Guelph Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 25, 1873.

Town and County News.

The Esquing Fall Show will be held at Georgetown, on Wednesday, the 1st of October.

The annual picnic of the employees of Messrs Inglis & Hunter, Wellington Foundry, comes off to-morrow.

The employees of Messrs W. D. Hepburn & Co., best and shoe manufacturers, go to Pashin Lake on Monday for their annual picnic.

The slight dip in Quebec street, between Chalmers Church and St. George's Square, is being filled up with gravel from the square.

The GAO.—We learn that it is the intention of the members of the Y.M.C.A. to hold a prayer meeting, in the goal, for the benefit of the prisoners, on Sunday next.

CHAMBERLAIN.—Mr. W. O'Connor is now the billiard champion of Guelph. At a match played on Wednesday he won a close game by 82 points. Mr. T. Thorn was his opponent, the prize was a new cue, and the score 501 to 467.

If you don't want to put gauze over the gift frames of your pictures this summer, and don't want to speak them, boil three or four onions in a pint of water, then, with a clean paint brush, wash over your frames, and the flies will not light on them.

C. M. C. A. Gosar.—The general meeting last night was to arrange matters for the reception of the Convention which meets here about the last week in August. That will be an important event in the annals of the Association—and the town also. It is proposed to hold the annual picnic of the Y. M. C. A. some time next month, previous to the Convention. The Association have rented the rooms over Mr. Pringle's, on Wyndham-street, now occupied by the Advertiser, and expect to move in a week or two. Our contemporary goes across the street.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—We are happy to hear that the Government of Ontario have secured the services of Mr. McCandless, for the office of Principal of the Agricultural College at Guelph. Mr. McCandless is a practical and scientific agriculturist. He held office in the Glasgow Institution and Model Farms in Ireland before he came to America, and has since been for two years Professor of Agriculture in Cornell University, and has given exhibitions in both old country and new country agriculture, and is a man of great energy and warmly interested in farmers' work. We are glad that the Government have been able to find so suitable a man.—Globe.

POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. M. July 24.

The "copy" of the following was by some means mislaid, and consequently did not appear in yesterday's issue as intended.

SUNDAY MORTIMER.

James Lafferty and Thos. McAtstocker were charged with disorderly conduct by fighting on Sunday last. The prisoners with some others were of Market Street, near the Waterloo Road, when a bet of a most disgusting and cruel character was made—namely, a dollar was stake as to whether or not a dog's tail could be pulled out; and from this quarrel arose Albert Pike and Thos. Ray testified to there having been a scuffle, but denied that blows were actually struck—contrary to Pike's previous statement to the Chief Constable. As another witness was absent, the case was adjourned in order to obtain his testimony.

Sad Accidents at Goderich.

(From our Correspondent.)

About noon on Wednesday Christy Shannon, of Colborne Township, was engaged with his mower finishing a field of hay, and left the mower standing in the field whilst he took a scythe to cut the hay in the panels of the fence. As he was thus engaged, from some unknown cause the horses took fright and started with the mower. Mr. Shannon ran and caught the reins, when the horses ran round and round, bringing the mower upon Mr. Shannon, throwing him down and cutting him in a most shocking manner. One cut severed the main artery of the right leg close to the body, from which he died in a few minutes. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss.

On the same evening, our highly respected Sheriff and townsman was found lying at the side of a fence near to the cemetery in an apparently unconscious state. It appears that he had been crossing from one of his fields to another, and in getting over the fence it had given way, by which he had been thrown to the ground, thereby breaking his neck and lying in a helpless condition.

Some difficulty took place between the Canada Southern and Grand Trunk Railways on Monday. The Canada Southern, after having completed their track on the Canada side of the International Bridge, but were interrupted by a gang of men, employees of the Grand Trunk, who demolished the track and erected a fence across it. It appears the railways have a right to the bridge, but the Grand Trunk thought they had a right to lay the rails to a fence near to the bridge. It is reported that the employees of the track on the approach to the bridge.

A very painful accident occurred at Dresden on July 22. While a man named Richard Houston was driving a team of horses took fright and ran away, throwing the unfortunate man out of his wagon, thereby breaking his neck and killing him instantly.

Local and Other Items.

The Globe appears this morning in its usual "new dress" of clean-cut type.

Dr. HILLARY has just been appointed curator and pathologist for the Toronto General Hospital.

Trick (Biden) hotel, the oldest house in Ottawa, was burned down early on Thursday morning.

Four large clocks have been erected in the tower of the new Union Station, Toronto.

A ramon is afloat in Ottawa that the Imperial Government have asked for explanations, and there is a possibility of the matter being taken for investigation to England.

The great trial of combined and single reaping machines comes off on Tuesday next, the 29th inst., near Bell's Corners, Ottawa. About twenty machines are to take part in the competition.

The MENNONITE DELEGATION, accompanied by Mr. Hespeler, visited the principal points of interest in and about Ottawa on Wednesday. They express unbounded satisfaction with all they have seen in their journeyings in Canada.

