ANARCHIST PLOT; RAID IN NAPLES

"Red" Literature in Several Languages Seized

Many Hungarians and Russians Arrested and Expelled - Italian Anarchists Captured in Congress in Bologna.

Naples, Oct. 22.—The police following evidence of a vast anarchist plot, yesterday searched the houses of many noted extremists and sequestered a large quantity of pamphlets containing anarchist and communist propaganda. The pamphlets were in Russian, Italian, German and English. Some were entitled "Spartacus," "What the Anarchists Want," "The Russian Revolution" and "Bolshevism and a Proletariat Dictatorship."

Many Hungarians and Russians have been arrested and expelled. Most of them had credentials, letters and safe conduct signed by Bela Kun, former communist leader of Hungary, or Russians high in the Soviet councils.

Rome, Oct. 22.—A police raid upon a hall in Bologna where Italian anarchists were holding a congress is reported in a Bologna despatch to the Messagero today. Delegates from all parts of Italy were arrested. All the prisoners, it is said, had large sums of money. This was seized by the police.

Rome, Oct. 22.—A despatch to the Tribuna from Trieste, says violent demonstrations have occurred at Laibach among the people who are opposing the evacuation of Carinthia.

Rome, Oct. 22.—A royal decree allowing the occupation of uncultivated or insufficiently cultivated lands by peasants and annulling any lease of the same land without right to indemnity except for work in the course of reclamation.

Rome, Oct. 22.—Reaction for the purpose of crushing the proletariat is being organized by the bourgeoisie, but it is confuted by the revolutionary organization of the masses throughout the world, says a manifesto addressed to "all workers and peasants" which was printed today in the Avanti, socialist organ.

The manifesto was signed by the socialist party, the anarchist federation, the general federation of labor, the syndicate of railwaymen, the federation of women and the federation of harbor workers.

The manifesto urges the proletariat to intensify the struggle and to perfect preparations for a revolutionary movement, "without impulse, without hesitation, but with promptness and determination."

SEARCH WOODS FOR TWO CONVICTS

Hundred and Fifty Looking for Men Who "Escaped from Sing Sing."

Warner, N. H., Oct. 22.—A stretch of wild, sparsely settled country, beginning with the woods two miles from this village, was the scene today of a stern game of hide and seek between a sheriff's posse and two men believed to be George Stivers and Marcus Bassett, who escaped from Sing Sing prison on Saturday night.

They were seen in the woods last night and shots were fired at them, but they eluded out of sight apparently unscathed. Later they were refused food at two farm houses and then re-entered the forest. Guards were posted to prevent their escape. The sheriff said he would use at least 150 men in the searching party today.

BANDITS SOON LOSE THE LOOT

Stolen $50,000 Recovered, One Robber Killed and Three Are Captured.

Cleveland, Oct. 22.—Three counties were searched by posse today for the remnant of a bandit gang who late yesterday engaged in one of the most spectacular bank robberies in Ohio. Amid valleys of bullets that resembled a machine gun engagement, one bandit, Albert W. Joyce, was killed, and three others, including George "Lugs" Lonsinger, wanted for two murders and numerous robberies, were wounded and captured after eight men held up and robbed the bank of the Cleveland Trust Company at Bedford of $50,000. All the money was recovered.

Two of the captured bandits and the dead one have long criminal records. The fourth man captured refused to reveal his identity.

TO SACKVILLE. Hon. W. F. Roberts, M. D., minister of health, left this morning for Sackville to address a public meeting tonight. He was accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence and Miss Ethel Jarvis, officers of the New Brunswick branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. This afternoon the minister and the ladies hope to confer with the trustees of the hospital to be erected in Sackville. It is expected that William B. Fawcett, who has offered to contribute generously toward the hospital will be in attendance.

Eagerly Await Move By Government in British Coal Strike Situation

Still Seeking Way for a Settlement

Trades Union Congress Calls Conference of Executives of Affiliated Unions - Cabinet in Session - Government Circles Hopeful.

London, Oct. 22.—British labor and the country as a whole waited anxiously today for the government's next move in the deadlock over the coal strike, following the strike ultimatum received by the railwaymen yesterday and an almost equally pointed threat from the transport workers.

The representatives of the National Union of Railwaymen were in session, and it was understood they expected a reply from the premier to a communication they sent him yesterday giving him an ultimatum that the railwaymen would quit work on Sunday at midnight unless by Saturday the strike was settled or negotiations which would effect a settlement had begun. Meanwhile the government and some of the miners' leaders were exploring the ground in an effort to find some basis for an adjustment.

This afternoon it was announced that the parliamentary committee of the Trades Union Congress had called a conference for next Wednesday, of the executives of the affiliated unions to consider methods of helping the miners in their effort to settle the strike.

The conference of the National Union of Railwaymen, it was also announced, decided today to invite the miners' executive to meet the railway conferees tomorrow afternoon. The miners' executive has been summoned to London and will meet tomorrow to consider the railway union's invitation and the general situation.

Robert Williams, general secretary of the Transport Workers, announced in his behalf, with regard to the enrollment of volunteers by the government which has been going on, that the transport workers are in favor of the use of troops.

Consequently, continued the announcement, the transport men are considering the granting of permits, in the event of an extension of the coal strike, by which the appropriate trade unions would provide the necessary food for the community.

Premier Lloyd George and the members of the cabinet were consulting informally but earnestly during the morning in view of finding a channel for a settlement. Opinion generally expressed in government circles was that a definite opportunity would be found before any serious development arose from the threats of the railwaymen and transport workers.

In the house of commons this afternoon, Edward Shortt, the home secretary, gave notice of the presentation of a bill to make exceptional provision for the protection of the community in cases of emergency. The announcement was interpreted by the press as meaning that the measure is intended to bear upon the strike situation.

At a meeting of the executive of the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen today it was decided to defer decision on the question of sympathetic action with the miners until Monday. The society is an important and wealthy section of the railwaymen, distinct from the National Union of Railwaymen and its decision is considered important.

The calling of the meeting of the miners' executive tomorrow is generally believed to presage a possible reopening of negotiations with the government. It is understood the meeting was called on representations of the members of the House of Commons, representing the miners.

This is the first meeting of the executive since the strike and it has been stated that the executive will not meet unless approached by the government or until there were fresh proposals for consideration.

With regard to the bill of which Home Secretary Shortt gave notice, it was said this afternoon the measure was mainly a revival of the war time emergency regulations for a period of emergency and that it was to be pushed forward immediately.

Serious Suggestion. London, Oct. 22.—The miners conference of South Wales today asked the National Miners Federation to call a national conference to consider the withdrawal of all labor from the coal mines. The mines are being kept in order by specially assigned forces and their withdrawal would render the pits useless for a resumption of work.

Some Comment. London, Oct. 22.—(By Canadian Associated Press).—Most of this morning's comment unites in pointing out the dangerous element of a nuisance now introduced by the railroad men and transport workers threatening to cease work. It is not merely an embarrassment to one party but to both parties, declared the premier in the House of Commons yesterday. Everybody acknowledges that the coal trouble was previously running its unhappy course with the slightest exhibition of exasperation or threats.

Now drastic interference from outside bodies, however powerful, might easily induce the government to stiffen its attitude in the belief that it would have the public wholly behind it. However, the premier's statement in the Commons yesterday, grave though it was, left a gleam of hope among the remarks of the railway leader, Mr. Thomas, who followed him, were certainly nothing like as sinister as the bald ultimatum he had conveyed on behalf of his union a few hours previously. Beyond this it is in-

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter, "I am thinking of learning a few new dances."

"We're going to start a night class in the Settlement," said Hiram. "I guess the old dances will do us till we learn to go crazy over it. Now I'll bet you got a lot of fine dancers here in town that couldn't write a letter without spelling out the words. I bet they couldn't do a sum in addition or do it right. If they'd study a little as well as dance they'd make better citizens."

"Ah, but," said the reporter, "you must do what everybody else does. You must be in the swim. You'll be a long time dead."

"Some folks is dead now," said Hiram. "They're just galvanized bodies with the power of imitation. That ain't life. Mister, I ain't here to do what everybody else does. I'm here to show, if I can, that it's worth while for me to be born. If I spent all my time running around after excitement at a good time—never at myself if I have a mind to cultivate or a soul that was above feathers an' frills an' foolishness—I might as well never been born at all—By Hen!"

ACTION TODAY IN BALL SCANDAL

Rumors of Indictments Against Several Men as Investigation Is Resumed.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The bills may be returned today by the Cook county grand jury against several of the men whose connection with the "throwing of the 1919 world's series has been traced by the grand jury's investigation, according to President Charles Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox, just after the series closed.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of marine service.

Synopsis—Depressions are situated in Saskatchewan and the Gulf of St. Lawrence and pressure is high over the middle portion of the continent and in the Pacific states. Rain has fallen in the western and maritime provinces and locally in Quebec.

Generally Fair. Maritime—Strong northwest to north winds, generally fair today and on Saturday. Gulf and North Shore—Fresh to strong west to north winds, fair and cool today and tomorrow. New England—Fair and cooler tonight and Saturday, fresh to strong west winds, diminishing by Saturday.

Ontario Sells Three Millions in Securities. Toronto, Oct. 22.—Ontario yesterday made a quick sale of an issue of $3,000,000 six per cent. six months' treasury bills to Amelias Jarvis & Co., and the Home Bank of Canada. The purchase was made by private sale.

Great Strike of Metal Workers in Spain. Barcelona, Oct. 22.—Metal workers to the number of 85,000 have gone on strike here.

Speculation on B. C. Course Re Handling Liquor

Permit System Said to Be One Plan, But Nothing Is Definite.

(Canadian Press). Vancouver, Oct. 22.—The great surprise in prohibition ranks was that the women in Wednesday's election did not generally support the "dry" law. With more women voters than men prohibition leaders could not see how they could lose. But the result showed that women were as much divided as the men voters. Because they were women, it did not follow that they would support the "dry" program, and from sixty to sixty-five per cent of the fair sex must have gone with the moderation side.

The present system appears to be the strongly favored in some government quarters. Under this plan any citizen may procure a permit on the same principle as a ration card, which will entitle him or her to purchase liquor in a reasonable quantity for personal and domestic use when presented at a government liquor store. But these various suggestions are all very much in the air at the moment as no responsible government leader has said what form the new act is likely to take.

Monday's Plebiscite in Prairie Provinces

Prohibition Workers Say They Will Get Bulk of Women's Vote

Comment on Result in British Columbia.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—(Canadian Press).—Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba will vote on next Monday on a proposal to prohibit the importation of liquor from other provinces and inland interest has been added to a quiet campaign by the "wet" vote in British Columbia.

