MAGIC BAKING POWDER

Does not contain Alum

YOU cannot bake pure food with an alum baking powder. Alum is a dangerous acid that causes certain injury to health. It causes indigestion and disorders of the heart; and wrecks the nervous system. Food scientists everywhere condemn alum as an unwholesome chemical, unfit for use in any food preparation. MAGIC makes pure, delicious, light bread, biscuits and pastry, insuring healthful home baked food. MAGIC is a medium priced baking powder and the only well-known one made in Canada that does NOT contain alum.

British Soldiers and Sailors to Tour the Empire in Great Patriotic Spectacle.

London, October 31.—A patriotic scheme of a most ambitious character is on foot, and, indeed, nearing completion. It is nothing less than a tour of the British Empire with a Naval and Military Tournament, the object being to assist recruiting by depicting to the citizens of the Empire the life of the soldier, and, as far as possible, that of the sailor in the imperial services. The proposal originated with a few gentlemen who thought they saw a good commercial speculation in touring the Empire with troops and the whole equipment of a naval and military tournament.

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Glanford Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had dizziness and falling of the uterus, and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully until I began taking your medicine. It has also helped other women to whom I have recommended it."—Mrs. HENRY CLARK, Glanford Station, Ontario.

Gardiner, Me.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Maine.

Be careful your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ill, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pain, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

Army in obtaining recruits. They did not hesitate to change their plans, and have offered to finance the scheme, leaving the management and details in the hands of a number of officers who are interested in it. Already the plan is far advanced, and in the near future the work of selecting the men who are to take part in the tournament will begin.

The idea has appealed to the Government, and while no definite promises of financial assistance have been given, the War Office authorities have intimated their intention to help in the matter by lending guns, small arms, and transport wagons. It is also hoped that a transport vessel will be provided by the Government for conveying the new brigade to various parts of the Empire. No definite promise has been given to this effect as yet, but many of those at the head of the movement believe that the government will furnish assistance in this direction.

It is pointed out that the establishment of the Regular Army has been reduced since 1905 by no less than 24,427, and that in 1913 there will be a reduction in the Regular Reserves of 31,000 non-commissioned officers and men. The Special Reserve which replaced the Militia is less by 24,000 non-commissioned officers and men than when the Militia was disbanded. That is to say that the establishment of the Regular Army and Special Reserves will be less by upwards of 90,000 in 1913 than those forces and the Militia were in 1905. The contention is that this proposal to tour the British Empire with a Naval and Military Tournament will give a tremendous fillip to recruiting, and at no expense to the nation.

There is a further fact to be borne in mind. The promoters of the project, with whom are associated military and naval men of the highest rank, have decided that the proceeds of the tour after paying all expenses, will be handed over to the trustees of the Army and Navy charities, to be used at their discretion. Judging by the success and the popularity of the previous military tournaments, it is estimated that something like a net profit of $1,000,000 will be made on a three years tour.

Recently the Advisory Board, which consists of a number of well-known officers, secured about eight acres of ground in the neighbourhood of Waterford, Florida, West of the city. Here, almost immediately, huts and buildings will be erected providing accommodation for nearly 1,000 officers and men. The men will receive careful training before they start on their tour, which commences with a round of the chief cities and towns in England, Scotland and Wales. Ireland at present omitted, owing to the great expense of transport. The first performance will be given at Birmingham next Easter Monday, April 17, and in succession visits will be paid to the following towns in the order in which they appear below:

Manchester, Liverpool, Dundee, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Aberdeen, Newcastle, York, Doncaster, Cambridge, Brighton, Portsmouth, Southampton, Winchester, Taunton, Salisbury, Exeter, Plymouth, Bristol, Cardiff.

As soon as this tour is completed, the brigade will entrain for London, and on the following day set out on its journey round the British Empire. It is estimated that from four to six months will be paid to Canada, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and The Indian Empire.

It is proposed to time the arrival in all the great dominions, so as to be there during the summer months. With care this is easily possible. Thus those who are selected to take part in the tour will have nearly three years of summer.

Returning to England, a grand display will be given in London extending over several days, after which two more tours will be made in the provinces, visits being paid to the smaller towns. From start to finish the great and continuous parade will occupy about three years.

$12,500 a Week in Wages.

The new brigade will consist of 575 officers and 550 non-commissioned officers and men, all drawn from the Army Reserve, where possible, preference will be given to men of good character who are at present

DR. BOVEL'S HERB TABLETS AS A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A Toronto clergyman writes as follows: 4 Rose Av., Toronto. Gentlemen:—Have been taking Dr. Bovel's Herb Tablets for about two months for dyspepsia, an oppressive feeling round the region of the heart, also dizzy spells which entirely disappeared. I now feel better than I have for years and can honestly recommend them to anyone needing a medicine to tone up the system and purify the blood. Wishing you every success, I remain, Yours truly, REV. D. CONVERY.

The really serious cases of indigestion and dyspepsia almost always have their location in the bowels and can only be reached by marking the liver and kidneys active. No medicine regulates the liver, kidneys and bowels so nicely and so promptly as Dr. Bovel's Herb Tablets.

out of work. Each man will enlist for three years, and their rate of pay will be $10 a week with free kit, rations and sleeping accommodation. It is estimated that the total wages will amount to about $12,500 a week. In addition to the officers and men who will represent the fighting force, there will be a mounted band, consisting of sixty men. Then there will also be a large force of civilians, cooks, camp attendants, &c., which will bring the total strength up to between 800 and 1,000. Where distances are not too great, the brigade will proceed from town to town by road. On these occasions they will present an imposing pageant, about a mile and a half in length; headed by their band. Amongst the "properties" of this Imperial Exhibition will be:—

- 600 horses.
- 12 field guns.
- 10 wagons.
- 2 motor panthecons.
- 2,000 rifles and carbines.
- 2,000 bayonets.
- 70 tents.
- 2 marquees.

Upwards of a mile of canvas "hoarding" will be used to enclose the arena where the performance will be given.

Recruiting Facilities.

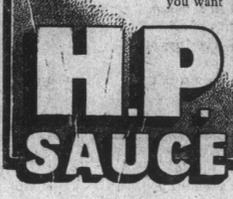

As this attractive brigade will visit very town of any importance in the British Empire, the prospects of obtaining recruits are regarded as most favourable, and special endeavours are being made to obtain the services of recruiting sergeants, at any rate, for the tour through England, Scotland and Wales. Negotiations are now in progress with the War Office to borrow some of those well set-up recruiting officers, so familiar to every Londoner.

Colonel A. G. Burn, of the Indian Army, who is now engaged in working out the military details of the scheme, informed a press representative that the new brigade would consist of two field batteries and detachments of infantry, cavalry, Royal Engineers, Army Service Corps, Royal Artillery, and a naval display, similar to those of the very popular annual Naval and Military Tournament in London, would be given. "There will be a grand spectacle depicting the charge of the Light Brigade, in which at any rate, 400 officers and men will take part.

