GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

TRAIN IN DITCH, MANY KILLED

Most Thrilling Motion Picture Drama Ever Shown, at the Star Tonight

Fifty or more persons dead and injured, Pullman cars piled up in confused masses of twisted wood and metal, with fire raging in the wreckage, are the gripping elements that enter into the new Mutual special chapter play, "The Train in the Ditch."

This play is a continuation of that great serial "The Diamond from the Sky." It consists of four chapters, to be shown at the Star every Friday and Saturday during this month.

So wonderful is this serial that the management of the Star is forced to pay five times as much for it as for any other serial story ever shown in the North End.

The first show tonight will commence at 6:45. Send the children Saturday afternoon and thus avoid the evening rush.

WONDERFUL BILLS NEXT WEEK AT IMPERIAL

Next week should be one long to be remembered by motion picture enthusiasts. Imperial Theatre announces three notable productions filling the whole calendar for the week.

Monday-Tuesday, Edna May in the seven-reel Vitaphone deluxe "Salvation John." Miss May (Mrs. Oscar Lovelace of London, England), was for years the darling of the international stage and this special engagement is a contribution on her part to the British Red Cross.

Wednesday-Thursday, Geraldine Farrar, grand opera prima donna, will appear in the latest production "Maria Rosa," supported by Wallace Reid. On Friday-Saturday the Harvard $10,000 prize scenario, "Witchcraft," will be pictured by the Lasky Co., with Fannie Ward in the stellar role.

GERMAN SPY SYSTEM EXPOSED AT IMPERIAL

Imperial resumed its regular business this afternoon with a swing after the monster mass meeting for national service held last evening. The programme now on introduces Lenore Ulrich, dashing dark-eyed star in a war story of the present time entitled "The Intrigue."

In this special fiction the German enemy's many schemes for stealing war secrets are touched upon with dramatic effect and the story is both timely and patriotic. In the "Beatrice Christie" series, George Darling and Harry Fox have a wonderfully exciting experience in search for "The Idol of Stone."

Pure Rich Blood Prevents Disease

Bad blood—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale—is responsible for more ailments than anything else.

It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrhs in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles.

It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.

Strength of Spirits in England Reduced to 30 Degrees Waterproof

London, Jan. 5.—The Central Control Board of Liquor Traffic has made an order which will come into force on Feb. 1 further reducing the strength of spirits to 30 degrees under proof. An official of the Central Board explained that the chief object of the new restriction was to get increased efficiency from all classes of persons now on war service. Another reason was the ministry of munitions' requirements of an immense quantity of alcohol for war purposes. The official added that it is calculated there will be a famine in whisky in five years' time, and the more whisky diluted, the longer it will be possible to have stocks in reserve.

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE

Eye Strain Is Treacherous

It does not always mean poor sight, for vision may be good when strain exists, keen sight being possible through the extra muscular effort. This continuous over-working of the muscles brings on nervousness, headaches, exhaustion and other ills, which wreck health unless their cause is removed by properly fitted glasses.

If you have eye-strain, an examination by Sharpe's optometrist will discover it, and the glasses he prescribes will remove it.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING

Mr. R. B. Bennett, M. P., Director of National Service, stated a number of obvious facts in a vigorous way, in his first address at the Imperial Theatre last evening. Not one of his hearers would dispute the statement that there should be a classification of men into fighting men, agriculturists, munition and steel workers, workers in essential factories and in transportation; or that there must be effective general organization for war purposes. The people of this city and province do not really need to be told these things. They know them.

Once more the Imperial has been crowded at a great patriotic meeting. Once more the flags, the bands, the uniforms of soldiers and the eloquence of gifted speakers have made their appeal. There was the customary enthusiasm, the customary essential talk as well as that which was to the point, and the customary indifference on the part of many to the national anthem at the close. What will be the result? Mr. Bennett well said that the answer rests with the people individually. This is their fight or it is nobody's.

The executive of the local Patriotic Fund were fortunate in securing the services of Mr. C. B. Allan as secretary during the difficult period of the inception and early administration of the fund. This office has been conducted with the minimum of expense, and with marked efficiency. Mr. Allan in retiring leaves it thoroughly organized, and deserves the tribute paid to him by the board. It is interesting to note that nearly eleven hundred families in St. John are benefitting from this fund.

