AYLESWORTH IN DURHAM ROBERT BETH, EX-M.P., IS JAMES HIS SUBSTITUTE

Toronto Lawyer Receives Unanimous Nomination at Hands of Liberals at Newcastle Yesterday.

R. R. GAMEY TO ENTER THE FIELD.

Conservatives Organized and a Fast and Furious Fight is Promised Thruout the Riding.

Bowmanville, Oct. 10.—(Staff Special.)—The campaign in Durham opens to-day at Newcastle. A. B. Aylesworth, K.C., was nominated by the Liberals. M.A. James, editor of The Bowmanville Statesman, an enthusiastic supporter of the Conservatives, appeared at the convention for R. Beth, ex-M.P., and excused his absence on the plea of ill-health. Another prominent Liberal was also present thru personal reasons from attending the convention. But the Liberal machine, so far as it pertains to the riding, is behind Mr. Aylesworth, who will remain in the riding till Friday. The Conservatives, meanwhile, are not idle. Col. Ward's home is in Port Hope, and it is from there that the campaign will be managed. In Bowmanville the Conservative Association, under the able presidency of Dr. Hillier, the hero of many fights, aided by Dr. Bonnycaise, who is rapidly winning for himself the reputation of a hard fighter, has been busy for months the work of organization. The Conservatives are determined to redeem Bowmanville as a Conservative town. Interest is added to the campaign by the fact that R. Beth will be the hero of many fights, and the famous Gamsy-Stratton scandal will be ventilated. It so happens that Mr. Aylesworth was interested in the affair, hence the light promises to be fast and furious from this time onward.

A. B. AYLESWORTH CHOOSES.

Newcastle, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—A full delegate list greeted A. B. Aylesworth, K.C., at the convention held by the Liberal Association in Pothergill's Hall, Newcastle, this afternoon, after unanimous nomination for the house of commons. The delegates decided upon the following: Robert Beth, ex-M.P., was too ill to attend the meeting, but sent a letter of resignation as his substitute, who was called on by Dr. L. L. Powers, who presided, to explain his resignation. Mr. Beth had declined the nomination tendered him by the convention in June last.

Mr. James said the chair course was poor health. Mr. Beth desired him to most cordially thank the electors for NORTH STAR BURNS.

Mysterious Fire Destroys Well Known Lake Steamer.

Peterboro, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—About noon yesterday the steamer North Star, which for the past 10 years has been running between Peterboro and Rice Lake points, was burned to water's edge. The cause of the fire is unknown, there being no blaze discovered in the boat, as the blaze was discovered it was too late to save the boat, as the hose on board was not sufficient to reach the fire. The boat was about 70 feet long, and engine was totally destroyed, and practically nothing was saved.

RIB PIERCED HIS HEART.

Murdoch Cameron Instantly Killed by Collapse of Earth in Drain.

Murdoch Cameron, an employe of the Consumers' Gas Co., was instantly killed yesterday afternoon. He was digging a drain at the foot of Berkeley-street when the earth caved in on top of him, breaking a rib, which pierced his heart.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER AT HAMILTON. HIS VISIT EXPECTED TO BE FIVE THOUSAND

Drawn There by the Desire to Capture a City Which Had Been Momentarily Lost in 1900.

Osler it is in the West Nominated by E. F. Clarke

Party That Circumstances Have Parted Him From His Old Running Mate.

E. B. Osler was again nominated as the Conservative candidate for West Toronto at the convention held in the west end Y.M.C.A. hall. The weather could not dampen the enthusiasm of the delegates, and when Dr. Prently Nesbitt and Aid. Geary, president and secretary of the Central Association, ascended the platform, the hall was well filled.

The delegates were in great humor, and the prominent men present were enthusiastically received. "Three cheers for Ned Clarke" brought out a storm of applause, which was repeated when E. B. Osler and "Honest Tom" Crawford made their way to the front. Another outburst occurred when Hon. Geo. E. Foster appeared, accompanied by J. J. Foy.