The Hamilton Club, situated at the corner of James and Main Street, was informally opened to the members on Wednesday by a luncheon, splendidly laid out in the dining-room with a table sparkling with glass and silver ware.

The Rev. Gustavus Munro, B.A., who finished his divinity studies in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, has received a most harmonious call from the Presbyterian Church of Embro, Ontario. The stipend promised is $1,000, with a free manse and globe.

On Thursday last the wife of Mr. Joe. Taggart, a respectable and well-to-do farmer, residing in the township of Downie, presented her lord and master with four children at a birth. Two of the little strangers were boys and two were girls—the latter only survived, and with their mother are doing well.

It is said that Tom Ferguson is to resign his seat as M. P. P. for South Simcoe, and be appointed Collector of Customs at the port of Collingwood. Mr. Watson, the present Collector, who is a Reformer, is to be removed to Prescott, a less important port.

The members of the Ministry at Ottawa state positively that Parliament will be prorogued immediately after receiving the report of the Pacific Fraud Committee, and that no action on the part of the House will be permitted by the Governor-General, acting upon the advice of the Administration.

MOSE GAS.—The necessary stock for the Stratford Gas Company has been subscribed, and before the long winter nights set in we may expect to see our town lit up by gas! The committee proceeded to Ingersoll to inspect the gas works at that point, and it is expected that immediately on their return the contract for the erection of the necessary buildings, and supplying the machinery and pipes, will be let.—Stratford Herald.

SUMMER SICKNESS.—The Collingwood Bulletin says:—We understand there is a very severe type of summer complaint prevailing very extensively in town just now, accompanied by cramps and symptoms somewhat resembling cholera. The disease is thought to arise in a great measure from impure air, and it is to be hoped the Board of Health will make it their business to have the town thoroughly inspected and purified.

PAID OVERTAKE.—A week or two ago, as an emigrant train was passing between Baden and Stratford, a singular accident occurred: A young child was allowed by its mother to go to the closet in the car alone. Not returning, a search revealed that it was missing. The alarm was given, but as the window was open it was evident that it had fallen out on to the track. On the train arriving at Stratford the fact was reported, and an engine sent down to search for the "lost child." It was discovered near Shakespeare, and, strange to relate, none the worse for its singular adventure.

AN INGENUOUS INVENTION.—A very ingenious and useful invention has recently reached the Patent Office. It consists in attaching a clock to a combination lock, which, previous to locking a safe, may be set for any hour, and until that hour comes, unlocking or picking the safe is absolutely impossible. A bank, for instance, is to be opened at ten o'clock in the morning. The clock is set so as to permit the clock to be turned at ten o'clock, and the cashier himself cannot open the vault till that hour, for the clock is set from the inside, and cannot be tampered with after the door is closed.

When ten o'clock arrives, any one having knowledge of the numbers indicating the combination can unlock the vault in the usual manner. There are two clocks working together, and if by accident one should stop, the other would accomplish the result.—San Francisco Examiner.

ORGANIZED ROBBERY.—A daring robbery, which shows that a gang of nearly a dozen pick-pockets is banded together in Hamilton, was committed at the Great Western Railway depot there at nine o'clock on Wednesday. A man named William Orr had purchased tickets, in doing which he injudiciously exposed his purse to view. In stepping on the platform of the car, there was a great deal of crowding due by a number of persons; one man, in particular, trying to get past him, and pressing against Orr's person. As soon as he had taken a seat in the car he discovered that his pocket-book, containing $445, was gone. On subsequent inquiry it was found that $100 had been changed at McKean's and another $100 at Taylor's exchange office in the forenoon. Two arrests have been made, but it is doubtful if the unfortunate man can identify positively the thief.

The Dominion Telegraph Company have reopened their office at Port Edward, County Lambton.

The name of the post-office at Deyton, has been changed to that of Centralia.

New York, July 24.—Commandant Manzanoe, of the Spanish frigate Arapielles, now in this port, stated in an interview last night, that three of the vessels reported seized by the Carlists at Cartagena were not surprised by any ships afloat. They had undoubtedly been surrendered through treachery. He added the naval officers knew no factions, but recognized the flag of Spain, and took their orders from the party in power, no matter which it might be.

Bayonne, July 24.—Advices received here from Carlist sources state that the minority of the Cortes intend to leave Madrid and go to Carthage, where they propose establishing a separate Government. They are endeavoring to induce Senor Piy Margall to accompany them.

From the same source it is learned that the insurgents at Carthage have enlisted 10,000 men of different nationalities in their cause, and increased their forced contributions upon the inhabitants to $80,000. Colonel Naza has left Madrid for the purpose of forming an insurrection in the Province of Jaen. His arrest has been ordered by the Government.

