

What a Lot of Smiths There Are!

There is Smith who runs the drug store and Smith who runs the ice cart—Smith who drives the auto, and Smith who drives a street car—there is Smith who built the library for the town, and Smith who built the building for Smith. There are young Smiths and old Smiths—rich Smiths and poor Smiths—decent Smiths and shady Smiths.

What a tremendous difference there is in Smiths! Then, why, in all reason, don't you realize that if the mere name of Smith doesn't put all its owners into one class, the mere fact of fifty or sixty makes of clothing happening to bear the same price resemblance doesn't count for a thing if there isn't a quality sameness to keep it company?

W. G. TRETHERY STOCKS HIS J. B. 7 MINE AT $1,000,000

Attention is called to an advertisement appearing in another column, having reference to the Tretwhey Silver-Cobalt Mine, Limited, formerly owned by Mr. W. G. Tretwhey, one of the pioneers in the Cobalt country. This mine has one of the best records in the camp. It has produced over a quarter of a million dollars in actual cash, and has over $80,000 worth of ore on the dump and in bars, and the mine is fully equipped with all the necessary plant and machinery for rapid development work. There are also all the necessary buildings required for some time to come, and the assets are all free of debt. Some of the ore shipped from this property produced over 4000 ounces of silver to the ton, and one carload actually netted $70,000. The property adjoins the townsite of Cobalt, and is only one-quarter of a mile from the railway station, thus making splendid shipping facilities. Of the capitalization of $1,000,000, twenty thousand shares, or $200,000, has been placed in the treasury, and 10,000 of these shares are offered and included in the first issue of $300,000, the shares being $300 each, par value. The capitalization of this celebrated property is considered very low, when it is estimated that about $50,000 of ore is in sight, and it is undoubtedly one of the best propositions offered to the public. The head office of the Company is 25 Toronto-street.

HAPPENINGS IN HAMILTON MAY GET A UNION STATION

Cataract Co. Wants Proposal Reopened—Muddle Over Park Expropriation.

Hamilton, June 13.—(Special.)—Mayor Biggar has been assured by the officials of the C. P. R. that the company will build a line between Hamilton and Guelph Junction. His worship called a public meeting in the council chamber this evening, but it was agreed to adjourn until next Tuesday evening, when it is expected that a mass meeting will be held in the board of trade. A bylaw, providing for the expropriation of the Brayley, Sanford and Pratt properties on the mountain, was submitted to the parks board this evening. After it had been passed, it was discovered that, by an oversight, the Pratt property had been omitted, and another meeting of the board will be held to rectify the mistake.

Word was received from New York to-day of the death of Mrs. Mary Hutchison, widow of the late Thomas Hutchison. She was a sister of Mrs. Cyrus King, and the funeral will be held here on Friday.

A few weeks ago the Cataract Power Company threw up the project of building a $250,000 union station for all electric railways running into the city because the aldermen declined then to let the rate the Radial Company was to be charged for the use of the Street Railway tracks at the expiration of 1923. Col. J. M. Gibson, the president of the company, wrote 10 days ago, asking to have the matter reopened, saying that the company would not ask to have the Radial franchise interfered with if the city would give the company permanent running rights over the Street Railway tracks. The subject will be considered Thursday evening.

Policeman Accused.
William Hendrie, Jr., president of the Hamilton Jockey Club, has in charge before the police commissioners against Constables Springer and Robinson. It is charged that Springer, when in plain clothes, tried to force his way into the club grounds without paying for a ticket, and that Robinson refused to aid the gatekeeper, William Wall, when called upon to do so.

Sheriff's Officer Stewart this morning seized three race horses, Obstinat, Silmer, St. Paul and Amber. They belong to the William Farrell Co., Limited, Montreal, and they were seized to satisfy a debt contracted by Hugh Alexander, who cannot be found. They will be sold.

Rev. J. H. Robinson, the retiring pastor, was presented with a purse and address by the congregation of the World-street Methodist Church. Mrs. Robinson was also presented with a handsome tea service.

Rev. W. S. Stranahan, pastor of the Immanuel Congregational Church, was married last evening to Miss Daisy Cockburn, North River-street.

Filed for Rowdiness.
John Garce, 10 Railway-street, was found guilty of rowdiness at the race-track, and fined $10 and costs at the Hamilton and Toronto Sewer Pipe Company has decided to rebuild its plant in Hamilton.

George A. Townsend, a Chicago contractor, arrived in the city this morning and announced that he would start building operations on the Hamilton, Ancaster and Brantford Railway on Thursday morning. Hon. Arthur Kennedy, who is backing the enterprise, is expected Thursday.

