BOWMAN CHARGES CALLED PEANUT POLITICS

Hon. W. J. Hanna Gave Flat Denial to Allegations of Liberal Whip in Connection With Snider's Visits and Was Upheld by Large Majority in the Legislature.

The Snyder incident, closed once and reopened yesterday by a series of grave personal charges laid against Hon. W. J. Hanna by Liberal Whip Bowman, received its final quietus in the legislature at an early hour this morning with the enthusiasm of the members at the closing of the year's session swelling the thunders of applause expressing confidence in the minister. To every charge of corrupt and illegitimate practice advanced by the opposition, concerning the vote on the Scott Act in Welland, Huron and Peel Counties, Mr. Hanna came out with a flat-footed denial. His statement on the subject that he gave a few days ago, stood. It had been the truth and the whole truth.

"I repeat, that every charge of alliance between the Conservative party and the organized liquor interests is untrue. Every charge that indicates wrong-doing or imputes to me, I care not in what form, and every insinuation to that effect is untrue," he declared.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, April 28.—Much interest has been created by a new offer to Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, made by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, in the course of a speech in the house of commons tonight. Canadian Press Despatch. VANKLEEK HILL, Ont., April 28.—F. A. Senecal, secretary of the Prescott County Liberal Association, was today chosen as Liberal candidate for the legislature in succession to Gustave Evanturel, who recently resigned his seat in the house as the result of charges preferred by G. Howard Ferguson, M.L.A. for Greenville. The officers of the association today refused to allow Mr. Evanturel's name to go on the ballot for nomination as candidate, and this precipitated a warm row, Evanturel's adherents refusing for a time to allow Mr. Senecal to address the conven-

By a Staff Reporter. (1) Provision is made for guaranteeing the bonds to the amount of $45,000,000 which, with the other assets now available, is considered sufficient for the completion of the company's line as a transcontinental system. Subsequent betterments will of course be necessary from time to time. The system, when completed, will comprise nearly 10,000 miles of railway.

Montfort in Awkward Plight Near Quebec, But Passengers Are Not in Danger.

Canadian Press Despatch. QUEBEC, April 28.—Navigation on the St. Lawrence opened some what inauspiciously this morning when the C. P. R. liner Montfort, from London and Antwerp, carrying 175 passengers, ran ashore and stuck on the Beauport flats, about two and a half miles below here. There she still sticks, but will probably be floated at high tide around 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, efforts to pull her off at high tide tonight having proved ineffectual. There is no danger to the passengers, and at latest reports the damage was very slight, while she was making no water.

IT'S HORSE SHOW TIME

The Horse Show this week is going to be the largest thing ever put over in that line in Canada. Most everyone knows that the ladies attending it are more of an attraction than the horses and they dress in a manner that commands admiration. Men should not be behind the ladies in point of dress. The High Silk Hat is the correct thing to wear on this occasion. The Dineen Company, 140 Yonge St., have imported from England the very latest designs of Silk Hats and they range in price all the way from $5.00 to $8.00. The Dineen Co. is sole Canadian agent for the sale of Henry Heath of London, England, makers of His Majesty the King and Dunlop of New York, who is America's greatest designer of Men's Hats.

BRITAIN PREPARED TO AID MEDIATION

Mexican Trouble of Grave Concern to British Government, Says Grey.

BRITAIN PREPARED TO AID MEDIATION
 Mexican Trouble of Grave Concern to British Government, Says Grey.
 LONDON, April 28.—The trouble in Mexico is one of grave concern to the British Government on account of the large British commercial interests involved, and we of course are ready to encourage and further in any way we can any proposals for mediation which will have the effect of bringing the trouble to an end.
 This statement was made by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, in the house of commons today when he formally announced that the United States had accepted the proffered mediation of Argentina, Brazil and Chile.
 The British foreign secretary added that he had not definitely heard what attitude Mexico had taken in connection with the proposed mediation.
 Sir Edward paid tribute to Thomas E. Hobler, the British secretary of legation at Mexico City, to Sir Lionel Carden, the British minister, and other British officials who have been active in setting foreign refugees out of Mexico City. He said:
 "All the arrangements seem to have been executed with great tact and have been of real service to British and other foreigners, as well as to the Mexicans."
 Sir Edward Grey referred to the mission of Commander Hugh J. Tweedie of the British cruiser Essex, who was sent to Mexico. He said:
 "Rear-Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock is endeavoring to send an unarmed party with despatches to Mexico City with the full cognizance of the United States admiral and with the sanction of the Mexican general near Vera Cruz."
 "The despatches, which are for the British, French, German and Spanish ministers in Mexico City, are addressed to Provisional President Huerta with a request for his sanction for their delivery."
 "Rear-Admiral Craddock hoped to receive a safe conduct for the party."

LOSSES ARE HEAVY BEFORE MONTEREY
 Constitutionalists Had Three Hundred Casualties in Recent Attack on Town.
 BROWNSVILLE, Texas, April 28.—One hundred constitutionalists were killed and 200 wounded in the recent attack on Monterey, which ended in the complete rout of the federalists, according to an American photographer who arrived here last night aboard the first train operated between Monterey and the border in a year. Federal casualties are stated to have been 300. These estimates were made by Gen. Pablo Gonzalez, rebel commander at Monterey, according to the refugee report also was brought to Brownsville that an English flag had been hoisted over the United States consulate. In explanation, it is said Gen. Gonzalez quoted Consul-General Hanna as saying that a new United States flag, to replace the one torn down by the federalists when Mr. Hanna was arrested last week, could not be unfurled without proper ceremonies.
 Monterey, it became known today, was cut off from outside communication for two weeks preceding the rebel attack. Arrangements for expediting food supplies have been made, although no suffering has been reported.

