FIERCE ACTION CONTINUES ON ROMANIAN LINE

Russians Take Up New Positions Near Braila—Beat Off Foes.

ENEMY ENTRENCHES

Allies Continue to Hold Steadily on Moldavian Mountain Frontier.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Jan. 1.—The Teutonic forces continue their attacks in Rumania, and under their insistent battering both the Russians and Rumanians were pressed back a little distance, according to an official report issued at Petrograd today.

The Germans, after being beaten back by the Russian rifle fire in the Comanula region, 10 miles west of Braila, have begun to entrench themselves in positions 800 to 1000 feet from the Russian line.

The Rumanians, who were holding lines near the sources of the River Rimna, were pressed back under the weight of the Teuton onset, as far as the region of Patrouani, 14 miles west of Fokshany.

In the region of Fokshany, and farther to the southeast, down to the Danube, the Russian forces have taken up new positions in a night withdrawal, without being molested by the enemy.

The following morning the Teutons began to launch attacks on the Buziu River, and along the Suceu-Braila Railway, but their efforts were frustrated by the Russian rifle and artillery fire.

On the Moldavian frontier the Russians have held up the advance of the enemy.

About 23 battalions of the foe attacked the Russian center and pressed it back to the next line of defenses in the Dobruja.

Berlin Makes Big Claims. A Berlin despatch says: On the Moldavian front yesterday the Austro-Germans captured 2488 rifles and 100 machine guns.

Paris, January 1, 5:58 p.m.—The reply of the entente allies to the peace note of President Wilson will follow the same course as the answer to the central powers.

Great Britain and France already have agreed on the draft, which has been submitted to the other members of the entente and on their approval will be handed to the American ambassador, William G. Sharp, in Paris.

The original draft, like the reply to the central powers, will be written by the French authorities after consultation with the allies of France.

LOSSES OF BRITISH NOTABLY LESSEN

Reported Casualties in December Total Thirty-Seven Thousand.

DROP FROM SOMME

Cessation of Offensive Brings Considerable Diminution in Figures.

London, Jan. 1.—The total of British casualties reported in the published lists from Dec. 1 to Dec 31 was: Officers, 815; men, 36,350. No lists were published during the holidays.

The effect of cessation of the Somme offensive with the advent of unfavorable weather conditions is shown in these figures, which give a daily average of 3548 casualties for the 24 days covered by the report. In November the daily average was 2488 and in October 3152. The losses reported in December bring up the total British casualties since the beginning of the Somme offensive to 520,917.

Called on the Soldiers.

The premier, with Mrs. Hearst, visited the convalescent home on College street and that at old Knox College on Spadina avenue yesterday. They were received in the former by Capt. Hughes and in the latter by Captain Ogden. They took the occasion to wish the inmates of the home the compliments of the season.

This Rumanian campaign affords the allies an object lesson on the relatively greater importance of superior munitionment than of superior infantry numbers in modern war, for until the present Rumanian and Russian forces, the fully equal in physique and valor, have been compelled to retire before a superior munitioned, but a numerically inferior, enemy.

Towards the time for suspending the Somme offensive the Germans were so short of men for their armies that they were compelled to reduce the infantry of their divisions from twelve to eight battalions, but they maintained the same number of guns per weakened division as formerly. Thus they increased their gun power per infantryman by fifty per cent. They attacked the Rumanians with lesser numbers, and they have so far in this cam-

CRITICISM IN BRUCE REPORT NOT JUSTIFIED

Canadian Sick and Wounded Well Cared for Say Investigators.

