Saue, St. Rose de Lima, Que., says: "When my baby was cutting his teeth he was feverish, cross and did not take nourishment. After giving him Baby's Own Tablets he cut six teeth without the least trouble. I have never used any medicine for children I prize so highly as the Tablets." ### Back to Old Ways.

Note now, what all admit—that women are what men have made them; always less bad, however, than men, for the women of any Babylon are more ethical than the Babylonian men. Otherwise, of course, propagation would stop and that Babylon would end. Kant's great rule was that we must never use humanity as a means to our individual ends. That marriage and that immoral which break Kant's immutable law. Back to the old ways! Back to the older woman, indeed, for the "new woman" is entirely already too old—hoary with the vices of antiquity; and the woman of a hundred years ago is timeless and will always be young and lovely! She found us young, and she will always keep us so.

It was woman who made the home—the home we are so fast disusing and forgetting. There will be no abiding and true civilization, no enduring happiness except in and through home. Flats, hotels, palaces and wateringplaces "villas," rented walls, yardless and landless buildings, rows of thousands all alike—these are not homes, and they can never breed the virtues that rise in the simplest houses built for one's children, and in which the grandchildren will live. Urbanization is the lure of Mephisto, whereby the undiscriminating sell their souls for a sorry and fitting gain. What a commentary it is that the lovely and virtue expressing word, "homelike," should be degenerated by our unvirtue into "homely," the lovely and unseemly! "Back to the home" is the command, if we wish our name and hope to re-live in the valor and virtue of our children. From an article in Putnam's.

Canneries on Half Time All Fruits in Demand.

"The canning industry, with the probable exception of tomatoes," said Mr. David Marshall, M. P., of Aylmer, to The World, "will not be able to put out one-half their usual pack." All over the province it is the same story of scarcity of fruits and short runs at the canneries.

"The acreage of fruits and tomatoes in Ontario is not at fault, as the usual amount of land was planted. But the crop has been light as a rule. Small fruits have not been a half crop in any section. Peaches on the whole are less than half a crop, although between Toronto and Trenton the pear and plum crop has been a very fair one, I understand. Peaches are holding up to the big prices owing to the scarcity in the Niagara district. Housekeepers as well as the canneries will be short on this fruit."

It is expected that the tomato crop

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes, 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

in your spare time at home, or TAKE A PERSONAL COURSE AT SCHOOL.

To enable all to learn we teach on cash or installment plan. We also teach a personal class at school once a month. Class commencing last Tuesday of each month. These lessons teach how to cut, fit and put together any garment from the plainest shirt waist suit, to the most elaborate dress. The whole family can learn from one course. We have taught over seven thousand dress-making, and guarantee to give one hundred dollars to any one that cannot learn between the age of 14 and 40. You cannot learn dress-making as thorough as this course teaches if you work in shops for years. Beware of imitations as we employ no one outside the school. This is the only experienced Dress Cutting School in Canada and excelled by none in any other country. Write at once for particulars, as we have cut our rate one third for a short time.

will yet be alright if the frost keeps off for a fortnight and we get nice sunshiny weather. The weather man at Toronto says that a low area over Manitoba, moving southeasterly, will likely bring stormy weather in Ontario for a day or so. As lower temperatures generally follow depression, it is expected that we will have a few cool nights, although no frost is in sight.

Look out for Slump.

Ontario farmers are getting good prices for their grain now, and, though prices may go higher, there is no sure to be a slump in value when the real returns from the west come in. Values at present are on a reasonable basis, but Manitoba grains are not going to keep up to the present prices forever, and then Ontario farmers will see the prices for Ontario take a big drop.

The above from the Toronto News of Monday. Ontario farmers may be guided by the article, or they may not. The impression we got from farmers and those in touch with agricultural interests is that the domestic supplies are too small to cause much of a slump. Perhaps the farmers can reason out the situation and have a hand in making the price at which he is disposed to sell as well as some newspapers can.

LOCAL OR OTHERWISE

THE Ontario Gazette announces that pursuant to section 39 of the Ontario Game and Fisheries Act, the purchase or sale of snipe, quail, woodcock and partridge, shall be prohibited for a period of one year from September 1st, 1907.

There is nothing equal to Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator for destroying worms. No article of its kind has given such satisfaction.

