

ROOSEVELT'S DAY AT CHICAGO A TRIUMPH FOR BULL MOOSE; CHEERED BY FIFTEEN THOUSAND

Given an Ovation at the Progressive Convention
That Lasts for an Hour—Lady Delegates Lead in Demonstrations.

BRASS BANDS, SONGS AND COW-BELLS MAKE PANDEMONIUM OF COLISEUM

In Speech Declares Both Republican and Democratic Parties Are Run by the Bosses and That Only the Progressives
Can Deliver the People.

[Special Correspondence to The Advertiser by H. F. Gadsby.]
Chicago, Aug. 6.—(Coliseum Building)—This is Teddy's Day. Teddy is the hero. Teddy, who is the party, the platform and the candidate, is speaking to the faithful in the National Progressive Convention assembled. Chairman Beveridge announces that the hour has struck and he produces the man. A great roar of joy goes up which lasts an hour. Despised and rejected by wicked steam-roller men he may be, but here the Bull Moose is among his own. The Bull Moose and his bull mice.

A GREAT BULL-DOZER.

T. R. was always a great bull-dozer. The Bull Moose and Teddy bear—how can a man be a bull and a bear at the same time. Only heaven and Theodore know. Big Chief Bull Moose has many totems. Over his head, put there by a bright thinker from Pennsylvania, is a rough-rider hat in an iron ring, a suspended halo, a crown on a string. So far nobody seems to have thought of a gargantuan set of upper teeth as a stage property.

THE BATTLE FLAG.

Bull Moose looks at the bull mouse head over the main door. The mouse head wears a red bandanna. Bull Moose's battle flag. Bull Moose smiles for this is fame. His face has appeared on the gilded corsets of millions of cigars; thousands of babies and political clubs have been named after him, but all this is nothing. The pinnacle of glory is to be an emblem. The Bull Moose takes his big place in history beside the Republican elephant and the Democratic donkey.

A NOBLE ANIMAL.

Much has been said against the bull mouse. He has been called the Israelite of the wilderness. He has an underlip that would trip a goat. He has been accused of having a big head, no spunk and a crooked tail, but now that he is an emblem he is all right. He is a noble animal. He classes up with the British lion and the American eagle, not to mention Adam Zed, the Russian bear, the Chinese dragon and other distinguished members of the international menagerie.

LIKES LOTS OF NOISE.

Bull Moose has many savage aids to noise. Three bands play, two brass and one fife and drum. The brass bands play: "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," "Hot Time in the Old Town," and "Everybody's Doing It." What they are playing is the truth except the last number. It should be "Everybody's Overdoing It." The fife and drum band does not play Twelfth of July tunes, although there might be a reason for it if they did. They play something just as good, something wild and stirring.

GREAT MEDICINE.

This shrill, squeaking music is the kind the Bull Moose likes best. It gets into his blood. It gets into his bones. He beats time to it. The snare-drum rattles like a musketry salute, the bass throbs like an Indian war dance. Have you ever heard the hallelujah in front of a sideshow. Well, it sounds like that. It keeps the crowd coming. Silence might be awkward when you are out to touch the long-distance demonstration record of one hour and fifteen minutes made by Woodrow Wilson at the Baltimore convention. The fife and drum band fills in the spaces with thunder and lightning. It is great medicine. The Bull Moose likes it up.

TWISTED HYMNS.

It was a peaceful if noisy meeting until the Bull Moose entered at ten minutes to 1, forty minutes late, to put an edge on its eagerness. It was the Bull Moose gave it this martial turn. Before that it had been piously happy. It had been singing Roosevelt to the tune of "My Maryland," and "Follow, Follow, I Will Follow Roosevelt, Anywhere, Everywhere." Well, if you have not forgotten your Sunday school days you will remember the rest and have some idea how much his own people think of the Bull Moose. So far were they gone in this mood of worship that it shaped up more like a camp meeting where the glory was working than a political convention. But the Bull Moose changed all that. Perhaps it was better he did. It is a long time now since any statesman was quite good enough to have hymns twisted his way.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND THERE.

Of this ardent spirit there are fifteen thousand in the Coliseum this bright sunny day. Not an empty seat. The flashlight photograph will look well in print. It will be evidence. This is a great mass meeting of the common people assembled to do homage to their idol. The boxes are not crowded with distinguished guests with money. They are filled with ordinary citizens whose votes are just as good and more contagious. Is it any wonder the Bull Moose beams? Meanwhile the demonstration was merely on. It is organized uplift with a vengeance. That is to say every time the riot threatens to sag, somebody or something lifts it up.

COW-BELLS AND RAH-RAHS.

