Stores Stress Value of Fair-Price Town.

To what extent should retail merchants boost their own town, build its prestige, work in its behalf? And what can such merchants accomplish when they lay aside petty jealousies to offset any temporary buyers' strike, that brings business stagnation?

This question and others have been answered by a remarkable advertising campaign, in newspapers, recently launched by six merchants of Atlants, Ga. The firms in question are: Frank E. Block Co., crackers and candies; Atlanta Plow Co., J. K. Orr. Shoe Co., A. M. Róbinson Co., men's wear; White Provision Co., and Montag Bros., stationers.

Smart little bonnets and hats that every mother will admire, and a big variety to choose from. Among the assortments are infants' bonnets made from dainty crepe-de-chine, corded silk, and pretty combinations of lace and muslin; pique and gingham hats, with button-on crowns; muslin sunbonnets; shirred silk hats for baby boys; and many other kinds equally dainty and attractive. These are selling at remarkable bargain prices. In the millinery salon (second floor) salon (second floor). MENTALLY INFANTS

New York, May 5—Figures show that 61 out of 166 women examined after receiving sentences in Women's Court have the mentality of a child of twelve. This is being used as an argument to urge that prisoners be subject to mental tests before being sentenced.

No pleasanter or worthier task could fall to a Nova Scotia poet than to commemorate in verse "The Old Sea Dogs" that in the last half of the last century sailed from the harbors of Pictou, Halifax, Yarmouth, Shelburne and Lunenburg. Thomas W. Carten, in the following fax, Yarmouth, Shelburne and Lunenburg. Thomas W. Carten, in the following verses, essays a portrait-sketch of Captain Zacharie Surette and adds these interesting facts to give the portrait point. About thirty years ago Captain Surette of Eel Brook, Yarmouth county, then master of a Gloucester fishing vessel, was caught in a storm, with others of a considerable fleet, in the Bay of Fundy, and sought the harbor of Grand Manan for safety. When his craft came to anchor, Capt. Surette observed that one yessel, which he knew to have been in the Bay, had not reached port. He asked his crew for volunteers to put out with him search of the missing vessel. They put to sea under single reef foresail, in the face of a living gale and returned with the entire crew (twenty-one men) of the derelict ship.

For this act Captain Zacharie Surette was presented by the British government with a handsome ship's chronometer, and by the United States government with a pair of marine glasses, suitably engraved. Captain Surette is well known in Halifax, and has relatives living here.

He is believed to have been mentally deranged, having suffered a nervous collapse a year ago. Mrs. Holland rushed from the room calling for a doctor and died where she fell. Holland was found dead when the police broke into the apartment. Friends noted Holland's excited condition on Sunday, but believed he had recovered. FOR LONDON SLUMS. London, May 5.—Blocks of modern flats to accommodate 500 families each, are being built in London slums. They are modelled after the newer type of New York tenement buildings, but are crescent-shaped in order to provide a greater degree of ventilation and light. The flats will be of the self-contained type and accommodation will vary from two to five rooms. There will be bathrooms in every flat. Electric light and gas will also be installed. To make room for these new buildings, which are being built by private enterprise, blocks of century-old hovels are being demolished.

a matter of fact, that was the lest part of it, though it required te patience and perseverance.

Strange as it may seem to many of the millions who have delighted in "Black Beauty" as a great work of fiction, there is not a single act of Black Beauty and the other horses in the book that is not perfectly natural. Many of them are unusual, and such as no horse could be trained to perform at command, spring-ing naturally from combinations of cirunusual, and such as no horse could be trained to perform at command, springing naturally from combinations of circumstances. To catch these, Director David W. Smith and the Vitagraph camera men waited long and patiently. A far more difficult matter was to weave into the motion picture version a strongly dramatic story of human afairs without in any way altering or detracting from the "Story of Black Beauty". The "Indoor Story," of human action and emotion, which Black Beauty did not see and could not grasp, was written with great care and reverent regard for Anna Sewell's immortal work by Mr. and Mrs. George Annalohy Chester. The result is one of the most remarkable productions ever made.

