THE WEATHER

The Weat Date:

The month of leaves and roses—
And pleasant sights should meet the eye,
And pleasant simils the noses;
They say that time is on the wing,
And on the Autumn gaining,
But whe would know it when it is Perpetually raining!

I got my summer pantaloops
A month age on Monday,
And I have never had a chance
Fo wear them on a Sunday
It's time for all the pleasant things, For walking, riding, training, But there is nothing in the world But raining, raining, raining !

The weather-cock has rusted east, The blue sky is forgotten, The earth's a saturated sponge, And vegetation's rotten; I hate to see the darkest side, I hate to be complaining, But hang me if my temper stands. This raining! raining! raining!
