HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 29.—Intelligence has been received here of the death at Anoka (Minn.) of Samuel P. Starratt, a native of Hopewell, who will still be remembered by the older residents of this place. Mr. Starratt passed away at his home in Anoka, on January 13, after a short illness of paralysis. Blind for more than fifty years, the life of the deceased was remarkable for courage and optimism, and was characterized by a strong and abiding faith and a broad sympathy for others, that won him the respect and admiration of all. Mr. Starratt was born in Caledonia, Albert county, on September 27, 1835, and when twenty-one years old, went to the western states. When the American civil war broke out, he enlisted in the Company of the 1st Michigan Regiment. In the second battle of Bull Run, June 27, 1862, Mr. Starratt was shot through the head, the bullet passing in a one side and out the other, severing the optic nerve, and causing instant and total blindness. The wounded man was left for dead on the field, and remained for twenty-four hours without food or shelter. Shortly after, the wounded soldier fell in to the hands of the confederates and was taken to Libby prison. There he had no medical attention, but his wound healed within thirty days, practically without pain. On the 14th of July of the same year he and his comrades were released through exchange, and the following month he received his discharge, and returned on account of his blindness, and arrived to Minnesota, where the following year, he was married to Miss Jane L. Jordan, to whom he had been betrothed before enlisting. Their home has been in Anoka since 1868. Mr. Starratt is survived by his wife and three daughters, whose life-long care and devotion made his great affliction as little a burden as it was possible to be. Of the large family of brothers and sisters of the deceased, two are living. Mrs. Calvin Smith and Mrs. Gustaf Smith, now residing on the Pacific coast. The others, who are passed away, were John, Joseph, Handley, Manning and Wm. S. Starratt, and Mrs. Judah Wells. Samuel B. Starratt, of Hillsboro, Albert Co., is nephew of the deceased, other nephews being C. S. Starratt, accountant at the Dorchester penitentiary; S. J. Starratt, of New York; W. W. Starratt of Montreal; Samuel Starratt, of Elgin, and Samuel Starratt living in the States.

BRANDY TRICKS AS FALSE CHARGES

Sir Wilfrid Scores the Financier Says His Bank Scheme Was Held Up for Good Reasons

Liberal Chief's Castigation of Sir Rodolphe Silenced Tory Shouters—Premier Borden Hints at Compromise on Objectionable Clauses of Bank Bill.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—There was a remarkable scene in the house today. Sir Rodolphe Fargis, the Montreal financier, and Premier Borden's right-hand man in the province of Quebec, attempted to show that his relations with the unfortunate Banque Internationale were quite respectable and proper. Sir Rodolphe organized this bank, capitalized it at $10,000,000, got a charter from parliament after some difficulty, indicated a number of old country French capitalists to subscribe for shares, and applied to the Laurier government for a license, but being refused to grant it. It was granted by Mr. White a few days after the Borden government came in. There was a row at the annual meeting, which resulted in French capitalists withdrawing with financial loss. A few days ago they sought to have the manager of the bank arrested. It has been found desirable to have the affairs of this bank transferred to another.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux yesterday demanded a parliamentary investigation. Sir Rodolphe was not in the house. Today he appeared and spent an hour explaining his position. He charged that the representatives of the French investors who came to Canada to investigate the operations towards the close of his vituperation, however, the financier received a rebuke which lasted a half-hour. He was told that the first time in his forty-two years of public life, Sir Wilfrid Laurier found it necessary to tell a member that he was unable to accept the truth of his statements. The quick spoken sentences of Sir Wilfrid, whose courtesy is unflinching, whose word is unquestioned, had dramatic force. Conservative members were several times heard to be murmuring their doubts in approval of the utterances of the Montreal financier, suddenly stopped and listened upon the words of Sir Rodolphe. Premier Borden, who was apparently very ill as he was, nor any of his ministers made any further remarks in approval.

Speaking of the refusal of the former treasury board to grant the license and certificate to the unfortunate Banque Internationale, Sir Rodolphe said: "The principal reason was that I was running in Montenegro against the son of the president of the Transatlantic railway company (Mr. Parry) the best man friend of the leader of the opposition."

Sir Wilfrid Gives the Lie to Forget. Amid the echo of ministerial plaudits, Sir Wilfrid rose. There was instant quiet. "I deny that altogether. I say simply it is not true," he said, in the tense silence that followed a roar of "Take it back" from the Liberal members.

