The Cable Case.

Judgment Against the Commercial Cable Company.

Donald Morison, Attorney General of Newfoundland vs. The Commercial Cable Company.

In which the Government sues for tax on four cables, and the Company have paid into Court taxes for two cables, judgment was given in the Supreme Court this morning for the Government.

The Chief Justice gave an oral judgment and his written judgment of finding and reasons have not yet been filed in the Registrar's Office.

The judgments of the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Emerson are in favour of the Government. Mr. Justice Johnson dissents.

It follows therefore that the judgment of the Court is in favour of the Government.

We are able to give some extracts from the judgments filed, viz., those of Justices Emerson & Johnson. The contract referred to in the extract immediately following is that made in February 9th, 1909, which was not submitted to the Legislature.

Extracts from the Judgment of Emerson, J.

"I have to hold that such an agreement, as a binding and valid contract, could not be made by the Executive Government of this Colony. In law it never was a contract, because of the absence of one of the essential elements of a contract, viz., capacity on the part of one of the contracting parties. No contract can be made by the Executive Government to remit a tax, and as such a contract was not valid without the authority or consent of the Legislature, it could not be admitted in evidence for or on behalf of the defendant in the action. The Executive Government knew or should have known that it had no such power or authority. The agreement could not have been intended to be binding upon the Government without the approval of the Legislature, especially in view of the fact that the Statutory Rules of the House of Assembly, provide that no contract made with the Government extending over a period of years shall be binding unless ratified by the Legislature. Besides, the document in question, which, in view of the Taxing Act and the contract of 1905, could not have been intended by those who signed it to have any binding effect as a contract, unless and until it had been ratified by a Statute of the Legislature. "I am therefore of the opinion that there should be a judgment for the plaintiff for the sum of $18,000 (including the sum tendered and brought into Court) with interest thereupon of six per cent per annum from the 30th Jan. 1910, to the date of judgement, and costs of suits to be taxed."

Between the 30th June and the 31st December, 1909, the defendants cut one of these four cables, as paragraph 3 alleges, they spliced on at the cut a cable extending from the Hut in Newfoundland; then continued a submarine section westward from the Hut to New York. The Hut is situated within 100 yards from the points where these cables leave the Atlantic and are returned to it. This cable extending from the Waterville to New York via the Hut is, by the defendants, called one transatlantic cable or one through cable. The eastern extremity of the section west of the Hut has never been actually spliced or joined at the Hut to the western extremity of the section east of the Hut, but electric connection has been there made and maintained between those two sections by means of the apparatus known as the Taylor-Brown-Deerlove Relay.

Mr. Ward, an expert witness for the defendant and Vice-President of the company, deposes that relays are used in all very long land-lines, and are adopted purely for the purpose of renewing the current. They become sine qua non in submarine cables as well as in land-lines when the distance is so great that, with the best means of applying electric impulse so far known, a cable or line cannot otherwise be made to convey the telegraphic signals from the point a quo to the point ad quod. And in answer to a cross-interrogatory 68 Mr. Ward says—and there is no evidence to the contrary—that the distance between New York and Europe is too great to be successfully relayed without relaying; that it would be necessary to relay a cable between New York and Europe. And in answer to cross-interrogatory 70 he deposes that the distance between Canso and Europe is not too great, and that "there would be no advantage, nor would it be desirable, to relay a cable between Canso and Europe. It is a matter of gathering from the evidence that, though this company had four submarine cables in use from Waterville to Canso so before 1909, they had no cables from Waterville or from Europe direct to New York.