SEGREGATION OPPOSED

Treatment of Canadians in British Hospitals Works Out Well.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, Jan. 1.—George Perley, minister of militia overseas, handed the Canadian Associated Press today a report of the board of inquiry into the Canadian medical services. Surgeon-General Bapiste was president and other members were Col. Ashton, commandant of the Canadian division at Shorncliffe; Col. J. T. Fotheringham, Col. A. E. Ross, and Lieut.-Col. J. M. Elder. The board was thus composed of eminent officers of wide experience and the highest professional standing, who had actual experience and intimate personal knowledge of the requirements of the medical service board. They sat continuously for four weeks hearing evidence and visiting a number of hospitals that were the subject of criticism in the Bruce report. The evidence of both Col. Bruce and Surgeon-General Bapiste was taken at great length as well as that of Surgeon-General Dunroven, chief medical officer at Southampton; Lord Chilton, director of the V. A. D. hospitals in Kent; and a number of prominent officials of the war office.

Anxiety Dispelled. The people of Canada will above all be much pleased and relieved to know that the board, relying on its own observations and the evidence before it, is abundantly satisfied that the Canadian sick and wounded have been thoroughly well cared for. The report agrees that large numbers of soldiers continue to come from Canada who are unfit for active service. This is to some extent inevitable under the circumstances of missing the Canadian force and was partly due to the inexperience of the examining medical officers.

London, Jan. 1.—It is officially announced that Earl Granville, counselor of the British Embassy in Paris, has been appointed representative of the British Government to the provisional government of Eleutherios Venizelos at Salonica with the title of diplomatic agent.

GALT CUSTOMS RETURNS LESS.

Special to The Toronto World. Galt, Jan. 1.—Galt customs returns for December show a decrease of $10,000, which is accounted for by less wool being imported and short-ages of bituminous coal. During December, 1916, customs returns totaled $52,085.10 in comparison with $61,788.09 for the same month in 1915; decrease of $9,702.99.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAYS EVENTS REVIEWED

HEAVY fighting still proceeds in central Rumania, and a decision one way or the other has not yet been gained by the contestants. For the first time since they have penetrated into Rumania the Teutons showed signs of halting their retreat when they began to entrench 800 to 1,000 feet in front of the Russian lines before Fokshany. This action of the enemy followed his repulse from new positions occupied the previous night by the Russians, from a point 12 1/2 miles west of Fokshany to the Danube. This last withdrawal was conducted without pressure from the foe, and this fact shows that his men are beginning to show signs of exhaustion from the tremendous and prolonged struggle. In other sections of the Rumanian front north of the Danube the Teutons have been either unable to make further impressions on the Russians and Rumanians, or their gains have been so slight as to make them cost in men away out of proportion to their value.

This Rumanian campaign affords the allies an object lesson on the relatively greater importance of superior munitionment than of superior infantry numbers in modern war, for until the present Rumanian and Russian forces, the fully equal in physique and valor, have been compelled to retire before a superior munitioned, but a numerically inferior, enemy. Towards the time for suspending the Somme offensive the Germans were so short of men for their armies that they were compelled to reduce the infantry of their divisions from twelve to eight battalions, but they maintained the same number of guns per weakened division as formerly. ALLIES' FLAT REFUSAL DEPLORED BY BERLIN

Hypocritical Concern for Suffering Neutrals is Professed by Enemy.

Berlin, Jan. 1, via Sayville.—"The text of the entente note replying to the peace offer of the central powers," says the semi-official Overseas News Agency, "reached Berlin as transmitted from Paris by the Havas News Agency. The general impression here is—If this version is correct—that the entente answer to the peace offer is not only unimpressive, but also, in many respects, a flat refusal to end the war. This is especially regretted for the sake of the neutral countries suffering from the consequences of the war. It is pointed out that the entente note mentions the right of nationalities, also one of the avowed war purposes of the entente is the conquest of Constantinople and the straits."

BRITONS OPEN YEAR BY DONNING KHAKI

Thousands of Men of Military Age Are Called to Colors.

NEW FARES IN FORCE

Bakers, Except in Scotland, Commence to Make Standard Bread.

London, Jan. 1.—New Year's Day was eventful in the lives of many Britons. Thousands of men of military age who had been granted temporary leave from their homes for the purpose of other arrangements for the carrying on of their business were called to the colors, while others who had been doing work of national importance and whose places have now been taken by women or by men over the military age, donned khaki for the first time.

