BILIOUS OR SICK HEADACHES RELIEVED IN A FEW MINUTES.

Her Majesty's representative, the Governor of Sierra Leone, in a letter of request for an additional supply, states, "It is of great value; it should be in the hands of all Europeans visiting the tropics."

His Excellency the Governor of the Leeward West India Islands, after more than seventeen years residence in tropical climates, states, "I have proved it an excellent remedy in Rheumatic Fever, also in other Febrile affections; I keep it on my side-board with the hopes that it will attract the attention of visitors, trusting they may profit, as I have done, by it; I attribute the excellent state of my health to its constant use.

It is an agreeable effervescing remedy, of great efficacy in all kinds of Fever, Eruptive, and Blood diseases, especially those occurring during hot weather. DR. GIBBON, Staff-Surgeon in the Crimean war, states that European residents in hot countries find that the use of this refreshing beverage prevents exhausting perspiration and its alternative, deadly fever. It acts by purifying and lowering the temperature of the blood, hence its great importance to all persons seeking to reside with safety and comfort in tropical countries, subject to unusual heat

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL MURRAY, 1st West India Regiment, Sierra Leone.—"I have enjoyed uninterrupted health since I have taken your Pyretic-Saline."

In a letter from Sierra Leone, dated 21st of May, 1863, is the following: "We have had an English gentleman with us taken with African Fever; I gave him your Pyretic Saline, and he has perfectly recovered."

DR. SPARKS, the Government Medical Inspector, port of London, bears cordial testimony to its efficacy in chronic forms of Gastric complaints and Febrile dyspepsia.

WILLIAM STEVENS, Esq., M.D., D.C.L., states in his work on West India fevers, that wherever the saline treatment is adopted the fatal yellow fevers are deprived of their terrors.

In a letter, requesting a further supply, that can be seen and read together with a number of others of the same tenor, is the following: "After seventeen years of great suffering and enormous cost, I am happy to say your Saline has restored me."

Another from a reporter for the press states, "I cannot value too highly the benefits derived, even in this short time (ten days), I not only am gaining flesh, but my health is altogether better than ever."

A letter from a medical gentleman, M.D. of the London College, says, "After using it in my family and practice in Scarlet Fever, I consider it a specific—no other remedy is required."

More than a hundred others could be given if needful, but the better way is to prove it by purchasing it at the following special depôts, or of the proprietor,

FLIRTATION!!

A COMIC ADDRESS.

Flirtation!

(Oh tartation)
Let's have some conversation,
Without illustration,
Or versification,
Or recapitulation,
Or premeditation,
Or any provocation,
Or proclamation,
Or sanctification,
Or ratiocination,
Or further notification.

Flirtation—

(Oh botheration)—
Is an infatuation,
Without regulation;
A species of inebriation,
Or mental intoxication;
An amorous titillation,
Or spiritualization,
Of the imagination.

Flirtation!

I make this declaration,
That my observation
Says it merits condemnation,
In any situation,
And every station,
Without justification,
Or amplification,
Or any argumentation.

Flirtation!

Is worse than prevarication,
Or procrastination;
And I feel so vexed, and in such irritation,
Mixed with tribulation,

And mortification,
And even prostration,
That it almost stops my articulation;
And although an abomination,
Meriting detestation,
Yea, extermination,
And immolation,
It is not so bad as the operation
Of a surgical amputation,
Or an inundation,
Or suffocation,
Or transportation,
Or assassination,
Or annihilation,
Or garrotting-ication,
Or what is last, but not least—
Taxation;
And I hope we shall have the
gratification,
To see it banished this great
British Nation.

Flirtation!

Is undeserving any vindication,
Or veneration,
Or imitation.
And now Ladies and Gentlemen,
This Oration
Having reached its termination,
I hope it has added to your
gratification,
And recreation,
And so merited your kind
acceptation,
And approbation;
And, thanking you much for your visitation,
I gratefully make you my salutation.

J. H. B.

MEMORANDUM.—A young lady having read "Whoever shall smite thee on the one cheek, turn to him the other," was delighted with the idea, and so far acted on it, that if any gentleman kissed her on one cheek, she immediately turned to the kisser the other.

JANUARY.

FLOORING THE OLD YEAR.

'Tis I am, the only king,
For where's the king like me?
I've rul'd since the world's beginning,
And shall till eternity.

