Irish Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my household work."—Mrs. B. B. ZIELINSKA, 202 Wells Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

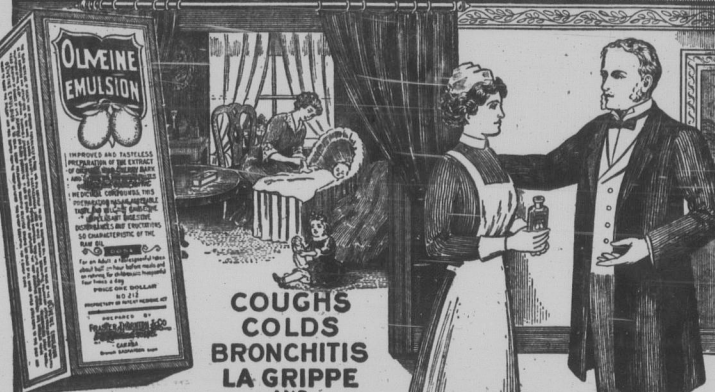

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KIMBLE, 535 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

RUMORED CHANGES IN C.N.R. CIRCLES

Believed That System Will be Divided Into Districts in Near Future.

For some time past persistent rumors in connection with important changes in the management of the Canadian National Railways which would be brought about, materially affect Moncton and the Maritime Provinces generally, have been currently circulated. While no official confirmation of the reports has been received it is generally known here that there is more than a little foundation to the reports and more official word on the matter in question is expected soon.

It is believed that within a very short time, the management of the Canadian National Railways is to be divided into districts or divisions with a general manager and under officials in authority over this district. This system would be practically in line with the idea put forward by the Maritime Province delegation to Ottawa recently, who urged that such a system of management should be adopted in the best interests of all concerned. The adoption of this system would mean that each general manager would have absolute control over all questions arising within his territory and would be responsible only to the Board of Directors.

Rumors has it that in the event of the above changes being made, General Superintendent L. S. Brown would become General Manager of the Atlantic and Eastern District; W. A. Kipland at present Assistant General Manager Eastern lines, would be made general manager Central District, and F. P. Brady, at present General Manager Eastern lines, would become General Manager Western District. Mr. Brown would thus have his headquarters at Moncton and have absolute jurisdiction over all lines and questions arising within his territory which would likely extend from Montreal eastward.

SAYS HE CAN PROVE INNOCENCE

Rev. Mr. Stackhouse's Lawyers Say That They Can Clear Client.

In connection with Holmes divorce case recently before the court in Fredericton and in which Rev. S. W. Stackhouse was named as co-respondent, a statement has been made by Mr. Stackhouse's solicitors, Messrs. Powell & Harrison, asserting their intention to prove his entire innocence, says St. John Times.

His solicitors said yesterday that no papers of any kind were ever served on Mr. Stackhouse, and that he had no notice whatever of any papers being issued implicating him in the divorce suit. About a fortnight ago his solicitors heard that proceedings had been taken for divorce and that Mr. Stackhouse was named in the libel as a guilty party; and they immediately procured from the registrar of the divorce court a copy of the libel, and communicated with Hon. Mr. Murray, the proctor for the plaintiff, and afterwards with Mr. Wallace, the plaintiff's counsel. There is, they explained, no provision in the divorce act for Mr. Stackhouse intervening, and it is doubtful whether he could do so under the old ecclesiastical law. There was not time to have the matter determined whether or not Mr. Stackhouse had the right to intervene, and as the proctor in the case refused to grant time the trial proceeded.

Mr. Stackhouse's solicitors offered their undertaking that Mr. Stackhouse, although the time they say is scarcely ripe yet, would be on hand with witnesses to deny the charges against him contained in the libel, or to be served with any process, criminal or civil, that any person might desire to have issued against him in connection with the Holmes matter.

