THEY have invented a new kind of social amusement that knocks the "box social" out. It is called an "avotrupous party." All girls are weighed, and the weight of each is written on a piece of paper and put in a hat and the young men must draw. The young men must go to supper with the girl whose weight he draws, and must pay for her supper at one-half cent per pound. It is exciting so far as the young men are concerned, and nice little eighty-pound ladies are much in demand.

A NEW ENGLAND journal calls attention to the fact that eastern men, tired of the West, are purchasing farms in Vermont. One of them gives as reasons that all the desirable land in the West is now taken up, that a great deal of capital is needed to farm there, and that if a Vermont farmer is willing to endure such hardships as the Western farmer cannot avoid he may become rich quite as fast. A number of Lambton County farmers have arrived at the same conclusion and are returning to the County they left when the Western fever struck them. It's quite a common thing throughout Lambton now to hear them say "This County is good enough for me."

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for her self. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results. There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial. It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty. In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong. Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

SANDY MACDONALD'S SIGNAL.

Weel, Sandy, man; and how did ye like the sermon the day?
 Weel, it's rather a venturesome pint to handle; but if ye'll forgie the freedom, I was jest gaun to say that in your discourse the day—weel no gang any further than the one the day—in the midst o't like, when ye was on the top o' an illstration, it struck me that every noo and then—but ye'll not feel offended

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores

When the sewers of the body—bowels, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up, the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body. The way to heal them, as Mr. Richard Wilson, who lives near London, Ont. found, is to purify the blood. He writes:
 "For some time I had been in a low, depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood, and I looked about in vain for some medicine that would accomplish this.
 At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified in a very short time, sores healed up, my indigestion vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."
 Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all dealers at 25c a box.

at what I'm going to say?
 Say-awa man, I'll tell ye after. I'm comin' to the pint directly; all I was gaun to say was just this, that every noo and then in your discourse the day, I dinna say oftener than noo and then jest occasionally—'t struck me there was maybe, frae time to time, jest a wee bit o' exaggeration.
 Exagger—What Sir?
 There, there, there! I'll no say anither word! All I meant to say was that ye jest stretched the pint a wee bit! Stretched the pint! D'ye mean to say sir, that I tell lees?
 Weell—a—but I didna gang aae far as that.
 Did ever you hear the elders say that I exaggerated or stretched—the pint?
 I wadna say but what they hae, too.

Oh! So the elders and the whole of ye call me a leer, do ye? Hau'd yer tongue, Sandy, it's my turn to speak now. Although I'm your minister, still I'm perfectly willing to admit that I'm a sinful, erring creature, like any one o' ye; but I've been to colleges and seats of learning, and it's just possible that being obleeged, Sawbath after Sawbath to expound the word to sic a doited set o' Naturals—for if I wasna to mak ilka thing as big as a "barn door" ye wadna see it at a—I say it's just possible I may have slippit into a kind o' habit o' magnifying things; and it's a bad habit to get into, Sandy, and it's a waur thing to be accused o' it; and therefore, Sandy I call upon you, if ever you should hear me say another word out o' joint, to pull me up then and there.

Loah, sir, but how could I pull ye up i' the kirk?
 Ye could make some kind o' noise. A noise i' the kirk?
 Ay! ye'r sitting down beneath me, so ye might put up yer head and give a bit whustle (whistles) like that.
 A whustle? What! whustle i' the Lord's hoose o' the Lord's day?
 Ye needna make such a disturbance about it. I dinna want ye to frighten the folk, but just a wee whustle, that naeboddy but our two selves could hear.
 But would it no be an awful sin? Hoots, man, does na the wind whustle on the Sawbath?
 Weel, if there's no harm in't I'll do my best.

