London, Wednesday Oct. 18.

—Lady Aberdeen, wife of the new Governor-General, is an active supporter of the woman's franchise reform. She is announced to speak at a meeting in its behalf in Toronto, probably on Friday of next week.

—A closer union between the G. T. R. and the Reading Railway is now talked of. The G. T. R. cannot have too many leaders to suit the people of London, whose interests are bound up to a very great extent with the prosperity of the line.

—The plentifulness of money in Great Britain at the present time is fittingly exemplified in the experience of the Government of New South Wales. Subscriptions for a loan of $12,500,000 were asked, and the enormous sum of $32,500,000 was subscribed. Despite the gloomy forebodings of Canadian "protectionists" the mother land is still the money mart of the world.

—Call out the militia! George Robertson, president of the Halifax, N. S., Board of Trade, and a leading Conservative, positively announces that unless the Maritime Provinces are better treated than they have been in recent years the time will come when they will demand separation from Canada. The Conservatives down by the sea must certainly be enjoying that prosperity which Sir John Thompson insists everywhere flows from the policy of high taxation!

—The Free Press being the judge, the Dominion Government has distinctly annexationist tendencies. It has fixed on the fourth Thursday of November as the National Thanksgiving Day, thereby following the example of the United States, which has always decreed that Thanksgiving Day over the border should be on the day named. If this "Americanizing of our institutions" is to go on, what a fearful state our contemporary will be landed in!

—The Empress Eugenie has been the guest of Queen Victoria at Abberley Castle, Scotland, for the past month. Poor Eugenie! Her downfall was a sad one, but her later years are cheered by the steady friendship of the British Queen. The kindness is not misinterpreted by the French. They know that it has no political meaning, but is inspired by a sympathetic nature. In suspicious bygone ages a similar association of the ex-Empress of the French with the British sovereign would in all probability have led to a declaration of war!

—By cable we learn that Marshal MacMahon, one of the best-known French generals, has passed away at the ripe old age of 85. MacMahon was an intrepid warrior. He first claimed public attention by his services in the Crimean war. The capture of the Malakoff was largely due to him. In the Italian war his distinguished services won for him the marshal's staff, and in the Franco German war of 1870, he proved by far the ablest general that led a force against the over-victorious foe. Soon after the close of the war he was elected second President of the Republic, and at a time when there were many temptations for those in authority he so ruled that when he retired from office no one could say that his record had a blemish. Full of years and worthy of all honor the aged marshal quits the earthly scene.

—One of the most important books issued in Canada this year is the volume containing a full report of the proceedings—speeches, resolutions, etc.—of the Dominion Liberal convention at Ottawa. It is issued in two forms. One, in paper cover, is sold at 25 cents, and the other, illustrated with the portraits of the Dominion chiefmen, Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, the four Premiers and other political leaders in attendance at the convention, costs $1. Londoners will be interested in knowing that the portrait of Mr. C. S. Hyman, M.P., is among the number. This book is handsomely bound in cloth. The work, in one binding or another, is certain to be much sought after. All Liberals will, of course, desire to be possessed of the report, and every Conservative who wishes to be fully posted as to the principles espoused by his opponents will doubtless secure a copy. Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, who has examined the book, gives it as his belief that it is as correctly reported as could possibly be. It is issued by the Budget Printing and Publishing Co., Toronto, and may be ordered through the booksellers. May we suggest that local Liberal associations undertake to have the book extensively circulated in the constituencies.

THE TWO LEADERS.
It will be time enough to nominate a leader for the Liberals in the Provincial Legislature when Sir Oliver Mowat gives up the reins. We believe that Sir Oliver will be Premier of Ontario and Liberal leader for years to come, and that when in the natural order of things he steps aside, there will be no more difficulty in finding a successor for him than there was in securing a Conservative chief when Sir John Macdonald died. Sir Oliver has trained and gathered around him several able lieutenants, any one of whom could with propriety be looked upon as able to assume the leadership. But the question is not a vital one for Liberals. To their opponents it seems to be a needlessly fruitless theme of discussion. They would be better employed settling their own domestic affairs, which, at last accounts, are announced to be decidedly tangled. By the way what is the cry that Mr. Meredith means to adopt in the coming campaign—that of 1882 or that of 1886 and 1890? A new edition of "facts for Irish electors" seems to be due at this stage of his party's development.

