More Paint.—Mr Burpee Witter's block has just received a new coat of paint and looks very nice. We are pleased to see so many buildings being improved this year. It is a sign of property and will have the effect of making the town appear much more favorably with stangers. There are some buildings yet that would look the better of a little paint.

Apper Shiffment.—The schr. Theress, Glass, is loading apples at this port, Meser Chase & Co. are the shippers, and she will carry about 2,5co barrels. She will probably sail this afternoon or tomorrow for New York. CARD. TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 8.

Complying with the written request of more then one hundred electors of this ward (embracing all shades of politics), I offer myself a candidate for the "Municipal Council." Although present at the public meeting held in Mr Johnson Bishop's store, I did not vote for the resolution "agreeing to support the namines. olution "agreeing to support the nominee of that meeting"; I am therefore free to or that meeting"; I am therefore free to receive your support and votes.

In Council (if elected) I shall study your interests; throwing my influence in favor of economy and promptness, endeavoring, without fear or favor, to follow that policy which seems most clearly indicated by the actual needs of the County.

A. deW. BARSS. Wolfville, Nov 10th, 1886 TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 8.

At a Public Meeting held on the 18th ult. and duly advertised in the columns of this paper, I was nominated as a candidate for Councillor for this Ward. At that meeting Dr Barss, who is now contesting the Ward with me, was present, took part in the business, and voted to support me. On the good faith of his support and otherers I accepted the nomination. At a largely attended public meeting held en the 2d inst. I placed myself fairly before A the Ward on the Temperance and other. the Ward on the Temperance and other the Ward on the Temperance and other questions, while Dr Barss refused to make any statement of his course if elected. In view of the above facts I place myself on the honor of the Ward, asking you for your support, and promising if elected, to faithfully perform my duties to the best of my ability.

These are exactly the words I overheard in a small grocery store in a country village.

The proprietor and his clerk had gone to dinner, and a boy about fourteen years of age had charge of the store during their absence.

Before he spole I was very favorably impressed with his appearance. He had a bright intelligent leok and quite a manly bearing for one so young.

But when I heard the above words pass between him and a customer on whom he was waiting, my opinion changed very quickly.

"Why do they keep such a boy as that?" I asked my friend as we left the store.

"Because," he replied, "it is difficult to get rid of him. He is the son of the proprietor. He is wonderfully quick in all his studies—hasn't an equal in our school; and yet I would rather have the proprietor. He is wonderfully quick in all his studies—hasn't an equal in our school; and yet I would rather have the possible of the content of the proprietor.