The prairie provinces will vote on a different proposal, whether or not importation of liquor will be permitted. The Columbia electors faced alternative plans—continuation of the present system of legal sale by government in sealed packages under some scheme yet to be worked out in the United States. After Rome was occupied by Italian troops in 1870, a French vessel awaited the orders of Pope Pius for a year at Civita Vecchia, and the Knights said that in the event of a new crisis, a United States ship would take a similar position.

Mr. Carretti, the newspaper declares, appealed to the Knights of Columbus, an organization having nearly 1,000,000 members and which could easily raise the fund required. The delegation of Knights which recently came to Rome is said to have offered Pope Benedict $250,000, promising the remainder, which perhaps might even exceed $1,000,000.

"Besides," says the journal, "the Knights of the Pope to understand that if grave troubles should arise in Italy, he could find protection and hospitality in the United States. After Rome was occupied by Italian troops in 1870, a French vessel awaited the orders of Pope Pius for a year at Civita Vecchia, and the Knights said that in the event of a new crisis, a United States ship would take a similar position."

THROUGH'S TRIBUTE TO HERO OF LIEGE. Brussels, Oct. 22.—An immense crowd yesterday attended the funeral of General Leman, defender of Liege. The body, brought from Liege, was met by representatives of the king and the government and military and civil authorities. The streets were lined with troops, former soldiers and school children. The funeral cortege was escorted by three delegations. Members of the diplomatic corps and of the court of justice were present. The body was buried in the Xelles cemetery.

FREED IN CARUSO GEM THEFT CASE. New York, Oct. 22.—Harry C. Toback, arrested several days ago as a suspect in connection with the $5000 Caruso gem theft, was discharged in court yesterday. The state recommended that the defendant be exonerated, after investigation of his attempt to sell two women jewels which he was alleged to have represented as part of the singer's collection had been made.

TWO LINERS WERE STRANDED IN THE ST. LAWRENCE NEAR QUEBEC. Montreal, Oct. 22.—Two ocean freighters and a river boat grounded yesterday in the St. Lawrence, the cause being a dense fog. The S. C. Chama, Elder Dempster line, went ashore fifteen miles below Quebec on Bellechasse Island. She is said to be in no danger.

The steamship Georgie of the Franco-Canada line, stranded just below Quebec on the south shore near Sillery Cove. No immediate danger is apprehended. The steamship Seguenay, Canadian Steamship Lines, touched ground near Bellechasse but was refloated with high tide and went on to Quebec.

BRAZIL AND BELGIUM IN BUSINESS AGREEMENT. Brussels, Oct. 22.—An economic agreement has been signed by Brazil and Belgium, according to the Independence Belge. It provides that the two countries shall open reciprocal credits of about 200,000,000 francs, for the purchase of the products of each other. With a view to avoiding fluctuations in exchange there will be no settlement for at least two years.

WOMAN KILLED BY MOTOR TRUCK IN STORM IN CALGARY STREET. Calgary, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Bellingham, sixty years of age, was knocked down by a motor truck and killed here last evening, during a blinding sleet storm. Eleven Drowned. Santander, Spain, Oct. 22.—Eleven persons have been drowned by the sinking of the fishing boat Maruco.

Husband and Wife Both Dead from Gunshot Wounds

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 21.—According to information received by the Alberta provincial police the dead bodies of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ward, living in the Red Willow district, near Grand Prairie, have been discovered. According to the police the man and woman both died from gunshot wounds. The case was apparently one of murder and suicide.

RED CROSS HELP IN PUBLIC NURSING

Decisions Made at Meeting of Committee Representative of All Provinces.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—The advisory and consultative committee of the Canadian Red Cross comprising some thirty-five members from all the provinces, met in Ottawa yesterday. A resolution was passed approving that the Red Cross should give assistance to the training of public health nurses.

In view of the great shortage of training nurses, it was decided to ask the Red Cross to put on a campaign to secure more nurses and more students for the schools.

The committee took the view that while public health should be looked after by the government and municipal authorities, yet there was valuable work possible by voluntary organizations cooperating with the authorities and that these services should not be under the control of officials.

REPORT RE THE PAPAL FINANCES

Italian Newspaper Article - Rumor About Loan in the United States.

Rome, Oct. 22.—As a result of the war the chief sources of the Vatican's income, represented by Bavaria, Austria, Belgium and France, became so impoverished that Pope Benedict was obliged to appeal to Spain, Latin America, the United States, declares the Giornale d'Italia, in an article under the caption of "America The Pope's Treasure Chest."

The newspaper adds that when Monseigneur Gaetano Cappelli, undersecretary of state at the Vatican, went to the United States to attend the golden jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons, a report was circulated that he had gone with the object of negotiating a loan of $1,000,000 from the United States Catholic.

Mr. Carretti, the newspaper declares, appealed to the Knights of Columbus, an organization having nearly 1,000,000 members and which could easily raise the fund required. The delegation of Knights which recently came to Rome is said to have offered Pope Benedict $250,000, promising the remainder, which perhaps might even exceed $1,000,000.

"Besides," says the journal, "the Knights of the Pope to understand that if grave troubles should arise in Italy, he could find protection and hospitality in the United States. Liquor Wholesalers Agree with Prohibition Administrator - Check Run-Running.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—At a meeting yesterday between the wholesale liquor importers, of whom there are ten in the province, and D. R. Murphy, K. C., general administrator of the Quebec prohibition law, an arrangement was made whereby the wholesalers agree to send liquor outside the province only by steamer, railway, express or through a transportation company.

This means the end of shipments by automobile, one of the most serious means of abuse of the liquor law and of run running either to other provinces or to the United States.

BREAKDOWN OF RED GOVERNMENT

Washington Receives Confirmation of Report of Rapid Decline of Bolshevism in Russia.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Confirmation of the reported rapid decline of Bolshevism in Russia has been received by the United States state department in advice from Washington sent to the United States Consul yesterday. The dispatches, he added, have set forth "every symptom of a breakdown of the Soviet government."

London, Oct. 22.—In an address at the opening of the Reichstag on Wednesday, says a despatch to the London Times from Berlin, Dr. Simons, foreign minister, in defending the export of the Russian Soviet delegates to the Halle socialist conference, expressed the belief that the action of the government would not affect the good feeling between the Russian and German peoples.

The foreign minister forebode the introduction of a new bill to govern the activity of foreigners in Germany.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—The Chemnitz Allgemeine Zeitung says it learns from Essen that the Russian Soviet government is about to conclude a contract with a German syndicate for locomotives to an amount aggregating six hundred million gold marks, the payment of which is to be guaranteed by two foreign banks. The newspaper adds that the contract originally was offered British banks, but that their prices were exorbitant.

MANSLAUGHTER IS THE VERDICT

Trial of New Glasgow Colored Man Concluded in Picton.

Picton, N. S., Oct. 22.—A verdict of manslaughter against John Desmond, colored, of New Glasgow, was brought in at last midnight by a jury. He was charged with the murder of Daniel MacInnes, also of New Glasgow, last spring. The evidence showed that the prisoner had made threatening statements on the day of MacInnes' death concerning what he would do to the first white man he met; that he was drunk at the time; that he was armed with a knife; that he was in a state of mind to kill; that he was in a state of mind to kill; that he was in a state of mind to kill.

STEAMER SINKS IN YUKON RIVER

Dawson, Y. T., Oct. 22.—Striking a rock near Little Salmon, on the upper Yukon river, on Wednesday, the steamer Washburn sank in sixty feet of water, and probably will be a total loss, owing to the intensity of the season. No loss of life was reported.

On Monday the vessel left White Horse for Kirkman to help the steamers Nasuttin, Gudra and White Horse over the mountain, which will be of Italian marble, is being carved in Italy. The die will be of polished black marble. A start on the work will be made this Fall when the foundation and bases will be placed, but it cannot be completed before next Spring when the statue is expected to arrive.

Public Confidence has Built this Wonderful Clothing Business

RELIABILITY is the one thing that has won the confidence of the Public.

THERE are some people (only those who do not trade at Robinson's) who believe that this great business with over 200,000 Customers has been built so quickly, simply because I sold my goods for less than downstairs competitors. — This is only partly true.

I ALWAYS do and always will sell Clothes for less than ground floor competitors — but the mere fact of a lower price has not brought this great business to me. A lower price means little if it is not backed up with Reliable Merchandise. My Customers know that.

I HANDLE nothing but the best goods that can be guaranteed to them, no matter what the Price they pay.
I HAVE never tried how cheap I could sell a cheap garment — for I do not handle one — but at how much saving I can sell the best.

HEARING IN THE RECOUNT MATTER NEXT WEDNESDAY

Judge Barry in the St. John county election recount matter, on application of J. M. Trueman and Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., acting in behalf of John McKinnon, of Fairville, yesterday made an order directing all parties interested to attend before him on Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 11 a. m. in the judges' chambers, Pugsley building, to show cause why an order should not be made by him, as authorized by the elections act, commanding Judge Armstrong to proceed with the recount. This order was made upon affidavits by Mr. McKinnon and Mr. Trueman setting forth the facts, and the judge ordered copies of these affidavits to be served, with the order, on Judge Armstrong and the four candidates, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Dr. L. M. Carren, A. F. Bentley and Thomas B. Carson.

Section 148 of the New Brunswick elections act provides that in case of the refusal of the county court judge to proceed with a recount any party aggrieved may within eight days thereafter make an appeal to a judge of the supreme court for an order commanding the county court judge to proceed with such recount.

REDUCING DRUG HABIT. London, Oct. 4.—(A. P. Correspondence)—The dangerous drug act now enforced here is designed to reduce the use of habit-forming drugs which grow very rapidly here during the last few years. Under its provisions licenses are required for the import and export of these drugs. London and Liverpool are the only ports through which raw opium may be imported, while the manufacture, sale or possession of opium prepared for smoking, is prohibited.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK. It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustrous, youthful, when faded, streaked or gray. That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THIS WOMAN'S MISERY. Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Remarkable Recovery of Mrs. Church. Smiths Falls, Ont.—"I suffered with falling of my organs, pains around my heart and in bowels and down my legs, neuralgia in my face and head, and that terrible sinking feeling. I felt that I could not live and would fix my house in order every night so there would be no trouble if I dropped off in the night. My husband went to the drugstore to get the best remedy he had and he gave him Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and felt a lot better. I will always recommend the Vegetable Compound, and you can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. O. Church, Box 845, Smiths Falls, Ont. The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills. If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. LIBERALS AND FARMERS.

The Vancouver Sun says that Hon. Mackenzie King's tour of western Canada "has aroused a degree of interest that must be gratifying to himself as well as to his supporters." The Sun says further that "his presence and his able discussion of pressing domestic problems are doing much not only to cement the party but also to inspire it with confidence in the future."

