

JAY-EYE-SEE GETS SICK

HE AND PHILLAS MAKE ANOTHER RECORD FAILURE

The winners at the Conroy Island Club's Meeting—General Sporting News at Home and Abroad.

KILGORE, Sept. 13.—The exhibition of trotting by Jay-Eye-See and Phillas did not bring her so large a crowd as had been hoped, the rumor that the state fair authorities would not let it take place on the grounds having deterred many. The day was bright but cold, and a very stiff east wind made it a foregone conclusion that the records would not be broken. Phillas was first brought out and given a warming up heat in 2:34, making the last quarter in 33 seconds. In his first trial for speed he was accompanied by a running horse. He got away in good shape, but the force wind was against him and he only finished in 2:19. The quarters were 0:35, 1:10, 1:45.

He made one more attempt, but only made it in 0:35, 1:09, 1:44, 2:19. In the heat he broke three times and lost ground each time, though only slightly. Jay-Eye-See was first given a warming up mile in 2:27 and seemed in good condition, though as soon as he was taken to the stable he had a severe chill, and it was thought at first he could not be given a fast mile, but rather than disappoint the crowd he was taken out and started, making the mile in 2:20. The quarters were 0:34, 1:08, 1:44. The horse was evidently laboring when he came home, and it was announced that no further effort would be made to break the record.

The afternoon was cold and raw, with a strong wind. The plan was to trot two slow heats to warm him up, then one fast heat, but after the first warming heat he had a nervous chill, owing to which he was brought out to complete his fast mile as soon as possible, in order not to disappoint the expectations of the spectators.

J. J. Cass was here in person and ordered subsequent engagements of a matter of prescription, the horse being ill.

Laurens Stagers at Play.
Nearly 1000 persons watched the Young Shamrocks of Montreal and the local Ontario team battle for the intermediate championship pennant at the Jarvis street race-course grounds Saturday afternoon. The affair was more like a slug-fest match than a friendly game of lacrosse. It must be said, however, in favor of the Ontario team, that, with the exception that they played a fair and gentlemanly game throughout. The game cannot be said to be the Shamrocks, who seemed bound to win if they had to kill some one to do so. Hardly had the ball been faced for the first game before Jim O'Neil was knocked senseless by a blow from Sullivan's stick. It was nearly half an hour before he was able to get up. It took four strong men to hold him to the ground, and when a bottle was put before him to help him get up, he refused to begin to swell. Murphy was laid off to make the teams even. The teams were now playing ten to ten.

In the second game Linden was tripped and fell, injuring his collar bone. Another man was laid up, and it now began to look as if the match would have to be discontinued for want of players.

The third game was worse than the others. Crown had secured the ball and was turning around making graces at O'Heare, who afterwards attacked him. Crown then yielded in and the two had it hot and heavy until separated by the field captain of the Ontario. A more disgraceful game of lacrosse has never been seen in Toronto. The following were the teams and their positions:

Ontario	Shamrocks
Small	Goal
McGovern	Cover-point
Hill	Defence
Rowen	Centre
J. Burns	Home field
Walsh	Home field
Crown	Home field
Linden	Home field
O'Neil	Home field
H. T. Malone	Home field

The ball was faced by Burns and Curran, when Curran passed the ball to Rowan who lost it to Small. Small made a shot for the flag, but Reddy was on hand and sent it flying to the other end of the field. McGovern caught it and passed it to Burns, who made a run up the field, where Sullivan secured the ball and passed it to Nelsky who made a buff and allowed Walsh to send the ball to the Shamrocks' flag, when Linden tipped it between the flags.

In the second game the Shamrocks played all around their opponents, winning the game after the "muffs" play, the ball being put through by Rowan.

In the third game the Ontario secured the ball and passed it to Crown, who ran out on the field, followed by McGovern. This was the first century. Both players were called off. One of the Ontario secured the ball and passed it to Wilson, who made a splendid run up the field, making a shot for the flag. The Shamrocks secured the ball and passed it down the field, when it was put through the Ontario's flag after seven minutes of actual play. The last game was played with eight men each.

Full Games of the Staten Island Club.
New York, Sept. 13.—At the fourth annual fall games of the Staten Island athletic club L. E. Meyers, champion, won the first trial heat of the 100 yards race in ten seconds, but was not allowed to run in the second trial heat, being ruled out by the judges for starting many at time.

