MIRAMICHI HOSPITAL MEETS STANDARD

Chicago, October 22—The fifth annual announcement of the approved Hospitals of the United States and Canada was made this morning at the Hospital Conference of the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons here in session at the Congress Hotel by Franklin H. Martin, M.D., Director General. In making this official announcement Doctor Martin highly complimented the hospitals of both countries which had taken the steps laid down by the College as necessary to merit such well-marked recognition. "By your action," he said, "you have pledged yourselves to see that the best care possible is given to the patients in your hospital." The report is based on a detailed survey made by experts through a personal investigation of all general hospitals of fifty beds and over in the United States and Canada. This investigation is made for the purpose of appraising the service rendered the patient, based on the definite requirements set forth in the Minimum Standard. 1755 hospitals with a bed capacity of 27,946 were included in the survey this year. Of the group 1176 or 65.9 per cent for both countries met the standard. In the province of New Brunswick the following hospitals 9 in number or 90 per cent, merit a place on the Approval List. The asterisk indicates that certain hospitals have accepted the requirements which result in the best scientific care of patients but have not yet, for lack of time or other acceptable reasons, carried them out in every detail.

General hospitals of fifty beds and over on the approved list have met the Minimum Standard, which includes the following requirements: proper professional organization; satisfactory medical case records; adequate laboratory and X-ray facilities; and the enforcement of a ruling which prevents certain surgeons who carry on the pernicious and inhuman practice of fee-splitting from operating within the hospital. MASONIC TEMPLE CORNER IS LAID

The cornerstone of the Masonic Temple in Moncton was laid Wednesday afternoon Grand Master LeBaron Wilson of St. John officiating. Members of the order formed in front of their hall in the Royal Bank building. The president of the company, Percy Dickson addressed the Grand Master and spoke of the events which had led up to the construction of the building. He then presented the trowel to the Grand Master. The Grand Master thanked the president and said that he would use it for the purpose desired. He read the scroll and placed it in the stone. Prayers were offered by the Senior Grand Chaplain, Rev. Hugh Miller of St. John. The cement was spread by Grand Master Wilson and the stone was lowered into place. After the stone had been properly placed the Masonic ritual was gone through in which the deputy grand master, the senior and junior wardens and the grand master participated. A banquet was held in the evening in the social hall of the First Baptist Church. Among those present from Newcastle were: A.S. Grimes, C.G. Cousins, R.W. Crockett, C.P. Stothart and Stuart Weir.

today said, "This is the greatest hospital movement the world has ever seen or perhaps ever will see. It strikes right at the root of things that have a vital bearing on human life. It is a movement destined to lessen the number of days stay of patients in the hospital through better service—to reduce complications and infections to a minimum through better supervision—to lessen incompetent and unnecessary surgery through better diagnostic facilities, more consultations, and closer check up—and, finally, greatest of all to lessen the hospital death rate. These things are noticeable in standardized hospitals. What a great thing it is to realize that the stay of the industrial patient in the hospital can be reduced one or two days for each individual. What a great comfort to know that his case can be more thoroughly and accurately studied and not infrequently an operation avoided, or done with maximum safety. How gratifying it is to realize that in the highly standardized hospital the former usual death rate of forty, fifty, or even sixty per thousand patients can be reduced to thirty, twenty or even less, under the influence of this program. There is not a hospital on this continent that can turn a deaf ear in the future to the movement. It is entirely in humanity's interest."

FORMER BANK MANAGER INJURED

Word was received here last week stating that Mr. J.P. MacRae, former manager of the Royal Bank of Canada here met with a serious accident while en route from Toronto to Sault Ste. Marie, to which place Mr. MacRae recently has been transferred. At the time of the accident, Mr. MacRae was unaccompanied and collided with a heavy car, with the result that Mr. MacRae's car was badly damaged. Mr. MacRae had the misfortune to have his collar bone and several ribs fractured and also a deep cut in the face. At present he is confined to a Toronto Hospital. His many friends here will regret to hear of the unfortunate accident and hope for his speedy recovery.

