ONE MAN THAT HE MISSED

Ald. Austin Did Not See All of the Merchants on his Trip to Berlin

MR. ZINKHANN AGAINST IT

Ald. Austin, chairman of the local Industrial committee, returned recently from a trip to Berlin, made for the alleged purpose of finding out how the people of that town stood on the sugar beet question. Ald. Austin claimed on his return from his trip of investigation, that he had more confidence than ever in the sugar beet proposition, and that he did not meet one citizen of Berlin who expressed himself as thinking that the sugar factory was not a good thing for their town, and a paying concern to boot.

In view of this statement from Ald. Austin, it appears obvious that he did not call on many of the influential citizens of Berlin or else when he found out what their opinions probably were, he did not give them quite so careful a hearing as those persons who put themselves on record as believing that the sugar factory was not a detriment to the town.

Ald. Austin probably did not call on Mr. Zinkhann, of the firm of Scherholtz & Zinkhann, wholesale furniture dealers, of Berlin. If he did, he must have suppressed the interview.

This gentleman was in the city this morning, and while talking to a local merchant, denounced the sugar beet industry in no uncertain tones. He was not talking for publication at the time either. He was merely giving his honest opinion on the matter.

He said that Chatham would make a grave mistake if she entertained the proposition laid before her by Promoter Fowler. The Berlin factory could not be any means termed a paying institution, and it has a very gloomy financial outlook ahead of it at the present time. He said that the citizens were enthusiastic over the industry when it was first located in Berlin, but that had since learned from experience that they had invested in a gold brick. The factory was located there now, and they had to make the best of a bad job and put up with it.

It looks very much as if the citizens whom Ald. Austin talked to were speaking for publication, and of course would be adverse to running down an industry located in their own town.

FINE INSURANCE OFFICE

One of the finest, if not the finest, insurance office in the city, is that of J. P. Dunn & Co., located at No. 6 Victoria Block, Fifth street, where J. L. Scott formerly had his wood office. The first object to arrest the visitor's attention is the immense gold lettered sign of the Union Assurance Society (fire insurance) established in 1714, on the main window, while that of the Mutual, of Galt, likewise in gold, adorns the side window at the main entrance. These are the two leading fire insurance companies of the firm and are the favorites both in the city and in the country. Upon entering the office one is struck with the improvements that have been made, the plastered walls were recently painted a light drab, as also the metallic ceiling, and the fine hardwood floor is kept well oiled. Another striking feature in this well appointed office is the substantial and large leather covered oak table which occupies the centre of the front room, surrounded by a number of fine oak chairs with leather seats. Mr. Dunn's private office is in the rear and is well adapted for the large loan business done by the firm, where clients can discuss their affairs confidentially. The firm have recently been appointed sole District Agents for a reliable Weather Insurance Company, and farmers can now insure their buildings against damage by wind storms for the low premium of $2.00 per $1,000 per year.

J. P. Dunn & Co. are also agents for all kinds of Accident and Health and Employers Liability Insurance and Lloyd's Plate Glass Insurance, and also represent several first class loan companies. By close application, and fair dealings with clients this firm have in a short time attained an enviable record and it will pay intending insurers to see them before going elsewhere.

Strangled to Death.

Toronto, July 14.—Coroner Crawford last evening conducted an inquest into the death of James Wilson, who was found dead in the Don Valley Brook Yards on Saturday morning last. The jury found that death was due to strangulation, his neck having been caught between a post and a car on the siding.

THE HONORABLE DR. PYNE; A REPRESENTATIVE CANADIAN

Ontario's Minister of Education is a Man of Sterling Qualities and Ability, and Affords a Splendid Example of What Can be Attained by True Canadian Young Men

In presenting to our readers a short historical outline of the Honorable Robert Allan Pyne, M. D., LL. D., Minister of Education for the Province of Ontario, in the Whitney Administration, we aim, not only to honor the distinguished gentleman himself, but to point out to our young Canadians that, in order to attain success in any calling, it is first necessary to cultivate a true, straightforward, manly character; a disposition to discharge each duty entrusted to you fearlessly and honestly, and a strong desire to do something for the betterment of his

HONORABLE DR. R. A. PYNE, ONTARIO'S MINISTER OF EDUCATION

manity, the result of which will surely lead to distinction and success.

The subject of our sketch was born in the town of Newmarket, Ontario. His father was Dr. Thomas Pyne, and his mother, Hester Jane Roberts, cousin of Field Marshal Earl Roberts, and niece of Sir Samuel Roberts, who commanded the flotilla on the Canadian Lakes in 1815. The Hon. Dr. Pyne is, therefore, a Canadian of pure old Irish descent, his parents being originally from Waterford, Ireland. Springing from such sturdy stock, endowed by nature with a robust constitution, overflowing with vitality, and a strong mentality carefully directed in the right channels by a proper home training, he has carried out for himself a record to be proud of, and may be taken as a splendid example of what can be attained by true Canadian pluck and perseverance.

Dr. Pyne has held many positions of responsibility and trust in the City of Toronto, namely—Chairman Toronto Public School Board, and Toronto Free Library Board; Member of the Toronto High School Board; and Member of the first Board of Health for the City of Toronto. He was for years attached to the 37th Haldimand Rifles; also late terms in the Legislature, had won the admiration and confidence of the whole Conservative party. And it is but fair to say that the wisdom of the Premier's choice is apparent; for immediately on his taking over the duties of his department, the Hon. Dr. Pyne set himself to the task of carrying out to the best of his ability, the Premier's promises to the people, and, thus far, his efforts in the cause of education have been entirely successful.

It may safely be said that there are few men in public life to-day who have so many sterling friends and admirers as the Hon. Dr. Pyne. His pleasing, genial personality at once commands the confidence and respect of those who do business with him, and even those who differ with him politically, believe him to be a true friend and an honorable opponent.

Dr. Pyne is by no means a stranger in Chatham. His visit to the People's City is one long to be remembered by those who had the honor of meeting him on that occasion. Many public men have from time to time visited Chatham, but it is safe to say that none of them have left a more favorable impression than did the Honorable, Minister of Education.

A PLEASANT TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Watson, of Mull, who were married on Thursday, June 28, went up the lakes for a trip. They were met in Duluth on Monday, July 2, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacIntyre, and were entertained for dinner in Superior by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lambert, Mr. MacIntyre's sister, and for tea by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacIntyre. On Tuesday the quartette spent the day in Duluth and were entertained by Mr. Harry Gardiner, formerly agent at Mull, in giving them a ride out to Gester Park and round the boulevard in his automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Watson were greatly pleased with their trip, and especially the scenery of Duluth.

