POWER BARONS CONTROL BEST SITES

Unless Kept for People, History of Oil Trust Will be Repeated, Says Roosevelt in Special Message.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—President Roosevelt sent a special message to the house today with his veto of the bill providing for the construction of a dam across James River in Stone County, Missouri, the purpose of the dam being to get water to create electric power.

He declared that the movement to secure control of the waterpower of the country is still in its infancy, but that "unless it is controlled the history of the oil industry will be repeated in the hydro-electric power industry with results far more oppressive and disastrous for the people."

He says that "the bill gives to the grantees a valuable privilege, which by its very nature is monopolistic and does not contain the conditions essential to protect the public interest."

Accompanying the message was a letter from Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, showing that one-third of the water-power of the United States has been concentrated into the hands of a few large corporations, including the General Electric Co., the Westinghouse Co. and some other corporations which cannot be identified with either of the first two.

The total horse-power controlled by a group of 13 selected companies and interests is 1,827,000. This is more than 32 per cent of the total water-power of the country.

"Furthermore," says Commissioner Smith, who made the report to the president, "this percentage by no means tells the whole truth. The foregoing powers nearly represent a majority of the best power sites. These sites are strategic points for large power and marked control. Poorer sites will generally be developed until these strategic sites are developed to their full capacity. And should these strategic sites be coupled up they become still more strategic. There are powerful economic reasons for such coupling. Coupling up is rapidly in progress in the United States. The Niagara Falls Power Co. and the Canadian Niagara Power Co. are coupled. The Southern Power Co. in North Carolina and South Carolina, the Commonwealth Power Co. in Michigan, the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., the Pacific Light and Power Co., and the Edison Electric Co. in California, each concern has its various developments coupled up into one unit.

"The economic reasoning water power concentration are thus obvious. The facts here set forth show the very rapid and very concentrated concentration that has already occurred, practically all in the last five years. These economic reasons and business facts indicate clearly the future progress of such concentration that is likely to occur in the near future. It is obvious that the effect on the public in the present and future considerations is a matter for serious public consideration.

DANBURY, Conn., Jan. 15.—The employees of twenty-six of Danbury's hat manufacturers, which are operated by members of the Associated Hat Manufacturers, left their places today in protest against the action of the manufacturers in disallowing further use of the union label in the hats made by them.

Legislature May Amend Railway Act

Among the items amending legislation which may come before the legislature several may affect the railway and municipal board. Sir James Whitney indicated at the time the board handed out its decision on the street railway's rights on the city streets that the constitution was elastic enough to deal with such a situation.

It may be taken for granted that something will be done in this connection. Whether the board will be given wider jurisdiction or powers of initiative which it does not now possess, so that where a deadlock occurs in which it cannot interfere until one of the parties gives in, it may be expected to represent the suffering public and bring about negotiations, is not to be discovered from government circles, but many people are undoubtedly expecting something of this sort.

RATE WAR IS AT END ON HAMILTON ROUTE

Owner of Turbina Secures Control of Macassa and Modjeska.

The rate war between the Turbina Steamship Company and the Hamilton Steamship Company has come to an end. J. C. Eaton, president of the T. Eaton Co., Limited, who has for some time controlled the Turbina Steamship Company, now controls the Hamilton Steamship Company as well and the two lines will be under the management of W. E. Bishop of Hamilton, general manager of the Hamilton Steamship Company. Tickets will probably be interchangeable and good on either line.

The Hamilton Steamship Company has always made a profit of from 15 to 25 per cent. Last year its two steamers, the Modjeska and Macassa, carried about 400,000 passengers. It is said that the Turbina has always been a loser to the amount of $125,000.

The Turbina, which was built at Newcastle-on-Tyne, is a magnificent steel steamer and holds the distinction of being the only one of her class on fresh water. The Modjeska and Macassa are both Clyde-built boats, and have proved highly successful as passenger and freight carriers.

Dunn, 1856 East Queen-street, was arrested on the same charge at the complaint of a citizen, who complained to the police that while he, the owner of the store, had not been paid.

PASTORS ADVISE DEAD MURDERER

Say Rev. J. H. Carmichael Always Lived Up to High Ideals of His Profession.

The local Methodist church at Rattle Run, was buried here today from the Methodist church. Rev. C. W. Martin, pastor of the church, presided at the funeral. Many of them stood through the services. Most of them braved the cold and attended the services at the grave.

Before the funeral services began, the casket was opened and the crowd permitted to view the face of the dead minister, who, while located in Romulus, had built the church from which he was buried.

Rev. F. D. Leele of Detroit in a prayer severely criticized gossip mongers, who, he thought, might have spared the Carmichael family, some of their sufferings.

Rev. John Sweet in a brief address, stated the persons who were responsible for spreading false reports about the dead minister, such as the allegation that he had added to the use of drugs. He praised Carmichael, saying that he had always found him living up to the high ideals of his profession.

YORK STATERS PROTEST AGAINST WATER TREATY

Will Seek Co-Operation of Ontario Government in Opposing New Pact.

BUFFALO, Jan. 15.—The municipal authorities, power companies and New York State generally are aroused at the terms of the international treaty, and complaints are heard on every side crminated against it in favor of Illinois and the City of Chicago in the limitations set to power development.

Already a deputation has set out to interview the Ontario Government and seeks its co-operation in protesting against the treaty becoming law.

According to the new terms New York State is allowed only 20,000 cubic feet a second for power, an increase from 15,000, of only 500 Chicago Drainage Canal has increased from 10,000 to 20,000 or equal to the whole of New York State's share. Canada's is left where it is at 35,000 for all purposes.

Senator Cullin of Illinois is blamed for the big Chicago end of the treaty on the ground that only this way would he give his consent.

