Mr. Provost to make his declaration in writing, but he hesitated, and finally said he would make it this evening. This was at 3 o'clock in the morning, and the House shortly afterwards adjourned, Mr. Provost still having the floor.

Hon. J. B. Provost concluded his speech to-night at 11 o'clock, when he made a written declaration against the member for Bonaventure.

A STATEMENT IN WRITING. The House was crowded when Mr. Provost made his declaration, and the utmost silence prevailed, but the least disturbed was the young member for Bonaventure, who takes the charges lightly and is emphatic in his denial. A discussion followed that lasted until after midnight, with the result that the declaration was held over for consideration until to-morrow.

In the meantime Mr. Kelly has received the following telegram from Senator Edwards of Ottawa: "You have my authority to state to the Premier and in the Legislature, if you so desire, that the charges made against you yesterday by Mr. Provost, as reported in The Montreal Gazette, are absolutely without foundation, as far as I have knowledge. (Signed) Wm. C. Edwards."

National-Liberals and Radicals Withdrew From German Reichstag.

Berlin, May 13.—The Reichstag committee which had been discussing the new tax bills held an exciting session today on the subject of the tobacco taxes, Chairman Parnache, National Liberal, having been overruled on a point of order, resigned. The National Liberals and the Radicals then withdrew. The incident apparently is a death blow to the Government's bloc, although under the German constitution it is not necessary for the Government to have a majority in the Reichstag. Chancellor von Bülow, about a year ago, refused to continue in office unless given the support of a majority of the members.

The Steamer Tunisian Damaged by an Iceberg.

Montreal, May 13.—A marconigram was to-day received by the Allan Line from Captain Fairfull, of the Tunisian, stating that that vessel had suffered an accident almost similar to that which recently befell the Lake Champlain, and that he had been compelled to put into St. John's, Newfoundland, for safety. The Tunisian, while steaming slowly, inward bound, through a heavy field of ice, struck an unusually heavy mass, and started a plate under her forepeak. The broken plate was quite a heavy leak, and Captain Fairfull considered it his duty to head at once for St. John's, which was only sixty miles distant. The vessel will be overhauled there, and if it is found that she has sustained serious injuries the passengers will be forwarded from St. John's across Newfoundland to Port Basque by rail, thence by the Reid Newfoundland Company's boat to Sydney, where they will be taken by special trains to St. John, N. B., and Montreal.

This is the third accident the Allan Line has suffered of late, and the quantity of navigation, the Corinthian and Siberian having both met with mishaps.

PRINTING CONTRACT

Provincial Government Makes Five-Year Contract For Work.

Methodist Book Room and Harcourt & Co. Get the Work.

Toronto, May 14.—The contract for Provincial printing for the five years from July 1 next has been awarded to the Methodist Book Room, while the contract for the ruling, printing and binding for a like period is awarded to the firm of E. H. Harcourt & Company. The contracts were in both cases awarded to the lowest tenderer.

Hon. A. J. Matheson, who made the announcement, said the Province would save approximately $25,000 per annum on the new contracts over the existing figures. The tenders, he added, were remarkably close in the aggregate, and the Government experienced considerable difficulty in determining the lowest offer. In all six tenders were received. The present contract with the firm of Warwick Bros. & Rutter terminates on June 30.

Under the new system adopted, the contract—hitherto a bulk one—is subdivided into five branches. The first of these comprises the printing of the orders of the day, votes and proceedings, bills, statutes, and bindings; the second embodies the department reports, sessional papers, Parliamentary returns and bulletins; the third, the printing of the Gazette; the fourth, job work, pamphlets, forms, circulars, etc., and the fifth, the ruling, printing and binding of blank books.

The first four go to the Methodist Book Room and the fifth to the Harcourt firm.

The syndicate last year were much impressed by the possibilities of farming irrigated lands and it may be they will purchase in the vicinity of Lethbridge, or if they decide

LAST CALL TO VETERAN.

W. L. Jamieson Died Yesterday—Sam Wilkinson's Death

William Leslie Jamieson, best known in Hamilton as the veteran night watchman, but in his day a brave defender of his country, lies cold in death at the family residence, 284 East avenue north, and on Sunday afternoon next his body will be laid away in a hero's grave.

Jamieson heard the last call yesterday, after an illness of about two months.

Deceased was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, 75 years ago, and entered the army when a boy. He saw active service throughout the Crimean war, serving at Inkerman, Sebastopol, Balaclava and Alma, and won the clasp for personal bravery.

When but 32 or 33 years old Mr. Jamieson procured his discharge and came to Canada. He engaged as night watchman in this city in 1867, and followed that occupation until age and infirmity compelled his retirement only a few weeks ago. He retained his soldier's pride and his erect bearing and outspoken manner to the end.

Deceased was one of the oldest members of Commercial Lodge, Canadian Order of Oddfellows, and also belonged to the K. O. T. M. For some time he was identified with H. M. Army and Navy Veterans. He is survived by a widow, two sons, John Leslie and William Walker, and one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hill, all of this city.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock on Sunday.

Many friends in this city will regret the death, which took place in Chicago, yesterday, of Mr. Samuel Wilkinson, for many years a resident of this city, and a long time chief clerk in the old grocery business of Sewell Brothers, James street north. Mr. Wilkinson was a very popular man here. He was 51 years of age, and was the only surviving brother of Frank Wilkinson, Mount-ain top. Interment will take place in Chicago.

The death of George Hagarty, which occurred at his residence, Walmer road, Toronto, on Tuesday, was the end of a long and tedious illness, and is deeply regretted by all. Only a few weeks ago the family was saddened by the sudden illness and death of a son-in-law, Mr. R. Morton Jones, at Lethbridge, after a few months of married life. Mr. Hagarty was the second son of the late Chief Justice Sir John Hagarty. Mrs. Hagarty was Miss Gates, of this city.

The funeral of Mary O'Brien took place from her late residence, Red Hill, to St. Patrick's Church, thence to Holy Sepulchre cemetery, this morning. Rev. Father Walsh said mass and Rev. Father Coy officiated at the grave. The pallbearers were John McMahon, Jeremiah McMahon, J. O'Brien, B. O'Brien, Robert Lewis, and Michael Joyce.

Gossip and Comment

Talk about your long priced winners. They are getting them daily in the Louisville mutuels.

Some London scribes are evidently sore because no promoter has given the city-in-the-woods a sample of long distance racing.

"There is one thing needed to make Tom Longboat a great runner, so far as we can size up the situation from the sentimental stuff in a Toronto paper regarding the recent Marathon Derby.

R. L. Goldberg, cartoonist humorist baseball writer of the New York Mail who now and then shoots over to the pugilistic side of the dope nearly had a fit the other day when he heard that a bunch of French sports after the battle between McVey and Jeanette, two negroes, in Paris, recently jumped over the ropes and smacked one of the negroes full on the mouth with a score of kisses.