Sir Rodolphe was evidently non-plussed. "You deny your bosom friend?" He tried to proceed with an attempt to taunt. "I deny that a certificate was refused on any such consideration as that just mentioned. The certificate was refused because one of the directors had not been fully qualified when he was elected."

The Speaker Lentent. Sir Rodolphe's explanation took over an hour's time of the house, constituting a new record for allowing any member to speak on a question of privilege. It was a previous debate that he was called to order no less than five times from the Liberal side for palming dragging in extraneous statements, calculated to show that he had a previous history. He got, however, only a mild rebuke from the speaker, and a gentle request each time to confine himself to personal explanation. He was granted this privilege to the extent of a minute. He finally asked Hon. Mr. Oliver.

ST. STEPHEN CIVIC ELECTIONS RESULT

St. Stephen, Jan. 28.—(Special.) The civic elections here passed off quietly today. The vote polled was not large but fairly representative. Mayor W. A. Dinmore was returned unopposed, and will more than likely serve his fifth and final term. Of the four councillors who offered for reelection, Councillor Amos Malley was defeated. The new men elected are Edward G. Gaudin, Charles Huestis, Kings, ward, and Fred D. J. Graham, Duke's ward.

There was a contest for councillor in the first ward in which was elected: Dukes—Hugh Lovins, 53; J. G. Graham, 50; W. H. Robinson, 33; assessor, Harry L. White. Kings—A. D. Ganong, 103; Charles E. Huestis, 84; Amos Malley, 74; Thomas Speddy, 43; assessor, Thomas McEwen, 38; Edward Dewell, 112; Parker Grimmer, 30; C. N. Vroom, 30; assessor, J. Fred Douglas.

lies some startling revelations. "I have only scratched the surface," he stated. "If the government grants the investigation I fully expect the revelations will stagger the dominion."

The common spent the greater part of today sitting in further discussion of the bill. The debate, which lasted until midnight, was largely a repetition of that of Tuesday last, when the bill was introduced by Hon. W. T. White. The Premier suggested that possibly the present provisions of the bill would be so prejudicial that men above reproach and believed that the banks themselves were not securing adequate and reliable inspectors. No audit either by government inspectors or by private auditors, appointed by the shareholders, could absolutely guarantee to discover any possible fraud at the head office.

Kings County Council Asked to Remove Chairman of Board of Health

Local Government Refused Request of Municipal Delegation for His Dismissal—Scott Act Report Shows a Deficit—Inspector Reappointed—Other Business of Tuesday's Session.

Hampton, N. B., Jan. 28.—The annual meeting of the Kings County council was held at the Kings County Hotel, in St. John on Jan. 28. At the council present. A communication from Sussex announced the appointment of Major James Lamb as councillor from that place. The minutes of last year were approved as printed and all committees were appointed. The presentation of the grand jury regarding a steam heating plant for the court house was laid on the table until after hearing the report of the building committee.

F. Burditt, president of the Good Roads Association, wrote inviting three or four delegates to attend the annual meeting in St. John on Jan. 28. It was decided to send one delegate from each parish to the evening session, and the following were appointed: Cardwell, Coun. Murray; Greenfield, Coun. Hammond; Cassidy; Hampton, Smith; Havelock, McKeckin; Kings, Jones; Kingston, Mr. Frank Norton; Fries; Rothway, Gilliland; Springfield, Sharpe; Studholm, Fokins; Sussex, Jameson; Sussex, Town, Mayor Lamb; Upper St. John, Waterford, Anderson; Westfield, Currier.

Two petitions from J. S. Armstrong, C. E., for the construction of a canal between Marble Cove and St. John, were read and for a provincial road were laid on the table for signatures. Mr. Ory, secretary treasurer gave a report on the advantages by the proposed change. The report was unanimously adopted. Hon. G. Endon Flewelling, municipal assessor, read his report. A summary above:

Table with financial data: Amount to credit of municipality, January, 1, 1912, $18,564.21; Receipts for school fund, 6,790.40; Contingent fund, 6,640.80; Municipal bond funds, 4,777.48; M. H. sinking fund, 800.00; C. T. A. fine fund, 85.00; Parishes, surplus funds, 412.93; Total, $32,629.17.

