ONTARIO WHEAT + MANITOBA No 1 HARD

BEAVER FLOUR

YOU can make a bigger and better loaf of bread with "Beaver" Flour than with any Western Wheat Flour.

Of course, there's no comparison between Ontario fall wheat and western wheat. Bread made of Ontario flour alone is immeasurably superior to that made of western wheat in texture, fineness, whiteness and flavor.

It is true that western wheat flour makes a big loaf—but it is heavy, tough, full of holes and uninviting both in appearance and flavor. "Beaver" Flour has the delicacy of flavor—the fineness of texture—the snowy whiteness of the best Ontario fall wheat, with the strength of Manitoba wheat flour.

Because "Beaver" Flour contains both Ontario fall wheat with a little Manitoba spring wheat to increase the strength.

"Beaver" is the original blended flour—a product of science and patience—perfected after years of testing.

If you want real home-made bread with the real home-made flavor—if you want light, delicious Pastry, Cakes and Pies—use "Beaver" Flour, best for one, best for all.

CHAPTER XXXII.

He, too, had been terribly shattered by the fall, but strange to say was still alive, and he lay with his bruised and battered face half covered with bandages, and so death-like that but for the occasional flickering of his eyelids he had all the appearance of a corpse. Doctor Campbell who was kneeling beside him, administering restoratives, looked up and uttered a sigh of relief.

"Glad you've come, my lord!" he said, in a hushed voice. "He is still alive; he has spoken—just a word. The spine—it is a marvel that he should have lived; he cannot last long. Something seems to worry him, to be on his mind—"

They looked down at the death-stricken man with silent awe. It was evident that his mind was not at peace, for he moved his head from time to time restlessly, and his lips opened, but only with a moan. After awhile Lord Sainsbury was admitted and went to the earl's side and watched

"Cured the Piles,
That I Know"

It is not pleasant to think of the dreadful suffering caused by this wretched disease, but it is satisfactory to know that there is a cure, for all who will avail themselves of it, in Dr. Chase's Ointment.
Mr. Dan Stewart, Gabarouse Lake, N.S., writes:—"For about two years I had itching piles. Last summer I was working in a lobster factory, but had to give up and go home because the suffering from piles was so great. I was two weeks in bed, and my doctor could help me very little. One night I suffered such agony that I did not know what to do. Next day I wrote for a sample of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and this did me so much good that I ordered a large box, and was entirely cured by its use. That was six months ago, and there has been no return of the trouble. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a sure cure for piles. That I know."
Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive cure for itching, bleeding and protruding piles. Get a box at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

ed like the rest. Suddenly Gibbon's eyes opened and, drawing a long breath, he looked round.

"The earl—a magistrate!" he gasped.

Lord Sainsbury came to the bedside and bent down.

"The earl is here. I am a magistrate, too. What is it you want to say, my poor fellow?" he asked.

Gibbon tried to raise himself, but of course, could not do so.

"He—he did it," he said in a voice strangely mechanical and calm. Indeed almost indifferent. "Put—put me on my oath—there's—there's witnesses here, aren't they?"

"Administer the oath!" said Mr. Selby, in a low and eager voice. "For God's sake, be quick, my lord! You do not know how much depend—"

The oath was administered, and, after a painful effort, the dying man managed to gasp out in broken sentences, which would have been inaudible if Lord Sainsbury had not knelt beside him and almost put his ear to the bleeding lips:

"He did it—my master, Mr. Talbot. I followed him to the woods and saw him try and steal the pocket-book—"

"Pocket-book? What pocket-book?" muttered Mr. Selby to himself as he bent over the dying man.

"They fought for it, and Mr. Talbot stabbed him. Then—when he'd gone for the spade—I took the pocket-book from the body. It's—it's—feel in the breast pocket of my coat—"

Mr. Selby felt and clutched the precious document, and Gibbon drew a long breath of relief.

"I've—I've carried it there ever since. I—I know why he did it. I've read the certificates. He—he knew that Ralph Farrington was the earl's son—he wanted to rob him. But—with a twist of the battered lips—"I—I spoilt his game. You'll—you'll find his clothes—his dress clothes—in my box—they're all stained and soiled with the mould. He gave 'em to me—the—the fool!—and they're just as—as he left 'em!"

His voice died away and he struggled for breath; then suddenly he went through the awful scene on the viaduct, repeating almost every word that had passed as if he and Talbot were still face to face.

gambling place. He was a bad lot, a thorough bad lot. Worse than me—jail—jail—bird as I was!"

There was a silence for a moment or two, in which the horrified group about him avoided one another's eyes; then the broken, gasping voice went on:

"Ah, would you—I can see it in your face! There's murder there, as there was the night you killed the man! But I'm—as strong as you, Mr. Talbot! You can't force me over. It's death, death! But I'm strong! Oh, God, I'm going! But not alone! No, no! If I go you shall go with me! I'll hold you as the devil himself 'll hold you when he's taking you to hell with him! I'll hold you—Ah, God, we're over!"