A king, and a strong one am I,
Submit to me each one must;
All schemes to floor me they try,
But I lay them low in the dust.

In eating I'm no way nice,
Dyspepsia I never have known;
For this reason, I can in a trice
Digest either iron or stone.

In drinking, whoever is able
To tiddle all night with me?
When they are under the table,
"I'm king of the com-pa-ny."

"That I steal humanity's things,"
Is false, as false can be;
When born, if each nothing brings,
Why I think they borrow of me

NOTES OF THE MONTH

A Christmas box that may may be exported.

Wild duck shooting begins. Good sport with other sort of ducks may now be enjoyed; this is very exciting, and not so cruel, as they are easily taken under mistletoe.

The amount of gas now required, makes shares extremely buoyant. This can be accounted for. Not one person in 10,000 having the slightest idea of a meter, the collector can reckon according to what dividend the company wish to declare. Gas shares are really a first-rate investment.

The greatest wonder at this festive season is 8 remarkable large plates of "Apple Pie," under a gold cover, for 6d. These will be forwarded by Read and Co., 10, Johnson's-court, Fleet Street, for an extra Stamp.

Why are great bars like very high houses? Because they are full of stories.

Heward, clerk, common Law. John Black, clerk, Chancery.

Heir and Devisee Courts.—Commissioners, the Judges of the Superior Courts, and such other persons as may be appointed by commission under the Great Seal. Their duties are to determine claims to lands in Upper Canada, for which no patent has issued from the Crown in favour of the proper claimants, whether as heirs, devisees or assignees. Sittings at Toronto, first Monday in January and July in each year. W. B. Heward, clerk of Commissioners.

An appeal lies to either of the Superior Courts of Law. These Courts also possess equity powers, to the amount of £50, subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery.

FEBRUARY.

SOLE, HEEL, AND SKATE FISHING BEGINS.

Hurrah, the glass is going down
Fast to thirty degrees,
The parks and ponds will very soon
bear,
If helped by the north-east breeze.
With well-screwed skates and telegraph speed,
(On my icy road I dash:
But "DANGEROUS" suddenly meets
my eye,
And around is a horrid crash.
"Stop, stop" 's the word which I dread to hear,
They shout "to the left incline!"

But I can't get stopp'd, and they all exclaim,
That a desperate case is mine.
How ladies scream, and the icemen
rush,
Bringing their ladders and ropes;
I've taken a header, -and to catch me alive
They give out the smallest hopes.
The Society's tent is a pleasant place,
'To wake in snug and dry;
With something warm of the "very best,"
In a tumbler standing by.

Better to slip with the tongue than the foot.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

A pair of Slippers.

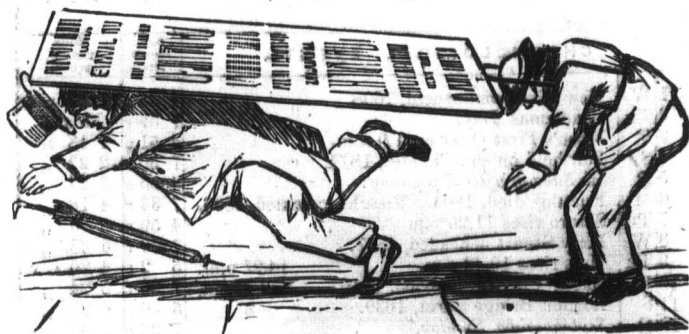

Should the weather be below Zero, keep street-door steps slippery. Importunate duns calling with accounts, may take a header; this successfully done will put settled to both.

On the 14th match-making begins. Disease of the heart prevalent. These matches are of a very combustible nature. After a time the presence of brimstone is generally discovered.

Shrove Tuesday falls this year on a Fry-day.

Why are the fair sex like magicians at their conjurations?
Because they are charming.

Boardsman anxious to secure some object on the pavement stoops for the purpose, with the following result—

Why is the above quite out of place? Because it is applied to flooring.

Surrogate Courts.—The jurisdiction of these Courts relates to all testamentary matters and causes, and to the granting or revoking of probate of wills, and letters of administration of the effects of deceased persons having estate or effects in Upper Canada, and all matters arising out of, or connected with the grant or revocation of probate or administration, subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery. The County Judges are also Judges of the Surrogate Courts. C. Fitzgibbon, Toronto, clerk.