Regarding the attitude of the farmer and Mr. King's treatment of agricultural issues the Sun says: "The people of the prairies are in a critical mood, but willing to listen and learn. They have resolved that the interests of agriculture shall no longer be neglected, but if they can be reassured on general matters of public policy will lead them inevitably to the Liberal camp. For this reason it is pleasing to note that the Liberal leader is now attempting to shirk the issues. The large crowds which assemble to hear him are being led to perceive that there is no fundamental difference between his point of view and the general policy advocated by the farmers. There is, therefore, no reason why Liberals and farmers should not unite for their common purposes. Mr. King's chief position is to disabuse the farmers of the distrust they have imbibed against any party but their own. In this task he is meeting with a considerable measure of success. Last night's despatches brought an announcement from the secretary of the Farmers' party in Manitoba, that his party in the legislature of that province would support the Liberal government, and would not enter the house as an opposition party. It will be found throughout Canada that the farmers have more in common with the Liberals than with the Conservatives, and that an alliance with the latter will be the result of the representatives of agriculture will consider."

THE NEED OF OPTIMISM.

The following extracts from a recent article in the Maritime Merchant should appeal to every reader in these provinces: "Optimism is needed in the maritime provinces. Not that we are absolutely without it. A number of successes here and there prove that we have optimism. But we want more. We need people with the conviction that the provinces have a bright future, and who have besides the courage of their conviction. The optimism we have here is an inspiration. If we only had more, the force of their spirit might lift the whole people and bring out the enterprise that we are sure is latent in them. There ought to be optimism, because there is every reason for it. What part of the Dominion has a greater variety of natural resources than these very maritime provinces? We want a spirit that will frown on the man who would cast even the slightest slur on the provinces as a land of opportunity. We want to be optimistic about everything else. Without that optimism the provinces will go backward instead of forward. If anyone loves his country let him be an optimist."

Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education for Ontario, says he is advocating and working for a minimum salary of $2,000 for teachers. This he declares is the only amount which will satisfy him. Commenting on this the Toronto Globe observes: "The minister of education is reported as favoring a minimum salary of $2,000 for teachers. It is well to hitch your wagon to a star, but it is not Mr. Grant's star somewhat too far off for practical hitching purposes?"

The sugar refiners are still looking to Ottawa. The consumers are doing the same. There is also the certainty that if the government helps the refiners it cannot very well turn a cold shoulder to the grain growers in the matter of wheat control; and Premier Meighen has to make that western tour. After all, the consumers may win the day.

More and more men are being thrown out of employment because of the British miners' strike, transportation is seriously feeling the effect, and the fear that the railway and transport workers may go out makes the situation more gloomy and threatening. The country faces a crisis of the gravest character, but the government stands firm.

Did Mr. Baxter or Mr. Bentley get the most votes in St. John county? If no recount is held, will Mr. Baxter speak in the legislature for a majority or a minority of the electors of his constituency? A simple way to settle what would otherwise be a doubtful question would be to have a recount. Whoever got the most votes should be the representative, and a recount would settle that question.

Thousands upon thousands of barrels of apples that would be beautiful food for the people of the cities and towns are going to waste in this province or are being fed to hogs. This state of things is a result of a lack of co-ordination between town and country, and the waste is inexcusable.

THE CUBAN REPUBLIC.

An increase in trade with Cuba is sought by Canadian business interests. This country is able to supply much that the island must import. A recent official statement places the value of Cuban exports for the current year at $1,600,000,000, made up as follows:—Exports, $1,075,000,000; imports, $425,000,000. The balance of trade in favor of Cuba was thus $625,000,000. All but thirty per cent of the exports goes to the United States, which supplies seventy-five per cent of the imports. The official statement says that since Cuba was declared a republic in 1902 its commerce has increased over one thousand per cent. It says further that more merchandise enters and leaves the port of Havana than any other port in America except New York. Last year 2,461 vessels entered at Havana, and 2,289 left for foreign ports.

We are also told that the sugar crop of Cuba in 1919 sold, in round numbers, for $24,000,000 while that of the present year though only three and a half million tons brought approximately $1,000,000,000. This shows how greatly the advance in sugar enriched the island, although at present the sugar situation there is very far from being satisfactory to the people.

The last tobacco crop is said to have yielded in value over $35,000,000; citrus fruits, pineapples, vegetables, coconuts and honey, $4,000,000; hardwoods and dyes, $1,000,000; cattle, hides, etc., $8,000,000; iron, copper, manganese, asphalt, etc., $12,000,000. There are large iron deposits in the eastern end of the island, and the Bethlehem Steel Company has put in large plants to handle the ore. It is suggested that as the island has large areas of open grazing lands the industry of intensive cattle raising may eventually supply the home market and build up an export trade. Sugar, of course, is first, with tobacco second in importance, but mining, the raising of cattle, hogs, sheep, goats, citrus fruits, coffee, fibre for cordage, and the development of the timber industry are sources of wealth capable of large development.

The population of Cuba is 2,888,000, and it is claimed the island could support 10,000,000. Seventy per cent of the population is white. There are 2,600 miles of railroads and 450 miles of electric lines, besides 1,246 miles of highways. An average of forty freight and passenger steamers per week leaves Cuba for United States ports.

But now a new means of travel is to be inaugurated. Flying boats will, on November 1, begin a regular daily service between Key West and Havana. A fleet of six two-motored flying boats for mail and passengers will be put in the service and two trips each way will be made every day. The distance is about ninety miles and will be made in an hour. Steamer passage takes all night. As Cuba is not a dry state, it is expected the tide of tourists from the United States will swell to large proportions, and prove a source of much profit to Havana. It is even suggested that the city may gain favor as a convention centre. Presumably a man with a third would be willing to pay for a quicker passage by the air line to Cuba, and after a few days there would be sufficiently "set up" to demand the thrills of an air-flight back to Key West.

It is interesting to note that Cuba has seven cities with more than 25,000 each, as follows:—

City	Population
Havana	368,506
Santiago	62,088
Camaguey	41,009
Matanzas	41,274
Cienfuegos	37,841
Maricao	30,701
Cardenas	24,477

There are twenty-six cities with 8,000 or more inhabitants. Canadians will be interested to know that the Royal Bank of Canada has more than forty-five branches in Cuba, and has been of material assistance in the country's development for twenty years past. There are opportunities for an extension of Canadian trade with the island, and maritime ports like St. John would derive direct benefit therefrom.

The wonderful October weather has enabled the street department of the city to make rapid progress with its paving programme, and the results as seen in Prince William street and City Road are most gratifying to the citizens.

The Canadian National Railways expect to handle a large export traffic in grain through this port during the winter. If any increased facilities besides the new railway yards are to be provided the time is short.

A New York paper says a contract was recently made with Babe Ruth at $2,000 a day to thrill a Cuban crowd with a few home runs. "Everybody play ball."

If the sugar refiners have their own way every merchant who is compelled to sell goods on a falling market will be looking to Ottawa.

A special committee of the Ontario legislature is favorably disposed toward a trial on a small scale at first of the principle of proportional representation.

Rippling Rhymes

(Copyright by George Matthew Adams.)

THE SPEED FIENDS

In vain I stand protesting to speed fiends as they pass; they seem to think I'm jesting, and give their boats more gas. The coroner is busy, he's checking up the dead, run down by truck or lisse or auto painted red. The coroner is weary, he toils by day and night; his task is sad and dreary, and there's no end in sight. The village cops are chasing the fiends o'er hill and dale, and after bitter racing they put a few in jail. And then they're fined so lightly they think it all a joke, and leave the courtoons brightly and make their autos smoke. Through highways residential, through traffic's busy marts, with ardor pestilential they run their deadly carts. They wing the fleeing baker, they maim the frightened clerk, and now the undertaker gets in his growning work. The doctor's nerves are lusted so many victims yield, the children die, and when I stand protesting the speed fiends scorn my rhyme, and untily go questing for some one they can climb.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

BISHOP INGLIS.

When the American revolution broke out and the colonies declared their independence of England, the Anglican clergymen in the new country remained true to their mother land and offered stern counsels against the revolution. One of the most patriotic of these was the Rev. Charles Inglis, D. D., who was the assistant rector of Trinity Church, New York. He was born in England in 1745 and had gone to the colonies in 1764. In 1777 he became rector of Trinity Church, a position he held until 1783, when he was forced to quit the United States domain with other United Empire Loyalists. Bishop Inglis' influence was widely felt in the new provinces by all classes of people and his works remain until this day.

TRAVELLED HOPE.

Lay me to rest in some fair spot, Where sound of waters near, In some of our four ships Shall reach my waiting ear.

Where I shall catch the captain's call, "All hands again to sea!" When swift embarking, I may fare To founts of life to be.

Fare to the dreamed-of lands that lie Between the Dawn of whose glad realms God sometimes whispereth;

With hope of fowers that lift their heads After the night is past, And joy of sailors in their ships When home's in sight at last.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

Not Much of a Loss.

Neighbor—I am sorry to hear that your wife eloped with your chauffeur. "Well, it wasn't much of a loss, is it time was up on the first anyhow?"—Kankaratus, Christians.

"The Hon. Buckram J. Bogus is a candidate for congress, is he not?" "No. He exposed himself to the nomination, but it didn't take."—Kansas City Star.

No Words Wasted.

"What's the trouble?" asked the man in the barber's chair. "I hope, sir. Everything seems all right."

"But you ain't while away the time with news and comment as you formerly did."

"Against the rules to do so, sir. If you want a lecture it will be charged for extra the same as bay run or hair tonic."—Washington Evening Star.

DEATH HOVERS OVER WEE KIDDIE AT PLAY.

Three-Year-Old Hides in Pile of Leaves in Path of Locomotive.

Lindsay, Oct. 22—Death hovered over a tiny three-year-old girl, at play on the Victoria avenue railway tracks here recently.

THE TOBACCO OUTPUT SHOWS AN INCREASE.

New York, Oct. 22—Production of cigars in the fiscal year ended June 30, based on internal revenue returns amounted to $244,841,089, a new high record and an increase of 82 per cent over the preceding year, and 24 per cent over two years ago. The output of cigars was $266,228,022. This represented an increase of 13 per cent, and 24 per cent, respectively. Smoking and plug productions amounted to 414,577,749 pounds, an increase of 10 per cent over 1919, but a decrease of 6 per cent from 1918.

LOCAL NEWS

S. K. Bamford, representing Gordon McKay, Toronto, has purchased a dwelling in one of the semi-detached houses erected in West St. John by the city housing board.

The second and third year students of the King's College Law School were the guests of the freshmen class at a theatre party at the Imperial Theatre last evening. After the show the students visited Bond's restaurant for refreshments.

A large crowd attended the Martello Band fair last evening in Carleton Place. The following prizes were won: Door prize, $10; E. Ingram, second prize, $10; A. Rolston; devil among the tailors, sewing tray, B. Craft; excelsior, smoking set, A. Duffy; ten pins, shaving set.