There was a rush at all the recruiting offices and all day long columns of men, after having complied with the formalities, were marched off to the depots to commence training.

The new railway time-tables and fares also came into effect. Numerous trains were cancelled, stations were closed and travellers were called upon to pay a 50 per cent. increase in fares.

Except in Scotland, where there is another week's supply of white flour, bakers today, under the new order of things, started to bake excessively whole wheat or standard bread.

KING GEORGE TOUCHED BY CANADA'S MESSAGE

His Majesty Hopes for Triumphant Outcome Before Year Ends.

Ottawa, Jan. 1.—The following message from His Majesty the King was received by the governor-general tonight: "I thank you warmly for the message you have conveyed to me on behalf of the Dominion of Canada. It is with the fullest confidence in the ultimate success of our great struggle that I heartily reciprocate the hopes of the Canadian people that our victory will secure an abiding peace to my whole empire. I am deeply sensible of Canadian self-sacrifice and firm resolution to crown the success of the allied arms for the sake of the world, and pray that the new year will prove the vindication of our righteous cause."

Riot and Bloodshed in Kitchener When Election Results Are Known

Citizens' League, Which Does Not Favor the Name of Kitchener, But Wants to Go Back to Berlin, Elects Mayor and Fifteen Aldermen—Crowd wrecks Newspaper Office and Injures Spectators—Insult to British Flag Starts Riot—Martial Law Proclaimed and Militia Called Out.

Special to The Toronto World. Kitchener, Jan. 1.—Riot, bloodshed, and the wrecking of The News-Record office figured in the elections here today when David Gross, Jr., for mayor and 15 aldermanic candidates representing the Citizens' League defeated the British League candidates for the majority and city council by decisive majorities. The election was the most sensational in the history of the city. The issue was fought on the question of endorsing the aldermen of the city council who favored the recent bylaw to change the name of the city. These aldermen were all defeated with the other candidates of the British League. At about nine o'clock, when news of the returns indicated a victory for the Citizens' League, which has been dubbed the "Pro-German League," a crowd started down King street towards the News-Record office, which supported the Citizens' League, carrying the Union Jack before them. In front of the News-Record office the flag started the riot. H. M. Bowman, one of the Citizens' League candidates for the city council, who was in the News-Record office at the time, was hit on the head by a chair and perhaps fatally injured.

The rioters rushed into the office of composing room, completely wrecking the printing plant. The riot was finally quelled by the arrival of 200 men from the 122nd Battalion, the law being immediately established. W. T. Sasse, J. Schwartz, W. V. Utsey and G. Zettie, Light commissionaires, Citizens' League candidates, self against the rioters, was hit on the head and badly bruised. The News-Record office front has been smashed in. The large plate glass window in the front has been broken and the furniture in the office demolished. Foundry street, between Queen and Front streets, has been cleared by the soldiers of the 122nd Battalion, who, with fixed bayonets, are holding sections. There were no arrests made in connection with the riot. The military police are now guarding the home of the new mayor and also the Dominion button manufacturers, which he is connected.

Those elected are: Mayor, D. Gross, Jr.; City council: A. L. Biter, H. M. Bowman, S. Brubacher, Dr. Campbell, S. Goffin, H. H. Kuehnberg, W. J. J. McKay, E. E. Ratz, J. Reilly, W. T. Sasse, J. Schwartz, W. V. Utsey and G. Zettie. Light commissionaires: O. Krantz, A. R. Lang, Water commissionaires: J. C. Brethaupt, P. G. School trustees: G. M. Debus, A. Poquegnat and E. D. Lang.

Radial Bylaw is Defeated There and in Two or Three Minor Places—Power Bylaws Carried All Over the Province.

With one outstanding exception, that of Hamilton, the hydro radial project was endorsed by the municipalities yesterday. In St. Catharines, where there had been marked opposition, the bylaw was carried by 700 majority. One or two other places, such as Nelson Township, also went against the project. The majority, however, voted enthusiastically for the scheme.