Premier Whitney had heard nothing of this deputation last night. A protest was made last year when Hon. J. J. Roy, Hon. Adam Beck and W. K. McNaught, M.L.A., met Earl Grey, Right Hon. James Bryce and Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Ottawa. No further export rights and no limit to the amount of power generated were the terms then requested.

HAINS ACQUITTED THROUGH GOES TO JOY

Jury, After 22 Hours, Declares Magazine Writer Not Guilty as Principal in Killing of Annis—Real Slayer May Not be Tried.

FLUSHING, N.Y., Jan. 15.—After receiving the evidence for twenty-two hours and taking fifteen ballots before all were agreed, the jury in the trial of Thornton Jenkins Hains, Jr., in the killing of Win. J. Annis, 3 o'clock this afternoon found the prisoner not guilty as a principal with his brother, Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., in the killing of Win. J. Annis.

For the second time in his life Thornton Hains had been found not guilty of the charge of murder, the magazine writer being acquitted of shooting a companion named Edward A. Hannigan in an open boat in Hamilton Roads, seventeen years ago.

Thornton Hains had an affecting greeting with Captain Hains in the Long Island Jail, where he hurried in a motor car after the verdict, bringing his brother the news. Old General Hains and his wife, who had been anxiously awaiting in the Hotel Annis in Manhattan since the jury went out last night, heard the news from their son Thornton, who telephoned his parents as soon as he left the court room.

Mrs. Hains nearly fainted with joy at the news. After spending an hour with Captain Hains in the jail, Thornton Hains went to the home of his mother, where he remained through the evening and night with his father and mother.

Under this verdict it is perfectly safe for any person who is ingenious enough to frame up a defence to go out and kill. Private Justice seems to have taken precedence over the people's law. This was the only comment that Prosecutor Durrin has to make on the jury.

Thornton Hains was overjoyed at the verdict, which came unexpectedly, and at a time when the Hains were believing that a disagreement was likely had sent for the jurors to learn what progress had been made towards a verdict. The former defendant, who had tears filled his eyes, and hurrying to the jury box after Justice came had discharged the jury, and thanked their hands and thanked them for their verdict. The defendant made the following statement:

"I am the happiest of men. My first thought when I heard the verdict was to get to the telephone and give the news to my mother and father, and then to go to 'Connie,' my brother, who was waiting the word in his cell. I told him that I would visit with every day in jail until he was freed. I would go up and stay with him in jail but the authorities tell me they will not permit that.

"It is my good luck to be here with my mother and father again, after spending five months in jail. Tomorrow I intend to go to Washington and bring my little daughter Molly back with me. I want to say that from the

Try to Match Jeffries and Johnson. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 15.—Joe Woodman of Boston, manager of Longford, received an offer to-night of a purse from the National Sporting Club of London for a match between Jeffries and Johnson. He has not made known the terms of the offer. The message states that the purse is $10,000. It is the thought here that the offer is a bluff, as it is not known whether Jeffries is in London, as he has sent several messages to James Coffey that he would give him first choice. Coffey will try to make a match between Jeffries and Johnson.

Carpetball. In the Methodist Young Men's A.A. carpetball series last night, Sherbourne beat Clinton-street, 10 to 2.

Cobourg Juniors Win. COBURG, Jan. 15.—Before a crowded house here to-night the home juniors defeated Peterboro Juniors in an O.H.A. game, the score being 10 to 3. Individual players for the victors: Doherty, Crowther and Gliddon were the greatest of the game. For the visitors the Groux Brothers put up a stiff argument. The lineup: Cobourg (4): Goal, Reynolds; point, Gouy; cover, Niles; centre, Pratt; rover, Doherty; wings, Crowther and Gliddon. Peterboro (3): Goal, L. Groux; point, Wade; cover, Pentland; centre, Groux; rover, Fower; wings, Gorman and Short. Referee—Dick Turpin of Cobourg.

Nick Attack Fined $200. CINCINNATI, Jan. 15.—Announcement of reinstatement for seven more players was made to-day by the National Baseball Commission. The players affected are Frank Smith, John A. Donahue, J. Harris White, Jacob A. Freed, Charles L. H. Pfenning and Nick Atrock, who participated in the games against the Logan Square Club of Chicago last fall. A fine of $200 is assessed in each case, and $150 of this is suspended during good behavior.

At their municipal election the farmers of Chinguacousy Township decided to take advantage of the act passed by the Ontario Legislature allowing municipalities to go into the telephone business, and to accept the statutory offer of the assistance of the government in planning and carrying out the proposition.

ENGLISH PAUPERISM AND THE LAND.

According to a blue book on Poor Law Relief issued by the British Local Government Board this month, of the estimated population of England and Wales in the year 1907, viz. 34,946,600, or less than 1,709,436, one in every twenty, or 4.9 per cent., were in receipt of relief from the guardians.

The position has been greatly intensified during the past year, when the volume of unemployment exceeded any previous record. Vast sums have been raised both from public and private sources to provide temporary work for always a profitable or even useful character.

FACTS AND FIGURES FOR THE SPECTATOR.

The Hamilton Spectator, rejoicing in its ignorance, daily attacks the World's intimation that a company has arisen in Brantford which proposes buying power from the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, and then selling it to the city at 10 per cent. less than it pays.

"How can a private company, purchasing its power from the Hydro-Electric Commission, afford to sell light and power at a price 10 per cent. cheaper than the commission's price, which we have been assured is cost price?" asks The Spectator.

If The Spectator will stick to this admission, especially in the case of its own figures, in dealing with the Hamilton situation, the gain will be very great.

A private company can buy power from the Hydro-Electric Commission and sell it at 10 per cent. less than cost if it has the market, for it can sell it the power twice over and it can do this, as The Spectator ought to know, in consequence of the overlapping system. It buys 24-hour power, and can sell it at a cheap rate for civic purposes at night or during off hours, because it has sold it already during the day for commercial purposes.