COUNTY COURT

The October sitting of the Northumberland County Court opened here Tuesday morning before Judge McLatchy with three criminal cases on the docket. King vs Dominic Theriault, attempted indecent assault on Alada Richard of Beaverbrook, and indecent assault on Margaret, married woman the mother of Alada. King vs Calixte Poirier—Theft of butter from Rogersville Cooperative Co. King vs William J. Stewart and Lazarre LeBreton—Breaking and entering a barn of Bertha Hardink Tabusintap and stealing a horse therefrom. Judge McLatchy also gave judgment in the appeal of G.P. Stewart, vs. Allan McIntosh, an action under the Inland Revenue Act. The appeal was allowed and the conviction quashed with costs. The judgment is of considerable importance as it questions the right of several prohibition act inspectors, who are also acting as Inland Revenue Agents.

First Schooner Race October 27

The American race committee has a formal challenge to the trustees of the international fishermen's trophy at Halifax, N.S., to compete this month for the cup which was won last year by the schooner Bluenose of the Nova Scotia fishing fleet. The date for the first of this year's race series which is to be sailed off Halifax has been set for October 27. The committee announced that unless the schooner Henry Ford, which is now on the Banks, reaches Gloucester, Mass. on Thursday, it will certify the Columbia as the official United States challenger for the trophy. If the Ford arrives an elimination race will be arranged to choose between the two vessels for the honor.

"Aren't we having 'hot dogs' pretty often?" This was the question asked of George Melford by a member of his cast, in the mess tent at Oxnard, Cal., where the Paramount company was encamped for the making of "Burning Sands," which will be a feature at the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday. "Uncle George" looked at the captious one with his characteristic smile. "Well" he said, "we are tramping around over the 'burning sands' all day, and if that isn't conducive to 'hot dogs' I'd like to have you tell me what would be. Wanda Hawley, Milton Sills, Robert Cain and Jacqueline Loan are featured in this thrilling photoplay."

J. D. O'CONNELL WINS LAWSUIT

St. John, Oct 16—In the County court this morning His Honor Judge Barry gave judgment for the defendant in the matter of The Purity Ice Cream Company vs J. D. O'Connell, an action originally brought to recover $22 alleged to be due the plaintiff upon purchase of ice cream by the defendant. The court found that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover $22, but was entitled to recover $17, but the defendant having admitted this, judgment would have to be given for him. No costs would be allowed for extra witnesses brought by the defendant from Havelock, as defendant had not based his claim upon their testimony. J.B.M. Baxter, K.C. and Roy A. Davidson appeared for the plaintiff and D. Mullin K.C., for the defendant.

CANADA CREOSOTE CO'S PAY ROLL IS NOW RUNNING $3,000 A WEEK

Importance of Industry to Trenton --- Splendid Record Made At the Company's Trenton Plant --- New Plant to be Established at Newcastle, N. B. --- Erroneous Statements Refuted.

The following account concerning the Canada Creosoting plant in Trenton, Ont. is taken from "The Quinte Sun" of Trenton, Ont. dated October 13th, 1923 and will give the people of the Miramichi some idea of the size, importance and progressiveness of the new company which has selected Newcastle N. B. as the location for the site of its new plant. This report, coming from a newspaper, which is published in the town, where the plant has been in operation for a number of years, should set at rest any untoward rumors that have been going the rounds here, concerning the new industry. Newcastle is fortunate in securing an industry of this nature, which no doubt will prove to be the thin edge of the wedge and other industries will naturally follow. "One of the best industries in Trenton, from the standpoint of the employment of labour, and benefit to the town, is the big plant of the Canada Creosoting Co. Ltd., which at the present time is running twenty-four hours a day, with a weekly payroll of about $3,000.

The importance to Trenton of the business carried on by the Canada Creosoting Co. may be judged by the wonderful output and record during last year at the company's large plant here, of which Mr. J. C. O'Connell is Superintendent.

The Trenton plant, with its 134 ft. retort, treated 1,250,394 ties in nine months last year, breaking all records for a single cylinder plant anywhere.

The nearest to this mark was made by the Paterson, N.J. plant of the Federal Creosoting Company a few years ago, when they treated with a 150 ft. retort in 10 months, 1,100,000 ties.

The Trenton plant could have completed this number of ties in eight months, but owing to a shortage of railway cars, was compelled to wait thirty days longer for equipment from the railway companies.