LOST—A KNIGHT!
Even the Royal Commission on the liquor traffic failed to bring Sir John Carling out of his seclusion. If the commissioners were really anxious for information they would have seen that the father of the traffic in intoxicants in this region was put in a position to give his views on the liquor traffic in its various ramifications.

Sir John was entirely left out of the political programme compiled by Dr. Roome, the newly-chosen Conservative leader in the west, but that fact surely had no influence with the commissioners and their advisers. Dr. Roome may regard Sir John Carling as no longer an authority on horses, eggs, bananas and oranges, on which he was wont to instruct the western electorate, but who dares to say that the ex-member for London is not an authority on pale ale and bottled stout?

AN EDITOR SENT TO JAIL.
There is no better known or more highly respected newspaper man in the Maritime Provinces than Mr. John V. Ellis, editor of the St. John Globe. He has been in harness for many years, and has ever had the courage of his convictions. For the next month he will be kept in jail, and in addition have to pay a fine of $200 and all the expenses of the action brought against him by a judge of the New Brunswick Supreme Court, whose conduct in connection with the infamous Queen's county seat trial, he, as a duty to the public, criticised some six years ago. The case has been kept in court ever since, causing great annoyance and loss to Mr. Ellis, whose friends hold that the action was not well grounded, and was only proceeded with to the bitter end to meet the revengeful desires of political enemies. In any case it seems to us that the sentence was altogether too severe, and such as to warrant the adverse comments that have been made regarding it. The judges even refused to suspend judgment till an appeal was made to the British Privy Council, by which body, it is fully believed, Mr. Ellis would have been acquitted of all blame. It need surprise no one if the imprisoned editor, like his predecessors who have been sent to jail for plain and unvarnished discussion of public affairs, becomes a hero. His host of friends in the Province by the sea should at least see that he is subjected to no pecuniary loss from his unflinching advocacy of what he believes to be honest in the selection of public representatives. The memory of the Queen's county seat trial can no more be blotted out by sending John V. Ellis to jail than would the London election outrage be palliated by the meting out of similar punishment to the candid critic of these responsible for that outrage.

THE PEOPLE CAN BE TRUSTED.
A Conservative contemporary, which has generally voiced the opinion of the liquor makers, now professes great fear lest Hon. Wilfrid Laurier will not permit the people to express their desires on the subject of prohibition when he comes into power at Ottawa in the near future. It is really childish to keep on arguing in this strain. Not only Mr. Laurier, but the whole Liberal party, through the largest representative convention ever held in Canada, are pledged to take the voice of the people on this subject, by means of a popular vote, at the earliest opportunity. And as the people vote, so must the line of action be. Locally, the plebiscite worked like a charm. Will any objector to the plebiscite tell us why the plebiscite cannot be fairly applied to the whole Dominion?

The present title, holiness, as given to the Pope, dates only from the fourteenth century. Before that time it was used by kings and emperors.

By old English law a baron was required to have at least five hides of land, a church, a kitchen, a bellhouse, and a borough gate with a seat in it.

Fire was originally used to designate the proprietor of a farm. Rising in dignity it was afterwards applied to a nobleman, then used in addressing a monarch.

News from Lieutenant Peary's party indicate that they are not suffering the terrors of an Arctic winter to any great extent. The lieutenant on his arrival at Godhaven gave a watermelon party to the Danish in- habitants, none of whose households had seen fruit of any kind for many years.

Queen Victoria insists on her small grandsons wearing Highland dress when they are with her. Even the little girls of the Duke of Connaught wear plaid kilts, Scotch caps and short jackets when they are under the eye of their royal grandmother.

The introduction of firearms had no perceptible influence on tactics for nearly a century. The early firearms were so clumsy that a dozen arrows would be fired before a gun could be reloaded, and several great soldiers of that day regarded the firearms as valuable only to frighten the enemy's horses.

The Duke of Wellington, who has never been reckoned among the wealthiest of British peers, has come in for £4,500 a year under the will of his mother, the late Lady Charles Wellesley. His father, Mr. Henry Pierrepont, left her a fine fortune at his death. Her estate near Andover, Conholt Park, has also come to the duke.

