respects. We have now three big features to attract visitors to Toronto during the season. These are the Horse Show in April, the races in May, and the Exhibition in September. It would be a capital idea for some new attraction to be added as a permanent feature for the midsummer months. During June, July and August there is very little going on, except baseball, lacrosse and excursions.

There is room for some enterprising individual to devise an attraction that will take the place in mid-summer of the races or Horse Show in spring, or the Exhibition in autumn. Such an attraction ought to be a permanent feature, so that it will increase in popularity from year to year. Just as the other features above referred to have every year found increasing favor.

THE SMALLPOX VISITATION. The smallpox continues to enlarge its sphere of action in Ontario. An outbreak is liable to occur at any time in almost any part of the province. Fortunately, the disease is not of a very fatal type, but it is sufficiently dangerous to warrant the utmost care on our part looking towards its prevention. We have been faced with a few epidemics in recent years that we seem to have grown indifferent to the danger thereto. Smallpox, cholera and such like horrors of by-gone days no longer seem to frighten us. We fondly imagine that our improv- ed, twentieth-century sanitation renders us immune from plagues of all kinds. But it is just possible we may be taking too much for granted. It is time the pro- vince faced this smallpox visitation in earnest. It ought to be easier to stamp out the disease now than later, on when it has had too many iron in the water to overcome. We fondly imagine that our improved, twentieth-century sanitation is the best way. The medical profession have a duty to perform in this regard. Smallpox and typhoid fever appear to be rather common in different parts of the town.

The members of Stanley Lodge, A.F. and A.M., have been summoned for an emer- gency meeting on Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Brigadier-General Sir C.P.H. Gillmor, who was a member of Occident Lodge, Toronto, and the Worshipful Master and officers of this Lodge, along with the members of Stanley Lodge, attended the lodges and concert took place in the dining-room smoking, when the attention of his granddaughter was attracted by loud cries for help. She hurried to the room, and found the old man lying on the floor, with his hands clasped behind his head, and his feet in the air. He had been sitting burning. She immediately gave the alarm, but death had already overtaken him. Eighty-four years old, he had been a member of the Lodge for many years.

The house portion of the postoffice is under quarantine for diphtheria, and Postmaster Kirkwood will reside elsewhere until the malady is stamped out. Diphtheria and typhoid fever appear to be rather common in different parts of the town.

The only contested case at the Weston Divisional Court yesterday was that of Mrs. Wilkinson against Mr. B. G. Heron, a solicitor. The defendant, Mr. Heron, was a resident of Weston. The plaintiff, Mrs. Wilkinson, was a widow, and the defendant was her son. The trial was adjourned to a later meeting of the court.

STOCK MARKETS OF A WEEK

Items of Saturday's New York Bank Statement.

Drift of Values on Wall Street and at Toronto and Montreal During the Past Few Days—Money Rates and Market Situation.

World Office.

Saturday Evening, April 27.

The features on the Canadian stock market this week have been the advances in Canadian railway issues, bank stocks and Rieliches. The fluctuations in Dominion Cotton, Grand Trunk and C.P.R. have been sharply in sympathy with the strength of American railway stocks on Wall-street, and Rieliches has been run up half a score of points on the prospect of a big season, owing to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, which will bring in a large number of tourists.

In the three stocks there certain properties with a greater burden of interest charges than they would be able at all times to support. If, on the other hand, the volume of trade and railway earnings will not be seriously diminished for a long time to come, it is easy to see that the same basic principles which lie ahead from closer ownership and operation of the rail-way system.

Hard on Backed Share.

New York, April 25.—Collector Charles H. Treat of this Internal Revenue district said that the special revenue branch of his department is investigating the law amending the War Revenue Act, which he believes will effect what is to be done in the case of the Canadian railways, in that large funds will be necessary to buy back and deliver the goods, need be.

"Several of the shops have been closed, I understand, and the Canadian railways, the wealthy firms will continue to survive, for customers who would furnish evidence of their right to do so. So far, however, we have not made a deal. So that this way is the only way to go."

