PREFACE.

Desirous of providing a suitable Connexional Sabbath-school Hymn Book, principally for the use of Wesleyan Institutions in Canada, the Book Committee have authorized the publication of the following Collection of Sacred Poems, designed to assist in Devotional Exercise, either in the Sunday-school or the social circle. Guided by catholicity of spirit, those upon whom has devolved the pleasurable duty of selection, have not been restrained by any denominational tendency, but wherever religious sentiment and poetry have been found, the productions of sanctified genius have been joyfully united, regardless of names or forms. The compiler is, therefore, not without hope he may have been assisting the labours of evangelical organizations, engaged in the culture of youthful minds, who may use this collection of Sacred Hymns; they being free from controversial or doubtful theology. The blessing of the undivided and Holy Trinity is devoutly implored to rest upon this unpretending offering.

ENOCH WOOD,

President of the Conference.

WESLEY.

1 O FOR a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise!
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace.

2 Jesus ! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

3 He breaks the power of cancell'd sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood avail'd for me.

4 He speaks,—and listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive;

The mournful, broken hearts rejoice;
The humble poor believe.

5 Look unto him, ye nations; own
Your God, ye fallen race;
Look, and be saved through faith alone,
Be justified by grace.

C. M.

WATTS.

1 I SING th' Almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise;
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies !

2 I sing the wisdom that ordain'd
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.

3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That fill'd the earth with food;
He form'd the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them "good."

4 Lord, how thy wonders are display'd,
Where'er I turn my eye!
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky !

5 Creatures (as numerous as they be)
 Are subject to thy care;
 There's not a place where we can flee,
 But God is present there.

6 His hand is my perpetual guard;
 He keeps me with his eye:
 Why should I then forget the Lord,
 Who is for ever nigh!

L. M.

ADDISON.

1 THE spacious firmament on high,
 With all the blue ethereal sky,
 And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
 Their great Original proclaim.

2 Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
 Does his Creator's power display;
 And publishes to every land,
 The work of an Almighty hand.

3 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
 The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
 And nightly, to the list'ning earth,
 Repeats the story of her birth.

4 Whilst all the stars that round her burn,
 And all the planets in their turn,

pt

Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

5 What though in solemn silence all
Move round this dark terrestrial ball;
What though no real voice or sound
Amidst their radiant orbs be found:

6 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice;
For ever singing as they shine,
"The hand that made us is divine."

DODDRIDGE.

1 GOD is a Spirit none can see,
G He ever was, and e'er shall be;
Present where'er his creatures dwell
Through earth and sea, through heaven and hell.

2 His eyes, with infinite survey,
View all the realms in full display;
What has been, is, or shall be done,
Or here or there, to Him is known.

3 The bounty of his gracious hands,
Wide as the world he made extends,

And though himself completely bless'd,
With pity looks on the distress'd.

- 4 All that is glorious, good, and great,
Does in the Lord Jehovah meet;
Then to his name be glory given,
By all on earth, and all in heaven.

8's and 7's

WESLEY.

1 HAPPY child whom God doth aid!
God our souls and bodies made;
God on us, in gracious showers,
Blessings every moment pours:
Compasses with angel bands,
Bids them bear us in their hands:
Parents, friends, 'twas God bestowed;
Life and all descend from God.

2 He this flowery carpet spread,
Made the earth on which we tread;
God refreshes in the air,
Covers with the clothes we wear;
Feeds us with the food we eat,
Cheers us by his light and heat,
Makes his sun on us to shine;
All our blessings are divine.

3 Man we for his kindness love,
 How much more our God above?
 Give him then, and ever give,
 Thanks for all that we receive;
 Worthy thou, our heavenly Lord,
 To be honour'd and adored;
 God of all-creating grace,
 Take the everlasting praise.

C. M.

ADDISON

1 WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
 My rising soul surveys,
 Transported with the view, I'm lost,
 In wonder, love, and praise.