Wants Dr. Wetmore Removed. The council resumed at 9 p. m. A petition of John L. Coleman, of the Tourist hotel, Hampton Village, set forth that in November last Dr. F. H. Wetmore, chairman of the local board of health, had at his hotel and placed his wife and four children in a room to which they were confined for thirteen days, under the plea that they, or some of them, were suffering from scarlet fever. The board of health ordered and placed under rigid quarantine, whereby he suffered the loss of his wife's services and of the patronage of customers who would otherwise have visited the hotel. Being persuaded that scarlet fever was not present in any member of his family, he called in three other physicians who, in writing, certified that the disease was not present in any of the family who visited nor that the disease had recently existed. The petitioner therefore prayed that Dr. Wetmore be removed by the council from his position as chairman of the board of health. On motion, consideration of the petition was laid over until tomorrow after the report of the board of health is submitted by the chairman, Dr. Wetmore.

There was a long discussion on ordering an assessment of $80 for laying a road from Passequoy road to Salt Springs road in the parish of Upham, many objections being made that to members of the council seemed to militate against equality. It was finally decided to lay the matter over until the next meeting of the council. Petitions for and against the laying out of a road in the parish of Westfield, and a number of residents were heard for and against. All necessary information was given to the council, and it was decided that the question of assessing damages amounting to $100 and $60 cents, be laid over until tomorrow morning.

The report of the chairman of the local board of health was read by Dr. F. H. Wetmore, chairman, and was adopted. He said that forty cases of infectious disease had occurred in the parish during the year, eight cases of diphtheria, with one death; twenty-six cases of scarlet fever with no deaths; three cases of typhoid fever, with one death; and three cases of tuberculosis, with three deaths. A suspected case of smallpox at Motel Farm in Upper St. John, was reported. It was finally decided to chicken pox. Of several cases of influenza in Passequoy in June, some of quite a severe type. In August a severe case was reported at Salt Springs, while in November and December the epidemic of scarlet fever occurred in Hampton in connection with the school. In this connection it was decided to take up the petition of John L. Coleman, of the Tourist hotel, at 10 o'clock, when other physicians are to be heard.

Scott Act Report. W. G. Asbell, inspector under the Canada Temperance act, submitted his report showing twenty-three cases tried during the year. He also reported that twenty-five cases were dismissed, fifteen different persons were tried with twelve convictions. The total cost was $20.10; fines and costs collected, $477.25. The report was adopted and W. G. Asbell was again appointed Scott act inspector for 1913 at a salary of $500. Returned to Dismiss Dr. Wetmore. The committee appointed last year to confer with the government regarding the removal of Dr. Wetmore from the position he holds on the board of health for Kings County, reported that they had gone to Fredericton in March, 1912, and had the petition before the government, but no

ROGERS BRINGS OUT BOOK HOUSE TO CUT TARIFF ON FOOTWEAR

Pleas of New England Shoe Manufacturers Get No Sympathy

Demographic House Leader Declares Party Was Elected to Revise the Tariff Downward, and They Intend to Do So—No Stock Taken in Blue Ruin Cry of Special Interests.

Washington, Jan. 28.—An unsuccessful fight to have the house committee on ways and means retain the present tariff of ten and fifteen per cent. ad valorem on boots and shoes occupied most of today's session. Chairman Underwood, of the committee, flatly told the gathering of representatives of the wholesale and retail shoe industries of the country that the tariff now was prohibitive; that there was no revenue and that retention of the present rates was impossible.

Questions of the committee indicated a sentiment favorable to a big drop in these rates. Numerous spokesmen appeared from the various branches of the shoe business, national associations of the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, and of the labor union of the manufacturers of shoes. Mr. Underwood said that the Democrats did not propose to play favorites as between industries in the work of carrying out the party pledge for revision downward; that while he hoped there never would be a Democratic tariff so below the reasonable competitive basis as to close down any factory in the country, he and others of the committee wanted to write such rates as would stimulate a reasonable competition. He suggested that the final action be left to the voters at the election had rendered a verdict for "tariff for revenue" instead of "for protection," and that "you cannot expect us to write a protective tariff even if only two per cent."

Shoe Manufacturer Cornered. This foreboding of the Democratic policy of the coming extra session of congress came about during the examination of Franklin McIlwain, of Boston, before a large shoe manufacturing company. Mr. McIlwain protested that a drop to two per cent. ad valorem would mean the abolition of the manufacturer's profits and that putting shoes on the free list gradually would result in wage reductions. The ultimate consumer, he agreed, would benefit by free shoes, but it would strike a blow at an immense industry. "Are you willing, as a witness under oath," insisted Mr. Underwood, "to state that if we put shoes on the free list it is going to wipe out American competition with foreign shoes?" Mr. McIlwain hesitated, and finally said, "Yes, I am willing, however, that workmen would be forced to accept less wages."