HICKS, in his October forecasts, predicts an early spell of unseasonable cold and frost during the latter part of September or the first half of October. He believes the last half of October and all of November will bring a spell of open weather, favorable for outdoor work, and bringing as little general exposure to orchards, gardens and fields, as the reactions to cold and frost during much of September and early October.

A FAKIR is doing the country with an old, old game, a twenty-five cent package of powder to put in a coal oil lamp to keep it from exploding. The compound is composed of salt and yellow ochre. The fakir demonstrates that by putting a pinch of the compound in the victim's lamp, oiling the wick and lighting it and extinguishing the flame by plunging it in the doctored oil. Coal oil without salt will act the same way if you plunge the wick in quick enough.

THE Sarnia Auto Bus Co. have completed the reconstruction of their bus, which it will be remembered was burned during the night while lying disabled along the Plank road. The new conveyance is of an entirely different design, having four cross seats in place of the two seats running endwise as before. The top has been dispensed with, which adds much to its appearance. It is not expected that the Sarnia-Petrolia route will be run this winter.

ON Sept. 23, Roy Newton of Sarnia township, was up before P. M. McKenzie, charged with carrying a revolver, contrary to the law, complaint being laid by Geo. Chesher of Sarnia township. Mr. Chesher's evidence was such as to leave no doubt in the magistrate's mind, that the boy Newton did have a revolver which he took out of his hip pocket on the public highway and handed to Chesher on the night of August 29th. He was fined $5.00 and costs, totaling $9.75, or ten days in Sarnia jail. The fine was paid.

PHIL BOWYER Editor of the Ridgeway Dominion and one of the brainiest newspaper men in Western Ontario, in commenting on our article re manual training a couple of weeks ago, has the following to say: "We always opposed the general introduction of lads which found favor with the old educational bosses in Toronto. For long the public system of this province has been loaded down with fads and frills and fancies such as manual training, domestic science, sewing classes, etc., to say nothing of vertical writing and other minor sins. The introduction of these things into the schools caused trouble even in so large a city as Hamilton. We are extremely thankful they never found favor in Ridgeway. The primary duty of the public school should be a good plain, practical educational along business lines, fitting the great majority of pupils to creditably fill the callings of life."

Vegetable Crops.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The vegetable crop outlook in Ontario, as reported by the crop correspondents of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association, is much better than it was last month. Most of the crops look fairly well as they have greatly improved by rains. The crop with most gardeners will yield more than was anticipated as good growth is being made. Since the rains started the growth has been steady and sure. Prices in general have been good.

The reports indicate that the cabbage crop will be good. The same may be said of cauliflowers, except in the districts around Toronto and Kingston. Celery promises to yield a good crop of excellent quality. Tomatoes turned out a little better than we expected, but the crop on the whole has been very light; prices have been high. The onion crop will not be up to much; in some sections, it will be fair, but in others the reports are discouraging, in the district around Scotland, where large quantities usually are grown.

There has been an excellent crop of melons. Squash and cucumbers are scarce. Sweet corn is less than half a crop. Late beans are fair to plentiful.

Table roots, such as carrots, beets, parsnips and turnips, are good in all localities except that the parsnip crop around Ottawa will be short, and the turnips are a failure in the Kingston district.

There has been some improvement in the potato outlook, but on the whole, the crop will be only fair.

Fatal Blood Poisoning.

Frequently follows the use of cheap corn salves and plasters. The safest is the best and that's Putnam's which has a record of fifty years success. Refuse substitutes for "Putnam's" which costs 25c in every drug store.

On Poultry.

Poultry, according to the definition given in one standard encyclopedia, includes "the whole of the domesticated birds reclaimed for man for the sake of their flesh and their eggs." The word comes from the Latin "pullus," which could mean a young horse or donkey as well as a chick (the English "foal" is akin to this), through the French "poule," a fowl. But it is curious that "poultry" has no French version, the nearest equivalent being "volaille," or "oiseaux de basse cour," birds of the low yard. German, in its descriptive way, knows poultry as "federvieh," feather cattle.

IN NATURE'S STOREHOUSE THERE ARE CURES.—Medical experiments have shown conclusively that there are medicinal virtues in even ordinary plants growing up around us which give them a value that cannot be estimated. It is held by some that Nature provides a cure for every disease which neglect and ignorance have visited upon man. However, this may be, it is well known that Parolee's Vegetable Pills, distilled from roots and herbs, are a sovereign remedy in curing all disorders of the digestion.