Courts of Quarter Sessions.—Chairman, the County Judge in each county, who, with one or more Justices of the Peace, holds a Court of Quarter Sessions in his county four times a year for trials by jury in cases of larceny, misdemeanor and other offences.

Recorders' Courts.—In the Cities of Toronto, Hamilton, London, Kingston, and Ottawa, the Recorders' Court takes the place of the County Sessions, the Justices for Counties having no jurisdiction in the Cities—the care of which is confided to the Recorder, Mayor, Aldermen and Police Magistrate of each City. Sessions held first Monday in March, June and September, and third Monday in December; Geo. Duggan, Toronto, Arch. J. McDonell, Kingston, John E. Start, Hamilton, William Horton, London, J. B. E. for anything done by him in the execution of his office, if he objects to it. Courts are held once in two months in each division, or oftener, at the discretion of the Judge. MARCH.

QUARTER-DAY, AND NO QUARTER.

"Meet by moonlight alone, [things;
With a van, and we'll clear off the
To some arrears I candidly own,
And to-morrow a settlement brings.

You must promise to come, for I said
To old Gripper my landlord, who's been, [and bed,
And look'd hard at the chairs, table,
That I somehow disappointed had been.

Day-light is for those who can pay,
Who from brokers and levies are free,

But there's something about the moon's ray,
Which is far better suited to me."

But the landlord had studied the moon, [awake;
About quarters was quite wide
Called late that same afternoon,
And a seizure proceeded to make.

Mrs. Smith tried a rave and a scold,
And bullied the broker's head
man,
But he laugh'd, for he knew she'd been sold [the van.
At the place where she'd hired

Never reckon your chickens before they are hatched.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

"March," (not at all) "in good order," dealing blows in every direction. Coming in like a lion, everybody and everything flies before him.

Foreign singing birds migrate to this country to improve the value of their notes.

Should the upper part of a church be blown off, steeple-chasing may be indulged in. The Archbishop of Westminster (Cardinal Wiseman) has followed this sport for some time, but has not yet succeeded in bagging a steeple.

A lively air and quick march.

The Prince of W(h)ales secured by the Fishmongers as an appropriate member.

March used up by his violent behaviour, goes out quiet as a lamb.

If in losing anything we gain wisdom, we are gainers by the loss.

APRIL.

BESIEGING THE ENGLISHMAN'S CASTLE.

Pity the sorrows of an Englishman,
 Who'd soon be bundled from his own street door;
 Whose home's invested by a "Railway Plan,"
 And fast their "Bills" my freehold bricks will floor.

This happy home my prudence does bespeak,
 In building fund against a rainy day;
 And now Directors, with the greatest "cheek,"
 Have sent me notice for next quarter-day.

They've plac'd their batteries everywhere around,
 My castle soon in ruins will be laid;
 They say that compensation will be found—
 Not much of that, I'm terribly afraid.

Hard is the small freeholder's cruel lot,
 Who finds how rent in every place has risen;
 When he's turned out, what prospect has he got
 On either side, the workhouse or a prison!

Then pity the sorrows of an Englishman,
 Who hears the batterings on his doom'd street door
 In earnest now they have the siege began,
 And in their pounders fast like steam they pour.

The weakest must go to the wall.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer makes up his accounts, the m stakes as usual being on his own side.

The Royal Academy draw a long face at being no longer allowed by Parliament to sponge upon them. It is hoped that by removal from Trafalgar Square "Fine Art" may be invigorated, and the taste of the patetis restored.

Railway bill-stickers begin their annual nuisance.

THE ADVERTISING NUISANCE.

I'll sing you a new song made out of my own pate,
 About a retired tradesman who bought a nice estate;
 Who furnished his new mansion at a most expensive rate.
 And enclosed it in a garden wall with a modern iron gate, [past his prime.
 Did this retired tradesman who was somewhat
 He now and then had sharp attacks of gout in eet
 and toes. [nose;
 And indigestion gave a tinge of redness to his
 And thoughts of thieves sometimes at night would keep away repose—
 His nerves were shaky like the leaves, when wind upon them blows— [time.
 So this retired tradesman had not the jelliest
 Now advertising had become the furor of the day.
 Newspapers were so crammd they gave their supplements away; [all to pay
 No "spec" without this puffing could be made at

