ST. ANDREWS DRUG STORE... COCKBURN BROS., Props. Cor. Water and King Streets

Social and Personal

Mr. T. A. Hart, M. P., left last week to visit his sugar camp at Pleasant Ridge. The weather has proved quite favorable for a good flow of sap.

Mr. George H. Cockburn spent the week-end at his home in town.

Mrs. Ira Stinson entertained the Ladies Aid, of the Methodist Church, most pleasantly, at her home, on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. George Babbitt left on Wednesday for St. John, where she is the guest of Mrs. R. A. Smith.

Serg't. Kuhring returned to Fredericton on Saturday last, having spent several weeks in town recruiting for the 236th Kilties Battalion.

Mrs. Edwin Odell arrived home last week, and her many friends are sorry to hear that she has been suffering from a severe attack of heart trouble since her return.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Calder are now occupying the R. E. Armstrong house on Montague Street.

Miss Lilian Doherty was driven up to St. Stephen on Wednesday, and is a patient in the Chatham Hospital, undergoing further treatment for her knee, which was recently operated on.

THE HARBINGER OF SPRING... The winter has been long and dreary, but it is all over now; indeed you have almost forgotten it as you sally forth on this bright spring morning to gather primroses from the bank, and to see if the cowslips are out in the field.

It may be considered a little premature to be talking or thinking of primroses and cowslips, but nevertheless as soon as "the warms" that brings seed and harvest has returned again, and when we are treated to many bright beautiful calm mornings such as we have been enjoying lately, the familiar passage quoted above from one of the old school readers begins continually to run through my mind.

And when I "sailed forth" this morning and heard the beautiful strains of a Song Sparrow, the first of the season, you, gentle reader, who I trust are yourself a lover of Nature, will understand that it awakened within me emotions I "can ne'er express, yet cannot all conceal."

It sang of a world of joy and peace, of love and good-will. What a delight to get one's mind, if only for a few moments, away from the sordid things of this world—the puny social strifes, the squabbles of politics, the worries of business, the sorrows and anxieties of war—to revel in the joys of the Song Sparrow's world!

I would be obliged if friends would report to me by telephone or otherwise, any bird arrivals which they may note, as I keep a record from year to year of the dates of the arrivals of all the migratory birds with which I am familiar. Friends in other parts of the County might report by post card.

The first Song Sparrow noted last spring was on March 31st. March 4th is the earliest date on which I have ever known it to arrive here, which was several years ago.

The Song Sparrow was noted in Baltimore this spring on Feb. 18th. Robins, blackbirds, and wild geese were also noted there about March 1st.

The Pythian Sisters will hold a Card Party and Social in Paul's Hall on Monday, April 9.

What is YOUR Impression of the illegible handwritten or badly aligned typewritten letter you receive? Think it over and see that a Remington Typewriter writes your letters!

A. Milne Fraser, Halifax, N. S.

Rumors are rife of the contemplated purchase by a big Fisheries Corporation of a well-known shore property and wharf in St. Andrews, but nothing definite and authentic can be ascertained. Should the rumored deal take place it would indicate developments greatly to the advantage of the Town.

We have to record this week a most terrible disaster in Town, the street lamp opposite the Post Office having fallen from its post. We have not heard that anyone was injured by the fall, and we are quite sure no one will suffer if the lamp is never replaced. "Not light, but darkness visible" characterized the feeble rays it went to emit on those nights when it happened to be lit. A coat of luminous paint on the decapitated post will serve a more useful purpose than to have the lamp restored in its pristine inefficiency.

Patrons of Kennedy's Hotel are well used to the constant endeavor of "mine host" Frank to keep his house at the top notch of neatness and convenience; and just now they are admiring the changes and improvements he has effected in the office. The counter which formerly took up most of one side of the room has been removed altogether, and in its place a desk fitted with cupboards and drawers has been placed against the wall to the right of the fireplace; and in front of the desk is a short counter, between which and the wall is a cigar cabinet. The desk is surrounded by a pigeon-hole cabinet for letters and room-keys. The desk, counter, and cabinets are of oak, antique finish, and were manufactured in Ontario. The woodwork of the room has been finished throughout in antique oak, and the furniture being of the same finish all the fittings of the room display complete uniformity. The walls have been newly tinted in a light shade, and the ceiling repainted in white. The effect of the alterations is to give more space in the office and greatly to beautify its appearance. The decorations were made by Mr. M. E. McFarlane.