So it was agreed between the two that the first word of exaggeration from the pulpit was to elicit the signal from the desk below.
 Next Sunday came; and had the minister only stuck to his sermon he would have had the laugh on Sandy. But it was his habit always before the sermon to read a chapter from the Bible, adding such remarks and explanations as he thought necessary. He generally selected such chapters as contained a number of ticklish points so that his marvelous powers of elocidation might be brought into play. On this occasion he had chosen one describing Samson as catching three hundred foxes, tying them tail to tail, setting fire brands in their midst and starting them among the standing corn of the Philistines. As he closed the discription he shut the book and commenced to elocidate as follows:
 "My dear friends, I dare say you have been wondering in your minds how it was possible that Samson could catch three hundred foxes. You or me couldna catch one fox, let alone three hundred—the beasts run so fast. But lo! and behold! here we have one single man all by himself, catching three hundred of them! Now, how did he do it? That's the pint; and at first sight it looks a very ticklish pint; but it's not so ticklish as it looks, my freends; and if you give me your undivided attention for a few minutes, I'll clear away the whole difficulty and make what now seems dark and incomprehensible to your uninstructed minds, as clear as the sun in it's noonday meridian.
 "Well, then, we are told in the Scriptures that Samson was the strongest man that ever lived; and, furthermore, we are told in the chapter next after the one we have been reading, that he was a very polite man; for when he was at the house of Dagon he bowed with all his might, and if some of you, my friend, would only bow with half your might it would be better for you. But, although we are told all this, we are not told that he was a great runner. But if he caught three hundred foxes, he must have been a great runner. But, my dear freends, here's the elocidation o' the matter. Ye'll please bear this in mind, that although we are not told he was the greatest runner, still we're not told he was'na, and, therefore, I contend that we have a perfect right to assume, by all the logic and scientific history, that he was the fastest runner that ever was born; and this was how he caught the three hundred foxes.

"But after we get rid of this difficulty, my freends, another crops up—how in the world did he tie their tails together? We all know that foxes' tails are not long enough for this operation; how, then, was Samson able to tie them all? Ah! that's the question; and it's the most ticklish pint you or me has ever had to elocidate. Common-sense is no good till; no more is Latin, or Greek, or Hebrew either; no more is ligie or moral philosophy; and I've studied them all. But it's a great thing for poor, ignorant folk, like you that there's been great and learned men, like myself ye ken, that instead of going into the kirk, like me, or into pheeisic, like the doctor, or into law, like the lawyer, they have gone travelling into foreign parts.

"Now, among other places, some of these learned men have travelled into Canaan, some into Palestine, and some few into the Holy Land; and these last-mentioned travellers tell us that in these orientel climes the foxes there are a different breed o' cattle altogether from our foxes—that they're great big beasts; and what's the more astonishing about them, and what helps explain the wonderful feat of Samson, is that they have all got most extraordinary long tails; in fact, these travellers tell us that these foxes' tails are actually forty feet long (Sandy whistles); at the same time I ought to mention that other travellers, and later ones than the ones I've just been speaking about say that this statement is rather an exaggeration on the whole and that their tails are never more than twenty feet long (Sandy whistles).
 "Before I leave this subject altogether, my freends, I may just add that there's been a considerable diversity o' opinion about the length o' these animals' tails, so that the question has come to be regarded as a 'sair pint.' One man ye see says one thing and another another, and I've spent a good lot o' learned research in the matter myself, and after examining one authority and another, and putting one against the other, I have come to the conclusion that these foxes' tails on an average are seldom more than ten feet long! (Sandy whistles.)
 "Sandy Macdonald! I'll no toak' another inch off the foxes' tails, even gin ye should whustle every tooth out o' your heid!"—Anon.

Her Secret

Why She Always Looked So Young

Everyone refers to her as one of the most attractive women in town. It wasn't her features, for while regular they were not unusual. But the charm lay in the head of splendid, vigorous hair that made a veritable crown. It had that peculiar lustre and the sun gave it an added brilliance—you couldn't look at her without unconsciously commenting on the beauty of her hair.
 When asked how she kept it so beautiful she replied that it was no secret, simply proper shampooing, regular combing and the conscientious use of Hirsutone. She admitted it had not always been in that condition, but that she found Hirsutone the best thing she ever got for the hair. It gave the scalp such a cool, refreshed feeling, and the hair was so much easier to dress after its use.
 There are plenty of heads that would be just as attractive for Hirsutone, soon brings the hair and scalp into good condition.
 Your Nyal Drug Store will cheerfully guarantee Hirsutone to do all that is claimed for it, and every woman owes it to herself to try it.

Your D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema is the best thing we have ever handled, and is giving good satisfaction with our customers."—Spur Stevenson Drug Co., Birthe, Minn.

"I have had eczema on and off for about three years, and nothing I tried has done so much good as D. D. D. It will stop that irritation in a few minutes. I can do my washing and if I have D. D. D. on hand it will ease it at once," writes Mrs. A. J. Squires, Coleman, Ont.