A. C. E. Court Maple Leaf, No. 6690, held a meeting at the Foresters' Hall on Tuesday evening, when Norman Jagger, William T. Clements and John Dean were duly initiated by Chief Ranger Bro. William Mark Davis, assisted by Sub-Chief Ranger Bro. John Volck and Woodward Bros. Smith and Savage. Secretary Bro. John Young, H. S. C. R., in passing a few remarks to the newly initiated members, said that he was pleased to state that Court Maple Leaf had now over 300 members and $5000 in funds; also that there was a very bright report from the high court, there being not only a considerable increase in funds, but also over 500 new members throughout Canada.

South African Veterans.
The South African Veterans' Benefit Association held the regular monthly meeting at the Juveniles' Hall, North James, where a fairly large number of the members attended. Financially this association is very strong for the short time it has been in existence, although it should have larger numbers of members for the promising benefits offered to the veterans of the Boer war.

The treasurer, Mr. Wheatley, read a letter from the parents of the late Charles Leper of the Dublin Fusiliers, Londonderry, Ireland, who held an excellent record and served in India and South Africa, and had been in the hospital for over five months, and succumbed to an abscess on the brain, when they expressed their heartfelt thanks to the association, officers of the 13th B Company, and the local branch of the Irish Protestant Association for the assistance they had given in burying their son.

UNION SHOULD INCLUDE ANGLICAN AND BAPTIST

Presbyterian Assembly So Votes Almost Unanimously—Many Amendments.

London, June 13.—The debate on church union came to an end at this morning's session. The assembly showed a disposition to be impatient of continued reiteration in the speeches, and after Principal McLaren's motion was defeated there was a loud clamor for the vote. Principal Forrest shouted "We do not want to go on till Christmas."

After many protests and much disorder the vote was taken, and it showed conclusively that the great majority are in favor of a comprehensive union which shall embrace both Anglicans and Baptists. The vote was 156 to 8. Rev. R. Macbeth of Paris introduced an amendment, when debate resumed, the purpose of which was to prevent the report of the committee being sent to the congregations at the present stage. The statements were incomplete, and he considered it unwise to send down an abstract document, and thought that to remit the report now would simply plunge the church into a whirl of controversy which, at the present stage, the negotiations for union, was altogether uncalculated.

Dr. Herdman, Calgary, said there was a widespread feeling in the west that union should not be proceeded with. Rev. J. F. Duxan said it would create internecine strife and civil war. (Derisive laughter.) There was no necessity to send the report to the churches; they could get all the information needed from the press. To submit the question to the people now would not only be useless, but injurious. The amendment was rejected by 111 votes, to 57.

ONE NIGHT A WEEK.

A Change in Sitings of Parliament is Proposed. Ottawa, June 13.—An important change is proposed with regard to the sittings of the house. The members in future sessions will probably have every Wednesday night free from parliamentary duties. This is the practice in England. The need for at least one night's release from the chamber is much felt, as under existing conditions there is not an evening for social functions. In order to bring about this, the house would meet at noon Wednesday and put in three extra hours the average length of a night sitting.

to join the union. The assembly must assume responsibility and issue a definite invitation to these two churches. Dr. McMullen said there was an impression in the Anglican Church that they were not being treated with courtesy. Dr. McLaren's motion was rejected. The original resolution that the Anglicans and Baptists be invited most cordially to take part in the negotiations for union was unanimously carried. Alex. Warden Appointed.

New York, June 13.—The members of the New York City Municipal Civil Service Commission were ordered to be committed to jail for contempt of court by Justice Marean in Brooklyn to-day. The commissioners had failed to obey an order of the court to restore a former police sergeant to the list for readmission, after his rating had been reduced because of fines.

AND STILL THERE'S DELAY IN NAMING A COMMISSIONER

Two Applicants Out of Fifteen Present Their Claims to Recognition Before Controllers.

No appointment was made by the board of control yesterday to the position of civic commissioner of industries, although the names of a number of applicants were submitted, and T. M. Humble and J. P. Patterson advanced their personal claims.

Controller Jones nominated F. A. Elliot, lawyer, Buffalo, formerly of Toronto, as the most qualified among the applicants. Mr. Hilton wanted $4000 a year. Controller Hubbard thought a lawyer should not be chosen, and opposed the whole project, declaring that no other city had a commissioner of industry as head of a department. Controller Jones retorted that Boston had taken the matter up, and that Hamilton's assessment commissioner gave practically his whole time to the work. He accused the other controllers of having secretly conspired to defeat the proposition. Controllers Ward and Shaw both asserted they had opposed it from the outset.