In the southern part of the province, where a power bylaw similar to that put to the vote of the citizens of Toronto as to whether the people favored the municipalizing of the Chippawa Creek development scheme, the only important opposition came from Goderich. Most of the municipalities voted up majorities similar to that of Toronto. Even Hamilton supported it.

The northern municipalities without a single exception favored by large majorities the hydro scheme in large parts of the country. Collingwood rolled up a 400 and 400, and other places in that district, Barrie, Midland, Penetang, etc., were equally emphatic.

HAMILTON DEFEATS BYLAW. Bitter Fight Against Sir Adam Beck Results in Adverse Majority.

By Staff Reporter. Hamilton, Jan. 2.—Hamiltonians turned down the hydro radial bylaw, which called for an expenditure of $6,000,000, with a view towards linking up Toronto with Niagara Falls, via Hamilton and St. Catharines, owing to the fact that the returns on the sale being tabulated no official figures could be obtained, the city returning officers stated that the Sir Adam Beck's scheme had not been passed by a majority of about 600. The result was a surprise, owing to the fact that great enthusiasm had been shown at all meetings held by the hydro commission last week. It was property, however, the vote and the well advertised threat that if the bylaw passed the householders would be obliged to mortgage their homes to accomplish the project. The board of trade conducted a very aggressive campaign against the bylaw, and carried a huge advertisement daily in the press.

May Vote Again. In the surrounding vicinity the result was the opposite, as the majority of the towns and villages endorsed the scheme. It is likely that the bylaw will be again discussed by the council, and by the people, as no vote upon, as even the most ardent opponents of the scheme state that it would have passed if the particulars had been given to the ratepayers earlier.

The question as to whether the government should go forward with the Chippawa Creek development scheme, which was a substantial majority, the like of the hydro radial bylaw, no official figures could be obtained, as no wait the majority was. By voting in favor of the scheme the government will spend $15,000,000, but the profits will go to the municipalities.

FOUGHT FOR HYDRO. Strenuous Contest at St. Catharines, But Opposition Loss.

Special to The Toronto World. St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 1.—In the most strenuous contest in many years, St. Catharines ratepayers today passed a hydro radial bylaw by a majority of 655, and incidentally elected a council for next year the greater portion of whom stand first as hydro radial advocates. Among the defeated is Aid. Thos. Nicholson, who took the platform against the Ontario Hydro-Electric Union officials at the first meeting a month ago, and led the council of 1916 into defeating the second reading of the bylaw, and preventing until the last minute submission of the question to the council. Thos. Nihan, who presided at the second meeting here, and out short the speaking time of Sir Adam Beck, was also left at home, and elected in their places were two new men pledged to hydro radials.

The result of the aldermanic contest was as follows: W. Westwood, F. W. Sardin, Joseph Tracey, D. W. Budge, M. Gibson, Jacob Smith, J. A. Wiley, Louis C. Gray, W. W. Park.

NEW YORK'S HOLIDAY COMPARATIVELY "DRY"
 Mayor Mitchel's Orders Put Damper on Prolonged Celebration.
MESSAGE TO WILSON
 Mass Meeting Praises President's Move to Restore Peace.
 New York, Jan. 1.—When the chimes of "Old Trinity" heralded the coming of 1917 at midnight, New York greeted the announcement with its usual carnival of noise, but it was the driest New Year's ever the city had seen in many years. In the face of Mayor Mitchel's threat to revoke the licenses of those who disobeyed his orders, revelry ceased in hotels and restaurants promptly at 1 o'clock, an hour after the new year made its bow to the waiting world. In recompense for the curtailing of their liberties last night, New Yorkers will be permitted to drink to the health of 1917 until 3 a.m. tonight.
 But the mayor placed no ban on a boisterous demonstration last midnight. The sirens of river craft joined in the chorus of church bells as the hour struck. Countless thousands in the streets added to the din with horns and cowbells.
 Orders Given Police.
 The celebration began earlier than usual because the police were given rigid orders to see that there were no violations of the law in respect to the observance of Sunday. Patrolmen were stationed every 25 feet in Broadway, from 34th street to 58th street. There were no vacant seats either in the restaurants famous along the Manchester Guardian Takes Exception to So-Called Emotional Appeals.