These are just samples of letters we are receiving every day from grateful patients all over the country.

"Worth its weight in gold." "All my pimples washed away by D. D. D." "I found instant relief." "D. D. D. is little short of miraculous." These are the words of others in describing the great skin remedy, D. D. D.

Proven by thousands of cures, for ten years, to be absolutely harmless and reliable in every case of skin trouble, no matter what it is.

HE PUNISHED GRANT.

The Cadet Was Guilty of Dismounting Without Leave.

While a student at West Point U. S. Grant excelled in mathematics and horsemanship. He jumped his horse over a bar five feet six inches high, which made a record for the academy and a close second to the highest jump ever recorded in America. He received little honor for some of his efforts, however, notably in the case recalled by Nicholas Smith in "Grant, the Man of Mystery." But perhaps the humor of it reconciled him.

The riding master was one Hershberger, "an amusing sort of tyrant," and on one occasion, whether seriously or as a joke, he determined to "take down" the young cadet.

At the exercise Grant was mounted on a powerful but vicious brute that the cadets fought shy of and was put at leaping the bar.

The bar was placed higher and higher as he came round the ring till it passed the record. The stubborn rider would not say "enough," but the horse was disposed to shy and refuse to make the leap.

Grant gritted his teeth and spurred at it, but just as the horse gathered for the spring his swelling body burst the girth, and the rider and saddle tumbled into the ring.

Half stunned, Grant gathered himself up from the dust only to hear the "strident, cynical voice" of Hershberger calling out:

"Cadet Grant, six demerits for dismounting without leave!"

Doctors Condemn Oily Liniments

The Public are Warned to Be Careful of These Strong-Smelling Oily Liniments Containing Harmful Acids, Ammonia, Etc.

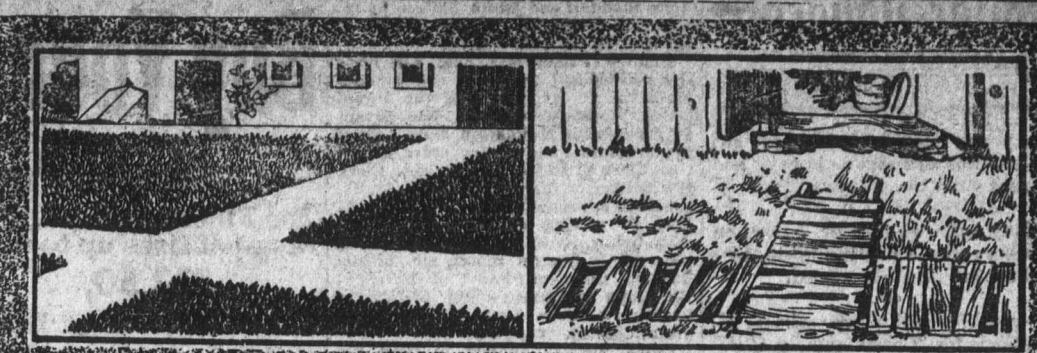

Many people have clung to the old-fashioned idea that a thick, greasy liniment is the best kind. Doctors say not—and they know.

Recently a number of these white, oily liniments were analyzed, and they were found to contain an enormously high percentage of harmful acids, and such irritating chemicals as ammonia, etc. For the moment they may cause a warm sensation when first applied, but their continued use never cures rheumatism, and only deteriorates the skin, sets up inflammation and causes endless trouble.

When a doctor warns you to quit using a white, oily liniment—do so. He knows that a thick liniment can't penetrate, can't sink through the pores and reach the seat of the pain. When asked his opinion a few days ago, Dr. Roberts stated that he considered a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment such as "Nerviline," to be superior to any of the white, ammonia liniments. In his twenty-five years of practice he had witnessed cases of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago that simply would not respond to ordinary treatment—but Nerviline cured them. The same physician also spoke of the great advantages of keeping a preparation like Nerviline in the house always, because of cramps, diarrhoea, stomach disorders, earache, toothache, headache, and such minor ailments. Nerviline is a first-class cure. There is scarcely an ache or a pain, internal or external, that Nerviline won't cure. In thousands of homes no other pain-relieving medicine is used. Fifty years' continued success and the endorsement of the profession are proof that Nerviline is the liniment for the home.

PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR

Concrete Sidewalks are Safe, Sightly and Everlasting

LUMBER used in damp places and on wet ground—as, for instance, in walks—has a very short life. It requires almost constant repairing and, in a few years, needs replacing.