This plant is undergoing considerable changes at present in anticipation of a large commercial business, which has just been inaugurated in connection with the tie business. This commercial business will consist principally of fence posts, piling, telephone poles, etc., which will be handled partially by water to and from this plant.

Last year was by far the best year the company ever had, and the Sun learns that prospects for next year look still brighter.

The company has established several other plants in Canada, since the one in Trenton was started. A big plant was erected at Sudbury last year, and others acquired since at Transcona, Man., and Sydney N.S.

At the present time another plant is about to be established at Newcastle, N.B., and the neighboring town of Chatham appears to be suffering from a bad attack of "sour grapes."

An editorial article in the Chatham N.B. paper alleged that the ill-effects of operating Creosote plants made them undesirable industries, since the fumes polluted the air with poison, seriously affecting the health of the workmen and the community.

When these erroneous statements were this week brought to the attention of Mayor Koenig and the Sun, telegrams were sent to Mayor Creaghan, the "Union Advocate" and the "North Shore Leader" refuting the allegations.

LUMBER CUT MAY NOT BE SO LARGE

The statement is made by lumber operators that it is so difficult to obtain men to work in the woods that many have not yet begun although preparations were complete some time ago.

One operator in the north reports that 35 men were all who could be secured for five camps, the result being that part of the operations has not yet been attempted.

Construction work in Ontario has attracted much of the labor which normally went into the lumber woods. This year there appears to have been a movement to Ontario started by a few and followed by a rush. Gloucester County particularly the Caraqueet district, is said to have sent many men to Ontario. The resulting scarcity is felt by firms with headquarters at Bathurst. Search for men farther south in the province also has been productive of little response.

Improvement in this point is expected as the autumn advances. Construction work will decrease as the weather becomes colder and more men will offer for work in the woods. The return of many from Ontario is expected.

In addition to the construction work mentioned, the New England States have attracted many during the year and Detroit also, although the movement toward the latter city was checked some time ago.

As the result of labor scarcity the cut of lumber in the province will not be as great as anticipated. Inability to secure crews at this time of the year will mean that valuable time will be lost even if the men are available later. At one time it was believed that one hundred million feet would be cut in Restigouche County alone but those operating on contract and direct find themselves greatly handicapped. It is still believed however, that there will be a cut larger than the average.

OBSTRUCTION ON ROAD Two Campbellton motorists who came through the old Miramichi road from Chatham Ferry on Sunday evening report that about two miles from the Depot camp the leading car ran into a wire stretched tight across the road, and made fast to trees. The wire caught the fenders and was snapped off without doing other damage than a scratch on the car. The second car ran into a tree which had been felled and placed across the road, but managed to get by without stopping or damage. These motorists warned all others who were going through this way from Bathurst to Chatham and some made detour around the coast. Was the object of the obstructions a hold up, or were they just placed there by mischievous youths?—Graphic.

Offer $100.00 A Month For Lumber Jacks

Ottawa, Oct. 13—Lumber jobbers in the Gatineau Valley are now offering the heretofore unheard of wages of $100 a month and board to woodsmen for their services during the coming winter. Jobber bushmen last year were paid between $40 and $50 a month with board, which is the wages being paid by the lumber companies this year. The advance is due, according to local employment agents, to the scarcity of bush labor in the Gatineau.

At present, it is estimated about 10,000 more lumber jacks could be employed by the various lumber companies who operate in the Gatineau and Ottawa valleys. Some relief to the existing shortage is expected in the return of easterners who went west for the harvest.

Fredericton, Oct. 13—Labor shortage is being felt acutely in connection with lumber operation in N. B. The rate of wages offered has advanced steadily and large operators are offering $70 and $75 a month with board to woods men and a $100 for cooks.

SUBLIME TRIBUTE TO THE BRITISH EMPIRE

We do not in all things agree with England's great War Premier, Lloyd George; yet he has uttered words, which should sink deeply into the heart of every loyal Canadian, and every true Briton, with feelings of love for the Motherland, and pride in the Empire.