A delegate gives the mouse call—it sounds like a cow caught in a gate. A messenger boy rings a cow-bell. A young man blows a horn. A stout woman in the gallery, stout where the swan is stout, waves a "Votes for Women" flag. A pretty girl who has taken first-class honors in college yells, rah-rah her head off. A youth in a red tie and blue shirt gives a life-like imitation of St. Vitus dance. A r-o-o-o-ollling baritone starts a song in the choir loft. An octette sneaks in a little harmony between cheers. Secretary Davis reads a "Wish I were with you" telegram from Colonel Nelson, of the Kansas City Star. Beveridge's phrase, "Pass Prosperity Around," passes around on a bill-board.

SIXTY MINUTES OF CHEERING.

The lady delegates shake hands with Col. Roosevelt. One state parades, then another. An inspired person throws a Teddy hat into the crowd. The blamed thing is in the ring again. The Bull Moose takes a hand in the game. When it comes to lifting a demonstration up Teddy is some strong. He blows his nose. (Loud cheers). He mops his brow. (Loud cheers). He smiles. (Prolonged cheers). He waves his bandanna. (Tremendous cheers). Bandanna throats will be sore tonight. Bandanna will be worn mostly around the neck instead of goose oil and red flannel. The colonel is a good soldier. He stands up to it. He can take all they can give him. He is a hog for that sort of punishment. But an end must come to everything. It is now sixty minutes since the cheering began, and the people are tired out and sitting down. Sixty minutes is proof enough.

THE BULL MOOSE BELLOW.

Chairman Beveridge's gavel raps sharply three times, and this time the raps are obeyed. The Bull Moose gets his hearing.

The Bull Moose is stout and fits his frock coat tightly. As usual his forelock is mussed up. He has a bullet head and an underhanging jaw. His figure is blocky and suggests the square. He has a face like a super Dreadnought. Continued on Page Two.

Young Lady Who Was on Visit to Sweetheart.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Detroit, Aug. 7.—Frances Sproul, a bookkeeper, 21 years old, is under arrest at the central police station pending an investigation for violation of the immigration laws. Miss Sproul left her home last Saturday and met her sweetheart, a Bay City, Mich., man, in Windsor. The couple expected to get married, but Miss Sproul says as the marriage license offices were closed and no license could be obtained, she came to Detroit with her sweetheart and accompanied him to his home in Bay City. They returned to Detroit Monday night, but for some reason have not as yet been married. Miss Sproul declares she would not be married on American soil after she was arrested by Detectives Wilson and Black.

Her sweetheart begged for an hour's grace, saying he would wed the young girl in that time. The police did not grant his request, and the young girl is held pending a report from Washington regarding her deportation.

T. R.'S PROGRESSIVE PARTY WILL TODAY NAME ROOSEVELT

Oratorical Pyrotechnics Scheduled for Last Day of the Big Pow-Wow at Chicago—Candidate and Running Mate to Tour the Country.

[Canadian Press.]
CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Members of the new National Progressive party planned to nominate Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as their standard-bearer in the presidential race and to ring down the curtain on their first national convention today. According to the arrangements of the leaders the convention will conclude amid a display of oratorical pyrotechnics that is expected to attract thousands of spectators to the coliseum.

Big Ones to Speak.

Col. Roosevelt's name, formally will be placed in nomination by William A. Prendergast, of New York, a short time after the delegates reconvene at 11 o'clock this morning. Mr. Prendergast's nominating address will be followed by the seconding speeches of eight persons well known throughout the country, headed by Miss Jane Adams, Illinois settlement worker and suffrage leader. Those who will make seconding speeches are: Miss Jane Adams, Chicago; Judge Ben B. Lindsay, Colorado; Governor Hiram W. Johnson, California; H. P. Allen, Kansas; General Horatio C. King, New York; P. V. Collins, Minnesota; T. M. Parker, Louisiana; and Lucius F. C. Garvin. In addition to nominating Colonel Roosevelt, the convention is scheduled to name Governor Hiram Johnson, of California, for second place on the Progressive ticket, and the construction of a platform.

The first thing on the convention's third-day program is to effect a permanent organization, which probably will be accomplished quickly by making the temporary chairman, former United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, the permanent chairman and otherwise making the temporary organization permanent.

Aside from the nominations and the seconding speeches, the reports of the rules committee and the resolutions committee will be important features. T. R. and Johnson to Stump.

The platform, as presented for the Colonel's consideration early in the week, was greatly reduced in length. Immediately after the adjournment of the convention late today, the leaders will begin a series of conferences to decide plans for the Progressive campaign. It was said that United States Senator J. M. Dixon, of Montana, would head the committee, and that Oscar Straus, of New York, would be named treasurer. Also it was announced that both Col. Roosevelt and Governor Johnson would tour the stump and travel into all sections of the country.