SPEEDY TRIAL... Judge Carleton held a sitting of his Court under the Speedy Trials Act on Thursday afternoon, the case being that of Rex vs. Jack Ryan, the alleged culprit in the murder committed two weeks ago by postal magistrates on a charge of stealing sleepers from the Canadian Pacific Railway. The charge was preferred on the evidence of Mr. F. Chapman, of the C. P. R. secret service. At the trial on Thursday Ryan pleaded guilty of the theft of four sleepers; and to equalize matters Judge Carleton sentenced him to four months' imprisonment in the County Jail. Mr. C. H. H. Cockburn acted as counsel for the defendant, and Crown Attorney for the first time since his appointment to the position in succession to James G. Stevens, Jr., who has left the Province. We have been led to believe that in strict legality the office of the Clerk of the Court should reside permanently in St. Andrews; and falling this it is satisfactory to know that the present incumbent is pretty sure to spend all the time he possibly can in the Shore Town.

W. GOULD BROKAW'S BRIDE... Full particulars of the marriage of William Gould Brokaw and Miss Catherine Tamara, which took place on Feb. 14, in London, have just reached this side. The first report of the wedding was published in The Times on March 9 in a cable dispatch from London, but the name of the bride was not given.

The ceremony was performed in the historic Chapel Royal, Savoy, London, and Sir Thomas Lipton acted as best man. Mr. Besa, First Secretary of the Rumanian Legation in London, gave the bride in marriage. She is a member of the Rumanian family of Tamara of Bucharest. The couple planned to make a tour of this country, and then proceed to Japan and China, but the submarine blockade interfered with their plans. They are now in Paris, where they first met several years ago.

This is Mr. Brokaw's second marriage. His first wife, who divorced him in 1898, was Miss Cora C. Coustler and is now Mrs. Gilbert Hamilton, having remarried her husband being the son of Lord Claud Hamilton, the English railroad magnate.—The Times, New York, March 25.

Readers of the BEACON will remember that Mr. Brokaw and the lady whom he has recently married, were guests at Kennedy's Hotel for some time last summer. During the winter he has been having built a hunting lodge on the Bonny River, Mr. Harry Mitchell of St. Andrews, being in charge of the work.

Mr. Newlywed Poorman—"What do you think about putting up a five-foot fence for my bride?" His Little Bride—"Do you think it is worth the money to borrow that many?"—Life.

Parson—"Do you, Lisa, take Rastus for better or for worse?" Bride—"Well, if Ah got to tell the truth, pashon, Ah'm takin' him 'cause he's de fust man what eveh axed me."—Boston Transcript.

GEORGE WASHINGTON (NEW STYLE)

"I have never lied to a newspaper correspondent since I have been at Washington. Sometimes I have not told you all I knew, because the position I occupied at that time was impossible; but whatever I have told you has been Gospel truth."—Count Bernstorff, "Informal talk" to New York Journalists.

George Washington—He never told a lie (to say the history books at least)—and I now rank beside U. S.'s greatest men. I've never told a lie at Washington.

Ye half a moment—what I really mean is when the U. S. president was on the scene. To him the representative of Rube-lesness has never spoken aught but truth. Ye half another moment—understand I do not say I've never told a lie; Of course with no intention to deceive I'd say many an ace and joke up my sleeve.

For instance, take the promise we gave When Sussex passengers ask "teeth the wave. We kept those promises as if it lasted. "I'll be with you to break them all instead. Status of Liberty, a long farewell!"

Shall be carved for Truth? Well, who can tell? Meantime for all that's a thousand Thanky's, Good-by, you charming "idiotic Yankee" C. C. —Westminster Gazette.

LAVERGNE RUNS AMUCK

Quebec, March 26—Violent and revolutionary was the speech made last night in a meeting held in the St. Pierre Hall, St. Saviour, which was attended by three thousand people.

Lavergne laughed at the so-called civilization and of the cruelty and barbarism of the Boches. "England is fighting for the interest of its commerce," he said.

