Financial and Commercial SYNDICATE TRANSACTIONS

New Taken by the Banking Community of the Last Week's Singular Disclosures at the Insurance Investigation—The "Underwriters" and Their Accounts—What Still Remains Undiscovered—Will Syndicate Participations by Life Companies be Forbidden by Law?—What Would the Consequence Be?

(New York Evening Post.) What will be the outcome so far as the pending life insurance investigation? This is a very practical question for the financial community inasmuch as it will be decided in the near future whether the details of various sorts, which may require many months to complete, will be made public or whether they will be kept secret for the benefit of the "syndicate participations."

The Wall Street View. But it is only stating the plain truth as to what Wall Street itself has been doing since the disclosure of the insurance investigation. The syndicates organized by life insurance companies to bring in their company as a participant, and then make the same company a buyer in their own individual profit, accounts of such syndicates are in general books with strong evidence that the companies' profits did not see the light of day.

MR. EMERSON DOES WELL

It must be said for the Hon. Mr. Emerson that he talks plainly to the Ontario people in defence of the Intercolonial Railway, and that, though he urges the need of reform in railway methods, he does not encourage the western folk in their outcry against the government road.

"It would have been easy to have had a surplus on the Intercolonial. I could have an immense surplus next year by having the same freight rates as have been in force on the G. T. R. and other roads. By a simple turn of the screw I could have a great surplus tomorrow."

His further remarks are thus reported by the Toronto Globe: "He pointed out that the construction of the Intercolonial had after confederation diverted the trade of the Maritime Provinces from the New England States to Upper Canada, and that the low freight rates on that railway contributed materially to that result. The people of Upper and Western Canada derived more benefit from the low rates than the Maritime Provinces; as shown by the fact that 75 per cent. of the through freight was from west to east, and only 25 per cent. from east to west. Therefore the people of Ontario had no cause to complain. But because the operation of the railway resulted in a deficit there was a great outcry. Yet not a word of caviar was ever heard from the Maritime Provinces about the million dollar deficit on the canal system from which the lower provinces did not benefit. And the very men who were talking most about that deficit on the Intercolonial were loudest in their demand for a large expenditure on the Trent Canal system, which would result in still further increasing the present deficit of $1,000,000. Both were constructed for the same object—the facilitating of commerce—and he contended that in reality there was no deficit on the Intercolonial, but that there was a surplus in the pockets of the people of Canada to its credit in promoting the interchange of trade between the provinces and in the building up of the Dominion. Therefore they could stand a deficit on paper on the Intercolonial account, as they could on the canal for the same purpose. The lesson he sought to impress was that Canadians must learn to ask these great questions from a broad national standpoint, recognizing that what ever benefited a portion of the Dominion must be of advantage to the whole."

Mr. Emerson said that some papers were lampooning him because of the I. C. R. deficit, but the very newspapers that were doing so were the ones that would cry out for the Trent Valley Canal, which was to be a deficit-creating institution. The people of the east, he said, were not opposing the Trent Valley Canal. They were not sectional, for the traffic would be of no direct advantage to them. One of the lessons to be learned by Canadians was that if a principle in transportation was to be applied in one section it should be applied in all.

This is sound doctrine, and we are told that the minister's remarks were heartily applauded. His Ontario tour should therefore be of some service.

SPLENDID GIFTS

The City of Toronto has reason to congratulate itself on the munificent public spirit of a number of its wealthy citizens. In one day the sum of $255,000 was subscribed by eight of them, toward the new general public hospital. This was in addition to $200,000 previously given by two other citizens. The list now stands:—

Table listing donors and amounts: Province of Ontario $250,000, City of Toronto 200,000, University of Toronto 20,000, Mr. Cavilra Mulock 100,000, Hon. Senator Geo. A. Cox 100,000, Mr. J. W. Flavelle 50,000, Mr. E. R. Wood 25,000, Mr. H. B. Calkin 25,000, Mr. Byron E. Walker 10,000, Mr. H. D. Warren 10,000, Mr. Peter C. Larkin 10,000.