"There's no accounting for tastes, as the old woman said when she kissed the cow. Which may be classed as old stuff by the critic with the penetrating lime-juice gaze, but fits very snugly into the French idea of fistic enthusiasm.

"After Joe Jeanette's spectacular defeat of Sam McVey one day in Paris a bevy of well Frenchmen jumped through the ropes and imprinted passionate kisses upon the state-colored cheeks of Dan McKettrick's champion.

"Just dwell a few short moments upon the idea of kissing Kid Broad or Sam Langford or Young Oyama. Wouldn't it muss up the cigars in your grandfather's humidor?"

"But when you consider that the French kiss is equivalent to the American handshake you will not think ill of the fight-loving Parisians. And, after all, some of our own frugal housewives, who have a great many qualities to recommend them for the ideal home life, are not in a class with the mythical beauties of Olympus. If given proper warning you can always deaden the pain with gas."

According to the dope the King's Plate has again dwindled down to a contest among the big three, Seagram, Hendrie and Dymont. Hendrie has the call in the Shimons boom being in full blast, but as usual nobody knows a great deal about the Waterloo candidates, and a whole lot of people who have tried are still firmly of the opinion that you can't beat Seagram.—Toronto Telegram.

Boys, respect the umpire in to-morrow's games.

It will now be in order for Jeffries to issue forth and make an emphatic denial of the story sent out from Chicago to the effect that he intended to wallop Jack Johnson in the jaw the first time he met him. Any one who knows Jeffries knows that he made no such threat. Jeffries is not built on any such lines. He is not a bluffer nor a blackguard, and if he had any notion of punching Johnson when he met him, he is too wise to tell it to newspaper reporters. The whole thing may, therefore, be set down as so much bunk.

The story was evidently put in circulation for the purpose of getting a rise out of Johnson. If that was the purpose of the story it has fallen flat, so far as Johnson is concerned. The big black champion has been around enough lately to be wise as such newspaper fakes. He, no doubt, saw through the scheme as soon as it appeared in print. Jeffries himself, for that matter, would be wasting time in registering a denial of the transparent fake.

Henry Woods, the east side barber, is a disciple of Isaac Walton, and what he can't tell about fishing isn't worth hearing. Yesterday he acted as guide to a small party, one of whom was new to the game. Woods persistently told him to be patient, a good fisherman must have lots of patience, he said. The greenhorn was quite impressed with the lesson, and gave a good imitation of learning the game. He had two hooks on his line, and when the cork disappeared Woods shouted to pull up. The man did not do so, but said he was patient. Woods tried to get the pole, but the man moved it out of his reach, and allowed the line to stay in the water a few minutes. Then he pulled up, with a fish on each hook. "Two at a time is what patience brings," remarked the student to the instructor.

KAISER BEAT A HEAVYWEIGHT.

Jamestown, May 14.—Charles Kaiser, Oswego, former welterweight wrestling champion of the world, defeated Hugh Russell of Chicago, heavyweight wrestling champion of Illinois, here last night, taking two falls out of three. Kaiser took the first fall in 24:25. Russell the second fall in 8:20, and Kaiser the third and deciding fall in 11:06. Frank J. Monahan refereed the match.

OVER 10,000 PRESENT.

Opening Day at Belmont Track.

Betting by the "Nod" System Adopted.

King James Won the Metropolitan.

New York, May 14.—The long-deferred opening of the Metropolitan racing season, which was coupled this year with the running of the classic Metropolitan handicap, passed into-turf history yesterday afternoon with the winning of the blue ribbon event by S. C. Hildreth's fleet colt, King James, from a field of eleven starters.

The betting question looms large in the racing world, and to-day's opening was awaited with much trepidation. The net results of the day were that, under materially altered circumstances, betting of a sort is tolerated. The new form, however, is a sad travesty of the flourishing days of the Percy-Gray law. The layers stood on the concourse in front of the grand stand and in whispers and by nods accepted wagers and gave odds. If the bettor was known to the layer, his bet was accepted with a muttered "you're on." No money was passed—the layer trusted the bettor to search him out after the race and pay him the amount of his wager if he lost, and the bettor, on his part, trusted the bookmaker to look him up in the same fashion and give him his winnings—if he won.

Some of the layers settled outside the grounds after the last race and others on the trains coming back, but most of them put off settling until to-day at appointed quarters in town.

The Metropolitan handicap was won in handy fashion, King James leading the field home by six lengths. The eleven starters got off well with the Hindreth entry, quoted variously at eight to five and two to one, in the lead, closely followed by Nimbus, an added starter. At the far turn, King James forged to the front and from then on the race was his. Fayette was well up all the way, and finished second, nosing out Juggler, who finished a strong third.

Favorites fared badly during the day, only two, King James and Newmarket getting into the money. The other winners, however, all were well played. The field stand, where thousands have assembled in former years for a cheap admission, was closed and this was one of the noticeable omissions of the usual race track features.

Racing will be resumed on Saturday. There will be races but three days a week, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

About 10,000 persons were at the track when the horses were called to the post for the first race and as the thoroughbreds came out of the paddocks with the bright-colored jackets of the jockeys making a vivid picture in the bright sunlight, a great cheer went up. For many months it had been a question as to how the public would accept the changed conditions affecting the making laws, and to-day's attendance was regarded as an indication of continued support from the oldtime patrons of the tracks.

Metropolitan Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, one mile—King James, 125 (C. Burns), 2 to 1; 4 to 3 and 2 to 5; Fayette, 108 (McIntyre), 4 to 1; 8 to 5 and 4 to 5; second, Juggler, 112 (Nicol), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and even, third, Time-140. Half Sovereign, Don Creole, Turncoat, May Davis, Glucose, Footpad and Nimbus also ran. Cowan pulled up.

GALT SHOW JUDGES. Galt, Ont., May 14.—Galt Horse Show directors have chosen the following judges for the forthcoming open-air exhibition: Dr. Sutledge, St. Thomas; Dr. Walsh, Huntington, Que.; Senator Beith, Newmarket; Col. Lessard, Ottawa; J. Bogue, Queensville; M. Gardhouse, Weston; Col. Pratt, Little Rock, Ark.; Julian C. Keith, Warrentown, Va.

A large number of entries have already been received, and the prospects for a record-breaking show are exceptionally bright.

WOODBINE NOTES. Toronto, May 14.—Johnny Flynn got in yesterday morning from Prescott, Ont., with Goes Fast and Col. Zeb. Both horses have wintered well. M. O'Connor, an apprentice, will do the riding for the stable.