I thought your pastor was opposed to lotteries in the church. So he is. But I understand your church gave an oyster supper and that the one who got the oyster received a prize. The oyster was the prize.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Austin, Taylor Ave., wishes to thank all those who so generously assisted her in her recent bereavement. She would especially thank those who were so zealous in their labors in finding the body of her son, Harry, and also to the members of The Planet staff for a beautiful tribute of flowers.

MRS. AUSTIN.

Four Quit the Business.

Toronto, July 14.—In the Police Court yesterday, on promises to retire from business, the "bucket shop" charges against Charles Davis, G. A. Fisher, W. G. Barber and H. Davidson, were withdrawn. Seven others will go to a jury, with preliminary hearings on July 18.

THE QUESTIONS ARE STICKERS

But Mr. Fowler is Clinging to his Sugar By-law With Great Tenacity

AGENTS ARE EMPLOYED

The sugar factory enthusiasts, who, with Promoter J. Fowler as chief organizer, are endeavoring to work up interest in the by-law granting the Keystone Sugar Company a loan of $75,000 to remove the old Warton plant to Chatham, have adopted some new tactics in order to influence people to vote and work for the by-law.

In different sections of the city, Promoter Fowler has appointed agents, whose business it is to boost the sugar scheme night and day. Lately these men have adopted an appeal to work on the sympathies of the people on whom they call. They give false reasons for the opposition which the scheme as met with from the heaviest tax-payers, alleging that there is "something in it" for those who work against the proposition, that outside factory men are interesting themselves in having the by-law defeated, and various other wonderful tales, which are presumably concocted at headquarters. By abuse of their opponents, they seem to hope to thwart inquiry or investigation into the merits of the industry which they are endeavoring to have the citizens of Chatham vote for. The question of the security of the loan to the company is scouted as much as possible, and no definite information has been forthcoming as to where the industry will be located. It has been alleged for some time that they are practically pledged to buy their site from one man. If this site is taken, it will raise a storm of indignation, citizens in the neighborhood, but if the by-law is passed, it will then be too late to register complaints about the security of the site. The people are being blinded as much as possible to the real issue, and an effort is being made to carry the by-law without clearing up certain points which the citizens have been asking questions about ever since the first attempt was made to place the scheme before the people.

Every few days Promoter Fowler calls his agents together to report their progress in influencing rate-payers to vote for the by-law. Voters' lists are used, and anyone who is known to be hostile to the scheme is so marked on the list, and the doubtfuls are also marked. The agent who covers the locality is commissioned to call on the "doubtfuls" and the "hostiles," and instructed as to what ways and means will be most effective in bringing his "victims" to believe according to the preachings of J. Fowler. Every new convert is reported on and hailed with joy at the Fowler camp.

Some opponents of the sugar by-law have a habit of asking questions which Mr. Fowler does not like. He would prefer that the citizens would not ask so much about the security which is offered for the loan which they are asked to make, or the reason for so many concerns of this kind proving to be failures. Another pertinent question which is bothering the best men is that with regard to the principals of the concern, who have sent a paid promoter to work in their interests, instead of coming before the electors in person, as the directors of the Electric Co. have done. It seems strange that the men whom Mr. Fowler claims to have behind him to pay a visit to the city in which they would locate if the by-law were to carry.

Meanwhile the electors have plenty of time to think over the many peculiarities which surround the best sugar by-law.

FOR JUNIORS

Dear Planet Juniors, — We had thought we would continue your page as usual through the holidays, but this week we talked it over together and agreed that it would be better to discontinue it during the vacation.

It is better for Juniors to be out of doors playing in July and August than to be reading—even The Planet Junior.

A change is good for everyone, and when we meet again through these columns on September 1st we will enjoy it more than if we had not taken a rest; in the meantime we are not forgetting the little people, but are planning some new features to use in The Planet Junior in the Fall.

Hoping you may all have pleasant holidays.—Editor Planet Junior.

DISEASED KIDNEYS

Made Sound and Strong Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"Two doctors told me that I was incurable, but thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am a well woman today." This strong statement was made by Mrs. Ed. Rose, of St. Catharines, to a reporter, who hearing of her remarkable cure called to see her. "A few years ago while living in Hamilton," continued Mrs. Rose, "I was attacked with kidney trouble. The doctor lulled me into a state of false security, while the disease continued to make inroads. Finding that I was not getting better I consulted a specialist, who told me that the trouble had developed into Bright's disease and that I was incurable. I had dwindled to a mere shadow, and suffered from pain in the back, and often a difficulty in breathing. Insomnia next came to add to my tortures and I passed dreary, sleepless nights, and felt that I had not long to live. In this despairing condition my husband urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and, to please him, I began to take them. After using several boxes I felt the pills were helping me and I continued taking them until I had used some twenty boxes, when I was again restored to perfect health, and every symptom of the trouble had disappeared. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills certainly brought me back from the shadow of the grave and I have since enjoyed the best of health."

Every drop of blood in the body is filtered by the kidneys. If the blood is weak or watery the kidneys have no strength for their work and leave the blood unfiltered and foul. Then the kidneys get clogged with painful, poisonous impurities, which bring aching backs and deadly Bright's disease. The only hope is to strike without delay at the root of the trouble in the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They make new blood. They flush the kidneys clean, heal their inflammation and give them strength for their work. Common kidney pills only touch the symptoms—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure the cause. That is why they cure for good, and at the same time improve the health in every other way. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

"The Good Samaritan."—Luke 10, 35-37. Read the whole chapter.

Golden Text—"Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy."

This lesson comes to us through the question of a Jewish lawyer—so called because he studied and taught the law of Moses—who sought to test Christ by asking Him what he must do to inherit eternal life? Jesus answered by asking another question to test his knowledge of the law of God. He answers correctly. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength, and with all thy neighbor as thyself. Our Lord says, this do and thou shalt live. The absence of the love of God is spiritual death, and God teaches us that when He implants His love in a human heart we have life here and hereafter.

The lawyer wishing to be justified as a teacher, asks, And who is my neighbor? which Jesus illustrates by the story of the Good Samaritan. A Jew, robbed and bleeding to death by the roadside, is shunned by his own priest and an assisting Levite on their way to the Holy City, while this Samaritan, despised because of another faith, finds the dying Jew, succors him back to life and leaves him in comfort at the inn—very different from the way some nations treat the Jew today.

Jesus asks, who of the three is the neighbor? and the lawyer answers, "he that showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said unto him, go and do thou likewise.