And so it may be inferred that the company, in conveying that message could not be sped between Waterville and New York without relay en route, decided to substitute for one of the four cables then in use from Waterville to Canso a cable from Waterville to New York through the Hut, and to relay there instead of forwarding from New York to Canso. I differ, therefore, with the company's contention that the company's cable between New York and Waterville through the Hut from its other cable through the Hut between Canso and Waterville; and I hold that the former must be for the purposes of this suit be considered as two cables, not one. But, applying the same evidence to the cables between Canso and Waterville through the Hut, I hold that it is one cable, not two, for it was through a cable within the interment of section 4 of the contract of 1905 when it was landed and it needed no quickening or relay to render it capable of transmitting through messages between its termini. The Waterville-Canso cable had been one entire and efficient cable before it was taken ashore at the Hut. Without the Government's permission the defendants would have had no right to land any telegraph cable, for it is to be noticed that the terms of the contract of 1905 are that the Government "will grant permission to land the company's through cables on terms and conditions," etc.; the plaintiff has not suggested that this Canso through cable was landed without its permission; the fact that this suit is aimed at this cable and that the plaintiff has not seen well to take proceedings for its removal is suggestive that the Government assented to the landing. In these circumstances it is reasonable to hold that it was landed with the plaintiff's permission as through cable between Waterville and Canso, and the

A WIDOW'S LUCK. Suit the Thing That Was Slowly Injuring Her.

A woman tells how coffee kept her from insuring her life: "I suffered for many years chiefly from trouble with my heart, with ever nervous headaches and neuralgia; but although incapacitated at times for my housework, I did not realize the gravity of my condition till I was rejected for life insurance, because, the examining physician said, my heart was so bad he could not pass me."

"This distressed me very much, as I was a widow and had a child dependent upon me. It was to protect my future that I wanted to insure my life.

Fortunately for me, I happened to read an advertisement containing a testimonial from a man who had been affected in the same way that I was with my heart trouble, and who was benefited by leaving off coffee and using Postum. I grasped at the hope this held out, and made the change at once.

"My health began to improve immediately. The headaches and neuralgia disappeared, I gained in flesh, and my appetite came back to me. Greatest of all, my heart was strengthened from the beginning, and soon all the distressing symptoms passed away. No more waking up in the night with my heart trying to fly out of my mouth!"

"Then I again made application for life insurance, and had no trouble in passing the medical examination.

It was seven years ago that I began to use Postum and I am using it still, and shall continue to do so, as I find it a guarantee of good health."

What to Do With the Refuse.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—I understand there is to be an attempt made to get rid of the accumulation of filth that at present figures our streets. This is well, but the question naturally arises, "What is to be done with the garbage after it is cleared away?" Is it to be dumped outside the town where the sanitary man chooses to deposit it, and are the farmers to be allowed to use it for fertilizing, as usual? No other civilized country allows its refuse to lie on the outskirts of towns, to be an intolerable nuisance, as well as a serious menace to the health of the community.
Last summer a mattress, coming from one knows not what infected house, was thrown out at the top of the LeMarchant Road Golf Links. The fibre with which it was stuffed was blown hither and thither over that locality all summer, and was probably responsible for a good deal of illness. Another mattress dirty and delapidated was flung out on the Long Pond Road, a little past Rennie's Mill. These things should not be tolerated. The best way, and the only scientific way, to treat garbage is to dispose of it in a crematorium. The question of expense would, of course, be raised immediately as an objection, but it would not be as expensive as the series of epidemics which periodically result from our present system. As it is there seems to be a good deal of money spent with no visible result. A crematorium we should have, we must have eventually, but as a temporary expedient a large pit could be dug, at a convenient distance from town, and in some unfrequented locality, where the town refuse could be disposed of, and kept well covered with chloride of lime which is a cheap and efficient disinfectant. This has the advantage of being both inexpensive and practicable, and I urgently commend it to the Council and the public generally.

Faithfully yours,
NATIVE.

Here and There.

DIPHTHERIA.—A 14-year-old girl developed diphtheria at her home on Duckworth Street last Friday. She is being nursed at home.

ELEVEN ARRESTED.—The police arrested eleven persons for drunkenness Saturday evening last. There were let off yesterday morning.

BIG CARGOES OF SALT.—There are about 17,000 tons of salt from Cadiz now afloat in the harbor. Three steamers and one vessel arrived with this cargo last week.

GLENCOE ARRIVED.—The S. S. Glencoe arrived at Port aux Basques from North Sydney at 3.20 p.m. yesterday with a full load of freight. She will sail for Placentia to-night.

Another Arrest for Theft Saturday.