Fred Fox was another arrival, with Manzano, Dr. Koch and Cochisa. In the same lot was George Riching's Frank Lord. Jockey Clifford Gilbert may do the riding this season for the Valley Farm stable. Gilbert rode last year on the Newmarket tracks and for Tom Williams on the coast this year. He had a fall on Platoon and was out of the game for some time with a broken collar-bone. He is 18 years of age and his home is in Sioux City, Iowa. "Uncle" Billy Garth, Tod Coles and "Jerome" Sykes ship their stables today from Baltimore. The big Virginian has 17 horses, and Coles and Sykes six each. Mr. R. L. Thomas, whose string is at the Woodbine in charge of Trainer McDaniel, is a big Kentucky "number man. His home is in Paris, but he spends several months of the year in Ford, which is near his lumber camps. He will be here for the entire meeting. Jockey Shilling, who is under contract to the Thomas stable, will be here next Wednesday. Shilling is now in Texas. His mother died last week, whilst the boy was in Louisville. Jockey Trubel will be here in a few days. He is with the Chinn stable, but will not do any riding for some time, as he is still suffering from a broken ankle, received in a race on the coast last winter. Trubel rode for the Seagram stable some years ago, and was quite popular. E. Tribe, Mr. A. B. Dade's assistant, will commence this morning schooling horses between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock at the track. Trainers are advised to take advantage of this, for unless horses are well schooled, particularly two-year-olds, they may not be permitted to start at the meeting.

There were a number of arrivals last night, as follows: George Hendrie's Nat B. Desperado, Loyal Maid, Cumberland, and a half sister to Grande Dame, Michael Angelo, who ran unplaced in the Kentucky Derby, will join the stable in a day or two; Al. Noble's John Dillon, Knox Boy, Amber and Isthmus; W. H. Sherman's Grace Kimball, Awawagang.

WINNERS AT MONTREAL. Montreal, May 14.—Ontario horses swept the board in the jumping class at the second day's session of the Montreal Horse Show yesterday. Crow & Murray's The Wasp captured the blue ribbon. Douglas Young, of Toronto, won the red ribbon with The Minister. Wood Leonard tried to win with Edward and Mr. Amelius Jarvis got the fourth ribbon with Hercules.

Herbert Cox was placed second to Reginald Vandenberg's pair again, with Lord Myrick and St. Albans. Miss K. L. Wilks, of Galt, won third with Black Princess, and All Ablaze. Mrs. Herbert Cox's Jasmine won first in the saddle horse class at the evening performance.

PLAYED 17 INNINGS.

Batting Carnival at Toronto Yesterday.

Victoria Yacht Club Elects Officers.

At Chicago—Chicago and Washington battled for 17 innings yesterday, and the game was called on account of darkness with the score 1 to 1. Manager Cantillon's tactics in the seventeenth inning probably saved his team from defeat. The locals had men on second and third with one out. Manager Sullivan then took himself out of the game and sent in Weldon, a left-handed batter. When Cantillon saw this move he sent Hughes, who was then pitching, to right field and sent in Gray, a left-hander. Sullivan countered by taking out Weldon after he had pitched one ball to him. Then Cantillon tried to withdraw Gray and send Hughes back against Owens, a right-handed hitter. According to the new rule it was up to Gray to finish pitching to the man who was then batting or give a pass. After some heated argument the umpire forced Gray to continue pitching to Owens. He did and passed him. Tannehill was the next man up and Hughes returned to the box, while Ganley went to right field. Tannehill hit to Hughes and Altizer was forced at the plate. White ended the chances with a grounder to Delehanty. White allowed only one hit in the last ten innings. Score: Chicago, A.B.R.H.O.A.E. Hahn, rf, 7 0 2 9 0 0. Dougherty, lf, 4 0 3 0 0 0. "Red" Dooin is Big Bashabazook

Philadelphia, May 14.—Want to know why the Phillies finished so high in the National League race last year and are up there fighting this season? Well, the answer is, Charley Dooin. Dooin is one star backstop, and with Johnny Kling running that 18.2 emporium of his in Kansas City and Roger Bresnahan carrying added weight as manager, is beloved by his friends to be the big bashabazook of the league. Dooin never had a press agent working for him like Kling. When the latter was working for Chicago Murphy always had advance men invading cities ahead of the team with literature and action pictures, to prove that

At Toronto—Jersey City broke loose with their cudgels yesterday, and laced three Toronto pitchers all over the shop. They slammed the ball for fifteen hits, four of them home runs, and as many doubles and a triple slipped in to round the thing out. The Skeeters got twelve runs to Toronto's one. The visitors hit waste balls, high ones, low ones, fast ones, slow ones, through and over the infield, and into and over the bleachers. It was a carnival of clouts, and when the game was irretrievably gone the crowd actually seemed to enjoy the lambasting to which the Toronto pitchers were subjected. On the other hand, the Torontos couldn't hit a flock of captive balloons with a canoe paddle. Score: Jersey City, 12 15 1. Toronto, 1 4 1.

Batteries—Ford and Wood; Connelly, Hickey, McGinley and Vandy.

IN THE NATIONAL. Boston 3, Cincinnati 2. Pittsburgh 6, Philadelphia 4. New York 4, Chicago 1. Brooklyn 2, St. Louis 1.

FOUL TIPS. No games in the Eastern to-day. Ben Houser is hitting the ball right on the nose these days. Toronto has won four of the six games at home and five of the last seven games played.

John Kerdler, acting President of the National League, yesterday suspended Roger Bresnahan, manager of the St. Louis team, for three days for using unbecoming language during the game at Brooklyn, Wednesday.

Tim Hurst, the American League umpire, President of the American League, as a result of his encounter with Kid Elberfeld at American League Park, New York, last week, was reinstated yesterday.

EXPECT TO BREAK RECORDS. It would not surprise those who have been paying strict attention to the work-outs of Percy Sellen and Tom Coley, as well as to the regular manner in which Henri St. Yves has been mowing down everything before him, if every record from one mile to twelve goes by the board when these three speed merchants try conclusions on the night of Wednesday next at Britannia Park.

Tom Coley arrived in Toronto this morning and worked two and a half miles in a manner that plainly shows that he has a world of speed as well as the same old spirit that won for him his middle distance events against Meadows every time they hooked up, and which lowered the colors of Geo. V. Bonahag and Frank Niebrich in Toronto and Buffalo, respectively. It is a pleasure to see how beautifully he works.

SCRAPS OF SPORT

New York, May 14.—Hugo Kelly, who is scheduled for a 45-round fight with Billy Paape, at Colma, Cal., to-morrow afternoon, was last night made favorite among the sporting men along Broadway, who are taking considerable interest in the match. Several bets of large proportions were recorded, making Kelly a 10 to 7 favorite.