He has visited us, and captured the hearts of our people, by words of Imperial Power, loyal to his home land and our Gracious King; accents of faith have fallen from his lips, fit to be placed among the classics ever to be remembered as the utterances of a true man, possessed of splendid talents, and a noble soul. His last Canadian speech left us the treasure of the following "sublime tribute to the British Empire":

Speaking to 5000 people, on the 13th of this month, in Winnipeg; he gave us, these memorable words of faith in England, and faith in Canada:—"There is a great future for the British Empire, just as it has a great past. It has a record of great achievements for humanity. Four times it has saved the liberties of Europe. But its greatness is only beginning... In the Empire we have every variety of climate and every resource of wealth and riches. Presently the old country may have a number of great, sturdy giants sons—but it will still be the same old country—a small land which you could put in to Lake Ontario. But there are things you never could submerge—the splendor of her great literature, the grandeur of her great traditions, the story of how through the ages she fought and bled and suffered for the freedom of speech and institutions and international right. No, the old land will live forever, and the young nations who are creating traditions. These powerful, virile young peoples and the age old land will work together for the Empire, for the millions under the old flag for human right and liberty, to raise mankind to a higher level."

Previous to delivering his great speech, he had visited the cenotaph placed in memory of Canadian heroes of the War and deposited at its base a wreath bearing the words: "With reverend homage to the supreme sacrifice they made for the British Empire and humanity." He has departed again "towards his homeward journey" and Canada rejoices in his visit. Wherever he has gone amongst our people, he has roused them to heights of enthusiasm, and added to our faith and love for our vast Dominion, and it is thus he speaks to us:—

"You in Canada, have a land that develops the manliest qualities. Canada is not a soft job for anyone. men who look for soft jobs in life are fit only for soft jobs. You have a land that rewards labor adequately, handsomely. Required toil develops virility in a race. That is what Canada gives her sons. "You have an opportunity in Europe such as probably no new country has ever received in cycles. The United States had its great opportunity in Europe through the Napoleon wars. The same condition prevails today, even to a greater degree. The war was the most terrible ever waged in this world. There will be millions of people looking towards the west—the land of hope, the land of abundance, the land of assured peace—as a home for themselves and their children's children. It depends upon Canada whether she makes as good use of those conditions in Europe as the United States did a century ago."

The Advocate believes it is well for Canada, that we are a nation, part of, and within the Great Empire—the world's greatest—over whose vast extent, "the sun never sets." Every true Canadian will be as loyal, as one of our own great

OBSTRUCTION ON ROAD

Two Campbellton motorists who came through the old Miramichi road from Chatham Ferry on Sunday evening report that about two miles from the Depot camp the leading car ran into a wire stretched tight across the road, and made fast to trees. The wire caught the fenders and was snapped off without doing other damage than a scratch on the car. The second car ran into a tree which had been felled and placed across the road, but managed to get by without stopping or damage. These motorists warned all others who were going through this way from Bathurst to Chatham and some made a detour around the coast. Was the object of the obstructions a hold up, or were they just placed there by mischievous youths?

Premier, who exclaimed on behalf of himself "A British subject I was born and a British subject I will die." Let us ever be true to the flag and King and Country, and our own Canadian homes, our National Anthem, "God Save the King."

OBITUARY

WILLIAM RICHARDS

The death took place suddenly on Tuesday, October 16th of Mr. William Richards, at the Montreal General Hospital, where he has been receiving treatment for the past two months.

Although Mr. Richards has been suffering from diabetes for the past eight years, his death came as a shock to everyone and particularly to Mrs. Richards who spent Sunday and Monday with him in Montreal and left him apparently well and cheerful to receive, only a few hours after her arrival home on Tuesday, a telegram announcing his death.

The late Mr. Richards was born in England in 1835. He came to Canada fourteen years ago and located here, being employed as musician at the Opera House. In 1914 he was appointed manager of the Opera House and retained that position until three years ago when he severed his connection and opened the Empress Theatre. Last spring he again became manager of the Opera House. He was one of the best known and most successful theatre owners in Eastern Canada, and his passing will be mourned by his many friends in the profession. Mr. Richards last visit to his home in England was made two years ago.

Deceased is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Janet McGowan and three children, Billy, Katherine and Harry; also surviving are Mr. Richard's parents, of Kent England, who mourn the loss of their only child.