Britain now has nearly two million men in France. Will somebody explain why so large a proportion of Canada's army is still in England or in Canada? And why so many Canadian officers are idle in England instead of being sent home and taken of the pay sheet? St. Wilfrid Laurier has written a letter strongly urging every man in Quebec to fill out and return the national service card. There is no mistaking the attitude of the Liberal leader in regard to the duty of Canadians in this crisis.

The united Women's Missionary Societies of St. John urge the appointment of a provincial superintendent of neglected and dependent children. Canada wants every man to do his duty now. Fill out and return the national service card. Can a command that is obligatory but carries no penalty be described as efficient?

C. B. ALLAN GIVES UP PATRIOTIC FUND POST; F. S. WEST IN PLACE. At a meeting of the executive of the local patriotic fund yesterday afternoon the resignation of C. B. Allan was accepted, and F. S. West, who has been a member of his staff for some months, was appointed to the post of secretary-treasurer caused by Mr. Allan's resignation.

"MORITURI TE SALUTAMUS" This is the sentiment graduates of the Caesar of their class and generations of children at school have ever since been thrilled by the stoical courage in the face of death in the arena. "We, who are about to die, salute you." There came such a salutation, under very different conditions, to the great audience in the Imperial last evening.

MURDER MYSTERY SOLVED BY SUICIDE OF SON OF PITTSBURG MILLIONAIRE

The mystery of the identity of the slayer of Miss Colbert, the artist model, known as "The Onyx Girl," is believed to have been solved by the suicide of Bernard W. Lewis, the son of Wenman Lewis, a retired millionaire coal operator of Pittsburgh. His appearance corresponded to the description given of a man who had visited the girls' rooms early Friday morning and he has been shadowed by the police to a private hotel at Atlantic City. While detectives were watching his room, they heard a shot and, upon entering found him dead.

RHEUMATISM PAIN

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few druggists who have not been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. B. Schutte's Tablets are the most efficient of these. Tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain. All forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They also unsurpassed for headaches, neuritis and all pains. Ask for A-K Tablets.

Rousing Meeting Here For National Service

R. B. Bennett, Hon. J. D. Hazen and Other Speakers—Letter From Hon. Wm. Pugsley—Last Phase of Voluntary Effort

The national service meeting last night at the Imperial Theatre was beyond a question one of the biggest and most enthusiastic meetings held in the city of St. John since the beginning of the war. The speakers received a most attentive and enthusiastic hearing and made a deep impression.

It should be noted that R. B. Bennett, director-general of national service, said in last night's speech something which he has not made so clear at any other point during his tour, and that is that, while compulsion has not been mentioned in connection with the national service scheme, this national service plan of voluntary effort represents the last of the purely voluntary efforts to organize the men and resources of the country for war purposes.

Mr. Bennett, clearly intimated, that should this plan fail to produce wholly satisfactory results—though he was confident that it would not fail—other and more effective methods must be employed in order that Canada might live up to the full measure of its duty, for, as he said, in the words of Gladstone, "This voluntary plan will not exhaust the resources of civilization."

The audience heartily cheered this intimation that other measures would follow this final phase to voluntary organization of the country's men and resources if the national service campaign should fail to bring Canada's contribution up to its proper level.

Among the other outstanding features of his address was the manner in which he brought home the personal responsibility of each individual, pointing out that it was not a matter of consequence to "John Smith" or "Tom Jones" what his neighbor was doing but what he himself was accomplishing in the line of national service.

An Historic Occasion.

Mayor Hayes, who acted as chairman, opened the meeting and complimented the people on turning out as they did and spoke of the importance of the movement which had just been launched. The government had found it necessary to launch such a great movement and it was evident that the people appreciated the necessity which brought such distinguished people of the province together.

Mayor Hayes read a letter from Hon. William Pugsley, who expressed regret that neuritis prevented him from attending the meeting with the objects of which he was in hearty sympathy. As gallant part of the women of the dominion had played in the struggle, no less gallant than the part played by the young men of the country.

Trustees of Posterity.