Other candidates were announced as in line: K. S. Fenwick of Quebec, formerly of Toronto; W. H. Meredith, R. A. Donald, Alex. Stuart, J. Ironside, Thomson, J. P. Patterson, E. C. Davies, Charles F. Rees, H. S. Bell, Ed. Stephenson, James Purvis, T. M. Humble.

The Mayor Lets Loose. An editorial in an evening paper ruffled Controller Hubbard, and he said, on his part, that Mayor Costello, to express the opinion that the evening paper was of no value as a guide to public business. He had never found them helpful or useful.

"And I might say," the mayor continued, "I have seen editorials in our evening newspapers that are simply idiotic; and of any brains or decency or common sense would not write them. That is my opinion of the evening newspapers; they are no use to the city."

Controller Hubbard put in a word for the fairness of the reporters; Controller Hubbard said that the papers had been useful in the past and would be yet if they didn't give distorted information.

Canada a Rival of the U.S. in Electrical Machinery.

The largest generator ever made in this country has just been made ready for shipment to British Columbia for the works of the Canadian Westinghouse Company of Hamilton. The purchase is to the British Columbia Electric Railway Company of Vancouver. The generator is 2000 horsepower, 3 phases, 2200 volts to 24,000 volts, 300 revolutions per minute, with engine pipe 60" direct connection with the water wheel. The order also includes one rotary converter of 1550 horsepower, 400 revolutions per minute, and eight air blast transformers each of 1000 horsepower, 2200 volts to 24,000 volts, 300 alternations. The necessary switch boards for regulating and controlling the devices were also manufactured in the plant, and will be shipped with the balance of the order in the course of a day or two.

The new machinery is required by the Vancouver company to provide added power to meet the ever increasing demand of Vancouver and vicinity. It is the fourth generator of the size ordered by the Vancouver company but the other three were supplied by the Westinghouse Company from its Pittsburgh works previous to the building of the Hamilton works. The one now ready for shipment is by long odds the largest ever manufactured in Canada.

STOCK PRICES EASIER WITH LITTLE ACTIVITY

Wall St. Operations Are Highly Professional—Toronto Market Dull and Featureless.

World Office, Wednesday, June 13. The Toronto stock market struck another dull stratum to day, and the rise was scarcely entailed with a solitary movement above the normal of the average trading. Activity of the pool in Mackay comprised practically the only feature of the day, but despite the quoted volume of transactions, the market was exceedingly dull in the afternoon, with some sympathetic eases with Wall Street. Such speculative commitments as are in the market are not pressing for sale, holders showing considerable patience under unimpaired conditions. Among the usually inactive issues, navigation stocks and feeders have fairly substantial support, but except in the case of the latter and Northern Navigation supplies are available without a great deal of excitement in the shape of advancing bid prices. Mexican, which was thrown into the market on Monday, has done nothing since and can be had at a concession from Monday's figure. Bank shares also had on Tuesday several odd lots of Ontario selling over a point below previous transactions.

Tendency of exchange makes gold exports improbable for a long time to come. Lackwanna Street orders on books June 1 largest in its history.

Steel wire production for May passes all records. Stocks plentiful in the loan crowd with some reduction in demand for St. Paul.

Cash to the amount of $18,800,000 has returned from San Francisco with $24,800,000 still to come.

Congress cannot adjourn in present circumstances before June 23, and probably will not adjourn before July 1.

The banks have lost $645,000 to sub-treasury since Friday.

It is claimed that Wednesday next locomotive will be placed on 5 per cent basis.

Bill introduced at Washington providing for passenger rates on all roads doing interstate business of 2c per mile.

Western Union Telegraph Company declared regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent, payable July 16, books closed June 20, reopen July 2.

Philadelphia—The directors of the Pennsylvania Company to-day declared a dividend semi-annual of 3 per cent, an increase of 1 per cent over the previous dividend was 5 per cent, and was paid in December last. The par value of the stock of this company is $20 a share, the issue amounts to $60,000,000, all of which is issued and owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit—There was a drive by the board to-day morning on the announcement that the state railroad commission would grant a hearing on the proposition to reduce the Central Railroad fare from 10c to 5c. However, there was excellent buying on the decline, Gates, Flower & Co. and F. W. Graves taking considerable of the stock. On any further recession in B.R.T. we would advise its purchase, as we believe it will have substantial upward movement shortly.—Town Topics.