The committee was curious to know why the tariff was necessary when the American manufacturers were selling shoes in "eighty-seven countries." In one instance, "at the very door of the foreign competition." Mr. McIlwain said that exports were no criterion of competitive conditions, and that "you can sell a gold brick in any country; it's the salesman that turns the trick."

There were numerous other witnesses today and tonight, covering many subjects, including the tariff on cigarettes and frommonds to a variety of ladies' jewelry trinkets. Mr. McIlwain said that exports were no criterion of competitive conditions, and that "you can sell a gold brick in any country; it's the salesman that turns the trick."

S. OF T. LODGES RESUSCITATED

Armstrong's Corner, Jan. 28.—On Thursday evening last Rev. R. H. Stavert, grand lecturer for the Sons of Temperance, gave an illustrated lecture in the public hall in this town. Rev. J. S. Gregg occupied the chair. At the close of the lecture the division of the Sons of Temperance, which had not met for some time, was reorganized. The following officers were elected: W. E. A. Corbett, W. A. George, Lyon, E. S. Wm. McKelvey, A. R. S. S. Mrs. Macbracken, Comd., Miss Helen Lyon, A. Con, Miss Alfred Corbett, F. S. Herbert, Huestis, Treas., Wm. Quinn (Clap), Miss A. S. Barton, L. S. Robert Matheson, O. S. Wm. Smith, S. Y. P. W. Miss Alta Barton, D. G. W. P. Leslie Lyon. The night of meeting is Saturday, 29th inst. at 7:30 p. m. On Friday evening a public temperance meeting was held in the Methodist church here. The speaker of the evening was Rev. R. H. Stavert, of Harrows, grand lecturer for the Sons of Temperance. Alfred Kirkpatrick presided and introduced the lecturer. The lodge, which has not been meeting for some time, held its regular meetings. Plans are being made to arrange a juvenile lodge in the near future.

Invited to place all books, accounts and papers in the hands of the warden and appointed a committee to investigate the question at issue between the parishes of Hammond and Sussex, regarding Charles Brown, a pauper lunatic or imbecile, and report at the next meeting of council. The committee appointed to consolidate the by-laws reported that they had gone into the matter and found that more than consolidation or revision was necessary and that many of them need to be altogether changed. They therefore recommended that the committee be enlarged and the matter more thoroughly gone into. This was adopted and Coun. Sharpe and Allan Price were added to the committee. On a vote of 14 to 12, it was decided to hold no meeting of the council in June, 1913. The council adjourned and a delegation of twelve council members and the warden left for St. John to attend the meeting of the Good Roads Association. S. J.

Election Debauchery Shown Up

Minister Squirms Over Query About Course in Antigonish

Denies Estimates Were Made Public by Him, But Refuses to Answer in Regard to His Private Secretary—Uniform Naturalization Law for Empire Advocated.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—Hon. Robert Rogers has again shown his apparent contempt for parliamentary and political decorum. The making public in advance of presentation to the governor-general and parliament of both the main and supplementary estimates, totalling over $20,000,000, to be expended in Antigonish county, with a view to influencing the recent by-election there, was in itself a heinous breach of ministerial propriety hitherto unrivaled in Canada.

This afternoon, in the house of commons, Mr. Rogers, when questioned by Mr. Chisholm, as to whether the minister of public works or his secretary had authorized the publication of the estimates, declared that he had not personally authorized it, and bluntly declined, when pressed, to say whether or not his secretary had been authorized to send the letter published on the eve of polling. Mr. Rogers told Mr. Kye in the house today of the advance estimates, that the minister himself did not authorize the publication. Senator Grier had been asking for a memorandum as to expenditures and the memorandum was forwarded in response to his request.

But Mr. Chisholm was not satisfied with the Rogersian. He accused the minister of "evading the question." He thought he was entitled to a straight answer to his questions. Rogers Consults Borden. Mr. Rogers engaged in a whispered conference with Premier Borden. "The minister did not authorize or send the communication," he replied finally. "My question," said he, "is also as to whether his secretary sent or authorized to be sent, the letter and its enclosure." "I did not know that that had any bearing," was Mr. Rogers' response. Mr. Chisholm again rose, when the speaker called him to order. The minister had given him no answer, and the member could not debate the matter with him.