SAYS THIS IS BEST

A leading health journal in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood?" prints in a recent issue the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one ounce;
Compound Salalone, one ounce;
Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, four ounces.

Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. A well-known physician states that these are harmless vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy.

This mixture will clean the blood of all impurities. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Salalone and Extract Dandelion, works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid, and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

EAST LAMBTON COUNTY FAIR.

COOL WEATHER MARS THE AT TENDANCE.

Fine Display of Exhibits in Nearly all Departments.

The annual exhibition of the East Lambton County Fair was held on the Driving Park Watford, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The weather on opening day was of November temperature and exhibitors drove to the Fair grounds in fur coats.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather the exhibition hall and canvas annex were well filled with exhibits, and considering the off season the display was highly creditable. The ladies' department was particularly attractive, and was pronounced by visitors the finest seen at a local fair this season.

Thursday was fair, with a cool wind, and the gate receipts were considerably less than last year.

However there were over two thousand people present and all found plenty to instruct and entertain them on the grounds.

VERY FINE CATTLE.

The cattle were a magnificent exhibit. Some of the best herds in Ontario were shown, and competition in every class was very keen. In the heavy classes especially fine, two splendid herds being exhibited by Mr. George Oke, Alvinston, and Mr. G. T. Fuller, Warwick. These cattle were excellent, and were much commented on. Herefords were a good class, Govenlock & Sons, of Forest, sweeping the boards with their fine stock. Dymont, of Dundas, had a very large herd of Ayrshires on exhibition, and took the lion's share of prizes in this class. Three herds of Polled Angus cattle made competition very keen in this class, the prizes being well distributed among Mr. J. Watt, Mr. O. Watt and Mr. James Buchanan, all of Kerwood. In the Holsteins, Mr. W. Bryant, of Cairngorm, swept the boards. There were a fine head of Jerseys shown by J. McEwen of Kerth. The grade cattle were well represented, many splendid beef cattle being on exhibition. Taking it altogether, the cattle show was a notable feature.

SPLENDID HORSES.

Horses were a strong class especially in the heavy classes. The farmers of Brooke and Warwick breed some excellent heavy horses, and some fine animals were on exhibition. In the heavy classes Messrs. Walter Annett, Brooke, McKellar, Glencoe, McKinley Bros., Aberarder, James Johnston, Alvinston, Hamilton Taylor, Forest; H. H. Lovell, Tancred; D. A. McIntyre Brooke, and Fred Rawlings Forest, had some very fine horses in the heavy classes, and took many prizes. The light horses were good especially in the roadster classes. Among those who took prizes in the light horses were Messrs. Walter Annett, Brooke; Arch Munroe, Inwood; J. F. Hill, A. K. Campbell, Strathroy, and M. Macdock of Walnut.

THE HOGS.

The pigs were a large class. Mr. E. Anderson, Wyoming, had a number of Tamworth hogs. Mr. James McEwen also had a number of Yorkshire hogs, and took many prizes. R. Capes and J. McEwen of Plympton, had some very fine Yorks.

THE SHEEP.

Nearly every variety of sheep was represented, and generally by large breeders. The long wools were a very large lot, while the short wools were exceptionally large. In Southdowns, Mr. J. C. Stonehouse, of Wyoming, took the majority of the prizes; in the Oxford Downs, Mr. T. K. Smith, Wyoming, and Mr. Bryant, Kerwood, divided the prizes. In the Lincoln, Mr. H. McLean, Wyoming, had it all his own way, while Mr. M. McPhail Alvinston, swept the boards for Shropshire Downs. R. Morgan & Sons took nearly all the prizes in the Cotswold classes, and Mr. James Hunter, of Wyoming, took all the prizes for Dorsets. Mr. W. McLean Kerwood, had an exceptionally fine lot of Leicesters, and swept the board.

THE POULTRY.

The poultry was up to the usual standard. Several well-known breeders, such as the Boggs Bros., of Strathroy; A. E. Doan, of Watford; A. G. Brown, Watford; D. Ross, Warwick; D. W. Lucas, Brooke, and D. Graham, Wainstead had splendid exhibits, and, of course, made the competition keen. The quality of the poultry throughout this section is improving, and some fine birds were shown.

GRAINS AND SEEDS.