Every wide-awake municipality knows this, but the Cataract Power Company, thru The Spectator and other corporation organs, endeavors to conceal the fact from the citizens so that it may be enabled to do what it does not want the citizens to know they can do for themselves. It is this fact which enables the Cataract and other companies to meet competition when they are compelled, tho they never do so voluntarily.

In Montreal, where the power company purchases 40,000 horse power, it actually sells 57,000 horse power. The Hamilton Cataract Power Company, which produces 10,000 horse power, markets 17,000 horse power.

ARE BILLIARDS DEMORALIZING?

It was prophesied that it would be an evil day for the parish when the game of billiards was introduced to what was then known as "The Reading Room," but there are such things as false prophets, and so it turned out in this case.

The circumstances were as follows: The parish consisted of several hundred people and, of course, a good proportion of young fellows, who, when their day's work was done and more genteel habit domed, were at a loss to know how to spend the rest of the evening, unless it were at public houses or kicking their heels at street corners. Then it was suggested that a reading-room would be just the thing, in which games might be played and papers read, and, of course, the affairs of a nation discussed. This took like wildfire, as the saying is, and soon there were somewhere about fifty members. This went on swimmingly for a season, and then the billiard table was introduced. Papers did not seem to have their former fascination, and "whist" seemed the only game really worth playing, and even that was only a makeshift. Something must be done for a remedy or the room must be closed.

So a meeting was called. Then the suggestion came up that a billiard table would "take" with practically everyone. Some said "No!" that it would be the ruin of the parish. If billiards were introduced, however, the majority prevailed and a second-hand table was procured and the cushions were somewhat hard and the balls "jumped" sometimes, but that mattered not—the game "took." This was hardly expressed, the enthusiasm that was displayed. Games and papers were cast aside, and the interest displayed in watching and giving advice was equal to that of the players—if they could be called such. Of course, some few members had a slight knowledge of the game, but they might have been Robertsons by the way they were appealed to for decisions and advice. In short, the room prospered. Even the person did not scruple now and then to take a cue himself, and interest in the game on such occasions was at concert pitch. One slightly keen player in making a should-be following on cannon, put so much bottom on his ball that the table showed a little right-angle as the result, but this was looked upon as a small damage. A few months more lookers on got so keen to join in the sport that another table was found necessary. Then the question of funds arose, but that was soon quashed, the members offering to advance various sums of money at small interest, to be repaid later. Another table was the result, and all the players had gained in knowledge as to the requirements of a table, the second was a grand improvement upon the first. Both tables were always taken and funds came in apace. A table and a half was paid for by the end of the first season. Then the old table, after the experience gained from the new, was found to require new cushions and cloth, and at the close of the present season both tables will be paid for and in good condition. There is no sign of lack of interest in the game, and the good-will prevailing between the members has greatly added to the good feeling of all in the parish. Tea, coffee, cocoa and pop are the only drinks, the caretaker taking what little profit there is to be got out of them. The good done by the billiards is shown in casual remarks made by the publicans as to the unnecessary reading-room "doing no good to anyone." I may say gambling of any description is strictly prohibited, and no sign of any tendency in that direction has been shown.

COMPANIES ORDERED TO CONFER WITH FRUIT MEN

Growers Are Jubilant, While Express Corporations Yield Reluctantly.

Chairman Mabee of the railway board evinced some impatience with Counsel F. H. Chrysler, who is appearing for the Dominion Express Company, at the conclusion of yesterday's session; and the deputation from the Niagara Peninsula Fruit Growers' Association left with a feeling of encouragement.

The chairman had advised that the express companies get into immediate conference with the fruit dealers, regarding the very basis of rates and increased facilities for handling the perishable products, so that when the commission returned from the west in March the whole difficulty could be quickly disposed of.

Mr. Chrysler protested that the companies had a great deal of work ahead of them in giving the new classification and graduate rates. So far as he knew the fruit men were paying a less rate now than they were.

Chairman Mabee: "We are asked to investigate numerous complaints of fruit dealers, regarding the facilities for shipment provided by the express companies, the rates that have been charged and also charges of discrimination between certain districts. The questions have been referred to my discussion and I should think there is enough light on those questions to satisfy the companies and incline them to see if these troubles can be eliminated and come to an agreement that would be satisfactory to both sides."

"No doubt," interposed Mr. Chrysler, adding that he was rather inclined to think himself that the rates were not based on the proper estimates, and the companies had not had a witness to say anything as to the service, he thought there should be no objection to a conference, but by continuing, he advised that "not only the two companies (Canadian and Dominion), but the other companies which might be affected, get into conference with the shippers."

Upon his return he would fix an early date for the argument. The fruit men rejoice. The commission adjourned with the understanding that the hearing would be arranged, and it is on this point that the fruit growers are so particularly jubilant.

To the Dominion, W. F. Randall of the firm of Randall & Falconbridge of Grimsby, said that they had been trying for years to get an audience with some of the Canadian Express Company's officials. The company had, he said, occasionally sent him and other companies, but beyond a promise that the matter would be taken up with headquarters, nothing developed.

Mr. Chrysler, examining counsel for the commission, suggested that when the board returned it was desirable on his part, that the companies which were broken up by the companies in Montreal should be completed. He further wished to point out that it was the Dominion, as it must ultimately have great effect.

The fruit growers' delegation was a very representative one, and in addition to the five or six who were deputed to speak, there were between 15 and 20 influential fruit shippers from various parts of the province, and attending, with their moral support.

What They Want. W. H. Bunting, of St. Catharines, president of the association, headed the plea for reduced rates; graded rates on large shipments and carloads; elimination of pilferage; better handling; fixing responsibility for delays; speedy adjustment of claims; proper accommodation provided as regards cars and shelter at points of loading.

For the past two years, he said, the express companies have been furnishing the district freight cars on which they charged express rates. Photographs were submitted as exhibits to bear out this statement.