This horrid system, as I've heard his friends and neighbours say,
 Drove this tradesman from the world before his proper time.
 Some wretches arm'd, with paint and brush,
 beneath the shades of night, [write
 Upon the wall he'd built around, maliciously did
 Most awful things, which boldly show'd in letters large and white.
 And struck next day like lightning flash upon the astonished sight [from that time.
 Of this nervous tradesman who was much worse
 The paint had sunk into the bricks, and all scrubbing did defy— [to try—
 To get it off they found at last was waste of time
 When he went out those awful words were sure to catch his eye.
 This used him up, he laid him down, gave up life's latest sigh, [his time.
 Did this retired tradesman some years before

What is done in the night appears in the day.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

The turf begins to look up—the greener the better for knowing ones. This custom is supposed to have originated in a "race for a dinner," cups, plates and stakes being the object in view. Tetotallers oppose "Malt for Cattle Bill."

Rome refused a spirit licence by the Pope; Rome being already well supplied, and opposition not allowed.

The extreme delicacy of President Lincoln as shown by the omission in his advertisement of "No Irish need apply." Confederate back-bone not yet broken.

Fare for the driver, but un-fair for the horse.

THE CHRISTIAN MARTYR.

Who kill'd King Christian?
 "I cracked," said Prussia,
 "His crown with a crusher,
 And I killed King Christian."
 Who shar'd the deed
 "I," said Austria, "held him.
 While t'other cove fell'd him;
 So I shar'd the deed."
 Who saw him die?
 "I," said Nap. of France—
 "You snubbed my confere-
 So I let him die."
 Who lapp'd his blood?
 "We German curs wallowed
 In his blood, which we swallowed
 And we lapped his blood."
 Who'll dig his grave?
 "I," said Russia, "dig holes

For Circassians and Poles
 And I'll dig his grave."
 Who'll be the parson?
 "I—a dead heretic by us.
 Is a sweet smell," said Pius
 "So I'll be the parson."
 Who'll be chief mourner?
 "I will," said old Pam,
 "I'm first-rate at a sham
 And I'll be chief mourner."
 Who'll be the Clerk?
 "I," said Russell, "for once,
 Am not such a dunce;
 But can remember A-MEN!"
 Who'll toll the bell?
 "I will," said John Bull,
 "With remora I am full;
 So I'll toll the bell."

Then all the Kings and small Dukes fell to hugging each other,
 After cruelly murdering their poor Christian brother.

'Tis sweet to die for your country

Rifle practice on the Bull's-eye.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

Decline of the "Model Republic," and substitution of a Monarchy, the sovereign rising in the estimation of the Americans.

"Home for the holidays;" Pea shooters and impertinence abolished, by 40 miles an hour.

The depressed state of the juvenile nervous system on the return from school is effectually removed by that good-natured soul, "Mother Hubbard," or a visit to the "House that Jack built," whose address may be had of Read & Co. 10, Johnson's Court, Fleet Street. This enlivened by the cheerful notes of "Cock Robin," will be found a real blessing to Mothers.

The most appropriate Sunday in the year for a good joke.
W(h)it Sunday.

JULY.

WEAR

The "Season's" commenced, and
 Am toiling all night and day,
 With needle and thread to deck
 Some very superior clay.

I'm a kind of working corpse,
 (For a hopele-s being is dead,)
 I'm kept in mechanical motion
 By the power of needle and thread.

We've a national song which says—
 "Britons will never be slaves;"
 But of course it doesn't include
 The victims of early graves.

Better to be a "black"—
 For at Exeter Hall I know,
 Among those Christian pious,
 They'd make me a rare show.

AND

TEAR.

Oh! this is a Christian land,
 Where no Pagan worship's known.
 Where no victim's slaughtered before
 The "Idol of Pride" on its throne.

Far happier lot is hers
 Who is scrubbing, or making a bed,
 Than killing one's self to live
 By means of the needle and thread.

Let the "Midnight Movement" think
 More upon needle and thread,
 And find a reason why
 That terrible life is led.

Whenever I look in the glass,
 And feel my shortening breath,
 I see "decline" at its work.
 For I'm face to face with Death.

Virtue is its own reward.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

The Pike nuisance abolished. The voracity of the Pike was immense; lurking in a retired spot, pouncing on all passing objects, and always carrying off some prey.