Admiral Craddock Sends British Sailors for Eight Americans Beset.

Canadian Press Despatch.
 WASHINGTON, April 28.—To what lengths the "spook office" of the South Americans might reach was an absorbing topic in official Washington and the entire diplomatic corps today. Other features in the situation largely went lost sight of among army and navy officials charged with execution of preparations for eventualities. Taut nerves and the anxiety of the last few days were relieved by news that Americans were leaving danger zones in the southern republic, while reports of tranquillity along the border were encouraging. "Things look very much better now," Secretary Daniels said. "We are getting Americans out of Mexico. That is the important thing now."
 Huerta's reply, conveyed through his minister for foreign affairs to Mr. Riano, Spanish ambassador in Washington, was received late last night. Its tenor was expected because Mr. Riano had received private advice the night before that Huerta would accept, and the South American envoys had been at work all day on that assumption. The rest of the acceptance was not made public, but Huerta's minister was said to have thanked the South American envoys for the Spanish ambassador for their good offices and to have referred to the "real spirit of solidarity between peoples of the same race."
 When news of Huerta's acceptance was taken to President Wilson he declared himself greatly pleased, but made no further comment, and White House officials let it be known that no announcement of points to be insisted upon in proposed mediation would be made that might embarrass the representatives of South American countries. In official and diplomatic circles expressions were heard that whatever had been accomplished by the peacemakers up to this point must have a good effect in the situation.
 The terminal company is a British concern, most of the stock of which is held by the railroads, two of which, the Inter-oceanic and the Mexican are British owned.

BUSY MORNING SPENT

Diplomats Hold Conferences to Plan Next Step in Negotiations.

Canadian Press Despatch.
 WASHINGTON, April 28.—While envoys of Brazil, Argentina and Chile sought today to find some ground upon which to base proposals to the United States and Mexico which would settle differences between the nations, word was flashed from Vera Cruz that Brigadier General Funston and about 5,000 troops had arrived at the base of American operations in the Mexican republic.
 Chief interest in Washington centered through the day in the activity of the South American diplomats, who met early in the day at the Argentine legation to plan the next step in the negotiations for peace. Before the envoys began their conference, Secretary of State Bryan was formally notified by Ambassador Riano of Spain that General Huerta had accepted the principle of mediation proposed.
To Protect Refugees.
 Coincident with the conference of the mediators President Wilson and the cabinet met in regular session, the subject of absorbing interest being the Mexican situation, with peace proposals as the particular matter under consideration. Ambassador Dagama of Brazil sought to confer with the Secretary of State, but Mr. Bryan declined at the cabinet meeting the Spanish ambassador informed Robert Lansing, counselor of the department, that General Huerta had given assurances that he would protect Americans in departing from Mexico.
 When members of the cabinet reached the White House at 11 o'clock to enter upon the serious deliberations confronting them, all of them appeared more cheerful than they had been for many days and several expressed hope that something tangible and hopeful would come from the proposals to mediate the dispute with Mexico.
 No new orders were issued from the navy or war departments, but there was enthusiastic interest among department heads over the arrival at Vera Cruz of the transports bearing Brigadier General Funston and his staff, fourth, seventh, nineteenth and twenty-eighth infantry under Brigadier General Funston.
Not Affect Funston's Orders.
 Secretary of War Garrison insisted early in the day that the mediation proposals could not affect the orders to General Funston.
 General Funston's instructions were to land immediately upon arrival and assume supreme command of the land forces.
 Rear Admiral Fletcher, who had been directing operations up to this time, will return to his flagship, the Florida, withdrawing also all of the bluejackets north of Vera Cruz, and force now ashore at Vera Cruz has been detached from the navy and now becomes part of General Funston's command. General Funston also will take up the work undertaken by Admiral Fletcher, in directing the administration of government affairs in Vera Cruz.
 Bryan says "Tension is Less."
 "Tension seems to be less," said Secretary Bryan, as he returned to the state department after a two-hour cabinet meeting. "Americans are being moved out of Mexico City without interruption."
 Mr. Bryan explained that he had not yet received the text of General Huerta's acceptance of the mediation proposal, and that Ambassador Riano had merely explained orally that mediation was acceptable to General Huerta.
 The mediation envoys continued their morning conference until 2 o'clock and an afternoon session began at 3 o'clock. No statement was made concerning the progress of the mediation proposals but the general sentiment prevailed that substantial results would be accomplished.

CANADIAN VISITS AMERICANS IN JAIL

Found Women and Children Confined at Cordova, Sleeping on Stone Flags.

Canadian Press Despatch.
 VERA CRUZ, April 28.—Sleeping on the stone flagging of the jail, with insufficient food, no sanitation, and threatened every night with assassination by drunken jailers, is the experience of the Americans and other foreigners, including women and children, confined at Cordova. Their release today has been promised by Gen. Maas, in reply to a request from U. S. Consul Canada through a messenger who returned to Vera Cruz today.
 W. H. Mechleng of the Geological Survey of Canada, who has been for some time in Mexico in behalf of the Universities of Harvard, Pennsylvania and Columbia, spent two days at Cordova. He was detained, but not put in jail, and finally was permitted to proceed here as a British subject.
 Mr. Mechleng went to the jail in Cordova on Sunday afternoon and talked to the prisoners, among whom are several he is acquainted with. They begged him to communicate their plight to Consul Canada and Rear-Admiral Fletcher in an endeavor to secure their release. The prisoners are herded like cattle and are jammed almost constantly either by the keepers or the Mexican inmates of the jail. They are permitted to have food and drink only when the whim suits the jailers and are kept in a state of terror by frequent threats of death.
 The total number of prisoners of all nationalities, according to Mr. Mechleng, is 85. One of the imprisoned is Supt. Emery of the Vista Hermosa sugar plantation of Vera Cruz, who entertained John Lind, President Wilson's representative, a few months ago.
 Mr. Mechleng says there are 87 persons, chiefly Americans, held at Tuxtepec, State of Vera Cruz, from surrounding plantations, and that Consul Agent White is in jail at El Hule, near Tuxtepec.

