Our Salt at the Exhibition.

The Globe reporter says:—Goderich and Clinton salt companies have sent some fine specimens of the products of their wells to exhibition. The Goderich salt is entered in the name of Mr. John Kay, but has not yet been subjected to public gaze.

Doubtless it is equal to keep up the established character of those wells. Mr. Richard Ransford exhibits the specimens from the Stapleton well, Clinton, a fine specimen and ong which adds to the proof before existing of the extent of the deposits in the Goderich region. The latter have two kinds on exhibition, picking and table the latter being formed into a column which has, however, rather suffered in symmetry from the effects of along railroad journey.

Silver Wanted,

Mr. W. Weir, exchange broker, of Clinton and the is "prepared to contract for the purchase (for exportation trom Canada) of two million dolars of American Silver oin, large and small, at 2½ per cent discount. Mr. Weir anxient Small at 2½ per cent discountry are. We have no doubt he will gat the silver, and we trust that he will make a good profits of it. Certainly the country will not lose by getting rid of two millions of any of the extent of the deposits in the Goderich region. A farmer named Alpheus Kinsey, living near-Port Colborne, was drowned, on Thursday night, at Ramsay's bend. He was returning from Welland with grist, and coming up, the waggon upset and turned, and dr. Vester stepped out of his magnificent oration, "Elijah," £40 steriling. Mr. A. Lee, the composer of "Not for Joseph," has cleared thousands of pounds, the publishers, profits being in proportion.

ism is not made public, but so thoroughly convinced of its practicability is Mr. Delamater, the proprietor of the well known Delamater fron Works, that he declares, in a late scientific publication, that "before the termination - of the present season bread will be prepared from flour ground by the power of the solar engine!"