Toronto, May 14.—Albert Adamson, of Cambridge, England, is expected to turn out a winner with the Toronto Rowing Club. Since his arrival the oarsmen have caught the fever and are hard at it on the machines at the club's winter quarters on King street. Whether they will have an eight or not will not be decided until the material on hand gets on the water.

Montreal, May 14.—The Marquis of Athol, who is on a visit to Montreal, was last night made honorary president of the St. Andrew's Curling Club in recognition of the hospitality he had extended to the Canadian curlers during their visit to Scotland last winter. He was also the guest of the 5th Royal Highlanders.

The Lord He Served. Judge George F. Lawton, of the Middlesex Probate Court, told me a story the other day of an American minister who was spending his sabbatical year travelling abroad. Arriving in London, he made every effort to get an intimate view of the two branches of Parliament in session. Of course no stranger is allowed on the floor of the House of Lords, but the minister not knowing this, and with the usual amount of American push tried to make his way in. There is a rule, however, that servants of the various lords may be admitted to speak to their masters. Seeing the minister walking boldly in, the doorkeeper asked: "What lord do you serve?" "What lord?" repeated the astonished American, "the lord Jehovah!"

For a moment the doorkeeper hesitated and then admitted him. Turning to an assistant standing near, he said: "He must mean one of those poor Scotch lairds."—From the Boston Record.

AN APPEAL TO MOTHERS.

Gipsy Smith Told Women of Their Responsibility.

Personal Testimony Has a Wonderful Effect.

Excursions Being Run From Outside Points.

Toronto, May 14.—Far back in the top gallery at Massey Hall was an intoxicated man, Gipsy Smith's appeal went home to even his clouded intellect. "You're right," he shouted. An usher moved in his direction, apparently to quiet him, but the missionary's attention was attracted, and he quietly said, "Leave him alone. He has a right to hear."

On another occasion the call came for Christians to confess themselves and to help those still in doubt. All over the hall personal influence was brought to bear, and it was almost pitiable to hear a grey-headed man sob. "What's the good when you can't keep it?" These are two incidents culled from the great meeting now being held. Day by day the mission gathers force. The hall was packed to its capacity last night. Striking was the putting into practice of Gipsy Smith's advice to get out into the streets and preach. More than one sermon was preached by individual workers to little knots of listeners around the hall.

A DEEP APPEAL.

Gipsy Smith swept his audience with his deep appeal. Again he emphasized the personal responsibility and the reward which would follow. "While I am no faddist about faith cure or any other quack," he said, "I say that when you let Jesus Christ save you from the stains of sin you will be on the high-road to eternal health."

Again: "A dead fish can swim with the stream, but it takes a man to breast the tide, look the world in the face, and say, 'Christ for me.'"

To men and women he pressed the home influence of Christ in the family. Particularly did he appeal to the women, for it was they who could best influence the children. "And," he said, "if I were told I could take any section of this audience for Christ I would take the boys and girls, for they have their lives to come. You, mothers, some of you, will have to answer some day before the Great White Throne for the rearing and training of a half-damned child."

PERSONAL TESTIMONY.

People from outside points are commencing to flock in to hear Gipsy Smith. Yesterday afternoon the attendance was increased by the presence of two hundred people from Brantford. To-day three hundred are expected from Hamilton and to-morrow Owen Sound will send a contingent of four hundred. Excursions from London, Woodstock and Paris have also been arranged for.

In the afternoon the missionary spoke on the value of personal testimony. At the outset he mentioned that when first he commenced his evangelical work he was much discouraged by an aged minister who had told him that he would never make a preacher because he was "too quick on the application."

They had, however, the value of personal testimony illustrated in the story of Naaman, the leper Syrian General, and the little Hebrew slave maid. That little girl had said, "I would God, my father, was with the servant of God in Samaria." It was that little testimony which had led to a great conversion. "You're churning, you're little bit of fuss, doesn't amount to a row of pins until you get down to business, until you admit Christ and testify to Him in your daily life. It is far easier," he declared, "to preach to a thousand people than to one soul, but Christ preached the most wonderful things He ever said to individuals, and when you and I get the right spirit we shall see in one person a multitude."

UNLIKELY INSTRUMENTS.

"I have myself again and again been surprised at the unlikely things that God uses in the way of personal testimony." Then he went on to draw instances from the wealth of his experience. He told how while driving in the old country he had dropped a word to the village blacksmith and repented in one of the hamlets through which he passed, and afterwards been surprised to find that man attracted by that stray shot to one of his meetings and converted. A professor in one of the theological colleges in England had emphasized the value of personal testimony, and when asked by his students gathered from city, town and country why he did so, told them to inquire among themselves. They did, and all but two confessed that they had been brought to Christ by some one who had taken them by the hand and looked them in the face.

"You preachers," he rapped, "it will do you good to talk specially to some of your young people about surrender to Christ. And you mothers do it with your child, and if you haven't got religion enough go and get some more."

"Let me give you a peep through the window. Just a glimpse. My dear father was under deep conviction for four or five years, longing for Christ but didn't know the way. We were travelling along one day and there was an old man mending the road. He had his shovel and his barrow and his face was inviting. He had a white muffer round his neck; his corduroys strapped beneath the knee, but his face was a quarter of an acre of sunshine. My father spoke of his trouble, and he said: 'I know what you want; you want Jesus.' We don't know that little man's name, but he helped to do something that day the result of which is on the platform to-day."

DOESN'T WORK BOTH WAYS.

The long bearded orator had gathered a little crowd around him in one of the public parks and was making a fervid political speech.

"Ye'll have to stop that," said one of the sparrow cops, sauntering up to him. "We don't allow that kind of talk in this park, sor!"

"I see!" roared the orator, descending from his soap box. "You want to keep your park system in politics, but you won't allow politics in your park system!"

MISSION BAND.

Young People of First Church Gave Fine Entertainment.

A large number of the members of the Mission Band of First Methodist Church and their friends gathered last night in the school room to enjoy the annual concert of the band. The entertainers were assisted by Miss Jessie Irving, whose selections helped greatly to make the evening the success it was. The programme consisted of the following: Piano duet, Neta Small and Lillian Gayer; reading, Josette, Miss Jessie Irving; vocal solo, A Woodland Madrigal, Mrs. Sanderson; reading, A Troublesome Witness, Miss Jessie Irving; vocal solo, When Jack and I Were Children, Mrs. Sanderson; reading, "When Albert Sang," Miss Irving; vocal duet, Mrs. Sanderson and Mr. George Allan; reading, Mona's Waters, Miss Irving. That the evening was such a success was due largely to the untiring efforts of Miss Harris and Miss Kappel, who had charge of the arrangements.

ART STUDENTS.

Members of League and Friends Had Social Evening.