FRATERNIZED WITH MEXICANS.

VERA CRUZ, April 28.—Six federal soldiers, who wandered too close to the American lines, were captured late yesterday by marines. There is not any desire among the Americans to attack or in any way assume the offensive against the Mexicans, so when the marines gained possession of a squad of Huerta's soldiers, they did their best to entertain them. They gossiped with the Mexicans regarding the news beyond the lines and after field luncheon shook hands with them and sent them away.

Canadian Press Despatch.
 VERA CRUZ, April 28.—Conflicting reports regarding rebel operations continue to come from the capital and the officials of the government and the newspapers loudly insist that the rebels are gaining ground, but private information reports that great headway has been made, that San Luis Potosi has been taken and that the federalists generally are disorganized.
 Gen. Velasco, who was defeated by Villa at Torreon, and in the subsequent fighting in that district, has succeeded in reaching the capital with a mere handful of the forces which had been placed under him to defend Torreon.
 Gen. Velasco was twice wounded in the arm and in the leg. He was accompanied by Gen. Argumedo, who was seriously wounded. Gen. Pena was left among the dead. With Gen. Velasco were 400 wounded soldiers. All the remainder of his forces were killed, injured or captured, or had deserted to the rebels.

NEW ASSOCIATION MAY BE FORMED

Sport Enthusiasts in the Beach District Plan New Organization.

Great Progress Made by Kew Beach Presbyterian Church.

A general meeting of all sport enthusiasts at the Beaches has been arranged for Friday night to be held in the Kew Beach school at the corner of Queen street and Kippendavie avenue. The object of the meeting will be the organization of a Beaches Lacrosse and Athletic Association, and a large number of business men and citizens in the district have promised to attend. At present the largest number of sports clubs in the eastern section of Ward One are all run independently, and it is thought that by the formation of a united association, the class of sports will be much improved.

Success of Church. There is now only about $13,000 debt on the new Kew Beach Presbyterian Church, the total amount subscribed being something like $27,000, and it is expected that the debt will be wiped off in three or four years' time. In every way the church has progressed rapidly, particularly in collections and attendance. The choir has been increased to forty, and the installation of a new organ in a few months' time will prove a big factor in the musical part of the services. The organ will cost between four and five thousand dollars.

A large gang of men are engaged in grading Elmer avenue and in filling in Kippendavie to Kenilworth avenues. This will also be an extension and double the length of Kew Beach avenue.

New Debating Society. Last night the young people from the different churches at the Beaches met at the invitation of the A.Y.P.A. of St. John's Anglican Church in the school room of the church and discussed a proposition designed to supply the various offices, municipal and otherwise, with experienced speakers and debaters. It was decided to form a debating society, and members will be elected, and regular debates held for the purpose of local issues and questions of general interest.

The late Mr. Hughes was a Shriner, a Freemason and a member of other organizations. He was a Liberal in politics, and attended the Methodist church.

The funeral will take place at 3 p.m. on Friday from his late residence to Newmarket Cemetery.

NEWS OF EAST TORONTO

FINE CONCERT AT NORWAY

Sandy Roads Giving Trouble—Automobiles Are Frequently Stalled.

The annual concert and social of the Mother's Society of St. John's Anglican Church, Norway, was held at the parish hall last night, the pastor, Rev. W. L. Keen, presiding. The artists included T. Tyler, band soloist; Will Spencer, entertainer; Miss Rogers, violinist; and W. G. Constable, elocutionist. A sketch given by the members of the society entitled, "The Old Maid's Association" evoked roars of laughter from the audience.

Work Appreciated. Residents in East Toronto appreciate the action of the city in opening up many of the blind streets in the neighborhood, including Arden, Tomlin, Burgess and others.

Ratepayers in the district are wondering how the hydro fee going to install the street lights on the Woodbine avenue railway crossing, over the T.R. The matter has been hanging fire for some months, and property owners in the vicinity are complaining.

Pavements Needed. The need of pavements in East Toronto has never been more acute than at the present time. The sandy nature of the road surface is a great hindrance to the traffic, and it is hoped that the city will take prompt action to remedy the situation.

SHIPPERS CRUEL TO LIVE STOCK

Sheep and Hogs Trampled to Death Thru Lack of Space.

NEWS OF WARD SEVEN

St. John's A.Y.P.A. Annual Banquet — Well Known Printer Dead.

Two more flagrant cases of cruelty to animals were recently discovered on the arrival of two stock trains at the Union Stock Yards. As a result, P. C. Hughes, a live stock dealer from Rickson, who shipped from that place twenty-two calves and three sheep in a car which arrived at the Union Stock Yards, were found to be trampled to death by the calves, and some of the latter injured by the confinement.

The second case was discovered by P. C. Gammick, who has issued a summons against D. Barron of Amherstburg. This case was discovered when a car of hogs crammed into the one car arrived at the Union Stock Yards, and their lives crushed out under the sharp hoofs of the other hogs.

