

WORLD POSTER UP GRAND MARKET BY BANK UP OF TRADING

Governor of Kansas Forecasts Restrictive Action If Man- ipulation Is Proved.

BREAK IN WINNIPEG

The wheat markets continue to show lack of stability. In Winnipeg yesterday futures sold 4c to 5c lower, the December option closing at $2.06. The demand was reported extremely poor, and offerings larger. In Chicago, the recessions were smaller, but the closing tone was weak. It now appears that the movement among United States farmers to hold back wheat is losing its strength, and there were sensational reports in Chicago yesterday of offerings of wheat in Nebraska at as low as $1.50 a bushel.

A Topeka, Kansas, despatch last night said: "Governor H. J. Allen announced today that he would propose a law to the next legislature to prohibit trading in grain futures in Kansas if the present investigations of boards of trade prove that the prices of wheat and other farm products have been manipulated."

"The governor declared that the information now on hand indicated that the bucket shops are operating in a large number of cities in Kansas, in violation of the law. "Governor Allen said he is now gathering information to show comparative fluctuations in wheat prices since trading in futures was resumed, with figures for the same period in 1919, when wheat futures were not traded in. This information will be furnished to the legislature with the request of President Wilson, who has ordered investigation of boards of trade.

Charges Manipulation.

"The figures will show," Governor Allen said, "that comparatively small quantities of wheat have been marketed this year, and that the price has risen to a point where it is not the result of natural laws of supply and demand."

An investigation of grain trading in Kansas is under way, according to G. A. Stevens, special agent of the federal trade commission, who arrived here from Washington this afternoon, and was in conference with Governor Allen.

The governor said he understood the federal trade commission was making an investigation of grain trading in all the big midwest grain states.

MEIGHEN DESIRES AID TO INDUSTRIES

country, can you possibly adopt a more restricted principle than that? We do not intend to go further. There is no value whatever in a tariff that does less. I do not see how to find out what is necessary except by the most careful and thorough enquiry that can be made. That is the course the government is pursuing, and before the electors of this country are asked to decide between our course and the vagaries of our various oppositions they will have a definite tariff from us in black and white. By the limits I have defined, by the limits I have clearly set out, that tariff will be constructed.

Awaits Result of Inquiry.

"If I am asked," he continued, "whether it will be possible to have a lower tariff than prevails today, or not, I say that must await the completion of the investigation. For myself, I would hope that in the final result it would be found not to be higher, and perhaps lower than it is now, but I believe the interest of Canadians of every class requires that Canadian industries remain Canadian industries, and that Canadian industries grow with the growth of Canada."

Hot Shot For King.

Mr. Meighen declared that the language of the leader of the opposition on the stump, was "even more reckless than his language in parliament." He defended the government from Mr. King's charges that it had been autocratic in its methods, and asserted that the opposition leader's words on the Grand Trunk bill contained "a glaring example of incomprehensible inexactitude."

No "Avarice of Office."

Reviewing the record of the government, the premier said that as trustees for the people they were proud to account for every day and every hour of the conduct of our trust. "There were seven former members of the government consistently supporting the administration in the house of commons now, and Mr. Meighen claimed this did not indicate that avarice of office" had been the dominating spirit.

Answers "Shipbuilding" Charges.

The premier answered criticisms which he said were made by Mr. King that the government spent in shipbuilding money that was not voted by parliament. Assembling that the government had not passed a single cheque for which parliament's authority had not been given. "The government," he said, "passed in February, 1917, a supplementary bill for five hundred million dollars, out of which $25,000,000 was set aside for building ships. Announcement of this effect was made by Sir Robert Borden in March, 1918, and the bill was passed in the following year of 1919. For the following year $40,000,000 was specifically voted by parliament, and a further sum was voted last session for the same purpose. Every care was taken to get the construction done at the lowest possible cost, but the tender system was not workable, he claimed, as one or two ports would have got the contracts and the work would be distributed thru various firms."

Says Easy to Refuse King.

The premier quoted Mr. King as asserting that the acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway was a "glaring example of autocratic control" and went on to say that parliament had discussed the bill fully and all members had the right to make amendments.

"Whenever the premier summed up," the leader of the opposition, has contended to come down from his ethereal world, and to speak in plain, concrete allegations, he can be refuted in every case just as easily and just as clearly as in the instances I have selected tonight."