Morris McMullin was elected president of the Y. M. C. A. Business boys' club, which organized last night for the coming year. Four teams for various activities were picked under the leadership of Jack Taylor, Lawson, Jack Porteous and Morris McMullin.

The High School gymnasium class in the Y. M. C. A. was organized last evening. Gordon Willson was elected president and a managing committee of three, George Stammers, William Curran and Donald Robertson, was named. The class will start a six-league basketball schedule the middle of November.

An anniversary congregational social was held last evening in the Carleton Place Methodist church. E. Thompson was in the chair. After an address by the chairman there was an anthem by the choir, and solo by Miss Nita Brown. Addresses were delivered by Rev. S. F. Healey, Rev. George P. Dawson and W. A. Mackay.

A fire, which broke out shortly after six o'clock last night in the office building of R. P. & W. F. Starr, Ltd., 47 and 49 Smythe street, did damage to the extent of about $5,000, which is covered by insurance. The blaze, which lasted about half an hour, originated in the second story and spread to the first floor in or near an office occupied by Lieut. Col. F. V. Wedderburn.

The collectors in the Y. W. C. A. campaign to the number of fifty or more gathered yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. James F. Robertson and were entertained at a dinner by Mrs. Robertson and Miss Tapscott, the general secretary, addressed the collectors. Miss Milligan, the financial secretary, explained the scheme of collecting.

The adjourned monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held last night in the Children's Home, 68 Garden street. The president, A. M. Belding, was in the chair. The report of the report of Rev. George Scott, covering two months, was received. During the month a donation of $48 was received as the collections of the Sunday school at Ketepec during the summer.

An informal dance was held last evening at the Riverside Golf and country club. The guests were received by the hostess, Mrs. J. B. Busby, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. J. Pope Barnes and Mrs. A. Fowler.

Under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the Ludlow street Baptist church a successful concert was held last night in the school room. In the absence of the president, the chair was taken by Ernest Campbell. The following took part in the programme:—W. J. Davis, Miss Ruby Silane, Mrs. Howes, Miss E. Rupert, Miss Pearl Wayne, George Wallace and Thomas Brown.

A basar in aid of the Martello orphanage, west end, was held recently on the grounds of W. L. McDermid, Ludlow street, west end. It was conducted by the following children: Lena Bain, Mildred and Doris McDermid, Margaret and Gerald Kindred. The sum of $70 was realized which, it is the wish of the children, shall be used for the purchase of a sewing machine for the home.

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mrs. G. W. Maling on Saturday evening, Oct. 16, when about thirty of her friends gathered at her home, 238 Watson street, West End, for the purpose of saying farewell to Mr. Maling, who intends to spend the winter in the south. Rev. J. H. Jenner, on behalf of those present, presented to Mr. Maling a signet ring. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games, after which refreshments were served.

The young people of St. Andrew's church gathered last night and organized the Young People's Association of St. Andrew's church. Rev. F. S. Dowling was in the chair and R. D. Macdonald acted as secretary. A constitution was adopted and it was decided to hold meetings the first and third Thursdays of each month. The following officers were elected:—Honorary president, Rev. F. S. Dowling; president, S. J. Parkhill, 1st vice, Miss F. Treutovsky; 2nd vice, H. Rossiter; 3rd vice, Forrest Allan; recording secretary, Miss F. Simon; secretary, Miss F. Treutovsky; treasurer, Fred Smith. The officers with the three members, Charles Robinson, Mrs. James

FIVE WOMEN ARE CANDIDATES FOR THE U. S. SENATE

Dozen Others in Contest for House of Representatives.

Few women have been nominated for important office in the United States according to information collected by the Women's Bureau of the Republican National Committee.

The women candidates for United States Senator include Miss Anne Martin, who is running independently in Nevada, Mrs. Ella T. Boole, prohibitionist, Farmer-Labor candidate, in New York, Mrs. Culla J. Vaynager, prohibition candidate in Indiana, and Mrs. Leah Cobb Marion, prohibition candidate in Pennsylvania.

Women candidates for the House of Representatives include Mrs. Marie Weeks, candidate of the Non-action League, in the Third Nebraska District, Mrs. Alice M. Robertson, Republican, who was postmistress of Muskogee under President Roosevelt, in the Second Oklahoma District, Mrs. Helen C. Statter, Republican in the Third Michigan District, Mrs. Esther Lovjoy, Democrat, in the Third Oregon District, Miss Nell K. Mirron, Democrat, in the First Idaho District, Miss Winifred W. Lufkin, Republican, in the Sixth Massachusetts District, Mrs. Vivian F. Zellar, prohibitionist, in the Fourth Michigan District, and Miss Marion E. Rhodes, Republican, in the Thirtieth Missouri District.

Tight women have received Republican or Democratic nominations for the New York State Assembly. Among these are Miss Marguerite L. Smith of Manhattan, Republican, and Mrs. Elizabeth Van R. Gillette, of Schenectady, who have been renominated. Others are Mrs. Lucy J. Ripper, Republican, of Richmond, Miss Mary H. Cook, Democrat of Broome County, Miss Gertrude Mosher, Democrat, of Chautauque, Miss Marion Schuyler, Democrat of Montgomery, and Miss Carolina Maghen, Democrat, of Oneida.

A number of women are running in New Jersey, where there was strong opposition to woman suffrage and where they will vote for the first time this year. Among them are Mrs. Clara M. Browne, candidate for Mayor of Roseland, and Miss Caroline Brookfield Belvidere, Republican candidate for the State Senate.

and Democrats for the New York State Assembly. Of women candidates for State offices, the best known is Miss Harriet May Mills, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State in New York.

WOMEN TRAP MAN AS CARUSO ROBBER

Poillon Sisters and Dictagraph Used to Get Evidence in Case - Decoyed to Their Flat.

(New York Times.) Aided by a dictagraph trap set for the police by the celebrated Poillon sisters, detectives yesterday afternoon arrested a salesman on the suspicion that he had aided in the theft of $400,000 worth of jewels from the summer home of Enrico Caruso, Metropolitan opera tenor, at Easthampton on August 8 last.

A week ago the Poillon sisters, Katherine and Charlotte, reported to the underwriters who had insured the Caruso jewels yesterday that they thought they had information that would lead to the arrest of one of the men who planned the burglary.

They said that a man had offered them some of the jewels for $80,000 cash, and possibly to continue with them would be entitled to the $10,000 reward if they aided in trapping the man in their apartment at 229 West Ninety-seventh street.

Conferring with the police and a private detective agency the answer was sent to the Poillon sisters that their aid in the recovery of any jewels or the arrest of any man would be welcomed. They replied that they would ask the man to come to their apartment at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Early in the week detectives went to the apartment and installed dictagraphs with wire leading to an apartment near that of the Poillon sisters. They tested them by revolver clicks so that the dictagraphs would be in the room where the suspect was to be enticed to tell the Poillon sisters what he knew of the loss of the Caruso jewels.

According to the story which the detectives heard over the dictagraph, Toback is alleged to have told the sisters that they could have $45,000 worth of unset diamonds for $80,000, but that they would have to meet him in a Baltimore hotel next Thursday for the exchange and that they would have to pay in cash.

When Toback emerged from the apartment he was arrested and taken back to the room for questioning. He then denied all knowledge of the theft and said that he had appeared at the Poillon apartment to sell fur coats.

He had six fur coats in a case. He was taken to police headquarters and will have a hearing in the west side court tomorrow.

GETTING AFTER RUM RUNNERS

Steps to Clean Out "Blind Pigs" in Toronto Also - Get "Men Behind."

(Toronto Globe.) Toronto is to have a special squad of men who know the inside ropes of the illicit liquor traffic going on in the city to round up the "blind-pigs" and endeavor to apprehend the men who are behind the illegal selling of whiskey.

Blind-pigs are being run in all parts of the city and liquor is known by the authorities to have been shipped in large quantities from Toronto to the United States. In the majority of cases immunity has been experienced in arresting the "big men" in the game, and in an effort to solve this matter the Ontario government has decided to form a department to work independent of the provincial and city police in this city.

Detective Sergeant William Ward of Dundas street west station; Patrol Sergeant Charles Scott and Plainclothesman Robert Greenlee of Court street station have been loaned by the Toronto police department to form this new force for the attorney-general's department. Crown Attorney J. W. S. Corley has been granted six months' leave of absence from his duty in police court, and will act as prosecutor for the liquor cases. Mr. Corley will have an office in the government building at 46 Richmond street west, from where the new force will work.

It was learned on good authority yesterday by the Globe that Ward will gather a number of men to work under him. Scott and Greenlee are the only other members of the local police force that will be taken over. Several men from outside will be chosen by Ward and recommended to the attorney-general.

The Ontario license department have at least six men hunting bootleggers in Toronto daily, and these men will continue to work under that department.

publication devoted to welfare work in the city, from figures gathered by the 1920 Federal Census. The total in the State is 882,000.

As a matter of fact the problem of literacy is considered to be even greater, for the census takers had no authority for checking up whether or not those who said they could read or write could actually do so.

Illiteracy in the city is to be lessened by means of evening schools. Schools with vocational and extension classes now number 85, and it is believed in at least 8 per cent. of the illiterates will avail themselves of the opportunity offered to learn to speak, read and write English, and possibly to continue with American history and civics.

Volunteer workers will visit every resident listed on the records as illiterate and urge attendance at one of the city's schools.

RECALLS HISTORIC LEGEND OF ABBEY. London, Oct. 4.—(Associated Press Correspondence).—The sudden death of Michael P. Grace, father of the Countess of Donoughmore, recalls a legend connected with Battle Abbey, which he rented from Sir Augustus Webster.

The great establishment was seized by Henry VIII and it is said that the last abbot pronounced a curse that two owners of it should meet death by drowning. It is said that Lord Montague, who owned the property in the 18th century, was drowned, and a similar fate befell his two nephews. In 1817 Webster, wife of the present owner, was drowned three years ago and a short time later the eldest daughter of the tenant then occupying the abbey lost her life in a similar way.

CHARGES O. B. U. UNDER ORDERS FROM MOSCOW

Says Alberta Strikes Result of Soviet Propaganda

Minister of Labor Appeals to Employers - Says Sane Co-operation With Employees Sure Cure for Leninism.

Port William, Ont., Oct. 21.—Senator Gideon Robertson, minister of labor, told the Port William Canadian Club that the Ontario Big Union is a subsidiary of the revolutionary organizations existing in the United States and which have their headquarters in Moscow.

The One Big Union strike in the coal fields of Alberta had been brought about under such auspices, he himself had gone to Drumheller, where trouble existed, and had found that the foreign element was on strike and the English speaking element was at work. His observation was the result of a careful inquiry to the cause of the strike from a committee of seventeen men drawn from the various mines in that valley.

Have Soviet Aims. Even two foreigners on the committee admitted that it was largely true that foreigners in the camp were mainly responsible for the strike, adding that nearly all the foreigners were Russians and Austrians, most of them being members of secret societies the object of which was to establish Soviet rule in Canada as in Russia.