Mr. Bunting knew, from personal observation, that these cars were in many instances far from clean. There was nothing that caused so much annoyance as, when they had taken pains to get their fruit to the cars in good condition, to see the produce spoiled by the packages as footfalls. This was a most substantial grievance.

Long Standing Claims. Then, as to claims, he had some on file for two years that were not yet settled. They were for shortages. The service, too, was far from perfect and the situation so irksome on account of car shortages at times that the shippers had been forced many times to re-ship their goods.

E. D. Smith, ex-M.P., of Winona, asked for a reduction in rates. He paid out annually in express charges on fruit from $30,000 to $40,000. The business had been increased ten-fold in ten years, yet the rates had not been reduced.

To Mr. Chrysler witness admitted the rates on fruit were lower than on other merchandise. A. E. Kinnison of Winona also concurred that the rates were too high. R. Thompson of St. Catharines, who is connected with a co-operative shipping and cold storage company, testified.

Before court adjourned Mr. Blackstock called on Mr. O'Connor, one of Law's counsel, to corroborate Law's statement as to the interview with Detective Rogers when he consented to give evidence, but Mr. O'Connor had left the court. He had already been interviewed this morning when the court opened.

FRANK LAW'S WITTIM RUSSELL BEAT OFFENDER

So Urges G. T. Blackstock in an Eloquent Plea for Client.

By a most unusual procedure Geo. T. Blackstock, counsel for Frank Law, opened his defence before Judge Winchester and a jury yesterday morning, and took advantage of a court privilege seldom used by counsel in any case, that is by addressing the jury twice, first in the afternoon, before the case was taken, and then again at the close of all the testimony.

Mr. Blackstock spoke for about an hour and a half, and in the course of his address he pointed out that it was unfortunate that his client had to bear the whole brunt of the investigation, while the moving factors were absent.

Continuing, he said: "My client met this Russell, he was a guileless and a person of high character, and a financial expert previous to the formation of the firm. Law was dazzled by the get-rich-quick ideas, and the personality of Russell, whose two brothers were men of the greatest distinction—one a western banker, and the other an archdeacon of Long Island church. Every bit of evidence produced here deals with the notorious dealings of this man Russell."

Reference was made by Mr. Blackstock to Grenville, Graham and Martin as a "trinity of disreputability" for their actions in entrapping Law by pretending they were bona fide customers desiring to purchase stock, and who had not only not hoped to escape civil liability.

"Mr. Law determined to go into the box," said Mr. Blackstock, "and I honor him for it. Although he might have stayed out of danger he has insisted that he shall tell the jury on his own behalf, and I am glad to see that these Russell brothers, who he knew nothing of these irregular transactions, were men of the greatest distinction—one a western banker, and the other an archdeacon of Long Island church. Every bit of evidence produced here deals with the notorious dealings of this man Russell."

Mr. Law's defence was a most eloquent plea for his client, and he urged the jury to find in his favor. He pointed out that his client had been entrapped by the Russell brothers, who had pretended to be bona fide customers desiring to purchase stock, and who had not only not hoped to escape civil liability.

LASH FOR WIFE BEATERS

Assizes Grand Jury Make the Recommendation in Reply to Assizes. The assizes grand jury in reporting yesterday to Justice Magee strongly recommended the use of the lash on wife-beaters, "to try to stamp out the ever-increasing evil."

Prohibition of mixed marriages, that is, between whites and blacks and whites and Chinese, was also suggested.

Fault was found with the lack of accommodation and certain conveniences at the jail, while the obsolete system of locking up the inmates at the Mercer Reformatory was condemned as dangerous in case of fire.

The central prison was O. K. Justice Magee in reply thought the law against wife-beating could be more severely enforced. Men of that sort were not degraded by the punishment.

Of the inter-marriage observations his lordship said they were in order. The colored people came as reformers rather than residents and had not the welfare of the country at heart. The mixed marriages were usually unhappy.

His lordship remarked that prisoners benefited at the penitentiary to the latter institution was harder and the rules more strictly enforced.

Day's Doings in YORK COUNTY

EAST TORONTO WILL NOW LOOK CITYWARD

Town Office is Formally Closed—Mimico Industrial Holds Annual—County Notes.

EAST TORONTO, Jan. 15.—The fact that the Town of East Toronto has forever lost its identity, and is now an integral part of the city has, in the removal of W. H. Clay, the town clerk, been most forcibly brought home to the east enders.

For nearly 20 years Mr. Clay has occupied that position, with credit to himself and profit to the town.

Yesterday the books and official papers were removed to the city hall, and residents of the new city having official business to transact will be required to travel cityward.

The removal of Mr. Clay, the town clerk, has been most forcibly brought home to the east enders.

SHOULD AWAIT PROOF
Before Becoming Too Enthusiastic Over New Mining District.

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—(Clarence J. McCrae, who has returned from Cobalt, where he has been spending a few days with the directors of the Chambers-Ferland Mining Company, says that the output of the mines for the last twelve months, which is officially stated by the directors of the Ontario Bureau of Mines to be 17,000,000 ounces, worth $5,600,000, has exceeded his anticipations.

Speaking of the Chambers-Ferland, he said the development has been of a very satisfactory character. Although the new compressor plant has only been installed a few days, it has been decided to install an additional compressor plant at this date. The diamond drill is to be used extensively in exploring portions of the property which have not been explored. Two rich veins running in from the Nipissing ground are to be developed at once, and the ground lying north of the La Rose vein, which was opened up a short time ago from the 80-foot level of the O'Brien, is to be explored by a cross-cut tunnel.

There has been considerable selling of Cobalt stocks to invest in the new fields at Gowanda and Miller Lakes, and the boom in these particularly developed districts is assuming quite large proportions. While there have been undoubtedly valuable discoveries made in the surface at these points, no work has been done to determine whether they extend to a sufficient depth to justify the prices that are now being paid.