Protection Is Needed.

The premier then proceeded to deal with the tariff. There were only two tariff principles, he said, protective and free trade. "I believe the protective principle can be abused," he said. "I certainly believe it can be abused. I believe it has been abused. I believe in places and at times it has been too high, but I don't believe it can be abolished. "If we abandon the principle of protection we will pay a sure and heavy penalty and every class and every industry will be ruined. We do not intend any system of shutting out imports. We must hold the level down to the point where the minimum that will maintain fair, but active competition with industries outside."

Union With Farmers.

"The speaker," declared the premier, "that he was in sympathy with the farmers, and that I am trying to keep them from unity. In the name of common sense, what right has the government to keep them from unity? If the farmers party want to take account of the needs of the country, they ought to get out in the open and say so. "If they want to keep them from unity, they ought to get out in the open and say so. "If they want to keep them from unity, they ought to get out in the open and say so. "If they want to keep them from unity, they ought to get out in the open and say so."

Development Biggest Task.

"The big task of the next few years is the development of the resources of Canada. Constructive plans that bring real results in the development of our resources must be thought out and put under way, and policies consistent with these plans must be pursued. Do not let the east must remain the business centre of even the manufacturing centre of the Dominion territory that has the coal and the ore and the mineral wealth of Canada is bound to become a great industrial land."

Contradict Calder.

Hon. J. C. Calder spoke of the appearance of Mr. Meighen in Winnipeg three years ago in the war election, and asked if the government had not carried out its mandate. There were vociferous cries of "No" from various parts of the hall.

"That," said Mr. Calder, "is a matter which will bear discussion," and declared that from election to the end of the war the government had bent every energy towards its fulfillment. "There were further interruptions, and the chairman asked for a tar and attended hearing. The speaker's request was cheered by the majority of the audience.

Mr. Calder proceeded with his speech in silence. He said there was nothing unique in the abuse which had been heaped upon Canada's government. Such a situation had been general throughout the world.

"We are going to be very long before the people of Canada have a chance of saying what their will is so far as this government is concerned," said Mr. Calder.

There were cheers, and some one said, "We would like to see the speaker in a confession," the speaker continued, "I was what was called a 'Grit of the Grits.' I have not the slightest desire to play the old game. There are some who hint that I have been a traitor to Liberalism and to the cause of the people. It is not the way I see it. I am not a traitor to myself nor to my duty and I am not a traitor to my country."

SPECIAL SQUAD GETS OVER EIGHTY CROCKS

Lewis Marcus Arrested on Charge of Keeping Liquor for Sale.

When they raided the house at 369 Manning avenue last night, Officer Bill Ward and his husky flying squad of liquor chasers made their third arrest since their formation, and incidentally seized over 80 bottles of liquor that Lewis Marcus was keeping for sale. He is held on a charge of illegally keeping liquor for sale.

In addition to his aide-de-camps, Chief Constable and Robert Greenleaf, Ward has gathered around him 12 of a squad, and, despite the fact that the bootleggers are using the utmost discretion in the sale of liquor, Officer Ward is confident that the squad will justify to the fullest extent its formation.

HURT IN COLLISION.

When the auto he was driving east on Gerrard street was struck at Church street by a southbound Winnipeg street car last night, Charles Day, 130 Langley avenue, received injuries to his head and body. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital and is expected to be able to leave the hospital today. The auto was badly smashed.

C. T. Perrin, who is wanted here on a charge of fraud arising out of an unpaid board bill at the Caris-Rite Hotel, was arrested in Hamilton last night for the local police. Detective Sergeant McMahon will leave for Hamilton this morning to bring the man back.

BOY DIES OF INJURIES

CHARGES FLOGGING MEN IN IRELAND

T. P. O'Connor's Accusations in Commons Replied to By Chief Secretary.

London, Oct. 25.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, replying to a question in the house of commons by T. P. O'Connor concerning public charges that servants in the crown were flogging men in Ireland, said he had no convincing evidence of such things taking place, but that he would make inquiries. "Mr. O'Connor had referred to a reported speech of Governor Cox, the democratic presidential candidate in the United States, denouncing flogging in Ireland. Sir Hamar said he had seen the alleged speech, and that Governor Cox obviously had obtained his information from those hostile to the British empire and to Anglo-American relations. The chief secretary added that he did not believe the speech accepted the malignant untruths suggested in Mr. O'Connor's question."

at the bedside and offered up prayers. The priest administered the rites of extreme unction. It is well within the possibilities that the body will be taken to Cork secretly in order to avoid unpleasant results from whatever demonstration might be arranged in England and Ireland as the train bearing the body passes. There is no intimation that any official advocates refusal to send it to Cork.