"Black Beauty" was shown at the Imperial Theatre yeasterday to thousands of peeple. It will be concluded today, All the equine characters in the book are retained in the screen version. There is Ginger, the high-spirited chestnut mare whose temper had been spoiled by ill-treatment, and who, fights faerely against brutal treatment by men until sk soothed by kindness and understanding on Squire Gordon's estate, Birtwick Hall, only to have her spirit broken utterly by cruel toil and harsh treatment in later years. SUCCESSFUL WORK

The Women's Missionary Society of St. David's church heard of an encouraging increase in funds having been achieved during the year, when reports were presented at the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Sunday school with Mrs. A. R. Melrose presiding

The total amount raised during the year was about $100. Much sewing was done and about 100 new garments, besides many second-hand article of cloth-sides many second-hand article of clothsides many second-hand article of clothing, were given to the needy in St. John. "Canada's share in the world task" was the book of study and proved very helpful. Several public meetings were held and interesting programmes were enjoyed. Among the special speakers heard were Dr. Schofield, Miss Blackadar and Mrs. Hunter Boyd. In its work for outside missions the society sent a well-filled box to British Guiana and another tightly packed box at Christmas to Miss Murphy for her work at Minto.

NOVELTY SHOWER.

Miss Fay Johnson was greatly surprised last evening when she entered the home of Miss Hilda Webb, $4 Adelaide street, to find about twenty-five of her friends assembled there to tender to her a novelty shower. Miss Johnson received many heautiful and useful and rate of $2 a train mile, or about $30 a train, with a proportion of the cost of pkeep of three stations, based on the traffic carried by the two roads.

Mr. Jones is also planning on taking up with the Prudential Trust Co. here the matter of transfer of an amount of about $300,000, realized from the sale of bonds of the company for construction work, to a trustee of the province, possibly the provincial treasurer. The company contends that as the amount was for the construction of a portion of road which has not yet been built and will not take action until a case now pending in the courts is settled. This is the case which A. R. Gould, president of the former board of directors, brought against the present board, contending that the province had no right to take the road away from the old board. Judgment for the company was rendered by Chief Justice Hazen and his ruling was sustained by the supreme court of the company for characteristics.

miss Fay Johnson was greatly surprised last evening when she entered the home of Miss Hilda Webb, 34 Adelaide street, to find about twenty-five of her friends assembled there to tender to her a novelty shower. Miss Johnson received many beautiful and useful gifts, including cut glass, silver and linen. The evening was spent in mustcand games. A very dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

FAIRVILLE METHODIST W. M. S. of Fairville Methodist Church was held festerday afternoon in the Church parlor with Mrs. Thomas Marshall presiding. As this was the last occasion on which Marshall would officiate at the W. M. S. in Fairville, she expressed her appreciation of the hearty co-operation she had recevied from the membership and wished the local branch all success in the days to come.

It was decided to postpone the opening of the mite boxes. Election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows:—

President, Mrs. Ralph Cameron; 1st vice, Mrs. O. D. Hanson; 2nd vice, Mrs. J. Stout; secretary, Mrs. W. J. Linton; rec. secretary, Mrs. A. THREE NEW PRIESTS.

The R. M. S. P. Chaleur is due to leave Bermuda tomorrow morning for St. John with passengers, mail and general cargo. William Thomson & Co. are the local agents.

Advices from New York say that a moderate amount of chartering was reported during last week, consisting principally of grain carriers to Europe and coal boats to the Mediterranean, the Atlantic Islands and South American ports. The rates paid were about t same as previously quoted, as sufficient tonnage offered to cover all orders. For additional boats for similar business the demand continues moderate, and there are a few scattering orders for boats for cotton, sugar, lumber and other cargo. The supply of available tonnage is ample for requirements and no material change in rates is anticipated. The sailing vessel market was quiet, but there is an increased demand for tonnage for coastwise trading for coal and lumber cargoes. Freights in the long voyage, trans-Attlantic and South American trades are scarce, and the requirements of the West Indian shippers are, as yet, limited. Rates continue low and unsatisfactory, but as the supply of tonnage is abundant no material improvement is anticipated in the near future.