THE COST OF INSURANCE

There is a good deal of discussion in the press generally on the subject of the cost of life insurance. The question—Do life insurance premiums cost too much? has been raised as a result of the recent disclosures in New York. The Toronto News quotes an English authority who has examined the statements of twenty-four American companies and declares that they charge too much. He says:— "The average experience of twenty-four companies shows a saving on mortality of over 20 per cent., and an excess of interest earnings of nearly or quite one per cent., and a generous profit from lapses and surrendered policies, while the loading is just sufficient to cover the cost of carrying on the business. The gain and loss exhibits indicate that but for the depreciation of securities during the year 1903, the insurance operations of that year would have brought into the companies a profit of more than $400,000, to be returned to the policyholders, or added to the surplus. With no improvement in the methods and practices of insurance companies, a reduction of 20 per cent. or 25 per cent. in premium rates is possible for a company managed with average care and efficiency, and is in every way desirable. But to bring insurance rates down to the present cost-level is only half enough. The cost itself ought to be lowered. It is demonstrable that some of the practices of insurance companies tend to increase their mortality loss, that a higher net rate of interest could be secured on their investments, and that the cost of administration is often extravagantly high. Improvements in any of those particulars would materially lower the cost of insurance, and make possible a further reduction in premium rates resulting in a wider utilization of the benefits of insurance by people of small or moderate income." The New York Post agrees that the question of rates should be re-considered, and the Toronto News concludes:—"It is quite possible that the present revelations in connection with life insurance companies in the United States may ultimately result in a lowering of the cost of insurance to the public."

Toronto is trying to rival Winnipeg with its building boom. The News says:—"Building permits issued by the city architect between Jan. 1 and Sept. 29, 1905, represent an aggregate value of $7,945,784, as against $4,683,488 for the corresponding nine months of last year. This is an increase of $3,262,296. The approximate value of the 261 buildings for which permits were issued last month was $777,905 and for September, 1904, 186 buildings at $448,273. About 2,100 permits were issued up to September, 1905, and 2,404 buildings erected. Last year 1,445 permits were given and 1,248 new buildings erected."

The Northumberland County Teachers' Institute meets at Newcastle today. The Advocate says:—"Arrangements have been made for the holding of a public meeting in the Opera House Thursday evening when Mr. T. B. Kidner, director of manual training of New Brunswick, will deliver an address on this interesting department of present day education. All citizens are invited to attend as this address will, we believe, open the agitation for the establishment of a manual training class in Newcastle."

What is being marketed at a very rapid rate in the Canadian west. A dispatch from Winnipeg states that the C. P. R. record shows that to Saturday last there had been 7,276,000 bushels marketed at points on that line as compared with 2,921,000 for the corresponding period of last year. There were loaded on the Canadian Northern on Saturday 190 cars, and 7,200,000 bushels in store.

They are beginning to make predictions about the result of the coming elections in the new provinces. A Winnipeg despatch to conservative papers says:—"James McAra, secretary of the Provincial Rights party of South O'Connell, arrived in the city this morning, and says Haultain will carry Saskatchewan, taking about 16 or 17 of the 25 seats."

C. P. R. shareholders in their annual meeting had much cause for satisfaction. The boom in C. P. R. stock of late has been remarkable, but of more importance is the cheerful outlook for the business of the company.

Lord Strathcona has given $10,000 to the public library of Strathcona, formerly Nanase Mills, Ontario. He promised the sum when the directors put up a suitable building, and this has been done.

There appears to be a growing impression in the United States that there will be no strike in the anthracite regions next spring, but that a new and satisfactory agreement will be made.

It is worth while to be related to a New York Life insurance magnate. Policy holders pay the house rent.

Montreal wants a dry dock. Will it get one in advance of St. John?

MAN WHO USED HIS TALENTS

The Late W. H. Murray Was Interested in Many Enterprises.