No Plans Yet Considered.

The home office, in charge of prisoners, which would control the movement of the body in England, said that no plan for the removal of the body had been officially considered. At the Irish office it was declared that no plan had been formulated for the transport of the body to Ireland and that final decision will be made when it is up to Dublin Castle alone. It is within the powers of the home office to prohibit further interruptions, in whatever way is deemed most expedient. It is pointed out that it could legally seal the body to prevent it from being taken out of the way port, and later a government vessel, and deliver it to Cork.

MacSwiney, and deliver it to Cork. "The news of MacSwiney's death spread rapidly throughout the United Kingdom, and immediately begun by the Sinn Fein. Plans, contingent upon government approval, were made to transport the body to St. George's Cathedral, in London, and the Mansion House, in Dublin, and a series of public demonstrations in Cork. Similar plans were made some time ago when it appeared that the lord mayor would be the body to be sent to Cork. The government would not sanction such a plan, and the body was taken out of bed in his Gaiety home and sent to the home of a friend who participated in the funeral in Dublin in 1919.

Date of Trial to Annul Decree Has Been Set for November 27.

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—The action brought by the state of Nevada to set aside the divorce of Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks from her husband, the actor, Mary Pickford, motion picture star, from Owen Moore, also a screen performer and her first husband, has been set on the calendar here for trial November 27. This announcement was made here today by counsel for Mrs. Fairbanks who said that the case would be tried in the Nevada courts, where the divorce was granted. The date for the trial was set twice before, but the action was postponed on each occasion.

Mary Pickford obtained a divorce from Owen Moore at Minden, Nevada, March 3 last. The grounds alleged in the complaint were desertion. The action was brought by the husband, band of the noted screen star. Shortly afterward Miss Pickford married Douglas Fairbanks and, when the news of the divorce was published, Nevada authorities alleged that there had been collusion in arranging the divorce action. On this basis a writ of habeas corpus was granted, and the divorce was annulled. It was also alleged that a screen actress was not a bona-fide resident of Nevada.

HUGHES UNLIKELY TO DIRECT PRISON

Ottawa Sends Word—Deputy Warden Likely to Act During Warden Ponsford's Holiday.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The latest report from Ottawa is that Brigadier-General W. S. Hughes, owing to press of business, may not be able to come to the Portsmouth penitentiary to take over the work of Warden Ponsford, who has been given leave of absence. It is understood that Warden Ponsford's absence will be short. Now that Gen. Hughes cannot come to Kingston, it is likely that the institution during the warden's absence will be in charge of the acting deputy warden. Today for the first time since the strike occurred in the Portsmouth penitentiary, one week ago, the outside gangs were allowed out of the farm and in the quarry. The investigation into the disappearance of government property from the institution is still going on, and Warden Ponsford and some of his officers were in the city today in connection with it.

TRIED IN ITALY FOR NEW YORK CRIME

Extradition of Italian for Murder of Girl in New York Refused.

Bologna, Italy, Oct. 25.—The trial of Aurelio Cocchi for the murder of Ruth Cruger, in New York in 1917, commenced this morning with a recital of the evidence against him. Cocchi took a spirited part in the proceedings, indulging in oratorical flourishes. He argued that no one had denounced him, and that only his words were available against him. Cocchi declared his previous confessions of having committed the crime were made so as to protect his wife. The crime for which Alfredo Cocchi was brought to trial at Bologna, Italy, today, for the second time, was the murder of Ruth Cruger, an 18-year-old student at Wadleigh High School, New York City, February, 1917. The girl visited Cocchi's bicycle shop to have skates sharpened, and never afterward was seen alive. For six months, the police were at a loss to account for her disappearance. At the end of that time, the bottom of the cellar in Cocchi's shop was dug up, and the girl's body discovered. When the search for Miss Cruger's body was directed to his shop, Cocchi, a native of Bologna, fled to his home, where he was arrested in the summer of 1917. He confessed to the murder, and asked only that he not be forced to return to the United States to face the electric chair. Later he accused his wife of the crime.