TRANSLATION IS POOR
 Postscript is, However, Described as Strong, Clear and Convincing.
 London, Jan. 1.—The hope is expressed by The Manchester Guardian that the forthcoming note of the contents to President Wilson will be written by a different hand and in a different spirit from the reply of the allies to Germany.
 "Several things must be remembered in extension of the poor quality and poorer expression of the allies' reply to Germany," says The Guardian. "Obviously it is not a good translation from the French. Moreover, the French original clearly is not the work of a Frenchman. We should say it is a French rendering of a Russian original, passed without sensible modification in Paris and finally laid down into English in London."
 "Aside from these blemishes, in substance the reply was very much what was expected and inevitable. We venture to think nothing was added to its course by the verbal embellishments with which it was enlarged and weakened. These emotional appeals continue through the note until the postscript, which is strong, clear, different, convincing and obviously by a different hand, dealing specially with Belgium."
 Reply to United States.
 "Nevertheless, we see no reason why, if Germany is willing publicly to state what she is prepared to offer, we

YOUNG ARTIST'S MODEL IS FOUND MURDERED
 Mysterious Tragedy in Apartment House Causes Sensation in Philadelphia.
DISAGREE ON MOTIVE
 Police Are Disinclined to Think Robbery Inspired the Crime.
 Philadelphia, Jan. 1.—Altho a score of detectives are working on the mystery surrounding the murder of Grace Roberts, a young artist's model, in her apartment here, Saturday, no definite clue leading to the identity of her slayer had been found up to an early hour today. The girl's body was found Saturday night by a janitor at the apartment house where she lived. She had been brutally beaten, her skull crushed, apparently with an electric flat iron, and a silk stocking was tied tightly about her neck.
 Despite the fact that there were many evidences of a desperate struggle in the girl's room, other occupants of the apartment house declared they had neither heard nor seen anything unusual on the night the tragedy is believed to have occurred.
 Clothing Found.
 According to Capt. Tate, of the detective bureau, Mrs. Roberts, who was about 28 years old, was a widow. She is said by relatives, Tate declared, to have had several male friends who called upon her at her apartments. A dozen or more photographs of men were found in the room, but whether they had been identified the police decline to say. A man's silk shirt and collar, both blood-stained, were found in a closet in the room. The

DISAGREE ON MOTIVE.
 The young woman was last seen alive by acquaintances at the Esplanade hotel last Thursday. Jessie Colbert, a sister, who lives in West Philadelphia, went to call on her Saturday night, and when she received no response to her summons she called the janitor. The janitor climbed in a window and found the girl dead. Miss Colbert advanced the theory of robbery as the motive of the crime, but in this the police disagree. Valuable jewelry and a small sum of money, the detectives say, were found in her room.
 A maid of the Roberts woman, who disappeared shortly after the murder was discovered, is being sought by the police. They hope that she may be able to throw some light upon the mystery.

CRITICISMS MADE ARE NOT JUSTIFIED

In some instances the opinions of these officers were ignored by commanding officers. Until recently there was no adjutant-general's branch of the staff in England to which this subject appertains, but the opinion of the board is that in the absence of such a branch it was the duty of the director of medical services to represent to the authorities that a large number of unit men were arriving in England.

The board states that in some of the opinions expressed by Col. Bruce there was a lack of intimate knowledge of army organization and the inter-relationship of the various branches of the service, and that in some of his criticisms he failed to make allowance for the sudden expansion of the army. It states that such imperfections as have existed are rapidly being remedied. In no war in history has sickness been so well controlled or the sick and wounded as well cared for.