Percy Burt, Little Wittenham Rectory, Berks, Eng., writes under date Sept. 14: "I have this day gathered perfectly ripe and well grown strawberries (Laxton's No. 1) from my garden. The plants produced a large crop early in the season, and now many of them are again in blossom and bearing fruit. One is nearly five inches in circumference. In this village the rainfall for the first months of the year amounted only 599 inches."

The delicacy of Sir John Thompson's assurances on questions that are apparent in the public mind at the present time is suggestive of a certain Indian medicine man who when consulted as to the probability of success, assumed a contemplative mood, viewed the heavens and replied in all earnestness: "Perhaps rain; perhaps snow, perhaps not."

O'wellings in the neck since I was 10 years old; am now 52. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared. It has been very troublesome. When I began, I was feeling so dispirited, and with the colic and rheumatism I felt that I would soon be dead. Whenever I caught cold I could not eat two weeks without fainting. Now I am from it all and I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jeanie Higgin, now of Fremont, Mich., saying if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; replied it was, and sent particulars. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending it.

London Plays a Lively Football Game With Petrolia.

Two More Games to Come Off Here on Saturday—General Sporting News.

LONDON VS. PETROLIA.

A very exciting and closely-contested game was played on the home grounds yesterday afternoon between the above clubs, the captains tussling for choice of goals, the visitors winning, elected to defend the southern goal, thus leaving the sun and wind in their favor. Barrie, for London, kicking off at 4 p.m., sent the ball well down the field, where it fell into Anderson's hands, who promptly returned it. G. Sippl, obtaining possession of the oval and making his mark, placed the ball for Miligan, who failed to obtain a goal. The home team, rushing down on the ball, forced Petrolia to rouse 1 point. After ten minutes of hard play Petrolia forced the ball into touch, in goal—1 point for the visitors. Barrie kicked off at the 25 yards, and after a series of free kicks and scrimmages, Lightbourne, following up well, obtained a try—four points more for London. The kick, being a very efficient one, a goal was not obtained. The pike-in was set in motion by Anderson, the visitors following well up the field, where a series of scrimmages followed, Center heeling the ball out to Cliff Watson, who passed it to W. Watson, who in turn to Auld, who made a good run and obtained a try for Petrolia—4 points. Lightbourne placing the ball, Anderson kicked off at 25 yards, and the home team following well, some pretty pieces of play took place between A. Sippl, G. Sippl, Lind, Beltz and Barrie, who forced the ball into touch-in goal—1 point. After a few minutes play, the oval was returned again into touch-in goal—1 point more for London. The ball was again sent going by Walker, who was playing in his usual good form, the home team following well; Crawford getting the ball made a grand rush through the scrum and obtained a try—4 points. Barrie placing the ball, Miligan obtained a goal—2 points more. Anderson kicking off again, sent the ball well into London's territory. The visitors following well, forced the home team to rouse—1 point. This ended the scoring for both sides, the score standing 13 in all; but London having a majority of 3 points from the previous match wins their series and play the Hamilton team here next Saturday. Special mention should be made of the play of the following: Lightbourne, Barrie, Walker, A. Sippl, G. Sippl and Lind; for Petrolia—Lightbourne, Barrie, Walker, A. Sippl, G. Sippl and Lind; for Petrolia—Lightbourne, Barrie, Walker, A. Sippl, G. Sippl and Lind.

BRANT.

An estimate of the number of Brantfordites who have thus far visited Chicago, together with their expenses while there, shows that some 900 citizens have spent $50,000 in this way.

Friday morning a horse and buggy were stolen from the Brantford House stable. Brantford, Constable Adams started on the hunt, and succeeded in running down the thief. He turned out to be Adam Walker, an old-timer, who is said to have spent 25 years in Kingston as a result of similar escapades.

H. F. White, the defaulting treasurer of the Walkerville malleable iron works, has been remanded until Oct. 21. He may be released on bail.

It is said that the Dominion Government will reward the crew of the Louise who rescued the crew of the schooner David Stewart that was wrecked near Leamington.

A. Macfie, general manager for British Columbia of the Federal Life Assurance Company, died in Vancouver on Monday. The deceased was well known in Windsor, where he lived for some time. He years ago had a large drygoods store in Chatham. Four hundred and eighty dog tags have been issued up to date in Windsor.

