The Reason Why.

The reason why the magnificent Retail Grocery Establishments in the Alma Block and on Lower Wyndham Street, belonging to John A. Wood, are so very popular with the intelligent public—

Because the Goods are all of the best quality.
Because the Prices are invariably the lowest.
Because the Clerks are courteous and obliging.
Because the Stock is the largest to select from.

Because the goods are always clean.
Because the Weights and Measures are always correct.

Because, in fact, the proprietor understands his business, desires to please his customers, makes good use of his capital, and buys for cash in the best markets, and always deals liberally with those who honor his stores with their custom.

These and many other weighty reasons have contributed very largely to make the name of John A. Wood, as connected with the Grocery trade of Guelph, so well known, and his stores so very popular.

He has been offered and refused five hundred dollars for this grand piece of musical brain-work. POLICE COURT.
(Before the Police Magistrate.)
Saturday August 30th.
EDEN vs. BATHGATE.
Judgment in this case was given to-day by the Police Magistrate. Defendant hired plaintiff for seven months from April 1st, but discharged him after four months' work on the ground that he refused to obey lawful commands, and was insolent. His Worship found that there was not disobedience or insolence sufficient to justify defendant in discharging Eden, for it was not lawful or reasonable to command a servant to go to work without his horse. The magistrate held that he had jurisdiction to deal with the case, under the Masters and Servants Act, and gave judgment for the plaintiff for $37.50 wages due, and $4.75 costs.

About 260 people went from Harrison to Southampton and Port Elgin on Tuesday's excursion of the W. G. & B. A base ball match came off at the latter place between Harrison and Port Elgin, which was won by the Harrison visitors by three runs. The excursion was a successful one in every respect. The editor of the Tribune thus speaks of the trip:—"We must say it is one of the most substantial and beautiful villages we have ever seen in Canada, and the kindness of the people will long be remembered by the excursionists from Harrison. The only mistake was, we should not have gone to Southampton at all. But another year will make that all right. Those who stayed in Southampton enjoyed themselves by going out to the island, and sailing around the lake, which was very pleasant, as the day was calm and cool."

ALLEGED BURGLARY AT CRAIGSHOLM.
—Sometime between Sunday night and Monday morning, some party or parties entered the general store at post-office kept by Murdoch Craig, Craigsholm, and abstracted there from $900 worth of goods, comprising a general assortment, and including a quantity of boots and shoes. Whoever took the goods must have been quite familiar with and at home on the premises.

We are now officially informed that the Ministerial banquets—those to Sir John and Mr. Gibbs—are postponed to a more convenient season. It seems as last to have struck the gentlemen engaged in getting them up, that a demonstration to Ministers under impeachment, given in honor of their temporary escapes from justice, would hardly reflect much credit on any of the parties to them.

Young Men's Christian Association.

CLOSE OF THE CONVENTION

Amongst the "crowded out" items in Friday's paper were some remarks of Mr. Morse, pointing out that the introduction of the social element, of games, &c., more widely into Y. M. C. A.'s, was best settled by experiment. For instance, the question of introducing bowling alleys into some of the New England college gymnasiums was mooted; and as the bowling alley was a thing so closely associated with the saloon, considerable debate was had. At last one of the leading colleges introduced a bowling alley, and the effect was watched. If the alley had had a baneful effect upon the students, their relatives would have made it known through the land; and the college authorities were ready to stop the bowling; but there was no such effect, and most of the colleges now had bowling alleys. That was the way this social question should be settled, not by debate. The gymnasium had been a great help and a great blessing to many Y. M. C. A.'s, and he believed it was in the providence of God that these associations should put on more social attractiveness.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON'S SESSION.

The 5th session opened at half-past one, Mr. Muir of London, in the chair. After devotional exercises the

QUESTION DRAWER
Was opened. The following are some of the questions and answers:—
Q.—To the members of the Anglican Church, as a rule, favorable to the Y. M. C. A.? have we many of their members? if not, why do they keep aloof? Answered by Mr. T. J. Wilkie—in Toronto they do join us, and we have many good workers from that Church; don't know that they are so far from the members of all the churches will help us when they fully understand our work and objects.