Considering the backward season there was a good showing of grains and seeds, and roots were also very fair. The fruit exhibit was light. Melons were shown in profusion, an evidence that the hail storm had not destroyed all the crop.

LADIES' WORK.

The exhibit in this department was fully up to the average, and is always a feature of the Watford Fair. The fine arts exhibit was excellent, and the floral display better than usual.

FAIR NOTES.

Gate receipts $543.

Exhibitors are requested to report any errors or omissions in the prize list to the Secretary.

The midway was thronged with booths and amusement devices.

Mrs. Swift's handsome display of hand painted china in the Art's department was much admired.

Parties having accounts against the society are requested to hand them in to the Secretary before Oct. 12th.

The dairy demonstration by Miss Green of the O. A. C., attracted a large number of visitors, and practical information in butter making along this line was given to all interested.

The directors will meet at Watford at 2 p. m. Saturday October 19th after which prizes will be paid on presenting an order on the Treasurer signed by the Secretary.

The expert judges were on heavy horses, A. Innes, Clinton, beef cattle and sheep, Alfred Hales, Guelph, Dairy cattle and swine, M. Stonehouse, Pt. Perry.

Owing to a decrease of nearly $200 in Government grant, a falling off in membership and reduced gate receipts there will be a considerable deficit to meet this season.

J. McKecher and A. L. Jacques, of Strathroy, made extensive displays of harness.

D. Caldwell and H. Schlemmer were to the front with a fine exhibit of pianos, musical instruments, etc. Good musical entertainment the crowd with pleasing selections.

J. W. McLaren had an attractive display of druggists specialties. H. A. Cook had a handsome drawing room suit, T. Dodds kitchen outfit and dairy supplies.

The Watford Silver band reinforced by players from Sarnia, Strathroy and Petrolia furnished a first class program under the leadership of Mr. H. Lawrence, who acquitted himself in Sousa's best style.

Swift's exhibit was the centre of attraction for the ladies who viewed the magnificent display of valuable furs, mantles etc. The garments were high class, the vogue of the season, and notable for their style and perfection of cut.

A despicable act of vandalism was perpetrated by some malicious individual on Friday night after the fair. Two of the pianos in the Newcombe exhibit up stairs were badly scratched and mutilated and had to be sent back to the factory for repairs. The Co. offers a reward of $100 for the conviction of the guilty party.

The concert on Wednesday evening was a frost as far as weather and attendance were concerned. It was too cool to put the program on the outer platform and it was given in the exhibition hall. The Strathroy Male Quartette gave several numbers in excellent style, and E. J. Wright and E. Baskerville well rendered solos. Ted Parker, character vocalist, Toronto, was the funny man of the evening and kept everybody in good humor while on the stage. The Watford trio gave two numbers in their best style. "Prof." Lawrence's band supplied the instrumental part. Mr. A. Y. Grant, of Toronto, the accompanist, is one of the best pianists ever heard in Watford.

Newcombe's Score A Hit—Perhaps there was not an exhibit at our fair that attracted so many lovers of good music as did the display of Newcombe pianos shown by Messrs. J. R. Hewer, Son & Co. of London. The sweet strains of those pianos kept those visiting the upper story of the crystal palace always in good humor. These instruments contained (as many most likely observed) the new patent straining rods, a patent which created such a sensation in piano circles at the Jamestown exhibition this year, and which is the only patent of its kind placed on any piano in Canada; the government already having given it a satisfactory scientific report. Three of these rods are placed on the back of the piano and attached in such a way as to carry the counter pressure produced by the tension of the strings, thus doing away with the old fashioned posts glued in at the back and which to a certain extent obstruct tone quality. This patent is controlled entirely by the Newcombe Piano Co., of Toronto.

THE STOMACH ON STRIKE.

The Tonic Treatment for Indigestion is the Most Successful.