"We shall also show," proceeded Colonel Burn, "the evolution of the dress of the soldier during the past

Simply say H.P. to your grocer, he will hand you a bottle of the most appetising sauce in the world.

Be sure you do say H.P. because you want half-century, the uniforms, arms and accoutrements being exact reproductions of the various periods."

"The main idea of the whole scheme," he added, "is to popularise the Army. It is surprising though absolutely true, that at the present moment many parents, particularly the mothers, will not allow their sons to join the Boy Scouts because they think it will foster a military spirit, and they are afraid of them joining the Army. We want to show to the people of the British Empire what the life of the soldier really is, and to show them that the Army, instead of being a profession to be shunned, presents one of the finest openings in the world for strong, active young men. We shall endeavour to get the local Territorials and patrols of Boy Scouts to take part in all our performances at every town we visit. We hope that they will assist in a display which we shall call 'Modern Arms.'"

"Every effort is being made to provide absolutely up-to-date performances," continued Colonel Burn, "and we shall have an airship of some kind or other, arranging flights at such performance, when the weather permits, under service conditions."

It was stated that those who are undertaking the work of organisation have already $100,000 in hand.

John Burns' Message of Work and Hope.

Mr. John Burns, President of the Local Government Board in the British Cabinet, embraces every opportunity to sound an optimistic note regarding the poor, and the poor laws, of England. "One would almost think," he said the other day, when opening a nurses' home at Dowsbury, "to hear some Jeremiahs talk that pauperism was the sole product of the country, and that we had a monopoly of misery." He went on to show that, while there are 26 paupers in every 1,000 population, when Queen Victoria's reign began there were 60 to the 1,000. Only six per cent. of the paupers are men in health, and all are in these days treated with unexampled kindness, and enjoy a high degree of comfort.

In 75 years England has spent $3,000,000,000 on Poor Relief, but that amount, after all, is equal to only four years' drink bill. If he had not had the drink bill he doubted whether so large an expenditure would have been necessary.

So long as the drink evil was with us, so long should we have large rates and taxes. What they ought to do was to cure the evil of drink, and we were the only people who had pauperism, misery and drink.

Worse Than English.

In Düsseldorf pauperism was 36 per 1,000, and in Dewsbury, 15.5; in Berlin, 44, and in London, 26.32 per 1,000. Alluding to the unrest in the labor world, he said that education was at work. Indignation was rising against inequalities and privilege. It was not sufficient that the poor should be reminded of their failings; there were shirkers and defaulters at both ends of the social scale. Labor without leisure was drudgery to the man; leisure without labor was a crime against society. It was our business to see that the potential pauper should never become the actual pauper, and they could only do it by educating him to better things.

A woman who does machine sewing should see to it that the chair she uses is just the right height; too low a chair strains the muscles and soon tires the worker.

this, would be for the benefit of the community. Britain, however, was getting more sober, whilst some commercial and industrial rivals were becoming more drunk. In the consumption of alcohol England was behind France, Italy, Belgium, Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, Germany and Denmark. It was absurd to say that how necessary it is to use good flour in order to obtain the best results in baking. It is no more costly to use the best flour than it is to use one of inferior grade—and the results are not to be compared. Flours are usually milled for bread making or pastry making, not for both, and that is where the housewife is put to unnecessary inconvenience and expense.

"BEAVER" FLOUR

is not only the best bread flour, but is the best pastry flour. It is a careful, scientific blend of the rich, nutritious Manitoba Spring wheat and the wheat from which the best pastry flour in the world is made—Ontario Fall wheat.

BEAVER FLOUR contains the gluten of the Manitoba wheat that gives nourishment to the system and the properties of the Ontario wheat that make the lightest and whitest rolls and the most delicate pastry.

Baking is a pleasure with BEAVER FLOUR, for the results are unvaryingly good, and you have only one sack of flour to buy, to make the best looking, best tasting and most nutritious bread and the lightest cakes and pastry.

It makes more loaves to the barrel than any other flour, and relieves you of all anxiety as to how the bread or pastry will turn out. Get it from your grocer, and convince yourself.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

In a cemetery through which I had occasion to pass the other day, I saw, standing out in the heart of the sea, a unique monument of marble and granite, a huge grey boulder of primeval and unwhewn.

I inquired about its presence there and was told this:

The young man whose grave it marked, was passionately fond of a certain rugged spot on the coast where he spent his summer. This boulder had a marked prominence where he used to love to sit and watch the ocean at sunset, and when he died a few months after his marriage, just as he was about to fulfil his dream of bringing his bride to the spot he had so often described to her, she chose to bring that boulder, rather than some conventionally expensive shaft of granite or marble, to mark his grave.

Don't you think that was a beautiful thought?

It seemed so to me.

I know another case where a man who believed in cremation left instructions that his ashes should be carried out to the farm which was his boyhood home, and scattered in springtime over the ploughed fields. And just recently I heard of a woman who requested that she be cremated and her ashes carried out "as close to the horizon as you can get," and given to rest in the heart of the sea she had loved so intensely all her life.

As it happened, those whom she left behind greatly objected to cremation, and after consulting a lawyer and making sure that their act would not invalidate her will, they calmly refused her last request. She lies to-day in the centre of a crowded cemetery two hundred miles from her beloved ocean, respectfully interred under the most conventional of marble shafts upon which is fustomely chiseled the family's respect and grief for the woman whose last request they saw fit to deny.

You think this is a decidedly mournful talk? You don't like to be reminded about things like that? You make me think of Palatka's famous landlady. Remember how "a cried out God, God, God, three or four times: now I, to comfort him, bid him 'a should not think of God; I hoped there was no need to trouble himself with any such thought yet."

But truly I didn't mean it to be lugubrious. I just wanted to tell you of some people I admired for being able to rob death of a little of its horribly conventional ceremony.

Ruth Cameron

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impure blood. Nervous and pale people look good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need investigation, for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach.

A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Household Notes.

After washing a lamp chimney polish it with dry salt.

In selecting a pumpkin, take one that is glossy and flat on both ends. To banish the odor of paint, place a pan full of cold water in the room. Toast water is a soothing and healing drink for sufferers from bronchitis.

Cookbooks should be covered with waxed paper to keep them in good condition.

Whiting mixed to a cream with tepid water is excellent for dirty painted surfaces.

Sponging with hot vinegar will remove an objectionable shine from woolen garments.

Olive oil slightly warmed, is excellent as a means of softening the skin around the nails.

In lime water localities, keep an oyster shell in your tea kettle to remove the lime deposits.

To prevent wooden pails or tubs from shrinking when not in use, paint them over with glycerine.

Cornmeal dough, mixed with borax, scattered about in kitchen corners, will cause insects to disappear.