He tried to rise, his arms were flung out and embraced the empty air with a spasmodic, an awful gesture, the white face was convulsed with a hideous hate and almost as hideous a terror; and when the arms fell they still seemed to strain at some object between them.

With a last effort the wretched man raised his head and, staring straight before him, gasped:

"Together, yes, together! You sha'n't escape! No, no! I'll hang you!—hang you!"

The terrible voice stopped suddenly.

Health
And Success

are such intimate relations that no one can be expected to be well acquainted with success who does not keep good hold on health. Most serious sicknesses start in minor troubles of the digestive organs. Thousands know by actual experience that health and strength—and therefore success—

Are Increased
By Use of

Beecham's Pills in time, and before minor troubles become deep-seated and lasting. This famous family remedy will clear your system, regulate your bowels, stimulate your liver, tone your stomach. Then your food will properly nourish you and enrich your blood. You will be healthy enough to resist disease—strong enough to take due advantage of opportunity after taking, as needed, BEECHAM'S PILLS

Doctor Campbell looked up and quickly drew the sheet over the wreck of a face.

"It is all over," he said. The earl drew Veronica to him. She was shaking and moaning all unconsciously.

"It is all over!" repeated Doctor Campbell, rather quaveringly. "The man is dead."

"And Lord Denby is cleared!" said Mr. Selby in a low voice, which, for all its gravity, had a note of solemn exultation, as he watched Lord Sainsbury close his note-book.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

An enormous crowd collected in the market-place at Halsey, and, some time before the hour on which the court opened, converged in the court-house. The news of the death of Talbot Denby and his valet, Gibbon, and the rumour that the latter had confessed to being an eye-witness of his master's crime had been started almost as soon as Gibbon's last words had been gasped out, and the rumour, confirmed by servants from Lynne Court, having been strengthened into "reliable intelligence," the populace, already intensely interested in Ralph Farrington and his fate, were all ablaze with excitement.

As they surged before the court-house and pressed against the heavy old doors they shouted and yelled, and there were not a few voices actually clamouring for Ralph's release.

The Court was to sit at eleven, and as the hands of the clock were nearly upon the hour, a cry from the mob, for the Lynne Court carriage was seen coming along the High Street. In it were seated the earl and Veronica. It was noticed by the eager mob that they were both in mourning, and that Lord Lynborough was deadly pale; Veronica, too, was pale, but a light shone in her eyes which the crowd which thronged round the carriage was quick to interpret.

Someone started a cheer, but it was promptly hushed by those who remembered that at Lynne Court lay the dead body of the man they had learned to regard as its future master.

The earl and Veronica entered by the magistrates' door and soon afterwards the public were admitted, and the small court was instantly crammed by as many of the excited and eager mob as could squeeze into it.

All the magistrates were on the bench excepting Lord Sainsbury, who stood in the body of the court talking to Mr. Selby, upon whom all eyes were centred.

Veronica went up to Mr. Selby and held out her hand, both hands indeed.

"Does—does he know?" she whispered, her lovely face all aglow. "Have you told him—what have you told him? They would not let me see him last night or this morning."

Mr. Selby nodded.

"Forgive me, but that was by my orders, or advice, rather. I feared that you would tell him that his innocence had been proved—"

"As it has!" she breathed. "Oh, as it has!"

"Forgive me, Miss Veronica, not yet! There is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip—"

An American tourist, in prying tea in a Chinese store in Shanghai, was surprised to find that he could purchase five pounds of a certain kind of tea for $2, but that if he bought ten pounds the price would be $5. The American argued with the Chinaman that such an arrangement was ridiculous, but the proprietor of the store insisted that the logic was on his side. "More buy, more rich. More rich, more can pay," he explained.

SCHOOL DESKS.—The Acme Double Desk is especially adapted for use in schoolrooms where space is limited and a maximum seating capacity is desired. In ordering and using double desks, school officials need not consider it other than a modern and up-to-date method of seating. Many of the contracts we have had recently for seating have been for this pattern. These desks are carried in stock and can be shipped immediately. For prices and illustrations write

plies of all descriptions.)

TAKE YOUR OWN CASE.—Is it better to be safely insured or not? My companies are popular, they always pay losses promptly, and they give low rates.—PERCIE JOHNSON.

AT PRESENT we have 250 yards high-class Suitings—Serges, Vicunas and Tweeds, and some Worsted Trouserings. We have decided not to carry these goods any more, and will clear out this lot at a reduction of 25 per cent. This will enable you to obtain a really good suit at a moderate price.

PURCHASED FINE HORSE.—Rev.
Fr. McNamara recently purchased a fine horse from Mr. Erncat Carey of Cape Broyle. He will use the animal in visiting the districts in his extensive parish and it will be invaluable to him.

HORSE PERISHED.—A horse belonging to a man named Lidstone, perished in Buckmaster's meadow last evening. The animal is still lying there and should be removed immediately, as it is the centre of attraction for children living in that vicinity.

MORWENNA HERE.—The S. S.
Morwenna, arrived here at 9.30 last night from Montreal via Gulf ports.
She had a 2 1/2 cargo and brought 50 head of cattle and 117 sheep. She was 7 1/2 days on the run down and had a gale of wind with heavy sea ever since leaving Montreal. Her passengers were: Mr. and Mrs. King, Miss Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers, and a few steerage.