The director general of national service, Mr. Bennett, on rising to speak, said that he thought today of the long struggles of the past in Canada and of the loyalists who left all to come here and lay the foundations of this city and handed on to their children the torch of civilization.

The great question now was the responsibilities of the present generation in the great struggle, he said, and if the generation present is worthy of their fathers.

Our Conflict.

"No man must forget in the prosperity of the present that fattened purses are the price of the life blood of our fellows. The war is not one England made for us but the Canadian people declared in parliament that they were to go to war and to war the Canadian people went."

"We must continue this war to the end," he said. "As in history the war must come to an end sooner or later, and must come at last defeat or victory. We are not in this great war to add a single foot to English territory, but we are in the war for great principles and England cannot stand for any compromise at the present time. It may be with great sacrifices but with a grim determination and for our great principles we must go forward to the end."

"Why contemplate defeat? We should contemplate it. The enemy controls much Allied territory, and it is a serious moment for our empire. Be not lulled, be not misled. The enemy is a long way from being beaten and we must not let our own free will and our own consequences of victory or defeat, if victory comes to us we believe that all the overseas dominions united up with ture for war purposes was about $800,000,000 per year. He spoke at some length regarding the present pension Contribution In Cash.

In less than two years and a half the people of Canada had contributed more than $40,000,000 to patriotic funds of the empire. Purely as a voluntary matter the people of the dominion have come forward and contributed generously to all calls. Canada looms larger today on the map than ever before, and every country of the world is noticing Canada's progress. He referred to the fact that Canada had found herself since the war broke out and is now standing upon her own feet and is financing her part in the war. He also paid a tribute to the gallant part of the women of the dominion had played in the struggle, no less gallant than the part played by the young men of the country.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain unacidulated coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

LES DARCY MAY MEET AL MCCOY?

New York, Jan. 2.—Les Darcy, the Australian pugilist, has decided to end the squabble over the middleweight crown that once graced the head of Stanley Ketchel.

Antipodes has issued an open letter in which he invites Al McCoy, he of one punch fame, to come out and fight.

Al, through his mighty right hand that once connected with the chin of Geo. Chip, gained the so-called middleweight championship of the United States.

Les realizes the value of a victory over the slugging Brooklynite so he is going to remove Al. It is likely Al will furnish opposition in the Australian's first American bout.

GIFTS FOR CHILDREN, SOLDIERS AND RECTOR AND HIS WIFE

Last evening the Sunday school of the Church of the Good Shepherd held an annual Christmas treat, which proved most enjoyable. There was a very large gathering. A large tree, handsomely decorated, occupied a prominent place on the platform. Near by a chimney had been built and at an appropriate time in the proceedings Santa Claus came down the chimney and distributed a treat to the children, causing much merriment.

The event was by no means a one-sided affair, as each child brought a gift which was deposited in a large basket for the soldiers in king and country. The teachers are to meet next week and the gifts to be sent overseas.

On behalf of the Women's Auxiliary Santa Claus graciously presented to Rev. Walter P. Dunham, the rector, and Mrs. Dunham, each a piece of gold with very best wishes.

John Dunlop, superintendent of the Sunday school, also made Rev. Mr. Dunham the recipient of a gold piece from the teachers in the Sunday school.

INCREASE IN FIRE DEPARTMENT IS $1,654

Commissioner Fisher proposed the increase to the chief, the employment of a detective sergeant, the increase in number of constables, and the $800 item for office rent.

Commissioner Russell said he thought the increase justified.

Commissioner Fisher moved an amendment that the estimates lie on the table until all the others are in. The commissioner of the fire department, but lost out and the fire figures were taken up. They were presented as follows:

The proposed increase in expenditures is $1,654, but $2,676.59 of the increase is provided for by unexpected balances and insurance grant.

The increase provides $200 additional salary to the chief and $10 per month, additional, to the salary of each permanent member of the department.

The increase also provides for increased cost of fuel, and other necessities for operating the department, as well as additional apparatus, as pulmotor, life net, gas helmet, etc.

The approval of the estimates was moved by Commissioner McLellan and seconded by Commissioner Wigmore.