In what branches of association work can ladies be most profitably engaged? should we endeavor to procure their assistance in our regular duties? Answered by Mr. W. Anderson, of Toronto—The ladies can and do help us in our work in Toronto very much. You can hardly bring them in the work outside as regular workers, but they can be of wonderful help in their own homes—using their influence with husbands and brothers.

Do you think that a General Secretary is much needed in the Dominion to organize associations, and encourage and assist weak ones? Mr. W. Anderson—Yes, much needed. The Executive Committee have this matter under careful consideration.

Is it the mind of this Convention that ladies should be admitted as members of the Y. M. C. A.? Mr. Copeland, Port Hope—No; get them as helpmates, but not as members.

RESOLUTIONS, ETC.
Mr. Muir, of London, moved a resolution that the sympathy and co-operation of the ladies be sought, and that the object and aim of Y. M. C. A.'s be laid before the different assemblies or conferences of the different denominations, that the proper work of Y. M. C. A.'s may be thereby furthered.

Mr. D. A. Sinclair, of Hamilton, presented a resolution, asking that the Executive Committee consider the advisability of raising funds for the prosecution of Provincial work by laying a tax of 10 or 15 per cent. of the membership fees of each Association. The resolution was referred to the Executive Committee by the chairman.

Mr. B. C. Morse addressed the Convention on behalf of the Illustrated Christian Weekly.

REPORTS OF ASSOCIATIONS.
COBURG.—Mr. Lays—Association progressing. New rooms; paid a general secretary; membership 116; prayer-meetings on Sabbath morning; mission work done; tracts distributed, and Bethel work carried on, the laymen helping.

PORT HOPE.—Mr. Copeland—Had 175 members. Average attendance at Saturday evening meeting $0, Sabbath morning, 70, and the Bible class 20. Last year they appointed a general secretary, who had been the means of much good to the Association. Had only 60 members last year. Had three cottage prayer meetings. Free reading room.

OSHAWA.—Mr. Geo. Young—Had been organized about two months, and had 60 or 60 members. Sabbath morning prayer meeting well attended. Prospects encouraging. Already good was done.

LONDON.—Mr. J. H. Robinson—Had 75 members, 23 real workers. Free reading room. Sabbath morning and evening prayer meetings, and service in the jail. They had just started what might be called a ragged school, Wednesday evening they had a mission prayer meeting. Tracts were distributed by the Association on the railway trains. All their meetings good.

MR. MUIR—They had a committee to visit boarding houses.

FANS.—Mr. Aves—Work apparently successful. Prayer meetings on Sabbath morning, afternoon a four o'clock, and Saturday evening. They had an Invitation Committee to invite young men to the prayer meetings. Every other Tuesday evening they had a temperance meeting. He felt they needed more courting.

ST. CATHARINES.—Rev. Mr. Bone—Ten good working men could do a great work. Service in the jail. Visited the depot in the afternoon. Had open air service on Monday evenings. They had abundance of power if only directed aright.

BUNTON.—Mr. Wood—Regular meeting on Monday evening. Almost every evening they had some discussion on Bible subjects. Prayer meeting on Sabbath evening. Temperance meeting. Jail work. Doing better than ever before.

MR. Wm. Anderson, of Toronto, said boarding house work was the most direct work of Y. M. C. A. we could be engaged in.

WOODSTOCK.—Mr. Edwards—Had 40 members. Lively. Prayer meeting on Sabbath morning. Regular weekly meetings well attended. Sabbath school taken from their hands. The money they spent in lectures well spent.