Broken Promises

It needs no elaborate argument to convince the country that Morris is a politician of promises, which are so many in number and so costly in execution that he cannot carry them out.
Indeed, we have heard it contended that the whole revenue itself would not suffice to carry out the promises he made in one district alone four years ago. Perhaps the most notorious examples of disregard of his plighted word relates to the comforts of the home and the cost of living.
He promised better housing and sanitation where industries are being carried on. This he has in no way done.
He promised cheaper coal to warm the homes. Coal is dearer than it ever was. He promised to put the prime necessaries of life on the free list. He has not done so. Taxation is far more onerous than it ever was. Prices of goods have gone up. The taxation of many of these articles is reckoned on the manufacturers' invoice prices. Increase the manufacturers' prices in such cases, automatically means increased taxation on these articles, and from these exactions the country has suffered severely. He has done nothing. Under ordinary circumstances the hardship of the case would ensure relief in taxation. In the case of the present exaction, not only do these hardships cry aloud for redress, but Morris was pledged to reduce taxation four years ago, before the ex-actions became so grievous.
The additional revenue derived from this extra taxation afforded abundant opportunity of relieving the tension.
But Morris has failed to avail of the opportunity. He has allowed the grievances to remain unredressed. He has allowed everybody to be drained of money. He has allowed the country to be held while, and has exacerbated the wounded feelings of the country by a wild and wanton waste of money in the creation of useless offices. The payment of salaries to certain supporters in the House of Assembly, who should have been left to their own resources to gain a livelihood, the extensive grants of money to an array of commissioners in disobedience of his promise to provide a simple scheme of Elective Road Boards by which the people could manage their own local affairs, and thoughtless adventures into big financial projects without a careful and reasonable investigation into the financial burdens which the ventures would incure. Such expenditures are clearly flagrant violations of his main and chief promise to administer economically the revenue of the Colony.
Sir Edward Morris is a politician of promises. As an administrator and statesman he is a rank failure. The country has a surfeit of the former.
It is hungry for the latter, and to satisfy its craving, the country will turn out Sir Edward Morris and put in Sir Robert Bond when the chance is afforded.

Here and There.

The Prospero left King's Cove at 11.25 a.m. to-day and is due here tomorrow.

TO STUDY MEDICINE.—Mr. Chester Harris, of Grand Bank, arrived here by the express on Tuesday. He goes by the Mongolian to Edinburgh to study medicine. He is a graduate of Sackville college and is a smart young fellow.

The Portia, weather permitting, will sail West this evening. She takes a large cargo and these passengers:— Miss Curtis, Miss Morris, Const.
O'Flaherty, Rev. Mr. Hewitt, A. E.
Worral, J. Atkinson, Augustus Herder, R. J. Deversaux, Inspector Grimes and 40 steerage.

FOR FISH CARGO.—The S. S.
"Tameton" is due here Monday from Philadelphia with coal, kerosene oil, etc. for A. H. Murray. She will be laden with 1,500 qds. fish for the "Mediamen" by the Nfld. Shipping Co., and this will be the fourth shipment by steamer this season. Other boats will follow in due course.

A POPULAR TALE.—The big crimer Cornwall with a number of Cadets on board, left England Wednesday last for St. John's direct, in the ship's company is the genial and warm hearted Irishman, John O'Rourke, who for many years was gunnery instructor on the Cayapo and who instructed the lads of the Catholic Cadet Corps in the rifle. Not alone amongst the Cadets was John popular, but amongst the lads of the other brigades and who generally they can be assured of a warm welcome.

The September Rod and Gun.

Bonneycastle Dale's "Every Day Scene with the Indian Trapper" opens the September issue of Rod and Gun in "Canada." The author is the famous Hunters in America, being a translation from the German by Hon. William Renwick Riddell, L.H.D., etc., relates the experiences of Frederick Gerstaker who visited America in 1837 and went bear hunting in the Ozark mountains. This is "some bear story." Duck Hunting is given considerable attention in this issue and includes Duck shooting on the river Seugog at Long Point, on the St.
Lawrence, in the Kootenay district and an amusing Western tale entitled "Hunting in Sage Brush, Ike's Duck Pond." Decoy Shooting by Reginald Gourlay is deserving of special mention as is also a well illustrated article on Roosting Wild Ducks in Captivity.
Mr. James Dickson a veteran sportsman makes some suggestions and criticisms regarding Mr. Kelly Evans' Fish and Game report. "Pens and Dens" is the subject of the Fox article in this issue.

Never Touched Him.

One day during the South African war an orderly delivered a message in a somewhat free and easy language from Lord Kitchener to General Smith-Dorrien. "Tell Lord Kitchener
I shall be ready to move in two hours," replied Smith-Dorrien, "and remember to say 'please' the next time you speak to him." Returning to Lord Kitchener, the orderly duly delivered the message. "And you have to say 'please' the next time you speak to him!" he wound up unexpectedly.