H. M. Johnson, professional sprinter, tried to beat the record for 100 yards (ten seconds) but only equalled it.

Jack McMaster's dog Sammy ran 100 yards in 7.2 seconds, and again in 7.1-5 seconds.

In the 200 yards run Myers was beaten by M. W. Ford, the N. Y. A. C. who had six yards' start. Time, 2:31 seconds.

The Doncaster Cup.
The St. Leger winner, The Lambkin, met a competitor Friday at Doncaster in the race for the cup, at two miles and five furlongs, which Baron de Rothschild's god son, the late Lord de Rothschild, had won. The President had only to carry the regular weight for aged horses, 120 pounds, while The Lambkin put up 7 pounds penalty for winning the St. Leger, making his weight 114 pounds, as also did Osean, the winner of the St. Leger last year, which made his weight 120 pounds. CHARLES WATTS AT ALBERT HALL

A SCIENTIFIC MISSIONARY.

Charles Watts at Albert Hall—A Disciple of Freethought and Christianity. Last night Albert Hall was filled by an enthusiastic audience assembled for the purpose of hearing Charles Watts of England deliver a lecture on "Science, Its Principles and Its Aims." This lecture is the first of a series which is to be given in Toronto and Canada generally under the auspices of various secular organizations throughout the dominion which have invited Mr. Watts to make Canada his permanent home. J. L. Evans, the chairman, said that it was ten years since he stood on the platform as president of the secular (formerly freethought) society and he dwelt on the progress freethought had made since then.

Mr. Watts said that nothing was so detrimental to progress as mental stagnation and a consideration of the erroneous views entertained by many in reference to secular philosophy was attributable principally to people putting their thinking out to be done for them. Secularism was misrepresented not so much from intention as from the traditions of misrepresentation handed apart from their alleged defects, and modern science was dreaded, avoided and opposed one of the chief reasons being that the world by those who had never examined it. It was the same with the uprising of the Christian church. Now we are re-estimated first, because old customs are mixed up with our government, and hence difficult to eradicate; second, doctrine were accepted without question; and third, old ideas were bound up with our interests; for to acknowledge oneself a freethinker was to be exposed as a target for the party bigots who sometimes can and do deprive the honest doubter of bread for expressing himself. The speaker denied that secularism was a mere system of negation, it being negative only to error but positive to truth. The Catholic was a negotiator to protestantism, and protestantism was a negotiator to Catholicism. The secularist's cardinal idea was that no man should be given to this life and his duties, as the present existence was a fact beyond dispute and all have missions to perform with dignity to themselves and usefulness to the community. The speaker said that he was not a freethinker, but a freethinker in the sense that he would not believe in anything that he could not believe in an infallible God who wrote an infallible book which is constant, unchanging, and unchangeable. He would not believe in anything that he could not believe in an infallible God who wrote an infallible book which is constant, unchanging, and unchangeable.

Toronto Canoe Club Regatta.
The Toronto canoe club held a regatta on Saturday afternoon, when two paddling races were contested. The first was a mile handicap, for members of the Toronto canoe club, in which five started—M. F. Johnston, Fred W. Mason, John W. Leitch, Hugh A. Nelson and P. M. Nicholson. They came in in the order named. Besides the challenge cup first and second prizes were given. Next was the Columbia mile race, six entries, in which a dozen paddlers took part, all non-members of the Toronto canoe club. It was a well-fought race, and the six canoes were in a close hand. L. H. Whitmore and H. R. Boulton were the winners. T. Alexander and E. B. Freedland took second place. The other entries were Arthur and James Scott; John Sanson and Alex. Clarkson; J. S. Thomson and Geo. Castle; Henry Hickey and Hugh Y. Reid. The course was from the foot of Simcoe street to just beyond the Northern elevator and back. Mr. F. Johnston, who had advanced and the nightmarish Ecological thrust aside by the training of the intellect. For the text, "Take no thought of tomorrow, etc., he would substitute "Man know thyself." In the domestic circle he did not believe in the "lords of creation" or "wives be subject to their husbands" names of society covered a multitude of sins, and hypocrisy was the greatest curse of the day.

The chairman then invited anyone of the audience who differed from Mr. Watts to express himself. Mr. Watts took the platform and said he failed to see that secularists offered more on earth than theologians. Mr. Evans said that he was forty years since he attended a meeting of the kind and that theologians taught all Mr. Watts taught and a great deal more. A master at the high school, he said, he would read the scriptures, and the speaker wished the schoolmaster's neck was broken.