Loss of appetite, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, heavy dull headache and a dull sluggish feeling—these are the symptoms of stomach trouble. They indicate that the stomach is on strike, that it is no longer furnishing to the blood the full quota of nourishment that the body demands, hence every organ suffers. There are two methods of treatment one by which the stomach is humored by the use of pre-digested foods and artificial ferments and the new one—The Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Method—by which the stomach is toned up to the work nature intended for it. A recent cure by the tonic department is that of Mrs. James W. Haskell, Fort Maitland, N. S., she says: "For years I enjoyed perfect health, but suddenly headaches seized me. I had a bad taste in my mouth; my tongue was coated; I grew tired and oppressed; my appetite left me and such food as I did eat only caused distress. I had severe pains in my chest. I lost all strength and was often seized with vomiting. At different times I was tried by some of our best doctors, but although I followed their treatment carefully I did not get any better. One day while reading a paper I came across a case similar to mine which had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I immediately purchased a supply and it was not long before they began to help me. I grew stronger day by day till now I am as healthy as ever I was. I have a good appetite, am strong and active and can attend to my household duties without fatigue. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all sufferers from indigestion." Rheumatism, kidney trouble, neuralgia St. Vitus Dance, headache and backache, palpitation, general weakness, and a host of other troubles, find their root in bad blood just as in the case of stomach trouble. That is why the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is always a success—they are a powerful blood purifier and nerve tonic. Sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

REWARD.

$100.00. One Hundred Dollars Reward will be paid to any person who will furnish evidence that will convict the man, who on the night of Sept. 27th, went into the Exhibition Building at Watford, and deliberately scratched two Newcombe Pianos, completely ruining the cases. The above reward will be paid by the NEWCOMBE PIANO CO., Toronto, Ont.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love.

Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

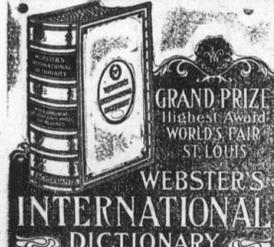

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular periods, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Mrs. T. E. Gillis, Windsor, N. S., describes her illness, and cures, in the following letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"When I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was suffering with weakness and womb trouble, headache, backaches, and that worn-out, tired feeling. I have only taken the Vegetable Compound a few short weeks, and it has made me well, strong and robust. I believe that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is without equal for female troubles."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating, (or flatulence), inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Life's Pleasures Rest on Nourishing Blood.

Is Yours Rich, Or Weak.

If your color is poor, your blood is poor. If you lack strength, can't get fat, can't do your work, it's because your blood is too thin to nourish the body. Your condition is like an expiring fire. Fuel must be added or the fire goes out.

Nutrient, new building material must be instantly infused into the body—the vital stream must be quickened and enriched. Do this and your health is assured.

Simply take Ferrozone. Its marvelous stimulating influence upon the appetite upon the formation of rich, red blood makes available for building up of the system the very nutrient it requires.

The heart, strengthened by the increased nutrition Ferrozone supplies, is more regular in its action, and imparts an impetus to the circulation that ensures the proper discharge of all the functions of the body.

There very quickly sweeps through the whole body a stream of vitalized, strength giving blood. Elasticity, endurance and vigor come to the muscular system.

In brief, the old time strength and vigor are restored, and those inestimable charms that spring from good health, high spirits and endurance, are gained by even a short use of Ferrozone.

A true, uplifting tonic, a medicine that goes to the root of things—one that makes the weak strong, makes the sick well—makes the despondent ones happy—that is Ferrozone. Truly a wonderful remedy, try it, see, peritox at all druggists.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

TIME HAS TESTED IT.—Time tests all things, that which is worthy lives; that which is inimical to man's welfare perishes. Time has proved Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. From a few thousand bottles in the early days of its manufacture the demand has risen so that now the production is running into the hundreds of thousands of bottles. What is so eagerly sought for must be good.

A Royal Gardener.

Her Majesty Queen Alexandra has very pronounced tastes in gardening. At Sandringham there are several pretty and interesting gardens laid out after her designs. One consists of South African flowers only, brought back to England by several of her soldier friends after the Boer war, among them being many specimens of the lilies and white roses that thrive even on the arid veldt. Another garden is of wild flowers only, another of lilies, and in this plot are some fine roots of purple violets sent to the queen by the late czar. In the violet flowering season, wherever she may be, at home or abroad, a big bunch of "Czar violets" is sent daily to the queen.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

SAVED SUFFERING AND BROUGHT BACK HEALTH—DR. AGNEW'S GREAT HEART CURE AND CATARRHAL POWDER DEFY DISEASE AND NEVER FAIL IN THEIR MISSION OF HEALING

"I feel so thankful at the restored health of my daughter that if any use can be made of this I shall be pleased." This is what Mr. George Weels, of Flora, Ont., says in giving his testimony to the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. Mr. Weels' daughter was a great sufferer from heart disease and nervousness. She was unable to lie on her left side. She ran down in health and her recovery was a source of anxiety. Induced by friends, who had proved its worth, she obtained Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart and before one bottle had been taken was able to lie in any position she desired, and when two bottles had been taken, an absolute cure was pronounced. Yes, this great remedy is a cure for all ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, and the instantaneous relief given by it has snatched thousands from death's jaws. Don't trifle a minute if you have the slightest evidence of heart disorders, such as palpitation, fluttering or uneasiness. This remedy will relieve such troubles immediately and will cure the stomach and nerves.