The Latest And Best OF CANADA'S CAR PLANTS.

The Works of the Eastern Car Company at New Gasgow Will Have the Best Features that Expert Experience Can Provide.

The plant being constructed for the Eastern Canada Car company at New Gasgow has the benefit of the latest ideas in designing, which experience suggests. The work is being put thru by specially selected experts in the building of car plants, and when completed it will possess the acme of economy in operation. The plant is being constructed so as to secure the highest results and avoid all duplication. Every part will be made to tell economically. It will be the latest of the car building plants in Canada, and while being the most modern and complete, will economically be the nearest to perfection.

Mr. Chas. H. Lench at Hr. Grace.

On Tuesday evening, 24th inst., the music-loving people of Hr. Grace had an opportunity of listening with great interest, to a Song Recital given by Mr. Lench and some of our local talent. It is known to the majority of our people, that Mr. Lench is a son of the Rev. Chas. Lench, a gentleman known as the "singing preacher". The programme consisted of ten selections, nearly all of which were encored. Special mention may be made of the song—"The Death of Nelson," which was sung in such a manner as would take one back to the event. The "Little Irish Girl" brought forth great applause and the singer found himself under the control of his audience and had to govern himself accordingly. "Crossing the Bar," (Tennyson), to the new setting was heard with great acceptance. Each stanza seemed to accelerate the interest. Mr. Lench left impressions on the musical people here that will be remembered for a long time and his next visit will be hailed with great delight.

Miss L. Thompson rendered two solos and was encored each time. The accompaniments were played by Miss M. Hanrahan and needless to say, that this young lady still holds a high place in musical circles.

Mr. Lench has arranged for a recital at St. John's. The people of the city will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing him.

Yours respectfully,
Harbor Grace, Sept. 26th, 1912.

S. A. Musicale.

The Citadel was thronged last night to hear the first musical programme rendered by the S. A. No. 1 Junior Band. The musical recital opened at 8 p.m. by Brigadier Morehen who delivered a short address and presented the instruments to the Junior Band. The rendition was a credit to the band which is composed of boys under 16 years of age. They were trained by Bandmaster Heber Noseworthy, who is a very brilliant Coronet player. The Junior Band was assisted by the No. 1 Senior Band and Songsters, and No. 11 Brass Band which rendered selections, and songs during the evening.

The food value of pure Olive Oil is well known to be very great, fully equal to Cod Liver Oil, many people think. And pure Olive Oil has no unpleasant taste and will not cause nausea, nor if it is perfectly pure and genuine, upset the stomach and bowels in any way. It is very fattening for growing children, and can be used with advantage for many cooking purposes. Our 50c. bottle of Olive Oil is pure Spanish oil, of prime quality, with no bleaching or any foreign substance added. It has the bland sweet taste which gives Olive Oil its popular name. "In any way," and there is no suspicion of rancidity about it, as it is put up in perfectly dry bottles and well corked. Try a bottle.

New Lodge Established.

By yesterday's express the Delegates of the Odd Fellows consisting of Messrs. J. C. Phillips, G. T. Phillips, C. Woods and E. D. Spurrell returned from Bonne Bay where they had been to institute a Lodge of that large and Benevolent Order, having also instituted an Encampment at Grand Falls. On Tuesday last, viz. Sept. 17th, the Grand Falls Encampment was instituted and degrees conferred, after which Mr. J. C. Phillips, D.D.G.M., assisted by Messrs. G. T. Phillips and E. D. Spurrell installed the following officers in their respective stations:— C. P. G. White, H. P. C. S. Nelson; S. W. R. B. Porter, J. W. George; Hicks; R. S. J. R. Ferguson; Treas. L. Moore; Gulde, M. Davis; P. S. W. Petrie, Committee:—R. C. Goodyear, W. M. Stanford, P. E. Ireland, S. Piment.

At the conclusion of the ceremony refreshments were served and a happy social hour spent. Leaving Bay of Islands on Thursday last by the S. S. Home, the Delegates proceeded to Bonne Bay where a grand reception was tendered the visitors. On Friday night, through the kindness of Mr. J. P. Halliburton, the party were conveyed by his large motor boat to the hall, where twenty-two candidates were admitted to membership, and Excelsior Lodge, No. 126, I. O. O. F., instituted and the following officers elected and installed:— N. G. J. C. Tapper; V.G. Dr. Mosdell; R. S. P. Dicker; F. S. J. Noel; Treas. J. P. Halliburton; W. S. Matthews; Ch. W. Young; R. S. G. C. Ball; L. S. N. J. Taylor; R. S. S. A. Payne; L. S. N. J. Hatcher; Com. D. Wilton; O. G. E. Payne; L. G. W. H. Mudge; L. S. N. J. F. Wilton; R. S. V. G. J. Brake; P. G. G. W. Wilton. On Monday night dinner was prepared by some of the lady friends and the visiting brethren, at the residence of Mr. G. W. Wilton; a lengthy toast list brought to a close a very pleasant evening. On Tuesday afternoon the Delegates left by the S. S. Seal and were given a hearty send-off by the Odd Fellows of Bonne Bay.