Mr. Osler received with cheers, and after expressing his gratitude, referred to the services made by Mr. Clarke and Mr. Borden, saying he felt ashamed that he had shrunk at the idea of going into politics. While it had been to some extent irksome, he felt an admiration for those men, and knew he should do his duty to the country. Mr. Borden was the right man to make sacrifices, because he was going to be the support of Mr. Clarke, as he had never shirked a vote, and would never do so, but always act as his conscience bade him.

He believed it was possible to have honesty in politics. Premier Ross, said he believed that the government must use all the means in its power, especially by-elections, and that as long as the Conservative party was in power, it would be political sin. This Mr. Ross took as an axiom in politics. Then the best policy would be to send to parliament the man who could steal the most and would spend it among the electors.

He believed the political parties in Canada were pure, but the governments were dishonest and trying to debauch the electors. In his two elections he had never been asked to do a dishonest thing, and he never had been asked for a dollar by or for an elector.

May Lead to Absorption. Turning to the fiscal question, he said the government had no fixed principles in regard to the policy of the country. They had come in as free traders, and had continued as such, and never had been compelled to change by individual interests. They had advocated commercial reciprocity and closer relations with the United States. Now, they were the two.

The questions of the day were the tariff and transportation. There was no doubt where the Conservatives stood, but he challenged anyone to say where the Liberals stood. They boasted of the prevailing prosperity, but the prosperous industries were those which had not been tampered with by the apprentices of tariff makers.

Mr. Clarke went into the employment of the G.T.P. That man was the mayor of the G.T.P. The nominations. The following names were placed in nomination: J. Harvey Hall, John Dunn, E. S. Burroughs, H. J. Laxton, J. H. McChie, A. Claude Macdonell, D'Arcy Hinds, E. B. Osler.

Mr. Hall at some length detailed his experiences at Ottawa, where he had been a member of the Liberal members for legislative purposes. He had had a long and arduous experience in Ottawa, and he had had a long and arduous experience in Ottawa, and he had had a long and arduous experience in Ottawa.

Mr. Clarke said he had had a long and arduous experience in Ottawa, and he had had a long and arduous experience in Ottawa, and he had had a long and arduous experience in Ottawa.

JAPS NOW LURE THE RUSSIANS ONWARD

KUROPATKIN'S AIMS TO BE NOT OPPOSED

Battle of Magnitude Expected to Be Fought Within a Few Days, Perhaps at Liaoyang.

LURING RUSSIANS ON.

Within the last few days a change has come over the scene of the far eastern war, Kuropatkin, either because he is assured of his own strength, or in pursuance of orders from St. Petersburg, has abandoned taken the offensive. As a first result, the Japanese have abandoned their advanced positions at Bentasiapute—one story going that they had unaccountably neglected to fortify a hill which commanded their line. This, however, is scarcely credible, and the more reasonable inference is that they had no intention of seriously contesting the Russian movement.

The situation, therefore, is now reversed, and the advantage which Kuropatkin formerly possessed of operating on interior lines belongs to the Japanese. If the contending armies are approximately equal in strength, the Japanese will abandon Yentai Mines. They will not have to alter the railway gauge, and must rely largely on their own resources for reinforcements and supplies. Yentai and Mines are the main source of supply for Southern Manchuria, and a corresponding gain to Kuropatkin.

It would be a strange irony of fate if the famous policy of "luring" on the enemy were now adopted by the Japanese, and turned to more on the Japanese side. It is in the various stages of the offensive that the Japanese have given to the testimony to the careful consideration of the Japanese have given to the conduct of the war. They have not allowed their past successes to blind them to the magnitude of the task they have undertaken, and it will not be in the least surprising if this withdrawal of theirs be not the herald of further victories.

Sifton Speaks at Winnipeg Large Audience Hears Him

Liberale Candidate Bole Promises to Erect Postoffice Building in North Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Hundreds were turned away to-night from Selkirk Hall, where the minister of the interior was billed to speak. Although the hall has seating capacity of over 1500, it was filled long before the advertised time of the evening, and this notwithstanding the fact that the speaker was billed to take part in the farewell to Commissioner Eva Booth of the Salvation Army.