The following gentlemen were then appointed to compose the Executive Committee:—John Macdonald, President; J. J. Wilkie, Secretary; G. Hage, Treasurer; Wm. Anderson, and Mr. Crombie, all of Toronto; Corresponding members—Mr. D. McCrae, Guelph; Mr. Patterson, Montreal; Mr. Muir, London; Mr. Gray, Port Hope; Mr. Trebilcock, Bowmanville; Mr. Geo. Young, Hamilton; Mr. A. C. Osborne, Belleville.

Mr. McCrae said that it was the opinion of many members of the Convention that the Executive Committee should be scattered over the Province.

Mr. Anderson said it was in the hands of the Convention; they had tried before with a scattered Committee but it had not worked to satisfaction.

Mr. McCrae moved, seconded by Mr. McBrier, that the Corresponding members be added to the Executive Committee, and that do form a quorum.

After some discussion, and changing the 5 to 3, the motion was carried.

The Convention having voted $500 to the Executive Committee, following subscriptions were then received:—Belleville $10, Bowmanville $10, Brantford $30, Cobourg $10, Fergus $15, Galt $10, Guelph $30, Hamilton $50, Montreal $30, Mr. Patterson $10, Port Hope $15, St. Catharines $25, Toronto, $50, Sarnia $10, Walkerton $5, Kincardine $5, Woodstock $10, Elora (by Mr. W. Smellie) $5, Paisley $5, St. Andrew's school, Fergus, (by Rev. Mr. Mullan) $5, Douglas, (by Mr. W. Smellie) $5, John Macdonald $10, R. C. Morse $10, Mr. Hage $10, D. M. Bone $10, C. Raymond $10, Wm. Anderson $5, Several places; and various subscriptions made up the balance.

The subject for discussion, "Bible study in our Associations—its need and value," was then taken up. Mr. Hage, of Toronto, read an excellent essay on this subject, which we regret we are unable to reproduce at length. The discussion was taken part in by Mr. D. McCrae, of Guelph, and others.

The minutes were then read, corrected and confirmed, a vote of thanks passed to Mr. Robinson, of London, for the able manner in which he had taken down the minutes, and the business of the Convention was brought to a close.

THE CLOSING MEETING.
The closing meeting was held in Knox's Church on Friday night. The body of the church was filled, and there were many in the galleries. Proceedings were opened by devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Hogg, and by the singing of an anthem—Manna's Dew—by the choir of the Congregational Church. Dr. McGuire occupied the chair. The speakers were limited to five minutes each.

The Chairman remarked that he never in his life felt more like making a speech than he now did; but he would not occupy their time at present. When last year he had extended an invitation to the 1873 Convention to meet here, it was feared that there would be some difficulty in accommodating all the delegates, but he was happy to hear from the delegates that they had all been well treated, and had felt themselves very much at home. He would just remark that if any of his friends had in their congregations a man who thought he should do all the talking and who prayed by the hour, let them send him to the next Y. M. C. A. meeting; for there short earnest prayers and five-minute speeches were the rule.

Mr. Trebilcock, of Bowmanville, read the report of the Committee on Associations, which stated that votes of thanks had been passed to the church trustees for the use of the churches; to the friends who so hospitably and generously opened their homes for the entertainment of the delegates and visitors; to the pastors and ladies of the Congregational Church for their social; to the Grand Trunk, Northern and Great Western Railway Companies for reduction of fares on the press; for reporting the opening of the Convention; to the Guelph brethren for their satisfactory arrangements; to the executive committee of New York, and to Mr. Morse, for that gentleman's visit; and to Mr. Jenkins, of Buffalo, for his

"The Herald" and Mr. Massie.

The Editor of the Guelph Herald thinks this world is a sort of Donnybrook Fair. He is always looking round for a shiny, and longing for somebody to "thrust on the tail my me coat."

For some time the Herald has been reduced to the necessity of wrangling with the Brantford papers, as the Mercury has something better to do than to play the editorial game-cock with him; but our publication of a telegram from Mr. James Massie on Thursday gave him the wished-for opportunity, and yesterday his long suffering readers are treated to a column of that spluttering, bragging misrepresentation, strongly spiced with personal abuse, in which the soul of the Herald delighted.