Fred Burton Dead. The death occurred yesterday afternoon at his late residence, 233 Weston street, of Fred Burton, the late Mr. Burton was a well-known printer in the northern part of ward seven and was in his forty-fifth year. New Church Planned. A new building will be erected at the corner of Woodville avenue and Conduit street, West Toronto, by the congregation of St. Martin's Anglican Church. The old church on Perth avenue was totally destroyed by fire on Nov. 28, 1912, and since then services have been held in the school room, as the building fund was too small to warrant immediate rebuilding. Rev. S. De Koven Sweetman, the rector, 51 Abbot avenue, F. Russell, 21 Annette street and G. Hughes, 37 Conduit street, are in charge of the building.

WAS HOODOO DAY FOR THIS OFFICER

Accident Succeeded Accident in Detective Guthrie's Trip to Whitley.

HE LANDED HIS MAN

But Only Movies Could Do Justice to Thrills Encountered on Journey.

When Detective Guthrie set out for Oshawa yesterday to arrest Evano Rossenett, alias Henry Smith, he had no idea of the obstacles to be surmounted before the alleged film-frauder could be located. The chief constable of Whitley had refused to arrest the man, and told Guthrie if the Toronto police wanted him, to send for him. Guthrie, by some mistake, boarded the wrong train, one which did not stop at his destination. As a result of this error he had to tramp five miles from Oshawa back to Whitley. At Whitley the detective hired a horse and wagon and landed in the ditch two miles from town, when the old nag took fright and bolted. From there he had another walk, and eventually arrested Rossenett at his work on the lake front.

A laborer himself, Rossenett came to Toronto a week ago and posed as Henry Smith. He got hold of about $2 he could secure them employment in Whitley. When the laborers arrived at Whitley they found no work for themselves, and had to return.

TO CURE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected a complete cure after all other means have failed. Sufferers who could not hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and send it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist one oz. Parment (Double Strength), about 15 cents; 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of moist granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day, after meals, promptly ends the most distressing head noises, deafness, dizziness, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Let me know the name of the druggist who has sent you this formula, and I will send you a trial bottle of this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are directly caused by catarrh; therefore, there are restored by this simple home treatment. Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness or catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better. It is important—in ordering Parment, always specify that you want Double Strength; your druggist as it or he can set it for you; if not, send 15c to the International Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, P. Q., who make a specialty of it.

INCREASING DEMAND FOR ALL RIBBONS

Fashion's Choice Ranges From Widest of Rich Brocades to Narrow Rose Patterned Bands.

Never before has the beauty and adaptability of ribbon been so thoroughly appreciated. There is an increasing demand for all ribbons, from the widest, richest brocades which constitute the tiers or panniers on white net frocks, to the narrow rose patterned bands which cross the shoulders in exquisite French lingerie. Ribbons are in their element for this summer at least.

Many attractive scarfs are fashioned in wide flowered gros grain ribbons and ornamented with beads or fringe. Chic street hats displayed tricky bows in stripes and plaids, and some crowns are made from heavy basket weave ribbon. These models produce a quaint and artistic effect when adorned with vines and "glace fruits."

Even the girdle, completing the tailor-made suit is developed in heavy Roman striped silk with corded edges showing. Nothing is more attractive for collars, revers and cuffs than rich artistic ribbon, and many of the odd vestees exploit daring patterns also. Moire ribbons, both black and white are much in vogue, narrow widths being used for monocle cords, wrist bows and tango laces; while yard-wide moires are tied in immense butterfly bows to exaggerate the bouffant style of skirts.

The narrow flounces which constitute the lower part of many dainty lace frocks are made of four-inch moire, and fan tongues for pumps are fashioned in narrower widths. Lacings and loop bows of Dresden ribbons are noticeable on the elegant lingerie especially created to be worn with transparent gowns of chiffon, tulle, gauze or net.

TRUE VALUE OF MEAT EXTRACT

ESSENCE of meat or "beef-tea" is useful where persons must be nourished with as little disturbance as possible. Properly made, it is nourishing food. Put two pounds of veal and the same amount of beef, cut fine, in a covered jar, in a saucepan filled with water. Keep the water simmering gently for eight or ten hours, when the juices will be extracted from the meat. Strain off the extract from the meat and place it on ice as soon as it cools. It will turn to jelly when cold and a teaspoonful may be warmed and used as needed.

Such an extract as this is really strengthening, but the prepared beef essences, known as "Liebig's" extracts, are not. Doctors know, and so do trained nurses and dietitians, that all the gelatin, fibrin and albumen in or by chilling and straining is one of the best. Barley may be steamed in a separate utensil and added to the clear hot broth. A tablespoonful of water, a cook who understands that the strength of the meat must be drawn forth into the liquid by long, careful cooking, but it is not so good as broths.

Mutton broth freed from its fat by being poured thru a fat separator or by chilling and straining is one of the best. Barley may be steamed in a separate utensil and added to the clear hot broth. A tablespoonful of water, a cook who understands that the strength of the meat must be drawn forth into the liquid by long, careful cooking, but it is not so good as broths.

Veal and sago broth may be given when delicate food is assimilated. Crack a knuckle of veal in several places and add three quarts of water. Do not salt, but cover and cook slowly until the water is reduced to one quart. Strain this liquid from the meat thru a cloth and add seasoning of salt. Three tablespoons of sago soaked in water and steamed until soft must now be added and allowed to simmer for half-an-hour. Beat the yolks of two eggs very light and pour a cup of hot cream over them, beating all the while. Put this into the hot broth and serve immediately.

Veal or chicken jelly makes tempting sandwiches for invalids who may have solid food. Pound the chicken or the veal with a mallet so that bones and meat are both crushed to powder. Put in a covered vessel until the liquid is reduced to about three pints and the flesh in strings. Strain thru a sieve, then thru a cloth, and season with salt and pepper and any herb that is desired. Pour into a mold and place on ice. When cold this may be sliced and placed between thin slices of home-baked white or wheat unsalted or "sweet" butter may be used on the bread if patient likes it.