TWO ADRIFT AT

Adrift at sea in fishing dories thirty-seven hours, without food or water, during a heavy fog and driving rain, Claude Parry, aged forty-five, of 81 Lexington street, East Boston, and Frank Laidwell of Providence, had a narrow escape from death Friday and Saturday. The two men, both experienced fishermen, managed to make Peaked Hill bar, off Highland Light, about eight Saturday night, after a hard battle, and the story of their harrowing experience became known yesterday.

Mr. Perry, who has followed the sea since he was eleven years old, told a Globe reporter at his home last night that, although he has been shipwrecked and has had many thrilling adventures at sea, he never suffered such hardships as he and Laidwell encountered between seven Friday morning and eight Saturday night when, just as they began to consider their chances of escape slim, they reached Peaked Hill bar.

BLEACH THE SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard Rothesay St. Davis St. Davis and Waterlook and White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freekle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

No. T. A. Meeting.

New York, May 5.—Predictions of a banner year for harness racing formed the keynote of an address made yesterday by W. H. Gocher, secretary of the National Trotting Association, at the closing session of the annual spring meeting held here by the organization's board of review. He said higher purses board of review denied an application for reinstatement of George Richards of Augusta, Wisconsin, as well as applications for modification of fines imposed last year upon W. R. Fleming of Readville, Mass., and G. M. Coldbath of Presque Isle, Me.

The Gunterville, Ala., Agricultural and Fair Association was suspended for failure to pay premiums at its meet last year.

Fredericton, N. B., May 3.—Perley L. Sinith was suspended by the National Trotting Association as a result of the campaign of Minderidaed a few years ago in Maine. Wederidaed won many races, being started as a green pacer. He was finally sold to parties in Aroostook county and campaigned by them, but was generally started under protest from drivers of other horses. The board of review ordered that before those who had campaigned him could get back into good standing, all the winnings of the horse must be refunded.

Some weeks ago T. V. Monahan of sood standing at the winnings of the horse must be refunded.

Some weeks ago T. V. Monahan of this city, and Driver William Sharen, now in charge of Harry C. Jewett's stable here, received letters suggesting that they should relinquish their claims for refunds of winnings in which Wedendard had heen started against Leila Burns, 2.14½, then owned by Mr. Monahan and campaigned in Sharen's stable, but since sold to Cape Breton parties. It was explained that other horsemen were being asked to take similar action, because Smith, who had acted innocently in the matter, had been kept out of employment and had already suffered seriously. The local men acquiesced, and evidently others did, too, with the result that the instatement of Smith became possible.

hockey is either debarred from it, in order to remain amateur in other sports; becomes pro, and is kept out of, say, amateur rugby; or, what is the really serious part, becomes a "tourist" or accepts payment in one form or another, as an amateur.

It seems to me, therefore, that the A. A. U. of Canada might very profitably reconsider their ruling as to the amateur status, with a view to modification, and I believe the results would justify a more generous interpretation.

Dr. J. B. M. Baxter last evening received a telegram from Hon. R. W. Wigmore sincouncing that it had been decided to allow the fishermen to catch a limited amount of shad this year between May 16 and June 20, inclusive. Shad fishing has been prehibited for some time, but so many requests have been made for permission to fish that about the middle of May and continue until freeze-up.

CULTURE AND PROGRESS OF CZECHO-SLOVAKS

Mrs. T. Hunter Boyd Gives Bright Picture of Life in New Republic — Woman's High Place in Affairs.

When Rev. T. Hunter Boyd and Mrs. Boyd were in Toronto the Globe of that city printed the following very interesting interview with Mrs. Boyd on Czecho-Slovakia and its people:—

To know the character, customs, tribulations, triumphs and dreams of other nations, no matter how remotely situated, is becoming more and more a duty and a privilege, and so, when it was announced that the Rev. T. Hunter Boyd and Mrs. Boyd had arrived in Toronto, many people heard the news with delight, since from them might be learned the true story of conditions in Central Europe.

