mission, our report read as though Sir John followed up his interruption with an address, so that he was crowded with the concluding portion of Mr. Trow's speech.

Now that the Manitoba movement for the year has begun, information for emigrants furnished by those acquainted with the country must prove both interesting and profitable. The Winnipeg Times gives the following estimate of the first year's needs of a family of settlers:

Table listing expenses for a family of settlers, including items like flour, sugar, and clothing, with corresponding costs.

This amount is deemed sufficient to tide a family over until something better can be had for home consumption and sale.

The anti-liquor legislation of Kansas is a sufficiently strange character to demand the heart of the most thorough prohibitionist. Not only are all the ordinary forms of sale and drinking prohibited, but even the use of sacramental wine is forbidden to the churches.

One is perplexed to decide whether it is ignorance or perversity that causes some Canadian papers to misrepresent and decry Canada. The Ottawa Free Press, for instance, writing of manufacturing and manufacturing, says: "We cannot use water-power as our neighbours do, simply because our rivers are ice-bound about half the year."

It is a solemn thing to get married," said an old soldier not to get married, "but it is a rejoinder to the question of whether it is better to be married or to be single in the United States."

THE GUN. FIRE-BREATHING MATCH AT BUFFALO. BUFFALO, March 27.—There has been some shooting circles of pistol shooting between Mr. C. Rogers, of St. Catharines, and G. W. Smith, of this city, to settle the question definitely.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS. T. L. P., Spencerville.—Your horse should be rested for several weeks, and have the emaciated ribs fattened up. Do not touch the frog. Poultice the feet with bran poultice for several days, then allow the horse to walk on a loose box and have the feet covered with sawdust.

A COLD SEASON.

The "Year in Which There was no Summer." From the Hartford Times. We continue to receive occasional inquiries concerning "the year in which there was no summer."

HOW PARIS WAS SAVED. The advantage of having fire-proof buildings was plainly shown in the few days since. One of the largest retail goods stores in that city, located on Boulevard Haussmann, was completely destroyed.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND SEAL FISHERY. Commanded by E. T. Woodward, commanding the Yantic, which has just arrived at Norfolk St. John's, Newfoundland, where she was engaged in the seal fishery.

How to Cure a Cold. A medical journal tells how one man was cured of a cold. "He boiled a little wormwood in water, and drank it freely of the tea before going to bed."

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY MILES OF PAPER.—The paper upon which this MAIL is printed comes from the Merrimack Mills in Massachusetts, and weighs nearly 400 pounds each.

AGood deal of harmless enjoyment and amusement may often be derived from what is commonly known as a "sell." I am at a loss to discover any more orthodox word to describe the effect of a "sell."

Freedom of Speech. While the Parly party were having their luncheon at the hotel, they were talking of the matter of freedom of speech.

THE EMPRESS OF AUSTRIA. Francis was really in love, or fancied he was, and for a time the union proved a sufficiently happy one. The Empress had been accustomed to imbibe daily a glass of wine, and she was now to be seen at the court officials of Vienna objecting, and with her right hand she was holding a glass of water.

THE PERFUME OF Freshly-culled flowers is agreeable to everyone, and so it is with the delightful perfume of Murray & LANAN'S FLORIDA WATER.

York, and who recorded substantially in favor of his allowance...

CURRENT HUMOUR.

Life worth living? That depends on the liver. When some politicians are weighed they are found wanting every office in which there is a vacancy.

The English papers have almost been short of the article that could write an article that is short.—Boston Transcript.

It is strange that it wearies a man's legs so much less to stand in front of a bar than it does to stand by a work-bench in the Canada.

An ordinance against profanity is rigidly enforced in Avon, Ill. A plain coat brings a fine of $3, and wearing coat more.

Fish are so plenty in some parts of Canada that in order to take a first-class line the sportsman has to wear his duds.

When two guinea young women make a great display of bidding each other good-bye it is not because they wish to see each other again.

An exchange notes that the obituary seems to be quite at home in Central Park, New York. Why not? It is in the land of the dead.

When you have convinced a woman that a lounge worth about $7 has just been secured a customer worth $16 to $18 you have secured a customer.—Detroit Free Press.

An astronomer says: "This is the best time of year for observing the planet Mercury. Thank heaven this time of year is good for something."

New York consumers have complained so bitterly of the high price of coal that the dealers have kindly reduced the wages of coal shovellers.—Philadelphia News.

You can take a merciful farmer as soon as he stores his grain in a barn, for he will give the blanket off his wife's lap and spread it over the poor horses.—Detroit Free Press.

Mr. A. said a little girl who had just been sent to study physics, said, "I want to see the flesh part of the milk," that is, pointing to the cream-pitcher. "I want the epidemics."

A Boston young lady who went to Washington with a man, and who was the only single, said if he had been a hit there he would not have been a miss here.—Boston Post.

James, did you divide your paper of chocolate with your brother? "Yes, certainly, mamma; I ate the chocolate and gave him the motto—he is so fond of reading, you know."

Careful of his diet? "Something to eat?" "Tramp." "Yes, but I don't want no quail, cause it's been awfully hard on his 'cuse, and they have had to feed on all sorts of things."

Telephone stations have recently been opened in New York, where, for a small sum, persons may hold five-minute conversations with their friends at the expense of the system without extra charge.—London Graphic.

Doctor X, of Paris, meets Doctor Y on the street and stops to talk to him. Suddenly a funeral passed at the moment, and Doctor Y, one of the relatives walking behind the hearse salutes them. "At least," remarks Doctor X, "there is one who is grateful."