Accused His Wife. A New York detective was sent to Rome to co-operate with the United States embassy there in an attempt to have Cocchi sent back to the United States. Judge Zuconi of Bologna pointed out, however, that one of the fundamentals of the Italian penal code was a statute forbidding the extradition of Italian subjects charged with crime committed in other countries, and the request for Cocchi's extradition was denied. The first trial of Cocchi, begun in

ARTICLE TEN NOT VITAL TO LEAGUE

President Bourgeois Says It Can Be Eliminated Without Modification.

Brussels, Oct. 25.—Leon Bourgeois, president of the council of the League of Nations, talking to United States newspaper correspondents last night, said that article X of the covenant of the League of Nations is not considered by European statesmen as a vital and essential element of the covenant. M. Bourgeois said he had been surprised that this article X had caused so much emotion in the United States. He declared that article X could be eliminated without in any way modifying the effectiveness of the League of Nations. "Article X," said M. Bourgeois, "is scarcely more than a moral backbone to the covenant. It is not considered so important by Europeans as by Americans. There is really no sanction, or penalty, in this article. All penalties provided for in the covenant in order to make the league's action effective, are in other articles." M. Bourgeois's statement was made in the course of an interview arranged for the correspondents by M. Comert, principal press official of the League of Nations. After M. Bourgeois had withdrawn the question as to the effect of M. Bourgeois's utterances on the presidential election in the United States. It was thereupon mutually agreed to withhold the statement until M. Bourgeois could pass upon it as being issued with the fullest authority and approval. Stands by Interview. M. Bourgeois was seen this morning by the correspondents and explained to them the importance of the remarks and requested M. Bourgeois to say whether he intended them to be published in the United States. M. Bourgeois replied, said M. Comert, that he understood the importance of what he was saying, and was quite willing the interview should be printed. M. Bourgeois, continuing the conversation of last night, and replying to questions regarding the prospect of revision of the covenant by the general assembly of the League of Nations, which meets at Geneva November 15 next, said: "The council of the league, being guardians of the covenant, are of course unable to go before the assembly with any project that alters the covenant. But individual states which are members of the league may, of course, propose such amendments as they see fit."

LABOR-POLITICS ORDER IS RESENTED BY MOORE

Details of Unveiling of Cenotaph and Burial of Unknown Soldier.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—"The workers will look to the government itself for the protection of their rights, to take part in government," said Mr. Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, in an interview last night regarding the order just issued by the president of the Canadian National Railways forbidding employees of that organization from taking part in politics or holding public office. Mr. Moore's opinion is that it is drastic, and a development which cannot go unchallenged.

SOIL FROM FRANCE TO FILL THE GRAVE

Details of Unveiling of Cenotaph and Burial of Unknown Soldier.

London, Oct. 25.—Lord Curzon, minister for foreign affairs and leader of the house of lords, today gave the Canadian Press some details of the arrangements which the government proposes to follow in connection with the unveiling of the cenotaph commemorating the glorious dead in the war, together with the burial of an unknown British soldier in Westminster Abbey on Armistice Day. The body of this soldier will arrive from France on Armistice Day, and no attempt will be made to discover its identity. There will be a long processional route, the pall-bearers being admirals, field marshals and generals. The procession will halt at the cenotaph for the unveiling ceremony by His Majesty the King. Afterwards the procession will proceed to Westminster Abbey, with the King as chief mourner and the princes immediately after the gun carriage on foot. The burial will take place in the nave of the abbey, and it is also proposed that the grave shall be filled with soil from France. Lord Curzon laid stress on the fact that troops from the dominions will be given every opportunity to share in the ceremonies with the home forces. It is proposed that two minutes' silence during the armistice hour shall again be observed throughout the empire.

and Mater City, TORONTO. R. S. Robertson, counsel for anti-Hydro municipalities, opened the afternoon session by calling Mr. Gaby's attention to the London & Port Stanley line. He endeavored to show that this line, by Oct. 31, 1919, owed $23,325 for power, of which $10,000 came from 1918, and that the commission's report did not show it. Mr. Gaby replied that this shortage had been wiped off, and with interest.