WILD FLOWERS CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD M.D. The Common Blue Violet

"How glorious art thou, Earth! And if thou be the shadow of some spirit lover still!" —Shelley.

A violet by a mossy stone, Half hidden from the eye! For 'tis on the velvet when only one is shining in the sky." —Wordsworth.

There is a mystery about the shy violet that stirs the most drowsy imagination. What is the fascination that draws the eye to the violet heart? From time immemorial the violet blossom has stood for maiden innocence and modesty, for the shrinking charm of youth, for the trusting faith of a child.

Poets of every age and nation sing of the immortality lovers from the mist of time are replete with the love eyes of their beloveds, and the legends that come to us out of the mist of time are replete with the immortality of the undying beauty of this world-loved blossom.

"The untrifled innocent," Shelley sings of "earth's tremulous eyes," "bedewed with silver tears," "the nectar of spring's earliest buds," while Tennyson dreams of the spirit of this world-loved blossom.

Wordsworth names the blue violet "the untrifled innocent," Shelley sings of "earth's tremulous eyes," "bedewed with silver tears," "the nectar of spring's earliest buds," while Tennyson dreams of the spirit of this world-loved blossom.

Without a thought disloyal. One might as well try to think of the dandelion being unknown to the world as the violet. There are no woods without their banks of the blue-purple blossom, while a country without its spreading meadows "bedewed with blue of heaven" is yet to be discovered. Says Cowper:

"Meadows of softest verdure, Purpled o'er with violets." Where will you find the blue violet? Wherever blows the spring breeze, thru the wide, wide world.

"How sweet it is when mother Fancy roes The wayward brain, to saunter thru a wood, a path, a vale, a lovely A shady place, full of many a lovely brood. Tall trees, green arbors and ground flowers in locks." How will you know the blue violet? By its low-growing, five-petaled blossom, long-spurred; by its heart-shaped, jagged-edged leaves of rusty living green and by its golden, honey-laden, bee-haunted, by its purple hue of "heaven's own blue."

GAG RULE.
Now that the C. N. R. situation at Ottawa has been virtually settled, it is to be presumed that the delay in dealing with the street railway purchase agreement will be ended in Toronto. It was a suspicion of this, no doubt, that led to the effort to head off the possible submission of the question to the people by the bill brought in by Mr. Gooderham. The legislation was asked by Mr. Gooderham and other cities for twelve months of the year. Gag rule, it has been argued, was necessary to avert the evils of corruption. If there be corruption, which we disbelieve, the corruptionists would only have the longer to do their work, and the better opportunity at crowded polls, to carry out their intentions. But as there has been and will be no corruption, the Gooderham bill can only be regarded as the device of a defeated minority in civic politics to carry its point thru the intervention of the legislature. The government that lends itself to such a policy loses immensely in prestige.

TECHNICAL TRAINING.
At the recent distribution of certificates awarded to the pupils of the Crystal Palace School of Practical Engineering, Mr. Cyril S. Cobb, chairman of the London (England) County Council, who presided, made a criticism well worthy of attention. The matter of technical education is now largely engrossing the best thought of all civilized nations. Britain, which had largely depended on the older system of practical instruction, came later into the theoretical field than Germany, but in several of its cities institutions that served both purposes had long been in existence. The problem for them, therefore, was not so much the establishment of something new, but the adaptation of older systems to more recent ideas. The most suggestive part of Mr. Cobb's criticism was that in which he pointed out that while technical education in Britain had made great strides, it remained fundamentally different from the system prevailing in Germany. In Germany instruction was governed by national considerations, while in Britain the primary object was the advantage of the individual student. All over the world today there were British engineers who had learnt thru personal services and discipline how to manage themselves in order that they might manage men. From the Crystal Palace School alone twelve hundred students have gone out to different parts of the world and are now overseers of workmen of many races. Britain admittedly occupies a peculiar position in this respect as in others, but this distinction between training for national and personal advantage accounts in its measure for the ubiquity of the Briton.

EASY FOR THE CENSOR.
Now that we have got back to the pleasant realm of comic opera, the "committee of forty" and the censor will be able to breath easy again. No more problems in ethics, no more profound philosophy, no more moral questions, no more applied theology, no more social considerations to vex the mentality of audiences or compete with pulpit or rostrum! The seductive skirt, the alluring limb, the kick exalts, as Walt Whitman might have said, do not tease the consciences of sensitive censors, which only react to the stimulus of plays with a moral. Plays without a moral can do no harm to the public morals, is the official view.

MEXICO'S NEED.
However President Wilson's policy may eventuate in the immediate future there is good reason to believe that it will in the end make for the good of the Mexican people. Originally Mexico was a country of small landholders, having prescriptive rights thru generations of occupancy but without written titles. During the regime of Porfirio Diaz a series of acts were promulgated which transferred the ownership of the land from the actual tillers of the soil to the men of wealth, who reduced them to a point indisputable from slavery. Madero's success came thru his promise to restore the land to its original owners and occupiers. His failure to fulfil his promise led to his downfall. Madero, possibly all, of the popularity of General Villa is due to his action in confiscating the estates of the great land owners and redistributing them among the people. This, in itself, altho it may have led to internal trouble, may prove in the end to be of permanent advantage. All recent observers, who have studied the situation from the inside, agree that in the restoration of peasant proprietorship lies the real hope of Mexico. They united in praising the virtues of the ordinary, common day Mexican and recognizing that his one and only desire is to be left at peace to cultivate his holding and reap the reward of his labor. What to all appearance Mexico needs is the strong man who will secure this and prepare the way for real self-government.