Saturday afternoon a young chap who resides on George's Street was arrested and charged with stealing oil barrels from the premises of Mr. Geo. Neal. For some time past a dead set has been made on this place by youthful thieves who were in the habit of getting away with casks after stealing them and then returning and reselling them to the owner. How often this has been done is not known but the police think it is going on for some time past, and this prisoner with his accomplices will likely be severely punished, if found guilty.

Young Woman Arrested Saturday.

Saturday night Const. Stamp observed a young woman, one of the disolute class who frequent Water Street nightly, acting in a very disorderly and unbecoming manner. She was admonished at first but paid no heed to the officer, who had to arrest her. She was kept in the cells until to-day, when she was brought before the court to answer the charge preferred against her.

Guards Parade.

The first church parade for the season on the part of the Methodist Guards was held yesterday morning. About 100 lads under the command of Major Hutchings and headed by the battalion band marched from their hall to Wesley Church, where Divine service was conducted by Rev. J. K. Curtis, who delivered a very impressive sermon. The music by the band was excellent. The turn-out looked very fine and was commented on favorably by the spectators.

THREATENED HIS MOTHER.—Saturday night Const. Foran and Stanford were called to a residence in College Square where a young man was threatening his mother, whom he told he would kill. The police on arresting him were given much trouble and had to handcuff him.

Choose Lesser Evil.

Not long ago we learn by the Portia, the fishing schr. "Mary Smith," Courage, master, went down to Conn. in Fortune Bay, for a bait supply. This harbor is a very small one, and as the vessel was going in under full sail with a spanking breeze behind her, at the rate of about 10 knots; only after rounding the point did her skipper notice five schooners anchored on the regular mooring ground. Should the vessel continue on her course she must perforce run over and sink the smaller craft moored right in her track and sacrifice more than likely the lives of several of the men comprising their crews. To avoid them there was nothing for it but to put the ship ashore, and quickly sizing up the situation and to save life and property Capt. Courage took the latter

FINISHED DISCHARGING.—The Diana, Erik and Kite finished discharging their seals to-day.

Woman Badly Gored.

Saturday afternoon as Mrs. Hamlin, of Belvidere Street, was attending to her cows, one of them, which was vicious, turned on her and gored her severely. The horns of the beast were driven through the woman's legs in two or three places, inflicting serious wounds. Some of the leading arteries were cut and she lost much blood. After the accident the woman had the presence of mind to seize a piece of brim bag and rap around the wounds to try and stop the flow of blood while she cried for help. Neighbors came to her assistance and helped her into the house, where she lay prostrate. There was great difficulty in getting a doctor, but at last Dr. Macpherson was called, who responded quickly, and with the assistance of Dr. Carbery of the Calypso, who was also called in, put several stitches in the wounds, and stopped the flow of blood. Dr. Macpherson complimented the woman on her thoughtfulness in trying to staunch the flow, which no doubt saved her life. Mrs. Hamlin was in a bad state yesterday, being in a semi-conscious condition; but with good care no doubt her physician will pull her through.

Tells Others His Secret

Wants them to know how he was cured of itching, protruding piles by DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.
Doctors usually recommend the knife as the only cure for piles. They overlook the risk, the expense and the suffering of mind and body entailed in a surgical operation.
Dr. Chase's Ointment will bring relief quickly and will cure thoroughly if you will but persist.
Mr. A. Honington, 52 Bronsdon Place, Montreal, Que., writes:—"I cannot help praising Dr. Chase's Ointment as I suffered many years with itching and protruding piles, and was cured by this ointment. I became tired of the efforts of the best specialists to cure me, and hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment just as I had of hundreds of other medicines began its use. But oh, great joy, at the very start the sharp pains left me and I was gradually cured. I hope that every sufferer will follow my example with the same success. Every form of piles or hemorrhoids is cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Daughters Meet.