Archery much practised by the soft sex. A young lady's power of drawing a beau towards her is irresistible—gentlemen not tired of (single) life should keep out of their way.

Extreme heat and Parliament dissolves.

Commencement of the "long vacation," and great decrease of robbery, &c. in the metropolis.

For England this is the vintage-time. The champagne grape weighing down the branches of the gooseberry tree, rouses refreshing ideas of Christmas festivities.

AUGUST.

THE UNINVITED GUEST.

Dearest Maria, our Pic Nic cloth 'vas laid
 On velvet sward which trees umbrageous made;
 The Savoury Pie with tongue and chicken
 plac'd,
 And ruby wine our rustic banquet grac'd:
 The cork had flown from Guinness' bottled beer,
 When something awful shook us all with fear.
 A figure wild, of Frankensteinish type,
 Wielding a club, who held a short clay pipe;
 In accents strange called out, "I say old bloke,
 'Opes the old 'oman don't hotject to smoke;
 You're all serene, suppose I makes a halt:
 Now guv'ner pass that stunnin' lot o' malt.
 It'll lay the dust, and if them chicken's young,
 Why fork 'em over, with two pounds of tung;
 Fill up old file, with logwood for a toast,
 'The ladies, bless 'em! and you, our noble host!'"
 At home Papa had left his new gold lever,
 But seeing mine he said, "I takes Geneva;"

"There must be cash with swells togg'd out so nobby"—
 Collecting coin he call'd "his favorite hobby."
 "This turnip (my watch) shows it's precious late"
 Then in the cloth he rolled our silver plate.
 Addressing Pa, exclaimed, "I say old flick,
 You twigs this little twig, my walking-stick;
 I know for what I've done, and what I've bagg'd,
 I shall if cotched, and no mi-take, get lagg'd;
 Take my advice, you've too much sense to erumble,
 Foll'ers I don't allow—all right, you tumble."
 "With me," he said, "the fairest of the fair,
 He ought to leave at least one lock of hair;
 'But fashion's rule was strong,'" his barber said,
 "And so on that account cropp'd close his head;"
 Then shaking his club, away he quickly walks,
 And nothing since we've heard of spoons or forks.

He seldom lives frugally who lives by chance.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

Mr. Bass introduces a new measure for barrel organs, etc. This measure will open the eyes instead of the mouths of certain musical professors. Blowing one's own trumpet may be illegal. How will this new measure affect the waits?

Serge is adopted by female yachters as rather characteristic. To this is added a dress of ticking. No doubt a tick dress will be most convenient. Speed, and sailing the yacht as nearly as possible keel upwards, is the crack style.

Having from a weak moral conviction settled with our butcher and baker, we are compelled to stop in town. It shall not occur again. Parties reading this, will at once perceive the folly of parting with "capital."

Some people admire the line,

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

Shooting (coal) season begins. This sort of string will bring down any object, as parties will find, should they happen to be in the way—"BE-LOW."

Something for Michaelmas-day.

The Embankment of the Thames is being conducted upon a shore (sure) foundation. It is to be hoped that these truly British Banks may be of a more substantial character than many of the same name. On the completion of the Main-drainage, the current account of the Banks will be supplied by the "Silver Thames." The Banks are modelled to stand any run upon them day or night, and will have a water-mark of their own. The mudlark will be driven from the shores of the Thames. Let Professor Owen secure a specimen before the race is extinct.

When is a coal merchant not a coal merchant? When he's a coal cellar (seller).

OCTOBER.

THE PAROCHIAL GAME OF SHUTTLECOCK.

There's a parish which plays an artful game.

It's played with a battledoor,
And the thing they use for a shuttlecock,
Is one of the starving poor.

The parish of "Dethnel" deserves to be

Foremost on the scroll of fame,
For great must be the parochial mind
Which plann'd this "little game."

There's another parish as like as two peas,
Equally well they play,

When the shuttlecock comes, the blow they give Sends it spinning away.

•The minds which rule the Poor Law Board,

Wink at the plan to save; [far
The pauper alive is more expensive
Than one put in a grave.

Let the wandering lumber audaciously call

"Dethnel" his place of birth,
With the battledoor's blow he'll get
"passed on,"
And know what his claim is worth.

Poverty is no crime.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

The Bathing Season—
The clo(thes) and the departure.