His solicitors said it would be improper to discuss the facts of the case until the matter is disposed of by the courts, but they went so far as to say they had entire confidence in Mr. Stackhouse's innocence, and the Times man inferred from some further remarks that the future has some astonishing revelations in store.

on the propaganda now going on for the bringing into effect laws which will permit of the use of light beer and wines. We consider this a real menace to the prohibition movement and would respectfully ask that the provisions of our present prohibitory act be strictly adhered to and if possible made more stringent. We would also respectfully ask that the provisions of the prohibitory act be rigidly enforced, particularly in this section of the country, situated as it is so near to the Quebec wholesale distributors.

Further resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Hon. Premier of New Brunswick, and published in our local papers.

On motion of Mr. Hugh Miller, seconded by Havelock Sanson, and carried, this resolution was received and adopted.

The Tale of Perfect Time in a Watch. From Mainpring to Hairspring, between them lies the secret.

The Mainpring is the power which it transmits to the active parts of the watch. The Hairspring has the control and regulates the motion. The fitting is most delicate. Imagine 100th part of a hair. (Impossible isn't it?) Yet it is enough to interfere with its performance, so wonderful is the adjustment. The friction from accumulating dirt; lack of oil, etc., destroy these perfect fittings. Do not let your watch run to ruin from neglect. Remember my business is the care of watches, and my opinion costs nothing.

GET AN EXPERT.

We are glad to notice that the present town council has taken up the matter of installing an up-to-date system of accounting for the town. May we suggest that while this very necessary work is being undertaken that other matters along the same line be undertaken. If the right man could be obtained, one with expert knowledge along all municipal lines, he might perhaps look into the whole matter of running our town business and give valuable advice as to how services could be improved, and perhaps money saved. We have heard of such a man who went into a western city and for a few hundred dollars, he saved the corporation thousands of dollars, besides putting them on the track of improvements which were worth much. We understand a man of this type can be procured at a reasonable fee. If so why not hear what he has to say.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT WINS BY 25 TO 136.

Washington, July 22.—The prohibition enforcement bill, described by members opposing it as drastic enough to invite a presidential veto, was finally passed today by the House. The vote was taken after a motion by representative Ignace, Democrat, Missouri, to reconsider the bill had been defeated by 225 to 136. Nearly every member of the House was in attendance.

SGT. JACK CLEMENTS LOOKING FOR HONORS

New Brunswick is Army Boxing Champion.

Fredericton, July 22.—Sgt. Jack Clements, who won the heavyweight championship at Witley Camp, last February, has arrived here from overseas, with a convoy of patients for the New Brunswick Military Hospital. He is suffering from injured ligaments in his shoulder which he suffered while acting as sparring partner with Frank Goddard, who recently was defeated for the championship of Great Britain by Joe Beckett, now slated to fight Jack Dempsey, the new champion of the world. To-night Sgt. Clements will go to his home at Campbellton.

FOUND WIDOW PUT NEVER HAD WIFE!

Soldier's Dilemma on Return From the War.

For three months closely Ashton had played the impostor, had kept up the pretense that she was the widow of Lieut. John Ashton, killed in action, instead of the widow of John Ashton, laborer, killed in a disgraceful brawl. Many times she had been on the verge of confessing the deception, but Lieut. Ashton's parents had come to love her for herself and she shrank from adding another wound to the grievous one that Fate had dealt them.

Then Lieutenant Ashton returned—another error in the casualty lists, another brave soldier thought to be dead who had really survived the Hun's murderous fire. But not many have come back to find a widow where they had left no wife!

That is the situation in which "The Amazing Wife," Marj MacLaren's latest Universal Special Attraction, is built. The picture, which is described as emotional in the extreme, will be seen next Monday and Tuesday at the Opera House.

Yes, Allen, fame is well enough for those who can afford it.

In announcing that next Saturday would be the Feast of St. Anne, His

it was not likely that there would be due, he said, to the difficulty in obtaining excursion trains. He expected that it would likely be late in September before a pilgrimage from this part of the country could be arranged.

RAN OVER WOMAN.