God is Love, His religion is religion is love, and the man who receives the grace and mercy of God through Jesus Christ our Lord knows it and shows it by his treatment of his enemies even more than his friends. The man in whom self reigns is doomed, but the man in whom Christ and His love reigns is crowned. "Love bleeding wounds" He bears received on Calvary, yet how do we treat Him? Pass Him by like the priest and Levite, or take Him to our hearts and homes?

ADVERTISING.

One of the Many Marvels of This Progressive Age.

Among the many marvels of this marvelous age there is none more striking and none more characteristic than the art of advertising as developed in modern times. We talk much about the wonders of the telephone and the phonograph, about the astonishing expansion of railroads and telegraphy, but here we have an industry as remarkable for its extension and as wide and varied in its applications as anything of man's device in any era of the world's history. When there is brought into consideration the vast amount of money expended in advertising in our day, the novel and ingenious methods employed and the expert skill and artistic talent engaged in the business, one may begin to realize what a wide field has been opened here for some of the highest and most useful forms of human endeavor.

With all its abuses—and they are not a few—it remains true that advertising is one of the greatest of popular educators and one of the chief promoters of human happiness and prosperity, and there are yet many ways in which it may be extended to the still greater benefit of the world. No good reason exists why the churches, the Sunday schools, the missionary societies and other agencies of good should not advertise far more than they do and thus add to the membership and their power in the community. To set their advantages, aims and benefits before the public in a proper way and form would involve no loss of dignity or prestige, while it would almost certainly widen their influence.

The time must come, too, when the absurd code which prohibits physicians and other professional classes from advertising themselves must be abolished. There is nothing but a sentiment to prevent it and a very weak sentiment at that. It should be no more infra dig for a physician or a lawyer to seek patients or clients through the medium of print than it is for teachers, insurance men, real estate dealers or the members of any other honorable trade or calling.

IMMORTALITY.

One Theory of the Condition That Comes After Death.

Our life does not begin with birth, nor does it conclude with death. It is only a section of the development of mankind before and after us. We exist before we were born, and we exist after we have died. So our life leaves its after effects, and they will be what we have made them.

The truth is that while there is no immortality in the sense in which most religions hold it if we accept their doctrines in life are such in many respects, as if these doctrines were true. For, while our bodily existence is wiped out with all its physiological functions, the essential part of our own being (the thoughts themselves) remain, and thus our immortality—not as a concrete individual and bodily incarnation, but our soul, our character, the impulses which we have given in life to others, our aspirations and most characteristic features—cannot be wiped out.

A man who keeps this thought in his mind, either intuitively by realizing the power and justice of the religious instinct or by having fathomed the problem philosophically in its very depths, will not live for the present moment, but in consideration of the after effects which his life leaves on the world. And I would say that one of the best tests for right action in a critical situation is for a man to ask himself, If I had passed away from this life what would I wish that I had done in this emergency? I am confident that the answer given to this question would help us in the most difficult circumstances to find the right solution.

Familiar Talks With Housewives -- Fireless Stove Again

Copyright, 1905, by A. S. Barnes & Co.

OWEVER simple the dinner to be served, the menu should be written and posted in the parlour. Then there can be no misunderstanding about it, or about the kitchen. It will be required by the cook or in the dining room. By example as well as by precept a thoughtful and business dress trains her maids in thoughtfulness and in methodical habits for all the day. It is a habit that will last. In the long run, easier for all concerned. The written menu prevents vexatious questions. Many uses. No one can be held accountable; it also preserves peace. In many a household where a dinner has been agley and may even spare both mistress and maid the trouble of a quarrel, the consequent annoyance of changing, on her situation and the other her domestic duties.

During the instruction of a new maid it is well to take nothing for granted. She has her own ideas, and she must be concerned. Whatever she has already learned that is desirable to conform to, she will be glad to do. It is so proceed. Suppose the menu be the same that we used in the article devoted to table-setting.

If the mushrooms are of the "white" variety, add a little rice wine vinegar, sugar and one cup of vinegar to each quart can of mushrooms. If the mushrooms are of the "black" variety, then put in the mushrooms, let them come to a boil, can and seal while hot.

For a delicious fine hash, chop meats and potatoes. Some of the liquid added to gravies improves their flavor. (Chicago)

As mushrooms are to be bought in the city markets all winter long, it may be worth the while of the lover of relishes to stock up to the hilt when the season is at its height, when they are down in price and can be secured for the delectation of an epicure.

hand for receiving the plates, knives, forks and spoons, as the courses are changed in such an orderly way as to facilitate the dishwashing. At the same time, the dishes are kept in the best manner possible in the kitchen. A large, strong bowl beside it ready for receiving the scraps, the plates can be easily scraped, then plied in the basin with hot water drawn upon them. By following this method, when they have to remain unwashed while the maid is otherwise engaged, nothing will dry upon them while standing—the water prevents it—they will be easily and quickly

Before the family is called to dinner the pantry should be free from whatever will in any way obstruct the maid in taking in or removing the courses. Have two large, strong pitchers filled with hot, soapy water standing ready to receive all the small silver in one, and knives and cutlery in the other. Care should be observed to avoid wetting the handles when they are of ivory instead of ringing a bell.

There is a fine art which is neglected by the majority of people, albeit one that all can cultivate if only they will.

It is the art of taking care of white using, things. Many a scantily furnished house and many a poor-looking table result from carelessness in the use of household belongings.

As the maid removes plates and silver, the silver for a change of courses she can quickly transfer the silver to one pitcher and put all knives and cutlery in the other—their handles up and entirely out of view. ## INSECT ENGINEERING

FEATS OF THE CARPENTER BEE AND THE TUMBLEBUG.

The Sexton Beetle is an Expert Gravedigger—Wonderful Skill of the Spider and the Great Spider That His Elastic Web Will Bear.

Long before man had thought of the saw fly had used the same tool, made after the same fashion and used in the same way, for the purpose of making slits in the branches of trees so that she might have a secure place to deposit her eggs. The carpenter bee, with only the tools which nature has given her, cuts a round hole, the full diameter of her body, through thick boards and so makes a tunnel by which she can have a safe retreat in which to rear her young. The tumblebug, without derrier or machinery, rolls over large masses of dirt many times her own weight, and the sexton beetle will in a few hours bury beneath the ground the carcass of a comparatively large animal. All these feats require a degree of instinct which in a reasoning creature would be called engineering skill, but none of them is as wonderful as the feats performed by the spider. This extraordinary little animal has the faculty of propelling her threads directly against the wind, and by means of her slender cords she can haul up and suspend bodies which are many times her own weight.

Some years ago a paragraph went the rounds of the papers in which it was said that a spider had suspended an unfortunate mouse, raising it from the ground and leaving it to perish miserably between heaven and earth. Would the philosophers made great fun of the statement and ridiculed it unmercifully. I know not how true it was, but I know that it might have been true.