LATER.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—At 11:10 a.m. the last day's session of the National Progressive convention, scheduled to begin at 11 o'clock, had not been called to order. At that time the platform had not been completed, a sub-committee of the committee on resolutions being in conference with Colonel Roosevelt at his downtown headquarters.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—At 11:20 a.m. no word having come from the platform committee, it was planned to have a brief session and then recess until 2:30 p.m.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF FORMER LONDON BUSINESSMAN

Mr. J. W. Driscoll, at One Time Manager of McClary Works Here, and Later of the Winnipeg Branch, Died Under Peculiar Circumstances in Western City.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—Mystery surrounds the death of J. W. Driscoll, who died crossing a car track in front of a north main street car yesterday afternoon. He either fainted or was struck by the car. This latter statement is denied by the crew of the trolley. The coroner is investigating.

Mr. Driscoll is a well-known figure about the city, and was highly respected. He lived here 26 years. During that time he was manager of the McClary Stove Works. Tuesday of last week was his 71st birthday.

Born in Ireland, Aug. 5, 1841, Mr. Driscoll came to Canada with his parents in 1853, and settled in London. Shortly afterwards he moved to Kincardine, where he went into the hardware business, and later became connected with the McClary Manufacturing Company, of London.

When the company decided to open a branch factory in Winnipeg in 1882, they sent J. W. Driscoll to take charge of it. He was manager of the local concern up to 1908, in which year, having seen the factory rise to be one of the leading establishments of the city, he retired from business. Four sons and three daughters survive.

Col. Gartshore, manager of the McClary Manufacturing Company, spoke very highly of Mr. Driscoll, who had been manager of the head factory here and also of the Winnipeg branch for many years. Mr. Driscoll, Col. Gartshore said, had been in delicate health for some time.

Five Years Each For Suffragettes

[Canadian Press.]
Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 7.—Mary Leigh, the suffragette, who was tried today, the charge of wounding John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, with a hatchet she had thrown at Premier Asquith's carriage on July 19, was sentenced today to five years' imprisonment.

Frances Evans, whose sentence was yesterday reserved, after she had been found guilty of setting fire, on July 18, to the Theatre Royal here, in which Mr. Asquith was scheduled to speak the following day on home rule, was also sentenced to a term of five years.

GRAHAM AND EVANS HOTELS GIVEN LICENSES FOR THE YEAR

Both Were Held Up in May

at These Places.

The East Tiddesex board of license commissioners have renewed for the balance of the license year the hotel license held by Ben Graham, of the Hamilton road, two miles east of the city, and that of Fred Evans, proprietor of the Evans House, at Potteryburg.

In May both licenses were renewed for a period of three months only, and the hotelmen were warned to run their places in accordance with the law or lose their licenses.

London Township gave a majority for local option, but the three-fifths clause defeated the bylaw. The township will vote in January again.

ALD. W. D. I. WRIGHT THREATENED TO RESIGN HIS SEAT IN COUNCIL

Chairman of No. 3 Committee Resented What He Thought
Was Unfair Treatment at the Hands of the Mayor—
But It Is Not Likely He Will Quit Board.

There was a lively tilt after the meeting of No. 3 committee yesterday afternoon between Mayor Graham and Ald. Wright, chairman of the committee, and during the conversation, the latter threatened to resign unless he was given better treatment. However, he has changed his mind, and will remain an alderman until the end of the year at least.

The trouble was the result of the dispute between Ald. Rose and Ald. Wright.

Rose as an example of the bad business displayed in handling this matter.

Not Fairly Treated.
Mayor Graham eluded in with Ald. Rose, in his contention, and when the meeting was over, Ald. Wright asked him why he should oppose him.

"I do not think that I have been fairly treated," said Ald. Wright. "In my opinion we have handled this business as well as it could be. We want to give the people of London something for their money, and we want to have everything done right. You should have stood behind me, Mr. Mayor."

"I supported Ald. Rose because he was right," declared the mayor. "The method of handling this business has been open to criticism. I think there have been too many things about wire-pulling. You got the committee to accept the plans of your friend, and now it develops that the plans are bad and us, and the committee is stuck for a bill of costs. Ald. Rose had a perfect right to criticize, and I supported him."

Some Sharp Words.
Sharp words were exchanged, both the mayor and Ald. Wright expressing their opinions concerning the way the business of the city was being conducted.

"I was quite convinced that Ald. Wright intended resigning," said Mayor Graham.

This morning, however, the chairman of No. 3 committee was in fighting humor and declared that he would not resign.

"I am going to see this thing through," said he to The Advertiser. "I may have intimated yesterday that I would resign, but I have no such intention at this time. I intend to fight for improved conditions in the city, and now that I have made a start I am not going to stop. We want a comfort station on the market, and we are going to have one, make no mistake. We will see the whole business through."

CROWDS ON STREETS ORDERLY EXCEPT IN FEW INSTANCES

Merrymakers Had a Good Time Without Confetti and Tal-cum Powder.