"When I know a thing is worthy of a recommendation I consider it my duty to tell of it." The Rev. James Murdock, of Harrisburg, Pa., says this after having been cured of a very malignant form of catarrh by Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powders. What he can say of its healing powers thousands of others have said and can say of it. Don't neglect "only a little cold" in the head. It may lead to chronic catarrh. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder relieves in 10 minutes and is easily applied. Keep it near you if you are a "cold in the head" subject.

Typewriting

The speedier a stenographer can typewrite a letter the more valuable she becomes to the busy business man.

Practice does a great deal, but correct fingering and the "Touch System," which we teach thoroughly, are of paramount importance.

When the "Touch System" is mastered the operator never looks at the keyboard, but keeps her eyes on her notes. She saves the time lost by the "sight" operator in glancing from notes to keyboard and back to notes again—a considerable item in a day's work and a severe strain on the eyes as well.

Our large, free catalogue tells more about our stenographer's course and gives much valuable information about the diplomas of the Business Educators' Association.

The supply of our graduates is not equal to the demand.

AN UNPROTESTED CHECK.

By Edith M. Doans.

Copyrighted, 1907, by M. M. Cunningham.

When all the legal formalities were ended and the fortune that had been Robert Maxwell's was finally handed over to his "beloved daughter Elizabeth," that young lady regarded her new found responsibilities in dismay and promptly proceeded to shift them to other and broader shoulders James Gordon had been her father's secretary and his shoulders were presumably better fitted for the burden.

"But you cannot hand me over your fortune to carry, as if it were a book or a parcel," said Gordon distractedly, though inexpressibly cheered by this profession of confidence. "You do not understand."

"Oh, yes, I do," returned Miss Maxwell serenely. "I understand perfectly. I shall appoint you."

"Chairman of the finance-committee," suggested Gordon.

"Yes," said Miss Maxwell. "I will be the committee."

"Well, I shall do my best," said Gordon, laughing. "But the committee will please remember that it has certain active duties."

"I don't see why it should have any," she retorted. "Practically, you have already managed the estate for the past five years. You were invaluable to father."

"Perhaps I was," Gordon returned, "though I don't remember it, and he never mentioned it. However, I appreciate your confidence and will serve you faithfully; but (gravely) what if I should make mistakes? Is it wise to intrust the handling of so much money to one man?"

"I should think it might depend a good deal upon the man," said Miss Maxwell softly.

So Gordon fitted up an office in a downtown skyscraper, where he sat at a table strewn with papers and pink-taped, legal looking documents, figuring and writing late into the nights, and Miss Maxwell, having arranged her financial affairs to her liking, annexed a meek, elderly relative as chaperon and turned her attention to other difficulties.

Her first, chiefest and most immediate difficulty was her cousin Tom Cornish.

"It isn't that I do not like you," she painstakingly explained for the hundredth time. "You know I do. As a sister, now, I—"

"Oh, drop it!" retorted Tom inelegantly.

"And anyhow I shall never marry." "So it's all up?"

"I think I have been telling you that for the past five minutes," said Miss Maxwell impatiently.

"You know what I meant all along," he said sullenly. "Some one has been giving you a resume of my vices."

"Your vices are nothing to me nor your virtues either. If you"—The words died on her lips. For the first time in all their lives his arm closed around her. Convulsively he held her to him, bending his head till his lips met her soft brown hair.

"Betty, I—I've got to—tell you—I'm in no end of trouble. I need you—I need your help—I—"

By a single vehement effort Betty released herself.

"How dare you? How dare you?" she raged, then came to a dead stop. Her eyes grew wide with dismay and fixed upon the doorway at the end of the room.

"Mr. Gordon," she said in a constrained voice.

It was Gordon indeed. He was quite at the other end of the long room, but not so far that the late tableau could be unseen by him, and the distress of her face was intensified in his as he bowed hurriedly and the yellow portiere fell behind him.