Overeating of food is very often counteracted by using a teaspoonful of vinegar and one of sugar.

To bake potatoes quickly, place them close together in the oven and cover with an inverted pie-plate.

Vanilla extract should be kept in a very dark place, as it is apt to lose its strength when exposed to the light.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

The End of the Tragedy.

I do not regret it, for I kept her pure! If I have sent my soul to perdition to accomplish it, it was worth the price. Listen! Do you remember that little blind girl who thought she was your husband's wife?

'Bebe Lansing?'
'Yes.'

'She was his wife! Our marriage was annulled one ground of fraud. It was not a divorce, you see, but was made as though it never had been.'

'But that could not be, Duchess. You married the man, neither his name, or his past, and only God had the power to annul that marriage by death. Bebe was not his wife and I loved her. It was the single holy passion of my life, but just at the last a demon took possession of me and I tried to force her into a marriage. She refused and I left her presence with a threat. I had scarcely done so when my better self returned. I went to her to beg her forgiveness, to entreat her to go on living as we have done. I found her—gone! She had fled for fear of me, and because I feared evil for her I followed. By chance I saw her enter a little public house, to avoid the Commune, with a man whom I had discovered she loved. I determined to save her at any cost. I entered the room where they were. The demon was again in possession of me. I have no recollection of what occurred except that I shot at him and—killed her. Then I staggered from the room into the street. The Communists were passing. I think I hardly saw them. You see the result! I do not regret it. I am glad my darling is dead. Perhaps in heaven she will know and forgive me.'

'But she is not dead!' exclaimed Miss Beaufort eagerly. 'She is here in this building, dying perhaps, but still alive.'

'Bebe?'

'Yes!'

'The eyes of the dying man glowed almost fiercely under his excitement. "Let me go to her!" he cried. "For God's sake! don't refuse! It can mean only a moment more or less of my miserable life, while it may insure forgiveness in the world to come. Let me go to her!"

'Be quiet. The doctor will never let you go.'

'What do I care for the doctor! I tell you that I must see her! Duchess, I am dying! Don't refuse the last request of a man who feels himself condemned to eternal perdition, perdition!'

'Wait!'

'I cannot wait. There is no time to wait. Let me follow you. I tell you that I am strong. I shall reach her and die happy because I am beside her. Duchess don't refuse.'

'I shall not if you will allow me to have my way. If you are not quiet the doctor may refuse. Remain here until I prepare her to see you, and I will return.'

Something in her face told him the truth—that she would return with a physician, that his request would be denied.

With the cunning of mania, he determined that he would have his way. Quietly, obediently, he replaced himself among his pillows, and lifted his eyes pleadingly but meekly.

'Make haste,' he said softly. There is so little time.'

Hastily he glanced about the room, but her back was toward him. Miss Beaufort had already started upon her mission.

Silently he threw the covers back and slid to the floor. He endeavored to stand, but his bruised limbs refused to support him. Upon hands and knees he crawled, leaving a trail of blood behind him. He knew that it meant death, but it did not cause him to pause a moment.

He was following Miss Beaufort. She opened a door noiselessly and passed in. He crept up to it and pulled himself up by the door facing.

A low cry from some one in the room caused Miss Beaufort to turn quickly.

She never forgot the ghastliness of that spectacle. Some of the bandages had slipped from the face, leaving bare the hideous cuts from which the blood was beginning to issue in little trickling streams. The clothes that covered him were being rapidly covered with it. Beneath it his eyes gleamed like red-hot fire.

He saw Bebe at that moment, Bebe lying there before him, her beautiful face upturned, cold, still, dead.

City Council.

The regular weekly meeting of the Municipal Council opened last evening, at 7.30. The Mayor and full Board were present.

F. W. Knight wished to remind the Council of its letter in connection with providing a fire boat for the harbor. The Mayor had interviewed the Premier, who thought it was not a matter for the Government, but purely one for the Council. The Mayor will interview the Board of Trade on the matter, and report at next meeting.

The Gas Co. wrote, acknowledging receipt of complaint re light on George Street, and promised that the light would be repaired and kept in good condition. The Company also stated that they would give the necessary notice when it was intended to lay gas pipes in the streets. Strong comment was made on the practice of tearing up a street that had been recently repaired by the Council, and it was thought some arrangement should be made to prevent this. The Engineer pointed out that the Council should be consulted as to the exact location of gas pipes in the different streets, in order to regulate and systematize the network of gas and water pipes.

The Manager of the Nickel and Casino Theatres asked for a reconsideration of the tax on these institutions. He pointed out that the tax was oppressive, and contrary to the spirit of the law which originated it.

The Road Committee reported that they had been notified the Council that he was adding a story to the rear of his house.

Plan of addition to Balsam House was approved.

The Engineer and Road Committee will visit Boggan's Lane and report on condition.

The Engineer reported that water will be laid in Pennywell Road shortly if pipes arrive and weather holds favorable. He also outlined progress of work done during the week.

Joseph Peckford requested street line at corner of Battery Road.

Rd. Inspector Bambrick reported on Sanitary conditions at South Side. He recommended the laying of 60 ft. of pipe to convey night soil from street. The Engineer will visit the place and report.

Thos. Miller asked permission to put a sign over Jackson's premises. Referred to Engineer for enquiry.

It was resolved to appropriate the land on the western end of Monroe Street.

Drains on the following streets will be cleaned during the coming week: Freshwater, Merry Meeting, Allandale and Circular Roads, and Hunt's Lane. The crossing at Rawlins' Cross will be repaired.

The Road Committee reported that they had met the trustees of the Kirk but they could not find out who had built the wall, referred to at last meeting. After a somewhat lengthy discussion, the Council decided it was not liable to repair the wall.

Hon. John Harvey, Pres. of the A. P.C., asked for an opportunity to address the Council in connection with the work of the Association. The Council will be glad to have him attend for that purpose on next Friday night.

After passing of pay rolls, bills, etc., meeting adjourned at 11.45.

Expresses Thanks.

Dear Sir,—I desire to give expression of my deepest gratitude to those who made my wife's enforced stay in St. John's, a very happy time; and also those who kindly ministered to the necessities of my daughter, Olive, during her long illness, without and within the Hospital. In the first place I thank Drs. Asbestol Horsehide Gloves for Men.

TAKE men who are plying their calling through storm and tempest—the crew of ships handling icy ropes, cases and all kinds of packages in all conditions of weather, many of these packages with nails and sharp edges of iron jutting out at the sides.

Picture a man with pierced and bleeding hands caused by these sharp edges.

The captain from his position on the bridge exposed to the severest cold—the railroad man at all kinds of work—the engineer handling and fitting hot steam pipes—the truckman doing rough and heavy work—the mechanic doing outside skilled labor, and you will say it is necessary for these men to protect their hands with Asbestol Horsehide Gloves.