These foreigners were acting on instructions and urgent requests "to work for the cause" under the supervision of agents who did their best to see that all members of the secret organizations lived up to their obligations as such members.

Urges Secret Bodies. The speaker said that only two days ago he had received a long communication from the deputy minister of labor, giving extracts from the most recent manifesto of Lenin, president of the Soviet government, and head of the Third International Centre of the Revolutionary Labor Movement of the World.

This was issued to Communist International, calling on all followers to create clandestine organizations everywhere in Europe and North America ready to fulfill revolutionary duties when the proper moment arrived. He also suggested propaganda among all troops, and the conversion of workers to Communism by the penetration of Communists into labor and social organizations.

Fight Organized Labor. Labor organizations like that at Amherst, similar to the American Federation of Labor and the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, were to be fought energetically. Radical parliamentarism must be purged of doubtful elements, and all former names must be changed to that of the "Communist party," with the Moscow executive at the head.

Senator Robertson entirely agreed with those who believed that such propaganda would never succeed in Canada, but they did wrong to suppose that it did not exist. They should not regard all foreigners as belonging to this class, however careful to see that "the serpent" did not get into the camp, and then, "boring from within," attempt to disrupt their industry by constant strikes.

Co-operation the Cure. That propaganda could be beaten most rapidly by hastening along the path of co-operation between the same employers and sound Canadian employees who desire just as much as the employer does to see industry flourish and to have permanent employment.

"There are some employers who think the time opportune, when the labor situation is easier, to take a different attitude from that which they regarded as necessary during the war period," said the speaker. "They think that co-operation is not so important as in the past."

"Gentlemen, I hope that no employer here will consider any such proposal as that. I am safe in saying that not ten per cent. of the employers of Canada feel that way. The majority of business men and the sane labor men will stand like a bulwark between the reactionary employer on the one hand and the revolutionary labor man on the other. It is essential that these two should stand together and work in harmony in order to assure the future industrial prosperity of Canada."

DR. STUCK'S DEATH LOSS TO ALASKANS

Archdeacon Their Indefatigable Defender

Explorer and Missionary Ranked High Both as Clergyman and as Scientist.

With the passing of the Rev. Hudson Stuck, D. D., F. R. G. S., Archdeacon of the Yukon, who died at Fort Yukon, Alaska, on Sunday after a short illness, an Alaskan people, the Episcopal church at large, and the fields of geographical explanation and letters suffer great loss. Dr. Stuck was known on continents as a scientist and a man of letters, but most of all as an indefatigable missionary, a man who dared the most rigorous climates and underwent extreme privation and hardship. He was a man who could have secured easy living elsewhere, but the love of North and the humanity that peopled Alaska was in his blood and, feeling that he was of greatest service there, refused all offers of other places. Only a few years ago he was offered an extremely attractive parish in England. His answer was, "I cannot leave my Indians." Several times he was called to his alma mater, the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn., and refused it for the same reason. His charge for the Alaskan Indians was thoroughly reciprocated and along the Arctic coast, even to the Koyukuk River, nearly 600 miles above its confluence with the Yukon, are scattered his dark parishioners.

First to Climb McKinley. Dr. Stuck was the first white man to climb Denali, known to us as Mt. McKinley. Word that he had succeeded in reaching the summit of this mountain came in a dispatch from Fairbanks, Alaska, on June 21, 1913. With a guide Harry P. Carstens, his faithful Indian comrade, Walter Harper, who was with Dr. Stuck on most of his long journeys, and R. G. Tatum, a mission helper, the Archdeacon successfully accomplished the trip, a feat that Dr. Cook claimed for Fort Yukon through the interior of Alaska. His books, "Ten Thousand Miles With a Dog-Sled," "The Ascent of Denali," "Voyages on the Yukon and Its Tributaries," and "A Winter Circuit of Our Arctic Coast," have made his name widely known beyond church circles. He had the faculty of making the commonplace interesting. Almost any one probably could write well about the ascent of an unknown peak but the man who makes a story of fascinating interest about his journeys through snow-muffled lands peopled only by Indians must be credited with literary as well as explorative achievement. The last year of Archdeacon Stuck's life was saddened by a failure in the run of salmon on the Yukon and its tributaries, a failure which he attributed to the operations of a canning factory at the mouth of the Yukon, and which threatened starvation to thousands of natives throughout the interior. His vacation this past year was largely spent in Washington making efforts to secure legislation for the protection of the Indians and in making addresses to arouse the interest of the church throughout the country. He loved his Indian people, and their helplessness in contact with the advancing white men who flock to a frontier country aroused his chivalry. When he first went to Fairbanks in 1894 it was a town "wide open," with dozens of saloons, gambling halls, and hordes of human parasites—men and women—that follow prospectors in a gold rush. It was due to his efforts that Fairbanks was redeemed. His last published words were: "The present writer, on the point of returning to Alaska, solemnly commits this cause to the people of the church."

DEAD MEN
TELL NO TALES

Through this region—by dog-sled in winter and on the launch Polaris in summer—he went back and forth for sixteen years, with brief intervals of rest in the States, looking after the welfare of the Indians and Eskimos. He fought through fierce blizzards, endured the suffering of freezing, lost his food at times and at other times lost his way, but kept doggedly to his task and loved it, hardship and all. During the winter of 1918 he made

THE INSTRUMENT OF QUALITY

Sonora
CLEAR AS A BELL

ONE of the main features responsible for the supremacy of Sonora's tone is its all-wooden Tone Chamber. The builders of the Sonora have spent more time and effort in developing the glorious tone quality of this instrument than on any other feature. They were the first to realize that metal or a combination of materials could not produce the quality of tone to be obtained through the use of properly treated wood. The soul of the Stradivari is its wooden tone chamber—so it is with the Sonora.

Music Through Metal is Always Metallic—Wood Alone Can Produce Perfect Quality of Tone

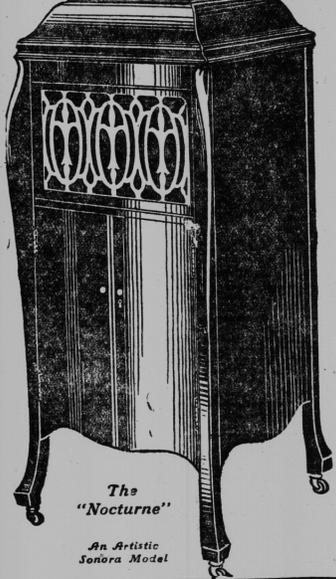

The Sonora was awarded Highest Honors for Tone Quality at the Panama Pacific Exposition—in competition with the world's leading phonographs. Nearly all Sonora models are now made entirely in Canada. The Sonora plays all makes of disc records. And it has a remarkable motor, sturdy, reliable and smooth-running. It will run from fifteen to thirty, and even forty-five minutes, with one winding.

A novelty shower in honor of her approaching marriage was tendered Miss Violet Brennan on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Bowes, Coburg street.

NICKERSON-MANNING
At the Methodist parsonage, Sussex, Tuesday afternoon, October 19th, Rev. J. M. Rice officiating, James Manning, of Mechand, and Miss Mildred Elizabeth Manning of Diligent River, Cumberland county, N. S., were united in marriage.

ACQUITTED
Before Judge J. R. Armstrong under the Speedy Trials Act this morning a case against J. R. Black was heard and dismissed, as the defendant was acquitted. C. H. Ferguson appeared for the crown and Roy A. Davidson for the defense.

REDUCED LOG CUT
The Sussex Record predicts a reduction of fifty per cent in the lumber cut in Kings county next winter. It says the S. H. White Company with three mills running last winter, will operate only one this season and others intend to operate on about the same average.

FOR BRIDE TO BE
About forty girl friends of Miss Mary E. Parlee met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Street, Spring street, last evening and tendered her a novelty shower. The bride-to-be received many beautiful gifts of linen, china and silver. Music and the usual games formed the entertainment of the evening, and a very dainty lunch was served. Miss Parlee has the best wishes of her many friends.

GOING TO NEW YORK
About forty friends of Miss Jean Finley gathered at the home of her sister, Mrs. McVilly, Summer street, and tendered her a surprise party. Miss Finley will leave the city in the near future to make her home in New York. William Tobin, Jr., on behalf of those present presented to Miss Finley a handsome fitted handbag.

HOUSE WARMING
A delightful surprise, tendered in the form of a house warming, was given to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tapley at their new home in Fair Vale last evening. Several of the friends in the city motored to Fair Vale and a particularly pleasant evening was enjoyed. During the evening Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, on behalf of the assembly, in a neat speech presented to Mr. and Mrs. Tapley a handsome set of antiques. Mrs. Tapley responded briefly.

THE LATE H. CORTIS DALTON
The funeral of H. Cortis Dalton was held at Port Lorne, N. S., on Tuesday. His death took place at his residence, Broad street, St. John, and his body was taken to Nova Scotia on Monday. For the last twenty years, Mr. Dalton had been a resident of this city. He is survived by his wife, one brother, Maurice Dalton, and Mrs. Dalton, and Mrs. Harris Elliott of this city.

FAREWELL PARTY
On Monday evening Miss Kathleen Quinn entertained at a farewell party in honor of Miss Marie O'Keefe, who will leave soon to reside in New York. After games and music were enjoyed a handsome jewelry case was presented to Miss O'Keefe as a remembrance from her friends. On Wednesday evening Miss Gertrude McKenna entertained several friends in honor of Miss O'Keefe and a very pleasant evening was spent.

FINE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE
Sussex Record—A new school house is now being built by the Pelejeop Paper Company at Salmon River. It is situated in a new location, and very much improved over the old one. It is being built on top of the hill where everyone will have a fine view. The building will be forty-three feet by twenty-seven feet and will consist of main school room, library and separate cloak rooms for the boys and girls. It will be a decided improvement over the old one-room school house and when completed will be one of the best school houses in any of the smaller villages in the maritime provinces.

IN HONOR OF BRIDE-TO-BE
Miss Alice Isaacs, 23 Coburg street, whose engagement was recently announced, was pleasantly surprised yesterday when about twenty of her young lady friends entertained in her honor at the Green Lantern tea rooms. After attending the first performance at the Imperial, the party went to the home of Miss Anna Gilbert, Union street, where a delightful evening was spent in music and dancing. Refreshments were served. Miss Isaacs was the recipient of a handsome gift in silver from the young ladies and a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses from the Y. M. H. A.

EXPECT ACTION ON HYDRO WORK BY NEXT WEEK

Taken Up When Lieutenant-Governor Approves Chairman's Appointment — Preliminary Work This Fall.