The suppression of the "rough element" in the carnival crowds about the streets continues, and in last night's demonstration near the market three young men were taken into custody. This morning they paid $5 each.

One young man was found hurling bunches of confetti over the heads of passing dummies, but while some of the ladies did not object, he was gathered in and spent the night in the cells. Five dollars or 20 days was the penalty. Two others jostled a number of people about the sidewalks and were treated in a like manner.

The bid is still clamored on solid under instructions from Chief of Police Williams, who has officers patrolling the main thoroughfares in pairs. This system is proving effective, and while some have failed to heed the warning issued, matters as a general thing are very tame among the merry-makers.

The crowds were as a whole very orderly, and around the market and on the main streets there was no trace of a rough element. Two police of speak highly of the order maintained in the city throughout the carnival. Everybody appeared to be having a good time in a manner satisfactory to all concerned.

DUBLIN HOSTILE TO SUFFRAGETTES
HOOTS FOR COUNSEL HEALEY

Demonstration by Crowded Courtroom at Trial Over Attempting to Burn Theatre Royal During Speech by Asquith —Gladys Evans Found Guilty.

Dublin, Aug. 6.—Four militant suffragettes were put on trial here today on the charge of having committed serious outrages at the time of the visit to Dublin of the British Prime Minister. Gladys Evans was found guilty of setting fire, on July 18, to the Theatre Royal, where Mr. Asquith was scheduled to speak the following day on home rule. The charge against Mabel Capper, who was accused of being an accomplice of Gladys Evans, was withdrawn, while Lizzie Baker, also charged as an accomplice, pleaded guilty to damaging property.

Jury Disagrees.
The jury disagreed in the case of Mary Leigh, and she will be tried tomorrow on the charge of wounding John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Parliamentary party, who was hit by a hatchet that was thrown at the premier's carriage while it was proceeding to a hotel. Sentence was reserved in the case of the convicted women.

Hoos for Healey.
A great crowd filled the courtroom and gathered outside the court room when the women were brought in. Healed the exclusion from the jury of all members of the Society of Mollies. He said that he refused to be insulted by them, and did not doubt that they were there by the Government's orders. The attorney general for Ireland, C. A. O'Connor, with three assistants, conducted the prosecution. He described the attempt to burn the theatre, and said it was only by a miracle that it escaped destruction. Witnesses testified to seeing Gladys Evans and another woman putting oil on the carpet and box curtains, and trying to set them on fire, and also to putting matches in a cinematograph box.

Woman Made Threats.
The police testified that the first performance was ended, and the house nearly empty when the attempt was made. The Evans woman struggled when arrested, and said: "This is only the beginning. There will be more explosions at the next performance."

Miss Evans declared that she had gone to the theatre for the purpose of burning it. A cabinet minister, C. E. Hobhouse, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, had told them that they would be justified in doing so.

Mr. Healey's cross-examination developed the assertion that Mr. Hobhouse, in the course of a speech, had said that the suffragettes would accomplish nothing until they began to burn houses. Mr. Healey, in addressing the jury, said that Miss Evans was not a criminal. "She is one of those," he added, "who claim a right to vote for the selection of the members of parliament, who from what I have seen of them are not the extraordinary body of sacrosanct persons they imagine themselves."

CANNOT DODGE THAT TREATY
ROOT SAYS OF THE CANAL

U. S. Would Lose at the Hague Tribunal, Declares Senator Lodge.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The future of the Panama Canal will rest in the hands of a "one-man government," through the decision of the Senate today to support a plan already endorsed by the House of Representatives. By a vote of 48 to 14 it adopted a provision giving the President control of all affairs at Panama, with power to appoint a governor to complete, govern and operate the canal and canal zone.

Spurred on by a special message from President Taft urging the need of immediate legislation to provide for the organization of a canal operating force, the Senate made marked progress today on the canal bill.

Senator Lodge declared the United States, if compelled to go before the Hague court with the question of its right to exempt American ships, would surely lose its case "no matter how good it was." The only alternative, he said, was to refuse to go to the Hague, or else to drop the free toll provision and accept his plan of governmental rebate or subsidy equal to the amount of toll. Senator Works characterized this as "pure unadorned evasion." Senator Lodge said it was the plan adopted by all other nations with reference to the Suez Canal.

Senator Root expressed the opinion that the United States did not have any right of sovereignty at Panama which would exempt the canal from the provisions of the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty. He said the canal strip had been acquired from Panama in 1903, subject expressly to the provisions of the treaty with Great Britain.

"I know of no higher rule of ethics," he added, "than that which requires nations to observe good faith in relation to their treaties."

GONE FOR MINISTER
Steamer Leaves For Hudson Bay to Bring Back Mr. Cochrane.
Ottawa, Aug. 7.—The marine department was advised yesterday of the sailing from Sydney of the Government steamer Stanley, which is going to Hudson Bay to meet Hon. Frank Cochrane, Andrew Broder, M.P., and A. de W. Foster, M.P., about the ship and are expected back about the first of September.