As to Mr. Massie's telegram, the publication of such a message under such circumstances was a simple matter of course. Our impression on seeing the telegram was that it was designed to correct an exaggerated statement on the part of the Herald; and enquiry at Messrs. Massie, Paterson & Co's this morning confirms the idea.

We apologise to our readers for devoting so much space to the Herald.

Edward Blake at London.

The pressure upon our columns compels us to hold over until Monday a full report of Mr. Blake's great speech in London on Thursday evening. The Hamilton Times of Friday remarks as follows upon the subject: "The demonstration in London last night was the greatest ever held in that city, and one of the greatest ever held in Canada."

Mr. Blake traced in minute detail the whole course of the plot which has culminated in the seizure of the reins of Government by a dozen conspirators, who have peremptorily refused to submit themselves to the authority of Parliament.

cheated Parliament out of its right of investigating their conduct up to the day when the grand coup d'etat was made by which a Parliamentary Committee was destroyed by an act of the Crown, Parliament itself turned out of its chamber in spite of its expressed will, and the control of the country left in the hands of men who were in direct hostility to the people's representatives.

A rousing meeting of the Reformers of Townsend and the adjoining townships, was held in the square fronting the Town Hall of Waterford on Thursday. Not less than 800 were present.

ANNABEL OR THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXXVI. A WILD REVELLING HOPE BURSTS ON PHILIP WESTON—HE AND JIM TAKE A JOURNEY AND MAKE DISCOVERIES.

"In ordinary circumstances," he observed, "I am debarred from giving information of which I have become possessed as keeper of the Post Office. But in a case of this kind, I think I may venture to transgress the rule; and if I do so, you promise not to bring me into trouble by disclosing the source of your intelligence?"

"I promise—I solemnly promise," exclaimed Philip, with wild energy. "You may safely trust me," said Jim, and as the man looked into his open honest face, so indicative of truth and integrity, he felt assured that he might.

But, before speaking further, he peeped through the side of the curtain to be certain that no one was in the front shop, and being satisfied that on this point, he turned round, and said in a suppressed tone—

"Your mention of that name—Barnard Hayes—shows me that you have a good idea of the truth. More than once Dick Mattocks has posted a letter addressed to this name in Liverpool, and a day or two after a letter would come to him with the Liverpool mark. Then generally a man came next day and met him at Blue Boar, where they shut themselves up into a private room, and had a long talk together. But this was not Barnard Hayes—the landlord tells me."

"Who then?" demanded Philip. "I saw him on one occasion," replied the other, and to me he had much the look of a Methodist parson. And a parson he is, for his name is the Rev. Bartholomew Kidd."

"The Rev. Bartholomew Kidd," repeated Philip, slowly with a broad look at Jim. "I have surely heard that name before."

"In course we have," said Jim, with sudden animation. "That was the name of the parson who leagued with Mrs. Dobson for a week, and whom she thought the sweetest saint as ever lived. I saw him just once, and I'll be blowed if I didn't think him an out-and-out hypocrite."

"My life on it, it is Barnard Hayes in disguise," exclaimed Philip, "and if so, his stay at Mrs. Dobson's had something to do with the infamous plot against Annabel. Ha! I have it. This is how the marriage certificate so unaccountably disappeared. He stole it."

"The very thing," said Jim, sleeping his thigh energetically. "Oh, the cunning, deceitful villain."

"Of course I don't know anything about that," went on the postmaster. "It is now three days since Dick Mattocks posted a letter to Barnard Hayes, and the answer has come this afternoon. I wonder Dick has not called for it. He will be sure to do so to-morrow."

"You have it then?" said Philip, with breathless and significant eagerness on which the postmaster put but one interpretation, and slowly but decidedly shook his head.

"I could not do it," he said. "I durst not do it. It would cost me my place."