The gathering in Hon. Clifford Sifton's honor was something of a demonstration of the voters against the present slide-tracking of the west in the electoral campaign, for Manitoba and the Northwest Territories with a joint representation of 20 members to the parliament consider they are entitled to more than the present representation of the party managers.

The minister went exhaustively into the record of the government during its term of office with special reference to immigration, finance and railways. He said the government had spent a great deal of money on canals, subsidizing lots of money on canals, subsidizing lots of money on canals, subsidizing lots of money on canals.

JAPS NOW LURE THE RUSSIANS ONWARD. KUROPATKIN'S AIMS TO BE NOT OPPOSED.

Battle of Magnitude Expected to Be Fought Within a Few Days, Perhaps at Liaoyang.

While Gen. Kuropatkin has continued to advance his entire front against the armies of Field Marshal Oyama, he has not met with any formidable opposition. However, the expectation is that a battle of magnitude must be fought within a few days. It is believed that the Japanese will make a stand at Liaoyang. Several positions east of that place have been abandoned by the Japanese. At St. Petersburg it is surmised that Field Marshal Oyama's force have been weakened by the despatch of troops to aid Gen. Nogi in reducing Port Arthur, and that this condition has afforded Gen. Kuropatkin an opportunity to recover ground lost during the month of August.

RUSS PRESS ON TO BATTLE. St. Petersburg, Oct. 11, 2:15 a.m.—A battle upon which the fate of this year's campaign in Manchuria depends, seems only a few days away. Advice from the front are meagre. All that is positively known officially is that Gen. Kuropatkin has cast the die at last, and has faced his army and is marching resolutely against the enemy as if he resolved to die or die. According to unofficial reports Field Marshal Oyama, at the first sign of Gen. Kuropatkin taking the offensive, began drawing in his line and concentrating upon fortified positions north of Liaoyang.

According to the latest reports, which are contained in a despatch to the Associated Press from Mukden, dated at 6 o'clock to-night, the Japanese outposts are being driven in all along the line.

Reverse Battle of Liaoyang. The strategy of the forward movement will be concealed, as were the preparations for the advance, so that it surmises as to where Gen. Kuropatkin intends to strike are mere guesses. It is not clear whether Gen. Kuropatkin contemplates a blow on the left, centre or right of the Japanese army, but the fact that stress is laid upon the capture of Bentasiapute, which opens the road and fords to Bentshu, 20 miles east of Liaoyang, where Gen. Kuroki crossed, and the Cossacks are already reported in the neighborhood of the stream, might foreshadow an exact reversal of the battle of Liaoyang, this time the Russian commander flanking and turning Liaoyang with his left as Field Marshal Oyama did with his right, and the heavy guns are thrown upon the consideration which led Gen. Kuropatkin to suddenly to assume the offensive; but no word is heard at the war office intimating that the course savors of rashness.

Officers of the general staff, and that severe sacrifices that are involved in assuming the offensive, nevertheless express absolute confidence that Gen. Kuropatkin has found a weak point in the Japanese armor.

Why at This Time? Different explanations abound as to the reason for making the forward movement at this time. The advance is attributed to a realization by Gen. Kuropatkin of the difficulty the Japanese have encountered in making good their losses at Liaoyang and replenishing their supplies and ammunition, or possibly to the drawing off of a portion of the Japanese troops to reinforce Gen. Nogi in a desperate effort to end the heavy fighting at Port Arthur. Whatever the explanation, it is apparent that the Japanese have drawn before the first show of Russian strength that their recent ostentatious preparations for an advance were largely a bluff. The best opinion here is that the impending battle is likely to develop with stunning rapidity.

It is reported that the Japanese have abandoned Siantian, Siamtze and Meichouan, positions east of Liaoyang. In political circles considerable stress is laid upon the moral aid of the Chinese in the advance, and it is believed that the Japanese are being compelled to abandon the sacred city of Mukden, it being remembered that the Japanese failed to reach the city of Imperial Tomb during the Chinese Japanese war.