A Wonderful Discovery.

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poisoning. Not a single species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill! Then again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore or a cut or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the itching of Netor, or the stinging that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this. Again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing. The tissue thus formed is worked up to its proper position. All ally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent. Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 D'Arrolmer Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. To-day—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp to pay return postage. Address Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld.

Tri-Jubilee.

Of the Last Battle on Signal Hill. Editor Evening Telegram. In the Evening Telegram and other journals, during the past twelve months, reference was made that this year would be the 150th anniversary of the last fight on Signal Hill. It is really too bad that we should let this Tri-Jubilee of such an important event slip away without some recognition of its great importance in the history of not alone St. John's, but of our whole country. Since that date (1662) no hostile force has dared to set foot in our city. Surely it is a cause for rejoicing, and it is the opportunity for our Brigades to have a popular demonstration and all St. John's together, irrespective of who may take the lead, but I must say it was the Highlanders who distinguished themselves by their splendid dash and great bravery on that historic occasion. Surely the Highlanders have great reason to remember what was done on that occasion, and a little enthusiasm on their part would quickly bring all the other Brigades to join them. I would have mentioned this subject before, but with such wet weather

There was no chance for a popular outing.

Now that we may expect a good Indian summer during October, it would be opportune to arrange this event at a time when the Cadets of H. M. S. Cornwall are here, also the sailors of the warship Stritas. Let us have one good holiday, or a half-holiday at least, before the busy season commences. The only way that Newfoundlanders can ever be made proud of their country and Empire is to be perpetually reminding them of the deeds and heroism of the past that has won the Empire and places us where we are to-day—the greatest Empire that the world has ever seen. It is a celebration for us of 150 years of peace, and I firmly believe if our worthy Archbishop were at home, and in good health, he would quickly inspire our imaginations to those worthy deeds of the past. I remain, dear sir, Yours very truly, TERRA NOVA. St. John's, Sept. 27th, 1912.

LONDON, Sept. 26.
The first batch of claims against the White Star Line arising out of the Titanic disaster came up for trial during the approaching law sittings. They are being brought on behalf of the relatives of fourteen passengers who perished. The findings in these cases are expected to govern subsequent claims, based chiefly on the grounds that, after warning had been received of the proximity of ice, there was no deflection of the liner's course, no reduction in speed, nor any increased look-out; and that proper steps were not taken to transfer more passengers to the life-boats. The Company is expected to rely on the defence that Captain Smith did all he could after receiving the warning as to the ice, and followed the usual practice. The terms of the contract, under which tickets are issued, oblige all claims to be brought in the English court, where the Merchant Shipping Act limits the liability of shipping companies to $75 per ton in case of loss of life, and $40 per ton in case of loss of goods. As the tonnage liability of the Titanic was 43,521 tons, the gross liability for loss of life is $4,264,075, and for goods $1,740,840, a total of $6,004,915.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
LONDON, Sept. 26.
A despatch from Melbourne says that Borden's speech at Toronto, together with reports that Canada intends to make an offer of three super-dreadnoughts as an emergency contribution to the Imperial Navy, have aroused much attention amongst Australians, who are now realizing that they must no longer lean on Britain, but stand on an equal footing, shoulder to shoulder, with the Mother Country and other Dominions in defence of the whole Empire. Genuine dread of the growth of Japanese influence in the Pacific is undoubtedly strong, the feeling is that Australia should show readiness to play her part alongside with New Zealand and the United States in policing the Pacific. Australians, in fact, are willing to bear taxation for these purposes.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
TOKIO, Sept. 26.
Damage exceeding $20,000,000 was caused by a typhoon which swept Japan on Sunday. The loss of life is heavy. Tens of thousands are homeless, and the crops suffered severely. At Nagoya every house is damaged, and a great tide of refugees fled the harbour and sank three steamers. Several others are ashore. At Gifu 262 were killed and 283 injured. The Kioko Maru foundered off Enshu, crew and passengers being lost. At Osaka 20,000 houses were ruined, and all the piers and breakwaters were washed away.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
BALILEYMORE, Sept. 26.
Ulstermen are praying and hoping for peace, but if that is denied them, they are ready for war, according to the Earl of Kilmorey, while addressing a big outdoor demonstration here to-day. Twenty thousand from County Down were present. Kilmorey was chairman and his intention of refusing to submit to Home Rule if the act was passed. A large number of Peers he said, including Lord Roberts and Lord Dufferin, had signed a pledge not to accept a seat in either House of the Irish Legislature.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.
The steamship Stephano from St. John's, dented her bow and ripped away a big section of piling when docking in the North River. No one was hurt, but there was considerable excitement aboard. The tide is thought to have caused the accident.
LATER.—A gaping hole was torn in the vessel's starboard side about twenty feet from the stern and four feet above the water line. Repairs will be made in the dry dock here.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
WU CHANG, Sept. 26.
More than 200 mutinous soldiers were captured and instantly executed, without court martial, by loyal troops, in consequence of an outbreak, which occurred among the soldiers encamped outside the walls of this city on Tuesday. The remainder of the mutineers fled into the open country after they had attacked the town and been defeated by the loyal garrison.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
PARIS, Sept. 26.
Revolutionary syndicalists and more modern socialists engaged in a free fight in Salte Wagram, where a public meeting had been called by Gustave Harve. Many shots were fired. Chairs were used as weapons. No one was killed but several were removed to hospital suffering from revolver and knife wounds.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
LONDON, Sept. 26.
A regular cross Channel aeroplane service seems within sight. M. Amand of Paris has written to the Folkestone Town Council that his company intends to start a service of hydro-aeroplanes for the conveyance of passengers as soon as the necessary plans are made.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.