"Canada has nothing to do with this war. And if you call that treason, I shall betray all the England of the world betraying Canada. Let the Englishmen hang me after this; it will not be their first crime."

The danger of conscription that is now appearing in the nature of consequence of our conduct, when we contributed to kill the liberty of a nation which had done nothing to us."

Lavergne denounced England for its conduct towards Irishmen, denounced Russia for having tortured Poland, denounced Italy for having spoiled the Holy See, and denounced the Allies for violating the neutrality of Greece.—He particularly denounced what he called the Ontario Boches for banishing the French language in the schools, when they allowed the Borden Government to remain in office, after he denounced the Conservatives for trying to enforce recruiting by closing factories, such as the Ross rifle factory.

Lucien Cannon, who was Liberal candidate in the Dorchester by-election, recorded himself against conscription, and asserted it was time to say that Canada has done enough.

OBITUARY

GEORGE JONES... After a short illness of pneumonia, George Jones passed away on Saturday evening at his home on Porter Street, St. Stephen. He was one of the oldest and valued employees of the St. Croix Soap Factory. He was sixty nine years of age, and leaves a widow, six sons and two daughters. His eldest son Guy is in the trenches in France. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. H. B. Stroud, of the Methodist Church. The interment was in the Rural Cemetery. Much sympathy is expressed for his wife and family.

JOHN LELAND... The death of John, the fifteen-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leland, of Mascarene, on Friday last was a shock to his relatives and friends. The young man had been ailing for some time, but death was unexpected. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland, have the sincere sympathy of many friends. Mr. Leland has been confined to his bed since last August with pneumonia, and this year, death is the seventh in a family of ten, last few years. The funeral was held on Sunday and was largely attended.

MRS. WILSON HAMILTON... Mrs. Mandy Hamilton, widow of the late Wilson Hamilton, died at her home on Monday. She has been a great sufferer for the past few months, and was seventy years of age. Mrs. Hamilton was a woman of strong character, ever ready to lend a helping hand in sickness to her neighbours, and will be missed in the community, where her life was spent. The funeral was held on Wednesday at St. Mark's Church where services were read by the Rev. Mr. Spencer. Interment was in the Rural Cemetery. Mrs. Hamilton leaves one daughter, Mrs. Thomas O'Halloran who resided with her mother.

RIGHT REV. MGR. E. DOYLE... A telegram from St. Stephen to His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, this afternoon, brought news of the death of the Right Rev. Mon. Doyle, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Milltown, Charlotte County. As previously mentioned in the Globe, Mgr. Doyle has been in ill health for several months.

Mgr. Doyle, P. P., D. P., was born in Youghal, Ireland, in 1839, and was ordained June 29, 1866. After his ordination he came to St. John. He was stationed at the Cathedral for five years. Later he was appointed pastor of St. George, Charlotte County, where he remained for some fifteen years. In September, 1886, he was promoted to the pastorate of the important parish of Milltown. Since going to Milltown, Father Doyle had made two trips to Ireland, the last of his birth, which made his first trip in July, 1890, and his second in the summer of 1909. On the latter occasion he toured the continent and visited Rome, where he had an audience with the late Holy Father, Pius X. On his return to Milltown from his European trip he received a public welcome from the citizens of Milltown, regardless of class or creed, which was accompanied by a well filled parade.

In recognition of his long and zealous record in the ministry, Mgr. Doyle was appointed a Domestic Prelate of the Papal Household by the late Pope Pius X. in 1914.

On July 12, 1916, the venerable prelate celebrated his fifty-sixth anniversary. He had been dean of the diocese since the death of Very Rev. Mgr. Thomas Connolly, on Oct. 15, 1912.

The venerable prelate is survived by one brother, Dennis, who still resides in Youghal, Ireland. Sister Aloysia, of St. Vincent's Convent, Cliff street, is a sister. She has been a sister of Charity almost fifty years.

Mgr. Doyle was the last survivor of a class of eleven candidates who were ordained at All Hallows College, Dublin, June 29, 1866.

Very many years have elapsed since Mgr. Doyle lived in St. John, but many old residents will have kind remembrance of him. During his long life in Charlotte County he was an arduous worker and was held in high regard by all.—St. John Globe, March 28.