The condition of the American Eagle is becoming serious. The poor bird cannot hold up his head, from the increased size of the bill, which he finds a difficulty in "taking up." Also a disease behind of a gangrene nature, called green back, which is eating into the system, and will ultimately not leave him a leg to stand on. To judge by his feathers (which are dropping out, for he has hardly one to fly with) the "downy" character of the bird is greatly altered. Some "white feathers" have been pricked up. His tail (tail) still remains, but of the most pitiable kind. Young America must be a great sufferer, American dolls having risen in Wall Street to treble the value. The Republican form may be considered as done up. This was decided in the late pugilistic encounter, when the King of England, by a great victory, completely shattered the American system.

Why is the American Army the most disreputable?
Because they enlist Black-guards.

LEGAL REFORM—PRACTICE IN THE COURTS BELOW.

There's a reform coming, boys,
 A reform coming;
 No matter what the "Big-wigs" say
 This is the only real way
 In the reform coming.
 Then legal lies shan't bully truth,
 For justice will be stronger,
 And honesty wont be afraid;
 Wait a little longer.
 There's a reform coming, boys,
 A reform coming;
 There's a reform coming, boys—
 Wait a little longer.
 There's a reform coming, boys,
 A reform coming;
 Law in all men's eyes shall be
 A monster of iniquity,
 In the reform coming
 Clients shal not quarrel then,
 To prove which is the stronger:
 Or let their cash the lawyers take—
 Wait a little longer.
 There's a reform coming, boys, &c.

There's a reform coming,
 A reform coming;
 When poor debtors shall not be
 Punished for their poverty,
 In the reform coming.
 When the poor the rich will help,
 The weak lean on the stronger,
 Things as strange have come to pass—
 Wait a little longer.
 There's a reform coming, boys, &c.
 There's a reform coming, boys,
 A reform coming;
 Silly people will rot till
 For cash the legal pot to boil.
 For the reform coming.
 When old Nick his ladie wields,
 To see which is the stronger,
 Every one will say he's right—
 Wait a little longer.
 There's a reform coming, boys,
 A reform coming;
 There's a reform coming, boy—
 Wait a little longer.

Give the Devil his due.

NOTES OF THE MONTH.

Attorney's Certificates now taken out. These Birds of Prey may be seen in flocks, returning to their haunts. The younger birds soon equal the old ones in their powers of depredation, the most "filthy lucre" being voraciously swallowed. Their retreats are in dusty holes, and they infest dirty courts, where the pickings up are considerable. They perch upon Rolls, and it is always a matter of rejoicing when any one of them is knocked off.

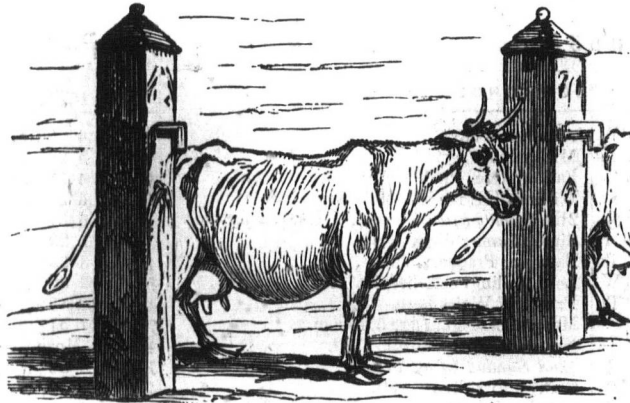

Parties who have been flying kites, having come to the end of their line, will find the act of winding up rather an awkward process. When a difficulty about the hauling in occurs, the best plan is cutting.

Damp, steamy weather may now be expected. This may be avoided by not coming home on washing-day. The domestic arrangement on that day being temper hot, and dinner cold.

original portrait.

Who was the first inventor of steam? What's his name.
(Watts—his name.)

WORTHY SPECIAL ATTENTION!

SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS !!

The following admirable new schemes are announced, and the shares (no doubt at a high premium) will be shortly in the market. Coming out, as they do, under the auspices of such enterprising men of genius as are connected with each, they ought—must—command success, and will afford an admirable opportunity for investment, both to large and small capitalists.

DECEMBER.

A BIL(L)-IOUS SEASON.