Some years ago in the village of Havana in the state of New York a spider entangled a milk snake in her threads and actually raised it some distance from the ground, and this, too, in spite of the struggles of the reptile, which was alive.

By what process of engineering did this comparatively small and feeble insect succeed in overcoming and lifting up by mechanical means the mouse or the snake? The solution is easy enough if we only give the question a little thought.

The spider is furnished with one of the most efficient mechanical implements known to engineers—viz, a strong elastic thread. That the thread is strong is well known. Indeed, there are few substances that will support a greater strain than the silk of the silkworm or the spider, careful experiment having shown that for equal sizes the strength of these fibers exceeds that of common iron. But notwithstanding its strength the spider's thread would be useless as a mechanical power if it were not for its elasticity. The spider has no blocks or pulleys, and therefore it cannot cause the thread to divide up and run in different directions, but the elasticity of the thread more than makes up for this and renders possible the lifting of an animal much heavier than a mouse or a snake. This may require a little explanation.

Let us suppose that a child can lift a six pound weight one foot high and do this twenty times a minute. Purchase him with 350 rubber bands, each capable of pulling six pounds through one foot when stretched. Let these bands be attached to a wooden platform on which stands a pair of horses weighing 2,100 pounds, or rather more than a ton. If now the child will go to work and stretch these rubber bands singly, hooking each one up as it is stretched, in less than twenty minutes he will have raised the pair of horses one foot.

We thus see that the elasticity of the rubber bands enables the child to divide the weight of horses into 350 pieces of six pounds each, and at the rate of a little less than one every three seconds, he lifts all these separate pieces one foot, so that the child easily lifts this enormous weight.

Each spider's thread acts like one of the elastic rubber bands. Let us suppose that the mouse or snake weighed half an ounce and that each thread is capable of supporting a grain and a half. The spider would have to connect the mouse with the point from which it was to be suspended with 160 threads, and if the little quadruped was once swung off his feet he would be powerless. By pulling successively on each thread, and shortening a little, the mouse or snake might be raised to any height within the capacity of the building or structure in which the work was done. So that to those who have ridiculed the story we may justly say, "There are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of in your philosophy."

What object the spider could have had in his work I am unable to see. It may have been a dread of the harm which the mouse or snake might work or it may have been the hope that the decaying carcass would attract flies, which would furnish food for the engineer. I can vouch for the truth of the snake story, however, and the object of this article is to explain and render credible a very extraordinary feat of insect engineering.

ERA OF ACTUUM

The "era of Actuum" adopted during the early days of the Roman empire, commemorates the great victory gained by Octavius over the troops of Antony and Cleopatra, Jan. 1, B. C. 30. It was often used among the Romans both in writing and colloquially, just as in England people speak of events as occurring before or after the conquest, or as persons in this country frequently refer to events as having happened before or after the war.

A straight life is the shortest distance between honesty and honor.—Saturday Evening Post.

One of Three Things Always Cause RHEUMATISM

Do you know the system rides itself of waste matter through bowels and kidneys? Yes, but by the skin as well.

As a matter of fact, the skin rides the system of more urea than the kidneys do.

If the skin, or bowels, or kidneys are unhealthy—they won't throw off enough urea. This urea is changed into uric acid—carried by the blood to joints and nerves—causing Rheumatism.

One never inherits Rheumatism. One does inherit weak kidneys, irregular bowels and bad skin action.

Fruit-a-tives

OR "FRUIT LIVER TABLETS"

will positively cure Rheumatism because they increase the eliminating action of skin, kidneys and bowels—and make these three organs so vigorous and healthy that there can be no urea or waste retained in the system to poison the blood and irritate the nerves.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are fruit juices, combined with tonics—the whole forming the most effective cure for Rheumatism.

RUSS CABINET RESIGNED.

But Czar is Trying to Form a Coalition Government.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—Finance Minister Kokovtsov has given authority for the statement that the resignation of the entire Cabinet is in the hands of the Emperor.

So far as can be learned, however, his Majesty is not yet ready to charge the Constitutional Democrats with the task of forming a Ministry, and is still seeking to compromise the issue by forming a coalition Cabinet composed of the more solid of the Conservative and Liberal elements, in the lower and upper House of Parliament, under the leadership of Count Heydon and M. Stakovich.

THE BIRTH OF WORDS

A WEALTH OF EXPRESSIONS FROM THE HUMAN BODY.

More Than Four Hundred Words in Our Language Are Related to the Hand Alone and Almost as Many Are Derived From the Head.

The human body—its limbs, fingers, toes, mouth, nose, ears, head and some of the internal organs—has originated hundreds of words. In one of the large dictionaries more than 400 are found related to the hand alone and almost as many to the head.

Index, indicate, predicate, from a Greek word for finger, mean that which points out. So oracle and orator refer to what comes out of the mouth. Audience, audible, auscultation, the adding of accounts, originally after a "hearing" of the officials, are traceable to the ear. Spirit means the breath and is also found in conspire, "to breathe together," inspire, "to breathe in," and even in perspire, "to breathe through." Impediment is something against the foot. Ell, the cloth measure, is the length of the forearm. The hair in capillary attraction means the power exerted through the capillary or hairlike tubes.

The heart (cordis) is to be observed in a cordial, or heartening, drink; a cordial, or hearty, manner; the core of an apple. Dents in wood or metal get their name from their resemblance to tooth marks. The tongue sticks out in several words, like language and linguist.

In some countries anybody may rise by his own merits to be somebody, even to the "head" of the nation or of the church; be a head master of a school, head a revolution, take up "arms" and prove to be a capital—that is, a headmost—soldier and the chief (head) of the army.

Corporal punishment is bodily punishment; capital punishment is punishment by decapitation, or taking off the head. A corporal—that is, a corporal—means the same as captain—that is, the head of a body of foot soldiers. A colonel is one who has been crowned. The commander in chief, or head commander, compels the chieftains, or headmen of the enemy, to capitulate—that is, surrender according to an agreement that is divided into capitulations, or little heads, or chapters.

A heady and headstrong ruler sometimes makes people wish he was headless. To make headway against his foes he may have to rush headlong into difficulties or take a header into the unknown sea of politics. Among some peoples one with the big head is likely to lose it. Under some the headship of the ship of state does not make headway against the head winds of events or around the "cape," or headland, just ahead. He may plunge into trouble over head and ears, and his opponents have to put their heads together to head him off, so as to prevent a head-on collision with another nation. Some men hate to be treated as deadheads at political headquarters or as so many head of cattle or as nuttish heads or cabbage heads, cabbage itself being from an old Spanish word meaning head.