A licensed chauffeur driving a lively car went in the Tobique last Sunday.
He evidently emboldened too freely of the barley beer, which is said to be plentiful in that section and in running his car, ran over an aged lady severely injuring her. The injured lady was brought to the hospital here for treatment and is about again. The chauffeur lost his job and will probably lose his license.

SGT. JACK CLEMENTS HERE.

many fresh laurels from the ring. He is being warmly greeted. While in England he won the championship of

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

Regarding Double Bill at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday
Next.Owing to an error in booking two features instead of "Too Many Millions"
with Wallace Reid and "The Amazing Wife" with Mary MacLaren, are scheduled for showing at the Opera House
on next Monday and Tuesday, July 28th and 29th, and the mistake was discovered too late to change.The usual procedure in a case of this kind is to pocket the loss and "shelve" one of the pictures, but, in this instance both attractions present
so much merit that it is hard to choose between them.Therefore the management have decided to run both pictures and give their patrons the opportunity of doing their own selecting.This will necessitate a change in the hours of showing and patrons are particularly requested to note the following schedule which will apply, of course, on Monday and Tuesday only.Dogs open 7:15 P. M.
"Too Many Millions" 7:30 P. M.
(Wallace Reid.)
"The Amazing Wife" 8:30 P. M.
(Mary MacLaren.)
"Too Many Millions" 9:30 P. M.If you read in the paper that you had inherited 40 million dollars in real money, and you were eating a 20c dinner at the time, which was the first square meal you had had in two days
—would you finish the meal before going for the money?You think you would! Well, try it, just get somebody to leave you 40 million and see it. Or better still, see Wallace Reid in "Too Many Millions," at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday.

Take Hall's Wine NOW!

It is not courage, but grace, to keep on working 'till you drop, 'till it is too late to do anything but put all your work aside, perhaps for weeks and months of rest.

'HALL'S WINE' has prevented many a serious breakdown.

These words, from a doctor, are of vital meaning nowadays to men of business and industry who are overworked and overwrought. "Don't be too late."

Hall's Wine

THE SUPREME RESTORATIVE
It restores the system, builds up the body, and gives the nerves a rest. It is the only wine that can be taken at any time, in any quantity, and with any food.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezzone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!
A tiny bottle of Frezzone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Frezzone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

The late Mr. Fallow was in his ninety-first year having been born in Leamington, Lanarkshire, Scotland in May 1829.

He came to New Richmond with his parents in 1839. His father acquired a block of five hundred acres of land in the 4th range of lots and each of the four sons built his "little log cabin" and commenced to clear land. Deceased lived to see it one of the finest farming sections in New Richmond.

He was survived by one sister, Mrs. Wm. McWhirter in her eighty-sixth year, also by a number of children, grand-children and great grand-children scattered throughout the continent.

The funeral service conducted by Mr. West, assisted by Mr. H. L. Campbell was instructive and impressive, the admonition being "Prepare to Follow." The burial was in St. Andrew's Cemetery and was largely attended by all denominations.

Died at New Richmond on the 16th day of July, Alexander McColm in his seventy-second year.

The deceased belonged to a fine old Ayrshire family, his parents were both born in Scotland, but he was born at New Richmond where he spent his life.

He was a man of sterling qualities, a good citizen and a splendid executive ability who took an active part in all matters of church, schools, etc.

He is survived by five brothers, Andrew, William, Thomas and Robert in the Western States, and one sister, Mrs. Joseph Meredith in Maine.

The funeral was largely attended by all denominations, the service being conducted by Mr. N. Rattee. Interment was in St. Andrew's Cemetery.

Interment took place on Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. from her home to the Presbyterian Church, where service was held and then to the adjoining cemetery.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be held in the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday the 26th at 10:30 a.m. At Hoptown at 3 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m. The pastor, Rev. J. F. McCurdy held preparatory services in the different sections on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Rev. Mr. Anderson, a former pastor, will assist the present pastor on Sunday and will remain a few days with his friends. It is expected a goodly number will attend the Sunday service.

Musical Effects.
"You have advanced your prices enormously," complained the cafe proprietor.