Madrid, July 24.—The Prussian frigate despatched by the German Consul in pursuit of the Spanish steamer Vigilante, which was captured by the insurgents, overhauled her en route for Almiria, whether she was bound for the purpose of proclaiming that Province an independent canton. Senor Galves, a deputy to the Cortes, was in command of the Vigilante. The German ambassador offered to deliver the captured vessel into the hands of the Government.

A despatch from the town of Figuras, Province of Gerona, says:—The gates of the city have been closed, the streets barricaded, and the authorities were prepared for a defence against the insurgents. A number of Carlists have been arrested and six priests suspected of intriguing for Don Carlos have been thrown into prison.

New York, July 24.—The Herald special from Lecumberry, France, July 24, says: Don Carlos, by the advice of his General, hesitated to advance on Pamplona, and is waiting for a junction with the forces of Don Carlos. His whole force numbers 15,000 men fully armed. Numerous French volunteers are arriving and demanding arms.

Paris, July 24.—The Government have received information, which it regards as trustworthy, that instructions has been issued from the head of the Internationals in London to subordinate in France to organize for a series of strikes throughout the Republic, to be carried into effect during the coming recess of the Assembly. Increased vigilance on the part of the local authorities is ordered, and contact of the soldiery with foreigners is prohibited.

Prince Frederick Charles, of Germany, has tendered Marshal Bazaine evidence in his favour on his trial for the surrender of Metz to the Prussian army. The Marshal, however, declines to permit the evidence to be introduced.

The Bill authorizing the construction of the Church of the Sacred Heart, a grand cathedral on the heights at Montmartre, overlooking Paris, passed the Assembly to-day after an exciting debate, in the course of which much violent religious partisanship was evoked.

Paris, July 24.—The Journal de Paris says the project of placing a Prince of the house of Hohenzollern upon the throne of Spain has not been abandoned. A number of discontented Carlist leaders and former liberal unionists are said to favor the Hohenzollern candidacy. The Journal also says the Cure of Santa Cruz was proclaimed a rebel by Don Carlos for being concerned in this intrigue.

St. Louis, July 24.—The steamboat interest of this city has forwarded to the proper authority at Washington a remonstrance against the further construction of the Illinois and St. Louis Bridge now building across the Mississippi at this point, on the ground that if finished according to the original plan it will be a great obstruction to navigation.

New York, July 24.—Jan. Thompson of Philadelphia, was drowned at Atlantic City, N. J., to-day. Three others were rescued with great difficulty.

A fire at Sidney, Ohio, last night destroyed $25,000 worth of property.

Seven cholera deaths took place at Mount Vernon, Ind., to-day.

Washington, July 25, 1 a. m.—Probabilities—For Middle and Eastern States generally clear weather with higher temperature, followed on Friday evening by occasional storms. For the Lower Lake region falling barometer, higher temperature, south westerly winds, partly cloudy weather and local rains.

New York, July 25.—The Herald's Cartagena special says the decree of Salmeron declaring the rebel ships pirates caused a great panic, and they will not leave port for Malaga as intended. Violent threats are made against Salmeron and other members of the Government.

Pottsville, Pa., July 24.—The fire in Mount Carmel last night commenced in Gou. Pontier's building, and destroyed fifteen buildings in the same square, comprising the business portion of the place. The loss is $400,000, and the insurances are principally in home-companies.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 24.—The Farmers'

OR THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXIX.

JIM HAS FURTHER DANGER AND EXCITING ADVENTURES.

The return to consciousness from that abyss of oblivion was accompanied by such horrors of physical and mental agony as are not to be described.

This continued for what to the sufferer seemed to be an age, then the utter madness of the wild tumult gave place to fitful glimpses of greater order and calmness.

Where was he now? He was lying on the green sward, with the warm morning sun streaming down upon his wet body.

They were taller and more intelligent looking, had not the low foreheads and ferocious faces of the Chickasaws.

This discovery afforded matter for interesting speculation. Perhaps they belonged to a milder and more friendly tribe.

The moment they saw him stir they left their occupations by the fire and came towards him in a body.

One who appeared to be the leader of the party began to address him, but as the words were spoken in what was to Jim an unknown and outlandish tongue.

Still, when the chief paused, they looked as if they expected him to reply, and were astonished when he did not.

"They can't surely expect me to understand their gibberish," thought Jim to himself.

Acting under this idea, Jim smiled with a facetious blandness, and said: "How d'ye do, gentlemen."

The effect of this address was comical. At the first sound of Jim's voice the Indians simultaneously fell back in consternation.

"Ho, ho," thought Jim, "the Yorkshire lingo has a powerful effect on them."

For some moments they stood as if paralysed; then they gazed at each other and conferred together.

"Oh, it was them beastly Chickasaws who did that," said Jim, understanding in a moment the cause of their dubiety.

"Good," thought Jim, "they don't like them Chickasaws, so I'll blackguard them out and out."

"Oh, they're a bad lot, are the Chickasaws," he loudly exclaimed, and threw as much contempt into his countenance as he could command.