The operators, who heretofore have been able to do without."

Railroad Earnings.

Railroad earnings for the first half of April showed some improvement over the preceding year, though the average income per ton-mile was still below that of the United States roads, according to the first half of the month are $15,248,394, a gain of 7.8 per cent. over the corresponding period last year.

The grain movement on Western roads, particularly of corn, is unusually heavy, and the grain traffic is quite up to shipping points. On Central Western, Southern and Pacific roads earnings are still considerably above those of last year. Very large gains are reported in the forthcoming bank statements and dividends. Toronto Railways have been making a considerable profit, and government and Dominion Steel company is up a point, while the preferred stock is steady.

During the week, the Royal Electric and Montreal Gas touched 25 cents, while each had a gain of 2½ cents, and the former, after a dip, and Centre Star fell to 30. The air is full of adverse stories about the financial condition of the gas companies, and the purchase of the Trail announced.

CALLAHAN IS A FREE MAN

The Alleged Kidnapper of Young Edward Cudahy at Omaha Prov-ed an Alibi.

LITTLE GIRL HAD HEARD OF CROWE.

Callahan Said He Spent the Fatal Afternoon at Home and in a Saloon.

Omaha, Neb., April 27.—An alibi was offered when the defence opened to-day in the trial of James Callahan, accused of participation in the kidnapping of Eddie Cudahy.

Charles McDonald, a neighbor of Callahan, related a conversation he claimed to have held with the defendant on the afternoon of the kidnapping. Dec. 18. At the moment the abduction was taking place, McDonald said, he saw the porch in company with Callahan, at Mrs. Kelly's, the defendant's boarding house.

McDonald said he and Callahan were together between the hours of 3:30 and 5 o'clock. McDonald remembered the date because it was the 20th birthday of his son.

On cross-examination he admitted having recently told two detectives that he was not quite sure whether it was Dec. 18 or the day after second that he had seen Callahan. His little daughter of the preceding witness, proved an unfortunate witness for the defence.

When asked if it really happened to the end there is nothing to the best of my knowledge that the sugar duty is not the slightest chance of the sugar duty being abandoned.

At the opening of the afternoon session Callahan testified in his own behalf. His story was that he had been all day in the office of the State. He said he spent the afternoon of Dec. 18 at home, and in the evening played cards at a saloon.

CALLAHAN AGAIN ARRESTED.

Judge Discharged Jury "Without the Compliments of the Court."

Omaha, Neb., April 28.—James Callahan was declared not guilty to-day of any complicity in the kidnapping of Eddie Cudahy, who was arrested after 9 o'clock this morning by the jury reported.

Judge Baker had evidently been expecting another verdict, and was openly dis-

"It is impossible for me to understand," he said, "how 12 intelligent men could have agreed upon such a verdict after listening to the testimony. The defendant could not have chosen more wisely if he had been selecting his own representatives, and the community could not have made a more unfortunate selection. This jury is discharged without the compliments of the court."

Callahan's attorneys were not present, and the defendant expressed a desire to thank the jury in his own behalf. His wife did not deserve such thanks.

At Once Re-Arrested.

Two more counts still exist against Callahan, and he was at once re-arrested under those. There was no doubt, however, that he would bring the cases to trial. Chief of Police Donohue announced that $5000 offered for the apprehension of Patrick Cudahy will be withdrawn. He says the police will arrest the culprit and another to convict him. The reward of $5000 offered jointly by the city and Edward Cudahy, however, will still remain in force, as far as he can be ascertained from the jurymen, there was at no time any serious difference as to the opinion of Callahan's innocence.

CARNEGIE WORKED FOR HIM.

James Douglas Reid, "the Father of the Telegraph," is Dead.

New York, April 28.—James Douglas Reid, known to telegraphers throughout the country as "the father of the telegraph," died this afternoon at his residence in this city. He has been ill for many weeks.