Separation Inadvisable. It disagrees with Col. Bruce's criticisms and recommendations, except in one or two minor instances, particularly with reference to the concentration of Canadian sick and wounded in Canadian hospitals.

Unfair Criticisms. As to the allegation of unfairness among officers selected for commissions in the Canadian Medical Corps, Col. Bruce added what must have been within his knowledge that the proportion of undesirable in the corps is as low as any in the service.

Restore Hospital Plan. In Dr. Bruce's report a return to the policy of Canadian hospitals for sick and wounded is advocated. There is much to be said on both sides, but the board, after very careful consideration, has come to the conclusion that the policy therein recommended is not only unwise but impracticable.

Cost Not Obstacle. Although these questions have been considered on a money basis, the board believes that if it could be established that the Canadian soldier suffered from being treated in imperial hospitals the Canadian Government would not consider the cost in any way, but there is ample evidence in Canadian soldiers' diaries that the British soldier is not treated in imperial hospitals.

Medical Corps' Services. The board is in profound disagreement with the view that the Canadian Medical Corps personnel should not be associated with the British service in scientific enquiries and other work. On the contrary, it is of opinion that such participation is both desirable and necessary in the best interests of the two services.

The report goes on to say: It would be better if Canadian consultants were appointed to the imperial army instead of being confined to Canadian hospitals.

Referring to the allegation that there have been many errors in diagnosis and treatment, the board is decidedly of the opinion that there is no cause for alarm. Such errors as have come to notice are incidental exigencies of active service and do not prevail to as great an extent as in the ordinary course of practice in civil hospitals.

It will be necessary to increase materially the accommodation in Canadian convalescent hospitals in the United Kingdom. The board recommends provision for regular hospital ships rather than returning invalids by transport.

Regarding V. A. D. hospitals, investigation of the board does not support allegations of inefficiency. The standard of professional efficiency naturally varies, but there is no ground even in the special reports made by Bruce's direction for grave indictment contained in his report that a good deal of the surgery is bad.

Remarks Resented. The comments made in Bruce's report on V.A.D. hospitals have been widely resented. This board is of opinion these structures are unutilized and regrettable. While the board agrees with Bruce that patients would sometimes be more advantageously treated in and more speedily evacuated from large military hospitals, the advantages of the V.A.D. system should not be overlooked.

Medical Corps' Services. The board is in profound disagreement with the view that the Canadian Medical Corps personnel should not be associated with the British service in scientific enquiries and other work.

The Rumanian forces, continuing their heavy attacks, captured several high positions and two towns in the Zablava valley, the war office announced. The Russian and Rumanian counter-attacks were repulsed, defeated, being driven back to positions half way between Rimmik-Sarat and Fokshy. An attack by the enemy pressed back the Rumanians near the source of the River Hinnia and obliged them to retire to the region of Patroanu, 20 versts west of Fokshy."

"In the region of Pokosany and further to the southeast, as far as the River Brant, the enemy took up a new position, the enemy's attack under pressure from the enemy's flank. In the morning the enemy began to attack along the River Buzau and along the Buzau railway. The attack was arrested by our troops, and artillery fire."

"The Russian army attempted an advance in the region of Comanul, 15 versts west of Braha, but was driven back by our rifle fire and entrenched in positions 800 to 1000 feet from our line."

"On the Moldavian frontier the enemy several times attacked the heights northwest of Bekash station, on the River Bekash, a tributary of the Bystritsa. Each time he was repulsed by our fire. In the region of the River Domuk the enemy took the offensive, the river which flows into the north of the brook which flows into the heights of the river. From one of our positions we re-established contact with the enemy's reserves."

"In the valley of the river Tatroch the enemy launched an attack from the heights of the river. He was repulsed with great loss. He was repulsed with great loss. He was repulsed with great loss."