The Daughters of the Empire held a meeting Saturday afternoon in the British Hall. The object of the gathering was to select the delegates to attend with the Victoria League the conference at London on June the 8th and 9th at the Royal Institution. Amongst those present will be representatives of the Guild of Loyal Women of South Africa and Imperial Order of the Daughters of Canada. Miss Goodridge and Miss Macpherson, who are now in England, were selected. A letter was read from Dr. Brehm in which he expressed his willingness to do everything in his power to forward the objects of the society. A bag and cushion sale will be held in the Presbyterian Hall on Empire Day in order to get funds to establish a building for the encampment of tuberculous patients in the first stage of their illness. The proceeds of the recent course of lectures it was announced had amounted to $150. An offer to provide one of the outdoor sanatoria was made by Mrs. J. S. Mann. They will be erected from designs supplied by Dr. A. E. Lyster, of Chelmsford, England, and will have raised wooden floors and wooden roofs. The walls will be canvas and will be arranged so as to open and close easily, according to the condition of the weather. The site for their erection will be selected shortly. Mrs. R. G. Rendell's kind offer to put a field in the suburbs at the service of the Daughters could not be availed of because there is not an ample supply of water there. The ladies who presented bouquets to the Queen when Her Majesty was in St. John's as Duchess of York in 1901 will form a Queen's Guild chapter in connection with the ladies of Canada, who did a similar office there on that occasion. The Queen has made a request for their autographs and they will be subscribed to a special address and forwarded to the Queen on Coronation week. Those who have the honor in this city are Miss V. Whiteway, Miss M. Winter, Miss Ethel Fox and Miss E. Herder. The address will be enclosed in a garland of roses each one representing one of the ladies, and will be forwarded as a tribute of love and loyalty to the Queen. There will be a special stand for the Daughters in London at the Coronation where the Newfoundland representatives will have seats. Judging from the enthusiasm displayed at the meeting on Saturday the programme for the season will be a successful one.

Skin Like Velvet

Is greatly to be desired and is very attractive. There is one sure way of making your skin like velvet, and that is by using Snow Cream. It is neither sticky nor greasy, and the general verdict is "It makes your skin like velvet." W. T. COURTENAY, the Prescription Pharmacy, corner Duckworth and Prescott Streets, sells the Cream at 25c per bot.—ap21f

Fogota Arrived.

The S. S. Fogota, Capt. B. Barbour, returned from the Fogota route yesterday afternoon, having been down as far as Change Islands. She brought no freight, a small mail and eighteen passengers. Those in saloon were—Miss Hann, S. Roberts and Miss C. Roberts. The return trip was pleasant and fair weather prevailed. Going down, however, almost daily spurts of unfavourable weather were met, and on Tuesday night she was forced to harbour all night at Seldom-Come-By on account of thick fog. The ship reached Change Islds. Friday evening and started on the return trip at 6.30 p.m.

Creates Sensation.

Saturday evening on Barte's Hill a man who had in his possession a dangerous looking knife and threatened to use it, caused a sensation on that thoroughfare. He sought a man whom he alleged owed him money and refused to settle. He also went searching for him on Curdway Street, and decamped when he heard the police were coming. It is thought that the man is not right in his mind, and the belief is that had he not the party he was looking for he would have used the knife on him unless quickly disarmed.

Harbor Mission.

At 7 a.m. yesterday the C. M. R. C. began their annual mission work on the harbor of St. John's, distributing tracts and giving invitations to church. Proceedings began in church with a celebration of Holy Communion, which was attended by the boats' crew and members of the Bible Class. They then proceeded to Ayre & Sons' wharf where Rev. J. Hill delivered an address before the boat was launched. Mr. Robert Pike then stepped on board with his crew and began the visitation of the schooner in the stream and at the pier. Last year the number visited was 789.

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

I met the man who owns the mill, joy riding with a coachful, and stopped his motor on the hill, and said to him, reproachful: "A hundred damnsels weave and spin, for you, for paltry wages; and will they all be fastened in when fire around them rages?" "I guess," he said, in accents hurt, "I guess they will be, sonny; for human lives are cheap as dirt, but fire escapes cost money. The people do not realize the burden rich men carry; the way my hard-earned money flies would paralyze Old Harry. My auto always needs repairs, my yacht is always yawning for coats of paint or easy chairs or miles of silken awning. To talk of fire escapes for mills is really rather funny, for human lives are cheap as pills, but fire escapes cost money. My bill for wines alone, my friend, would scare you into trances, and there are suppers without end, and forty kinds of dances. A trip to Europe every year requires a lot of hoodle, and gems I bring to loved ones here all cost like Yankee Doodle. I cannot throw my scads away on mill equipment, sonny; for human lives are cheap as hay, but fire escapes cost money."