Action on the tenders received by the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission is expected to be taken next week, so both Premier Foster and C. O. Foss, chief engineer, said this morning. The order-in-council appointing Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith chairman of the commission has not yet been signed by the lieutenant-governor, but the premier said he expected that this would be done on Monday. After this has been done it will be possible to proceed and Mr. Foss to conduct the business of the commission until the appointment of the chief engineer, as the act provides that two members shall constitute a quorum.

It was figured by the commission that the work on the Musquash site would be completed by the end of next year. He said that the intention was to concentrate all efforts on the Musquash development and follow this up with the work on the Shogomoc. The main thing now, Mr. Foss said, was to get the contract into the hands of reliable contractors so that they would lose no time in getting down to business just as soon as they were notified that their tender was satisfactory.

HOME AFTER WESTERN TRIP

M. J. and W. A. T. Thorne, St. John Men, Had Ten Weeks There.

M. J. Thorne of Simonds street, and W. A. T. Thorne of Rockland road have returned home after a very enjoyable trip of ten weeks in the west, visiting their brother, W. B. Thorne of Alberta. They spent some time in Edmonton, Calgary and High River, also taking a trip through southern Alberta by auto. They saw the Blue Diamond oil wells near the Burns coal mines, as well as Lethbridge, where they crossed over the million dollar bridge which is one mile and forty-seven feet long. They looked over some of the large ranches, among them the prairie of the late Bar U. The harvest in Alberta was a record one this year, and W. B. Thorne and son harvested 12,000 bushels of oats.

W. A. T. Thorne spent several years in the west in his younger days, but has been in the east more than twenty years. He saw very many changes in the western cities, some of which he did not recognize at all.

C. P. R. OFFICERS

D. H. Ryan, assistant superintendent of the C. P. R. New Brunswick district, arrived home today after a trip to McAdam where he was on official business. While in McAdam he met A. Price, general manager of the C. P. R., J. M. Woodman, general superintendent of the New Brunswick district, A. McKenzie, chief of the maintenance and ways of the C. P. R. and J. Keough, of the same department, who were on an inspection trip in connection with a prize which is awarded by the general manager for the best kept section on the eastern lines. They were to leave McAdam today in an automobile.

Some Corrections in Report re the Sales Tax

To the Editor of The Times: "Sir,—In reading the news item which appears in your issue of 22nd inst. but at the date had not been decided upon. Referring to the liquor referendum he took his audience into his confidence and remarked that he voted for prohibition himself."

In the first paragraph under the heading "Open Discussion," I am reported to have stated that the sales tax was a two per cent. tax on sales by manufacturers to retailers or consumers. The accuracy arises from the use of the words "for jobs."

A second inaccuracy appears in connection with my reply to Mr. Dykeman on behalf of the Retail Merchants' Association. In discussing this phase of the matter I had referred to the manufacturer's tax only when I stated that if goods were sold prior to May 19 and paid for in full the luxury tax is not collectible, etc.

SUGAR MEN SEE FINANCE MINISTER

Ottawa, Oct. 22—(Canadian Press)—Sugar men were in conference with Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, for some time this morning, but as to a definite line of action was not reached. Members of the government are receiving appeals that should be done to prevent the entire closing down of the refineries.

In government circles, refineries are entitled to consideration, but the way out of present troubles is obviously difficult. Neither the proposal of a loan nor that of a remission of duties in raw sugar is likely to be accepted, and the government is questioning if the refineries will be given any effective assistance.

Should the government decide to assist, it is understood that two of the main conditions will be: 1. Previous examination of the books of all the refineries seeking assistance to determine what their profits in recent years have been, and the list called when assistance, if any, to be based on actual losses sustained by each refinery as a result of the operation of government control.

IN WALL STREET

New York, Oct. 22, 10:30.—Buying of the low priced or speculative rails and stocks, and a drop in the official records of nearly fifty years has the mercury reached that altitude. The average for the month, however, is not as high as the record of 61 in 1900. No coolness is in sight, and today gives promise of being an ardent twin of yesterday.

Told How to Acquire Strength and Energy

Since Vinol was first introduced here some years ago it has made a great many friends among our women, because it is such an unusual remedy. It is the first cod liver medicine ever to have been made without the oil and nauseating grease, and the iron employed in its composition is an improvement over old medicinal iron. Many women here who were once pale and sallow and always tired, are now robust and strong, because Vinol certainly and quickly creates red blood and makes one's daily food produce the necessary nourishment for good health.

EAGERLY AWAIT GOVERNMENT MOVE

There is this point, that if the railway strike suddenly their action would be illegal, they have given no formal notice of their intention to cease work, whereas the miners have acted throughout constitutionally. Last year's railway strike was without notice and was a bad mark against the strikers from the start.

Talk Election. London, Oct. 22.—Interest in the miners' strike and the threatened walk-out of railwaymen and transport workers, which crashed today on Downing street, the official residence of Premier Lloyd George.

Indications of a political, as well as an industrial, crisis were found in the situation, it was declared, and it appeared that labor had joined issues with the government in a struggle which might become historic.

In informal conversations with men prominent in the councils of labor the Premier has given no hint of weakening or receding from his position.

GREAT DEPOSIT OF SMOKELESS COAL

It is in Northern B. C., and May Be Bought for the Navy—Late Lord Rhonda Greatly Interested.

(Vancouver Sun.) "Negotiations are pending between a syndicate representing the British Admiralty and the owners of the Ground Hog Coal properties for the purchase of nearly 2,000 square miles forming the largest smokeless steam coal deposit in the world."

Mr. Campbell-Johnson and a company with which he was associated in Quebec opened negotiations in 1912 with the British government through Mr. Campbell-Johnson's cousin, the Duke of Argyll. This deal was pending until 1914, when Lord Rhonda came to Canada and after looking over the property decided to take it providing his engineers were satisfied.

The charter for the road to the property being only provincial, was strengthened by a Dominion charter bearing the name of the Nassau and Skeena Rivers Railway, commencing at a point near Nasoga Bay off Portland Inlet and running back 120 miles to the first coal lands.

Lord Rhonda was then called to the post of food controller and before he could resume negotiations he died. The matter then lay in suspense until Lord Jellicoe was here last year, when it was again opened and has been under investigation ever since.

Outside of Wales and Pennsylvania the smokeless steam coal deposits in the Ground Hog district, about 50 miles from Hazelton, are the only ones in the world of any importance and mining engineers give the quality the highest praise, especially from the standpoint of admiralty requirements. For lack of a railway, the properties have not been developed and many license holders, a large proportion of whom were returned soldiers, allowed their claims to lapse through inability to meet their dues. These licenses lapsed to the provincial government and assurance has been given that all soldiers will be taken care of should the deal with British Admiralty's syndicate be closed.

The plan, which appealed to representatives of the syndicate and submitted by Mr. Campbell-Johnson, was one which showed enormous benefits to British ports, well within British territory, and distributing in every British port of shipping importance in the Pacific, the syndicate to its own coal- ing vessels to supply the stations.

International Road. To get the coal out the railway will have a grade of 1 1/2 per cent. leading from the mines to the water, thus giving a railway for the heavy hauls. This international transportation circles, as it holds the charter rights to the only pass from British Columbia into Alaska where a railroad could be built, namely through the water-heads of the Skeena and Skeena Rivers. Consequently any railroad connecting the United States with Alaska would be forced to use this road as a link in the line.

Mr. Campbell-Johnson expects the British negotiators to arrive in a short time and he is certain that the admiralty through its agents will become the possessor of this great coal field.

MOTOR FUEL FROM STRAW

Experimenting on It Now and Main Question Is Cost of Production.

New York, Oct. 21.—The Canadian prairies may provide motor fuel for the whole of Canada with a large amount left over for export and the farmers of the prairie provinces may find a profitable market for a product of the soil which is now virtually wasted if a system of converting wheat straw into motor fuel proves as profitable as experiments now being conducted seem to promise.

The new motor fuel is being manufactured from straw for experimental purposes in Kansas, and was just received from J. C. Mohler, secretary of the Kansas Board of Agriculture, is that good progress is being made.

Experiments made by the United States Department of Agriculture show, Mr. Mohler says, that a combustible gas can be obtained from the destructive distillation of wheat straw. This new product has been used for operating an automobile, for illuminating purposes, and for cooking, and tests are in progress to determine its exact value and cost of production.

"If these experiments turn out satisfactorily," said Mr. Mohler, "it may not be many years before every farmer will throw the straw from his threshing machine into a still, from which he can draw all the fuel he will require to operate his farm machinery."

TO CROSS ATLANTIC IN RECORD TIME

Can Be Done in Three Days by Steamer, Says a Shipping Expert.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—It is possible to cross the Atlantic ocean from New York to Liverpool in three days by steamer, Joseph Washington Thompson, whose bid of $8,000,000 for the steamship Leviathan was rejected by the United States Shipping Board, says it can be done. Mr. Thompson declared today that the syndicate he represented had planned to install new engines in the Leviathan and fit it up so that it could cross the ocean in three days.

"The bid I offered," he said, "was for $1,000,000 down and $3,000,000 in two years. Financial interests backed the plan, and with the engine to be placed in the ship the three-day trip between New York and Liverpool would have been assured." He planned to carry only steerage passengers and mail.

THESE initials are engraved on everybody's pocketbook and on about everything else we own nowadays.

But not on the Ingersoll Maple Leaf watch. For the Maple Leaf is busily engaged in cutting down the High Cost of Living.

A Maple Leaf costs $3.25—lasts five to ten years. We'll lean backwards and say five.

Five years of dependable time-keeping service for $3.25—260 weeks at a cent and a quarter a week.

Why, $3.25 is often less than the annual upkeep of an expensive watch, less than interest on a high-priced watch investment.

And if you're doing rough work, or "roughing it," the Maple Leaf is the watch that goes with you—and keeps going.

Yet the Maple Leaf is a seemingly, presentable time-piece. It isn't rough except on H. C. L.

RETURNS TO CIVIL LIFE

On Oct. 13, 1914, the first contingent of the C. E. F. arrived in England and last week Brigadier-General Langton who, as transport officer, controlled the transportation movement of the 31,500 troops from Valcartier, laid aside his majesty's uniform and resumed civil life.

He discovered that one of the men had married the woman before the war, and had been reported by the war office as dead. On hearing this news the woman married again. Returning from a prison camp in Germany the first husband living in his house with his two children and another born of the second union.

A family council was held and it was agreed that both men should stay on and work the farm until the government should solve the problem for them.

According to Mills, many similar cases occurred in France as a result of the war.

The three-masted schooner C. Maude Gaskill, commanded by Captain Granville, of St. John, recently put into Boothbay Harbor with sails torn and later put into Portland for supplies. She is bound from Windsor (N. S.), for New York with plaster rock.

HOME-MADE BREAD

Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body. The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.

ON WEST INDIES ROUTE.