The opening business on the stock exchange has been more than cut in two and in the early afternoon market was in a state of complete inertia. Not even an announcement that Pennsylvania Co. had increased its dividend to six per cent, which had any effect on the market. With any kind of activity this should have resulted in an advance in the stock, which receives practically the entire benefit from advance in the subsidiary companies' dividend. Stock in for sale on the exchange declines are not followed up by further sales, which indicates an effort on the part of some one to take profit at the highest possible point.—Dow Jones.

Joseph says: The reaction is considerably narrow, but excellent trading opportunities are presented. Safe purchases may be made in Pennsylvania, Atchafalaya, Island, Erie and Washlakes. These will not, under any circumstances, decline much below their present level. Buy conservatively, being prepared to average on dips. Remember small profits and own are better than large profits and seldom. Specialties: Washab and Pittsburg 2nd, 4's, will go to 50. Buy S.P. for a turn.

General Superintendent Percie of the Dominion Coal Company is quoted as emphatically denying the report that the International Colliery shortly be abandoned because of flooding. He says the water does not at all interfere with operations.

A Sydney despatch reports temporary cessation at No. 6 colliery, and says that regards shaft and surface work, owing to slight labor trouble. No. 6 is not under the 5-year agreement.

New York, June 13.—Locomotive is in a position to advance further if the Gates party is willing. Fuel should continue to be sold on railroads, as the latter is not being held possible. Some further temporary strength in Pennsylvania is not unlikely. St. P. may still benefit from news on recession, but for terms only. Any collapse in the movement of St. Paul would precipitate a selling generally. Defiant reports of professional selling in Reading, which induced us to recommend purchases only on recessions, are circulating. A big rise is predicted for Northwest soon. Buy King Hvas, are circulating on Mexican Central. A specialist says A.C.P. is now held between 110 and 117. A.R. is in the trading position, with support towards 153 to 164; 90 and 91 seem to us to be the existing limits for Atchison. Professionals now sell B.R.T. for a return of 100 to 110. L. & N. may sag lower, but is taken on a scale down. Some stock is reported met in M.P. contracts 90 support being reported towards 98. N.Y.C. meets stock towards 142. Unless it is taken the price will drop back each time it touches that figure. Union Pacific is in the trading position, to be preferred as a purchase when weak around 130 or below.—Financial News.

Merchants Bank of Canada. The statement which will be presented to the shareholders of the Merchants Bank on the 20th inst. is one that must be very gratifying to the officials and highly satisfactory to the stockholders. The figures for the year totalled $740,888.90, against $649,237.66 the previous year. Of the profits and balance brought forward last year of $73,197.20, $420,000 has been paid as 7 per cent dividend on the capital. This year $100,000 has been written off bank premises, against $30,000 a year ago and $19,000 contributed to pension fund, compared with $15,000 last year. An appropriation of $200,000 has also been made to the rest account, which now stands at $8,600,000. Provisions for these distributions, $74,866.19 is carried forward to the credit of profit and loss.

Railroad Earnings. Increase. Soo, 1st week June, $40,938 Duluth, same time, 5,772

On Wall Street. Marshall, Spader & Co. wired J. G. Beatty, King Edward Hotel, at the close of the market to-day: The disposition of the larger interests to withhold supplies from the market has quite manifest recently and the situation has been almost entirely in the hands of professional traders, which element has accumulated quite a free market movement in the face of difficulties.

Activity has now narrowed down to very few stocks and the character of the trading does not attract outside support, but apart from this public discussion of fundamentals is directly against favorable sentiment.

Predictions of tight money and crop failures with the belief growing that government and state regulation of corporation will continue over more pronounced lines will hardly induce either speculation or investment buying of the security list.

Congress is expected to adjourn this month and this may remove apprehension concerning the final phases of legislation. Meantime the market is nothing more than a very professional traders' affair, with seemingly a good undercurrent.

Enlis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell, McKinnon Building: The market to-day has been irregular, with attention chiefly centred upon crop conditions, the continued drought in southwest and the considerable increase in the Pennsylvania Co. and Pan-handle preferred dividends add three-quarters of a million to income, which is payable to Pennsylvania Railway stock, and as it now appears to be Pennsylvania Railway to increase dividends, the reports that B. & O. will be placed upon a 6 per cent basis, this fall should receive more consideration. Much attention is being paid to position of L. & N., which is estimated earning over 20 per cent and there is opinion in good quarters that the stock will be placed upon 7 or 8 per cent basis in order to cover annual cost of control by Atlantic Coast Line. There is no material change in surroundings of the security list.