Asbestol Gloves are made of genuine horsehide, tanned by a mineral process, which makes these gloves stand the test of heat, steam, water and washing—sewed in the strongest possible manner, perfect fitting, and made for rough, heavy and hard work.

These gloves when dirty can be washed with soap and water, can be wet through and dried in the strongest heat and will dry out absolutely as soft and pliable as when new. Made in black and yellow. Size 9, 9 1/2, 10, 10 1/2.

What Was Expected.

It will be observed in the cable message that the failure of the Veto Conference has been announced by somebody—whether that person is one in authority is not mentioned, but it is so mixed up with stock exchange quotations that it is not unreasonable to suppose that the report originated with the manipulators of stock prices, who are speculating on the probabilities of the outcome. In any case, the public will not have long to wait for an authoritative statement, if this is unauthorized, as one is due from Premier Asquith when Parliament is opened on Tuesday next. Complete success is not expected, nor is downright failure.

If the failure is absolute, it will be a national misfortune, if an impasse has arisen that will be no surprise, as the Unionist press has been preparing the minds of their readers for this result. Liberal newspapers have also been sounding a similar note. Both have been shaping their course for a way-out from the expected impasse, while T. P. O'Connor has been campaigning in Canada as if the way-out was an assured event of the near future. The kernel of the difficulty is Home Rule. The House of Lords is considered the most formidable obstacle to Home Rule. The Irish Nationalist is an Anti-Peer man, because the Peer is generally an Anti-Home-Ruler.

The settlement, therefore, of the House of Lords question hinges largely on the settlement of the Home Rule question. The Times, the Morning Post, the Daily Telegraph, the Standard, and most significant of all Mr. J. L. Garven, in the Observer, the chief backer of Lord Lansdowne in the House of Lords fight and "Pacificus" in a series of letters to the Times, to which the Times in an editorial commends the attention of its readers in these words:

"We earnestly bespeak the careful and candid consideration of the public for opinions set forth with remarkable knowledge and insight; and we do this with the greater confidence, because "Pacificus" is already known to our readers as the author of a series of letters upon the constitutional crisis in the earlier part of the year, which had no small share in guiding and crystallizing the public opinion to which the Conference itself was a response."

That an impasse is expected, and that it may be big with a constitutional settlement of the first magnitude is clearly signified in the historical precedents to which "Pacificus" refers in the two paragraphs appended:

There are at least two historical analogies which are worth considering in our present dilemma. In the year 1786, at Annapolis, in the State of Maryland, a convention met to consider certain problems of internal navigation, of the Customs duties and currency, and sundry other very vexing matters about which, at that particular time, disagreement between the thirteen united States of America was so vivacious that some of the said States were actually on the verge of civil war. The convention of Annapolis, after a not unduly prolonged discussion, came to the conclusion that it was unable to adjust these pressing matters unless the wider question of Union were also allowed to be considered. But this it had no warrant to undertake. Accordingly it broke up with a recommendation that another convention should be summoned in the spring of the following year—a convention more representative in character and with a wider warrant—and that it should take into consideration all the needs of the youthful Republic. In May, 1787, this new convention met at Philadelphia behind closed doors, and did not separate until it had made the Union of the American States.

In like manner the first step towards South African Union was a conference which met at Capetown in May, 1908, and afterwards adjourned to Pretoria. The object of this conference was to adjust the discrepancies which had arisen out of the workings of the railways by the various States who owned and controlled them. The conclusion arrived at by the convention at Pretoria was nearly identical, even in terms, with the resolution upon which the delegates at Annapolis agreed to abandon their attempt. The special matters under consideration, though of their nature they were not judged to be insoluble, could not be settled satisfactorily until the wider question of closer union had been settled also. Out of this decision was born the representative convention of the South African States—a peripatetic congregation—which, after sundry meetings behind closed doors and adjournments from one capital city to another, finally agreed at Bloemfontein in May, 1909, to make an end of the wars and jealousies of upwards of a hundred years.

CARPENTER INJURED.—A ship's carpenter working at Bowring's cut the top of his thumb with an axe yesterday, accidentally, while at work. He went to P. O'Mara's drug store and had the wound dressed.

COMPLAINT FROM HAMILTON ST.—The residents of Hamilton Street complain about the mud which is ankle deep here at the present time. A lady sent a man to the tank for a pail of water this morning. He had been gone a few minutes when he returned with the empty pail and said: "Missus, I want a shovel to clear my way to the tank."

By the Portia there arrived from the West large shipments of partridge. Many of the birds were killed a long while, and hundreds of brace had to be thrown away yesterday and today one firm alone having had to discard two tierces of the birds. It is a pity that such excellent food should be lost to the people. It is a matter for the Island Game Society to look into.

Following last night's announcement of the failure of the Constitutional Conference, there was to-day great activity at all Party headquarters, where desks are being cleared for action, in view of the possibility of an almost immediate general election Government stalwarts urge the appeal to the country on the grounds that the sooner they strike the better will be the chances of overwhelming the Opposition, but Party agitators are believed to be in favour of quietly winding up the business of the Parliamentary session before placing the resignation and the resignation of the hands of the King. Much will depend upon the attitude of the Irish and Labour parties upon the re-assembling of Parliament next Tuesday. The stock market is weak in consequence of the failure of the veto conference. Consols for money sold at 1/4 point to 3/4 and 1/2 below the previous low record when the failure of the conference was announced before. Home securities were also weak.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CURED ONCE MORE

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS AGAIN VANQUISH TERRIBLE AILMENT.

Alcide Tramblay issues statement for the benefit of others—Good news for sufferers from Kidney Disease. Mistassini, Lac St. Jean, Que., Nov. 11. (Special).—That even the deadly Bright's Disease, the most fatal form of Kidney Disease, can be cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills after all other means have failed has again been proved in the case of Mr. Alcide Tramblay, a well known resident of this place. In order that other sufferers may benefit by his experience Mr. Tramblay has given the following statement for publication:

"I was troubled with Bright's Disease, Rheumatism and Gravel for seven years. Three doctors prescribed for me but they did not help me. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I was always tired and nervous and had dark circles under my eyes. "I had heard of other cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills and started to use them with the result that in one month I was completely cured, and have been in good health ever since."

Bright's Disease is a disease of the Kidneys. Gravel and Rheumatism are caused by diseased Kidneys failing to strain impurities out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure them all by purging the Kidneys.

DE LAVAL

CREAM SEPARATOR.

Nearly 1,200,000 farms, creamerymen, milk dealers and owners of country homes, throughout the world, are already using De Laval Cream Separators, and 150,000 or more are being added to the number every year—many more this year than ever before.

If you haven't a De Laval Cream Separator already you can't be anywhere near the head of this tremendous procession that started thirty years ago, but it will be foolish to wait to bring up the tail end of it.