Medicine.

BY H. L. RANN.

Medicine is a get-rich-quick device of the medical profession which is fed in large quantities to patients who can't eat anything else without developing a shooting pain. If it were not for medicine there would be fewer physicians galloping around the summer resorts in white flannel pants.

Whenever a doctor puts up medicine for somebody who is harboring a poignant pain in the stomach, he usually accompanies it by some expensive advice. It is much easier to get a good quality of advice after the patient has told the doctor just what is the matter with him, but there is no perceptible difference in the price.

Some people are opposed to medicine and never use it until their relatives begin to figure on dividing up the property, while others take it internally, externally and eternally and in time become as fragrant as a drug store clerk. Thousands of uncompensated sufferers can never eat a full meal without immediately trying to conciliate it with a handful of white pills.

There are two schools of medicine—allopath and homeopath. The allopath physician is a high-class artist who makes a preliminary probe with calomel and then prescribes a liquid that would sear the hide off of an alligator grip. The homeopath takes the human tongue as his guide, and can always tell at a glance whether to use salt soda or opiate.

Some brands of medicine have more horsepower than others and when taken in double doses will put the patient in the condition for an operation. The object of all medicine is to reconcile people to being dissected in every locality where disease is likely to be found.

Thousands of people are taking medicine when a brisk walk and an occasional bath would answer the purpose better. Medicine will not revive energy in a man who is suffering from a chronic attack of case-hardened laziness.

Gas is Coal With the Trouble Taken Out. Gas is really nothing more than coal, only with gas you have the coal less the dirt, ashes and smoke. These have been taken out by the Gas Company. The weight, too, has been taken out, for when you use gas you don't have to carry it up from the cellar in buckets, straining your back in the attempt. All of the crudery has been removed. The Gas Company has taken everything out of the coal but the heat—and that's the one thing you want. This they deliver to you right to the burner of your range. You only have to turn a tap and strike a match in order to have it.

If your mind is half made up to buy a GAS RANGE, remove the remaining doubt by thinking of last summer and the many days when your kitchen was like a burning furnace. The gas range never overheats the kitchen.

Phone the Gas Company, or call at their showrooms and get full particulars.

A Chip Of The Old Block. Lord Marcus Beresford has got his fair share of the family attributes. He has a genial wit, which stands him in good stead as manager of the Sandringham stud. Previous to taking up this appointment, he was for five years starter to the Jockey Club, so that he knows more than a little concerning turf matters.

One of his wittiest rejoinders was made at a dinner party to which an eminent personage had been invited. It happened that an officer present had rather too much to drink, and the distinguished guest, very annoyed, asked who the offender might be. The name was supplied, with the additional information that he "had seen service." "What sort of service?" inquired the guest. "Dinner service sir," replied Lord Marcus Beresford.

Death of Father Wissel. Word was received here this week of the death of Rev. Father Wissel, of the Redemptorist Order, who died of paralysis at Wilkesbarre, Pa., aged 82 years.

Father Wissel will be remembered in Halifax as having conducted a mission in St. Mary's Cathedral in 1883, with other Missioners of the Order, who had previously given a Mission in St. John, N. B., and after leaving Halifax went to Newfoundland for the same purpose.

Father Wissel was the oldest priest in his Order; had he lived until March next he would have been sixty years old.—Halifax Recorder.

Did You Ever General Booth!

STOP TO THINK HOW MUCH
YOU OWE TO ADVERTISING?

Millions of people owe most of their comforts, their luxuries, their degree of prosperity, and many of them even their lives to advertising, and yet few of us even stop to think of it except as a necessary evil.

Through the publicity given a certain anti-toxin, that dread disease, Diphtheria, which used to mow down our children as a reaper mows down grain, is hardly dangerous any more. We never cut a finger or scratch a hand but what we go straight to a bottle of advertised antiseptic.
(And this has no relation to so-called patent medicines.)

When we rise in the morning we put on an advertised stocking that saves us hours of weary labor. We touch a match to an advertised gas stove and save another half hour. We put on an advertised toaster and save our tempters and our digestion.
We dress in advertised clothes (advertised either by the maker or seller) and from then until the time we go to sleep again on an advertised bed, we are dealing with and living in touch with publicity throughout the livelong day.