Concrete, on the other hand, improves with age, and the very dampness which destroys lumber calls out the best qualities of the cement by making it harder and harder—until neither time nor traffic can affect it.

The best of wooden walks keep getting out of repair, and are a continual menace to life and limb. They are also a frequent source of expensive doctor bills and lost time. Then again, they are likely to eat up the original cost in repairs before they are replaced. Concrete walks are sightly, everlasting and safe. They cost less to build and need no repairing nor painting.

Write for our free book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

It tells in plain, simple language, how you can save money on farm construction by using cement for Barns, Dairies, Foundations, Fence Posts, Troughs, Feeding Floors, Hitching Posts, Stalls, Silos, Stairs, and so forth. The Book is well illustrated with photographs, plans and diagrams. Fill out the coupon or send a postal to-day.

Utterior Motives.

"See, here," said the kind hearted lady, "I gave you a piece of pie two weeks ago, and you have been sending one or more of your friends here every day since."

"Youse do me a injustice, ma'am," replied the husky hobo. "Dem guys wot I sent wuz me enemies."—Chicago News.

"Ah, Mr. Blinks," said the fair one lightly, "I see you wear your heart upon your sleeve."

Mr. Blinks looked bewildered and hastily pulled down his cuffs.
"I guess maybe it was my red flannel underwear you noticed," he lamely remarked.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The bed is a bundle of paradoxes. We go to it with reluctance, yet we quit it with regret. We make up our minds every night to leave it early, but we make up our bodies every morning to keep it late.—Colton.

WATFORD, APRIL 28, 1911

A young man told his best girl that she was as sweet as honey, and the next day she had hives.

Many a girl who prides herself on having a rosebud mouth forgets that rosebuds are generally closed.

A youthful ball player asks if "K. G." stands for "Casey and "K.C.B." for "Casey at the Bat."

Not in years have the new spring hats been so beautiful as those of 1911," says a fashion note. This writer must have a very contorted idea of beauty.

It would be an easy thing for some young wives to make biscuits like mother used to make, if hubby could only make dough like father used to make.

They raise hops at the Agricultural Farm, and now the students want to have dances. Well, a hop and a dance is the same thing, isn't it?

Some physicians say that talking will make people cheerful. What a cheerful place a Dorcas sewing circle must be when some tid-bit of scandal is being discussed.

Medical experts testify that a cough is much more dangerous than a kiss. It all depends. The other day a chap in Boston shot a fellow who kissed his wife. Had he merely coughed at her there would have been no shooting.

A Detroit woman sued for divorce because her husband did not talk to her. His defense was that she had never stopped talking long enough for him to get in his little say, and he did not want to interrupt her.

Michigan salons are going to fine eavesdroppers on telephone lines. Next thing we know they will forbid postoffice employes from reading postal cards.

A Kansas City court says that a man cannot get a divorce because his wife smokes. The court may have feared that the rule once established would work both ways.

A lunatic tried to pass off as a journalist in Boston last week. No doubt about his being insane, no sane person would want to be a journalist in Boston.

Artificial hair has been marked down 25 per cent. since the four hundred million inhabitants of China removed their pigtails. Rats, switches and curls will soon be out of date because of the low price.

We hear very little about ex-king Manuel since he got his pension from Portugal. What's the matter with the chorus girls. Don't any of them want to help spend that $3300 a month?

Individuality in Handwriting.

Mr. Laughton, president-elect of the Ontario Educational Association, has the correct idea regarding the teaching of handwriting. "We are now trying," he remarked, "to teach writing so that each pupil may develop his chirography along individual lines, expressing himself in his handwriting." This is psychologically and physiologically sound and therefore may be confidently expected to produce good penmen. When pupils are permitted to adopt the style and character that is natural to them their effort is concentrated on improvement and not dissipated in painfully acquiring a method innately distasteful and abandoned when compulsion is no longer applied. Whatever handwriting is neat, legible and free is the best and the more individuality it has the better.

BOSANQUET COUNCIL

Council met April 3rd. All the members present. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed.

Wm. Watson stated that while driving on the 12th Con. Road his horse took fright at some wood placed on the traveled part of the roadway and jumped into the road ditch, killing itself; that Lindley Fraser and F. S. Laoham had valued the horse at $175, and that he had paid $1.50 for fixing his buggy top. No action.