The remains arrived on Thursday's Limited and the funeral, one of the largest seen here for years was held Sunday afternoon. The cortege preceded by the Newcastle Band rendering the "Dead March in Saul" left the family residence on Jane St at 2:30 o'clock and proceeded to St. Andrew's Church, where the solemn and impressive burial service of the Church was conducted by Rev. W.J. Bate, Rector.

The remains were then conveyed to the Miramichi Cemetery and the closing services were held at the grave. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which deceased was held. The pallbearers were Henry Price; Wm. J. Keating; Harold Russell, M. F. Price; Nicholas Hachey and Thos. Davies. Undertaker—W.J. Hogan.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Richards and family in their great loss.

QUAKE HORRORS REVEALED IN LETTER

Miss Anna McLeod of Newcastle Writes of Work Among Survivors of Earthquake.

(From Long Beach Press)
Arriving in Yokohama harbor two days after the disastrous earthquake and fire of Sept. 1, Miss Anna McLeod, daughter of Mrs. S. McLeod, 3045 East Fifth Street, who is with the Canadian Methodist mission in Japan, has written a graphic account of her experiences in helping care for wounded and famished victims of the catastrophe. Miss McLeod spent last year in Long Beach with her mother and her sister, Mrs. F.A. Mills. She sailed for Japan August 23rd on the Empress of Canada. There were 150 missionaries aboard the vessel bound for different posts in the

IMPOSSIBLE TO GET RELIEF

Until She Started To Take "Fruit-a-lives"

The Medicine Made From Fruit

R.R. No. 1, Everett, Ont.
"I had been troubled for years with Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Trouble, and could not get relief until I started taking "Fruit-a-lives". Thanks to their beneficial action, I am in normal health again."
Mrs. THOMAS EVANS
"Fruit-a-lives" alone can give such happy and successful results because "Fruit-a-lives" is the famous medicine made from fruit juices and tonics. "Fruit-a-lives" is pleasant to take and will always restore the health when taken regularly as directed. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 50c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Her letter follows:
"On board Empress of Canada, Tuesday, Sept. 4, 1923

"Well Dear Folks, I do wonder what you are hearing and thinking these days. There is no way to send a message and we do not know when we can mail a letter but I'll have one written anyway when the time does come.

"We have been through an experience which to us personally is dreadful only because of the suffering and horror we have come in contact with, not because we, ourselves suffered in any way.

"I'll try to tell you a little about it, but it will really be very little."
HEAR OF DISASTER

"I mentioned in my letter written Sunday that we had received word of a great disaster in Japan. Its extent and horror we did not sense at all. Monday morning we steamed slowly into Yokohama harbor. They did not know how much the bottom of the harbor might have been changed so they took it very slowly. The fortifications were quite shattered. Next we saw great columns of smoke and were informed that it was the arsenal at Yokosuka, the great naval training station, on fire. And then we came nearer to Yokohama, and could see that it was razed to the ground and mostly on fire. Finally, quite in the harbor, we anchored, where a messenger came aboard and told us of the extent of the disaster.

REFUGEES ABOARD

"They soon began bringing refugees to us." The Empress of Australia, a twin boat to this was in the harbor. It was to have sailed on Saturday at noon. The earthquake came ten minutes before 12. This meant that almost all of her passengers were aboard and many of their friends on the wharf. The wharf went down and then up again. There were about four severe shocks, one right after the other. The Empress stood the strain, but another boat broke loose and broke the propeller of the Empress.

"This ship, the Empress of Australia, was turned into a relief attention. They cared for so many foreigners, rescued from the ruins of Yokohama, as possible to this vessel for care, food, and medical attention. They cared for so many that in thirty-six hours they had almost exhausted their supplies for a ten day's trip. So when we came in they were glad indeed to pass over as many as possible to us.

MANY LACK CLOTHES
"All day long they came in boat loads. Some with almost no clothing—a night gown or some equally inadequate garment—wet and dirty. Some fully dressed, who had sat or stood in mud and water of flooded parks or canals or some such place for hours.
"Very soon I found that my best place was in the dispensary where wounds of every description, from slight scratches to dreadful burns, fractures and so on, were being cared for by several passenger doctors who were assisting the ship's doctor and a few nurses and volunteers. There I worked until nearly midnight. I was very glad to do this bit to help out. We fished out all the clothes we could and some dispensed these.