"Only enough to meet overhead charges," answered the orchestra leader. "We have a new jazz number in which we kick a hole into the bass viol at every performance."

If Ever.
"What do you think of the League of Nations?"

"It's something like the new house we have been building. We are confident that if we can ever get it finished it will be worth all the trouble and expense."

Silence is golden—and some remarks are very brassy.

COPENHAGEN CHEWING TOBACCO
Copenhagen is used differently from ordinary chewing tobacco. Take a small pinch, for a start, and put it between the lower lip and gum, in the centre. Afterwards you can increase the size of the pinch to suit the strength of the chew you desire. Copenhagen is strong, because the tobacco of which it is made is cut into fine grains which make it impart its strength thoroughly and quickly. Hence, a little "pinch" goes a long way, showing that Copenhagen is not only an unusually economical chew, but also one of the finest quality, being made of the best, rich, high-flavored tobacco.

Dear Editor:—
Your subscriber notices that one of our residential streets is designated by signs inscribed with the word
"Landisow". Is this the correct spelling of the name of our former Governor General and if not who is responsible for this spelling? To save criticism from strangers within our gates the proper official might take an "e".
Then there is Ritchie Street with a
"y".

Dear Sir:—
I notice in the press reports of our Town Council meetings, that an auditor of our Town Book is to be made by an outside man. To my mind this would be a waste of money. What we need is a man who has had experience, not only in Canada but also in the United States to bring in a full report of what has caused our present state of affairs, then show us by adopting new methods how the burden
on the payer can be lightened.
It would seem that our new Board are being influenced to make little or no change, "just keeping in the old rut." The tax bill will soon be given to the people, then perhaps we will ask ourselves why did we not take more interest in Town management.
This is an age of progress, let us
wake up.
Yours truly,
ADVANCEMENT.

OBITUARY

Mr. Thos. Maloney

Mrs. Thos. Maloney, one of the last survivors of a remarkable talent-family which came over from Bathurst, N. B. about the middle of the nineteenth century died at her home at Barachois on the 11th instant at the age of 76 years.

Her maiden name was Jane Urquhart, she was by no means behind the rest of her family in natural gifts.
Rather disinclined to any form of obedience, she had, nevertheless,
that peculiar charm which she retained to old age, which made her always the most popular member of her social circle. It was, perhaps, in her cheerful home life, her genial disposition and sympathetic conversation that lay her chief attraction.
The funeral, which took place from St. Peter's Church on the 13th, was largely attended.

She leaves five sons, Thomas and Louis, contractors, of Barachois, John of Vancouver, B. C., Alexander and Valentine of the firm of Thomas Maloney & Sons, Barachois, the last named being also town clerk and manager of the Barachois branch of
"La Banque Nationale," two daughters, Eileen wife of William "Tapp," Barachois, and Margaret unmarried, and several grand-children.

Not Feminine.
Junior—So you didn't propose to her after all?

Weed—No. And I'm not going to.
When I got to her house I found her chasing a mouse with a broom.

"Know thyself," but don't overdo
the thing by being too exclusive.

Prominent Houston Man Says
"Money Could Not Buy the Good
It Has Done Me."

"Money couldn't buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie A. Anderson of Houston, Ex-Sheriff of Harris
County, Texas, recently.

Mr. Anderson is unquestionably not only one of the best known but one of the most popular men that ever held public office in the "Lone Star State."

After serving as Deputy Sheriff of Harris County for twelve years, Mr.
Anderson was elected Chief of Police of the City of Houston. He had occupied this office only a short time
when the Sheriff of Harris County was easily elected. He was honored with re-election seven times and served the people in this important office for fifteen consecutive years. Four years ago, Mr. Anderson declined re-election and retired to private life.

He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of this interesting and prosperous city.

"I was in a run-down condition," continued Mr. Anderson, "and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and never felt like getting up in the morning. I was so tired, I had the worst form of indigestion, suffering all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, when I drank it with sugar I would just belch for hours. I would bloat and swell up like I was poisoned and could not eat. I was in a run-down condition,
