In response to our appeal for clothing last month several fine bundles came in and were quickly despatched to the needy of the parish. A good bale was made up of things new and old for Mrs Lovell, and through the kindness of Mrs. Holmes were sent off to British Columbia, free of charge.

On Tuesday evening, 15th February, a dramatic performance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cleworth, in the School-house. The proceeds were devoted to paying for the repairs of the organ.

Before these words are printed Mr. Lowe will be far on his way to his new home and will carry with him the good wishes and congratulations of the whole Parish. Much regret has been expressed on all sides at his departure, and many have been the tokens of good-will. On Monday the Guild of St. Agatha presented an address accompanied by a handsome fish slice and fork. The members of the Men's Bible Class presented a cane as the token of their affection, and the Women's Bible Class gave a set of cutlery. On Tuesday evening, 15th February, the Churchwardens presented an address on behalf of the whole congregation together with a purse containing $100.

Miss Lowe has kindly consented to continue the Sunday Afternoon Bible Class which has been hitherto carried on by Mr. Lowe.

The following is a copy of the address read by Miss Charlotte Parker on behalf of St. Agatha's Guild:—

To the Rev. H. P. Lowe.

"We, the members of St. Agatha's Guild and also of your Bible Class, wish to express our appreciation of your kind teaching and earnest consideration for our spiritual welfare, by offering, on the occasion of your approaching marriage, and also of your regretted departure from our midst, a small token of our esteem and regard for you and yours. Wishing you all happiness and prosperity in your future life and new field of labour we are most respectfully yours sincerely, the members of St. Agatha's Guild."

The Rector and Mrs. Cayley's parting gift to Mr. Lowe was a pocket Communion Service of silver and silver gilt.