"Everybody was helpful generally and kind. The ship's hands worked tremendously. We, so safe on our beautiful ship, cannot send relief, and relief from other countries must be so slow because People came aboard yesterday who had had nothing to eat since the disaster—two whole days. Last night the cabins were all full and the decks were full. The passengers made up a purse of $6000 for those left so destitute by the disaster.

"Thursday—Well, after a day in the harbor doing all we could, we left on Tuesday morning for Kobe. I helped in the dispensary again all day Tuesday. It was fearfully hot and dry.

"We arrived at Kobe on Wednesday morning, and left for Shizuoka that evening, not knowing at all whether there was any Shizuoka. It seemed impossible to get any authentic information, but I found Shizuoka had escaped the earthquake.

I hear there is a chance to mail this, so will send it along. We are anxious to hear about our property in Tokio, and from Miss Robertson"

NEWSPAPERS HAVE SOULS WHICH NEVER DIE

Henry Carr of the Los Angeles Times in a letter to the editor of the Great Falls, Mont., Tribune recently declared that newspapers have a soul. This is the reason he assigns for the loyalty of newspapermen to the paper itself regardless of their feelings for its owners or editors. Something of this same element enters into the following of friends which a paper will have by virtue of its long and faithful service to the readers. Its soul therefore is expressed both within and outside the office. Mr. Carr's comments follow:

"I don't know why I am writing this; no one but newspaper men will ever understand it.

"I know this because I tried for two weeks to explain to a motion picture director how it is that a newspaper reporter may hate everyone on a daily paper; may thirst for the blood of every editor connected with it; but still be ready to risk death and destruction in its service.

"It is only newspaper men who are conscious of the fact that a newspaper is not a physical entity, it is purely a thing of the spirit.

"No one can own a paper; no one can stop a paper.

"For instance, it was not so long ago that we all stood one October night watching the Times building being consumed by fire. The next morning we came back and looked at its ashes.

"To the physical eye there was nothing left. What had been giant presses were twisted masses of steel half buried in the debris. There was not a linotype machine not a desk, not a typewriter left. Everything that represented the Times to the physical eye was absolutely and utterly destroyed. But the Times itself was unscathed.

"Even as we stood looking down in the still smoking ruins we were conscious of something vibrant and strong that lives on; something that could not die. Out of the wreckage something rose that challenged the world triumphant. And this was the real Times.

"Presses do not matter. You buy and wear them out and junk them and buy new ones. They are only the meat and drink--the clothes that a newspaper wears. They are not the real soul of it.

"Above the presses and the steel wheels and the dynamos and the paper rolls is something that lives on and on and cannot be burned in fires or destroyed by dynamite, that newspaper men die for. It is to feed this spirit that they give their lives in the most eager service that modern industry knows.

"Like the machinery and the presses, the men who serve it wear out; but it goes on.

"In the whole history of journalism few men have ever dominated a paper as completely as General Otis did the Times.

"His personality permeated the institution.

"The mark of his hand was upon the work of every department from the pressroom to the proof-room. His firm, clear mind was the motive power for every turn of a wheel and every conscious thought.

"Yet he passed and the Times lived on.

"The reason for this is not mysterious.

"No one owns the Times. There are certain stockholders who own the physical machinery by which its spirit is fed; but that is all.

"It is not even true that the Times is owned by its readers; or by its community.

"In a way, the Times is the community. Not only the community which now lives here and reads its columns, but also the community that has passed. And also the community that is to live hereafter.

"Births have been announced; lives have been lived out and deaths have been recorded.

"Records of joys and sorrows, triumphs and disappointments, battles waged for the right, sometimes lost and sometimes won. Each life, each hope, each throb has added a strand to the fabric that is now called the Times. It is a mantle that has been woven by the thoughts of people who are living; people who are dead; people who are yet to live.

"Experiences, scars, traditions.

"You can't start a paper and you cannot kill one.

"Frank A. Munsey stopped the publication of the New York Sun, but the old Sun lives on in spirit, more vibrant and more vigorous than any of the papers that Munsey tried to replace it with.

"You can buy printing presses and rolls of paper and you can smear various words and phrases across the white paper.