In turning to the Toronto-to-Port Credit and Port Credit-to-St. Catharines lines, counsel asked for the original estimates. He sought to show that the Hydro Commission had altered its plans to accommodate its estimates of revenues.

UNION STATION AS A HYDRO TERMINAL?

Chief Engineer Gaby Admits Old Building Might Be Thus Used.

That the present union station might possibly be used as the terminal for Hydro radial lines leading into the city was conceded by F. A. Gaby, chief engineer of the Hydro Commission, at yesterday afternoon's session of the Sutherland commission of enquiry into Hydro radial matters. It was Commissioner McCallum who asked Mr. Gaby if he did not think that the old building would in all probability be utilized for this purpose. In admitting that this might be, Mr. Gaby stated that a subway might also be constructed, and some joint arrangement secured as to connections with the new speed building. It was not early yet to go into this matter, he said.

R. S. Robertson, counsel for anti-Hydro municipalities, opened the afternoon session by calling Mr. Gaby's attention to the London & Port Stanley line. He endeavored to show that this line, by Oct. 31, 1919, owed $23,325 for power, of which $10,000 came from 1918, and that the commission's report did not show it. Mr. Gaby replied that this shortage had been wiped off, and with interest.

In turning to the Toronto-to-Port Credit and Port Credit-to-St. Catharines lines, counsel asked for the original estimates. He sought to show that the Hydro Commission had altered its plans to accommodate its estimates of revenues.

Mr. Gaby replied that it had been decided a better policy to run double tracks to Long Branch, in order to accommodate the greater population which would have become addicted to the riding habit. Mr. Robertson sought to discredit this by asking if it were not a fact that the Hydro had found that not enough shoulders, while town and city people would escape lightly in comparison.

To prove this contention, he brought forward the question of the Hamilton, G. W. & Elmira line. He read out the exhibits the estimate of $4,901,000 as construction cost to the urban municipalities, and $1,628,000 to the townships. The population to be drawn on was estimated as follows:

Urban ... 70,748 87,025 Rural ... 10,543 10,339 Total ... 81,291 97,364 to the rural municipalities, and about $70 in the towns and cities," said Mr. Robertson.

"The construction is mostly in the rural municipalities," replied Mr. Gaby.

"And the most use is from the urban centres," said Mr. Robertson.

"Lancaster, Ontario," Mr. Robertson pointed out had 210 per cent. of the population, but incurred a debt which amounted to $325 a head. "And Lancaster gets an average of one ride a month to Hamilton," he said.

Mr. Gaby disclosed the fact that the Hydro Commission is now negotiating for the acquisition of the Grand Trunk steam line between Kitchener and Galt.

"Has any agreement been reached?" asked Mr. R. S. Robertson, counsel for the non-Hydro municipalities.

"No, we have taken it up with Mr. Howard Kelly, the president of the Grand Trunk," said Mr. Gaby.

Water rates may be paid at the city hall or at the western city building, 502 Keele street. It is strongly urged, in order to avoid crowding and delay, that payment be made at once, and not deferred until the last moment. The presence of many thousands of water rates forwarded by mail will be returned to the sender as speedily as possible, but stamped and addressed "return envelope" must accompany the remittance. Each bill as presented shows the net amount payable. War stamps must be affixed to all cheques.

CAUGHT IN MACHINERY. Brockville, Ont., Oct. 25.—Slipping while oiling machinery in the plant of the Ontario Steel Products Company at Gananogue, Edward Hewitt had one foot caught in the rollers, employed for shaping shovel blades, with the result that it was amputated at the instep. The presence of a minor operator of the machine in stopping it promptly prevented more serious injury.

President J. Black of the Toronto local of the Painters and Decorators' Union addressed a meeting of the Hamilton local over the week-end and explained the functions which are proposed for the new Ontario Painters' Conference. The Hamilton body will take a referendum on the attitude of their members towards the project on Monday next week.

FINED FOR FAILURE TO PAY LUXURY TAX

First Prosecutions Taken in Toronto by the Dominion Government.