During the March celebration the Galt House saloons did a rushing business. Gilboyle said to a bar-keeper: "I suppose you all made hay while the sun shone?" "We didn't make hay, but we sold a good deal of rye," replied the bar-keeper.—Galveston News.

The other day the Galveston Recorder was grossly insulted by a prisoner, who is a regularly retained chief clerk, for which offense he was being tried. "I fine you $10," said the Recorder. "Judge, if you will take it out in chickens, I let you have ten chickens you missed last week. I let you have ten chickens more this week."—Galveston News.

"I say, Jones, that dog of yours gave me an awful fright last night. As I was passing your house, I saw a cent on the ground, and I picked it up. I saw a cent on the ground, and I picked it up. I saw a cent on the ground, and I picked it up."

On Wednesday night the Rochester Democrat, an indebted man was observed holding himself up by means of a lamp-post on a prominent street. "Well, the man, who is indebted to five cents in the street here all an hour ago, and this car ain't started yet."

An Irish lady called on a photographer for fifty cents worth of pictures. When the artist removed the camera and returned to her, she told her she need not sit longer. "On coming out from the dark room he found her still upright in the chair, with that look of petrified despair which goes peculiarly to the photographic pose. "You needn't sit there any longer," said the frightened artist. "What's the matter?" she asked, "I'm nervous."

"Who was he? Does he live in Little Rock?" "I don't know his name."

"I'll warrant that it was Oliver Gregg."

TORONTO HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Question of Additional Aid from the City Discussed.

HON. G. W. ALLAN SUBMITS HIS ANNUAL REPORT.

The following gentlemen, members of the Toronto Horticultural Society, last night assembled in the pavilion for the transaction of business.—Hon. G. W. Allan, president; Mayor McMorris, Ald. Adams, Irwin, Fleming, Lake, Steiner, and Trees, Major Gray, Messrs. Wm. Elliott, Henry Pollock, H. F. Dwight, James E. Ellis, Jr., F. W. Coote, J. A. Summers, E. A. Seading, J. C. Gilmer, Hugh Mills, George Leslie, J. C. Allan, and Mr. J. H. B. Jones.

After routine business, the president read the annual report of the directors, which is as follows:—

The report which the directors have the honor to present for the past year will show that a further and very important advance has been made since the last annual meeting in the work of the society. The interest and attractions of the Gardens will not be heretofore limited to the outdoor display of plants and flowers during the comparatively brief season of a Canadian summer, but will now be continued through the snows and frosts of winter.

The erection and completion of the new conservatory on the south side of the Pavilion will, it is hoped, provide a new and most important source of interest and instruction to all visitors to the Gardens during the winter period of the year when the warmth and perfume and gay blossoms within "our winter garden" will be a welcome contrast to the cold, bare, and cheerless aspect of the winter landscape without.

The conservatory now completed is 48 by 26 feet, and is heated by a British oil-burner boiler placed in the basement of the Pavilion, from which the water is conveyed to a coil of pipe placed under and above the floor of the conservatory.

Owing to many unforeseen delays on the part of the contractor, the plants were not ready for the reception of plants until after the cold weather had set in in November.

The nucleus of a collection had been formed by the purchase in June last of some very beautiful specimens of palms, pandanus, crotons, dracaenas, etc., from Mr. N. J. McKinnon, of St. Catharines, Ontario, and exhibited by that gentleman at the Exhibition of the Electrical Division Society held in the pavilion during that month.

It was confidently expected by the directors that the conservatory would have been completed in sufficient time to have prevented any injury to the plants, for which object the want of proper accommodation in the temporary quarters provided for them.

From the unexpected delays already alluded to it was feared that the conservatory was an unseasonable temperature, and when at last the new building was sufficiently completed to receive the plants, the effects of the fresh paint upon the foliage of most of the plants quickly destroyed their beauty, and it will be some time yet before they will entirely recover.

In spite of these drawbacks, however, the conservatory is already beginning to present a very attractive appearance, and the directors are greatly pleased with the result of the members and friends of the society that further additions of a very valuable kind to the collection of plants may be expected during the coming year.

His Excellency the Governor-General has most kindly undertaken to use his powerful influence in procuring a grant of plants from the Royal Botanic Gardens at Kew. At his Excellency's suggestion a memorial has been transmitted to him, signed by the directors, for which object a grant for such a grant, and accompanied by an official letter from His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, recommending the application with the greatest confidence.

The power of the influence of his Excellency will obtain for their request a favorable consideration, and it is confidently expected that the powerful influence of his Excellency will obtain for their request a favorable consideration, and it is confidently expected that the powerful influence of his Excellency will obtain for their request a favorable consideration.

During the March celebration the Galt House saloons did a rushing business. Gilboyle said to a bar-keeper: "I suppose you all made hay while the sun shone?" "We didn't make hay, but we sold a good deal of rye," replied the bar-keeper.—Galveston News.

The other day the Galveston Recorder was grossly insulted by a prisoner, who is a regularly retained chief clerk, for which offense he was being tried. "I fine you $10," said the Recorder. "Judge, if you will take it out in chickens, I let you have ten chickens you missed last week. I let you have ten chickens more this week."—Galveston News.

EPPE'S COCOA.—GRAZELUAF AND COMPANY.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws of the human system, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Eppe provides a most delicious and healthy food, which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that the human system may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of cases of malady are floating around us ready to attack wherever they find an opportunity. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—Civil Service Gazette.