James Douglas Reid was born at Edinburgh, Scotland, March 22, 1819, and came to America in 1834. His entrance into the telegraphic service was in 1846, when he was engaged by the Atlantic and Ohio Telegraph Company in the construction of a series of lines connecting Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Detroit, Cincinnati, St. Louis, and New Orleans, the most extensive series projected at that time. He was appointed to the United States Consul at Dumbarton, Scotland, thru the influence of Andrew Carnegie, who as a boy had served as messenger and telegraphic operator under Mr. Reid at Pittsburg. He relinquished this office in 1852.

Callahan Mill, Four Store Houses and Half a Million Feet of Lumber Destroyed.

Syracuse, N.Y., April 28.—A fire at the timber, engine house and boiler house of the Dorothy Coal and Coke plant of the American Steel and Wire Company is a smouldering mass of ruins and it is rumored that either four or six miners have lost their lives. The loss is estimated at $150,000. Two hundred and twenty-four miners were suffocated while assisting in the work of rescue.

Five miners are known to have been in the mine at the time, but they knew nothing of the fire until 12 men descended the air shaft, which are 200 feet deep, and found them at the bottom of the shaft, and these have undoubtedly perished from the flames. The fire will cause over 400 miners to be thrown out of work. Pitman's capital is mostly interested in the concern.

SAVINGS BANK IN TROUBLE.

Westerv. R. L. Conner, Will Not, It is Said, Open Up for Business This Morning.

Westerv. Rhode Island, April 28.—The Mechanics' Savings Bank of this town will not open up for business Monday morning.

Later this afternoon E. B. Post issued note that owing to the doubtful value of some of the bank's assets the trustees had decided to close the bank. One of the depositors, that the bank go into liquidation, and that, pending the granting of the authority, the bank would not pay out.

This action came as a great surprise to the town, and naturally great excitement prevails among small depositors.

The estimated amount of the assets is something less than a million, the securities their face values something less than $1,100,000, and the total of the depositors about 2000. The largest amount of any one depositor is about $12,000. Many of the securities are western investments, which are now known to have decreased in value year by year.

BRITISH BUDGET LIKELY TO PASS SAYS A LONDON CORRESPONDENT

The Coal Duty Declared Not to be Unpopular—Sugar Duty a Legitimate Way of Raising Money For the War—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach Liked by Liberals.

New York, April 28.—The Herald's European edition publishes the following from its correspondent in London, Mr. Michael Hicks-Beach:

The budget is still the one subject of political conversation.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, while refusing to withdraw the duty of a ton upon export coal, promised a tax upon export coal contracts already concluded would be carried out before a date not yet fixed.

This will, of course, to some extent, upset calculations for the year, but if the intended duty shall be permanent, that may be regarded as a comparatively trivial matter.

The economic objection to this is serious. Duties on exported articles were deliberately abandoned by the Government of Sir Robert Peel in 1845. Nearly 30 years afterwards, in 1873, when Mr. Gladstone was Prime Minister, a Select Committee of the Commons reported against them. They are distinctly protective so far as they favor the home at the expense of foreign trade. Free traders know that commercial exchange with other countries gives just as much employment to native labor as the production of articles consumed within the United Kingdom. Indeed, it often gives more, because it helps to direct capital into the most profitable channels.

Budget Likely to Go Through.

The budget is not unpopular. The coal duty is the only one that has been received by members of Parliament from their constituents, the most unpopular part of the budget is the extra two pence a ton.

The budget is not unpopular just that it was carried in the House of Commons by a majority of four to one.

It is not popular, however, unless it is without delay. Sugar has been free for more than a quarter of a century, the entire free breakfast tax may be for the present out of the question.

The budget can only be justified by urgent necessity.

Income Tax Increase Most Attacked

Judging from the letters in the papers received by the Opposition, it is not in the least popular. The budget is the only one that has been received by members of Parliament from their constituents, the most unpopular part of the budget is the extra two pence a ton.