Some men "play their hand" for all there is in it. Some stretch out the glad hand to every one. Some keep hand in glove with those engaged in underhand proceedings as well as with those who have climbed to high places hand over hand. When the right man says "Hands off!" even his right hand man would not lay hands on what was forbidden. The clock hands tell us if we are beforehand or behindhand.

A handsome man originally was one who used his hands skillfully and so was graceful and probably, therefore, good looking. Although every one carries a palm in his hand, people no longer, with palms in their hands, welcome their heroes. One may have his finger in too many pies and tread on too many toes. One's chirography, manuscript, handwriting—they are all one—may be rather coarse, but his fine hand is detected in many a public document and so arouse opposition to his handling the funds. This might prove a severe handicap, which was originally so called from the jockeys putting their hands into a cap and drawing lots for the places that their horses were to have in the race. Footstool and foot rule sound alike, but in the first foot is the literal, in the second the figurative, use of the word.

Though the politician put his best foot forward he may and his foothold getting insecure and begin wondering what's afoot. His coachman, mounting the footboard, may be insolent; his footman, contemptuous; his chef, or head cook, neglectful. He may be ridiculed before the footlights as a social footpad, living a hand to mouth existence at the expense of the taxpayers. While they are insisting on his toiling the mark and he is hanging to his position by the toe nails, as the saying is, he may well wish he was back on his native foothills.

Were he arrested he might be handcuffed and fetters, or fetters, placed upon his feet. He might not even have an opportunity of making mouths or showing his teeth at his enemies. He might in other days be turned over to the headman, but there would be no newspaper headlines proclaiming that fact. Only a small headstone might tell his fate to the pedestrians, or foot passengers, going by.

The Height of Simplicity. "Awfully simple, isn't he?" "I should say he was. Why, it's an actual fact that he played poker with a stranger on an ocean liner."

We have no right to say that the universe is governed by natural laws, but only that it is governed according to natural laws.—Carpenter.

LESSER FIGHTING FORCE.

War Secretary Haldane Would Reduce
It By Many Battalions.

London, July 13.—War Secretary
Haldane in the House of Commons yesterday announced the Government's plans for a more economical administration and a more efficient maintenance of the army. William J. Bryan was among those present in the House. The War Secretary proposed:

Expeditionary force of 150,000 men available for war, with a territorial organization capable of expanding the forces abroad.

Reduction of forces by seven battalions of infantry abroad and three battalions at home. No reduction in India, but colonies will have 25 instead of 30
battalions.

Mobilization of 63 batteries of artillery out of a total home establishment of 99 batteries, leaving 36 batteries for training purposes.

Expeditionary force will be 5,000 men stronger than any army Great Britain has ever organized for foreign service.

GEORGIA BRYAN'S DEATH.

Warrant Out For W. H. Todd on a Murder Charge.

Winnipeg, July 13.—It is reported here last night on reliable authority that the post-mortem on the remains of Georgia Bryan, whose body was found in W. H. Todd's room in the Imperial Hotel here Wednesday, revealed the fact that death was due to carbolic acid. There is suspicion that Todd had attempted a criminal operation, and a warrant is out for his arrest for murder.

An incriminating letter, written by him, which lured the unfortunate girl to his room, is now in the hands of the police.

Her home was originally at Three Rivers, Que., and a sister and stepmother now reside at Maple Creek, Assa.

Why everybody
likes Abbey's Salt.

It is so pleasant to the taste that even children take it with pleasure.

It does not "cake" or flake on top of the water.

It effervesces slowly—may be drunk leisurely, without choking or blinding the user like sodilized powders.

The granules all dissolve—thus the full benefit of the salt is obtained with every dose.

It is the ideal laxative and tonic to purify the blood liver, kidneys and bowels—and build up

the system.

A Detroit Specialist who has it Certified and Diagnosed from Medical College and State Boards of Medical Examiners. So that there may be no doubt

DR. S. GOLDBERG,
The Possessor of 14 Diplomas and Certificates, Who Wants No Money That He Does Not Earn.

In the mind of any man that he has the ability to do as he says. Dr. Goldberg allows his patients to take his treatment and pay for the same after they are satisfied that they are cured. He wishes to hear from men who have been unable to get cured, and who have presented trouble, blood poison, etc. He not only cures the condition itself, but also the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney trouble, heart palpitation, nervous debility, etc.
The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up, so he has made it a rule not to ask for money until you are cured, and when you are cured he feels sure that you will willingly pay him his small fee. It would seem, therefore, that it is to the best interests of every man who suffers in this way to write the doctor confidentially and lay his case before him, because if he accepts your case for treatment it is equivalent to a cure, as he does not under any consideration accept favorable cases for treatment. He sends his booklet containing the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Write him in confidence and your case will receive immediate attention. Medicines for Canadian patients sent from Winnipeg, Ont. duty and transportation charges prepaid. Address, DR. GOLDBERG, 28 Woodward Ave., Suite 171, Detroit, Mich., U.S.A.

COMMERCIAL CONGRESS

Overwhelmingly Supports Resolution For Preference.

Enthusiastic Cheers on Announcement of Vote Which Was 107 to 36 in Favor of Reciprocity Arrangement,
With 21 Neutral—Canadians Sing
"God Save the King"—An "Advisory Imperial Council."

London, July 12.—By an overwhelming majority the Congress of Chambers of Commerce of the Empire yesterday morning adopted the Canadian resolution in favor of preferential trade.
The show of hands revealed large individual opinion in favor of closer imperial trade relation. The vote by chambers was: For the resolution, 107;
against, 36; neutral, 21. The neutral votes included the important chambers
of London, Birmingham, Edinburgh, Melbourne and Sydney.

The result was received with enthusiastic cheers, the Canadians rising to their feet and singing "God Save the King." Eighteen English chambers voted against the resolution; the remainder of the opposition was scattered over divergent parts of the Empire.

Advisory Imperial Council.
Again, on the initiative of Canada,
congress, after luncheon, took up the question of an imperial council. The resolution urging the home and colonial governments to appoint such a body was moved by R. H. Alexander, Vancouver, seconded by Arthur Bennett, Warrington. They argued that it was time to systematize the affairs of the Empire.

On suggestion of F. H. Mathew-son of Montreal, the name was changed to "Advisory Imperial Council."

The resolution was adopted, with only a few dissenters.

The congress also passed a resolution, introduced by George E. Drummond, in behalf of the Montreal Board of Trade, to the effect that the congress
"hereby reaffirms the principle of the resolution adopted by the last congress,
that it is the duty of the self-governing colonies to participate in the coast defence of the Empire."