EQUAL FRANCHISE ACTIVITY.
All classes of the supporters, both socially, intellectually and morally, were represented at the fine meeting which inaugurated the Political Equality League last night, and the president, Mrs. Harriet Dunlop Prenter, may well be proud of the new association which she has been elected head. All shades of opinion were expressed and all degrees of aggressiveness manifested. Controller Simpson frankly stated that he regarded women's suffrage as a step towards greater social improvement and the amelioration of condition for those who support the social structure on their shoulders. Mr. Arthur Hawkes regarded the potentiality of women as overwhelming if they took their places on the political platform and spoke and advocated and expounded with the ability of which they were capable. Dr. J. T. Gilmour regarded the movement as essential to the moral emancipation of the race. Mr. Wray endorsed the movement from the viewpoint of the artist. Mrs. Prenter herself indicated the co-operative and inclusive nature of the league, which aims to unite all who favor the suffrage cause. Miss Hodge of Australia gave an interesting account of what has been done at the antipodes, attributing the grant of the vote to women there to the militant attitude of the men, before whom the premier had yielded. Miss Dorothy Petrick represented the suffragette section in Britain. The league represents a new phase of development in the suffrage movement in Toronto, whose activities have taken several forms, and if the course outlined is followed, there is sure to be a change felt in the pressure of the political atmosphere. Just which barometer will first indicate the change it is difficult to say, but political weather-gauges are sensitive to all atmospheric fluctuations, and the Political Equality League undoubtedly represents a change.

EUROPEAN ARGUMENTS.
In an article in a recent number of the British Review of Reviews Sir Harry Johnston, the famous traveler and author, makes some suggestive remarks about the European situation. Present day troubles and difficulties, as is now generally recognized, centre round the decision of Bismarck to transfer Alsace and a part of Lorraine from French to German rule. Alsace, no doubt, had been originally part of the old German Empire, but its long association with France and the sympathetic French temper had created a sentiment which persists even after the more than forty years that have elapsed since the Franco-German war. Today the situation in Europe turns on Alsace-Lorraine. But not only for that severance, another and more intimate triple alliance might have come in recent years that would have been decisive in preserving peace and leading the way towards a mutual understanding among European nations. To Sir Harry Johnston's mind the peace of the old world pivots on the restoration of Metz to France and the allotment to Germany of a larger sphere of colonial and administrative influence than she possesses at the present day. This admits Germany's claim to "a larger place in the sun," to use the Kaiser's picturesque phrase, but it also serves to remind Germany that her chief barrier to that consummation is her earth hunger. Germany with her desire after a more convenient sea coast and Russia with her determination to secure a direct outlet to the North Sea are the main factors in the European problem. They may align themselves temporarily, but there is no real bond of unity. But before the proper alignment can come there must be broader and more liberal acknowledgment of past errors.

IN PIDGIN ISLAND Harold MacGrath is back on his native heath. It is his first full-sized American Romance since HALF A ROUGE AND THE MAN ON THE BOX. It's American to the very base, and it's bound to be enjoyed by every American man or woman who picks it up. It starts with a rush, and is read at a flying.

ALCOHOL AND ENERGY.
It is a very old delusion that alcohol adds to energy, and altho today the delusion is less tenable than ever, it seems hard to kill. And yet every power that the world has ever known effects helps to demonstrate more conclusively than ever that alcohol is a foe to work. Prof. Dr. Emil Krapelin, of Munich University, has been making some rather remarkable experiments in this direction, using the ergograph, a machine invented by Prof. Angelo Mosso of Turin. Prof. Krapelin first took a total abstinence and measured his muscular efficiency with the ergograph ten times a day for some weeks. Then he gave the man a glass of Bordeaux wine after each meal, and proceeded with his measurements. In every case the worker showed a decline in efficiency varying between 7.5 and 8 per cent. After abstaining from alcohol for two weeks the loss was 15.3 per cent. In daily efficiency. His next experiment was with printers' compositors, and on one of these the loss was 5.6 per cent. In all these cases there was, of course, no evidence of intoxication, and doubtless each man would have liked to see a similar efficiency was impaired in the slightest degree, but the tests showed otherwise. He tried some accountants and tested their ability to add long columns of figures. At first the accountants worked without alcohol, and then they were given four cupsful of claret a day. On the very first day their work fell off 3.1 per cent, and it steadily declined until at the end of two weeks the loss was 15.3 per cent. In daily efficiency. LIST OF WINNERS AT HORSE SHOW

MISS LONG NOT THERE

Famous Cob Imitation Was Not Shown in His Class.

The first day at the Canadian National Horse Show brought forward some excellent contests. In the first event, Class 76, for Clydesdales, the Dominion Transport Company carried off the first three prizes.

In the Class 27 event for qualified hunters, some excellent jumping was shown. The winner of the event being Eginton, owned by Sunnybrook Farm.

W. Hoppe Wins Another Billiard Championship

NEW YORK, April 28.—By defeating Calvin Demareet of Chicago 400 to 198 in the final game of the world's professional championship tournament at 14.1 balling champion, holding the title to each of the three balling styles of play. Hoppe won all seven of his matches in the tournament, and Demareet met with his only defeat tonight, winning six out of seven games.

Immediately after the match Hoppe hurried from the hall to the bedside of his wife, who, while the champion was winning his 400 to 4 game from George Sutton last night, was undergoing a serious operation unknown to her husband in a local sanitarium. She is still in a critical condition. Hoppe's worryment during the match tonight was caused by his wife's illness.

Hoppe 400, average 26 10-15, high runs 61, 56.
Demareet 198, average 13 1-15, high runs 63, 30.