The use of a De Laval Cream Separator—with even a single cow—means more and better cream and butter, warm and sweet skimmilk, less labor and more profit, twice a day every day in the year.

A De Laval Cream Separator saves its cost in a few months, not only over any other method of creaming milk but over any imitating cream separator.

Then why not fall into the De Laval procession now? You can't recover the waste and worry of previous years, but you can stop it going further. Why not do so? Every day of delay means just that much more waste of product, quality and dairy comfort. Why prolong it?

De Laval Cream Separators are made for one cow to one thousand, in proportionate size, style and price.

Wainwright

FOUR GOOD REASONS WHY Wainwright Will Make One of the Leading Cities of Western Canada. Investments in a Wainwright Property Will Prove Highly Profitable.

Trade Centre of Rich Farming District.

WAINWRIGHT is situated on the Main Line of the Grand Trunk Pacific in Eastern Alberta. It is 127 miles east of Edmonton and 200 miles west of Saskatoon, and is easily the largest, busiest and best town between those points.

WAINWRIGHT is but two years old, yet it has 1,000 population, property assessed for taxation at $750,000, half a mile of cement sidewalks, an $18,000 brick school, two brick yards, substantial business blocks and residences, some of them constructed from home-made brick, two big hotels, and all the various lines of business that go to make up a live, hustling town.

WAINWRIGHT has tributary to it one of the finest farming districts in Alberta—a district especially adapted to grain growing, mixed farming and ranching. Of the 100,000 acres immediately tributary to the town, 50,000 acres are the choicest Alberta Red wheat land which produced an average of 22 bushels to the acre in 1910 against an average of 15 bushels for all Western Canada. 30,000 acres are suitable for mixed farming, and 20,000 acres are the finest grazing land on the continent.

WAINWRIGHT territory includes a portion of the famous Cut Knife country, admittedly one of the finest farming sections of all Canada. But a small percentage of the land has been broken up, but the yields of grains, vegetables and root crops have been enormous. Yields of 40 to 50 bushels of wheat and 75 to 90 bushels of oats are not uncommon, and the quality is the best. No finer potatoes are grown in the Dominion. The climate is tempered by the Japan Current, there is plenty of precipitation during the growing season, and the long summer days and hot sunshine are conducive to rapid growth of vegetation.

Distribution Point for Many Good Towns.

WAINWRIGHT is rapidly achieving renown as a wholesale distributing point, and it is well known that it is distribution that makes cities. As a distributing centre, Wainwright is without a rival between Saskatoon and Edmonton. It enjoys a decided advantage over the latter point in through freight rates, an advantage which big concerns have been quick to realize.

WAINWRIGHT, although but two years old, is the distributing centre for four large concerns—the International Harvester Co., the Massey-Harris Co., the Imperial Oil Co., and A. McDonald & Co.—who use it as a base from which to supply the retail trade for a distance of 50 miles east and 70 miles west on the Main Line of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

WAINWRIGHT will be the head and operating base of the Battleford Branch of the G. T. P., to be built along the fertile valley of Battle River next year. This branch will tap one of the oldest and one of the richest agricultural sections of Alberta, and will make an important contribution to Wainwright's trade territory. The new town that will spring up along this line will look to Wainwright for their supplies, and the products of this district will go to Wainwright to reach the Main Line of the G. T. P. for shipment to eastern and western markets.

WAINWRIGHT retail merchants will be enabled to buy goods as cheaply at home as they will in Edmonton, and by saving the local freight on them, will have a considerable advantage over competing towns.

Divisional Headquarters G. T. P. Ry.

Divisional Headquarters G. T. P. Ry. WAINWRIGHT is one of the principal divisional points on the Grand Trunk Pacific Main Line. That the railroad company expected it to be an operating base of no little importance is evidenced by the fact that it located there a 12-stall roundhouse, repair shops, a $12,000 depot and 14 miles of side tracks.

WAINWRIGHT has about 80 resident railway employes, and their monthly payroll is approximately $7,000. Practically all of this money is paid to Wainwright merchants, or is put into Wainwright real estate and improvements. As traffic on the Main Line of the G. T. P. increases and with the opening up of the Battleford Branch, the force of resident railway employes will be largely increased.

WAINWRIGHT, being division headquarters, is the home of not only train crews, shovemen and trackmen, but of superintendent, roadmaster, foremen, dispatchers, clerks and other officials who command good salaries and are a substantial addition to the business and social life of a town. Many of these railroad employes have built good homes in Wainwright during the past year, while a large number of them are putting a portion of their earnings each month into Wainwright real estate as an investment.

WAINWRIGHT has a wide-awake, energetic class of business men who, through the local Board of Trade, are unceasing in their endeavors to advance the interests of the city. The city officials and councillors are men of the same stamp, and the permanent and substantial character of all public improvements show that they believe in the town and in providing for its inevitable growth in population.

Location of the National Buffalo Park.

WAINWRIGHT is the location of the Canadian Government's National Buffalo Park, the home of the largest herd of Buffalo in the world. This park, which adjoins the town on the south, contains 110,000 acres of fine grazing land, fenced with an 8-foot woven wire fence which alone cost $75,000. In the park are upwards of 800 Buffalo, gathered together from various points, principally from the few remaining herds and groups in the States. Recently, as told in the press despatches, a shipment of 29 head was received from Montana, where the entire Pablo herd, the largest on the continent, was purchased. The park contains also several moose, deer and other animals.

WAINWRIGHT, because of its Buffalo Park and other points of interest to visitors, is destined to become one of the leading attractions for tourists on the continent. It has now the only remaining herd of buffalo worthy the name. Under the conditions in the National Buffalo Park it is believed that the animals will multiply in numbers, and that as a result of the action of the Dominion government in establishing this park, the extinction of the North American Bison will be prevented.

WAINWRIGHT and its Buffalo Park will be featured in the advertising of the Grand Trunk Pacific and in the literature of the Dominion government. With two such institutions as the greatest transcontinental railway on the continent and the Canadian Government back of it, there is little likelihood that the world will be allowed to overlook Wainwright.

Grand Trunk Pacific

Now Makes Its First Public Offering of Lots in Sub-Division Adjoining Original Townsite of Wainwright.

Wainwright Has Never Been Boomed.

You do not remember ever having seen before any newspaper advertisements offering for sale lots in the Grand Trunk Pacific Townsite of Wainwright. It is a fact that this is the first time that the G. T. P. has undertaken to call the attention of the public especially to Wainwright. Nevertheless practically all of the original townsite laid out by the railroad has been sold, and for several months past the G. T. P. has been unperturbed to put this subdivision on the market, in order that additional desirable building sites close in and convenient to the school and the churches might be available.