TIME TO DECIDE.

Glasgow Herald Thinks Britain Should Make Up Mind.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable). London, Oct. 10.—The Glasgow Herald says it is time for the issue to be put directly to the people of this country. Great Britain must make up her mind what she is prepared to give in way of preference before calling a conference.

The Daily Chronicle says Mr. Chamberlain's proposals are the speech of a man who is not prepared to obtain the lion of a strong and united empire. It is the context shows of serious British money in the political and administrative sphere of which he is thinking.

THE CANADIAN GREY SQUIRREL

THE Fur of this little animal is the absolute favorite with the world's women for the lining of Coats, Capes and Opera Cloaks. Nearly the entire year the fur is of a delicate grey, with a stomach of spotless white. The squirrel is generally hunted with wire trap cages, thus securing a hide un-injured for Furriers purposes. The season for trapping is limited to Fall and Spring, because at those periods the pelt is of better quality than that at others.

We have manufactured a splendid stock of fur-lined Jackets, Cloaks, Capes, etc., lined with grey squirrel, especially selected by our agents. Also with lock squirrel and Hampstead. All prices and latest designs.

LAND VALUES IN FIFTH WARD.

Court of Revision Held Numerous Appeals, But Increases Maintained. The court of revision was engaged yesterday in hearing appeals against the assessment of the Fifth Ward. The appeals were numerous, being chiefly owners of small properties, who chiefly protested against increases in the values of their buildings. While many reductions were made, the general increase in land values as fixed by the assessors was for the most part well maintained.

On the west side of Bathurst-street the assessment was fixed at $39 per foot. Last year it was $25, and the assessors raised it to $32. On the south side of College-street, property assessed at $20 last year was fixed by the assessors at $22. On Concord and DeWaver-avenues, the rate was fixed at $18 per foot, an increase of $2 over last year. The rate on the west side of the court was $25, and the assessors raised it to $32.

A feature of the local fruit market is the heavy receipts which continue from day to day to come forward. A grievance with the commission men is the fact that this season, as on former ones, they are compelled to vacate their present quarters for the needs of the railway companies, due to lack of space. With the building of the new street bridge the present warehouses will not be available for the fruit trade, and then become the centre of a great and growing industry. The necessity of making adequate provision for this trade has thus become apparent. We quote prices today as follows:

Table listing various fruits and their prices, including Canadian peaches, fancy baskets, choice, and various other produce.

Recovery Will Be Slow. Walmer Castle, Oct. 10.—This morning's bulletin regarding Lady Curzon says: Her recovery is a good thing, but her condition is, on the whole, encouraging. The complication of pleuritis which has supervened will involve a lengthened and exacting illness and rapid progress cannot be expected.

HEAVY RAIN AT THE MARKET

ONE HUNDRED CARS THERE. Quality of Exporters Good While Butchers' Not Up to the Average.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock yards, Toronto Junction, were large, 100 cars, composed of 2124 cattle, 38 sheep and 12 calves.

The quality of shipping cattle was much better than for some time past, while the butchers were the worst of the season, with the exception of a couple of loads. Trade was, as a rule, good, considering the heavy receipts, all offerings being sold with the exception of 5 or 6 loads.

In the export class there were many fine loads. Prices ranged all the way from $4.25 to $4.00 per cwt. Export class sold at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt. Export class sold at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt. Export class sold at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt.

Representative Sales. William Lovick bought 30 loads of fat cattle, principally exporters, at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt. Export class sold at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt. Export class sold at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt.

McClung & Mayboe, commission salesmen, sold: 18 exporters, 1399 lbs. each, at $4.25; 19 exporters, 1235 lbs. each, at $4.25; 22 exporters, 1315 lbs. each, at $4.25; 23 exporters, 1405 lbs. each, at $4.25; 24 exporters, 1250 lbs. each, at $4.25; 25 exporters, 1350 lbs. each, at $4.25; 26 exporters, 1450 lbs. each, at $4.25; 27 exporters, 1300 lbs. each, at $4.25; 28 exporters, 1400 lbs. each, at $4.25; 29 exporters, 1350 lbs. each, at $4.25; 30 exporters, 1450 lbs. each, at $4.25.