First prosecutions made by the Dominion government for non-payment of sales and luxury taxes in Toronto resulted in J. Dimson, 255 Danforth avenue, and A. E. Carter, 316 Danforth avenue, paying $50 and costs each in Magistrate Cohen's court yesterday—the first fines levied in the city for breaches of the war revenue act. Mr. Carter claimed that he had gone down to the inland revenue office last week, had got the proper forms and filled them out, and was quite ready to pay, but had not been summoned in the interval. Mr. Dimson declared that he had asked at the same place how much he owed the government, and no one could or would trouble to tell him. Both men manufacture candy at the rear of their shops and sell over the counter. The taxes unpaid were 10 per cent. "luxury" and 2 per cent. "sales tax" on gross sales for that period.

OPPOSED TO SEARCH OF PRIVATE HOUSES

Justice Kelly Refers to Difficulties of Administering the O. T. A.

Mr. Justice Kelly yesterday dismissed the application by R. H. Greer, former crown attorney on behalf of Hyman Silverman, who was fined $1,000 or three months and thirty days by Magistrate Denison on a charge of having liquor for sale on September 8. Mr. Greer argued that the warrant of commitment did not follow the commitment. His lordship directed an amendment, confirmed the conviction and dismissed the application without costs, but said: "In so doing I am far from expressing approval of the entry and search of accused's dwelling house without a warrant. The O.T.A. is a part of our laws and should be duly observed, but the difficulty which exists in effectively administering the law does not justify the introduction of improper or illegal methods in its enforcement. Unwarranted invasion of the privacy of homes is not to be tolerated even in an endeavor to attain a desirable end. When it becomes necessary or advisable for any legitimate purpose, that officers of the law should enter private homes, practice and the statutes provided the procedure for so doing. The dismissal will therefore be without costs."

FIDELITY MAN DEFINES DEGREES OF HONESTY

J. R. Bland, the president of the company, which makes a business of insuring the honesty of citizens, was present. He refused to make any comparisons on honesty now and honesty before the war, merely repeating that "The people of the world are divided into three classes, those honest, innately; those honest because of policy, and plain crooks."

WIDOW WAS GUILTY OF O. T. A. BREACH

THANKS WORKERS IN NAVY LEAGUE CAMPAIGN

Dr. Cody, chairman of the Toronto campaign committee, Navy League of Canada, extends his warmest and personal thanks for the splendid work accomplished on tag day by the captains and their earnest workers.

The success of the day was very much due to the ladies who acted in an advisory capacity, and who also loaned their motors, not only for the day, but for the delivering of the tags. The organizing of the tag day was done by Mrs. Reynolds of the women's department of the Ontario division of the Navy League.

W. F. HUPP, of Akron, Ohio, who says he would not take one thousand dollars for the good Tanlac has done him. Declares his health has been fully restored and that he has gained over 20 pounds.

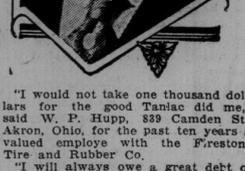

"I would not take one thousand dollars for the good Tanlac did me," said W. F. Hupp, 833 Camden St., Akron, Ohio, for the past ten years a valued employe with the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

"I will always owe a great debt of gratitude to Tanlac," he said, "because it restored my health completely after everything else failed, and I have gained over twenty pounds. I can now eat better, sleep better and work better and I feel like a brand-new man. Before taking Tanlac I suffered night and day from indigestion and my stomach was terribly disordered. I was nervous and weak and could neither eat nor sleep to do any good. It seemed to be going down hill every day for six years. Finally, my condition became so rundown that I lost one or two days from work every week. But, now since my troubles have been overcome, I can hold my own with any man at the plant, and often after working hard all day, I put in overtime at night and feel none the worse from it. I just seem to be full of new life and energy. After seeing the good Tanlac did me, my wife began taking the medicine, and now she says she feels better than she has in years. Tanlac certainly beats anything I ever saw in my life. Tanlac is sold in Toronto by Tamblin drug stores and by an established agency in every town. SUSPECT MURDER AT 'SOO.' Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Foul play is suspected in connection with the death of Charles Dubois, Sault Ste. Marie, who was found in an unconscious condition under a trestle of the Chaudiere bridge on Sunday night, and who died this morning. Death was due to concussion of the brain. An inquest will be held tomorrow.