The members of the Art Students' League and their friends gathered together in the municipal art gallery rooms last evening, and held a delightful informal evening, in which they entertained their friends and themselves. During the earlier part of the evening a short musical programme was given, in which Miss Irene Baetedo, James Hamilton, Miss Ivy Towers, Victor Hutchison, Miss Mary Shephard and Besie Madgett participated. This was followed by dancing, and a social time for the course of an hour or so.

WANTS NO VOTE.

Her Majesty Indicates That She is Not a Suffragette.

London, May 13.—Queen Alexandra is evidently not in sympathy with the female suffragists. Princess Louise to-day opened the Women Nurses' Congress at Liverpool, and in a little speech said: "I have a message for you from the Queen. She has the fullest sympathy with you in your work. She feels that this is the work which women can do. Some women nowadays try to be like men, but this is the thing that men can't do, and it, therefore, is here that we feel superior to anybody else."

The Queen's attitude is the more interesting because her daughter, Queen Maud of Norway, sent a message of sympathy to the International Suffragists' Congress, which met a few weeks ago in London.

A SAD CASE.

Boy Returns From School and Finds Mother Dead.

Detroit, May 13.—Returning to his home from school a few hours after he had been punished by his mother because he refused to buy liquor for her, seven-year-old John Harder found the mother's lifeless form on the floor at 11.30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Johnnie wasn't in a hurry to get to his home, 237 Sherman street, after he had been dismissed from the morning session of school. He declared that he had been whipped "good and proper" by his mamma. The thrashing administered to him had proved a good persuader, he said, and he purchased the liquor, delivered it, slammed the door unusually hard, and had gone away.

When he boy walked back into the house no dinner was awaiting him in the kitchen. Proceeding to the dining room he saw the corpse of his mother. He raced out of the house, and notified John Bara, a neighbor.

Coroner's Clerk De Laurier was summoned. He ordered the body removed to the county morgue.

County Physician Grimes held a post-mortem examination and decided that death was due to alcoholism.

BUYING DRINKS.

Proposed to Render Illegal Trading at Bar in Quebec.

Quebec, Que., May 13.—In the Provincial Legislature this afternoon Allen Wright Gird introduced an amendment to the license law providing that no licensee-holder shall accept money from a person at the bar for more than the drinks the man himself consumes. It was designed to render illegal all trading at a public bar.

So many members of the House supported the amendment that the Provincial Treasurer was plainly discomfited, and he finally urged that the proposal be held in abeyance until it is learned whether public opinion will support it. That suggestion was carried by a small majority.

And Then Go to St. Mary's, Ont., for Your Honest Man.

Galt, May 13.—An interesting bit of fire insurance history has just come to light in the official records of the Gore District Company of this town.

A. H. Lofft & Company, dry goods, St. Mary's, had a loss by fire, for which the adjusters allowed $6,250. At their next stock-taking, the firm became convinced they really had not lost more than $3,750. Having confirmed this by a second stock-taking, they immediately returned the fire insurance companies $2,500, overpaid by them, the share of the Gore being $289.43. The explanatory letter was ordered inscribed in the company's minutes in full, and a resolution, moved by R. S. Strong, seconded by W. K. McNaught, M. P. P., was passed, expressing the approval of the high-minded and honorable course pursued by the Messrs. Lofft.

CANADIAN CLUB ANNUAL.

W. M. McClelland Elected President For Third Term.

Members Think City Should Buy the Library Building.

Large Addition to the Roll During the Past Year.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Club, held last evening in the rooms of the Hamilton Scientific Association, the members did Mr. W. M. McClelland the honor of electing him for the third term to the highest office in the club, that of president. Mr. Kirwan Martin, in submitting the nomination of Mr. McClelland, said that it was an unusual procedure, but he had done such excellent work in the chief executive office, that the nominating committee could conceive of no better man for the position at this time. Mr. Martin also pointed out that the trustees of the club had decided on a new departure in connection with the election of officers, that of selecting the men for the different offices before the meeting. It had been shown in the past that a number of men who would be just the ones to make things go with a dash were left off the lists, and men were elected who hadn't the time to devote to the interests of the club. Mr. Martin's suggestion received the approval of the members.

The report of the secretary, Mr. P. B. Pennington, was brief and to the point. During the year 127 new members had been added, making a total of 523, made up as follows: 18 honorary, 2 life, and 503 active members. Several luncheons had been held, with an average attendance of 71. Mr. Pennington then went into detail of the different speakers at the luncheons.

Mr. F. H. Whittton gave a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the club for the year. Going into every item, he explained how the money had been spent, so that the members might know what they were getting for their $1 a year. The receipts were $1,064.61 and the expenses $814.54. The assets of the club were $292.07 and the liabilities $107.

The slate, as prepared by the nominating committee, went through as follows: W. M. McClelland, President. P. B. Pennington, First Vice-President. Dr. T. H. Husband, Second Vice-President.

J. R. Marshall, Third Vice-President. F. H. Whittton, Treasurer. Hugh Hennessey, Secretary. J. W. Hamilton, Assistant Secretary. J. M. Williams, Literary Correspondent.

Trustees—J. L. Jolley, C. E. Kelley, J. M. Telford, C. Gray and G. F. Smith. At the conclusion Mr. J. H. Smith, I. P. S., moved the adoption of the following resolution: "That the Library building be not sold, but be kept as a municipal hall."

This was seconded by Allan Studholme, M. P. P. Mr. Smith pointed out that there were many societies, such as the Canadian Club, and the various historical societies, that would not have a home if the library was taken from them. He thought that the city should reserve it for these societies, which are doing much toward the improvement of the city. He suggests that the building be given free of charge to these societies.

Ald. Milne announced that he was quite in favor of such a resolution. The motion passed.

President McClelland briefly addressed the members, thanking them for the position they had placed him in, and also paying a warm tribute to the officers he had working with him for the coming year.

MODERATOR DEAD.

Rev. Theodore Marshall Died in a Railway Train.

The Right Rev. Theodore Marshall, moderator of the Scotch General Assembly, died in a railway carriage on Saturday, May 1, while travelling from Perth to Crieff, where he was to preach a sermon in connection with the Perthshire choir's annual festival.

Dr. Marshall was elected last year by the General Assembly of the Scottish Church as its moderator, and was to have discharged the duties at the forthcoming assembly, which meets in Edinburgh this month.

FELL 6,000 FEET.

Three Men Killed in the Red Jacket Mine, Calumet.

Calumet, Mich., May 13.—Death which was swift and sure, but none the less terrible, came to three miners at the Red Jacket mine here this afternoon, when the ground upon which they were at work suddenly gave way, precipitating all three into a yawning abyss. For a distance of 6,000 feet the shaft runs down into the very bowels of the earth, and through this opening the unfortunate men were shot as though impelled by a mighty catapult.