FIRST ORE SHIPPED.
W. F. Currie of Toronto yesterday received the following telegram from Ernest Pitt, manager of the Ontario Currie Mine up the Montreal River. The telegram is dated from Charlton on the T. & N. O. and reads: "First ore from new camp received from Ontario-Currie. Thirty-five men working and plant running. Vein 12 inches, shaft 45 feet."

The Otisse-Currie adjoins the famous Otisse Mine in the north and contains 55 acres.

Dun's Trade Review.
MONTREAL.—No features of any prominence have developed since the 15th in the trade situation. Travelers are nearly all again at work and report business in better shape at date than a year ago, but the spirit of caution is still abated. Dry goods men say that buying is not the rule, and there is no general call for early deliveries, the fair shipments of spring goods are now being made. In the boot and shoe trade orders may be called good as an average. The hide situation continues to attract much attention, owing to the extreme lightness of offerings; stocks in warehouse here are practically exhausted, and the market is a very strong one. In hardware, the movement at the moment is comparatively moderate. The opening of the new year has developed no revision of prices in this line, and the market is unchanged. With the holiday season over, the movement in groceries is lighter, and most houses in this line are now preparing for the annual inventory, which is later than in other lines. Sugar refiners report a good demand for the season, but the market is, if anything, easy at 44 for standard granulated. The tea trade seems somewhat demoralized, and the market, in other lines nothing new is noted. Thirteen district features are reported for the week, with estimated liabilities of $132,000.

TORONTO.—Trade in wholesale lines in Toronto is beginning to show a little more activity. Orders of a sorting-up character are more numerous than in previous weeks. The weather is more reasonable and merchants in better spirits. Travelers report prospects good for spring lines, and manufacturers are keeping busy. There is not likely to be any change in the prices of staple lines, and the market is fairly satisfactory. In groceries, a fair volume of business is being done, and prices are unchanged. Hardware in moderate request and building material rather quiet. Prices of metals generally are steady. The leather trade is quiet, but the tone of the market continues strong, owing to firmness in prices of hides. The outlook is considered good. The grain trade has been dull during the week, with Manitoba wheat easier. Ontario grades firm, owing to limited offerings. Coarse grains very dull. The provision trade is quiet, with no changes of importance in prices. Cheese may be a trifle firmer. The money market is easy, at 1/2 and 1/2 per cent, for prime discount, but southern failures in the district this week.

New York Stocks Steadier in Their Movements—Foreign Stocks Are Strong at Toronto.

World Office, Friday Evening, Jan. 15.—The activity and strength of the market for the stocks and bonds of the Toronto Exchange today, Mexican Light and Power was dealt in heavily and will continue to operate its own business was regarded as a bullish argument on the shares. Rio and Sao Paulo felt the benefit of the Mexican boom and both sold above yesterday's prices.

Twin City was remarkably quiet, but traders appear convinced that the present dullness is preliminary to a fresh upward movement. In the market on the whole there was a scarcity of stocks and this was considered to be evidenced by the quick rallies on Dominion Coal and General Electric on small purchases. Investors' Gas sold higher, despite the knowledge that a block of $250,000 of new stock will be sold at auction next month. E. N. Foss, who is a director of the company, is understood to be one of the largest holders of the stock and also to be in favor of the early payment of dividends.

Wall Street Pointers. Porto Rico will raise $3,000,000 loan for irrigation purposes. Copper sales made as low as 14 1/2c, but producers making no concessions. Large increases in stocks of copper on hand expected in February. Railroads in the west placing increased orders for ties. British statistics show large decreases in both pig-iron and steel output. Improving tendency in silver market.

The local banks this week gained much on the direct express movement of cash, $5,701,000. The official sub-treasury statement shows a gain by the banks of $5,743,000; against this, however, the banks have paid $5,000,000 gold exports, including this week's shipments and those of the end of last week, so that an apparent net gain on all accounts of $5,243,000 by the banks is disclosed.

A Boston special says: It is definitely understood in financial circles here that the payments of dividends at the rate of 4 per cent, a year on Brooklyn Rapid Transit stock will be begun in April. It is said that the first quarterly installment of one per cent, will be distributed on the first day of that month. E. N. Foss, who is a director of the company, is understood to be one of the largest holders of the stock and also to be in favor of the early payment of dividends.

Joseph says: Safe purchases may be made of the stock of railroad lines. Reading will sell ex-dividend 2 per cent, at the opening to-day and by the time the next distribution is made the stock will be selling well above 150. There is a large short interest in Union Pacific. A short of four or five points could easily be brought about, besides on merit Union Pacific is cheap. There is little risk in buying Ontario and Western. Big things are promised for this year, but the market is not likely to be in a position to rally sharply. St. Paul is also in a position to advance. There is a bull position on Southern Railway. R. G. seems to exhibit better technical strength. If the Erie troubles are announced as over-to-day a wild short scramble may be witnessed.—Financial Bureau.

The way Smelting has been acting the last few days leads us to believe that it is very likely the bear following will attack this stock aggressively very soon on the recent bulge, which carried the stock some forty to fifty points higher than it is now selling, for the bears were probably unable to sell any great amount of the stock, except to some of their own following, who were short and were scared of the rise. Smelting is again in position to break sharply and to levels below those reached last month. We would continue to operate on the short side of that issue, at any moment it may be attacked vigorously in order to settle the general list. United States Steel company is supported on every attempt of the bears to drive it to the 50 level. The reason for this, according to the bears, is to be very plausible, "is that the profit-sharing subscription privilege of the stock, which expires on the 1st of Feb. 4 next,—Toronto Topics.

Proposed Lease Dropped.
Z. A. Lash, vice-president of the Mexican Tramway Co., issued the following statement yesterday: "All offers of the Mexican Tramways Co. to lease the undertaking of the Mexican Light and Power Co., Ltd., are withdrawn; any negotiations in that connection being now at an end."