"I do not wish to open it," said Philip. "No, not even to counteract their villainy would I do so base an action; but I know Barnard Hayes' handwriting, and if I saw the address I would know if the letter is from him."

"Oh, well, thus far I may venture," said the official, quitting the room, and returning in half a minute with the letter in his hand, the back of which he held up full in Philip's sight.

To the latter one glance was enough. "Yes," he said, without a moment's hesitation, "that is the handwriting of Barnard Hayes."

Just then the bell of the street door tinkled loudly, and with a great start and a frightened look the official thrust the letter into his pocket, and made a rush to the curtain to see who had entered. Here he gave another and still greater start, and springing back, presented towards them a face white as ashes.

"Good lord," he whispered in a tone of consternation, "it is Dick Mattocks. For heaven's sake keep out of sight."

He waved them wildly back to the farthest corner of the room, then passed in to the outer shop and carefully closed the door of communication behind him.

Under an irresistible impulse, Philip and Jim crept forward and peered beneath the curtain. One brief look Philip bent on the man standing at the counter, then he staggered back carrying Jim with him into the middle of the chamber.

"Merofal heaven!" he ejaculated, "that is the grotter of Woolgus's Lane!"

A REALLY GOOD ARTICLE.—We would call the attention of all interested to an article of undoubted merit, and which we would advise all in want of to give a trial. We refer to "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," now being extensively used by many of the largest horse-dealers in the country; these men have discovered that it improves the condition of the horse by purifying the blood and removing from the lungs and liver all that prevents their healthy action; its effect is soon apparent in the improved appearance of the animal, which is one great reason why horse dealers use it as they are thus enabled to get better prices, and at the same time give their customers sound and healthy horses. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lynn, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Twenty years' experience in using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have proved them to be the most effectual remedy for coughs and irritation of the throat, caused by cold, or unusual exertion of the vocal organs; public speakers and singers will find them most beneficial. The entire freedom from all deleterious ingredients renders "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," or Cough and Voice Lozenges, a safe remedy for the most delicate person, and have caused them to be held in high esteem by all who have used them. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25c. per box.

To the Weak, the Worn and the Weary, the editor of the Eastern Recorder says, "We can most heartily recommend the Peruvian Syrup, a proteoted solution of the protoxide of iron, to all the weak, the worn and the weary, having richly experienced its benefits. It possesses all the qualities claimed for it by its proprietor."

Political life is a curious study. In England the most dazzling prizes are political—the crown of life of the most illustrious in rank and riches is political distinction—and in English works of fiction political success is represented as the greatest triumph. But we think no greater triumph has been achieved in modern times than the production of the "Canadian Pain Destroyer," for eradicating pain from the system and curing colds, coughs, rheumatism, neuralgia, domet complaints, &c. For sale by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Proteoted Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bile, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, insuring strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

matter to have a permanent general secretary, and Guelph had placed itself in the van of Associations of its size in this regard. He trusted they would not retrograde in this particular, for it would be a real retrogression if they were to suspend this office for any reason. He spoke as to the result of his experience elsewhere. The ladies could help on or retard the work of the Y. M. C. A. most materially. There was a sort of sneer sometimes cast on indications of christianity in young men which, when it came from a lady, struck deep, and the speaker for which was sometimes lifelike. Christian ladies had a stake in the progress of christian work amongst young men, in the suppression of those influences that ruin young men, by substituting for them healthful and innocent recreation and companionship. This was the "reason of existence" of the Y. M. C. A.

The choir sang a verse of the hymn "For ever with the Lord." Mr. Wilkie was the next speaker. He said he would be brief, because he had taken so active a part in the Convention. He regretted to hear that the Guelph Association was in want of funds, and a collection would be taken up towards meeting this want. He was sorry to hear that their brother Bates, who had hitherto acted as secretary, was about to leave them, believing himself called to a higher office—that of Christian ministry. He hoped they might find a worthy successor to Mr. Bates.