The Clerk was instructed to notify

Amos Stoddart and James Stubbs to remove the obstructions placed by them on the road through the Finery. Lindley Fraser was paid $48 for 5 sheep killed and 4 worried, and Duncan McIntyre $1 for inspecting the sheep, the M. World 25c. for forms, Wm. Bryant $13 for printing McPherson drain bylaw, $35 on contract and $5 for order books, Geo. Clark $1.50 for winter road, Clerk $13 McPherson drain bylaw and $4 expenses re River road in L. B. David Stewart applied to have the Sloan-Russell drain deepened in order to give a proper outlet for the drains draining lots 7, 8 and 9, con. 9, and the Clerk was instructed to notify the Engineer.

Council adjourned to meet on Monday, May 1st, at 10 a.m.

There were no appeals against the assessments for the repairs of the McPherson drain.

General News Items.

For the fiscal year ending with March 31, 084 immigrants arrived in Canada.

The box factory and a couple of other buildings at Parry Sound were destroyed by fire, and Hurdman brothers of Ottawa lost 500 or 600 hogs, a lot of Jersey cattle and horses by fire which destroyed their barn.

Garnet Murphy, while rolling land on his father's farm near Picton, was thrown from his seat when the team ran away, and the roller passed over his body. His ribs are crushed and broken and he has been internally injured. His recovery is doubtful.

While estimates of succession duties to be collected by the Province during the current year are only $750,000, receipts from this source from November 1 already total upwards of $500,000. The estate of the late J. J. Gormully, K.C., of Ottawa, whose will had been filed for probate, is valued approximately at $400,000, on which the succession tax will be six per cent.

Forest, April 26.—Miss Jennie Scooter, a young lady very well known and long a resident of Forest, was happily married on Wednesday afternoon at the parental home, to Mr. Thomas C. Hughes, of Souris, Manitoba, a young railroad man formerly of this vicinity. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. T. Bart Howard, B. A., rector of Christ Church. The young couple were unattended. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of both parties.

Mr. Isaac Needham, of Bryanston, the well-known cattle dealer of that district, has a sow of which she is proud. A couple of weeks ago it gave birth to 21 little pigs, 19 of which are still alive and bid fair to continue so until they reach the bacon stage. The task of raising so large a family is somewhat too difficult for one pig, and so Mr. Needham had to construct a brooder, in which he looks after half the family. He expects, if the sow keeps up this record, and reciprocity, of which he is an ardent advocate, carries, to break up the American meat trust.

SITUATION UNPRECEDENTED IN PIANO TRADE

What are we going to do With Our Big Stock of High-Grade Pianos?

We can store them—yes, at heavy expense for cartage and storage, damage, time, tuning and repair. We have weighed the situation thoroughly, and tell you frankly that we have determined to deduct all these expenses from the piano prices and CUT OFF ANOTHER BIG SLICE AS AN ADVERTISEMENT, and

Pass Our Pianos on to You at $100 to $175 Savings

In fact, orders have gone to our Sales Department to forget entirely cost figures and cut every instrument down to a quick sale figure, no matter how high the quality of the representatives of 25 of the world's greatest pianos on our floors. Every instrument must go at less than the cost of the cheapest unguaranteed 'commercial' instrument. Think what this means.

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR THE BABY.

Baby's Own Tablets is the one medicine that can be given little ones with the firm knowledge that nothing but good will result. The Tablets are sold under the guarantee of a government analyst to contain no opiate nor any other drug which will harm the youngest child—they cannot possibly do harm; they always do good, and once a mother has used them she will never again give her little ones castor oil or the "soothing" stuffs which simply drug baby into temporary relief and in the end do harm. Mrs. Philias Paradis, Frampton, Que., writes: "Send me two more boxes of Baby's Own Tablets. I have used them for constipation and have always found them very good. My baby is certainly progressing under the Tablets." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Late Miles Hagle.