A number of business men were talking yesterday of the willingness with which the late W. H. Murray invested money in different industries which were of benefit to this city, and they agreed that he had set a splendid example to other men of means. It was said that in addition to his immense lumber business Mr. Murray was a stockholder in:— James Pender & Co., mail works. St. John Iron Works. The Portland Rolling Mills, The Cotton Mills. The F. B. Dunn Packing Co. The Cushing Sulphite Fibre Co. The Canadian Drug Co. The St. John Ice Co. Seven Battle line steamers. The Star Line S.S. Co. The Belleisle S.S. Co. The St. John Railway Co. The Bank of New Brunswick. The Hart Boot & Shoe Co., Fredericton. Mr. Murray was also interested in the Mexican Heat, Light and Power Co., the British Columbia Permanent Loan Co., Abbey's Salt, San Paulo, Gold King, Bear Gulch and Big Five. He formerly held a block of stock of the Lake of the Woods Milling Co. Doubtless he was interested in other concerns of which none of these business men had knowledge.

Harry Leonard, who took $50,000 worth of securities from the National City Bank in New York had no accomplices. He says he did it to show up the carelessness of the bank messenger service.

CHANCE FOR DEAF MUTES

Sir William Mulock Will Open Six Places in Postal Service to Them.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—(Special)—The post-master general has adopted a plan which it is hoped will benefit an afflicted class of persons in Canada. Most avenues of employment are closed to deaf mutes and unfortunate individuals who have neither hearing nor speech find it difficult to gain a livelihood. It is doubtful if any place in the public service of Canada has been found for them, though it seems incumbent upon the people of Canada, as a whole, to extend sympathetic treatment to them. Sir Wm. Mulock has determined to open places in city post offices to deaf and dumb persons. Six mutes are to be appointed to serve in city post offices throughout Canada. They will have to have sufficient education to sort ordinary mail matter and be under thirty years of age. The post office department has been in communication with the authorities of deaf and dumb institutes and is now receiving applications for places. A list is being made up from which selection will be made. Deaf mutes who desire to enter the postal service should make applications to have their names placed on the list. This is not the first humane plan Sir William has adopted. A few years ago he obtained an amendment to the postal law which granted free transmission through the mails of printed matter for the blind.

EXAMPLE TO YOUNG MEN

Rev. H. Montgomery Pays Eloquent Tribute to the Late W. H. Murray.

In the funeral services over the body of the late W. H. Murray in St. Peter's church, Springhill yesterday Rev. H. Montgomery preached a fitting sermon in the course of which he said that the late Mr. Murray was one of New Brunswick's greatest benefactors and a prince among the leaders of the great lumbering industry. Those acquainted with him know how he labored to develop that great industry which is the financial backbone of the province. "He gained it in his own hand and spent it freely in developing its resources." "New Brunswick has never raised a nobler son than him whom we mourn today. His long career was characterized by honesty, uprightness and integrity and is a noble example to the young men of our country. He has gone to his rest without a stain or blot on his business character. In the midst of our sorrow may we not lift up our hearts and say: 'Thank God we had a friend.' Our province is poorer today because of his departure. Who will take his place and reveal such power, energy and skill as he gave in the development of our greatest industry?" In conclusion the pastor spoke fittingly of the late Mr. Murray's benefactions to St. Peter's church, saying that by his death the church and pastor had lost a warm faithful friend.

LOSE EYESIGHT FROM DEVOTION TO FRIEND

New Hampshire Farm Hand Works All Day and Sits Up All Night With Sick Companion, Until Eyelids Are Paralyzed.

HAMPSHIRE, N. H., Oct. 4.—Devotion to a sick friend, with whom he watched every night for five weeks, working every day, has resulted in Caleb Hastings, a farmhand, being afflicted with paralysis of both eyelids, causing them to droop over his eyes, and physicians state that it is doubtful if he will ever see again, although sight of neither eye has as yet been affected. Hastings and his friend came to Hampton in August, both securing employment as farm hands. Soon afterwards the friend was stricken with pneumonia, and since that time Hastings has acted as nurse and bread provider as well, sitting up every night and working every day, sleeping only when an opportunity presented itself and never for more than a few minutes at a time. Sunday he could stand it no longer and dropped into a doze while sitting in a chair, and when he awoke he was unable to open his eyes. The physician who was attending the sick friend was appalled, but he could do nothing to afford relief. Opium was administered and Hastings slept for some hours, but when he awoke his condition was not improved. Yesterday physicians from Exeter were called in, but nothing that they could do affected Hastings' ability to open his eyes. By lifting the lids and holding them with his fingers he is able to see well, as he ever could, but the moment he releases them they drop over his eyes. The physicians declare that the case is one of nerve paralysis and that it is unlikely that Hastings will ever again recover the power to open his eyes. They say that in time it is quite likely that the continual darkness will affect the sight and that he will become blind in reality.