During the year ending Sept. 20 there were 250 summary convictions in Windsor and 61 indictable offences.

ELGIN.

Wm. McKay, of Southwell Station, died Monday of paralysis, aged 88 years. The deceased was a native of Shulbourn, N.S., and spent one-half his life, 44 years, in Southwell. His wife died last spring. The deceased leaves five children—William, of Carlton, Mich.; Abner, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; James, near Jutson; Mrs. John Wells, Bothwell, and Syrus, on the home-stead.

Geo. J. Willis, appointed United States consul for St. Thomas and Port Stanley, arrived in St. Thomas. Mr. Willis is a single man about 30 years of age. He has been practicing law for five years at Butler, in the State of Georgia, of which state he is a native. He is a Democrat, of course, and of Democratic stock from away back.

The Conservative convention for local purposes in West Elgin will be held at Dutton, Oct. 26.

Mrs. Margaret Axford, formerly matron of the Thomas William Home, St. Thomas, was found dead in bed at the residence of her nephew, Mark Bowry, in that city Tuesday morning. Death was caused by apoplexy.

The jail statistics of Perth county for the year ending Sept. 30, show that the number of persons committed to be 125. Of these, 81 were of temperate habits.

WELLINGTON.

A new phase of the Roth case was developed Sunday night, when Joseph Ziegler, proprietor of the Eden Mills Hotel, was lodged in jail here by Constable Elliott. It will be remembered that a coroner's jury brought in a verdict to the effect that the child of Emma Roth, Ziegler's housekeeper, had come to its death through being placed on a stove by some party or parties unknown. Ziegler was the only person in the house at the time, the child's mother having gone to the city. The accused, it is expected, will be tried at the assizes which open at Oshawa on Monday. As far as can be learned, the case for the crown rests entirely on the circumstantial evidence adduced at the inquest.

Boring the Big Cheese

Canada's Unique Contribution to the Dairy Exhibit.

At the Columbian Exposition in Chicago.

The Colossal Cheese Hated at Ninety-five Points Out of a Possible Hundred—Flavor and Texture Remarkably Fine—Good Prospects for Prizes in the Poultry Department.

Special Correspondence of the ADVERTISER.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Quite a large party of interested spectators witnessed the boring of the big cheese by Prof. Robertson. Among them were W. Bissell, of Brockville, president of the Eastern Dairywomen's Association; W. Ajar, ex-president; D. Derbyshire, D. M. Macpherson, of Lancaster; Jas. Raside, M. P. P. for Glenora; Andrew Pattullo, of Woodstock; Col. Patton, of Bromes, representing the Quebec dairy interest, and the dairy commissioners from the competing States. A tier 33 inches long was bored into the mammoth and the plug inspected by the judges of the regular exhibit, Messrs. A. E. McLaren, of Windsor, G. E. Perkins, New York, and A. H. Barber, of Chicago. The same scale was applied to the big cheese as to the smaller ones in the dairy barn, and it was rated at 95 points out of a possible 100.

Mr. Barber said he considered the cheese a great piece of work and a credit to the maker. The flavor, texture, etc., were very remarkable for the length of time made. He had never tried a large cheese of so good, and it was wonderful that it had retained its flavor in the temperature to which it had been exposed. Mr. McLaren said it was really marvelous how the cheese had come through the hot weather, with temperature frequently of nearly 100 degrees, and the texture was exceedingly good, the flavor was a little sharp and biting, but wonderfully fine, all things considered. He was pleased to say, as a Canadian, that he was proud of the cheese. Mr. Barber concurred in the remark of the other judges.

The big cheese, as most people will remember, was made by Mr. J. A. Riddick at Perth, Ont., in September, 1892, and is no small feat in his capacity to have such a nice thing said about it, while no stronger testimony could be borne to the keeping quality of the cheese product of the leading Province of the Dominion.

The judging of the regular cheese exhibit has been going on continuously this week, and is not yet finished. It is as yet too soon to give any particulars, but I am able to say that the cheese of '92 scored very high, and that those of '93 will likely be away up also.

The stock barns which have rounded to a medley of sounds for the past two months are now in possession for the most part of fowls of high and low degree. The birds are now going on very expertly, and are not yet finished. It is as yet too soon to give any particulars, but I am able to say that the cheese of '92 scored very high, and that those of '93 will likely be away up also.