On Saturday, April 22nd, 1911, Miles Hagle passed peacefully away at his residence, on lot 17, con. 5, N. E. Warwick. Deceased was the son of the late Mark and Ellen Hagle. He was born at Auld's mill, in the township of Warwick, County of Lambton, February 12th, 1847. With the exception of a short interval his whole life was spent in Warwick township. In the year 1870 he was united in marriage to Margaret Kingston, daughter of the late Peter Kingston, of Warwick, who predeceased him 15 years ago. By this marriage three children were left, Mrs. Wm. Luckham, of Winnipeg, the late P. H. Hagle and Miles Casey Hagle. He subsequently married Mrs. A. L. Lawson, of Forest, Ont., who resides on the homestead with her step-son. In early manhood he was converted to God and united with Bethel Methodist church of which he remained a consistent member until the time of his death. Deceased was of a genial disposition, kind, obliging, and a lover of manly sports in which he took an active part through life. He was always ready to render assistance when it was needed and ever stood up for that which he believed to be right. Deceased will be missed very much in the church and also in the home circle. The funeral took place on Monday to Bethel cemetery. The sermon was preached by Rev. Fair, from the text found in II. Timothy, chap. 4, verses 7-8. He was assisted by Rev. S. A. DURING the discussion of the question of using the Bible in schools as a text book at the convention of the Ontario Educational Association, Mr. R. F. Downey, of Peterborough, expressed his opinion in the following terms: "It is the teacher, not the text books that makes the school and moulds the character of the pupils," said Mr. Downey. "A teacher properly imbued with the principles and teachings of the Bible is a stronger factor for the moulding of the child's character than the man without strong character who is attempting to teach it as a text book." Mr. Downey has put his finger upon the right spot. But how to get teachers of the stamp he indicates is the insurmountable difficulty that confronts the school boards of the present day.

IN THREE ACCIDENTS!

It would seem that Zam-Buk, the famous healing balm we hear so highly spoken of everywhere, is particularly useful in the family circle. A report sent by Mrs. E. Davey, 785 Ellice Ave., Winnipeg, will illustrate this. She says: "My little boy, of three, while playing, fell from a high veranda to the ground, cutting his forehead badly. Instead of calling a doctor, who would undoubtedly have put in a number of stitches, I bathed the wound well, and applied Zam-Buk. The little fellow, although suffering keenly, soon had relief from his pain. In the course of three weeks, by applying Zam-Buk daily, the wound was nicely healed."

"Since then I have also used Zam-Buk for a boil which came on my cheek, and which proved very painful and looked unsightly. Zam-Buk soon drew the boil to a head and quickly banished it."

"Another time my baby was scalded on her left thigh and calf of leg with boiling water. Directly it was done I thought to use Zam-Buk, and spreading some on lint I wrapped up the baby's limb. Next morning she rested much easier and I applied a fresh bandage with Zam-Buk. I kept this treatment up daily, and was rewarded by seeing a great improvement each time I dressed the wound. In a very short space of time the scalds were all nicely healed."

"I cannot recommend this wonderful healing preparation too highly for family use, and I have such great faith in its healing powers that my house is never without a box."

For all skin injuries and diseases, piles, eczema, salt rheum and face sores, Zam-Buk is absolutely unequalled. 50 cents a box at all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Try Zam-Buk Soap too! Only 25c. tablet.

May be the dough had forgotten to rise.
Or had risen quickly overnight and fallen again—
To rise nevermore.
Twas weak flour, of course.
Meaning weak in gluten.
But FIVE ROSES is strong, unusually strong.
With that glutinous strength which compels it to rise to your surprised delight.
Stays risen too.
Being coherent, elastic.
And the dough feels springy under your hand.
Squeaks and cracks as you work it.
Feel the feel of a FIVE ROSES dough.
Note the wonderful smooth texture—soft—velvety.
Great is the bread born of such dough—
Your dough!

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cured

"I think it should be the duty of the schools to teach children how to keep well," writes Miss Nannie E. Naydon, a well-known and highly esteemed resident of Bristol. "Ignorance of the laws of health and the use of improper remedies destroyed my vigor, and led me to the verge of invalidism. I was as a girl ruddy and strong. Nothing seemed to affect me until I was about thirty. Then gas began to form in the stomach. I suffered with bloating and a general failure in strength set in. If I went upstairs my breath hurt. My system was very irregular, and until I grew pretty bad I didn't pay much heed to my condition. Then I got blue, worried all the time, wakened in the night, and couldn't get to sleep again. None of the medicines I took helped me. One day I was reading of a very interesting case like mine cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I took the same treatment. It was just right—didn't physic me to death, but took hold of the weak, sick parts of my system, and set things right. It seems as if Dr. Hamilton's Pills have made me young again, and all my color, spirits, vigor, and health of former days have returned to stay."