"But you have only the physical semblance.

"This other thing that I do not know how to describe is something that only grows with the years warmed with smiles and watered with tears of the people of the community who have built it while the so-called owners only kept the necessary wheels going round."

Remember, every man is entitled to his own religious and political belief and it's not up to you to change it either.

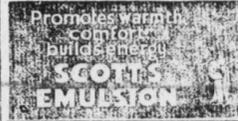

After Every Meal A universal custom that benefits everybody. Aids digestion, cleanses the teeth, soothes the throat.

CANONS OF JOURNALISM

(Exchange)

At a meeting in Washington of the National Association of Newspaper Editors, a code of ethics, defined as the Canons of Journalism was adopted. The code consists of seven heads, dealing respectively with Responsibility, Freedom of the Press, Independence, Sincerity, Truthfulness, Accuracy, Impartiality, Fair Play, Decency. "Freedom of the Press" is to be guarded as "a vital right of mankind." Other canons are: "Freedom from all obligations except that of fidelity to the public interests. Promotion of any private interest contrary to the general welfare, for whatever reason, is not compatible with honest journalism. Partisan ship in editorial comment which knowingly departs from the truth, does violence to the best spirit of American journalism. Good faith with the reader is the foundation of all journalism worthy of the name. By every consideration of good faith a newspaper is constrained to be truthful. A newspaper should not invade proper rights or feelings without warrant of public interest as distinguished from public curiosity. A newspaper cannot escape conviction or insincerity if, while professing high moral purpose it supplies incentive to base conduct, such as are to be found in details of crime and vice, publication of which is not demonstrably for the general good."

Things Money Will Not Buy

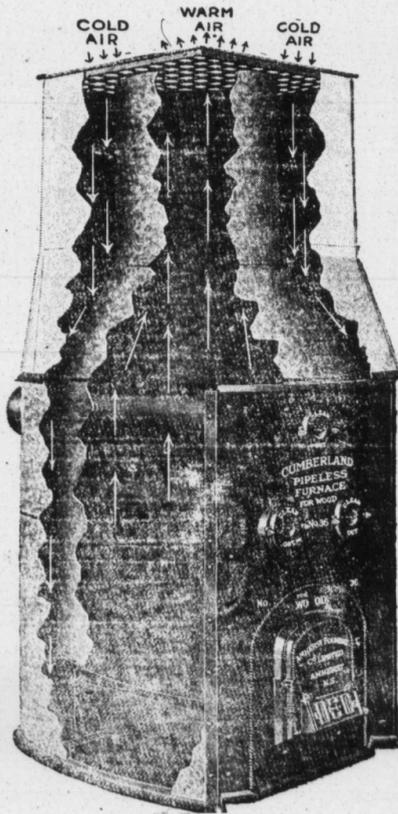

One time when I went to the circus as a boy I heard a clown sing a song in which the refrain ran: "If you want money, you must have money." "Or it's money, money; money everywhere." (The people laughed and nodded their heads and said: "That's so." But is it so? A number of years ago a paper offered a prize for the best definition of money. The following was given the award:

"Money is the universal purchaser of everything, except happiness; and the universal passport of every place except heaven."

A very excellent definition; though I suppose the logician would say that it is not a definition at all, since it does not define. The excellent thing about it is, however; that it tells some though not all, of the truth. There are limits to the purchasing power of money. In fact there are a good many things that money will not buy.

Summer Comfort at Low Cost!

Order your Cumberland Pipeless Furnace today and tonight it will be spreading Summer Comfort through every bedroom. For it can be installed in a few hours without employing expensive labor. Convenient? And economical as well.

CUMBERLAND Pipeless Furnaces

Are low in first cost--much lower than you ever expected to get such good furnaces for. And they cost practically nothing in a life time to keep because they have no pipes and the furnaces themselves are the strongest for longest service.

Built Heavier!

Cumberland Furnaces are famous for their "factor of safety"--a margin of material is used greater than that offered by any other maker. Being built thicker and stronger they last longer under the strain of Winter fires and summer damp.

Built Better!

The iron used in the Cumberland is the same superior grade used in making the celebrated Beaver Brand Porcelain Enamelled Ware. Only smooth, high quality castings are accepted--the result is a finer furnace.