Wars Due to Colonies.

At a complimentary banquet last night at the National Liberal Club, Lord Loreburne, Lord Chancellor, emphatically denied that the Liberal party was unfriendly to the colonies. At the same time they should face the fact that all the British wars of the last ninety years were due to India and the colonies, says
in the case of India, the cost was almost exclusively borne by the United Kingdom. Practically the only danger of collision arose through the contiguity of the colonies to foreign nations.
Presentation to Chamberlain.

At a special meeting of the Tariff Commission yesterday a presentation was made to Mr. Chamberlain, commemorating the 70th anniversary of his birth. In reply Mr. Chamberlain said he had faith in the protectionist propaganda, which had been delayed too long. He was not ashamed to change opinions under conviction.

GALT WRECK INQUEST OPENED.

Samuel Muma, Reported Dead, Has a Chance of Recovery.

Galt, July 12.—Last evening the coroner's jury met to enquire into the fatality on the C. P. R. yesterday. The jury consisted of: Mark Munn, foreman; Alex. Ames, H. C. Bartlett, E.
Radigan, B. Radigan, J. W. Gilliland,
William McClure, A. Deans, J. Struthers, C. L. Haas, W. A. Hunter, W.
Cowan, J. White, L. J. Groh. Dr. Var-
don was coroner. The inquest was adjourned till Friday night.

Samuel Muma, the Canadian foreman from Innerkip, who was reported as instantly killed, is still living and the doctors says he has a "fighting chance" for ultimate recovery. He regained consciousness Tuesday night. A number of ribs were fractured and the splintered bones pierced his lungs in several places. When Muma was picked up he was unconscious and showed no signs of life. Mrs. Muma was driving in from Ayr to the hospital. Her distress was pitiful, but she was somewhat encouraged by being told that her husband, who had just recovered consciousness, had a chance for his life.
Pietro Salvano is said to be in a dying
state.

Bad Lumber Fire.

Halifax, July 12.—There is a destructive fire in Newfoundland, the worst in the history of its lumbering industry. The fire was in the Timber Estate Co.'s property at Minto, near Cam-
bro. The company's big mill, offices, warehouses, barns, ten dwellings and half a million feet of lumber were destroyed, causing a loss estimated at over $100,000. Over 150 men are out of employment and many families are destitute. The concern is controlled by Canadians.

Eugenia Visits Emperor.

Vienna, Austria, July 12.—Eugenia, ex-Empress of France, arrived here yesterday, and was met by Emperor Francis Joseph. Before coming to Vienna, the ex-empress asked the Emperor's permission in writing, saying: "Being near death, I request your Majesty grant me
the opportunity to see you once more in life, that I may thank you for all the kindness you have shown me."

Packers Cleaning Up.

Chicago, Ill., July 12.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson yesterday finished his work in Chicago. He said he was satisfied that the packers of Chicago are making every effort to put their plants in sanitary condition, and that the department will put the revised regulations into effect on Aug. 1.

Editor Nominated.

Winnipeg, July 12.—Both the local political parties are showing activity in the nomination of candidates. Yesterday, the Liberals nominated Ira Stratton, editor of the Postmaster's
Journal, to contest Rockwood.

One May Be Saved.

Montreal, July 12.—The steamship Cervonia has no water in her hold. Attempt will be made to-day to pull her off. The steamship Angota is full of water and may be almost a total loss.

Why Fused Joints
keep the house
free of dust,
smoke and gas.

Ever see a blacksmith make a horseshoe?

When he is ready to put toe and heel clips on the shoe, he heats the iron shoe and the steel clips white hot—hammers
them—and when they cool,
they are practically one metal.

THEY ARE FUSED—

The same results are obtained in constructing "Hecla" Furnace.

The cast iron top and bottom of the radiating chamber, and the steel sides are FUSED, where they meet—making a joint that is absolutely and permanently tight.

There is not an opening—and no possibility of there being an opening —to permit gas, dust or smoke to escape into the house.

Fused joints are a "Hecla" feature—originated, perfected, patented and controlled—by Clare Bros. & Co., Limited. The "Hecla" is the only furnace that has fused joints. That means the only furnace that will NOT let gas, smoke or dust come into the house.

If you want a furnace that keeps the whole house warm and comfortable all winter—that burns LESS coal—and that is smoke-tight, dust-tight and gas-tight—you will certainly decide on a "Hecla."

Write for the new catalogue fully illustrated. If you send a rough sketch of your house, I will tell you—free—just what the right "Hecla" Furnace will cost to install. Write to-day to "Clare's Furnace Builder."

SOURCE OF SHELLAC.

The East India Insects That Produce
the Resinous Substance.

India is the home of the Coccus lac-ca, the insects that produce the resinous substance known as shellac.

To prepare shellac the seed-lac is put into oblong cotton cloth bags and warmed over a charcoal fire. When the resin begins to melt the bags are twisted, and the pure, clear resin is allowed to flow over fig wood planks or the smooth stems of the banyan tree and cools in the thin plates or shells which constitute shellac.
Pure shellac is very valuable. It is much harder than colophony and is easily soluble in alcohol.

To err is human, and to forgive is superhuman.

Snails and Odors

A professor in the University of Geneva says that snails perceive the odor of many substances, but only when not far away. In order to prove this it is necessary merely to dip a glass rod in a strongly smelling substance and bring it near the large tentacles of a snail in motion. If it is put close to these horns the tentacles are violently drawn back. As the animal perceives the odor it changes its course. Snails also smell by means of their skin. Contact is not necessary, for the mere vicinity of a perfume causes an indentation of the skin.

WATER IN YOUR BLOOD.

Lots of people have thin, watery blood—they eat plenty but don't digest. When digestion is poor, food isn't converted into nourishment—in consequence the body rapidly loses strength. To positively renew health, nothing equals Ferrozone. It excites sharp appetite—makes the stomach digest, forms life-sustaining food. Abundant strength is sure to follow. If you need more vitality, extra energy, better memory, then use Ferrozone, the medical triumph of the age. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty coated late coated Ferrozone tablets.

Fame. Fame is the inheritance not of the dead, but of the living. It is we who look back with lofty pride to the great names of antiquity, who drink of that flood of glory as of a river and refresh our wings in it for future flight—Hazlitt.

A Wise Scheme.

"No matter what opinion is offered, you express a contrary view," said the impatient friend.

"Well," answered Mr. Bilgins, "that's a way I have of acquiring knowledge. A man is more likely to give up all he knows on a subject if you get him to warm up with a little controversial indignation."