Every girl and woman should use Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly. They help a woman in many ways. Beware of the dealer who asks you to take an inferior pill on which his profit is larger than on Dr. Hamilton's. Sold in yellow boxes, 25c per box, all dealers, or The Catarrhzone, Co., Kingston, Ont.

Comforts for the Farm.

(St. Thomas Journal.)

Ontario farmers may doubtless confidently count on receiving some practical benefits from Niagara Falls in the shape of electric light for their barns, through the agency of the Hydro Commission, before many years have passed. Problems will, of course, be encountered which were met with in serving power to the urban corporations, but the commission has already surmounted many difficulties and there is no reason to believe a few more will deter them. Hon. Adam Beck lives and thrives on problems and butts through stone walls with great cheerfulness. Mr. Beck and some of his engineers, as already announced, go to Europe this summer to study there the adaptations of electric energy to the needs of the farm.

The condition of the farmer is vastly different from what it was fifty, or even ten years ago—with his telephone, and his rural mail service, and a hundred and one other conveniences which have become necessities. Before long we may expect to see the farm house brilliant with electric lights, the chopper and the fanning mill and the turnip cutter, and the churn, the irons, the washing machine and all the other household and farm appliances operated by electric current, and the farmer and his wife going to town in a carriage driven by electricity!

Somebody has said that one of comforts of farming in the near future will be a phonograph to call the cows home. Perhaps the New farmer will sit at a desk and do his work by merely pushing buttons. Then all the men from the city will make their dreams come true and they'll all move out to the townships.

A steel deck on the submerged Maine which was originally half an inch thick and appeared still intact, fell to dust when it was stepped upon, even giving way under ordinary pressure of the hand, showing that it was corroded and rusted and set rotten through and through. It was also swollen very much in size. So much was this swelling that some of the bulk at low tide looked as if the old ship was suffering from some sort of leprosy of the sea.

Automobilists in England—they call them motorists over there—are much interested in the success of an invention known as "solid petrol," or gasoline in little bricks. Its exact composition is, of course, a secret. It contains 80 per cent of ordinary gasoline, a percentage of soapy matter and 1 per cent of a foreign substance which gives it solidity. A small block of it is said to be equal to a gallon of liquid motive power, and its inventors say that enough to propel a car 1,200 miles can be carried in a little box on the running board of the machine.

Why go limping and whining about your corns when a 25 cent bottle of Hol-loway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial and you will not regret it.

A delicacy of Austrian savages is the flesh of snakes which, with the exception of the liver, is too dry and tasteless to appeal to the civilized palate. Meat is usually baked in a primitive oven, made by digging a hole about a foot deep in the ground. In the hole is built a fire, which is covered with stones. When the stones have become very hot the fire is extinguished and the stones are covered with green leaves, in which the meat is placed. The hole is then filled with earth and is not reopened until the time determined for the cooking of the meat has elapsed.

What Has Dandruff Got To Do With Baldness?

You see the statement every day that the one cause of baldness is dandruff. But is it?

True, dandruff often precedes the departure of the hair.

It is equally true that you know men with a shock of hair you can hardly pull a comb through, who have carried around a dandruff laden collar as long as you have known them.

You have also seen men whose scalp was kept as clean as a baby's whose hair was surely departing.

That dandruff talk sounds well and convinces a good many of us, but let us not fool ourselves.

Of course dandruff isn't a good thing to carry around, but it is only an indication.

The same trouble that causes the hair to fall out usually causes dandruff, so if you get at the cause and arrest the loss of hair, you will stop dandruff too.

Those who use Nyal's Hirsutine find it the most satisfactory hair healer and hair restorer they have ever used.

It does stop the hair from falling out.

It will also stop dandruff.

Your Nyal Druggist cheerfully recommends it—$1.00 and 50c in sprinckler bottles.

BEAT HIM TO THE STATION.

The Message That Got There Before the Patrolman Did.

"When I was a patrolman," says a prominent detective, "there used to be a sergeant on the force who had it in for me. He reported me for various delinquencies, and—well, he's dead now, and I won't say anything against him. He got sick, and it was reported at the station that he wasn't expected to live. So the boss called me and told me to go around and see if I could do anything for the old fellow. I called at the home and asked if I could see him. They let me in. I tiptoed into the room where the sergeant was in bed and said, 'The lieutenant sent me around to see how you were getting along.'