SHOOTING AFFRAY NEAR GRAND FALLS

Charles Cole Has a Bullet in His Groin and May Not Recover.

Charles Cole was the victim of a shooting affray in the parish of Drummond near Grand Falls on Monday night which may end fatally. The row grew out of a dispute between Cole and Joseph Chamberlain who quarrelled over a game of cards which a number of young folks were playing in Cole's home. After the quarrel Chamberlain and his sister went to their own home. Cole followed them and demanded entrance to the house. This was refused and he attempted to force the door when a shot was fired through the closed door lodging in his groin. He is seriously injured and it is reported he may not live.

A SON OF TOIL

The initial production of A Son of Toil was presented at the Opera House by the Wilbur Stock Co. last night before a good audience. The play is adapted from the story by Lewin C. Teas by Fred C. Stein, and deals with the question of capital and labor. The role of James Harcourt was entrusted to Harry L. Barker, while that of Kate, the mill owner's daughter, was played by Miss Lewis, and Fred C. Stein appeared as Andrew Conway, the oldest factory hand. The remainder of the parts were pretty evenly distributed and the audience appreciated the efforts of the various members of the cast. The moving pictures and specialties were also well received. A Son of Toil will be repeated tonight.

SWARMS DOGFISH LANDED AT CANSO.

Canadian and American Authorities May Take United Action to Rid Atlantic Waters of Pest.

CANSO, Oct. 5.—Although the dog fish reduction works continue to run night and day, they cannot keep cleaned up the swarms of dog fish landed each day by exultant fishermen. Boat loads continue to arrive from outlying sections of the coast, and all the fishermen are pleased to see so many of their enemies thus destroyed.

Doctor George W. Field and Mr. John W. Delano of the United States Department of Fisheries have spent the past few days here with Manager Cox, inspecting the methods employed by the Canadian Department of Fisheries in dealing with the dog fish. It is contemplated that some united action may be taken by the American and Canadian authorities to rid the Atlantic waters of these destructive fish.

HILLS OF NORTHUMBERLAND. (Hunting Song by Michael Whelan.) Boatman, awake for the breeze are blowing. Bright is the dawn of the beautiful day, Sportsmen, arise! for the forest is glowing.

Red, green and gold in their glorious array; Hunters, away to the beautiful wonderland; Sweet to the soul are the sights you shall see; Hunting the game on the hills of Northumberland; Far in the forests of Miramichi.

High on the hills of the dusky Dugarvon; Deep in the glens of the rushing Kenos; This is the food for which sportsmen are starving; Here is the health that their manhood renews; Swiftly the deer through the forests are sweeping; That monarch, the moose, in his majesty feeds; See! in the sunlight the salmon are leaping; Sing! by the streams of the Miramichi.

High on the hollow tree, loudly resounding; Hear the dear woodcock awaken the hill; Wholly the blood through each boom is bounding; The hearts of the hunters with ecstasy thrill; God with His glory the hills is adorning; Sing the sweet birds on each beautiful tree; Breathe in the balm of the beautiful morning; Shout! by the shores of the Miramichi; (And if Pugsley or Tweedle molest us we'll give them a Hazen.) Renous River, N. B., Sept., 1905.

Milk Tea Biscuit—Measure a quart of flour; add to it a level teaspoonful of salt and four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder; sift together into this one rounded tablespoonful of shortening; add gradually, mixing all the while, a cupful and three quarters of milk, just sufficient to moisten. Dust pastry board with flour, turn out the dough quickly, knead it over for a moment and roll into a sheet half an inch thick; cut out and stand the biscuits in a pan where they will not touch each other; brush the tops with milk, and bake in a hot oven quickly for twenty minutes.