Wainwright, like Topsy, "just grew." It grew because people who investigated it were convinced that it would be the site of an important city, therefore a good place to live in, a good place to transact business in, and a good place in which to make money on real estate investments. Not having had a boom, Wainwright has never had a backset. It has grown steadily every month, it is still growing, and will continue to grow.

During 1910 fully 100 buildings have been erected, among them being several modern frame and brick residences costing up to $3,500. In September, 25 buildings were in course of construction or under contract to be completed this year. Already many new buildings have been planned for next year. There is not a vacant house in town, and there is a demand for rental property of all kinds.

Millions Made in New Towns.

A hundred million dollars was made in 1910 by investors in town lots in Western Canada towns—not by people who thought about investing, but by those who actually invested. This enormous sum represents the increase in value of town property resulting from the growth of the towns and the development of the surrounding country.

At least a hundred millions more will be made in 1911 by those who invest in town lots—not by those who just think about investing, but those who actually invest. You can pick out any of a score of Western Canada towns and they will point out to you lots which sold a few years ago at $100 to $300, which to-day are worth $1,000 to $10,000. Take any of these towns—Edmonton, Calgary, Regina, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon, Lethbridge, Brandon, Prince Albert—fortunes have been made by scores who invested a few dollars in town lots when these towns were young.

There will be immense development in Western Canada in the next few years. It is a country capable of supporting many millions of people—a country of practically unlimited natural resources to be developed. These coming millions must have trade centres where they can market their products and from which they may draw their supplies. Scores of the towns of to-day will tomorrow be cities with more thousands of inhabitants than they now have hundreds. Real estate values grow with population. There are fortunes awaiting those who buy now and participate in the advance.

The Time to Buy for Big Profit.

The time in the history of a new town to buy for big, sure profit is after its permanency has been assured, and before it has reached the status where its future growth is discounted in real estate values. The opportunities for the investor of moderate means do not exist now in Edmonton, Calgary, Moose Jaw, Regina, Saskatoon, and such towns that existed a few years ago. They have reached the point where their growth for years to come has been discounted, and where real estate values are based not alone on what they are, but on what they are expected to be.

In investing in a brand new town there is always the risk that it will not amount to much. The time to invest—the only safe and sure time—is after the town has demonstrated that it has behind it forces which will ensure its success, and before real estate prices are based on what the town promises to be, rather than on what it is.

Wainwright is just now at the stage when real estate values are based on the present, and when buyers can depend upon reaping the benefit of future growth. In a few weeks Wainwright will be one of the best known and most talked-of towns in Western Canada. Investors who have not heretofore had their attention called to it will be seeking investments there. Those who buy and will have the benefit of the rush for lots which is sure to come soon.

The prices fixed on the lots in the new subdivision are low. The object is to build up the town, attract business men and mechanics and professional men and capitalists. The G. T. P. will reap its reward, not from the money received for these lots, but from the increased traffic which it will secure in and out of Wainwright.

Buy Now and Get First Choice.

This advertisement marks the beginning of a campaign of publicity which will direct the attention of investors throughout Canada and the States to Wainwright. Naturally the best that the G. T. P. has to offer at Wainwright is included in this sub-division—THE FIRST SUB-DIVISION ADJOINING THE ORIGINAL G. T. P. TOWNSITE that has been offered. This sub-division immediately adjoins the original town, which is built right up to it. The new $18,000 school house occupies a block right across the street from this sub-division. The block recently purchased for the site of a new Catholic church is right across the street from it.

Every lot in the addition lies well. The addition is high, overlooking the town, and practically level, open prairie. It is not necessary for purchasers to specify the particular lot or lots they desire. Wire your reservation, stating number of lots and price you wish to pay. We shall select the best lots for the price. We have a representative who is familiar with the ground and the choice lots will be selected in the order in which applications are received.

If the selection of lots made by our representative is not satisfactory, the Grand Trunk Pacific stands ready to give you your choice of the remaining lots at the same price, or refund all your payments. WE ADVISE THAT YOU DO NOT DELAY, BUT TELEGRAPH RESERVATION AT ONCE. Let the remittance follow by next mail; in this way you will get the pick of the choice lots. A delay of a day may mean a difference of a block in the location of your lots.

Russell Sage, who accumulated an immense fortune, said: "Real Estate is an imperishable asset, ever increasing in value. It is the most solid security that human ingenuity has ever devised. It is the basis of all security and about the only indestructible security."

Andrew Carnegie says in the "Empire of Business": "Ninety per cent. of all millionaires becomes so through buying real estate. More money has been made in real estate than from all industrial investments combined."

Hetty Green's advice to women is: "I advise women to invest in real estate. It is the collateral to be preferred above all others, and the safest means of investing money."

The following is an extract from a letter received by the A. P. C. from His Grace Archbishop Howley, which should be of general interest.

"I am sending you an amount towards the A. P. C. Funds. I am sorry I cannot afford a larger subscription as demands are all the time increasing."

"I am glad to see that you are able to notice that the movement is meeting with some success. I can from my own experience endorse that report as far as cleanliness of habit is concerned, especially in the matter of ex-pecoration. Our school teachers have taken the matter up with earnestness, and a marked improvement is noticeable."

"I understand that the system of publishing more or less detailed reports of cases and conditions has been to a large extent abandoned, and I approve of this."

"Here it occurs to me to say a word in praise and admiration of our own charitable ladies of the Dorcas and Vincent de Paul Societies, who for many years past they have quietly and silently done their good works among our poor and I have never heard a word of bitterness against them, even from chronic grumblers."

"They do their work in the true spirit of Christian Charity and without any braying of trumpets."

At Smithville.

HON. MR. BOWLING'S TREAT TO ALEXIS.

Hon. E. R. Bowling entertained the College Company of the C. L. B. to a dinner at Smithville yesterday in honor of the 19th anniversary. Ninety-five ladies marched from Bishop Field College to Smithville at 2 p.m. where the interval before dinner was spent in an attack upon Smithville. The following toast list was rendered:—

"The King"—Prop. by chairman; resp. "God Save the King";

"The C. L. B."—Prop. J. Samsom; resp. Capt. Goodridge;

"The College"—Prop. Lieut. Winter; resp. Mr. R. Wood;

"The College Company"—Prop. Adj. Rendell; resp. Capt. Bernard;

"N. C. O's."—Prop. J. P. Cull; resp. N. C. Officers.

A telegram was read from Mr. Blackall who is out of town, in which he greeted the lads in the following words:—"Good luck to College Cadets; long live the memory of King Edward." The boys gave three hearty cheers for Mr. Blackall, also for Hon. E. R. Bowling, Lieut.-Col. Rendell and Mr. Wood. The enjoyment of the occasion was enhanced by Mr. Wood, Mr. House and Pte. Steele rendering musical selections.

Here and There.

Stafford's Lintment cures Lumbago.—Nov 11, 11.

THREE ARRESTS.—The police made three arrests for drunkenness last night.

