Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my lands and erms; cometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it troke end to my head and covered my scalp hysicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the discader grew worse. At length I was rejaiced to rand in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an attractive (Sarsapariin), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Gancianati and got if, and used it till it cured me. I took if, as you glyte, in grand does of a teaspoonful over a poods, and used pimot three bottles. New and healthy Independent of the Liver in July 1859.

Da. J. C. Atra: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheusantiam for a long time, which baffed the skill of physiciaus, and stuck to me in spite of all the seconder loud find, until I tried your Starsparrilla. One monoicle I could find, until I tried your Starsparrilla. One beatth so much that I am far better than before I was tatacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchold, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried overy thing, and every thing sailed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derungement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Nr. Keny, advised me to try your Sarsapacilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was word trying. By the blossand any thing you made was word trying. By the blossand any thing you made was word trying. If the blossand the said of you is not half good enough."

A great variety of cases have been reported to us whe rures of these formidable complaints have resulted for the use of this remedy, but our apace here will not #en them. Some of them may be found in our Americ Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased turnish greats to all who call for them, Dyspepsie, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cure of these effections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has ong been required by the ne-cessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.