The Government steamers Minto and Arctic are now up in the bay with parties conducting a hydrographic survey. They will stay as long as possible to prosecute their work and avoid navigation conditions.

A RICH HAUL

Cobalt, Ont., Aug. 6.—Two high-graders were arrested here today charged with stealing bullion from the Nipissing Mines. A remarkable method was employed of obtaining the metal. One of the men arrested, who worked in the refinery in charge of the furnace where the bullion was melted, would dip a cold steel bar into the molten metal and a certain amount of silver would congeal around the bar. This would then be drawn out, several pounds at a time being obtained this way, and the process repeated.

The losses were noticed and a watch set. Provincial Officers May and LeFebvre watched last night, hidden near the doors of the refinery, but failed to locate their men. Their homes were then searched, and a quantity of bullion discovered. It is probable that other arrests may follow in the case, and the police expect to secure more of the bullion. It is not known how much silver was got away with by this means.

ROOSEVELT'S DAY AT CHICAGO

His cheeks bulge like armored turrets. His teeth are as baleful as open gun ports. He looks formidable. Perhaps he is. He is in a great rage against wrong. He spits his words. There must be considerable spray from his eloquence to those who sit near.

AN ARTFUL SPEECH.
And yet the speech is not as bold as it looks. Beveridge made the same speech yesterday, and made it better, but the people want to make Teddy's Wednesday, and so we have it again. On the whole it is most artful than the speech of the Bull Moose. He has not the bull outside. It recommends many things, but threatens few. It says little about the tariff, the Bull Moose idea about that being to kiss it full on the lips and say, "There, does that hurt?"

ATTACKS WILSON.
Incidentally the Bull Moose attacks that Woodrow Wilson is an all-wood and a yard wide Progressive, although he does aim to reform the tariff. Woodrow Wilson, he says, is a Democrat and the Democrats are no better than the Republicans, because they are controlled by the bosses. The Bull Moose calls it the most important speech he ever written. It is great and little wool even for a Bull Moose.

DOES SOME CLOWNING.
The manner of the Bull Moose's speech is as disappointing as the matter. The Bull Moose has a light voice for such a heavy message, and even the loud sounding board over his head cannot give it volume. There is a queer falsetto note in it which the Bull Moose uses when he is clowning. Yes, he does that. He is as bad as Ben Greet at gagging his part and reaching for a laugh. Have you ever seen Ben Greet play Bottom, the weaver? You have? Then you will know what I mean.

A GREAT SPEECH.
Still it is a great speech. It must have been, for the believers say so. It is the last order of the day. Nothing comes afterwards to spoil it or make an anti-climax. They go away with a pleasant taste in their mouths. It is a happy ending. It is not only a confession of faith, somewhat clipped, but a declaration of independence somewhat toned down. The Bull Moose is persuaded that the Bull Moose is as great as he ever was. Is he?

BURNS IS AFTER THE HIGHER-UPS

Rose Furnishes List of Those to Whom the Tribute Was Paid.

MILLIONS COLLECTED
"Lefty Louis" and "Gip the Blood" Have Again Eluded Their Pursuers.

New York, Aug. 6.—District Attorney Whitman gave William J. Burns tonight a 23-page statement made to him in the West Side Court Prison today by Jack Rose. The statement contains a list of gamblers from whom Rose had collected money for Lieut. Becker, the rates paid by gambling houses and an estimate of the total amount of cash that Rose turned over to Becker.

Mr. Burns, who is now in personal charge of the investigation to find out who were the members of the police ring that divided the money collected by Becker, will use the statement obtained today as a basis for his work. It is known that Mr. Burns regards the statement as of the utmost importance. It supplies him with names of many men, who, Rose says, can tell the truth about the crooked men in and out of the police department.

Rose, in his confession, reiterates his previous allegation that Becker was one of four high police officers who collected between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 yearly from illegal resorts, and gives a complete list of his collection from gamblers, which, he says, he turned over to Becker.

Despite Dougherty's insistence on the Calkins hunt for "Lefty Louis" and "Gip the Blood," four detectives, two women and two men, who have been watching the trains and roads leading out of Tannersville, gave up the search there today for Horowitz and Rosenzweig and left on trains for villages to the north. One of the women detectives said that the search in Tannersville had revealed nothing and that she was on the way to Albany and towns to the north of Albany.

IN STATE OF KANSAS

Taft Followers Admit Probable Defeat by Roosevelt Men in Presidential Primaries.