Assisted Immigrants.

Assisted Immigrants.

Mr. Boyd for some years represented the Canadian Presbyterian church in the Old Land, where, with headquarters in Glasgow, he reported on emigration, and assisted those who were leaving to make their homes in Canada. When emigration ceased he went to London, where he remained during the war and after the armistice, administering to the needs of the men in the Canadian camps. For three years he has been engaged in lecturing on conditions in Central Europe. "For," says Mr. Boyd, "I take a special interest in that district, knowing that in the heart of the enemy country there live 10,000.000 loyal Slavs, who have always utterly repudiated the Central powers."

Accompanying her husband on his travels, Mrs. Boyd also gained an insight into conditions in Europe, and from her The Globe was able to learn something of the republic of Czecho-Slovakia, and of the Festival of Freedom held in the city of Prague last year.

held in the city of Prague last year.

The story of this festival as told by Mrs. Boyd is a fascinating one, and gives an idea of the character of the people of this country. It was held to celebrate the release of Czecho-Slovakia from three hundred years of oppression by the Hapsburgs. To this great celebration many British and American guests were bidden, including Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, who were invited as Canadians, and as representatives of the country where many Czechs and Slavs had found a home.

"From the moment we arrived in their city," said Mrs. Boyo, we were struck by the splendid deportment and courtesy of the people in every walk of life. Although it was the celebration of a great and joyful event there were no boisterous demonstration of feeling, and no signs of license or dissipation. At the time of the festival, Prague had a population of 1,000,000, and 75,000 more came in from the surrounding districts. It was just like an immense picnic, the country people bringing their own provisions and catering for themselves. There was the utmost order, and the management of everything was ideal.

During the ten days that the festival lasted, the streets of Prague were the scene of glorious processions, and Mr. Boyd waxed enthusiastic as she told of Boyd waxed enthusiastic as she told of the day she and her friends sat for four hours watching one of these processions pass by. It was seven miles long, the people marching ten abreast, and was a never-to-be-forgotten spectacle. It in-cluded 20,000 young women, all of whom had been trained in the Sokol Gymnastic Society of the seven seven to be supported by had been trained in the Sokol Gymnastic Society—a great organization, which has for its aim perfect physical development. Peasants from every locality were there also, looking most picturesque in their quaint costumes. Hundreds of yards of ribbon of every hue and width were used as streamers, and flowering lime tree branches were carried by thousands. Flags and banners were everywhere, and magnificent bands inspersed the long line of parade.

Every day this huge procession marched the streets, and at the end of each day there was a historical pageant symbolizing the history of the races and bringing into display all their customs, manners and games of ancient and modern days

A remarkable feature of the festival was that no policemen were necessary to keep the spectators in order.

In view of the recognized need of physical education among Canadians, and of the call for a definite place for it in Canada's national life, Mrs. Boyd's discription of the Cokol Gymnastic Society was most interesting. This organization was founded in February, 1862, in Bohemia, and has been expanded until today there are branches of ft all over the Slav dominions. It differs entirely from military drill, every movement being made to music, and a shouted order never being heard. It is really music made visible.

Fooled the Hapsburgs.

The Hapsburgs regarded the work of this society with great approval and said: "See what fine material we will get here for our army!" Not until it was too late to suppress it, however, did they discover that while the people went for physical training they remained to discuss nationalism.

Children long to join the Sokol, and are admitted at the age of eight. Women participate in this phase of education as freely as men, and one Sokol enthusiast is Dr. Alice Masaryk, daughter of the president of the Republic of Czecho-Slovakia. From eight to twenty-six she belonged to this organization, and today she and all her family are its staunch supporters. Dr. Alice Masaryk, Mrs. Boyd stated, is one of the most brilliant woman of that country, and she and her sister are conspicuous in every forward national movement. Even when incarcerated for nine months by the Austrian government, she did not cease to work for her people, and the the Austrian government, she did not cease to work for her people, and the letters which she penned while in prison make inspiring reading.