Western interests have been inclined to receive long holdings, owing to unfavorable crop advice, but it is doubtful if very serious damage has thus far been done to the growth of grain. On the other hand, there are many encouraging features, and we think that on fair recessions the general list will prove an excellent purchase.

London Stocks. London, June 13.—Money in increased demand in the market to-day, and rates were a shade higher. Discounts were firm. Trading in the stock exchange was inactive. Prices early in the day were steady, but somewhat weakened after the close. Liquidations, operators wanting to invest in the new issue of the Irish Land stock, which is cheaply offered, have been advanced on moderate investment purchases. Foreigners generally were steady, but Russian and Greek currencies opened dull and improved to over parity on fair support. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul received the most attention. Lately the market became dull. New York supported Baltimore & Ohio after the transaction of a small amount of business, prices closed steady. Grand Trunk was easier on profit-taking. Copper shares were weaker. Kofers maintained their improvement. 1,028 new imperial shares of 1904 closed at 102.

DETECTIVE'S GAMENESS GAINED DESPERATE CONVICT

An Incident in the Life of Inspector Murray, Typical of His Handling of Criminals.

Probably no incident in the career of the late Inspector Murray revealed the daring handling of criminals so well as that of his bringing back to Toronto, for murder, Frank Meagher. Jos. Daln, living on the corner of Bloor and Yonge-streets, was robbed one night. He chased his man for several blocks, when the fleeing burglar shot him and escaped, although his accomplice was arrested and received a life sentence.

Detective Murray took up the case, and after considerable work found that his man, Frank Meagher, Daln's murderer, was in jail in Indianapolis. Meagher was a fine looking fellow and well educated, and had lots of friends. He was awaiting trial for burglary. Detective Murray had all his papers ready to bring Meagher back to Canada on June 19, 1877.

and I was sure then that he was playing for delay, and I was doubly determined to take him on the 4th train. He began to curse Meagher, possibly hoping a row would break out there and then.

Bravery Which Won. "I don't know, Murray," he said. "But don't you come near me. I thought it all over. He could kill me as easy one way as another, so I turned my back back to him and sat down on the ground. He had glanced away I could have slipped out of my grip. He watched me like a hawk. I yawned and turned my back full to him. I do not want to get hurt any more than you do, Frank; but I'm not afraid any more than you are," I remarked.

"There was a long silence. I wondered once if he would reach down and smash me with the club, and I thought I heard a cat-like tread on the step. I kept my eyes front, however, although I had done easier things in my life. "Finally, he spoke—softly, and in almost a whisper. "Murray, said, 'you're a game man. Get me a suit of clothes and I'll go with you, but not with Meagher.' "Give me the gun, Frank, said I. "He handed me the gun. We walked down the stairs into the office, side by side. We took the 4th train back to Canada, and to punishment."

OUR NATIONAL SPORTS. Goldwin Smith in Weekly Sun: Summer brings again into review our national sports, which do not escape the changefulness of the age. Golf has largely supplanted lawn tennis. To appreciate golf is difficult for those who are not golfers. It does not seem to exercise any particular faculty or member, while lawn tennis casts into play nimbleness of foot, quickness of eye, general alertness. Of the magical fascination of golf, however, there can be no doubt. Lapses of the mind seem to be entirely forgotten. When a game, baseball can hardly be called national when it is common to the whole continent, and even teams are made up of players hired on both sides of the line. To make cricket national we must have counterparts of the single in lawn tennis, perhaps also a longer summer. But the great obstacle is the time taken by a game, which is more than the men of a business community can afford. It is, in fact, growing too long altogether, and schemes for shortening it are on foot. One might be to put a man out if he failed to score in a certain number of overs. But cricket as a rule is not likely to produce much game money. It is a slow game and not adapted to the people. One happy distinction it has, there is little if any betting on it.

Breaking Heifers in to Milk.

Dairy farmer in an old country county temporarily gives some pertinent advice on the above subject. One of great importance to those anxious to make a profit out of their cows, is the breaking of heifers in to milk. Some cows are ready to let dry on the slightest provocation, due frequently to mistakes made when breaking them into milk for the first time. These mistakes are: 1. Not milking them at all. 2. Milking them too often. 3. Milking them too long. 4. Milking them too hard. 5. Milking them too late in the day. 6. Milking them too early in the day. 7. Milking them too often. 8. Milking them too long. 9. Milking them too hard. 10. Milking them too late in the day. 11. Milking them too early in the day.