Topeka, Kansas, Aug. 6.—Scattered returns from one-fifth of the counties of the state indicate that the Roosevelt presidential electors were victorious in today's primaries. Followers of President Taft admitted that they seemed to be beaten. Congressman P. E. Campbell probably lost the nomination for his seat in Congress to W. M. Gray, a Progressive. Based on returns up to 10:00 o'clock, Arthur Capper, publisher of the Topeka Capital, has defeated Frank Ryan, of Leavenworth, for the Republican nomination for governor, and G. H. Hodges, Democratic candidate, is leading his two Democratic opponents. The fight for United States senator between Governor Stubbs and Senator Curtis is close.

Asquith Announces That Parliament Will Make a Careful Investigation.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Aug. 6.—Premier Asquith's reply to a question in the House of Commons today stated that the British Government had decided to appoint a select parliamentary committee of inquiry into the atrocities reported by Sir Roger Casement to have occurred in the Putumayo rubber district of Peru. The questioner requested the Government to inquire if any responsibility for this outrage rested on the British directors of the rubber company.

PRESCOTT TO GET
G. T. R. TERMINALS

At Least 500 Men Will Be Moved From Brockville—Change Effective in Two Years.

Brockville, Aug. 6.—According to an agreement entered into between the Grand Trunk Railway and the town of Prescott, the company will remove its terminals from Brockville to Prescott within the next two years in consideration of a fixed assessment, cheap water and light, and the building by the company of a station at a dangerous crossing at an estimated cost of $25,000.

The Grand Trunk binds itself to expend $150,000 in terminal facilities, and has already $45 acres of land purchased under option to meet the requirements of the new engine shops and yards. The change will mean the removal from Brockville of at least 500 men, who represent a payroll of about $350,000 annually. All that now remains to give Prescott a boom is ratification by the ratepayers of a by-law authorizing the necessary expenditure and necessary land purchases, which it is said will carry by a sweeping majority.

Brockville has been a terminal of the Grand Trunk since its construction 67 years ago.

WILLIAM STENTON DIED VERY UNEXPECTEDLY

With Heart Failure
While on Visit.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Harwich, Aug. 6.—The funeral of Mr. William Stenton, held from the home of his son, Robert, to the Botany Cemetery, was very largely attended. An impressive service was conducted by Rev. G. M. Dunn, of Ridgeway. Deceased was 80 years old, and one of the pioneers of the district. He died after an illness extending over several months. Two weeks ago he went to Leamington to visit his grandson, Mr. L. Stenton, of that place. He was taken ill suddenly, and passed away in a few hours. Heart failure was the cause of his death.

HOW MANY OF US

Fail to Select Food Nature Demands to Ward Off Ailments?

A Ky. lady, speaking about food, says: "I was once compelled to eat all kinds of ordinary food, until for some reason, indigestion and nervous prostration set in.

"After I had run down seriously my attention was called to the necessity of some change in my diet, and I discontinued my ordinary breakfast and began using Grape-Nuts with a good quantity of rich cream.

"In a few days my condition was changed in a remarkable way, and I began to have a strength that I had never possessed before, a vigor of body and a peace of mind which I had never known before.

"My former attacks of indigestion had been accompanied by heat flashes, and many times my condition was distressing, with hot spells of dizziness, tremors of blood to the head and neuralgic pain in the chest.

"Since using Grape-Nuts alone for breakfast I have been free from these troubles, except at times when I have indulged in rich, greasy foods in quantity, then I would be warned by a pain under the left shoulder blade, and unless I heeded the warning the old trouble would come back, but when I finally got to know where these troubles originated I returned to my Grape-Nuts and cream and the pain and disturbance left very quickly.

"I am now in prime health as a result of my use of Grape-Nuts." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Well-being," in pink.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

program. Lunch will be served by the Lucknow branch.

On Sunday evening in Calvin Church Helen Elizabeth Miller, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller was baptized, Rev. Mr. McIntosh performing the ceremony.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO GRANT MORE MONEY

Climax Reached in Trouble Over the New Central School at Chatham.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Chatham, Aug. 7.—The trouble over the new central school has reached a climax, and the board of education finds itself in a rather peculiar position. Its patience exhausted by the delays made on the public treasury by the board of education, the council has finally put its foot down, and refuses to make further appropriations unless the board gives an itemized account of how the money is to be spent.

This is something the board is powerless to do at the present time. It recently employed a local firm of architects to draft plans for and superintend the building of a new school south side the city. When the school was well on toward completion the trustees changed their minds, employed a new architect from Toronto, and had the biggest part of the building torn down and rebuilt.

Local people are at a loss to know why the changes were made, and public sentiment reached such a crisis that the council dared not make the appropriation asked for by the board. The board has no idea as to what expense will be incurred in the end by its actions, and being in a point blank refusal the appropriation, has no other resource than to appeal directly to the people for the cash.

It is said that no bylaw would pass in Chatham granting the sum the board desires, and as a result the board faces a dilemma which it will have difficulty in overcoming.