The bodies were crushed into an unrecognizable mass of blood and splintered bone. The men were all foreigners. Their names are: Pouis Roselo, Lewis Mustonen and Zech Benjamin.

The shaft of the Red Jacket mine is famous all over the world as the deepest working mine in existence.

"RUINS OF TIME."

(Written for the Times.)
The clarion-calls salute the scouting dawn;
The robins trill their rousing minstrelsy;
The whispering zephyrs kiss the village lawns,
But, lo! a dirge of sorrow sob to me;
Sob o'er an aged wreck that sighs and moans,
Sob, to my grief-worn heart, a mournful rime;
For, lo! my ling'ring hope is crushed, dethroned,
Swallowed by time as light of waning moon.
Mourn, sob and sigh of love that is no more;
List! hills of childhood ring with voices strange;
Pityless faces watch me pass their doors,
A drunkard plodding home where all has changed.

Ah! what a change since first I romped to school;
When gilded glitter ne'er my rights annoyed;
When poverty knew not a polished rule boy.
That mocked the liberty of barefoot

Behold! my dreams have lost their golden glow;
Wild weeds run riot where sweet flowers bloomed;
Brushwood and thorns my old homestead enclose,
And leave to me a skeleton of gloom.

Yon crumbling chimney, like a sacred shaft,
Alone but marks the dust of cherished things,
And, like the mast of some ill-fated craft,
Destruction signals where it storm-tossed clings.

Lo! hearts deserted, like a ruin, cling
In hopeless battle 'gainst the elements;
And totter ever lower spring by spring
'Neath poison weeds that claim their firmament.

No kindly hands now greet me at the door;
No brothers quench their thirst at stone-walled well;
No parents guide my footsteps as of yore,
Or sister plucks a lily or bluebell.

Wealth cannot bring the old home back to me,
Nor now restore the love of days gone by;
Yet of decay where weeds of mortals lie
The soul may build itself a palace high.

But, lo! a feeble, broken wreck I stand;
A ghostly ruin as my home to-day;
My beauty gone as forests of the land;
My heart the tomb of love's and joy's decay.

Oh, in my jungle depths of sin and woe,
Can faith return as swallows of the spring?
Can seeds of righteousness e'er hope to grow?
Or will the serpent-stings stunt every-thing?

Sublime the sermon of yon lonely spire;
Its voiceless lips unto my spirit speak,
"Though worldly weeds o'er man's lone heart shall tower,
There still is hope for souls, humble and meek."

Oh, tyrant of my soul! thou blood red wine!
The curse of beauty, all that is sublime!
Thou mocketh me, a feeble prey of thine,
And shouteth victory o'er lands divine.

Lo! fruitful blossoms whither 'neath thy stroke;
Ah! at thy feet how fallen idols groan;
Yea; many mothers bear thy blighting yoke,
Oh! flee from me, thou viper on my throne.

Mid thistle down a wild canary sings,
As shy as spider in his palace spun;
Fearless on golden rod his own mate swings,
Defying sight and lead of tyrant's gun.

Wild things to ruins flee where man is not;
E'en now how sweetly sings the oriole;
Here I'll rebuild and cast with them my lot,
And mow the worldly weeds that swamp my soul.

Woodstock, Ont., May 13.—Alfred Hall, the Haileybury lawyer, formerly a resident of this county, who was brought to Woodstock by the local authorities on a charge of fabricating evidence, and misleading the High Court, in that he produced a certain affidavit to the Court, purporting to be signed by one Davidson, who was supposed to be prosecuting a local suit, was arraigned to-day. Davidson declared that he had never signed nor authorized the signature of the affidavit.

The magistrate reserved his decision pending the settlement of certain legal points, which would be referred to the Attorney-General.

ATTACKED MOTHER.

A Student Goes Violently Insane at Brockville.

Brockville, May 13.—Without previous warning Elmer Pennock, a third-year student in medicine at Queen's University, went violently insane at 1.30 this morning, and but for his mother managing to elude him a tragedy would have resulted. His father, a G. T. R. conductor, was out of town, and the mother and son were alone in the house. The former was awakened by her son standing over and attempting to choke her to death, saying that he was going to do away with her. She managed to run out of the house and into a neighbor's house in her night clothes, whence assistance was summoned. Dr. MacArthur arriving first, followed by neighbors and two policemen. The young student fought desperately before he was overpowered and locked up.

In the recent examinations he failed, and this is thought to have brought about the sudden change in his mind. He is 26 years of age. A committal to the asylum here was made out this afternoon.

DAM BLOWN UP.

Causes Serious Floods in Upper Napanee River.

Kingston, Ont., May 13.—Some unknown persons blew up the dam near Fifth Lake, one of the head waters of the Napanee River, with the result that there was a sudden rise in the water, which carried away several bridges. The bridge at Bell Rock is a foot under water.

The rush of water carried away the dam at fourth lake. In the upper part of the Napanee many acres of land are under three feet of water and a number of farms have been rendered useless by inundation.

The dam at third lake is still holding out. If it goes Yarker will be flooded and many of the houses rendered uninhabitable. Many places near Napanee are already flooded.

BEST YEAR FOR Y. M. C. A.

All Departments Aggressive and Worthy of Support.

Boys' Department is a Special Feature Just Now.

It Had a Good Year But Expects Greater Things.

The 42nd annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night and the reports were very encouraging...

Table with financial data: Members' fees $4,406.50, Subscriptions 2,711.00, Lockers 261.00, Rentals 1,469.00, East end branch 1,249.54, Sundries 4.55. Total receipts $10,101.59.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The secretary's report, submitted by Mr. T. F. Best, dealt with the work of the Y. M. C. A. since its inception and the broadening of the field for work of that nature.

Another subscription, similar to the one recently donated toward the building of the new gymnasium for the boys, by Mr. Robert Mills, would launch the scheme at once.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

The report of the religious committee showed that remarkable interest had been taken in that line and the work has been carried on continuously and successfully.

The gymnasium report showed that the year had been the most active in the history of the organization, and the work had reached that point where more commodious quarters are needed if advancement is to be made.

Received from athletic meets, gymnastic exhibitions, health lectures and basketball games, $406.90. Paid out of this fund: Apparatus, $308. repairs, $98.65; fee to C. A. A. U., $14.50; medals, $35.75. Total, $456.00. Cash in hand, May 1st, 1906, $40.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE.

The report of the social committee, submitted by H. Fell, showed how the fourteen members, under reverse circumstances, came through the year with flying colors.

VISITING THE SICK.

On behalf of the Sick Visiting Committee, whose special duty is to visit the sick members of the Y. M. C. A., and young men generally in their homes and in the hospitals, Geo. Law said that he found it difficult to report the good work that had been accomplished.