What is looked upon as a sign of the times, comes in the announcement of the International Mercantile Marine Co. that their liners St. Paul, New York and Philadelphia have been withdrawn from the North Atlantic service for the winter season. The company is not concerned at dropping the mail contract, the president stating that the high operating expenses necessitating the making of another agreement.

The diverted liners will be put on the winter cruising service between New York and the West Indies. The reason given for the move is one of economy. The liners will not return to the Atlantic service until next spring.

The service of the International Mercantile Marine Co. from New York to Southampton and Cherbourg has been in operation for 25 years. It has been augmented by a passenger service to Hamburg, the first since the armistice. The company has new liners being constructed but the coal situation in Britain and the present high operating expenses has caused a curtailment of the service during the winter.

REVEALS LIFE OF ANCIENT EGYPT

Discovery of "National Wastepaper Basket" Will Have Big Results.

Paris, Oct. 22.—"We have found the national waste paper basket of ancient Egypt," was the expression used by a member of the French Academy of Historic Inscriptions to describe a recent discovery of the French Egyptologist, Lécuyer.

Beneath the ruins of a temple dedicated to Thoth, in the holy city of Heliopolis, Professor Lécuyer found a subterranean necropolis containing tens of thousands of mummified bodies of ancient Egyptian manuscripts—which say investigators, appear to consist of everything written, from love letters to washing bills.

There are literally hundreds of thousands to be deciphered, and it is estimated that the work of translation will take several years. When this is completed it is hoped that the whole life of the highly civilized Egyptians 4,000,000 years before Christ will be revealed.

A Third to a Half full of Carnation Milk—then fill up with water

THAT gives the children a rich, nourishing drink of pure, sweet cow's milk. Adding an equal portion of water restores Carnation Milk to the natural consistency—not of skimmed or separated milk—but of rich, "whole" milk. You always get milk of this quality from the Carnation condenseries.

It is rich.
It is pure.
It is absolutely safe.

Such quality in your milk supply—such freedom from bother—such assurance of safety—are due entirely to Carnation methods of distributing milk.

To start with, the milk is rich and pure.

It is gathered daily in Canada's best dairy centres. A part of the water is removed by evaporation, leaving a milk of creamy consistency. Fresh and sweet, it goes into clean, new containers. Then it is sterilized to insure purity.

In this form it goes to you in perfect safety and is kept until you are ready to use it. It is used as cream in tea and coffee, on cereals or fruit.

But for ordinary use add an equal quantity of water.

There is no sugar or anything added to Carnation Milk, so it may be used for every household use.

22 BILLION IN LUXURY TAX IN U. S. LAST YEAR

$750,000,000 Alone for Face Adornment - Candy Realized a Billion.

Washington, Oct. 22—Peachy complexions, ruby lips and fragrant personality cost the women of this country $750,000,000 last year, according to luxury tax return figures.

The cost of cosmetics and perfume was more than twice that of women's furs—in a year when the fur prices were the highest in history. The amount spent on furs was approximately $300,000,000.

The ladies did their part in spending the money on luxuries, but the expenditures were not confined to them. Eight hundred million dollars went up in cigarette smoke, while $110,000,000 was burned up in the form of cigars.

The year 1919 appears to have been a luxurious one, all right. The grand total, when added up, amounts to $22,700,000,000.

A round billion dollars went for candy. Pianos, organs and phonographs entertained the people to the tune of $200,000,000. Automobiles cost $2,000,000,000.

Soft drinks, $800,000,000; toilet soaps, $400,000,000; tobacco and snuff, $800,000,000; ice cream, $250,000,000; chewing gum, $60,000,000; cake and confections, $850,000,000; "luxurious services," $5,000,000,000; luxurious food, $5,000,000,000; joy-riding, pleasure resorts and races, $3,000,000,000.

DELEGLISE TO BE TRIED IN OTTAWA

Ottawa, Oct. 22—The grand jury of the Supreme Court of Ontario found a true bill against Laurent Deleglise of Montreal, who will now have to stand trial. Later an application was made by A. E. McKERRICK TELLS ABOUT CARPENTIER

Deleglise is a Montreal importer who was refused a license to import narcotic drugs by the department of trade and commerce. One of the officials of the department later received a present of a box of cigars alleged to be from him, in which was a $100 bill.

Fight Manager Says Foreign Champion Is Great Boxer and Carries Deadly Wallop.

New York, Oct. 22—Dan McKerrick, well known in pugilistic circles, who spent a good deal of his time in Paris when he had Willie Lewis, Frank Moran and Joe Jeannette on the other side, believes George Carpentier is one of the best fighters he ever saw in action in the ring and also asserts the European heavyweight title holder would have a good change against champion Jack Dempsey.

George T. Creary The Semi-ready Store 87 Charlotte St.

Sporting Club in London, was over before it really began. McKerrick then told of the battle between Carpentier and Gumbast Smith that took place in London a month before the European war broke out.

"You know," said Dan, "the Frenchman really stopped the Gumbast in the fourth round. Eugene Corri, you will remember, refereed that contest. It was the custom in England for a referee to handle a bout from outside the ropes, with the time-keeper tolling off the fatal ten in the event of a knockdown. These rules were broken in the Carpentier-Smith fight, because the principals desired the referee to officiate inside of the ropes and also to count in case of a knockdown, as they did in France and in America.

"In the fourth round the Gumbast went down and Referee Corri started to count. Not being accustomed to toll off the seconds, the popular London arbiter was slow with his count, for James Hulls of Sporting Life, the timekeeper, disagreed and informed me that the Gumbast was down thirteen seconds. You know Smith was one of the best men we had then, and yet he could do nothing with the clever hard-hitting Frenchman. I won $3,000 on that fight.

"Furthermore, I saw the invader tackle both Willie Lewis and Joe Jeannette. In the first round Carpentier secured the life out of us when he knocked Joe down for a count of nine in the first round and gave us another jolt when he repeated the trick in the eighth. The Frenchman made a mistake in that battle by trying to fight Jeannette in close and as result lost the decision."

The Caribou of the North

—here is the big game that ranks with the moose in its attraction for the hunter. Ranging from Newfoundland to Alaska it requires the vast expanse afforded by the barren and scrub lands of the Arctic and sub-Arctic. Like the grizzly it is one of the first animals to retire before the advance of settlement.

Far above all other animals Caribou demand solitude. This is hard to realize for they appear devoid of all fear as they mill around to the windward, but, follow the herd once it has got the wind and struck its line of flight, and one realizes the necessity of ammunition of long range, velocity and accuracy.

Good Caribou grounds are still fairly easy of access, but great care should be used in the selection of ammunition.

BASEBALL CRITIC REVIEWS SERIES

(New York Times.) Another world's series has been written into baseball history, and once again the American League stands out above its older rival in the all-around excellence of its championship team. The triumph of 1920 is the ninth in a stretch of eleven seasons, or from 1910 inclusive, and these returns can hardly be discounted in a comparison affecting the front runners in the two organizations.

While not proving positively that American League teams have an edge on their rivals in strength from top to bottom in the standing of the clubs, the results of recent series indicate that the leaders at least are stronger in the American League.

Coming at a time when the country was recovering from the shock resulting from exposures concerning the 1919 series, the games between the Cleveland and Brooklyn champions provided a most refreshing atmosphere. The records of the 1920 world's series may be marked down without any fear that some future day will bring forth mauling disclosures to show that the result was not honestly achieved.

The National League pointed the followers of their organization, but there was honor in the defeat which they sustained. There was an honest effort against a superior adversary, and there always is glory for the vanquished when the fight is fairly fought.

Considerable regret was expressed two weeks ago that the disclosures concerning the 1919 series should come out on the eve of another clash for championship honors. It was supposed that public confidence would be shaken to such an extent that the 1920 series would be devoid of public interest, and therefore the confidence would be shaken to such an extent that the 1920 series would be devoid of public interest, and therefore the confidence would be shaken to such an extent that the 1920 series would be devoid of public interest.

KILLED BY SIX YEAR OLD BOY

Regina, Oct. 22—Harry Barrabash of the Yorkton district, was shot and killed on Wednesday by Walter Angaragel, aged six years. The provincial police are investigating.

was slow with his count, for James Hulls of Sporting Life, the timekeeper, disagreed and informed me that the Gumbast was down thirteen seconds. You know Smith was one of the best men we had then, and yet he could do nothing with the clever hard-hitting Frenchman. I won $3,000 on that fight.

To the Rescue!

"Grace Darlings of the Sea"

Sailors instinctively respect women. Their ancient and honorable code is: "Women and children first."

But the sailor's life is a lonely one and perilous. He is out of contact with women the greater part of his time.

On the other hand, the romance of the sea and its perils awakens a certain mother-instinct in women.

And, tomorrow, many women will, in sweet charity and helpfulness, devote themselves to raising funds for the work of the Navy League, by selling tags.

If ever a Tag as a symbol was worth its price, it will be worth it tomorrow.

Get tagged early. Give liberally for it.

The Navy League of Canada

St. John contributors to the Navy League Fund will please send cheques to Harold C. Schofield, Treasurer.

Are YOU wearing old-fashioned cuff buttons?

Styles change! The stiff-cuffed shirt has given place to the modern soft-cuffed shirt. And there's all the difference in the world between using the right cuff button—the one that was made for the soft cuff—and the wrong one, that wasn't.

KUM-A-PART CUFF BUTTON

satisfies the modern desire for efficiency and comfort even in little things. Your jeweler or haberdasher will show you a multitude of pleasing designs, colors and qualities—rightly on every occasion, harmonious with various shirt patterns. Priced from $1.00 to $3.00 a pair.

Caution—To protect you against feeble imitations we stamp the name Kum-a-part on the flange of every button—the mark of dependable perfected mechanism and quality craftsmanship. Look for it.

Money and The Markets

(National Bank of Commerce, New York)

The downward revision of prices continues to be the factor dominating the general business outlook. The movement is a natural and inevitable conse- quence of the unstable condition created in the previous period of rising prices, reckless public buying and widespread speculation. Falling prices are not a recent development. Before the close of 1919 the price of a number of im- portant commodities had begun to de- cline. By spring of 1920 a definite downward trend had been established. Since then the movement has been ac- celerated, until within recent weeks it has forced general recognition that the period of excessive buying at rising prices has definitely ended. Business must now go forward on a lower price level. This readjustment cannot be ef- fected without serious general results. The banks are amply prepared to finance business while it is working out a more normal basis of operation and a stable level of prices. This process will require the employment of a large vol-

JUMPED FROM BRIDGE.

Committed Suicide in Presence of His Finances.

Fort Edward, N. Y., Oct. 22—Leaping over the railing of a bridge spanning the Champlain canal here after a quarrel with his sweetheart, Miss Elizabeth Ken- nedy, a telephone operator, Daniel T. McCormick, Jr., son of Daniel P. Mc- Cormick, Jr., manager of mills for the International Paper Company in this place, committed suicide by drowning. The act was committed in the presence of Miss Kennedy, with whom he had just quarrelled. The young woman, fainting when McCormick dropped into the canal channel.