Betty blushed furiously. A person looking on and not understanding might, of course—she turned suddenly to Tom, who stood staring at her un- easily.

"Now go!" she cried desperately. "Go!"

Meanwhile Gordon had found his hat and the sidewalk and walked blindly down the avenue, forgetting the papers he had gone for—forgetting everything except a girl's flushed, dismayed face. It was scandalous that she should be allowed to drift into complications with that fellow. It was all very well that Cornish was her cousin, but what of the fellow's character—a gambler, a fortune hunter? Yet what could he do? All day he had looked forward to seeing Betty. Well, he had seen her. And she must have been in earnest. She wasn't the kind of girl to let a man—and as memory gripped him he plunged gloomily on.

It was several days later that Miss Maxwell, blue gowned and demure, turned into the entrance of a bank on lower Broadway and walked calmly to the paying teller's window.

"I suppose you know that this over-draws your account, Miss Maxwell," said that gentleman, handing out a packet of fresh bank notes.

The girl stared at him in astonishment. "No, I did not know. I had not thought," she said nervously.

"That last check was rather large—ten thousand!"

"Ten thousand!" repeated Betty weakly.

"Yes. We did not question it, of course, because Mr. Gordon so often draws large amounts." He looked at her keenly. "It was all right, I suppose?"

"Yes; oh, yes," said Betty unsteadily. "It was all right. I—I suppose Mr. Gordon cashed it?"

"He sent a messenger, as he usually does."

Betty nodded. The bank swam and for an instant her brain reeled as she turned away, perplexed and vaguely conscious of impending evil.

Ten thousand dollars!

Even to Betty's vague business reasoning $10,000 seemed a good deal to lose track of. But there must be some good reason why Gordon had filled in the check for so much, for Miss Maxwell's methods of dealing with the management of her estate had not changed, and, though she still signed all her checks, she serenely washed her hands of further responsibility, and Gordon usually filled them in.

Once at home she hurried to her desk. She had a prejudice against keeping her check book in order, and an appalling number of hastily scribbled stubs confronted her. She worked busily, covering a pad with figures and counting up totals on her fingers. But it was slow work, and near the end one stub stared out from the rest provokingly.

It was blank.

She leaned her elbows on the desk and, resting her chin in her hands, stared hard into space. There was the check unaccounted for, and he had filled it out for $10,000. No one knew how many others he had used. He was welcome to the money. She would not fight it if she could. But he had seemed so different, and she had trusted him. Slowly her head sank on the desk, and the helms of the Maxwell millions cried her eyes out like any ordinary lovesick girl.

It was ten hours later—ten dreary, interminable hours—that the clock on Betty's dressing table chimed.

Betty shivered. No sleep had come to her eyes. Getting out of bed, she slipped into a dressing gown. She would read. Anything would be better than lying in bed open eyed and sleepless moaning over James Gordon.

Her book was in the library. She opened her door and ran hurriedly down into the hall below. Pushing open the library door very gently, she entered the room, then uttered a faint scream.

The room was lighted by the faint rays of a bullseye lantern.

Standing at her desk with his back to her, opening her check book, was—Tom Cornish.

Starting convulsively at sound of her cry, he turned and confronted her, white to the lips. "Betty," he stammered.

Miss Maxwell stood very still.

"Tom," she said, "why did you do it?"

But Tom had fallen into a chair and hidden his shamed face in his hands.

"It's all up," he said hoarsely. "I'm dead broke, and I thought I stood a chance to stake myself once more. I've had the devil's own luck lately. I lost every cent of that other check."

Betty looked at him as if in a dream.

"The check—your check. I was dead broke—debts everywhere—and I got hold of your check book. I knew Gordon did about as he pleased—and it was your signature all right. I meant to give it back to you, Betty, as soon as my luck turned, I really did."

But to his mystification Betty was looking at him with shining eyes. "It was you who cashed the check for ten thousand," she repeated softly. "It was you—it was you."

It was weeks before she told Gordon, and he, being a wise young man in his generation, said no word of her bygone injustice, but his arms went round her, and he held her close, while she, crying quietly, hid her face against his coat.

"No other man would have understood," she whispered softly.

Suit Over a Farm.

Lindsay, Sept. 26.—It was a complicated case that faced Judge Harding yesterday when the case, King versus Cartmill, came up in the court of the General sessions. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty after a short retirement.