Portia's Fishery News.

From Capt. Fitzpatrick of the Portia we learn that the fishermen at Rose Blanche, Port aux Basques and neighbourhood are getting a deal of codfish which are very plentiful and of good size and quality. Herring bait is to be had in abundance, and also at N. E. Arm. Licentia where big hauls of herring were made last week. Fourteen of the Cape St. Mary's fleet baited Saturday morning and will leave to-day likely for the Cape for the season of 1911 at that famous fishing resort. Capt. Fitzpatrick, whose experience in fishery matters appertaining to Placentia, renders him an authority on the subject, has a good opinion of the fishery and as there is plenty of bait should present fine weather prevail he believes good initial fares must be secured at the Cape. The boats should return about a week hence from the Cape.

Whaling Voyage Bad.

The Portia reports that the whaler Hump which is operating at Dublin Cove, had only 5 whales to her credit up to a couple of days ago. The Cabot, fishing at Balena, has only 2 fish, and the vessel fishing from Rose au Rue has only a couple of fish to date. The big fish are anomalously scarce to date this year.

Men Going to Work.

The Portia yesterday brought down over 100 men from St. Mary's, St. Bonaventure, Trepassy, Roseau, Fermeuse and other parts of the Southern Shore, all of whom are going to Bell Island, Sydney and on the branch railways in quest of work. All are fine, hardy, able-bodied men and will have no difficulty in securing employment, as labourers are now badly wanted in these centres of industry.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day. Unless the ship-owners organization gives a satisfactory reply to the demand of the National Seamen's and Firemen's Union of the United Kingdom, an attempt may be made to bring about a world wide strike of crews in both steamers and sailing ships. A year ago, the Seamen's Union asked the Federation to agree to the formation of a National Conciliation Board, but that matter of importance could be discussed. The Federation replied that the owners were unable to entertain the proposal. Since then nothing has been done to settle grievances.

MEXICO CITY, To-day. President Diaz last night issued a manifesto to the people of Mexico, declaring that he would resign the Presidency as soon as peace is restored. This means that peace is virtually assured. He demands that Francisco Madero make an announcement of his intention, while admitting that the Government has agreed to practically all the demands of the insurgents. Madero says, "While Diaz is in power, all laws will be fictitious and all promises tricks of war." To Mexico City within a month is the programme set forth by the rebel leaders.

Arrival of Portia.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. T. Fitzpatrick, arrived here at 5 a.m. yesterday after making a record run from Change Islands in three days and nights, considering that the ship called at Dublin Cove where she took 300 bris. whale oil and called at 5 ports viz., Hermitage Bay, Cape Lahun, Francisco, Rencontre and Richard's H. After leaving here Friday week, she had fine weather until she steamed out of St. John's at daylight Monday last when a gale from the S.W. blew with dense fog, this continuing until Wednesday evening when she made Rose Blanche. She arrived at Port aux Basques at 11 p.m. Thursday making as stated above a record run to St. John's. She had a fair cargo of oil, fish, in casks, from Grand Bank and other packages and her passengers were: Messrs: T. Garland, Const. Gardner, Const. Dawe, J. Brinton, A. J. Frost, J. J. Box, J. J. Fowler, E. O'Leary, H. Sullivan, F. Costello, Capt. Bonia, M. P. Cashin. Mesdames: Mrs. Hewitt, Meehan, Quinn, Myrick, (2); Dutton, Dunn, Maher, Delaney, Power, Sullivan, Kelly, Miss Lay.

A Big Blaze.