MRS. STICKLE FAILS. Jury Returns Verdict in Favor of the Physicists. The jury, after being out for two hours, decided that Mrs. Stickle was not entitled to any damages from Drs. Bryans and Smith.

Chancellor Boyd gave the jury the following questions to answer: Was the plaintiff of unsound mind on Jan. 27? Did the defendants honestly believe she was of unsound mind on that date? Did the defendants exercise due care and precaution to enquire into her state of mind?

Chancellor Boyd, in addressing the jury, stated that the evidence of the medical men, he had no doubt that Mrs. Stickle was of unsound mind on the day she was in the court room, as was her husband, Inspector Archibald, was an interested visitor also.

Waukesha, Wis., Oct. 10.—E. W. Agnew of this city is not one who believes that the office should seek the man, for yesterday afternoon he appeared at the county convention where the La Follette men were contending for the nomination of the old ticket by acclamation. Although not a delegate to the convention, Agnew succeeded in gaining the floor, and after a fiery speech, in which he told why he was the best possible man for the place, placed himself in nomination for district attorney and was chosen by a vote of 12 to 1.

Doctors Frequently Mistaken. I suffered until agony with piles for three months. Two doctors told me nothing but an operation would cure me. I tried different remedies, but nothing did me any good until I used Pyramid Pile Cure. I bought sixty-cent boxes at the drug store, and now can do my work and go out where before I spent most of my time lying down. I thank God for giving the discoverer the knowledge to make such a cure. I recommend it to all my friends, and if I ever have piles again will certainly use this remarkable remedy. You can use this in any way you wish to make known the wonderful merit of Pyramid Pile Cure. Mrs. Wm. Murray, 51 Marshall-street, Elizabeth, N. J.

USED REPLICATED

Puzzling features of Saturday Night's Robbery—Police Protective System is Criticized.

The robbery at Mr. Eaton's residence was the principal topic around the corners and in police circles yesterday. There is very little new in the case, except that further investigation shows that the thief must have been a very methodical person and had been planning the robbery for some time, and was well acquainted with the premises and the habits of the inmates. This was very deliberate in his movements.

The only entrance to the house which was open at the time was the side door. From the side door, to get into the house, it is necessary to go down some steps, cross the cellar, and go up steps on the other side of the cellar. The burglar must have stepped in back door, which gives access to Spadina-road. A flight of stairs runs up from the back door to the second floor. The intruder would reach it by Mrs. Burnside's room, which is in the rear of the house, and which is a corridor, in which stands a wardrobe that might give temporary hiding place to the thief.

A Complete Mystery. "Have you any idea who could possibly have committed the robbery?" a reporter asked Mrs. Burnside yesterday. "Not the slightest," she answered. "It is a complete mystery."

Should Be Rejected at Once. President Ellis of the board of trade admitted that the knowledge that to 14 men was given the responsibility of keeping watch over the city's safety was a revelation to him.

Man's Feet Realized. Marvelous feats in tumbling are performed at Shea's this week by a troupe of artists. The troupe first presents the farcical comedy, "Who's a Hero?" and the reception they met with is well deserved.

Public Amusements. "Shan Rah"—Grand. Older, to be sure, than he used to be, but yet very verdant, and retaining to a wonderful degree the twinkling eye and the merry laugh of the springtime of youth.

Paris By Night—Majestic. "Paris By Night," as it might be imagined, is a very attractive and popular play in human life, seen in its most attractive and popular form, rather than the light, frothy, and frivolous play of the "Fairy Queen."

What's New in Overcoats?

Everything. You never saw so much newness in the wardrobe before.

Styles are new; not extreme nor radical, but distinctively different from those of last year. Patterns are different, too—and very attractive in their novelty and exclusiveness.