The committee has not kept strict account of the number of young men visited, nor of the number of visits made, but all through the year the members visited frequently the hospitals, and endeavored through bright conversations, literature and flowers to cheer the lives of the sufferers.

While the object is principally to contribute good cheer to the sick, they had many very helpful conversations with young men. There had been a lack of funds that might be used in purchasing suitable books and flowers and little delicacies for the sick.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT.

The report of the junior department was very encouraging, and a number of new departures had been made. An Agricultural Club was formed last May, and about twenty-five boys joined it, and their enthusiasm and competition in that work was notable.

The statistical report showed the amount of money raised from all sources $10,101.59; total membership, 1,373; employed officers giving entire time, 7; building open during the year (13 hours per day), 365; gymnasium classes every week, 21; total attendance at gymnasium classes, 34,544; Bible classes per week, 14; Bible class enrollment, junior department, 356; international Bible examinations taken, 13; training classes per week, 2; Cabinet session per week, 2; literary society per week, 2; evangelistic meetings during season, 26; social young men assisted to employment, 140; receptions, 3; other social functions, 18; young men directed to boarding houses, young men assisted financially, 164; young men assisted to employment, 140; young men directed to boarding houses, 640; young men visited when sick, 70; letters mailed, 6,200; postal cards used, 650; average attendance at rooms, 475.

Mrs. Dr. Wickins made a short address on behalf of the auxiliary and explained the plans the auxiliary had for improving the building. She gave a very descriptive outline of the work of the past year.

Mr. W. H. Wardrope gave a short address in which he spoke of the Y. M. C. A. and its work in general, and said it was a pleasure to hear such encouraging reports. He said it was a work that every citizen should realize the importance of and devote their energies to it.

Lucky Ones.

You will have to rise early to-morrow morning to be one of the lucky ones in the last day of Treble's great hat sale. It's a clearance, and the prices are cut good low to clear their two stocks in a hurry.

This is undoubtedly the opportunity of the season to secure any hat from Christy stiff to summer fedoras, also silk hats, at tremendous savings. It's an event unprecedented, we believe, in Hamilton's history.

ART SCHOOL DISCUSSED.

Board of Education Will Further Confer With the Directors.

Sophia Street School Re-Named Strathcona Model School.

Resignations of Teachers and Applications For Positions.

Before taking over the Hamilton Art School as recommended by the Technical School Committee, the Board of Education decided last night to confer with the directors of the institution, to arrange terms and get further information.

This decision was reached after the members had discussed the matter for nearly an hour. Trustee Booker fired the first shot, when seconded by Trustee Wilson, he moved that no action be taken on the report and that there be no discussion until the matter came up in its proper form.

It would be nerve, cheek and gall on the part of the Board of Education, Trustee Booker said, to take the matter up at this stage, when Dr. Lyle had stated, according to the papers, that he and J. F. Leishman had appeared before the Technical School Committee as individuals and not representing the Art School Board.

The recommendation in its present shape, Trustee Booker said, was a very businesslike proposition. The Board should first ascertain whether it could legally take over an Art School and also find out what liabilities, if any, it had to assume.

Trustee Lazer said the Art School Board had authorized Dr. Lyle to appear before the Technical School Committee on its behalf.

The recommendation in its present shape, Trustee Booker said, was a very businesslike proposition. The Board should first ascertain whether it could legally take over an Art School and also find out what liabilities, if any, it had to assume.

Wonderful Escape of C.P.R. Trainload of Passengers.

North Bay, May 13.—A dangerous accident occurred yesterday on the Kippewa branch of the C. P. R. between Mattawa and Kippewa. The railway runs north from Mattawa to the foot of Lake Temiskaming, and winds its way through the Laurentians, along narrow ledges far above the Ottawa River, and through many huge rock cuttings.

E. Gladys Kennedy, Josephine E. Williams and Norma R. Dickson, all of Toronto, are applicants for the position of household science teacher.

Miss Lorna C. Culham, teacher of domestic science in the Wentworth Street School, tendered her resignation.

The Internal Management Committee's recommendation that Fred Taylor be appointed manual training instructor of the Wentworth Street School at a salary of $800 a year, was struck out after Trustee Woodell pointed out that there was no necessity of making the appointment in a hurry, and there was another application in from John G. Mitchell, 192 Queen street south.

At the recent annual meeting of Touros Infirmary of New Orleans, a deficit of $20,000 for the year was reported. The hospital is the finest in New Orleans, and, in addition to the indoor work, forty thousand cases were treated in the clinic, of which ninety-five per cent. were those of non-Jews.

LOOKS MUCH LIKE A CLOSED CASE.

In this unusual and unfortunate case, that before in connection with the mysteries that are constantly being added to the long list of murders in Ontario, and that they have come to regard them with suspicion. In the Barker case and other mysteries the people were assured that these tragedies would be sifted until the crimes were avenged, and will Ontario has a long list of mysteries.

Hon. Mr. Foy pointed out that the Government reward offered was still standing, and the department would appreciate all information. In the meantime, it is understood, inspectors Miller and Rogers are being detained on the case, as well as an officer on the other side of the line. The department is in touch with the United States authorities through the American Consul.

Some days ago R. B. Spera, who was foreman of the jury, wrote to the Attorney-General, in which he went a great deal further, by way of suggestion, than the jury did in its recommendation.

The Attorney-General has considered this letter; also the reports of the Crown counsel and alienists. Speaking of Mr. Spera's letter, Mr. Foy said that it had been fully considered, as had also the recommendation in the verdict. In view of the fact that the responsibility now rested with the department, the Minister felt that his course must be determined with that fact in view. There had been too much speculative sensationalism. The Crown could not afford to precipitate an abortive action in so serious a case.

SIMPLY SEEKING SECLUSION.

In the meantime all kinds of theories are being indulged in as to where Mrs. Kinrade, her daughter Florence and C. Montrose Wright have gone. Friends of the family in Hamilton believe that all the party are trying to do is to reach some secluded spot where they will not be bothered by reporters. For three months the family has been constantly besieged by newspaper men. They were not in Montreal more than a few hours when one paper had ten reporters on their trail. At Sherbrooke and all the way to Boston newspaper correspondents of Canadian papers were looking for them. At Boston a staff of reporters tried to get in touch with them, but evidently at last the Kinrades have succeeded in eluding the scribes. According to information furnished one of the immigration officers by Wright, Miss Kinrade and her mother are only going to the States for a short visit. A despatch from Newport, Vt., says:

Miss Florence Kinrade, her mother, and Montrose Wright, who passed through Newport Tuesday night on the express train which reaches here at 11 p. m. from Sherbrooke, told the United States immigration officers that their absence into that territory was only for a temporary visit. When the officers asked them where they were going, they said: "To Boston, to make a visit."