WOMEN WHO WEAR WELL.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life will make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy, vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The motion is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few women appreciate the change which comes through marriage. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant drains which are often consequent on marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the check of its freshness and the form of its fairness. As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness the fact in renewed comeliness. Half a million women and more have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

The man who has most to say of the danger of money-getting generally has least of it.

AN HISTORIC FIGHT.

House of Lords at Last Consents to Bill to Legalize Marriage With a Deceased Wife's Sister.

After an opposition extended through many years to the principle involved, the British House of Lords has consented to the passage of the bill legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister in the British possessions. It is not likely that the House of Commons will throw out the measure, and as a result such marriages where legal in the colonies will be valid in Great Britain. Lord Strathcona has been the chief advocate of the bill, and the arguments used in its favor were those with which he must have been familiar twenty years ago in the Dominion Parliament.

A Law of Henry VIII.

A history of the subject dates back to the reign of Henry VIII, who was peculiarly qualified as an authority on all subjects relating to marriage and who forbade a man to marry the sister of his deceased wife. The law then passed was later construed to mean that such a marriage might be entered into; but in 1835 such a union was made not only voidable, but void in fact. This was Lord Lyndhurst's Act, under which previous marriages of the kind were declared legal, but later ones illegal. At the time, the understanding was that the prohibition should be removed at the next session of Parliament. Nevertheless expectations in this respect were not realized, and after time the Commons or Lords refused to interfere.

Introduced by Prince of Wales.

In 1841 Lord Thornecliffe endeavored to have the Lords repeat the act, and the next year the Commons defeated a similar bill by a narrow margin. In 1847 a Royal Commission was appointed to examine the marriage laws, and the result was another bill, introduced in the Commons in 1849 by Mr. Stuart Wortley. This bill passed its second reading, but did not reach its final stages. Next year it was passed. In 1851 Lord St. Germans introduced the bill in the Lords, but it was again defeated. In 1855 the Commons again assented to the bill, but the Lords remained obdurate. Since then the measure has been pressed in varied form a score of times, but always the Lords has thrown it out. Sometimes, too, the Commons dissented, but usually the Lords was in the majority. There was no change in the Lords, even in 1873, when King Edward, then Prince of Wales, introduced the bill. On that historic occasion the vote was 101 against to 81.

The Law in Canada.

Until 1832 the law in Canada was as the law in England previous to the Act of 1835, but in 1830 Mr. Desires Girouard (now Mr. Justice, and father of Sir Percy Girouard) introduced a measure to make marriage legal with the deceased wife's sister. It was seconded by Mr. Cameron, of North Victoria and eloquently argued by them both. The opposition to the measure was based primarily on Scriptural grounds, it being held that Leviticus xviii, 13, and xx, 21, forbade the marriage. The very best authority, however, declared the interpretation put upon these passages to be far fetched and unreasonable. The fact that the Church of England prayer book forbade the marriage was held to be due to an imperfect translation from the original Hebrew. It was shown that the Jews never construed the verses to prohibit the marriages. In short, the case was made conclusive on the grounds of Scriptural interpretation.

The objections founded on social grounds appear to have been more formidable if less concrete. Nobody was able to arise and plainly state them, but there were many vague allusions to the deplorable social conditions that would result in families where a man's sister-in-law was domiciled and his wife living. After all, the chief difficulty was found in the fact that the Roman Catholic Church disapproved of the marriage, and that the Church of England forbade them. The House hesitated to take a step that might be construed as an affront to either of these bodies.

Difficulty was also encountered in the marriage laws of Nova Scotia, which existed by an Imperial Act, and which it was not in the power of the Dominion Government to amend. Finally, after great tribulation, the bill worked its way through the House and into the statutes of the country in 1832. That there has been any harm done as a result there is no evidence to show. With the passage of the law in Great Britain, the principle that marriage with a deceased wife's sister is right will be recognized in England as regards such unions effected in British possessions which have removed the prohibition.

PREMATURE BURIAL

Startling Figures Supplied by English Doctor on Titchikish Subject.

Some very disconcerting figures were supplied to the meeting of the London Society for the Prevention of Premature Burial at Bloomsbury town hall by Dr. Haden, of Gloucester, as arguments in favor of speedy legislation in burial reform. The following cases, he said, had been certified by medical men: Persons buried alive, 149.

Narrow escapes from burial alive, 219.

Dissected alive, 10.

Narrow escapes from dissection alive, 8.

Embalmed alive, 2.

Cremated alive, 1.

He urged that there should be waiting mortuaries, as in Munich and other German towns, where bodies could remain under strict sanitary conditions until the first signs of putrefaction—the only reliable sign of death.

The Ven. Archdeacon Colley, who was nearly buried alive in his infancy, stated that he had prepared plans whereby part of his house at Stockton, near Rugby, was to be turned into a "parish parlor," where poor people, living in one or two rooms with a large family, after being buried and paid for, could remain until they died and pay for their funeral. The rooms would be pleasantly furnished and filled with flowers, and the bodies could remain there until signs of decomposition had set in.

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE.

Resolutions Passed in Busy Day's Session in London—Postage From Britain—Parcel Rate Uniform.

London, July 13.—(C. A. P.)—With the hope of concluding last night, the Congress of Chambers of Commerce proceeded briskly to business yesterday morning. The Canadians were the most active delegates in attendance. It is a notable fact that, of the 46 sub-committees on the program, 21 were initiated in form by the Canadian chambers.

A message was received from Mr. Chamberlain, hoping that the deliberations of the congress would result in promoting the welfare and union of the empire.

Postage From Britain.

J. F. Ellis of Toronto opened proceedings by moving a resolution that "in the opinion of this Congress the British Government should adopt rates of postage such as would encourage the circulation of British newspapers and periodicals in all parts of the empire, and thus promote trade unity."

After discussion, the resolution was carried unanimously.

Uniform Rates For Parcels.

J. A. Ballantyne, South Scotland, moved a resolution recommending that colonial postoffices throughout the empire adopt uniform rates for parcel post, the same as now exist between Great Britain and New Zealand. The motion was carried.

A motion by J. W. Keogh, Riveria, that universal penny postage be endorsed as promoting the development of international relations, was seconded by C. H. Colquhoun, Montreal.

R. Wilson Smith, Montreal, moved to request the Imperial Government to devise means whereby cable and telegraph news to and from all parts of the empire might be furnished entirely through imperial channels. He directed attention to a pamphlet issued by the Ottawa Government on a proposal for an imperial intelligence service, and said he did not want to create a monopoly of cable news, but to devise means by which the news from different parts of the empire would come uncolored with foreign views.

Mr. Sanford Fleming spoke emphasizing the arguments on the pamphlet and the motion passed unanimously.

Fast Steamship Service.