"Prowse's Folly" Destroyed Saturday Night.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday night citizens were surprised to notice the old hospital building in Ross Valley on fire, and by 9.30 the fabric was a mass of flame and illuminated the Narrows and the general surroundings for upwards of two hours. From all vantage points and from the city wharves crowds watched the progress of the blaze which afforded a splendid spectacle for the beholder. Though the hospital was burned down by 11.30, it smouldered till 2 a.m. yesterday. The old building was put up in 1892 and was erected there to take cases of infectious disease such as cholera, small-pox, etc. The building has been of little or no use since its inception. Three of the seamen of the Grace who arrived from Europe with small-pox on board in 1899 were placed there, and a domestic from the Crosbie Hotel a few years ago when the disease developed there. When repairs were being made to the Signal Hill Hospital, doors, windows, etc., were taken from it, and it was left open to any who might go there. It was very difficult of access and few would care to go there by land there being only a narrow path to the place. Up to yesterday it could not be determined if the fire was or was not the work of an incendiary. Mr. Stamp of the Battery, kept an occasional watch on the place, but no suspicious people were there Saturday, and it would take a man of great nerve to go to the place after dark. When the fire started Const. P. Devine doing duty at the Signal Hill Hospital, hastened to the scene but could only look at the conflagration. I. G. Sullivan despatched Serjt. Noseworthy and Constable Keefe to the scene also and they kept about there till after 11 o'clock when they returned. The police are now investigating the occurrence and the belief is that boys went there Saturday and lit a fire and this smouldering set the woodwork on fire during the night and caused the blaze.

Fire Alarm Yesterday.

At 12.25 p.m. yesterday an alarm of fire was turned in from box 226 for a blaze on Cabot Street, at the residence of Mr. Timothy Duggan, No. 49. The wind blew a gale from the westward and had a fire in that section made any headway yesterday serious consequences must ensue. A spark falling from the chimney caught in the shingles and quickly lit up. Mr. Morris and others ran up a ladder to the room and procuring water in buckets soon flooded the fire out. Several rows of shingles were also torn off the roof to prevent the fire spreading. The Central and Western firemen responded but their services were not required.

Sick People Arrive.

Const. Gardiner arrived here by the Portia yesterday from Harbor Breton with a woman who has been insane for some time past. Const. Barlett came along on the ship also with a woman patient. She is a resident of Belleoram, is also mentally affected, and both patients, who had violent periods, were driven to the Lunatic Asylum. A man named Skinner, was also brought along in the ship from Richards' Cove suffering from a tumor on the neck. He was taken to the Hospital on arrival.

No Good to Catch Fish.

Editor Evening Telegram: Dear Sir,—As I was asked to go shovelling snow some time this winter, I went along with the other men, not knowing when or how we were going to be paid. We thought it would be through the Chairman of the Road Board, but it was not so.

Now, Mr. Editor, I thought it very nice when Mr. Whiteway sent something of his own. I received a Halifax Evening Mail of March 10th. A few more received the same paper. Another man got a Halifax Morning Chronicle from Jan. 25th. I don't say that we shall not get more for our work, but if we do not it will matter much. Was it not a nice gift, sir? But I must say to Mr. Whiteway a Nova Scotia paper is no good to catch fish or to sweeten tea in Newfoundland.

McManigal Enlarges on Confession.

Tells of Sixty-Five New Outrages.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—The authorities here, notably District Attorney Fredericks, Captain of Detectives Paul Flammer, and Detective C. J. Smith, assistant to Wm. J. Burns, who brought about the arrest of the two McNamaras and Orrie E. McManigal, exhibited a triumphant attitude today as a result of what they say was a repetition of McManigal's confession made in Chicago last week, relative to the dynamiting of the Times building here last October, and to many other explosions which have occurred throughout the country.

Tells of Sixty-Five Attempts at Explosions.

In his new confession McManigal gave details of an astounding conspiracy of which he says John J. McNamara was the head, and in which he (McManigal) and John Bryce Mc-

Namara destroyed, or attempted to destroy, sixty-nine structures, causing the death of 112 men.

In his confession McManigal named three Californians as having countenanced the Los Angeles dynamite plots. Two of the men reside in Southern California and one in San Francisco. The names of the men will be withheld until arrests are made.

McManigal said that John J. McNamara planned the conspiracy and paid the dynamiters. McManigal made no attempt to justify his own action. He did not express sorrow for his crimes. He only said that he would be the Harry Orchard at the coming trials of the McNamaras, and that he would then tell to all the world the plots and plans which seem almost too stupendous for belief or for comprehension.