CHATEAUGUAY ELECTORS

Give Hon. Wilfrid Laurier a Warm Reception.

The Lesson of the Exodus Emphasized—Onions of a Liberal Victory.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—The Liberals of the county of Chateauguay held a very successful demonstration at Ste. Martine, the chief town of the county, and a couple of thousand people at least turned out for the demonstration to Mr. Laurier.

The meeting was held in the fair grounds. Mr. Brown, M. P. for Chateauguay, opened the meeting with a brief address, quoting census figures to show that from 1871 to 1891 the population of the county of Huntingdon and Chateauguay had decreased by over 5,000. People were forced to emigrate to escape the heavy burdens placed upon them in the country.

Mr. Laurier, in his address, again emphasized the Liberal policy. The farmers were aware that the country was in a worse condition now than fifteen years ago. The value of property had depreciated, and that in a most striking manner. All the farmers of Chateauguay were well aware of that. The farms were good there, but the policy of the Government ruined the farmer. In spite of the fact that Chateauguay was one of the poorest of the counties, there was not a family that had not some of its members in the United States, forced to emigrate to earn their living. There was some reason why emigration should exist from many countries in Europe because of oppression, but there was no reason for that in this country. Canada had all it needed but a policy. The one which now existed was not that of the people, but of the manufacturers and capitalists. If emigration existed here, it was because agriculture did not give the returns which the farmers have reason to expect. If the farming community would only consider the tariff as they should, they would declare for tariff reform. In spite of the fact that the country was in an impoverished condition, the present Government had increased the expenses from $20,000,000 in 1878 to $38,000,000 last year. As between the interest of farmers and those of the manufacturers, Mr. Laurier declared he would stand by the farmers.

Mr. Laurier denounced the charge of disloyalty made against him. He charged Sir John Thompson with shirking his duty in the Manitoba school matter and allowing the rights of the minority to be sacrificed. Mr. Laurier expressed his conviction that the Liberals were on the eve of a victory.

Death of a Giant.
CEMMING, N. D., Oct. 17.—Carl Roule, of Trail county, who died in Belmont Sunday last, was probably the largest man in the world. He weighed 530 pounds, and the exact measure of his coffin was 78 feet long, 3 feet wide and 24 feet deep.

Old Enough to Know Better.
TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 17.—R. P. Beeber, aged 85, the father of nineteen children and four times married, committed suicide Sunday afternoon at his home in North Topeka with the aid of a double-barreled shotgun. The old man had grown despondent because of ill-health.

A Forger Pleads Guilty.
PETERBORO, Oct. 17.—A young man who gave his name as William Conley, and who said he came from Golderich, pleaded out a suit of clothes at Golderich, and pleaded an order signed "Mr. William Logan." The order was refused, and he said he would call again. On Saturday he returned with a note drawn in favor of William R. Watson and signed John H. Bane, 227 Charlotte street. This was also refused, and the young man was arrested. He had in his pocket notes aggregating $600, purporting to be signed by different business men. He pleaded guilty on two charges at the Police Court and was remanded until Friday.

Death Due to a Seidlitz Powder.
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Christine Kroys, 20 years old, a servant employed by Mrs. George Smith, Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, died last week under circumstances which seem to indicate that her death was due to the taking of a seidlitz powder contrary to directions. She was found unconscious on the floor, with her lips covered with a white powder. A physician decided that she had died of asphyxiation, brought on by a violent fit of coughing. On a table in the room was found a glass partly filled with water, containing a white sediment. Close by were the familiar blue and white papers of seidlitz powders. The sediment in the glass was the powder from one paper only. It is thought that the girl swallowed one powder after another, which brought on violent coughing.

SCIENCE AND REALITY.

"She was a pretty Christian Scientist; There's nothing real," said she.
"Except the soul—my body is not real;
And that's too bad," thought he."Pain is not real—this hammock is not real Wherein you think I sit."
He looked at the spoke the hammock's fastening broke,
And threw her out of it."Full hard she bumped her immortal form,
Who could but sympathize,
He longed that she would let a heretic Pretend to help her rise."Then oh! The scorn of her rejection was A something wholly real.
And she the limp with which she walked away, Proclaimed that she could feel."