CONSOLATION. A Fulton, Kan., minister consoled a bereaved husband as follows: "My brother, I know that you are compelled to mourn the loss of this one who was your companion and partner in life. But I would console you with the assurance that there is another who sympathizes with you and seeks to embrace you in the arms of unending love." To this the bereaved man replied by asking, as he gasped through tears into the minister's face: "What's her name?"

FRED. W. FREEZE IS SHERIFF OF KINGS.

He Was Appointed Last Night by Provincial Government.

Frederick W. Freeze was appointed sheriff of Kings county at a meeting of the provincial government last evening. His appointment was fore-announced in the Times on Monday.

The government had under consideration the proposed agreement with the New Brunswick Railway Company for the sale to the province of 20,000 acres of land in Victoria county for settlement. It was decided to send a competent surveyor and land examiner to inspect the proposed tract with a view to its suitability for agricultural purposes.

The following fire wardens were appointed: T. J. O'Connor, Alonso Keith, H. O. Branscombe, Geo. Ryan, H. W. Lunn, Geo. McKay, S. C. Thorne, Frank R. Murphy and David Relestone.

The commission of the provincial hospital had under consideration the case of the Greek Sodoris, and it was decided that he could be admitted to the institution as under the regulations none but residents of the province were eligible, except in certain circumstances, which in the present instance did not apply.

TRAFALGAR DAY.

St. George's Society Has Several Plans Outlined for Its Celebration.

St. George's Society of this city will celebrate Trafalgar day in some worthy manner. That much is decided, although what shape the celebration will take will not be decided till a meeting of the society next week.

The Sons of England will also join in the celebration of the great naval victory. Their plans, however, have not yet taken definite shape. A concert and a dinner at White's restaurant are mentioned as probable.

"Walk Into My Parlor," Said the Spider to the Fly.

This invitation has been urgently extended to the ladies of the Maritime Provinces by makers of crude and adulterated package dyes.

The foundation of the invitation is a misleading and dangerous one. It asks our women and girls to use imitation and weak dyes, based on the false statement that any color of these common dyes will color wool, silk, cotton or mixed goods equally well.

The world's brightest and brainiest color chemists who have devoted years of study to all sorts of synthetic dyes, are agreed that it is utterly impossible to properly color animal and vegetable fibres with the same dye. Ladies, please note this important fact, and do not be deceived.

DIAMOND DYES, the only perfect home dyes in the world, have special colors for wool and silk, cotton and mixed goods, thus insuring perfect results to your wardrobe.

THE DIAMOND DYES are the only package dyes which have carried profit and pleasure into the homes of Canada for twenty-five years. Our grandmothers and mothers used them with success and profit, and today, when women will not tolerate any other make of package dyes, all dye introduced within recent years have proved to be very poor imitations of the popular DIAMOND DYES. Never be misled by the false statements of merchants who sell weak and crude dyes, which are sure to injure and destroy your valuable materials. Ask for DIAMOND DYES, and take no others.

"Money Back"

dence in the virtues of

means merit. No house would offer to refund money, unless they were sure you would not want to have it refunded. When a house with a well-earned reputation says, "your money back if you are not satisfied with our goods," you may be sure the goods are right. We have such implicit confidence in the virtues of that we authorize druggists to refund the money if they fail to cure. We KNOW they WILL CURE all kidney troubles—strengthen weak kidneys, and relieve pain in the back, dull headaches and all other distressing symptoms of kidney disease.

It is worth one to be relieved of the agonizing pains—its worth $1 or even $2.00 to be completely cured. And we refund the price if they fail. You certainly get your money's worth either way. See box for $2.50 at druggists or direct from THE BOLE DRUG CO., WINNIPEG, MAN.

THE METAL MARKET

The tendency in many lines seems to be toward higher prices.