HERRING CATCHERS.—There are now eleven vessels on the West Coast at work in the herring fishery. The fish have not yet struck into the arms.

P. S. A.—At the meeting, in the Congregational Church, to-morrow afternoon, from 8 to 4, a collection will be given by Dr. W. F. Lloyd. All men are heartily invited.—Nov 12, 11.

BIFLE RANGE OPENED.—The rifle range at the C. L. B. Army has been opened. The boys will begin to practise at once. There will be several contests during the winter.

TAKING OUT CARGO.—Several schooners are now near the stranded schooner St. Elmo taking out the cargo of pipes on board, and it is hoped after they are removed she will come off. If a strong E. S. wind blows, however, the vessel may be smashed up with the sea.

FELL OVER WHARF.—A drunken scoundrel who strayed down to the wharf wharf tripped in a rope and fell overboard between the Rosalind and the pier. He was taken out after a good deal of trouble and given in charge of Constable Tucker who took him to the police station.

BUYING ALL THE FISH.—An agent of a Boston fish firm is now on the West Coast buying up all the green fish at three cents per pound. The Hollets have sold all theirs to him, and he has cleaned up the fish from the salt bulks at Grand Bank and Fortune.

SEAMEN DELAY SHIP.—The S. S. Durango which was ready to sail for Halifax at 1 p.m. yesterday was delayed from the fact that four men of her crew cleared out from her and delayed her for several hours. While at Halifax last trip some of the crew left her and these were replaced by four Newfoundlanders who in turn deserted the vessel here. The absent men were located shortly before 7 p.m. and the vessel sailed at 8 p.m.

AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITS SOLD.—Yesterday there was a large gathering of people at the Curling Rink when the vegetables, cereals and food products generally exhibited at the Rink were sold at auction. Mr. Thos. Kelly was the auctioneer, and excellent prices were received for the produce. The butter went from 25 to 40 cents per pound, and the peas were sold for $9 and purchased by a prominent insurance man.

I. O. G. T.—Those who braved the elements last night to attend the pork and cabbage supper at O'ward Lodge were amply repaid. This Society has always been noted for their social gatherings and the success which attended them. Last evening's programme eclipsed all their previous efforts, and all present pronounced it an unqualified success. The manner in which the good sisters managed the affair (under the greatest difficulties) was highly commendable. After doing full justice to the supper a refreshing cup of tea was passed round, and the happy gathering dispersed about 10.30, after the singing of the National Anthem.

MARSHALL BROS.

Requiescat in Pace.

After having lingered for months by her bedside, the Angel of Death, at last folded in his wings and bore to God's fair land at 8.30 last evening the Soul of Sister M. Thomas Reilly, of the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square.

Amiable and unassuming, kind and obliging, Sister M. Thomas had gained for herself many friends and her loss will be keenly felt by all who knew and loved her. Her religious community will miss a devoted and affectionate companion, the little children a gentle teacher, her family a fondly attached sister, but faith can raise the veil which hides the Great Beyond, from mortals and make us hear a new voice added to the heavenly choir, which sings the eternal sanctus, and see among the God's court, the soul of our dear departed one, redeemed by the Precious Blood, chastened by suffering patiently borne; now interesting powerfully for her loved ones with Him from whom nothing is hid, nor death, nor things present nor things to come can ever separate her more.

Sister M. Thomas, the youngest daughter of the late Thomas O'Reilly, Esq., J. P. of Placentia, was born in that town 34 years ago. In 1899 she bade adieu to the world, having heard in her soul the Saviour's invitation, "Follow Me." In 1902 she made her religious profession at Cathedral Square; she worthily wore the habit of a Presentation nun, edifying all by her deep faith, her generosity in God's service and her patience under bodily sufferings, and when the end came she went forth rejoicing to her Maker and her God.

Sister M. Thomas leaves three brothers—Rev. J. J. O'Reilly, D. D., formerly of this city, now doing missionary work in St. John, N. B.; William O'Reilly, Esq., merchant of the same town and three sisters—Mrs. C. N. Boyle, of Sydney, Mrs. M. J. Nugent, of Gambo, Mrs. W. J. Nugent, of Philadelphia. Rgt. Rev. Mgr. Roche, V. G., a cousin of the family, was constant in attendance on the dying nun whom he fortified with all the rites of Holy Church. To her relatives and friends we extend our sympathy in this time of sorrow.

On Monday morning at 8.30 there will be office of High Mass for the eternal repose of her soul, after which her body will be consigned to mother earth in the little convent cemetery, but her memory will live for ever in the hearts of those that loved her.

Supreme Court.

(Before Full Bench.)
William Butt, William J. Buckle and P. J. Owens were arraigned on the charge of battery yesterday afternoon. Butt and Buckle pleaded guilty and were remanded. Owens pleaded not guilty, and this morning, November 21st, was set down for the trial.

(Before Mr. Justice Emerson.)
M. G. Winter, Exor., vs. Nicholas J. Vinnicombe.
Mr. Furlong, K.C., asks leave to amend the defence by the statement that certain services were performed and $100 paid therefor. Sir J. S. Winter, K.C., says amendment is unnecessary.

The Judge delivered judgment, saying: "I find that there was a fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of the deceased. I order that the document be delivered up and cancelled. I order an injunction to issue to restrain the executor from dealing with the instrument. I order that the defendant pay the costs of the suit, and the question of the amount to be paid for the services of the deceased be referred to the Master for determination."

SEAMAN INJURED.—Seaman Griffin, who was painting on the side of the s.s. Portia at Bowring's wharf yesterday, fell and injured his throat by coming within the edge of the wharf. He went to a drug store and had the wound dressed.

THE REGULUS ENQUIRY.—The Marine Court of Inquiry into the loss of the Regulus continued its sittings yesterday afternoon. The evidence of Capt. H. Winsor, of Aquaforte, Patk. Howlett, and Henry Chafe, of Betty Harbor, and James Cantwell, of Cape Spear, was taken. The Court concludes its session this afternoon.

He will be assisted by Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. Rees, and a number of Staff and Field Officers. There will also be special services conducted by a number of visiting officers at Livingstone and George Street Halls. Everybody welcome.

Man Almost Drowned.

At 10.30 last night a man named Martin went on board the Rowland at A. J. Harvey's premises and being very far gone in liquor he narrowly escaped going into the waters of the harbor over the port wall of the wharf. He then came on shore and walked over the pier at the head of the wharf. Alexander, which is lying there. He made no outcry and as the police was dark, there being no one working about, those who rescued him did so with great difficulty. Capt. Cave of H. M. Customs heard the splash of the water and he with watchman Peter Keefe of the Rosalind after some trouble got a boat and taking a couple of turns of a rope round the man's body got him ashore. He was unconscious when found and was floating on the surface. He was fully 15 minutes in the water when he revived he was very ill but sobered, and his escape from death was a narrow one.