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—It is said that Conductor Snider is about to quit railroading and to go into retirement.—Miss Lillie Fournier, of Cornwall, Ont., is visiting her friend, Mrs. John H. Johnson, 884 Queen's avenue.—It is Henry E. Jones who has gone to California, not Henry H. Nelles, surgeon-dentist, as many people supposed.—The London Choral Society, under the leadership of Mr. Roselle Pococke, has commenced practice for the winter months.—Mr. W. Sharman, of Winnipeg, who has been visiting his father, Assistant Postmaster Sharman, has returned home with his wife.—London has a new resident—Mr. Robt.
McLeann—who has just arrived from far-off
New Zealand to accept a situation with an agricultural implement firm.—The recent rains have raised the water in the north branch of the river considerably, as for the first time in some months
the water is running over Saunby's dam.—All students of the perfect instrument, the violin, should hear Miss Lotta Fetherton and the Haydn String Quartet in Victoria Hall on Thursday evening. Plan at William's Music House.—John French, of Caradoc, who is charged by Jonathan Flexen, of the same place, with writing a libelous letter in regard to complainant, appeared before Squire Smyth yesterday and was remanded
for a week.—The male employees of the Bell Telephone Company here have equipped a handsome gymnasium. The telephone operator, by virtue of his "calling," gets a pretty good share of lung exercise. The purpose of the gymnasium is to develop other muscles.—Mr. James Harlow, an employee of the London and Petroleum Barrel Company, gashed his thigh badly with a circular saw the other day, and has since been confined to his bed at his home at 707 Simcoe street. He is now recovering.—Rev. J. S. Clarke, Methodist minister of Norwood, chairman of that district,
who has been in attendance at the Hamilton meeting of the missionary board, is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Liddicoat, St. James street,
city.—"Jane," the sparkling farcical comedy
which has been performed with enormous success over three consecutive years
throughout England and the United States, will be seen at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night, with the added interest of the principal New York cast, including Miss Kitty Cheabahal, late of Daly's, New York, and London theater companies, as Jane, and Mr. Robert Cotton, in his original character of William. The comedy bubbles over with mirth, and the humor is of the light, agreeable and quickly-comprehended kind. The story of "Jane," with all its amusing plot does not, however, reveal all the fun there is in it. Its dialogue is bright with speeches that derive their humor partly from the circumstances.

The Plebiscite Campaign.

By request, the Rev. Walter Rigby, of this city, delivered an address on behalf of the "Plebiscite," under the auspices of the Epworth League, in the Methodist Church,
Belmont, on Monday evening. Rev. Mr.
Racey (Episcopalian) followed with an earnest appeal on behalf of prohibition.
The sympathy of the very attentive audience was manifestly with the movement, and the interest will doubtless increase as the time of voting draws nearer.The regular meeting of the London Humane Society was held yesterday, and was largely attended. Inspector Crawford reported having attended to seventeen cases of cruelty in the last month, which might otherwise have escaped notice. He had been in Detroit and had gleaned valuable information as to humane methods in that city, some of which will be applied here.
In the spring a number of stone water troughs will be distributed over the city.
The annual meeting of the society will be held Nov. 21, to be followed in the evening
by a public meeting, at which it is expected ex-Mayor Howland, of Toronto, and others will speak.

Cooper—Waddell.

The first wedding in the new Synod
Hall, and therefore the first in the new St.
Paul's Cathedral, of which the former is a part, was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock in the presence of a large and well-dressed crowd. The bride was Miss Daisy Waddell, of Ridout street, city, and the groom Mr. W. F. Cooper, manager of the Bank of Toronto in Petros, late of the London branch of the same bank. The bridesmaid was Miss Ethel Waddell, of Montreal, cousin of the bride; the groom was assisted by Mr. Adam Beck, of London. The beautiful marriage service of the Anglican Church was conducted by the Dean of Huron and Rev. Canon Cooper of Port Hope, father of the groom. The bride looked decidedly handsome in white,
as did the bridesmaid in harmonizing colors. After the wedding a quiet recep-tion was held at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Frederick Hammond, Kent street, and Mr. and Mrs.
Cooper left at 7 p.m. for the World's Fair. They are both well and favorably known in the Forest City. Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. and Miss Waddell, of Montreal.