Business in metals and heavy hardware continues very satisfactory for the season and the market is many times better than it was a few months ago. Zinc has moved up by cable from 10c to 11c, and is now quoted at 11c. In cast, 9 1/2c. Some time ago a boom was reported in the iron and steel industries and Glasgow mills that produce steel sheets, plates and structural steel are booked ahead as far as the first of the year. The same state of affairs exists in Germany and the United States whose mills have been working under forced pressure for some time. Iron is quoted today at about 16c. Traction easier than last week. The war in the east seems to have been directly responsible for the phenomenal rise in anti-rust iron. From 12c to 13c, and around July 1 a price was made to 16c, and this price still holds, but for the slightly easier feeling reported. Japan uses anti-rust iron for engine purposes and some time ago the Japanese output, on account of home consumption, ceased to be a factor in the world's supply, and it is evident, judging by the falling off in shipments, that Japan was able to command a large proportion of the Chinese output as well. There were rumors at one time that the mills in the east were getting out, which might have something to do with the first rise of the market. Whatever the reason for the rise, anti-rust iron has established a new value, and there are no prospects in sight of a return to the old price of 12c or 13c per pound.

Sheet iron in firm and advancing, and an advance of about 5c is announced on last week's price.

C. P. R. DOUBLE TRACKING

St. Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., in an interview at Minneapolis, said:—Plans for double-tracking our line between Port William and Winnipeg, but we also have 60 miles laid between Winnipeg and Regina, and the ultimate extension of this improvement to embrace the entire main line of the C. P. R. is being considered. No westward extension of the Duluth, St. Paul and Atlantic is likely in the near future. We will build another line to meet conditions as they arise. With larger cars and other improvements we have practically doubled our capacity for handling the crop, but the pressure of business is as heavy as ever.

The St. John Chess and Checker Club was reorganized last night in the offices of W. S. Barker, Palmer's Chambers. The following officers were elected: C. E. Harding, president; T. C. Knowles, vice-president; W. S. Barker, treasurer; F. S. Robinson, secretary. It was decided to take rooms in the Climo building. There is a large membership in the club. It is expected that the rooms will be ready for use in a few days, after which they will be open every evening.

ROBBED HIS ROOM MATE

Chester Jones Before the Court Charged With Stealing from His Chum.

Yesterday afternoon about 5.30 o'clock Deputy Jenkins and Detective Killen placed Chester Jones, aged nineteen, under arrest charged with having robbed his chum and room-mate of twenty-five dollars. Raymond McDougall who rooms with Jones, visited central station and reported the robbery to the above named officials. McDougall stated that the money had been taken from his trunk, which was in the room occupied by Jones and himself. At eleven o'clock on Tuesday McDougall was aware of his loss, but the thought of suspecting his room-mate never entered his mind. It just took the deputy chief and the detective about three hours before they had enough evidence to warrant their placing Jones under arrest. Jones had not been to work and the officers located him on the street. They took him to his boarding house and found McDougall's pocket-book, containing $15, in his possession. They then placed him under arrest. McDougall is a pattern-maker at Fleming's foundry, and Jones is an apprentice at the same place of business. This morning McDougall was not in court, and the prisoner without pleading was remanded until Monday morning. Deputy Chief Jenkins told of finding the pocket-book and money, and stated that Jones had been running the gauntlet pretty well for his summer.

NOT AS GOOD AS LAST YEAR

Tobacconist Talks on Business—Last Winter Was Very Bad Season.

The tobacco business this summer has been very good but it can hardly be compared with last year. Last winter interfered greatly with the trade as a King St. tobacconist says that the goods when being shipped were often liable to lay in the freight sheds for nine or ten days. The great quantity of snow kept the trains back and caused a long delay for the goods. In retail circles, however, the season has been a success. The wholesale dealer last winter suffered much by the snow, as a great deal of their winter trade is in the country and for weeks there was practically no travel for the country at all. If a quantity of goods was ordered it would probably be weeks before it would reach its destination and the country merchants would be without stock all that time. During the summer months have brightened up greatly, and if the coming winter is not so severe a one by spring the whole sale dealers will be on a good footing again.

THE ISLAND WATER SERVICE

Resident engineer Shewen has the plans for the work, showing the depth of water and the length of pipe to be put down. The trench and pipe are about completed on the island and the mainland, and it is expected before the winter sets in all the work will be finished.