VISITED PENITENTIARY.—Yesterday afternoon the Grand Jury visited the Penitentiary and were conducted through the different wards and apartments by Supt. Parsons. The jury were much pleased with the evidence of cleanliness, order and discipline which they observed in the institution.

BLOCK FELL ON HIS HEAD.—A young man named Sullivan, working at Parker & Monroe's Shoe Factory, Alexander Street, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. A block fell on his head and made a deep wound in his scalp. He came to Mr. P. O'Mara's drug store and had the wound dressed.

This morning the police were informed that Joseph Delaney, of the north shore of Conception Bay, captain of the schr. Vesta, lying at Pier Bros. wharf, is missing. He left the ship 48 hours ago and since then there has been no tidings of him. The police are to-day making enquiries about him, and it is feared that he is all overboard and was drowned.

People who arrived from there by last night's train report that on Wednesday night some person or persons forced open the door of Mr. Nicholas Mooney's store at Branch, St. Mary's Bay, and stole therefrom a considerable quantity of codfish, amounting to several quintals. Const. O'Neil went there from St. Brice's and investigated and it is expected that arrests will be made shortly. The burglary was similar to that committed at St. Brice's recently.

CAPE RACE, To-Day.

MECHANICS' MEETING.—The Regular Quarterly Meeting of the St. John's Mechanics' Society will be held in their hall on Monday evening, 14th inst., at 8 o'clock. By order, JAS. A. LEAHEY Sec.

Sarah McCarthy, of Harbor Grace, came in by train to-day and was taken to Hospital. She is suffering from a bad foot and is unable to walk. There was some delay and discussion about how she was to be removed from the train to the carriage in waiting, when Conductor P. Lee, as he always does when he is around in such cases, took the woman in his arms as if she were a baby and bore her to the carriage, to the great admiration of the bystanders.

Mr. Edward Brennan, of the schr. L. C. Brennan, had a telegram yesterday evening from Magistrate Hogan at St. Mary's, saying that the schr. Mary Joseph, which had been reported missing, left St. Mary's Thursday. The breeze which we experienced Wednesday kept her there, and it is thought that she is now harbored on the Southern Shore, Folvy, of St. Bride's, and Mrs. Dabey also had messages from their husbands, who are on board, saying that the vessel was at St. Mary's all right.

The schr. Ohara, which went to Groasis Islands on the 16th October for a load of fish for Bowring Bros. was at Englee yesterday coming this way. The Prospero reports the vessel.

The schr. Clyde, which left Point May, Lamaline, three weeks ago for here, is at Riverhead, St. Mary's, and is O. K. She made four attempts to get this way but owing to head winds had to run back. Mr. Berseau, the owner of the fish on board, had a message from her this morning.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its forms can be cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything. I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden." Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

DR. F. STAFFORD & SON,
Theatre Hill. Small size, 25 cents; postage 5c. extra; large size, 50 cents; postage 10c. extra. Mail orders must be accompanied by remittance.—oct 29.1m.

Leg Amputated.

Mrs. Steward who fell over the cliff at Rushoon, last week, and broke her leg was obliged to have the member amputated owing to the fact that mortification had set in. Mrs. Steward had a bag of sand on her back when she fell over the cliff. Her leg was broken in two places. The accident occurred on Friday, and Mrs. Steward did not get to Burin in the Argyle till the following Tuesday evening. Dr. Smith found that mortification had set in and decided to amputate the leg. Mrs. Steward is a married woman of middle age and has a family. Much sympathy is expressed for her in this great affliction.

A druggist can obtain an imitation of MINARD'S LINIMENT from a Toronto house at a very low price, and have it labelled his own product.

This greasy imitation is the poorest one we have yet seen of the many that every Tom, Dick and Harry has tried to introduce.

Ask for MINARD'S and you will get it.

NOTE OF THANKS.—The family and relatives of the late Leonard Miles, thsmith, of Catalina, wish to publicly express their thanks and gratitude to those people of Catalina for the many kindnesses shown him during his illness, and for the beautiful wreaths and flowers sent in sympathy.—advt.

Laid Up With Lame Back

Pain, helplessness and suffering are overcome by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Mrs. Frank Bloom, Hardwood Lake, Ont., writes: "I want to tell you of the great benefit I found in the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I suffered so badly with kidney disease that when I lay down I could not get up without help. I was completely laid up with lame, aching back. I read about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the almanac, got them and they cured me of kidney disease and backache."

"My husband had dreadful pains in his sides and obtained cure by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These pills are the best on the market and I am glad to recommend them."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are definite and certain in action, soothe the liver and bowels as well as the kidneys, are lastingly beneficial and economical. But to obtain these results you must get the genuine Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Deaconess Sunday

AT GOWER STREET CHURCH.
To-morrow is being observed as Deaconess Sunday at Gower Street Methodist Church, and the offerings of the day are to be devoted to the support of this work. At the morning service Rev. J. W. Bartlett will preach. In the evening a platform meeting will be held at which the Hon. J. A. Robinson will preside as chairman; an address will be given by Miss Hocken, and a special musical programme has been arranged for by Mr. F. J. King comprising anthems: "Send out the Light"—a trio of ladies voices, and solo by Miss Elsie Herder.

Harsh Treatment, This

Each summer for several years past Dick McGee, the harmless imbecile, who is a well known figure on our streets, is employed by people in one of the eastern settlements to work about their premises for his keep, for we understand he receives no recompense in cash. When the late fall sets in he is discharged and comes to the city, where he wanders about homeless during the winter months in cold and misery and but for the kindness of the police and citizens would perish from hunger and exposure. A few days ago he appeared in the city and, as in the case of former years, is again wandering the streets. It would be a charity for some person to give him shelter and food, for he could make ample returns, in doing light work.

COULDN'T LOAD SHIP.—Owing to the severe rain storm of yesterday evening and last night, the men at work on the Rosalind had to discontinue, as to put packages of fish on board under such weather would do the contents no good. The ship sailed this forenoon.

BOARD OF HEALTH.—At the present time there are six cases of typhoid fever and seven of scarlet fever in the city being nursed at home. In the Hospital there are five cases of scarlet fever, four of typhoid and one of diphtheria. Three of the scarlet fever cases developed since Sunday last.

A CHARITABLE ACT.—A number of young ladies of the East End have banded together and will hold a basket party next week to swell the Regulus-Golden Arrow Fund. A large number have promised to attend and the promoters are sanguine that they will realize a handsome sum for this worthy object.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED.—Mr. R. Pike, of Burin, came near killing one of his little girls there last Saturday. He was at work throwing out rocks at the back of his house. His little girl came out to play. He did not see her, and throwing a rock it fell on her and crushed her skull. Dr. Smith was called in and performed an operation which it is believed will turn out successful, as Dr. Smith is known on the coast as the "King of Surgeons."