"Simultaneously with this the enemy bombarded the neighborhood of the village of Agnau, southeast of Komtuba, with shells charged with asphyxiating gas. IAN HAY AT MASSEY HALL TONIGHT

Frank Yelgh, who is home for a few days, states that Capt. Ian Hay Bask gave his lecture in Washington recently, filling a large hall both afternoon and evening. He held the closest attention of his audience, and brought frequent applause. Capt. Beth delighted his hearers, for he has a unique way of telling and he tells it well. His talk was bright and full of beautiful humor, and his word-pictures of actual war scenes were graphic and telling. He can predict a treat for all who hear him in Toronto.

NO SECOND NOTE SENT TO NEUTRALS BY U.S. Neither Was Direct Invitation to Co-operate Extended by Wilson. MERELY SUGGESTION No Other Government Knew U. S. Was Contemplating Peace Move.

Washington, Jan. 1.—The United States Government, it was made known here today, sent no second note to neutrals subsequent to the despatch of President Wilson's peace note, but American diplomats at neutral capitals were instructed that in transmitting the peace note they should convey a suggestion that if the neutral governments thought it wise to take action on peace the United States considered the time opportune.

Possible Misunderstanding. While the form of the instructions to the American diplomats transmitting the American note to neutrals was not disclosed, it was learned that the proposal considered the instructions issued to the American diplomats may have made it appear as if the United States was directly urging the co-operation of other neutrals. This idea was based on a note from Spain to the United States, in which the government made of a second communication.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why You Should Never Try to 'Guess' Your Own Ills

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A darky 'divine healer' was recently convicted in a western city of practicing medicine without the requisite knowledge.

'Well, how do you tell the difference between a wart and one of the several varieties of skin cancer?' he asked.

'Well, I understand,' continued the court, 'that skillful health officers and medical specialists paid by the government and therefore with no selfish ends to serve, find it very difficult to tell the difference between a wart and a cancerous growth.'

'You are a doctor, aren't you?' asked the judge. 'You are a doctor, aren't you?' answered the 'divine healer' with pity for the judge's ignorance.

feel refreshed in the morning. What do you advise for me? A.—Be sure pyorrhea is present before treatment is begun. It is treated hygienically with a grain of emetine, but a vaccine injection of streptococcus and streptococcus bacteria is more rational.

Teats, Toronto, Ont.: A.—If you will send me a self-addressed envelope, repeating your query, I will gladly advise you.

Constant Reader, Toronto, Ont.: Q.—Please tell me what will rid my face and neck of the unsightly eruptions. A.—Constipation, anaemia, living in a dark, dingy, hot, dirty room, and digestion difficult are the internal foundations for the eruptions.

T. M. Hamilton, Ont.: Q.—Please tell me what to do for pimples and blackheads. A.—Weakened blood, constipation, anaemia, indoor life and digestion difficulties are the internal foundations for blackheads and pimples.

J. B. Montreal, Que.: Q.—I am a man, 35 years of age, and am in a run-down condition. I am a ledger clerk. I do not like my work and I do not like to meet people.

Again, why should bread be allowed to remain in ventilated hampers on docks, in the streets, and in the houses of the poor? It is a filthy, filthy, filthy thing.

The simple 'water travel' at hand, from submarines, hydroplanes and palatial steamships down to canoes, skiffs and rowing boats, is a puzzle picture that strikes one more as a puzzle picture than an actual scene that I had described to him.

As far as that goes, one who has not travelled would wonder at the variety of canoes in different sections. The openings have been coated, it is necessary to sew them up tightly. They must be absolutely impervious to water or they are useless and as dangerous as a hole that has sprung from the skin, and is left for infection.

Butter and Butter Substitutes

HOUSEHOLD HELPS By ISOBEL BRANDS

If butter is too high, why not cut expense by using some of the many "excellent" butter substitutes? Of course, we desire the best butter for table use, but there is no reason why some good substitutes should not be used in cooking.

As a matter of fact, very often we pay butter prices for so-called butter which is by no means the fresh butter it is represented to be.

Every housewife should read carefully the government bulletin on this subject—"Detection of Oleomargarine and Renowned Butter" by G. E. Patrick of the division of chemistry.