The general opinion seems to be that if the Kinrade jurors, by taking anything for granted, returned any other verdict than that which the evidence justified, they failed to comply with their oath.

"I never heard of that before," said Attorney-General Foy yesterday afternoon when shown a despatch from Hamilton declaring that the jury in the Kinrade case had found a verdict drawn up and containing the name of someone, but returned an open verdict after the Crown's conference with the family lawyers in order not to interfere with their plans.

"The jury should not have decided on impressions, but on facts," was Mr. Foy's comment.

A local paper yesterday, in three column black border, published a story in connection with the case, which it assured its readers was something absolutely new. The Times published this information in its issue of May 5, on page 12, column 1. It related to the interview Jimmie Baum had with Miss Florence Kinrade, while he was in the States.

SCORES OF CARPENTERS.

The quickest way to get at all the people is through Times advertisements. All live merchants know this from experience. Even the small ten-cent ad pays. Messrs. Halliday Bros. wanted a few first class carpenters, and inserted a want in the Times, with the result that they had over one hundred applicants who read it in the Times. If you want results use the Times.

CONSUMPTIVE CATTLE.

Washington, May 14.—That there is a tendency to overrate the danger to children from milk from tuberculosis cattle was the decided view expressed today in the section of tuberculosis in children of the National Association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis.

NO NEGROES NOW.

Berlin, May 14.—The Prussian military authorities have decided to discontinue the enlistment of negroes in the army. This ruling applies chiefly to the military bands, in several of which there are African drummers. The explanation offered unofficially is that the negroes in question have adopted the views and none of the virtues of German civilization; that they have degenerated rapidly, and are not amenable to discipline.

QUICK ACTION.

Special Sale Opens at Begg & Shannon's Store to-morrow.

It is often remarked, even by men in the trade, that "there are no men's fashions," but a visit to Begg & Shannon's store will disabuse one's mind of that idea. The garments handled by this great firm are distinctly made and the features constitute selling points which clerks gladly explain. The diminutive note of every garment, workmanship and reliability has standardized this firm's goods with the people everywhere. Being so close to Victoria Day, the management is determined that every man who wants a stylish suit may have it, and undelivered values that will speak to the wise ones are offered for Saturday. The sale will be on for ten days. Among the bargains advertised are 300 men's suits, modeled to suit every one in all the new colors, green, brown, grey and fancy mixtures, worth $12.50, for $10; regular $22.50 suits for $18, and regular $25 suits for $20. Besides these, 300 spring hats, regular $2.50 value, will go at $1.75 each; fancy hile thread and cotton sock for 19c, and 50 cent men's balbriggan underwear for 35 cents. An elegant lot of shirts, made by the Regal Shirt Co. of this city, and guaranteed to fit perfectly, worth $1.25 to $1.50, in soft front, will go at 79 cents each. With such values and excellent goods, the stores at 40-44 James street north will draw big crowds to-morrow.

TO CLOSE UP.

Parliament to Prorogue Wednesday—Insurance Bill.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Ottawa, Ont., May 14.—The Montreal Harbor Bill occupied the whole sitting of the Commons this morning. It is now practically certain that Parliament will be prorogued on Wednesday. There has been a good deal of telegraphic protest developed from all parts of Canada against the Insurance Bill, and it will have to go over for another session.

IRON AND STEEL.

Washington, May 14.—Many Senators went to the Capitol to-day, taking with them various data concerning the iron and steel schedule of the tariff bill, as it is expected that the time of the Senate to-day will practically be consumed with a consideration of the duties on such products. The breaking up of party lines in the vote taken in the Senate yesterday on iron ore gave rise to considerable speculation as to how the members of the majority and minority would divide on various schedules for taxing the products of steel. It is expected that after so many Senators have spoken on the bill there will be more rapid progress in obtaining votes on disputed paragraphs.

FLEW A MILE.

London, May 4.—Capt. F. S. Cody, whose failures in his experimental aeroplane work for the British army have become a standing joke in the London newspapers, now seem at last to have achieved success. In the presence of the Prince of Wales he flew for nearly a mile at Alderhot to-day.

Several Attachments Against the Fenberg Stock Company.

The troubles of the Fenberg Stock Co., which closed here last Saturday night, will likely be ventilated in the First Division Court next Wednesday. Five or six attachments were made on the box office during the week, and the claims amounted to more than the company's share of the receipts for the five days.

One of those who put in an attachment was J. Frank Mackay, who figures in the talking pictures at the Colonial. He was an actor in the Fenberg Co. once, a year or two ago, and when he quit the company owed him $55, he claims.

WINNIPEG FAIR.

Two and a Half Millions Wanted For International Exhibition.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Ottawa, May 14.—The Winnipeg Exhibition delegation this morning asked the Prime Minister for two and a half million dollars aid for an international exhibition in 1912. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he would give the request serious and sympathetic consideration. By way of comment he said that like their country and their views the demands on the western men were large.

BEAT THE BAKER

Threw Him Into Vat of Dough and Pelted His Wife.

New York, May 14.—Max Albeim, who did not close his bakery when the bakers recently went out on strike, was dragged from his bed to-day by a mob, and thrown into a vat of dough in the basement of his establishment. He was so badly beaten that his removal to a hospital was necessary. Women menso who attacked Mrs. Albeim and threw handfuls of dough upon her. The police dispersed the raiders and arrested two of them.

IN 2.12.

Hendrie's Shimose Did Plate Distance To-day.

Toronto, May 14.—(Special.)—The railbirds at the track this morning were given a surprise that they did not expect. The Hendrie plater Shimose was brought out and worked with three others, having Glimmer to show the way for the lot. The Plate distance was covered in 2.12 with more than her weight up. In the lot that started for trip was Better Half, Desert Star, Shimose and Glimmer. The Hendrie pair going in front and won from Desert Star by three lengths, while Better Half was beaten off by at least fifteen lengths. This makes the Hendrie mare the first choice with the railbirds who saw the work. The fractions were: 13.25 2-5; 37.45; 50 1-5; 1.03 1-5; 1.17 1-3; 1.43; 4-5; 1.58; 2.12 1-5.

The Seagram horses were only given light work and trainer Littlefield said that they would get their trial on Saturday morning. The Dymont horse was only galloped and will not be worked again until next week when he will get his final prep. It is now an assured fact that the race lies between the Hendrie, Dymont and Seagram stables. The others have fallen short in their trials.

The platers Miledna and Woodbine Bell were worked three quarters and plainly showed that they were not ready for the plate distance, a mile and a quarter. This pair will not likely face the flag on race day. The older horses in the Hendrie string were given stiff gallops only, while the two-year-olds were breezed three-eighths in good time. The plate trial was the principal work of the day as none of the U. S. horses were asked to do more than breeze and gallop useful miles.