Oft in the stilly night, [me.
When nightmare's chain hath bound
Indigestion throws a light
On Christmas bills around me.
The bill for clothes, (how each boy grows!)
Not ready-made—bespoken;
The cuffs now torn, the buttons gone,
And button-holes all broken.
My wife, who's thin, (her bill sent in)
A good round figure shows me;
I've heard her swear, she'd naught to
Now really that does pose me. [wear,
The bill for meat I say 's a cheat—
My wife, how much I shock'd her,

She's heard me say, "I'd rather pay
The butcher than the doctor."
The bill for shoes, which I abuse,
With arguments she's meeting—
"Each little dear, if well it's clear, Must something put its feet in."
From our draper comes a paper,
Which anything but nice is;
If I complain, she'll then explain,
We're in a "Cotton crisis."
Thus in the stilly night,
When indigestion racks me,
Just like a bird of prey, the file
With horrid BILL attacks me.

Uneasy lies the head that owes a crown.

Christmas holly-days begin. In this pudding time reckon up your affairs, and you will find whether you are worth a plum. Tommy's idea of a Christmas-tree deserves to be mentioned. Paterfamilias surrounded by the branches of his family, which are loaded with Christmas-boxes. A visit from Mrs. Fry would be a great boon at this season to persons who are trying to graze on short commons.

The Robin becomes domestic. There is another kind of rob(b)in(g) which makes its appearance at night, and so domestic that it will come in at any open door or window.

GOOD-BYE !!!

Why is the letter g like giving a boy a Christmas-box?
Because it makes the lad glad.

LAZY BONES.

A STAY-MAKER sent circular letters of apology to her customers for not sending home work according to promise, alleging, as an excuse, that one of her hands had gone off to America with a married man, and another hand was in prison for shoplifting.

FASHIONS FOR 1865.

LADIES' DRESS.—Robe of scarlet, ornamented with auto-de-fe work. Point lace petticoat, the raising of which will enable the stocking, shoe, and rosette of scarlet to be shown. Purple velvet cloak, with emblems of a devotional cast, embroidered in gold. Hat a cardinal; this, with the cardinal virtues artificially arranged, will have a very new and imposing effect, these ornaments not having yet been seen with the hat. The hair, drawn from the face, behind a fine linen coif, strikes us as very spirituel. Necklace of beads, with characteristic pendant device. The looking-glass brooch, a delightful novelty, is both useful and ornamental during promenade. Parasol with crozier handle, the rainbow color being most in vogue. This, surmounted by the cardinal points, will be in keeping with the rest of the dress, indicating its light and varied style.

GENT'S DRESS.—A "jolly green" coat of a very simple character, not tight, loose habits being preferred. The coat buttoned up behind gives the head an appearance of being turned, which is increased by its being appropriately shaved a la ringworm. Waistcoat of the St. Lawrence, or "gridiron" pattern, on a rich fire-colored ground. "Inexpressibles" of a striped or flagellated design. The style of the beard will have an "inexpressible" look from being grown to the pattern of those useful articles. Horse-hair shirts, from their stimulating qualities, will be worn next the skin. Fool's-cap shaped hat, and crook'd walking stick. Turning up the toes of the boots will be suggestive of finish.

Spoken in A-MERRY-KEY.—“Golly Me, Massa Jonathan! Who de Niggar Now?”

Mails for Canada from England.—Two Ocean Steamers carrying mails for Liverpool in each week, viz.:—a Canadian Packet on every Thursday, via Derry on Friday, sailing to Quebec in summer, and Portland in winter, by which the Postage rate is 6d. sterling per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.; and a Cunard Packet every Saturday, via Cork on Sunday, bringing Mails for Canada, alternately to Boston and New York, by which the Postage rate to Canada is 8d. sterling per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.

The British Post Office forwards letters to Canada by the first packet sailing after the letter is posted, unless the letter bears a special direction—“By Canadian Packet” or “By British Packet,”—and in that case they are kept over for the Packet designated. “By Canadian Mail” is not a distinctive superscription; for any Mail for Canada is a “Canadian Mail,” by whatever Packet forwarded.

Registration of Letters.—Persons posting Letters containing value, should be careful to require them to be registered, and to obtain from the Post Master a Certificate of receipt for Registration.