BUSINESS SHOW IS PROVING POPULAR

Excellent List of Attractions Planned For This Afternoon and Evening—Exhibit Closes Tonight.

To-day is the last day of the Toronto Business Show. It will be open from two o'clock this afternoon until ten-thirty this evening. It has been in point of attendance, diversity and comprehensiveness of exhibits, etc., in fact in every point and in every way, the greatest Business Show ever held in Canada.

Evidence of business depression has been conspicuous by reason of its absence. Throughout the week that the Show has been running a large number of business men have attended and sales have been brisk. Exhibitors, who measure the success of a show by the volume of sales and prospects, state that the show of this year totally eclipses the initial event of last year.

Last night 6,000 people thronged the aisles of the Arena. The large hall at the southern end of the building was packed for the moving picture show and the seats around the orchestra stand were occupied by a crowd of auditors through the musical concert.

Practically every up-to-date office appliance, fixture and device calculated to make for increased efficiency, economy and facility in the discharge of office work is on display as are also office furniture and appointments of all kinds.

The show will be open this afternoon and evening for the last time this year. Numerous attractions, including moving pictures, a lecture on business ethics and orchestral music have been arranged.

QUEBEC REJOICES OVER ROME'S GLAD NEWS

Canadian Press Despatch.

QUEBEC, April 28.—The bells of all the Roman Catholic churches of this city pealed out joyously at 11 o'clock today when the news of the elevation of His Grace Archbishop Begin to the dignity of cardinal was officially confirmed in a communication from Mgr. Stagni, apostolic delegate at Ottawa, in which he also transmitted the cablegram which he received from Cardinal del Val.

STRIKING FASTER CLIP AT WOODBINE

Track Still Muddy, With Trainers Getting More Work—The Daily Routine.

Altho the track had not dried out any too well, most of the trainers sent their charges along yesterday morning at Woodbine Park. Some of them were let down a notch, as they all worked wide on the track, as towards the rail it was still muddy. However, the dogs have been taken down, and should the weather continue good some faster work may be looked for.

The Oddings string were given useful work. See Hilly was breezed a half-mile in 51 2-5, Hearts of Oak five-eighths in 1:08, but the balance of the stable were only galloped.

From the Davos string, in charge of Trainer McDermott, in charge, Fast Eight breezed seven-eighths in 1:45, Southern Maid and Beool three-quarters in 1:38, and Gold Bug three-quarters seven-eighths in 1:43, under wraps all the way. The colts are very much like the illustrious relative, Kenny Maid, is another very useful mare. This pair are both eligible for the Coronation Stakes and will in all probability be raced in that event.

The Hendry string, in charge of Eddie White, were out galloped along at a two-minute clip, but none of them was given any fast work.

Banty Rogers had C. A. Crew's string out, and gave them good useful work. They look well, and Banty is confident he will have them right and ready by race day. Paper Sauce, the two-year-old by Inferno—New Dancer, and half-brother to the old warrior, Caper Sauce, the stable and grand shape, and very much like his illustrious relative, Kenny Maid, is another very useful mare. This pair are both eligible for the Coronation Stakes and will in all probability be raced in that event.

Fred Newman, who has the horses of Dr. Hamby of Kingston in charge, has been giving them good useful work. They are in good shape, and Fred is confident he will have them right and ready by race day. Caper Sauce looks and acts just like the colts and will not doubt repeat his last year's performance. He is a very useful mare, and will in all probability be raced in that event.

Bird has Martin, Brynlah, Nellie B. and Thomas K. all in good shape and they take kindly to their work every day.

OTTAWA FORCED TO ASSIST C.N.R.

Burden Reluctantly Assumed as Only Solution of Grave Problem.

There, the Laurier administration and recent parliaments or the provincial government and legislative bodies, some Conservative, some Liberal. The question on which most will differ is the conditions of the agreement between the Dominion Government and the company which agreement is about to be introduced into parliament.

Representations of the strongest kind have been made to Borden and his colleagues by business men, by the provincial authorities, by banks and by many of the Conservative members of parliament that a great trans-continental proposition nearing its completion should not be forced to transcontinental line. Strong representations came from people where the senators are now doing business or will do business when completed. Contractors who had not been able to get all their money also urged action.

Security is Adequate.

The government are therefore asking parliament to guarantee bonds for $100,000,000, which company they are to get forty per cent. of the stock of a re-organized company capitalized at $100,000,000, which company will take over the subsidiary companies, including the townships, tunnels and terminal in case of default the government is to have the right to take over the whole system.

This relief, so the company claims.

will enable it to complete the road, meet its floating and other immediate liabilities in the neighborhood of $25,000,000, and allow it to free and make available over $5,000,000 of securities, a large block of which are already sold and the money in the bank but not available until completion of the system is effected. In other words, the relief that is proposed will put the company in funds for the completion of its system and enable it to pay its debts and to serve the west and the east with one of the well-graded roads in the Dominion. In other words, the Canadian Northern is more tied up than bankrupt; what it wants is relief to help it out for the time being. It undertakes to do all the things it had proposed to do if it falls in any respect in its undertaking in the new deal, the whole system passes over to the country. On the ten pages over to it is expected that the banks of the company will enable it to pay out a total of $5,000,000 this week at many points.

TOLD BOARD THAT CITY WASN'T READY

Railway Commissioners Were Advised That Civic Officials Had Not Seen Plans

GEARY TO OTTAWA

Union Station Tangle Causes Acrimonious Discussion at Controllers' Meeting.

It came out in the board of control yesterday that Corporation Counsel Geary had advised the Dominion Railway Board on Tuesday of last week that the city officials had not seen the plans for the Union Station and could not be ready by Saturday to approve them; also that the plans were turned over to Engineer Power on Wednesday, with strict instructions to say nothing to anyone about it.