Of course, although many people like the taste of oleomargarine even for the best of table use, it is not necessary to use it through if there is objection to the taste of the product in large quantities.

Another good butter substitute in cooking which we in America still use is the use of olive oil—also other good cooking oils like peanut oil, etc.

Perhaps one of our best steps toward preparedness will be to try to accustom our families to the flavor of butter substitutes for table use.

Over in Russia, where real butter and good fats are almost luxuries, and not within the reach of the vast population, they have an excellent substitute in the shape of flower oil.

Its color is a deep yellow, much like butter—and it is quite odorless and has a mild and very pleasant flavor.

Sunflower oil for cooking purposes was originally used in Mexico—so that it isn't altogether improbable that some day we may add it to our list of butter and fat substitutes.

Speaking of Germans in Australia, the Lokal Anzeiger is proud to know that they are by no means an inconspicuous element in the population.

After some further particulars of the importance of these people in their new home, and of the high position which they enjoy, the Lokal Anzeiger says:

The outbreak of war has been a great boon to the institutions of the German people, and it is a pity that information with regard to their condition has lately been withheld from us.

Why You Should Never Try to 'Guess' Your Own Ills

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A darky 'divine healer' was recently convicted in a western city of practicing medicine without the requisite knowledge.

'Well, how do you tell the difference between a wart and one of the several varieties of skin cancer?' he asked.

'Well, I understand,' continued the court, 'that skillful health officers and medical specialists paid by the government and therefore with no selfish ends to serve, find it very difficult to tell the difference between a wart and a cancerous growth.'

'You are a doctor, aren't you?' asked the judge. 'You are a doctor, aren't you?' answered the 'divine healer' with pity for the judge's ignorance.

WINIFRED BLACK WRITES ABOUT NEW FASHIONS IN FOODS

For many years and never dreamed of even tasting them. I was in France, I walked out one evening to a little French town where I was staying.

They're eating grasshoppers in Ohio—not because they have to, but because they want to. They say that they like them better than mushrooms, frog legs, snails, truffles or any of the queer things we think are good just because they cost a lot of money.

God! said the currier. 'Excuse me! Really? What you mean? They're eating grasshoppers in Ohio—not because they have to, but because they want to.'

How to Obtain and Keep 'Just Right' Figure

No woman can afford to neglect her figure and allow herself to become fat and clumsy or angular and loose-jointed. A supple, graceful figure is an essential asset to good looks.

Choice Spice Cake. One pound of butter should be rubbed into two pounds of flour and a half of a teaspoonful of baking powder and half a teaspoonful each of sage and sweet herbs.

Prune Pudding. After chopping finely three ounces of beef suet into six ounces of fine breadcrumbs, remove the suet from half a pound of prunes.

WASTAGE OF HORSES HAS BEEN TREMENDOUS

Russia Always Had Plenty, But Now Finds Renewal of Supply Difficult

The wastage of horses in war is enormous and is exceedingly serious. The Russian Government prior to the war owned 1,000,000 horses.

These little cakes are made from fermented dough as follows: Half a pound of breadcrumbs, white or brown, five ounces of flour, a quarter of an ounce of bicarbonate of soda.

Queen Cakes. These little cakes are always welcome at the tea table. To make them, cream together three ounces of butter and three ounces of sugar.

INSURANCE COMPANIES HELP. Have Paid Out Millions in Claims and Hundreds of Millions in Treasury Bonds.

Since the beginning of the war British institutions transacting life insurance or annuity business have paid out millions of pounds in claims.

RELIEF NOT NEEDED. According to an official return the number of persons in receipt of relief in England and Wales at the end of last March was 661,048.

TAKE HALF A POUND OF DRY CRUSTS and soak them in water until soft. Drain and squeeze dry, then beat up with a fork. Chop up a large parboiled onion and three ounces of suet finely and add to the bread, together with two ounces of coarse oatmeal, a little salt and pepper, half a teaspoonful of baking powder and half a teaspoonful each of sage and sweet herbs.