The charge for Registration, in addition to the Postage, is as follows, viz.:

On Letters to any other place in Canada, or British North America	2 cents.
On Letters for the United States	5 ”
On Letters for the United Kingdom	12 $\frac{1}{2}$ ”
On Letters for British Colonies or Possessions, sent via England ...	35 ”
On Letters for France and other Foreign Countries, via England, an amount equal to the postage rate.

Both the postage charge and registration fee must in all cases be prepaid.

Registration is not an absolute guarantee against the miscarriage or loss of a Letter; but a Registered Letter can be traced when an Unregistered Letter cannot, and the posting and delivery or non delivery can be proven. A Registered Letter is thus secured against many of the casualties which, from incorrect address, forgetfulness of the receiver, or other error, may affect an Unregistered Letter.

And so on, increasing 17 cents for each additional ½ lb.

The Book Post regulations between Canada and England apply to matter between Canada and France.

Newspapers and Periodicals.—Newspapers published in Canada may be sent by Post from the office of publication, addressed to any place in Canada, at the following rates, if paid quarterly in advance by either the publisher at the post office where the papers are posted, or by the subscriber at the delivering post office:—

For a paper published 6 times a week, 40 cents per quarter.

"	"	3	"	20	"	"
"	"	2	"	13	"	"
"	"	1	"	6½	"	"

When the above rates are not paid in advance by either publisher or subscriber, such Papers are charged one cent each on delivery.

EVERYBODY has heard of the "Gold Stick in Waiting," and the "Silver Stick in Waiting." It is now reported that there is to be a "Wooden Stick in Waiting," and that Mr. C. will have the appointment.

CAB and omnibus drivers are advised to "stow" their chaff, as all sorts of fodder will be very valuable during the winter.

MR. ROEBUCK has a favorite saying, viz.—that England has produced two great men, Shakespeare and—himself.

Newspapers by Mail from England or United States—Newspapers received from England by the Canadian Packet Mails are delivered free.

Newspapers from England by the Cunard Packet Mails are charged 2 cents each on delivery. (This is the American transit charge.)

United States Newspapers, brought by mail into Canada, are charged 1 cent each on delivery.

Periodical Publications.—The rate on Periodical Publications is 1d. per 4 oz. Periodicals, printed in this Province, other than Newspapers, when specially devoted to the Education of Youth (both religious and general), to Agriculture, to Temperance, or to any branch of science, and addressed directly from the office of publication, to be transmitted to any post office in this Province, are exempt from charge.

Periodicals received in Mails from the United States are charged with the rates named in the 1st clause of this section.

On Orders up to	10 dollars	5 cents.
Over 10 dollars and up to 20	"	10 "
" 20	"	20 "
" 40	"	30 "
" 60	"	40 "
" 80	"	50 "

N.B.—No half cents to be introduced in the Orders. No single Order can be issued for more than 100 dollars.

Money Orders, payable at any Money Order Office in Great Britain and Ireland, can be obtained at any Canadian Money Order Office. The Orders are drawn in sterling, the commission chargeable being:—for £2 and under, 25c.; over £2 and up to £5, 50c.; over £5 and up to £7, 75c.; over £7 and up to £10, 1 dollar. No Order can be drawn for more than £10, but any number of Orders of £10 each may be procured.

STILL MORE TESTIMONY FROM LANCASHIRE.

Copy of a letter from Mr. J. L. RYDER, Chemist, Preston, dated Dec. 5, 1863.

DEAR SIR,—I have within the last few months sold a great many boxes of your invaluable WIND PILLS, and I have heard them praised very much. In fact, every box that I have sold yet, has been found to answer what the Pills profess to do. One case in particular, the Lodge-keeper at the Preston Jail, was, and had been suffering a great deal from INDIGESTION, WIND ON THE STOMACH, &c., for a great many years. A relation of mine, who had tried the Pills, advised him to try a box, and from that one box he found more relief, more benefit, than from any thing he had tried for years, and he is now never without a supply in his house. I think if they were only more widely known they would do a great deal of good, and save many Doctor's Bills.

To Mr. Woodcock.

I am, dear Sir, yours &c.,
JOHN LEWIS RYDER.

They are sold by all respectable Medicine vendors throughout the kingdom, in Boxes, at 1s. 1½d, 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d. each; or should difficulty occur, enclose 14, 33, or 54 Stamps, according to size, to Page D, Woodcock, Lincoln, and they will be sent free by return of post.