Mangels as a Root Crop.

Mangel-wurzel is a large feed best which is found to be very useful as a root crop for feeding stock during the winter. It is the most watery of all the root crops, but is very easily cultivated and harvested and compresses well for storage. The total dry matter in mangels was found by the Cornell station to be equal to that in sugar beets. They are used largely in feeding cows, but are also used for sheep and swine. They produce a large root which stands well over the ground and produce often as much as fifty tons per acre, with thirty tons a common yield. Mangels may be planted about the last of May and will grow on any land that will grow corn. The land that is to grow mangels should receive good preparation and the soil should be sown in drills, the rows being about 12 inches apart. This is a slow method of cultivation and save hand labor. They should receive about the same cultivation as other root crops, keeping down the weeds while the plants are young. Stock during the winter in a cellar, as that is the best place for them. In England, where they are grown largely, cellars are built especially for storing roots in. This crop is capable of resisting considerable dry weather and makes good yields under other vegetation suffers from drought. They are not hard on the land and their deep growing roots leave it in good condition. Besides these feeding values, the excellent condition in promoting digestion and keeping animals to which they are fed in a thrifty condition.

Selling Butter.

After carefully taking care of the milk and using every precaution to make a nice quality of butter, the next step is to sell it. The quantity of salt used must depend on the dryness of the butter at the time of salting and upon the tastes of the consumers. Some persons are very particular about the salt used, and will not buy butter unless it is made with a certain kind of salt. It is not uncommon, and the secret of it all is, cleanliness. It is quite surprising how quickly and correctly a cow will detect the milkers' disposition. When a cow has sore teats it is not surprising that she should kick when being milked, but some dairymen try to handle them roughly, then the kicking does not decrease or the teats mend, and here, again, the good hand is the best. I have seen them absolutely wild with some milkers, while with another, a thrifty farm woman from raw teats they would grin and bear it. I am therefore not so sympathetic with milkers who induce kicking or that cause the cows to continue to kick. It is in favor of their legs and halting their legs in any way. This shows a decided incapability on the part of the milkman to manage the cow, and if he cannot do so, he should be replaced by one who can. The employment of a cow should be discontinued after a hand is injured after such a hand is in the process of the herd or dairy.

TWO OFFICERS ARE INJURED THROUGH BY GREEN MOUNTS

Capt. Mitchell and Maden in Hospital for a Few Days—Horses Scarce.

Camp Niagara, June 13.—(Special.)—The "hoodoo" of the calendar date was present in the camp early to-day. There were two accidents. Fortunately neither was serious. Capt. Mitchell of the 9th Battery, Toronto, was riding a new horse when it reared and fell backwards upon him. Capt. Harry Maden of the 2nd Dragoons, Brantford, met with a similar misadventure. The doctors say that both men will be around again in a few days. There is a scarcity of horses, due to the fact that the government pays only about half what the market will bring to the owners in more peaceful pursuits. Officers, both in the artillery and cavalry, are forced to make up the difference (the average allowance is $1 a day per horse), in many cases in order to get sufficient mounts to bring his command to camp. It is a grievance with a good many of them.

Feeds for Young Chicks.

The following is an outline of the method followed by an extensive Maine State poultry man in feeding his young chicks: "They are first fed upon the infantile eggs, which had been boiled, then ground in a meat-chopper, shell and all, and mixed with about six times their bulk of rolled oats, by rubbing both together enough to break the egg shells into small pieces. This is fed sparingly for two or three days in the litter and sent on the brooder floor. About the third day a mixture of hard, broken grains, such as cracked corn, wheat, millet and pinhead oats, is given as soon as the birds can see to eat in the morning—only a limited amount. However, that they might be ready for a good feed at 10 o'clock when the rolled egg and oat mixture is placed before them for five minutes. In places without time. Removing these, they scratch for a little of the fine broken grain. At 1 o'clock the hard grains are fed, as in the morning, and at 4.30 o'clock, they are given all the rolled egg mixture they can eat till dark. When about three weeks old this mixture is gradually replaced by one made of wheat or barley and good clean chick mash, such as cracked corn, wheat, millet and pinhead oats, is given as soon as the birds can see to eat in the morning—only a limited amount. All the 22 competitors were on view in the paddock, but it was a few minutes after the advertised time to start before they emerged on to the course. Sancy and Plum Tree were the first to make their appearance, and they were followed by Null Secundus, Beppo, and the other favorites.