Convenient!

Note the handy location of the Clean-Out Doors, the advantage of the single-shaker attached to the Anti-Choke Grate--these are typical of a dozen improvements on the Cumberland, all set forth in the

GLAD TO BE HOME
A young chap said to his friend at the station as he stepped off the Boston train in the afternoon—"The States is all right if you are a bricklayer, plasterer or carpenter, but nothing doing if you can't fill these trades, so I'm back to pick potatoes."

Tea should be drunk as soon as it is brewed. That old habit of putting the teapot on the stove in the morning and keeping it on all day was no sign of hospitality, but it did not make for good tea. Every time you want a good pot of tea you should brew it freshly, always using an earthenware teapot and using water that has just come to a boil. Of course you must always have good tea, MORSE'S.

SEWING CIRCLE GOSSIP
There was some discussion at the circle this week about the coffee one gets in Boston. The wife of the new radio operator said that she had lived in Boston for many years and that when she came to Canada the thing she most missed was a good cup of coffee. But it is not so today. Today she is using LUXOR ORIENTAL COFFEE and she told the circle that she was now getting the same cup of coffee as she used to get in Boston.

MILL TO BE OPERATED
Gleaner: Victoria Mills, the Frederickton plant of the Fraser Companies Limited, will be operated throughout the coming winter. The season's cut of long lumber closed on Monday night with approximately twelve million feet as the product of the season's operations. There is a possibility, however, of long lumber sawing being resumed if sufficient rain comes during the next few weeks to bring out a quantity of logs which have been hanging in the Nashwaak stream a short distance from where they could conveniently be reached. The winter's operations will be confined to the cutting of lath and shingles but the only long lumber that is being carried over is a quantity of cedar.

FOOTBALL GAME
The Harkins Academy Football team defeated the Bathurst High School Football team on the Farrell Field, Saturday afternoon by a score of 17-0. This was the first game of the season and the locals showed up well. Charles Morris refereed the game to the satisfaction of both teams. The boys and girls of Harkins Academy entertained the visitors to a delightful dinner held in the Academy.

HARD ON BIRDS
"It's a wonder there are any partridges left in the country" remarked one sportsman to another the other day. Every year, he said, that went into the country carried a gun and every country team had a gun packed on board for use if "the birds" appeared in sight. The birds are seldom seen now in any large flocks, no doubt due to the toll hunters have been taking from day to day. Single birds and couples, with a rare party of three is the general rule nowadays and while the birds are by no means killed off, they are appreciably scarcer than when the partridge season opened Oct. 1st.

GREAT DAMAGE BY SEALS
It is reported that seals in the river are responsible for the destruction of a large number of salmon this year. The havoc done by them is practically unknown by the general public and fishermen say that if they are not soon destroyed it will be useless for them to fish their nets. This matter is one for the department of Marine and Fisheries to direct their attention to immediately and put a stop to the fast increasing seal. Seals do more damage to the salmon fishing industry than the catching of a few salmon by poachers, yet the department is continually after the poacher and apparently allowing the seal to go unmolested.

HER QUINSY YIELDS TO VICKS

The Direct Action of A Vaporizing Salve is Best.

Mr. Joseph Haley of 199 West Milk Street, Brantford, Ont. says: "My wife has suffered with quinsy for years, but Vicks VapoRub must have prevented it for she got through the winter without a single attack. We sent part of a jar to a neighbor whose boy was very sick with a cold or grip. He also got relief Vicks surely should be in every home. They used to treat cold troubles externally with tallow, goose grease and camphor. Recently, internal dosing has been the habit and people naturally doubt the value of a salve.

For this reason, Canadian druggists introduced Vicks VapoRub, the vaporizing salve for all cold troubles, by giving away dozens of samples to responsible families and every jar sold was on 30-day trial.

The above report is just one of the great many received from enthusiastic Canadian families. With such endorsement and a positive money-back guarantee, every household ought to give Vicks a thorough trial as the home remedy for croup, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, neuralgia, cuts, burns and bruises and sores.

At all drug stores, 50c a jar. For free test size package write Vicks Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W. Montreal, P.Q.

Although Vicks is new in Canada it has a remarkable sale in the States. Over 17 million jars used yearly.