On Wall Street.
Charles Heid & Co., say at the close: We are told that the move upward in New York Central is not over and that developments are pending that will cause satisfaction to the patient holders. Closing was irregular at slight concession, with little feature beyond a slump in Wisconsin Central to 39 and the preferred to 81. The outlook is for a trading market and we advocate selling on the bulges and buying on the dips.

UPWARD SWING HAS STARTED.

World Office, Friday Evening, Jan. 15.—The contest between the two Mexican Corporations provided a free market for Mexican Light & Power stock, which ran up three points from the opening, but the movement stopped on rather free offerings. There are those who believe that part of the talk in connection with this has been for the purpose of marketing stock. It was announced to-day the Mexican Tramway had dropped all idea of leasing the power company. The whole local market was firm to-day and various new movements tended to confirm the opinion that an upward swing has started and that it will be carried to considerable dimensions.

DESPERATE ENCOUNTER WITH BULL MOOSE ON THE TRAIL

Thrilling Story of Prospector's Experience South of Lake Gowganda—One of First Claim-Holders in Country Tells of Hardships He Has Endured.

The story of a desperate battle for life with two bull moose at the south end of Lake Gowganda was told yesterday by Walter Craig, who was one of the first prospectors into the new country.

"It was last fall," said Mr. Craig, reflectively. "Towards sundown I was walking along an old trappers' trail near the shore of a little lake. A bull moose, I was told, had been seen there. Their eyes were bulging from their heads as they glared at me half in fear and half in anger. One of the animals lowered his head, and charged upon me. I leaped behind a tree and snatched my rifle, for I had not time to shoot. When he came back I brought this down with full force upon his head. The blow staggered him and I hit him again and again until he fell to his knees and rolled over on his side. He staggered again to his feet and four times I knocked him over. The second bull then charged upon me, but I hit him with a 35-56 and he was killed and I plunged off into the forest. I could hear him crashing along for some time, breaking limbs in his haste to get thru the forest and out of sight. With a well placed shot I then dispatched the half-dead animal that lay at my feet. My rifle is a 35-56 and will clip the head off a bird at thirty yards."

"This exploit won me a reputation among the Indians," said Mr. Craig. "They call me now the 'Wild Saginaw.' I was originally a lumberman and take to the woods naturally. On several occasions I have been able to make my way thru the forest in a straight line when it was impossible to see the blazes on my feet. On several occasions I have been in circles and lose themselves utterly."

Mr. Craig has claims at Gowganda and Hangstone, Lake, and believes that the new field has a great future. "The country has depth," he declared, "and that will make the industry permanent. I have seen a number of the Gowganda claims and has a very high opinion of the Bartlett, which was discovered by F. A. MacIntosh and Samuel S. MacIntosh."

"I have been on several of their claims," he said, "and think they are all right."

Site for New City.

"The finest and most natural site for a city," he declared, "is at the south end of Gowganda and near Hangstone. I believe that the camp will be the richest and largest in the north, and the selection of a site is an important matter."

"If there is one man more than another in the north that has the respect and admiration of the mining prospector it is Thomas Torrance, the recording agent at Elk City. No man more suitable for the position could have been selected by the government. He occupies a hard and trying position and exercises his judicial functions as well as his clerical work in a manner that is satisfactory to everybody. Day after day he is called upon to settle disputes, and he generally manages to straighten things out."

"There is going to be the biggest mining boom at Gowganda in the history of this country, for the silver deposits have depth and breadth. This is no time for the beginner at the prospecting game to go into that country unless he expects to get frozen and suffer hardships which the experienced prospector knows how to avoid."

A Few Are Lucky.

"Every man who goes to the mining country does not make a fortune," said Mr. Craig. "For one man like MacIntosh or MacIntosh, there are ten who meet with indifferent success. And yet, while the big stakes are going you cannot hold men back. Every chance that is offered to get rich quickly starts a stampede. I have done well myself and have a good showing of silver, but I attribute my success largely to my knowledge of conditions in the north country."

"I have had some tough experiences in the north," said Mr. Craig, "getting in and out of the country. I have crossed large lakes when the white caps were running and a big wave will capsize you on its side. I have packed over long, hard portages till I was ready to drop in my tracks and have been surrounded by raging bush fires till I had to charge out for my life. I can tell you that prospecting is no picnic. I know what it means."

WANT CROSS-TOWN LINE BUT CHANCES ARE SLIM CITY HAS POWER PLANT FIRST APPLICATION IN

City Engineer Says Street Railway Annexation of East Toronto Gives City a Start in Providing Municipal Electricity.

The civic works committee yesterday gave its approval to the cross-town car line recommended by the city engineer. The proposed line would extend from River-street along Wilton-avenue, Agnes-street, Anderson-street and St. Patrick to connect with the Bathurst-street car line.

Ex-Ald. McBride appeared on behalf of the property-owners who petitioned some time ago for the line. His arguments weren't needed, however, as the committee was unanimous.

Mr. Rust didn't hold out very bright hopes, however. He said the street railway wouldn't consider building this line until they had laid tracks on Bay-street. The company will be asked to reconsider.

Ald. Eredin and Ald. Dunn both urged the carrying out of public works to help out the city in its unemployed problem. The committee consented to work be begun as soon as possible on the extension of Yonge-street sewer into Deer Park, and the latter that the trunk sewer construction be started.

The mayor reminded him that the delay is due to receiving alternate tenders for concrete and bricks. He believed the former material would be chosen.

At Ald. Keeler's suggestion Mr. Rust will furnish a comprehensive report showing what main streets need paving.

Ald. Vaughan, who has been advocating for a long time a bridge across to the island at the foot of Bathurst-street, got the committee to consent to have a report from the city engineer.