We use it as our guarantee of quality or price, or good faith on the part of the seller. We act on it with full faith and we accept it implicitly at all times.
We sometimes doubt the absolute veracity of what it claims, but we never doubt the dead certainty of the man who signs his name to it, either to make good what he claims or cheerfully to give us back our cash.

They say this is a day when no man can succeed without advertising, but it is even more than that. It is a day when no family can succeed without
READING THE ADVERTISING.

If most people were as impervious to advertising as they think they are, they would be twenty-five years behind the times in everything they do.

The time has come when advertising has got to be treated as news, read as news and acted upon as news.

The people who do not read advertising, like the people who do not use advertising, are getting farther and farther behind in the race every year.

Remedies.

O h, friends,
let's have the referendum! We have all sorts of
woe and grief,
and that, I know,
will surely end
our weary souls relief! This thing of living costs like thunder, we pay so much for grub and coals; let's refer-end such evils under, and win our freedom at the polls! Brace up, brace up, ye patient drudges who slave to gain a scanty store! Insist on the recall of judges, and all your troubles will be o'er! The boons for which our fathers battled are forced away from totting men, but when we have the judges rattled, we'll get such blessings back again! The bitter yoke that doth thy withers wrench, will fall when thou canst grab a jurist, and drag him screaming from the bench! We view conditions with deep loathing; we have no fat upon our sists; our kids are shy of needful clothing, our wives are wearing last year's hats. Let's rise and have some revolutions, demanding for the People's gain, publicity of contributions to every national campaign! When once the figures have been printed, the cost of living will decrease, our future will be rosy-tinted, and life will seem as slick as grease!

We hear that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will appoint a regular inspector whose duty it will be to go through the city and watch for violations of the laws relating to the treatment of animals.
The man who is designated is one who well understands the treatment of horses and cattle generally, and this innovation will likely stop the glaring cases of cruelty so often witnessed in St. John's.

CAPLAIN STILL ABOUT.—Passen-

General Booth!

"Out of the slums sad music comes,
Low mournful flutes and muffled drums;
God's greatest warrior is dead—
The fearless fighting man who led The Army 'gainst the hordes of wrong
With crash of prayer and clash of song.
Lies silent in the fosse of death
With stiffened limbs and frozen breath."—Westminster Gazette.

Obituary.

MRS. GEO. R. LILLY.

For the second time within a short period this year has sorrow overshadowed the home of Mr. H. W. Le-Messurier, Deputy Minister of Customs.
But a few months ago his sister Miss Clara LeMessurier, passed over to the Great Beyond and yesterday afternoon the Angel of Death removed the gentle spirit of another sister, Mrs. Rosa Lilly, to another and happier sphere. Mrs. Lilly was the wife of Magistrate Lilly of Trinity and while the deceased lady and her husband were in Chicago early in the season, visiting some of their children residing there, she caught a severe cold which resulted in the illness which caused her death. Left to mourn her besides her surviving husband are three sons, Harold, Engineer on the Montreal, Bert in Chicago, and Hugh in Trinity. Four daughters also survive Mrs. Lilly, Beatrice, wife of Mr. Wm. Noel, the survivor, Mrs. E.
Mallard, Mrs. Clara Lilly of Trinity, Chicago and Miss Flora Lilly of Trinity. Besides Mr. H. W. LeMessurier there are three other brothers who will be grief-stricken when they hear of their sister's death as all reside abroad. To the bereaved husband and family the Telegram extends its sincere sympathies.

Was Largely Attended.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John S. Keating took place at 2.30 p.m. yesterday. Despite the heavy rain which fell a concourse of people including many of the customs officials and others in the civic service and professional men attended. The remains were enclosed in a handsome polished oak casket which was covered with floral tributes, the gifts of the many friends of the family. Mr. M. W. Myrick was the undertaker. Rev. Fr.
O'Callaghan gave the final absolution at the Cathedral and interment was at the family plot in Belvidere cemetery.

Dog Stealing.

Each year after the shooting season opens men who keep dogs for months to accompany them, and for whom the cost of their keep is not small, find that mean sportsmen decoy them away or absolutely steal the dogs from their owners to go on the hunt with them. There is only one medicine for prevention of this and that is to bring them before the court.

BY JAY E. HOUSE.
Both Dun and Braintree are reliable, accurately.

A woman doesn't much mind the fact that a man is "rough." But she hates to see him repent to the extent of shedding tears over his miserable can be said for February.

Married men do not attract much attention, although now and then, one is exposed to brief prominence, through being sued for divorce.

There is this to say of the Christian Scientists. They do not give oyster suppers for the purpose of raising money for their church.
When girls write letters they are mostly about clothes and men. When married women write letters they are mostly about doctor's bills and babies.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Mr. Edgar Davis, cabman, passed away on Tuesday morning, after a very short illness. Mr. Davis was paralysed on Sunday morning. He carried on the fishery for a number of years, but for the past four or five years he has been one of our most reliable drivers. He leaves a widow, but no children. The funeral took place yesterday and was attended by the British Society of which the deceased was a member.