"My question was, Mr. Speaker," persisted Mr. Chisholm, "whether the minister or his secretary had sent or authorized the sending of the advance information. I hold I am entitled to an answer." "It will be no use to supply any information," put in Mr. Rogers, suavely, with a grin. "My question is not answered," Mr. Chisholm maintained. "There is no use in asking questions if honorable members cannot get an answer," observed Hon. George P. Graham. "But the speaker ruled further discussion out of order." The main estimates alluded to in the communication have not yet been presented to parliament, while the supplementary estimates are not expected before March.

The Conservative candidate was successful in the Antigonish by-election. An imperial plan of uniform naturalization was urged upon the government by Mr. MacDonald, Pictou, at today's session of parliament. It was privately announced, and a goodly portion of the order paper was cleared by consent and without discussion. The Conservative candidate was successful in the Antigonish by-election. An imperial plan of uniform naturalization was urged upon the government by Mr. MacDonald, Pictou, at today's session of parliament. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier had taken up the matter at the imperial conference the British subject who went abroad and took allegiance to another country, and that of Canadian subjects who came to British Columbia. The old theory was "naturalized here, subject always a British subject." Under existing conditions, however, when one came to Canada and were naturalized here were not entitled to be regarded as British subjects in the world, and in the United Kingdom, and the law in Canada and the empire was in a somewhat confused state.

Mr. MacDonald insisted that the law of Hon. George E. Parley, a member of the Borden government, who was born in New Hampshire, but had been naturalized in Canada. It had been suggested that Mr. Parley should represent Canada on the imperial defence committee in London, but in the United Kingdom he was not a British subject. This was a conspicuous illustration of the situation as it existed. Canada's Time of Sore Trial

Centenary of the U. S. Campaign Against Montreal in 1813.

In an article contributed to the Huntington Gleaner Almanac for 1913, Robt. Sellar gives a historical review of the campaign for the capture of Montreal in 1813 by the army of the United States.

There were two lines of advance. General Wade Hampton was in command of a force moving by land on the south shore of the St. Lawrence into this province.

General De Watteville, with about 1,600 men, chiefly militia, had the duty of checking him. De Watteville posted his men along the banks of a number of creeks flowing into the Chateauguy, protecting them with abatis.

It was a case of 800 against some 7,000. The result seemed certain. The United States troops, however, again suffered from the incompetence of their officers.

The suffering of the United States forces in the ensuing winter was extreme. Disease and starvation reduced their number and desertions followed demoralization.

THE TRAPPER
Hints About Outwitting the Fur-Bearing Animals
PRICES ARE UP
Boil the Traps, and Don't Take a Dog With You—The Successful Trapper Must Be a Man of Judgment.

(By "Canadian Farm" Marketman).
Canada has had a fur industry since the beginning of history. The pursuit was born of necessity, but is also natural as well as acquired.
The lure of the chase, of the woods and the wooded wastes, of the mountain and the timbered hills, has always been its transmission in the blood of humanity since our forefathers basked for their existence when the cities of our country were the wild places of an earlier century; and, and through the days of the explorer, and man proured his daily rations by artifice of the hunt, by maturing his cunning against the cunning of the bird, beast, and water-creature of the forest and the rapid. The trapping of animals has, however, lost none of its charm since the days of the pioneer, but the incentive of the occupation has changed from necessity to sport.
Yet in the trapping and luring of wild animals, not so much for the food as for the fur, the Canadian will have, since the white man learned the Indian trapper's art, provided an occupation very lucrative and through the days of the explorer, and almost passed away; though he ceases to drive his canoe along streams unknown, dotted here and there with rapids and falls; ceases to portage through trackless forests, for the fur-bearing animals which were once so numerous in Canada, there still remains a few, and the civilization of a profitable living in fur hunting.
Strange as it may seem the catch of furs today is not so profitable as it was when this country was a wilderness. For whilst the professional trapper has almost disappeared, the bulk of furs being caught by the ambitious farmer and his son, in order to add a substantial sum to their income, the means of trapping are now so numerous that the animal catch has become greater today than yesterday.
The aspirant to trapper's honors or the procreator of furs, can, however, find all the needs in the way of experience around him. He will find the trapper's art, a winter spent in the woods will help him to add handsomely to his finances and provide ample sport in a good season.

"I didn't think Mrs. De Browne looked very attractive at the opera last night," said Dubbidge.
"So? Why, usually she is radiant—what did she have on?" asked Winkleton.
"A very simple, good dress," said Dubbidge.