Ald. Chisholm, Vaughan and Hillon were appointed a committee on street naming.

Will Bring Experts.

The board of control decided to bring the city to report on septic tanks. Experts John D. Watson of Birmingham, England, and Rudolph Herring, New York, were invited to come here and spend two weeks and Mr. Herring $1200.

The board agreed to state wages and hours to firms for civic contracts that will be drawn up.

Tenders for the trunk sewer must be in by Feb. 2.

Poplar Plains-road property owners are not anxious to give easement for the extension of the Rosedale sewer, tho it is in their interest.

Engineer Rust will report on the construction of a system of overflow sewers. The cost of the work desired is estimated at about $750,000.

Ald. Church will make an attempt to have a by-law prohibiting the use of St. Lawrence Market area for other than market purposes. He advocates moving the market proper to the King-street section.

A special meeting of the legislation committee will be held next week to take up Ald. Church's notices of motion on street railway matters.

Architect E. J. Lennox has gotten together an immense amount of data to back up his claim against the city for the unpaid balance of his account for the erection of the city-hall. There are 247 items.

Since the establishing of the civic labor bureau at 71 Victoria-street there have been 247 applications, and 368 men have been given temporary work.

UNEMPLOYED ORGANIZE 1000 WANT CITY WORK

With 1500 men inside St. Andrew's Hall and about 500 unable to get in, yesterday morning there was organized an "unemployed association." The members criticized the methods of the Associated Charities Labor Bureau. More than 1500 enrolled as applicants for work from the city, most of them being married men with children. One man with ten children has been out of steady work for seven months.

Of 2487 applications for work at the Toronto Free Employment Bureau, 968 have got temporary work, 18 permanent work in the city hall and 16 out of it, while 165 applicants misrepresented the facts.

JOHN Y. COLE'S REPORT

John Y. Cole is a 'Practical Miner, of splendid reputation, and with many years' experience in Cobalt and Ontario. A few weeks ago he was instructed through George Ross, barrister, of Cobalt, to make an examination of claims T. R. 2051, 2053 and 2055, that form the basis of

The report was reprinted verbatim in Wednesday's advertisement.

The price mentioned in the Juan Dowling, purchaser, and George Ross, vendor, contract is eleven thousand dollars. In view of the fact that advertising, the expense of flotation, development, etc., must be provided for we believe that it is extremely fair to the investor to come in with us on a total small valuation of seventy thousand dollars.

GOWGANDA APEX UNDERWRITERS

to provide funds for the purposes enumerated above.

Each membership will entitle the holder to part-ownership in the properties, and to all benefits accruing to them under an agreement for the transfer of these properties to a company, now being organized, to be known as

GOWGANDA APEX MINES, Limited

The agreement of sale provides that the price to be paid to Gowganda Apex Underwriters for the transfer of these properties shall be 700,000 fully-paid and non-assessable shares of said company's total authorized capital stock of 1,000,000 shares of the par value of one dollar each.

Thus, each membership will be entitled to replace each one seven-hundredths part-ownership in Gowganda Apex Underwriters, upon consummation of the transaction and organization of the company, etc., with

One Thousand Shares in Gowganda Apex Mines, Limited

The development of properties will be taken in hand at once with the idea of quickly establishing the great value of these claims by exposing to view a sufficient body of ore to create a big demand at a high price for the 200,000 shares remaining in the treasury of Gowganda Apex Mines, Limited.

The rush that is now taking place to Gowganda is unprecedented in the history of mining, and it is the opinion of all who have been on the ground that, judging from surface indications, Gowganda will surpass Cobalt in richness. It is

BEAUTIFUL ICE PALACE

Plans Call for a Glorious, Glistening Structure.

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 15.—The first blocks of ice were frozen in today for the foundations of the ice palace, which is to be the big feature of the winter carnival, and energetic preparations were made for rushing the work ahead.

The ice palace is to be built on a scale unprecedented in the history of previous carnivals. Its main feature will be the King Edward tower, which will be a glittering mass of ice 150 feet high and 40 feet square. This, built on a plateau 300 feet higher than the top of the famous Notre Dame towers, will give a magnificent prospect. The lesser tower will be flanked by two lesser ones, named after the Prince of Wales and the Queen, the three being connected by ice arches about 80 feet high.

Over a quarter of a million cubic feet of ice will be used in building the palace, and stalls for exhibition purposes will be opened inside. The whole will be brilliantly illuminated with arc lights, and surrounded by an ice wall.

An elaborate program extending over ten days is being prepared, and, despite the opposition of the railway interests it is expected that the carnival will be a huge success.

North Toronto Conservative Association.

The regular meeting will be held at Cumberland Hall, on Monday, at 8 p.m. A debate on the following subject will be held, "Resolved that it would be in the best interests of the Dominion to continue the Intercolonial Railway as a government road, managed by a commission." Affirmative, J. E. Robertson and W. Beale; negative, W. J. McWhinney and A. H. McConnell.

WANT A NEW WATERWAY

U. S. Delegation Lay the Matter Before the Premier.

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—An influential U. S. delegation waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier to-day to request that the government co-operate with the State of New York in the construction of a water route of eleven foot depth between the St. Lawrence and the Hudson Rivers, thus giving a thru inland waterway connection between Montreal and New York. The proposed route would make use of the Richelieu River in Canada, and of Lake Champlain in the United States.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that Canada would be willing to meet the request in this case if the cost was not too great. Canada was engaged in very expensive undertakings at the present time, and no answer could be given until engineers had reported both as to cost and as to the benefits to commerce which would result.