2 Thy providence my life sustain'd,
 And all my wants redress'd,
 When I, a helpless infant, hung
 Upon my mother's breast.

3 To all my weak complaints and cries,
 Thy mercy lent an ear,
 Ere yet my feeble thoughts had learn'd
 To form themselves in prayer.

4 Unnumber'd comforts on my soul
 Thy tender care bestow'd,

Before my infant heart conceived,
From whom those comforts flow'd.

- 5 When in the slippery paths of youth,
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.
- 6 Through hidden dangers, toils and deaths,
It gently clear'd my way;
And through the pleasing snares of vice,
More to be fear'd than they.
- 7 Through all eternity, to thee
A grateful song I'll raise;
But O, eternity's too short
To utter all thy praise!

C. M.

WATTS.

- 1 HOW glorious is our heavenly King,
Who reigns above the sky!
How shall a child presume to sing
His dreadful Majesty?
- 2 How great his power is, none can tell,
Nor think how large his grace;
Not men below, nor saints that dwell
On high before his face.

PERFECTIONS AND

12

3 Not angels that stand round the Lord
Can search his secret will;
But they perform his heavenly word,
And sing his praises still.

4 Then let me join this holy train,
And my first offerings bring;
The eternal God will not disdain
To hear an infant sing.

5 My heart resolves, my tongue obeys,
And angels shall rejoice
To hear their mighty Maker's praise
Sound from a feeble voice.

WATTS.

L. M.

1 ETERNAL Power, whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God,
Infinite lengths beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds.

2 Thee, while the first archangel sings,
He hides his face behind his wings:
And ranks of shining thrones around
Fall worshipping, and spread the ground.

3 Lord, what shall earth and ashes do ?
We would adore our Maker too !

From sin and dust to Thee we cry,
The Great, the Holy, and the High !

- 4 Earth from afar hath heard thy fame,
And worms have learn'd to lisp thy name:
But O ! the glories of thy mind
Leave all our soaring thoughts behind.
- 5 God is in heaven, and men below;
Be short our tunes, our words be few !
A solemn reverence checks our songs,
And praise sits silent on our tongues.

8's and 7's.

ROBINSON.

1 MIGHTY God, while angels bless thee,
May an infant lisp thy name ?
Lord of men as well as angels,
Thou art every creature's theme.

Hallelujah, Hallelujah. Amen.

2 Lord of every land and nation,
Ancient of eternal days,
Sounds through all the wide creation,
Be thy just and lawful praise.

3 For thy providence that governs,
Through thine empire's wide domain,

Wings an angel, guides a sparrow;
Blessed be thy gentle reign!

4 But thy rich and free redemption,
Dark through brightness all along!
Thought is poor, and poor expression;
Who dares sing that awful song.

5 Brightness of thy Father's glory,
Shall thy praise unutter'd lie?
Flee my tongue such guilty silence,
Sing the Lord who came to die!

6 Did archangels sing thy coming?
Did the shepherds learn their lays?
Shame would cover me, ungrateful,
Should my tongue refuse thy praise.

7 From the highest throne of glory,
To the cross of deepest woe!
For such love to guilty captives,
May the praise forever flow!

1 GOD is goodness, wisdom, power,
Love him, praise him evermore;
Let us strive, and never cease,
Him in everything to please.

2 Born for this intent we are,
 Our Creator to declare,
 God to love, and serve and praise,
 God to honour all our days.

3 Lift we then our hearts to God,
 Like the Church above employed;
 Day and night the angels sing
 Praises to their heavenly King.

4 Him that sitteth on the throne,
 Him that died for men t' atone,
 God and the triumphant Lamb,
 They eternally proclaim:

5 Holy, holy, holy, Lord,
 Like by heaven and earth adored,
 Fill'd with thee, let all things cry,
 Glory be to God Most High.