McManigal was shackled when taken before the District Attorney, and during the three hours he spent there he made no complaint of the prison chains. He sat opposite District Attorney Fredericks and looked that official in the eye.

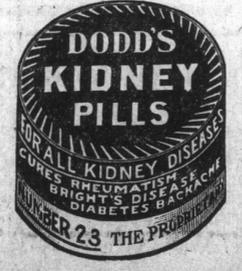

"McManigal you are charged with the crime of wrecking the Llewellyn Iron Works in this city on Christmas morning of last year," said Attorney Fredericks. "I am District Attorney here and I am not going to promise you immunity or hold out any promises of reward. I desire to talk with you in regard to that charge and others, and I want to inform you that all statements must be free and voluntary, and that they may be used against you."

To this McManigal replied, as he turned toward Charles Smith, of the Burns agency: "I will talk about it, and will tell nothing but the truth."

Why a Second Confession was Needed.

Previous to the alleged second confession of McManigal, O. M. Hilton, one of the attorneys for defence, put over a trick which worried the District Attorney somewhat. In the presence of the other attorneys for the suspects and of a couple of Union men, Hilton is said to have secured a positive statement from McManigal that he had never confessed in Chicago. Immediately thereafter McManigal was closeted for three hours with officers of the prosecution, and

It was at the close of this long session that it was announced that he had furnished additional clues to several mysterious and fatal explosions that have occurred on structural iron jobs in past years.

The move of the attorney for the defence in getting a denial of his confession from McManigal is said to have been for the purpose of using it against him at the trial and of proving to the jury that McManigal is of the Harry Orchard type, so that his testimony will be completely discredited.

Got Two Hundred for the Job, He Says.

Robert Brain, under-sheriff of this county, who had charge of McManigal in the transcontinental trip, said the prisoner voluntarily confessed to him while on the train. According to Brain, McManigal brought up the subject the second day, out of Chicago, by asking what punishment would be given him if he were to turn State's evidence.

"I am not in a position to tell you," Brain says he told his prisoner. "Are you going to do it?"

"Yes," answered McManigal. "I'm going to tell."

"You know what you are charged with?" Brain says he enquired.

"Yes, I am charged with dynamiting the plant of the Llewellyn works."

"Did you do it?"

"Sure I did."

"What did you get for it?"

"Two hundred dollars," responded McManigal. "That is the price for all such jobs."

"Do you know Bryce?" was Brain's next question.

"Yes."

Then McManigal said he would stop talking, but added: "When I get out there I'll tell all about it."

J. J. McNamara Issues a Statement.

John J. McNamara, Secretary and Treasurer of the International Bridge and Structural Workers' Association, gave his first authorized statement as to his arrest to the Associated Press today. The statement follows:

"To the Brotherhood of Organized Labor in California and the United States:

In this second attempt to crush and discredit the cause we represent, I fully realize the desperation of the enemies of labor arrayed against us, but I am of good heart, for it will fall.

That I am innocent of any infraction of the law in word or act needs no emphasis from me, for the truth is mighty and will prevail right speedily; and for it I shall contentedly wait.

I send to all brothers and friends of union labor the world over my earnest and affectionate greetings, with the assurance that there is no villainy or conspiracy possible of which we are afraid.

I am also confident that it is not asking too much of the public to suspend judgment in these matters until opportunity for a full and fair defence has been afforded.

(Sgd.) J. J. McNAMARA.

The defence of the alleged dynamite conspirators will be conducted henceforth on the theory that there is a "Harry Orchard problem" to be dealt with. This was the statement made by counsel for John J. McNamara.

John J. McNamara sent a despatch late today to his mother, Mrs. M. T. McNamara, of Comminsville, Ohio. It read:

"We are absolutely innocent. Confident of acquittal. Receiving every attention."

Lynching on Stage.

Negro Dragged to Theatre and Riddled With Bullets.