COBALT STOCKS

The Slump in Prices is Over. - - The Danger Point Passed

Cause of Recent Slump

The practice of dealing in thirty and sixty-day options, or in other words, the making of contracts to purchase stock without receiving any deposit, led the Toronto brokers into unsafe waters. A great many people bought more than they could pay for, anticipating that the market would go up before they were called on to take their stock, and that they could realize on an advance, but the result was disastrous. Pay day came and the clients could not meet their obligations, with the result that the brokers had to market the stocks, causing the slump in prices which we have witnessed during the past few weeks, and as the speculators who were buying stocks from day to day were also largely hit by the thirty and sixty-day contracts, the support was withdrawn from the market, leaving it in a very weak condition, from which it is only beginning to show a tendency to recover.

Brokers to-day are not so ready to fill Option Orders, but insist upon a substantial deposit to cover any depreciation in stock which may result during the carrying period.

We believe that the market will have a steady advance from now on in the leading issues and advise the purchase of Cobalt stocks on their merits.

Cobalts on Margin

We deal in the listed Cobalt shares, either for cash or we carry your stock for you on a deposit. It is a good way to make money work, if you will only hang on and not let your stock go with every fluctuation on the market price. Stocks will always go up and down according to the supply and demand—if there is more supply than demand, the price goes down, and up when the demand is greater than the supply.

We borrow money on mining shares and pay, as high as 9 per cent. for it and charge our customers 1 per cent. per month on all unpaid balances while carrying their stocks, but our clients have this advantage in dealing on margin, that they are enabled thereby to purchase four or five times as much as they could by paying cash. This enables them to get the advance on a greater amount of stock and it pays, and pays well.

We will lend you money for you or carry Cobalts or New York stocks on margin.

Stock sales are reported in all the daily papers of Toronto—you can guide yourself accordingly.

If you have $100 or $1,000 idle, why not have it work for you? Money earns money when employed. Write us.

I WILL MAKE YOU STRONG.

This is a bold statement, but I mean every word of it, and can prove it to you if you will give me the opportunity of sending you indisputable proof from your own neighborhood. I speak particularly to those who have spent their earnings for years on dope (the drug that makes them feel like a young colt one day and like an old, broken-down hack the day after), to those who have tried so many things that they are tired of fooling and want a cure. Those are the people to whom I want to prove my claims before they agree to try my method of cure.

If you haven't confidence in electricity, let me treat you at my risk. I will give you the Belt on trial, without one cent of risk to yourself. Give me reasonable security, and I will take your case, and I'll CURE YOU OR YOU NEED NOT PAY.

Let me treat your case in my own way. Let me apply a steady current of Galvanic Electricity to your weakened system with my Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. Wear this appliance, night after night, for a few weeks, and it will drive out all those pains and aches; it will restore energy and equilibrium to your nervous system; it will fill your body with fresh strength and energy; it will give you back the powers of Manhood, and make you a Man among Men: Again I place before you more PROOFS:— DID HIM ALL KINDS OF GOOD. Bath, Ont. Dear Sir:—The Belt I purchased from you has done me all kinds of good, although I had very little faith in it when I bought it. But in order to give it a fair trial I threw away all medicine and did nothing but the Belt, and it certainly did its work. I can now do all the work as ever without being tired, and have only worn it a very short time. Yours very truly, CHAS. W. TOMLINSON. Some time ago I purchased one of your best Belts for a weak back. My back was also very sore, but your Belt cured me completely, and I am very pleased to recommend it to any one suffering from weak or lame back. ROBERT MOTT. BEST BUNCH OF HORSES EVER SHOWN IN CANADA

The Prize Lists Were Good and It Brought Out the Best in the Stables.

The horse show wound up its sessions at the Union Stock Yards last night, and it is safe to say that it has been the most successful gathering of breeders at a winter show.

The building in which the show was held was not all that could be desired, nor was the hotel accommodation as efficient as some would desire, but, allowing for the fact that this year was an experiment, and that the Union Stock Yards Co. are preparing to put up an arena and provide for hotel accommodation, the future of the present site is settled.

The entries to the horse show in all were about 150, of which Clydesdales had 66, Canadian-bred Clydes and Shires 15, Hackneys 10, standard-breds 12, heavy draughts 22.

The show of Clydesdale stallions was perhaps one of the best ever seen in Canada. Many breeders not formerly well-known over the province came out with extra good quality, while the amateur farmer felt that he stood a chance to compete as perhaps never before.

A Five o'Clock Meeting of the Housefurnishing Club

"I'll tell you a secret," said the lady who took two lumps but no cream, "if you'll all promise not to tell."

"Tell! I'd never breathe a word to a soul," said the lady who took "the fixings and an extra lump to nibble."
"Well, if you'll all promise," said the first speaker.
"We do," cried a full chorus of eager voices.
"I've joined another club," came the announcement.
"Another! Poor Jack."
"Another club," repeated Mrs. Jack. "I don't see that 'poor' Jack need be pitted either."
"You belonged to four clubs before, to my knowledge," said her vis-a-vis.
"What Club is it now, Jess?" asked her hostess.
"Simpson's Housefurnishing Club," replied Mrs. Jack.
"Simpson's Housefurnishing Club! What's that?"
"It's a plan by which nice people like we are can have anything in the way of carpets, curtains and furniture delivered now at cash prices and pay for them at convenience during the next six months."
"How lovely," said the lady who took her tea absolutely clear. "I've heard of something like that in the big stores across the line.

"I never heard of it before," announced the lady who took two lumps and was now daintily nibbling her third.
The Hostess smiled.
"I've belonged to every Housefurnishing Club the Robert Simpson Company have organized in the last three years," said she calmly. "One has everything to gain and absolutely nothing to lose."
And she spoke exactly true.
This Housefurnishing Club plan takes in everything sold in the Furniture, and the Carpet and Curtain Department. It simply means the privilege of a charge account during January, with six months over which to spread the cost of the goods. No extra charge first or last over and above what a straight cash customer would pay for the same goods. Our offer to do any work free during January applies to club members as well as cash customers.
Club Office, 1st floor, James street. Talk it over personally with the Secretary.