INSTANTLY KILLED WHEN GUN DISCHARGED

Harry S. Howell Was One of Galt's Most Prominent Residents.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Galt, Aug. 6.—Harry Spencer Howell was instantly killed at his home here today when as he was cleaning an old gun it exploded.

Shortly after he had entered his office above a Main street store, a stenographer in the room below heard the report of a gun and the sound of something falling to the floor. She immediately gave the alarm and doctors were summoned, who pronounced death to have been instantaneous from a bullet which passed through the unfortunate man's body, penetrating the heart. Coroner Dr. Vardon declared that no inquest was necessary. Deceased is survived by one son, Lawrie, of Galt.

The late H. S. Howell had travelled much, having twice circled the globe. Of considerable literary ability, he was the author of "An Island Paradise," and other travel stories. He was a member of the Canadian Institute of Toronto, and in 1899 was elected a fellow of the Royal Colonial Institute, London. For some years he was vice-president and secretary of the Young Conservative Club of Galt, and in 1907 was offered the nomination for the Provincial Legislature, but declined.

He had filled the position of honorary captain and paymaster of the Twenty-ninth Waterloo Regiment, and was a member of two local Masonic lodges, being a lifelong resident of Galt.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Learnington, Aug. 6.—About 7 o'clock this morning, when Arthur Bateman entered the new two-story house built by the Learnington Canning Company for the purpose of accommodating their employees as dwellings, he stepped on a match, which ignited an accumulation of escaping natural gas, causing an explosion.

The foundations were wrecked, and walls and partitions blown out, while the furniture and stoves were strewn in wreckage all over the place.

The building was 80 feet long by 30 feet wide, with double verandahs, and built to accommodate a number of families.

TWENTY FIRE BRIGADES TO MARCH IN BIG PROCESSION

Old Boys' Reunion at St. Marys Will Come to a Close This Evening, and Is by Far the Most Successful Gathering Ever Held in That Town.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
St. Marys, Aug. 7.—The reunion of Old Boys and Girls is still going on amid much enthusiasm. But today if the weather holds good will be the banner day in the history of the town. The parade of over 20 fire brigades and a large number of bands will be the climax of the demonstration. Extensive fireworks will be shown this evening.

Yesterday the attendance kept up with the other days, and last evening on the Athletic Grounds a jacrosse match took place between the Old Boys away and the Old Boys at home. The referee was Dr. Charles Clark, of Buffalo.

A grand water fight with two branches with hose took place, and was very amusing to the spectators. The contestants were John Alberts and Leonard Wilson, of St. Marys fire brigade, and resulted in a victory for John Alberts. The prize was $5.

Were Taken Around.

In the afternoon the delegates of the firemen's convention were the guests of St. Marys fire brigade. About 18 or 20 autos conveyed them sightseeing to the various industries of the town. The big cement plant, Horseshoe and Thames quarries, and factories, and many picturesque beauty spots of the St. Marys town.

Both town bands, Maxwell Maple Leaf and Citizens', discoursed music on the Athletic Grounds, and the electric light display was a wonderful one.

Armstrong, West Toronto; treasurer, George Ekins, Thorold.

The next convention will be held in Hamilton in 1913 on the first Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in August.

At the morning session a resolution was delivered by Mayor Crawford, of the city of St. Marys, that the St. Marys fire brigade would join the association before another year's convention.

Man at Whose House Woman Was Found Dead Alleged To Be Missing.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Windsor, Aug. 7.—It is alleged by the police that Frederick Jamieson, at whose home in Sandwich Margaret Dennis was recently found dead, has disappeared. Not satisfied with the man's story of how the woman met her death, the crown attorney had instructed Chief Masters, of Sandwich, to keep Jamieson under surveillance. He cannot now be found.

Dennis woman was discovered dead in bed at Jamieson's home last Saturday night, and the man's story was that she had applied to him for a position as housekeeper early the same morning. When he returned from his work in Detroit that evening the woman was lying dead in bed, fully clothed, with her hands folded across her breast.

BRITISH FARMERS ARE NOT SATISFIED

Men Who Settled Near Tilbury at the Mercy of the Cannerns.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Tilbury, Aug. 7.—The British farmers who settled here in the spring, according to reports, are not at all satisfied with conditions. The settlers claim that promises of the land company that a co-operative organization would be formed for handling their produce, and that they have been disappointed, and that, though they have railway facilities for shipping their produce, as a result of low prices, some farmers threaten to return to England this fall. Litigation is talked of.