Carmill's son-in-law, J. Henry, the evidence brought out, owns a barren farm in Snowden. Through Cartmill, it is said, Henry showed Henry Moss, of Toronto, quartz giving evidence of valuable minerals, and this persuaded Moss to exchange property in Toronto Junction, worth $1,700, for his farm, assuming also a mortgage for $700 on the farm, and giving Henry a mortgage for $1,000 on the property, making a total of $3,400. Later Moss repented and charged fraud.

The jury decided against him. Cartmill is seventy years of age.

PANDORA

Owing to the flue construction of most ranges it is a rather difficult feat to cook and bake successfully at the same time.

But the arrangement of the Pandora flues differs considerably from others. They are so constructed that the draft for baking is also the best for cooking, the heat circulating around the oven twice and under every pot hole before passing up the chimney.

The Pandora bakes and cooks perfectly at the same time.

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Citizens of Watford and vicinity:—

We wish to state that for a number of years we have been carrying on an extensive music business. Our removal to 211 Dundas st., London, a year and a half ago marked the time when we bought over the Mason & Risch interests in that city.

We now carry the following lines of pianos: The celebrated Gold Medal Newcombe pianos, Mason & Risch pianos, Doherty pianos, Palmer pianos, Stanley pianos, and the wonderful Electric pianos, also a full line of sheet music and musical merchandise. Mail orders promptly attended to.

Our two expert piano tuners are ever in readiness to look after your piano and any of those of your friends in the vicinity.

The third storey of our beautiful store in London is fitted up as a Recital Hall and Studios, and our teachers in connection comprise some of the best piano, organ and vocal teachers in London at moderate prices. We also supply talent suitable for any kind of programme, having the best in London at our command. Our Mr. V. L. Hewer, baritone soloist, is concert manager, and a line to him will receive prompt attention.

Now in regard to Watford and territory we wish to add that it is considered by our staff, and especially by our traveler, Mr. W. A. Heake, one of our best districts, and we are very pleased to state that we have received the exclusive right to sell Newcombe pianos in the said territory. We therefore ask for your liberal patronage in the future, and in return we guarantee fair dealings. You will notice in another column of this paper a reward of $100.00 that is being offered by the Newcombe Piano Co., Toronto, for the conviction of the man who so maliciously destroyed the beautiful cases of two of our Newcombe pianos in the crystal palace on the fair grounds the next night after the fair.

We ask all fair minded citizens of Watford and vicinity to co-operate with us and the Newcombe Piano Co., Limited, Toronto, in the running to earth of this (will I say man?) who walked in the drenching rain of that eventful night to your fair grounds and with some sharp instrument haggled and scratched our lovely pianos beyond recognition, and which have already been returned to the factory to undergo a thoro renovation.

On our part we feel very kindly toward Watford people. We were very much pleased with the fine space given us by the Fair Board, and found the location, isolated as it was from all noise, an exceedingly fine place to demonstrate the beautiful tone of our instruments, and many were the complimentary remarks tendered us in regard to the same.

Should any of the readers of this paper be interested in the purchase of a piano, we as possessors of the largest piano warehouses in London, as musicians and practical piano men, and as a firm buying and selling pianos, which have our personal guarantee as well as the maker's, appeal to your judgment when we say we are prepared to suit you in any way your choice may carry you, and an honest, straightforward deal we positively guarantee.

Write for catalogues and circulars.

Yours respectfully,

"I have seen hundreds of cases treated by 'Bu-Ju' and CURED—after all other treatment had been a complete failure.

I know of acute attacks of Bright's Disease, successfully overcome by 'Bu-Ju'—and the diseased kidneys completely cured.

I am acquainted with men, who were all crippled up with Rheumatism and suffered agony with the pain. To-day, they are well and happy—thanks to 'Bu-Ju.'

I know of women—whose kidneys were weakened by childbirth—who regained their former robust health with no other medicine than 'Bu-Ju.'

I know that 'Bu-Ju' will do you good—will make you feel better—and will cure you of Kidney and Bladder Trouble—and Rheumatism.

If your hands and feet are swollen—if there is a constant desire to urinate—if there is pain in the back and through the hips—if the bowels are constipated—stomach upset—I tell you right now to take 'Bu-Ju.'

They are guaranteed to cure you. If they don't, you can get your money back."