"He spoke with difficulty, but I could make out what he said. 'Go back,' he grunted, 'and tell 'em that I'm getting along fine. The boys have fixed me up all right, and I don't need anything. I'm feeling better.'

"So I went back to the station. I was stopped a couple of times on my way and got in about half an hour later. Then I made my report. 'He says he's better and doesn't need anything,' says I. The lieutenant jumped up. 'Do you mean to say that you saw him?' says he. 'I did,' says I. 'And he told you he was all right?' 'Yes, sir.' 'You blamed liar!' shouts the lieutenant. 'I got a message ten minutes ago that he was dead!'

"And it was true. What do you think of that old scoundrel trying to get me in bad with his dying breath?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An interesting experiment was recently tried on a dairy farm near Toronto. A number of phonographs were placed in the stables at milking time, and the milking done to music. The cows seemed to enjoy the lively airs that were played, showed their appreciation by giving richer milk than usual. In further investigation confirms the results of this experiment the gramophone may become as common in the cowstables as it now is in the parlors.

I could not take the greasy mixture, and when our druggist told me that VINOL contained not only tonic iron but all the medicinal properties of Cod Liver Oil without the grease or oil or bad taste, I made up my mind that this was the medicine for me. Catarrhal Deafness

Successfully Treated By Catarrhozone

Deafness is not so common as blindness, yet thousands are more or less afflicted by it, and their comfort seriously interfered with.

Catarrhal deafness manifests itself but slowly, yet it must be acknowledged that the great majority of those who become totally deaf might have averted this unfortunate condition if they had treated the catarrhal inflammation at its beginning.

The only remedy that can be safely employed for all forms of catarrhal deafness is Catarrhozone. You simply charge the air you breathe with this healing, soothing agent, and by forcing it gently through the ears destroy the germ life which keeps up the inflammation, and at the same time by the soothing, healing action it heals the inflamed surfaces of the middle ear.

CATARRHOZONE, to those who are just a little deaf, and are growing increasingly deaf, is an agent capable of affording the utmost satisfaction, and its use is attended without danger, and as the treatment can be carried on at home no person threatened with the affliction of deafness should postpone one moment in beginning its use.

From every part of the Dominion glowing accounts of the beneficial action it exerts upon catarrhal conditions of the middle ear have been sent in, and you will be resorting to the only method of cure, and the simplest method too, if you try Catarrhozone. Dealers everywhere sell it, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. By mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Ont.

SOMETHING THAT SHOULD BE RUBBED IN.—Whenever pain is felt in the limbs or back, take Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil; pour a little in the hand, and applying it to the surface beneath which the pain lies, rub briskly. If the first application does not afford relief, which is not usually the case, keep rubbing. The Oil will gradually penetrate to the affected part and relief will come.

Trade good, particularly for light butcher cattle of good quality, and from 930 to 1,000 lbs. in weight. For the heavy cattle the market is a little dull, lacking a good export demand. These heavier cattle are offering at a lower price than they would fetch in a more active market, but some of the local men claim they are too heavy for the home trade, a lighter class of cattle being preferred at this season. Prices to-day were good and firm at yesterday's levels, with about the same decline of 10c to 15c on heavy export cattle.

NERVOUS DISEASES IN THE SPRING
Can be Removed by Toning up the Blood, Thus Strengthening the Nerves.
Nervous diseases are more common and more serious in the spring than at any other time of the year. This is the opinion of the best medical authorities after long observation. Vital changes in the system after long winter months may cause much more than "spring weakness," and the familiar weariness and aching. Official records prove that in April and May neuralgia, St. Vitus dance epilepsy and various forms of nerve disturbances are at their worst, especially among those who have not reached middle age.
The antiquated custom of taking purgatives in the spring is useless, for the system really needs strengthening while purgatives make you weaker. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have a special action on the blood and nerves, for they give strength and have cured not only many forms of nervous disorders, but also other spring troubles, such as headaches, weakness in the limbs, loss of appetite, trembling of the hands, as well as unsightly pimples and skin troubles. They do this because they actually make new, rich, red blood, which means a return to perfect health.
Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a traveling suit of fawn cloth with touches of cerise and hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. There were no attendants. "Two plus one?" asked the teacher. The little girl smiled confidently, put up her hand and when noticed by the teacher, said, "Shoe polish."—From Toronto Canadian Courier.