AVOIDS MURDER CHARGE.

Gangster Shot Man Who Was Already Dead.

New York, Oct. 22—What amounted to a plea of killing a man who was already dead before the shot was fired, was accepted when George Lewis of 112 West 90th street, pleaded guilty to man- slaughter in the first degree. Judge Rosalsky and a jury in the court of general sessions had prepared to try Lewis on a charge of first degree mur- der.

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" identifies the tablets and contains proper directions for Colds, Rheumatism, Headaches, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer" Aspirin to the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Mono- acetic acid esters of salicylic acid, which is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations. Aspirin Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

Some physicians, on the other hand, have maintained that All Household or Proprietary Medicines are worthless and should not be sold.

The facts, as usual, lie between these extreme views.

"Call the Doctor," should be the first thought when there is illness or injury. Get his opinion, and follow his directions.

But sometimes there are cases of sudden sickness or a minor accident when the right remedy, instantly at hand, will save much suffering and render any further treatment unnecessary.

This justifies the existence of the Household Remedies as an accessory to the doctor, providing in an economical and always stable form the medicinal virtues of some good formula (often a doctor's prescription) for use in the many minor ailments and injuries of every day life for which the great majority of people cannot afford the doctor's visits each time or, as on the farm, are so situated that they cannot obtain his services quickly, even if their means permit, such a remedy is PERRY DAVIS PAINKILLER.

For nearly seventy-five years, this reliable preparation has been used on the farm, in lumber and mining camps, on the sea, in the homes of town and city, not only in Canada and the United States, but also in practically every country in the world for a few simple ailments which are everywhere prevalent, and for which this remedy has been found to give prompt and effective treatment.

In cold climates and in the winter season of others, a tea- spoonful of PAINKILLER in a glass of warm water or milk will bring in acute attacks of stomach and bowel trouble caused by unwise eating.

PAINKILLER is also a very effective Liniment for bruises, sprains, insect bites and stings. In fact, this real Home Remedy is a good thing to have always on hand at home and when travelling. Price, 50c per bottle.

New family size, containing about two and one half times the quantity of the 50c size, price $1. Families accustomed to using PAINKILLER for various purposes, will find that by purchasing the new family size, they can obtain this standard preparation at a cost, nearly as low as before these present high-cost-and-high-tax times.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

At the assizes in Walland, Ont., yesterday morning before Justice Kelly David McNeal was placed on trial for the murder of four-year-old Margaret Rowcock at Thorold on July 18. Her decomposed body with its head severed was found covered with brush near the new Welland Ship Canada on August 4. He pleaded not guilty.

Donald Martin, twelve-year-old son of C. J. Martin of Amherst, N. S., died yesterday as a result of injuries received in a motor car accident recently when a motor cycle and side car in which he was seated collided with a heavy motor truck. It is said the fen- der of the truck struck the lad's head causing concussion of the brain.

The prohibition of liquor importation into the province of Manitoba is strongly favored by the United Farmers and they are advocating a dry vote in Mon- day's referendum. Rev. Thomas New- ells denounced "bootlegging" and said it had become obnoxious in the pro- vince.

At a meeting of the directors of the Canadian Press, Limited, in Toronto yesterday it was decided to call a special meeting of the membership in Montreal with a view to passing finally on the draft agreement for an enlarged British cable service, negotiated by the management of Sir Frederick Jones of Reuters, Limited.

Archbishop Neil McNeil of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Toronto, yesterday the degree of LL.D. from St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N. S., at a banquet held in honor of his journey to Toronto. Bishop Morris- son and Dr. McPherson of the univer- sity conferred the degree.

PRICE CUTTING IN WEST. How Far Readjustment Has Gone in One Section of the Country. (Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post.)

Chicago, Oct. 14—Elimination of big profits in many commodities is having way in all sections and the west is having its findings. Where it will stop is the question. For the present the cut is 15 to 25 per cent in clothing, 10 to 20 per cent in shoes, 40 to 50 per cent in cot- ton goods, 10 to 15 in lumber, 10 to 25 per cent in furniture and trifies in the menu list of the highest priced restau- rants and hotels, coupled with the reduc- tions in automobiles, are about all that have been made. The reductions bring to light the ability of the wholesalers and retailers to secure big profits, and to the casual observer the question of what is a fair and reasonable profit.

Sugar has dropped to fifteen cents a pound and under at retail. Flour is nearly 85 per barrel from the highest war level, which is over 95 per bushel from the war price. But meat and eggs are close to the record levels and are being sustained largely by specu- lators. In normal times small profits are made by the average merchant and manufacturer, while in abnormal times the question of profits is a de- bateable question, as high prices neces- sitate greater risks and are in a measure inadvisable.

One factor that is noticeable is the increased disposition on the part of workers to use more common sense and silver hairpins are being saved than heretofore and more work is being done by reduced forces. Employers are weeding out the slackers and those who are left have speeded up, not only in the factories but in the offices.

IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY. In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for October 21, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment: Pittsburgh openly admits that the steel market there has developed more than usual firmness, and that there is a feeling of confidence in the market. While this may be so, yet it is not reflected to any great extent in Canada, in fact some of the merchants in the steel and iron busi- ness say that the situation has become stronger during the last week. A few days ago, they say, there was a feeling that the bottom might fall out of the market but it has become fairly well es- tablished since then that there is not anticipated any sharp reduction in prices.

Some of the material that has been turned loose by the cancellations of the automobile plants is being taken up by other concerns, and there are cases where considerable relief has been afforded by this action.

Dealers in small tools do not look for any change in the prices of their pre- sential goods at this time, but they are holding their goods at once in the present market, so the most of the business is being done in small lots. Prices quoted being more or less nominal, and cannot be guaranteed. Some of the trade look for a lower price, and when this comes they believe trade will increase.

SYLVIA PANKHURST IS IN COURT; REMANDED. In London, Oct. 20—Sylvia Pankhurst, who was taken into custody yesterday, was arraigned today, charged with at- tempting to cause sedition in the navy by editing and publishing an issue of the newspaper "The Workers' Dreadnought" on Oct. 16, containing an article on Dis- content on the Lower Decks." She was remanded for one week. Bail was granted her.

FAVOR CHINESE LABOR IN CANADA AND STATES. Montreal, Oct. 22—Hon. F. C. Hurley, minister of Agriculture, a recent candi- date for governorship of that state, urged in an address before the Kiwanis club the introduction and employment of Chinese laborers in Canada and the United States for agricultural, railroad building and other constructive work. A straw vote showed 111 members of the club in favor of the proposition, and five against.

ANOTHER WAR SECRET LET OUT

How $260,000,000 in Russian Gold Was Transported Secretly Through Vancouver — Work of the Rainbow.

(By Canadian Press)
 Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 20.—Two seemingly unrelated items appeared recently in news despatches which recited a hitherto unpublished and romantic story of the war. The scene centred in Vancouver, but under censorship rules the story could not be published at the time.

The two items were these: A Reuter despatch in which Mr. Novitsky, former assistant to the minister of finance in the All-Russian government, hinted at the huge amount of gold which was shipped through Vancouver during the war, including 60,000,000 pounds from Vladivostok; a statement of the sale of the obsolete government warship Rainbow to a Seattle firm.

Both Mr. Novitsky and the Rainbow were central figures in one of the most interesting incidents of the war so far as it affected Vancouver.

The first shipment of Russian gold, amounting to about $45,000,000 arrived here in the February of 1916. It was in the form of bullion encased in boxes about fifteen inches long, six inches wide and three or four deep. It was loaded at Vladivostok for transfer to the mint at Ottawa, and came across the Pacific in a big Japanese warship with Novitsky in charge of the treasure.

The treasure warship never came into harbor. Far out at sea off Cape Flattery in a half gale the warship was met by the little Rainbow and the precious freight transferred between the heaves of the rollers. The most elaborate measures of secrecy were observed and it was three o'clock of a morning dark and wet, when the Rainbow nosed her way to Shed One on the C.P. R. docks here.

Awaiting her were Mr. Peters and Mr. Vickers, head of the foreign department of the Dominion Express Company, who came out especially from Montreal, to superintend the transfer of the bullion across the continent. A specially selected crew of trusted men had been warned to be on hand for special duty and marched down to the wharf after midnight under special guards, and without any information of their duty or destination.

Awaiting the Rainbow was a train of coaches disguised as a silk train with five special express cars. On each of these cars was loaded $9,000,000 worth of gold. Four men armed heavily with rifles and revolvers received the cargo from the sailors. Each car was then closed, the doors heavily barred and guard mounted. The guards stood equal shifts throughout the journey. A telephone system connected the whole train and when any of the sentinels wished to pass to the dining or to any other car they did so only on release from the official car to the door keepers. These doors were never opened when the train was at a standstill. No guard was permitted to show himself at the windows in passing through towns. The train, at night, ran in absolute darkness, the men doing their work by flashlight.

This was the first of four or five such trains which passed through Vancouver during a period of a year and a half, the details being as follows: February 1916

$45,000,000; August, 1916, $50,000,000; January, 1917, $117,000,000; August, 1917, $60,000,000.

Do you know there are only two methods of Knitting Underwear?

1. One is the method used in the manufacturing of "CEETEE"—knitted on full fashioning machines, which "knit-to-fit"—used only by Turnbull's, and by no other underwear manufacturer in Canada.

THIS IS THE NAME "CEETEE" THE PURE WOOL UNDERCLOTHING THAT WILL NOT SHRINK "The Woolen Underwear without the itch"

THIS IS THE TRADE MARK GUARANTEED UNSHRINKABLE CEETEE PURE WOOL Look for the Sheep on every garment.

2. The other method is that of knitting on circular knitting machines, such as are used by every other manufacturer of knitted underwear in Canada—also by Turnbull's, for their other lines.

Good appearance, wonderful softness, ease and comfort in fit, with quality always first, the best yarns, the most modern process of manufacture—are embodied in all Turnbull's Underwear.

For over sixty years Turnbull's have specialized in the making of high grade knitted underwear in Canada.

The Finest In Quality, The Greatest In Value, Our Tailored-to-Measure Clothes

Cost You Less, But They Look Better And Wear Longer

IT is human nature for all of us to aspire to have the best of everything, the choicest cuts of meat, aisle seats at the theatre, etc.—but these days when few of us can afford to humor our expensive fancies—in English & Scotch Woollen Co. Tailored-to-Measure Suits and Overcoats the quality and value are in the finished garments and not in the price. Our Dominion Wide Tailoring Service paves the way to decided economy in the matter of men's clothes.

We tailor clothes to measure for men in all walks of life, for the mechanic or millionaire—our garments require no apology in any company, they reflect credit on us as the makers and you as wearer.