Controller Church brought up the matter by urging that the board meet the harbor commissioners today for consultation over the plans. He said he is not satisfied with the plans, in that they close station street.

"Commissioner Harris and his staff are now going over the plans," Mayor Hocken said. "Why should the harbor commissioners be consulted on the plans for the Union Station building?" he asked the controller. "It is the viaduct and not the station that is on harbor property."

"I was very anxious to get the plans approved on Saturday," Controller Church averred.

"Controller O'Neill is very lucky," Mayor Hocken remarked. "He was away a month and never a kick was away a few days and my absence was condemned in a flaring editorial."

"We should confer with the harbor board at once," Controller Church insisted.

"The best proof of your inconsistency is that you want to close station street to the harbor board," Controller McCarthy said to Controller Church. "I may be prepared to take lying chat from outside the city hall, but not from inside the hall."

"We will instruct the plans and send a recommendation to the harbor board next Monday," Mayor Hocken said. "Mr. Geary can meet the Dominion Railway Board on Tuesday next Tuesday and report the action of the council."

"This was agreed to. The Chairman Drayton of the Dominion Railway Board stated last Saturday that the board would meet in Ottawa on Tuesday, May 5, and approve the plans of the station and viaduct, excepting the east wing of the building."

Dodd's Kidney Pills Making a Reputation in the West.

Saskatchewan Man Tells How They Cured Him, After Four Months' Suffering from Backache and Other Forms of Kidney Disease.

ST. PHILLIPS, Sask., April 28.—(Special.)—In a new country, always changes of climate and impure water are among the difficulties to be surmounted, kidney trouble is prevalent, and it is the kidneys, the organs that strain the impurities out of the blood, that first feel any undue strain on the body. Consequently, Dodd's Kidney Pills have been well tried and tested in this neighborhood.

"They have stood the test. Many settlers tell of backache, rheumatism and urinary troubles cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Otto Oleszewski is one of these. In speaking of his cure he says:

"I suffered from kidney disease for four months. My back ached, I had heart fluttering, and was always tired and nervous. My skin had a harsh, dry feeling; my limbs were heavy; and I had a dragging sensation across the loins.

"I consulted a doctor, but as I did not appear to improve, I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used six boxes, and now I am all right."

WILL NOT ATTACK HOLDERS OF PORT

Passengers Arriving at Vera Cruz Report Huerta's Forces in Retreat.

Canadian Press Despatch. VERA CRUZ, April 28.—That President Huerta has decided not to attempt to try conclusions with the American forces near Vera Cruz is indicated by a report brought to the city by passengers arriving from the outlying districts. The passengers said they saw General Mas, former commander at Vera Cruz, and his men making their way farther into the interior from Soledad. With him were the few cadets who escaped from the naval academy after the battle fought there in the second day's engagement.

The American forces are tolerant of almost all Mexicans who enter their lines, and any Mexican officer might probably with safety openly enter and depart from the city.

Rodrigo De Landa, a reporter of El Imparcial of Mexico City, came into Vera Cruz yesterday. He visited the United States headquarters and surveyed entire field of operations without molestation. He plans to return to the capital with his story on the first train he can get to take him out.

WILL NOT ANNEX PROPERTY IN PART

Board of Control Announces Decision Respecting Humber Valley Territory.

TO ABOLISH CORONERS

Controller O'Neill Has Little Faith in Inquests, But Board Takes No Action.

Annexation of a portion of the Humber valley territory was not favored by the board of control yesterday.

There is an agreement between Home Smith and the city that the territory as far west as Church street be annexed as soon as the necessary petition is signed.

A special meeting of the city council will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock to discuss the tenders for the extension of the filtration plant.

It was agreed to deal on Friday with the reorganization of the fire and city architect's department and the establishing of a purchasing department.

Acting City Architect Price is to be invited in the meantime to present his defence to the criticisms in Judge Denton's findings from the investigation of the architect's department.

The construction of the sewer from Small's Pond is completed and Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., has notified the property owners around the pond that they must abate the nuisance from the breaking of the dam.

The council will be asked to send to the provincial government a recommendation that Superintendent Findlay be appointed in charge of the women's industrial farm.

Abolish Coroners. Controller O'Neill suggested that coroners be abolished and inquests be held before a commission.

Mayor Hocken stated that he had read in a morning paper that the property committee had instructed the city architect to issue a permit under the old bylaw for the reconstruction of a building for hotel purposes.

"Don't do anything until you have consulted with the board," Mayor Hocken said to Mr. Nash.

Major Collins asked for a grant of $100 for the restoration of old fort buildings. He said that the old barracks are tumbling down.

ENCOURAGE BIRDS TO TRILL IN PARKS

Efforts Will Be Made to Induce Migratory Songsters to Locate Here.

Encouragement of song birds to the parks and private gardens was the subject of the meeting of the parks and exhibition committee yesterday.

He explained that the flight of migratory birds is along the lake shore and up the Humber and Don valleys.

Every bird will eat its own weight in insects in a day," he stated, "and they are specialists in the things that insects in the soil that do much damage to plant life."

Commissioner Chambers stated that the parks and that one hundred and fifty birds are now provided for the public school classes in manual training. He said he would consult with Mr. Nash as to the placing of the houses.

Rev. R. N. Burns, representing the golf clubs in the city, asked for the establishment of civic golf links so that all classes of people would have an opportunity to play the game.

An offer of the free use of Duffin Park for baseball purposes was accepted. Seventy-two hand cones are to be given in the parks this summer.

"Clean-up day does not mean that all refuse will be removed on that day," Commissioner Wilson stated. Refuse will be removed as usual on regular collection days.