The collection was then taken up, and another verse of the hymn sung meanwhile.

Mr. Geo. Hague, of Toronto, spoke of the relation of Y. M. C. A.'s to the various branches of the church of Christ. The members of these associations were all members of churches, and his experience was that the associations were very largely tributary to the welfare of the churches. He named several instances in which active members of the associations had become christian ministers. It would not therefore be surprising if there was any antagonism between the church and the Y. M. C. A. His conviction was that God had set his seal on these associations in a very marked degree. Their part was to do the aggressive work which was so much needed in these days of enterprise; and the unsectarian nature of the associations was a cheering feature, leading to perfect unity of work. He would throw out an idea or two in reference to the building they had in contemplation. The first time he got a definite project for their building in Toronto was at the great Indianapolis Convention a short time ago. The matter was subsequently mooted in the city, and they thought of expending about $7,000 on the building. A meeting was held, at which only a mere fraction of the supporters and friends of the undertaking were present, and in that one meeting the whole sum they had expected to raise was subscribed. So they took heart of grace, went on, and soon $14,000 was raised. The site was bought, and cost more than they had originally proposed to spend altogether. The work went on and soon the subscription mounted up to $21,000. When the building was finally opened the total cost had mounted up to about $40,000, and nearly the whole of the balance due upon it was subscribed at the opening meeting. They had now a splendid building, with one of the largest halls in Toronto, and only a debt of some $4,000 or $5,000 upon it, which would ere long be wiped out altogether. All this God had accomplished for them—Lift up your hearts, then, Christian men and Christian women of Guelph, added Mr. Hague; pray, have faith, and work in the spirit of prayer and faith; be not discouraged, but go on, and God will prosper you, and you will have the joy of seeing your building rise up to completion. A word as to the work of the ladies. A few Toronto ladies gathered together to see if it were possible by their efforts to furnish the new building. They felt very doubtful about it at first; but they went to work, their efforts grew and prospered, and the result was that they were enabled to present to the Association ten times as much as had been expected; and he had been told by several of the ladies that it was worth all the labour to have had the opportunity of forming the friendly relations which they had amongst those of other denominations. What the ladies of Toronto had done, the ladies of Guelph could do.

Mr. Edwards, of Woodstock, alluding to a remark of the chairman's, that the Convention had the effect of smoothing down denominational angularities and asperities, remarked that the proceedings of the convention rather tended to demonstrate the entire absence of the sectarian angularities. It was very cheering to see the good fellowship and the entire absence of all denominational character in the proceedings.

Hymn—"Jesus, lover of my soul." Mr. Sinclair, of Hamilton, spoke of the potency of a genial welcome to young men. He appealed to the fathers in the community for their aid and assistance, and pleaded for co-operation of the ladies as well. He spoke earnestly at some length. The President said he was put down on the programme for the final words of the Convention. In bidding the delegates farewell he expressed the hope that they might leave the town with kindly remembrances of the friends they had met here. The brethren of the Association and members of the churches would follow them with their prayers. He closed with a few words of earnest and appropriate farewell.

The delegates present then camoround the platform, and sang the closing hymn with joined hands, and the proceedings terminated soon after ten o'clock.

The amount of the collection for the benefit of the local Y. M. C. A. was $568.

A DISTINGUISHED PHYSIOLOGIST.

has said that Neuralgia is the cry of the hungry nerves for their special food, which is the Phosphorus contained in the blood. This painful disease is usually followed by general prostration on account of the great waste of nerve tissue and insufficient supply of nerve force to maintain the functions of the vital organs. The common cause of Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains is depraved Nutrition arising from Derangement of the Stomach, Mal-assimilation of Food, and Poor Blood. Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphorus and Cellulose supplies Phosphorus for the nervous system. Lime as an excitant of nutrition, Iron for the Blood, and Gallsaya for promoting strength. No preparation in existence is so reliable to maintain the vital force and energize all the organs and tissues of the body.