Livermore, Ky., April 27.—Will Potter, a negro, was the central figure in a bloody drama staged here, when fifty citizens dragged him upon the stage, and after stringing him up riddled his body with bullets. He shot and killed Frank Mitchell, 22 years old (white), in a quarrel. What the pair quarrelled about is not known, but a pistol shot was heard and the negro was seen fleeing from the scene. Word spread rapidly that Mitchell had been killed and the citizens began searching for the black. He was captured by Marshal V. P. Stabler and placed in the city lockup.

Hearing the mob approaching, the marshal swore in half a dozen deputies and the prisoner was rushed to the local opera house, where he was hidden beneath a stage. A hurry message was sent to the sheriff, but before he arrived the mob had dragged the negro from his hiding place and carried him upon the stage. He was tied securely to one of the uprights, while the mob gathered in the orchestra pit below. A signal was given and fifty rifles and revolvers spoke, and the body was riddled with bullets. A few minutes later the mob stole quietly from the playhouse and the drama was over. The death of Mitchell was avenged. An investigation will be made by the coroner's jury, but in all probability there will not be sufficient evidence to prove that a single citizen of Livermore took part in the killing.

Elephant Kills Trainer Before Horrified Crowd.

Dixon, Mo., April 29.—Hundreds of persons yesterday saw an infuriated elephant hurl its trainer into the air and then after crushing him with its weight, repeatedly pierce the body with its tusks.

The tragedy came while James Hildebrand, the trainer, was endeavoring to put the animal, which belonged to a Wild West Show, into a car. Hildebrand was adjusting the chains which bound the elephant to its mate. Without warning the elephant became enraged, and, wrapping its trunk around the trainer's body, lifted him in the air, then dashed him to the ground.

It is believed that he was killed instantly.

With its rage still unsatisfied, the elephant began kneading the trainer's body with its fore feet. Then it dragged the body thirty feet along the railroads in the yards, and repeatedly thrust its tusks into it.

Attaches of the show ran to the rescue with pitchforks, and drove the elephant from its victim.

Later it was shot. Hildebrand had been the trainer for years and frequently slept beside the elephant.

Dog Saves a Child From Game Cock.

Omaha, Neb., April 27.—Forced against a fence and viciously attacked by a large gamecock, Bessie Savage, a 2 year old child, was saved from probable blinding and the rooster torn to death by the child's dog. The rescue and the killing occurred before the startled gaze of Bessie's mother and several neighbors.

A cry of pain and alarm from the child attracted the attention of Mrs. Savage and the other women while they were conversing on the rear porch. "Don't," a fine Scotch collie, darted from the group and raced to the aid of his little mistress just as the gamecock was pecking furiously at her eyes.

Seizing the rooster by the throat the dog shook, dragged and tore it around the yard until it was dead. In the midst of the attack the canine laid his victim down for an instant, and when it kicked feebly he fell upon it again and made sure of the death.

Burn Historic Mansion for Moving Picture Show.

Promoters Get Realistic Views of Fire,
Rescue and Bucket Brigade Attempting to Quench the Flames.

New Rochelle, N. Y., April 27.—The historic Sicard mansion, built 250 years ago by a Huguenot family, and the scene of many festive meetings of aristocratic society in colonial days, is a mass of blackened ruins to-day. It was sacrificed to furnish a spectacle for the motion-picture film. The site of the house was recently purchased for a new Episcopal Church, and the old mansion, offered at auction, was bid in by a moving picture company. With the permission of the city authorities the company set fire to the house in order to obtain a series of realistic pictures of the rescue of a child, a village bucket brigade in action, and a mourning family viewing the ruins.

Lazy Husband Law Invoked.

Sacramento, Cal., April 27.—For refusing to work and furnish maintenance for his children, who have been placed in a local orphanage, Frank Young of this city, is the first "lazy husband" to be imprisoned under the new Stetson law. He has been placed in the County Jail and will be sentenced to a term of years by Juvenile Judge Hughes during which time he will be put to work on the county chain gang at a daily wage of $1.50, which money will be used for the support of the children.

As the Stetson law has been in effect but a week or so, this is the first instance where a lazy husband will be made to work. Under the law the Supervisors must provide for the payment of $1.50 a day for such work and the Sheriff must see that he does the work.