Mr. Agood said women had not the mental strength of men and hence he objected to Mr. Watts' idea of equality of the sexes. Mr. Watts, in reply, said when he heard some men talk about the want of mentality in women he found there was very marked inequality in favor of the men. He thought that Mr. Hastings was a good example of a Christian as he wished the teacher to be a man, a priest, a minister, a called those who differed from him. After some further discussion the chairman announced that Mr. Watts would lecture in reply to Dr. Sexton's lecture, "Is a man who shall live again?" A four night debate will shortly take place in the high school, Mr. Chas. Watts and the Rev. Dr. Sexton.

The Bon Marche is the only genuine bargain house for hats, coats, suits, lace, mantles, millinery and general dry goods.
Brown v. Nelson.
The net result of the recent decision is that Gordon Brown will get back his $22,000 worth of stock, while Mr. Nelson is given a verdict against him for $35,000. In the meantime, Mr. Nelson will be able to sell his stock if he sees fit. He has also the right to enter an action against Mr. Nelson for breach of contract.

Strangers, remember the Bon Marche will keep open every night through the fall.
No trouble to show goods and prices.

The Highest Bidder Gets the Globe.
Cornwall Freeholder, Duncan McIntyre's attempt to secure a controlling influence in the Globe newspaper has been checked by some of the present directors, who have made a higher offer for Mr. Nelson's stock. Only the highest bidder can now obtain the paper.

Over 700 dozen ladies and misses felt hats worth from $1.00 to $5.00, your choice for 20 cents at the Bon Marche.

Current Events.
—John Ross Robertson's return. Forepaugh's white elephant. Mowat's demonstration. John A.'s coming celebration. Dineen's new fall hats. Aid. Farley's new coat. Harry Epps' blue camel. Dr. Wild on "Adam and Eve." Dineen's big show of furs. Mayor Bowell's coming M.P. Dineen on the latest style silk. Just this for the present season. Northwest corner of King and Yonge streets.—Advt.

Strangers, if you want to make your expenses go to the Bon Marche.

Don't go home until you visit the Bon Marche and examine their prices.

LOCAL NEWS PARAGRAPH

Half tonight after this afternoon. There are 125 street cars running this week.

All the letter boxes in the city have been repaired. Twenty six prisoners were sent over the Don yesterday.

Already a number of entries for the baby show at the Zoo have been received. The police have gathered in twenty-five lost cats during the three days of the exhibition.

Last week 60 births, 54 marriages and 61 deaths were registered at the vital statistics office. Rev. Dr. Sexton preached to two large congregations in Knox church, afternoon and evening, yesterday.

There will be a meeting of the young men interested in the Mowat demonstration at Temperance hall to-night. A drunken man got a severe shock at the exhibition grounds on Saturday by touching the rails of the electric railway.

A fire was discovered in the stable of the old Ford street, and broke out afresh early yesterday morning. The damage on both occasions was trifling. Friday night a man was robbed of a watch and a pocket watch by a man named James McEwen, Jr., as being one of two parties implicated.

John McKens and Alexander Geddies, who were hung by the breaking of a scaffold at the gas works, are doing well, and will be able to leave the hospital in a couple of weeks. A young man on a bicycle ran into a baby carriage on Yonge street yesterday afternoon. The cyclist not only got bruised and muddy but received a severe lunge, bursting from the irate mother.

In connection with the seven ferry steamers on the exhibition line, the John Hanlan will run exclusively from the foot of the foot bridge, at 10 a.m. until 10 p.m., an arrangement which cannot fail to be of benefit to the west enders. Residents in the vicinity of the lane at the foot of Temperance street are complaining about the ringing of trams which frequent it. They insist passers by and their oaths are something terrible to hear, as they are directed to themselves. The police should look after them.

The Bon Marche will show one million worth of stock, not one year in business. Bought at 20 cents on the dollar. Tremendous bargains.

People who wish to note the progress Toronto is making ought to visit West Toronto Junction. It is within a few minutes' ride from the city, and is now in full blast and freight and passenger trains are stopping there every short while. New houses are going up all around while the old ones are being pulled down. The best investment a workman or capitalist can go into. It will double itself in two years. The price of land is now in the hands of the architects. Real estate in the neighborhood has steadily risen in value and promises to advance still more.