A resolution in favor of a fast steamship service for mails and trade between the colonies and the mother country was carried unanimously.

Tax On Travelers.

B. S. Taylor, Birmingham, referred to Quebec in moving the abolition of taxes levied by certain colonies on commercial travelers. The motion was carried.

The place of the next meeting has yet to be decided. Three places were voted on—Sydney, Australia; Cape Town, South Africa; and Victoria, B.C.

Removal of Embargo.

By 23 to 24, a resolution favoring the removal of the cattle embargo was defeated. The majority took the view that the congress was not competent to deal with the question.

R. I. Copeland, Toronto, moved that steps be taken to establish uniform patent, copyright and insolvency laws throughout the empire.—Carried.

A motion asking for a change in the naturalization laws, was declared lost. Sir Albert Rollett's resolution, to take steps to promote technical and commercial education, was carried.

R. J. Graham, Belleville, placed on record a resolution recommending the railways of Canada being for the general advantage of the empire, should receive imperial consideration in any plan of imperial federation and defence.

The principle of arbitration for the settlement of international, commercial and labor disputes was endorsed by a resolution by Sir Albert Rollett and R. S. Fraser of London.

The congress concluded its business shortly after 6 o'clock.

IT WAS GENERAL.

Guest—This is the fourth time I've rung for ice water? Bellboy—I know it, sir, but the ice is full of people that were at the same banquet and every time I started down the hall to your room, somebody reached out and snatched the pail.

PARLIAMENT IS ENDED

Few Hear His Excellency's Speech From The Throne

COMMENTS ON SESSION

Quebec, July 14.—The second session of the tenth Parliament of the Dominion of Canada was prorogued at 12 o'clock yesterday by the Governor-General. There was a slim attendance to witness the closing ceremonies. The Prince of Wales, Lord Dufferin, and the Governor-General's Foot Guards supplied the escort for His Excellency
and from the Parliament Buildings, and the Governor-General's Foot Guards
had a guard of honor drawn up in front of the main entrance. The salute was fired from Nepesin Point. His Excellency the Governor-General delivered the following:

Speech From The Throne.
Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:
In relieving you from further attendance in Parliament I desire to thank you for the care and assiduity exhibited in the discharge of your laborious and exacting duties.

Invitation to the King.
Your invitation to His Majesty the King to visit this part of his dominions was duly forwarded to Buckingham Palace. That it would be a source of great rejoicing in Canada if His Majesty would favorably entertain the invitation is confirmed in the several processes adopted in the several provinces, cities and towns, all expressing the hope that His Majesty may honor
us with another visit.

The Continuance of Prosperity.
It is very gratifying to note that Canada continues to enjoy a prosperity
rarely equaled in the history of nations. The volume of exports and imports during the year just closed exceeds that of any previous record. The revenue also shows a remarkable increase, the receipts on account of consolidated fund having doubled in the last ten years.

Stream of Immigration.
The large number of private bills
that have received their approval, having for their object the incorporation of railway and other industrial enterprises, affords additional evidence of the general prosperity prevailing over the Dominion. The stream of immigrants seeking homes in the western provinces
continues to flow in increasing volume,
and owing to the favorable conditions
now existing in Alberta and Saskatchewan their vacant lands are being rapidly taken up.

Some Notable Measures Passed.
Several acts of great public utility have been added to the laws in the session now drawing to a close. Among the number I am glad to note:

An act for the better observance of the Lord's Day.

An act in restriction of usury.

An act to secure the better marking of fruit.

An act requiring that certain articles containing a proportion of gold and silver when offered for sale should be honestly marked.

An act relating to immigrants and immigration which, among other provisions, will enable the authorities to deport undesirable persons.

Preservation of the Forests.
It is earnestly to be hoped that your example in passing the act setting apart large areas for forest reserves will be followed by the Provincial Legislatures having jurisdiction over their public domain, and that a system of reforestation may be adopted in all parts of the Dominion, thereby preserving the uniform flow of our rivers and of our valuable water powers.

Revised Statutes Held Back.
In view of the many important acts passed and of the numerous amendments made to existing laws during this session it has been deemed expedient to stay the issue of the volume of the revised statutes in order that the recent legislation may be embodied.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:
I thank you in His Majesty's name for the supplies you have so liberally voted.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:
A copy of the convention regarding commercial relations between Japan and Canada has now been received.

The treaty has been duly ratified and exchanged, thereby giving Canada material advantages in our trade with Japan.

I now beg to express the hope that
on your return to your several homes
you will find evidences that the coming harvest will be a bountiful one,
thus assuring another year's prosperity
throughout the Dominion.

Manlaughter Charge.
Hamilton, July 14.—Alex. McDonald, a youth of 17, was yesterday morning committed for trial on the charge of manlaughter. It is charged that he annoyed a fellow-workman, Andrew McGarvey, at the Morton Manufacturing Co. by shying pieces of tin at him,
and when McGarvey remonstrated, Mc-Donald knocked him down and kicked him in the face. Blood poisoning set in and McGarvey died.

Premier Whitney ON For England.
Toronto, July 14.—Premier Whitney leaves town to-day, en route for New York, whence he sails on Tuesday night by the Caronia for England. He will return from Liverpool on Sept. 1 by the Campania. He will be accompanied on the voyage over by Hon. Dr. Pyne.
During the Premier's absence Hon. J. J.
Foy, Attorney-General, will be acting Premier.

Salisbury Victim Dying.
Salisbury, Eng., July 14.—The bulletin posted at the infirmary here yesterday morning announced that Edward W. Sentell, of Brooklyn, one of the passengers injured in the railway disaster of July 1, was sinking.

Scaffold Falls With Six.
Belleville, July 14.—At a barn raising in Rawdon Township, a scaffold fell, with six men on it. They were all badly bruised, but John Gay broke his collarbone and three ribs.

Reform seldom begins at home.

WHAT THE CITIZENS THINK ABOUT THE BEET SUGAR BY-LAW

CHATHAM, ONT., July 5, 1906

To the Ratepayers:-

Having given the Sugar Beet By-Law our careful consideration, we find that the city is thoroughly secured and the direct average cost to the city is a comparative small amount, and recognizing that the only way we can hope to see our city increase in population is by securing additional industries, we hereby endorse the proposition heartily and would recommend property owners to give it their hearty support.

WE SAY IT

Before you buy, we say it after you buy,
we do it all the time—give you either your money's worth or your money back. If we did not make the clothes we sell and know exactly what is in them we might not be so anxious to shout so strongly on this point.
But we know our clothes are good clothes, and we know our values are good values, so what have we to fear.

We are giving some Special Snaps in Suits these days.