Commissioner Fisher objected to the reduction of estimates for cost of collection from two to one per cent. Commissioner McLellan said that his unexpected balances and better collections had reduced the cost and this figure had been fixed by the chairman.

Commissioner Fisher thought the increase in the salaries of the chief and clerks should be left over for consideration with all other salaries. He again opposed the proportion of the office rent. The mayor said he would vote against the adoption at present.

The vote was taken and the estimates recommended for adoption.

A communication from Charles Robinson, secretary of the returned soldiers commission, asking that the office of ferry toll collector, left vacant by the death of one of the collectors, should be filled by the appointment of a returned soldier, was referred to the commissioner of harbors and ferries.

CHARLOTTE STREET BLAZE AT 6 A.M.

Fire Breaks Out in Building Occupied by Hudson Breen and Bassen's

Fire wrought considerable damage to the two storey wooden building at 29-22 Charlotte street about six o'clock this morning when the fire department was called out in response to an alarm from Bux 27 and before the stubborn blaze could be extinguished damage reaching well over $8,000 was done. Hudson Breen, who conducts the Boston restaurant on part of the ground floor, and occupies the upper storey, for lodgers, suffered about $600 loss in furniture and stores. Bassen & Company, who occupy part of the lower floor, also suffered from water and smoke.

The origin of the fire is a mystery. About 6 o'clock in the morning the fire department was called out in response to an alarm from Bux 27 and before the stubborn blaze could be extinguished damage reaching well over $8,000 was done. Hudson Breen, who conducts the Boston restaurant on part of the ground floor, and occupies the upper storey, for lodgers, suffered about $600 loss in furniture and stores. Bassen & Company, who occupy part of the lower floor, also suffered from water and smoke.

The building is owned by the McLaughlin estate. Mr. McLaughlin said this morning that he could not tell exactly how much his loss was, but it is almost $2,000. It is covered by insurance. The stock of Bassen & Company which suffered damage by water, also insured.

Owing to the situation of the fire and the building, it being in the heart of the business centre, three alarms were rung. The firemen worked well and confined the blaze to the building in which it started. This is the second fire within a short time in the same neighborhood, the origin of which could not be accounted for.

OPERA HOUSE CASE OCCUPIES THE COURT

In the police court this morning three by-law cases were before Magistrate Ritchie. A report against Walter C. McKay, manager of the St. John Opera House, for allowing the aisles and exits to become blocked during the rush on Christmas night, led to a great part of the morning session. The evidence of the defence was all concluded and the court reserved judgment as to whether or not the contradictory evidence submitted on the part of House Constable Campbell and the police statement to a door leading from the balcony to Union Alley, which is used as an emergency exit.

Harry Ervin, David Latimer, chief usher, Julius Wolfe, manager of the Metro Film company, Hazel C. Bowes, ticket collector, William McGinley, collector of tickets in the balcony, James White, electrician and the Standard House Constable Campbell testified. The latter denied that he had spoken to any of the policemen a bar on the emergency exit leading from the balcony to Union Alley. There was no dispute between the usher and the crowd going out or from those coming in.

Policeman Henrickson recalled, said that Campbell had come to him and said "there is nothing wrong with that door" with this he swung it open, removing the bar. Sergeant Rankine, recalled, also said that he saw Campbell remove the bar and swing the doors open. Previous to this he had spoken to one of the ushers, who paid no attention to his remark relative to the barred door, but went down stairs.

Manager McKay said that there was a rush that night and it could not be avoided. He submitted a plan of the exits. During the rush between the shows he, with all his help, did the best possible to prevent disorder.

Policeman McNamee, recalled, said that he had told Campbell the next night about Sergeant Rankine's statement to him (witness) about the door being barred.

The court said that the evidence would have to be reviewed as there were some contradictions and judgment will be given tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

A report from Factory Inspector Kenney was submitted against Thomas E. Robinson, manager of the Standard Creamery Company on ground of alleged non-compliance with the regulations of the factory law as the boiler in the building was not properly inspected.

The court fined the defendant $25 but allowed the fine to stand as the creamery manager said that he had secured a boiler certificate this morning.

E. E. Jones, reported last week for allowing his car to stand in front of the Royal Hotel for a longer period than permitted by law, was fined $10. The fine was allowed to stand.