Mr. James Hatcher, shoemaker of Harvey Street, was taken very sick yesterday afternoon as he was leaving the shoe factory of Mr. Chas. Ash, where he was employed. He was picked up unconscious and conveyed home where he now lies in a very weak state. It is said he is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Miss Rose Wood, daughter of Mr.
William Wood of Grand Bank, is here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Selby Parsons and family. Miss Wood spent a week or so with her uncle at Bay Roberts before coming here.

During the three fine days this week, large numbers of people visited the nearby country, gathering berries, mostly marshberries which are said to be more plentiful this season than for a number of years.

Mr. Theo. Parsons is now filling his new shop with all classes of dry goods. The shop is situated on the site of the old slip store, and it being a good business stand, we predict for Mr. Parsons a busy season.

Mrs. Ronald Kennedy and two children left by yesterday's train for her home in Boston after a few months visit to her friends here. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs.
Robert Tetford, who will spend several months visiting friends in Boston and Montreal. Miss Elsie Tetford of St. John's, sister of Mrs. Kennedy, came over to see her and went with her as far as Brigus Junction.

Mrs. Richard Spracklin and her son, Walter, left by Tuesday's train for Boston where the former will reside with her sons in future. A large number of her friends were at the station to see her off.

The Whaler Port Saunders brought in two whales yesterday morning.

Mr. Lench's song recital in Coughlan Hall on Tuesday night was well patronized and much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Harris Oke of St. John's took a spin over here on Saturday on his motor bike. He visited friends in Carboneau on Monday. He has many friends here who were pleased to see him.

Mrs. William Higgins died on the South Side this morning after a long ere is a Real Dyspepsia Cure.

Diapensin settles upset stomachs and ends indigestion in five minutes.

some foods you eat hit back—good, but work badly; ferment stubborn lumps and cause a sick, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Dyspeptic get this down: Diapensin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There was anything so safely quick, certainly effective. No difference badly your stomach is disorder—you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is it strengthens and regulates stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

ost remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapensin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no bloating, no eructations of indigestion, your head clears and you feel fine.

o now, make the best investment ever made by getting a large fifty-cent box of Diapensin from drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer with indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

IDENTICAL IN PLACES.—Though had it from the train hands yesterday that big herds of caribou were met with about 30 miles up and Lake it is strange that few are found at the Topsails or near Nova. It is likely they will soon be making south when no doubt good will be had.

THE SECRET
of the Authorship of The Dop Doctor has at last leaked out. It is said that this brilliant novel which was the success of last year was written by Miss Clo. Graves. Have just received her great novel entitled "Maid in a Market Garden," illustrated. Paper, 50 cents; cloth, 75 cents. "The World" says it is refreshing in fun and most enjoyable. Many of its living pictures are gems of humour.

The Eastern Car Co., Ltd.
Cumulative 6 p. c. Preferred Stock.
Par Value of Shares $100.
Price 90 per cent. to yield 6.66 p.c.
Before offering this issue to the public a most thorough and expert investigation of every phase of the situation has been made, and we offer these securities for the safe, permanent investment of funds.
Directors
The Directors of the Eastern Car Company, Limited, are as follows:
JAMES C. MCGREGOR, President New Glasgow.
President J. W. Carmichael & Co. Ltd., S. S. Owners.
ROBT. E. HARRIS, M.A., Vice-President Halifax.
President, The Eastern Trust Co. Director, Bank of Nova Scotia, Acadia Sugar Refining Co., Limited, Trinidad Electric Company, Limited, etc.
HON. JAMES D. MCGREGOR New Glasgow.
Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, senior member of the firm of J. D. & P. A. McGregor.
GEO. F. MEKAY New Glasgow.
Former Manager of the Nova Scotia Forge Co.
R. E. CHAMBERS, M.E., M.A.M.E., etc. New Glasgow.
Manager Ore Mines and Quarries, N. S. Steel Co. Ltd.
THOS. CANTLEY New Glasgow.
General Manager, N. S. Steel and Coal Co. Ltd.
The above gentlemen form the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the Board of Directors of the NOVA SCOTIA STEEL AND COAL COMPANY, LIMITED.
They are men of the highest reputation, with long business and financial experience and are largely interested financially in the Company. They are thoroughly familiar with the iron and steel industry and are qualified to administer this Company's affairs with equal success to that attending the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company. It is conceded that the efficient management of the latter Company has contributed in a large measure to its success, and it is safe to say that the Eastern Car Company will receive the same care and attention as the older Company.
Why Every Investor Should Be Interested
1. Canada's Railways' demands for equipment have increased much faster than her car building capacity.
2. Choice Location, no better in Nova Scotia for Company's business. Large ground value.
3. Exceptionally strong management.
4. Labor, abundant and intelligent.
5. Fuel, situated within four miles of the Picton Coal Fields.
6. Dividends, the Preferred Stock Dividends are cumulative.
7. Exemption from taxation and free water for twenty years.
8. Splendid shipping facilities by rail and water.
9. Raw Material, the works being situated adjoining the Steel Plant of the N. S. Steel & Coal Co., Ltd., it has special facilities which will obviate the necessity of carrying large stocks.
10. Estimated Profits are large even though Plant but enjoy an average output.