Skin All Covered With Eruption

Tried Many Remedies 3 or 4 Years.
Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

A Quebec man, N. Henri Tardif, of 28, Camille, writes in a letter dated Mar. 31, 1911: "I had a very bad skin, all covered with eruption, eight years ago. I have had all of both my shoulders covered with it, and the high part of my arms, and my face, but it was the worst on my shoulders. I tried many different remedies to cure it, but nothing was any good. At last I went to an apothecary. He asked me if I had ever used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I told him no, and I bought a box of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I spread the Cuticura Ointment on all my sore parts, and I think that in washing my face with the Cuticura Soap, it hindered my eruption from itching and burning. I tried many remedies during three or four years, but Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me." (Signed) N. Henri Tardif.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each with a 23-p. booklet, the skin and scalp will be mailed free, on application. ## LITERARY NOTES

"When Folks Was Folks."

[By Elizabeth L. Blunt.]

In 1845, when the veterans of "eighteen-twenty" gathered at the Brick store in Ravenshoe, a village in Central

New York, to discuss Clay and Webster, Calhoun and Randolph—that was the time "When Folks Was Folks."

Quaint and "homey" is this story of experiences and observations during the days when people led "the simple life." Those were the days when maiden aunts were persons of high importance to the children of the household, when, indeed, maiden aunts vied with grandmothers to tell the best stories out of Pictorial Bibles, when every girl was taught to sew and card and spin, and knit her own stockings, when quilting-parties were the favorite entertainments, when all respectable persons remembered the Sabbath-day to keep holy.

We will all be interested in this story of the sweet, old-fashioned provincial life, some of us because it was lived by "Mother," and others because it tells of the girlhood of "Grandmother." One cannot fail to be profoundly impressed with the soundness and wholesomeness of conditions that produced the womanly women whose gentleness is among the treasured recollections of experiences that receding years dim vaguely as we call "the past."

RENTS RISING IN PARIS

More Expensive Apartments the Result of Public Improvements.

Paris, Aug. 7.—Where are people of small means going to live in Paris when the city government proceeds to spend the $400,000 authorized for public improvements?

These improvements mean the demolition of hundreds of old buildings in which the apartments cost less than $100 a year. In their place will be erected modern structures, many examples of which may already be found in the older quarters surrounded by tumble-down tenements dating back one, two and three centuries. Rents

in these new buildings seldom go below

$400.

Every time such an apartment-house displaces its venerable predecessor—a readjustment of population results. It has become a serious question where the one hundred a year tenants are to find other habitations.

The total increase in rents in Paris from 1901 to 1910 has been estimated at $8,900,000. The increase was at a rate of 2 per cent. annually from 1890 to 1900; of 4 per cent. from 1901 to 1910 and two years ago. Rents in Paris have reached 16.47 per cent. No one can estimate what it will be after the proposed public improvements.

OF MOOSE SPORTS AT PARKFirst Prize Went to Marjorie Ryckman, 354 Adelaide Street.The Moose made merry at Queen's Park yesterday afternoon, the affair being most enjoyable from beginning to end. An excellent program of sports was provided, and there were other attractions of merit. The grandstand held 1,000 people, the crowd being smaller than anticipated.The most interesting feature of the day was the baby show. About 75 little ones were on exhibition, all of them fine, healthy, handsome youngsters. The judges, Mrs. Melvin Burdick, Mrs. Jos. H. Jenkins, and Mrs.

Walter E. Hempel, of Detroit, had their hands full selecting the winners.

They could not do the work in a hurry. This contest provided considerable excitement as is usually the case. The winner was Marjorie Ryckman, 354 Adelaide street, Irving Jones, Rectory street, was given the prize for the heaviest baby on the grounds.

Chased Greased Hog.

The most amusement was furnished by the contest for the greased pig. The hog was a razorback, with plenty of grease, and he led the hundred and more boys and men a merry chase all over the park. Finally Clifford Mc-Kenzie got a strangle hold on the pig, and was awarded the hog, grease and all. Climbing the greased pole was another funny exhibition, but Cliff An-thony solved the mystery, and took home a ham for his dexterity.

A fine program of music was furnished by the First Hussars' Band, and it was fully appreciated by the crowd present. A score of Scotch dancers at-tracted much attention. The little son of Sgt. B. Dunlevy, and the baby daughter of Fireman Riddle gave a very clever exhibition of dancing. They are very small, but they can dance.

ed at a mad clip after a load of hay that happened to cross the intersection.

FRANCE HAS PLANS
TO FIGHT ABSINTHVegetable Substance, Principal Poison, Will Be Taken
From Ingredients.Paris, Aug. 7.—Having succeeded within an almost incredibly short time in wiping out the thousands of opium dens at Marseilles, Toulon and Paris, the Government is now turning its attention toward measures which will diminish the rapidly-increasing consumption of absinth, which forms one of the greatest dangers to the French nation.During last year alone the consumption made an enormous and quite unprecedented leap of over 1,000,000 gallons, and a commission appointed to study its effects entirely confirmed the indictment of the National League against alcoholism that "absinth is the source of madness and crime; it causes epilepsy and consumption; it makes the husband a brute, the wife a martyr, and the child a degenerate."
