A Stray Shot or Two.

The Closing Exercises of Acadia made very evident the excellent work our institutions of learning are doing. We are justly proud of them. There is no safer place to send your boys and girls than to Wolfville. The general tone of the schools is elevating and christian. It is a mistake to send boys and girls in Baptist homes to other schools when a little sacrifice would make "Acadia" possible. The North Church was well represented this year by Miss Maud McPherson, Miss Minnie Faquhar on, Harry Kempton and Sydney Dumaresq. Next year we hope to see others join these

The North Baptist Church is not a church for a few choice souls, who count others of no value. It is a church for everybody. The only conditions of membership are those laid down in the New Testament, regeneration and baptism. All are welcome to our fellowship who comply with these conditions. All are welcome, rich and poor, great and small, peculiar and not peculiar. There is plenty of room for everyone to work. We have not too many workers, but too few. Needed, more church members who are thoroughly in earnest about the salvation of the world, and who are willing to labor anywhere, everywhere, just where they are, for Jesus. Will you be one in this church?

Our American Baptist Brethren, feeling the great need of instruction on giving, appointed a year or two ago, at their May meetings, a Committee on "Systematic Benevolence." Dr. H. L. Morehouse, in a masterly address at the recent meeting in Rochester, N. Y., makes the general aim of the Commission "to get every member of every church to give to every great religious undertaking approved by the denomination to which he stands related—his own church, local missions, state missions, home missions in its national scope, foreign missions, Bible and Sunday School work, Christian education," etc. and to do this: (1) Regularly, at fixed yearly periods. (2) Proportionately, as God prospers us. (3) Intelligently, according to the relative claims of each object. (4) Scrupulously, as Steward of Christ. (5) Cheerfully, as a Christian privilege.