G. M.

11

WATTS

1 W HENE'ER I take my walks abroad,
 How many poor I see!
 What shall I render to my God,
 For all his gifts to me!

2 Not more than others I deserve,
 Yet God hath given me more;

PERFECTIONS AND

For I have food while others starve,
Or beg from door to door.

3 How many children in the street
Half naked I behold;
While I am clothed from head to feet,
And cover'd from the cold.

4 While some poor wretches scarce can tell
Where they may lay their head,
I have a home wherein to dwell,
And rest upon my bed.

5 While others early learn to swear,
And curse, and lie, and steal:
Lord, I am taught thy name to fear,
And do thy holy will.

6 Are these thy favours, day by day,
To me above the rest?
Then let me love thee more than they,
And strive to serve thee best.

C. M.

MONTGOMERY.

1 GOD in the high and holy place,
Looks down upon the spheres;
Yet in his providence and grace,
To every eye appears.

PROVIDENCE OF GOD.

27

2 In every stream his bounty flows,
Diffusing joy and wealth;
In every breeze his Spirit blows,
The breath of life and health.

3 His blessings fall in plenteous showers,
Upon the lap of earth,
That teems with foliage, fruit, and flowers,
And rings with infant mirth.

4 If God hath made this world so fair,
Where sin and death abound;
How beautiful beyond compare,
Will paradise be found.

C.) M.

13

WEALME.

1 HAIL ! Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God in persons three:
Of thee we make our joyful boast,
Our songs we make of thee.

2 Thou neither canst be felt nor seen:
Thou art a spirit pure,
Who from eternity hast been,
And always shall endure.

3 In wisdom infinite thou art,
Thine eye doth all things see,

B

13 PERFECTIONS AND

And every thought of every heart,
Is fully known to thee.

4 Whate'er thou wilt thou dost below,
And in the world above;
But chiefly we rejoice to know
Th' Almighty God is love.

5 Mercy and love, and endless grace,
O'er all thy works do reign:
But mostly thou delight'st to bless
Thy favourite creature—man.

6 Wherefore let every creature give
To thee the praise design'd;
But chiefly, Lord, the thanks receive,
The hearts of all mankind.

C. M.

14

WATTS.

1 ETERNAL Wisdom, thee we praise,
Thee the creation sings:
With thy loved name, rocks, hills, and seas,
And heaven's high palace rings.

2 Thy hand, how wide it spreads the sky !
How glorious to behold !
Tinged with a blue of heavenly dye,
And starred with sparkling gold.

3 Thy glories blaze all nature round,
 And strike the wond'ring sight,
 Through skies, and seas, and solid ground,
 With terror and delight.

4 Infinite strength and equal skill,
 Shine through the world abroad,
 Our souls with vast amazement fill,
 And speak the builder God.

5 But the mild glories of thy grace,
 Our softer passions move;
 Pity divine in Jesus' face,
 We see, adore and love.

C. M.

15

WATTS.

1 FATHER, how wide thy glory shines !
 How high thy wonders rise !
 Known through the earth by thousand signs,
 By thousands through the skies.

2 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power;
 Their motions speak thy skill;
 And on the wings of every hour,
 We read thy patience still.

3 Part of thy name divinely stands,
 On all thy creatures writ;

They show the labour of thy hands,
Or impress of thy feet.

4 But when we view thy strange design,
To save rebellious worms,
Where vengeance and compassion join,
In their divinest forms;

5 Here the whole Deity is known,
Nor dares a creature guess
Which of the glories brightest shone,
The justice or the grace.

6 Now the rill glories of the Lamb,
Adorn the heavenly plains;
Bright cherubs learn Immanuel's name,
And try their choicest strains.

7 O may I bear some humble part
In that immortal song!
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.

C. M.

16

WATTS.

1 LET every tongue thy goodness speak,
Thou sovereign Lord of all;
Thy strengthening hands uphold the weak,
And raise the poor that fall.

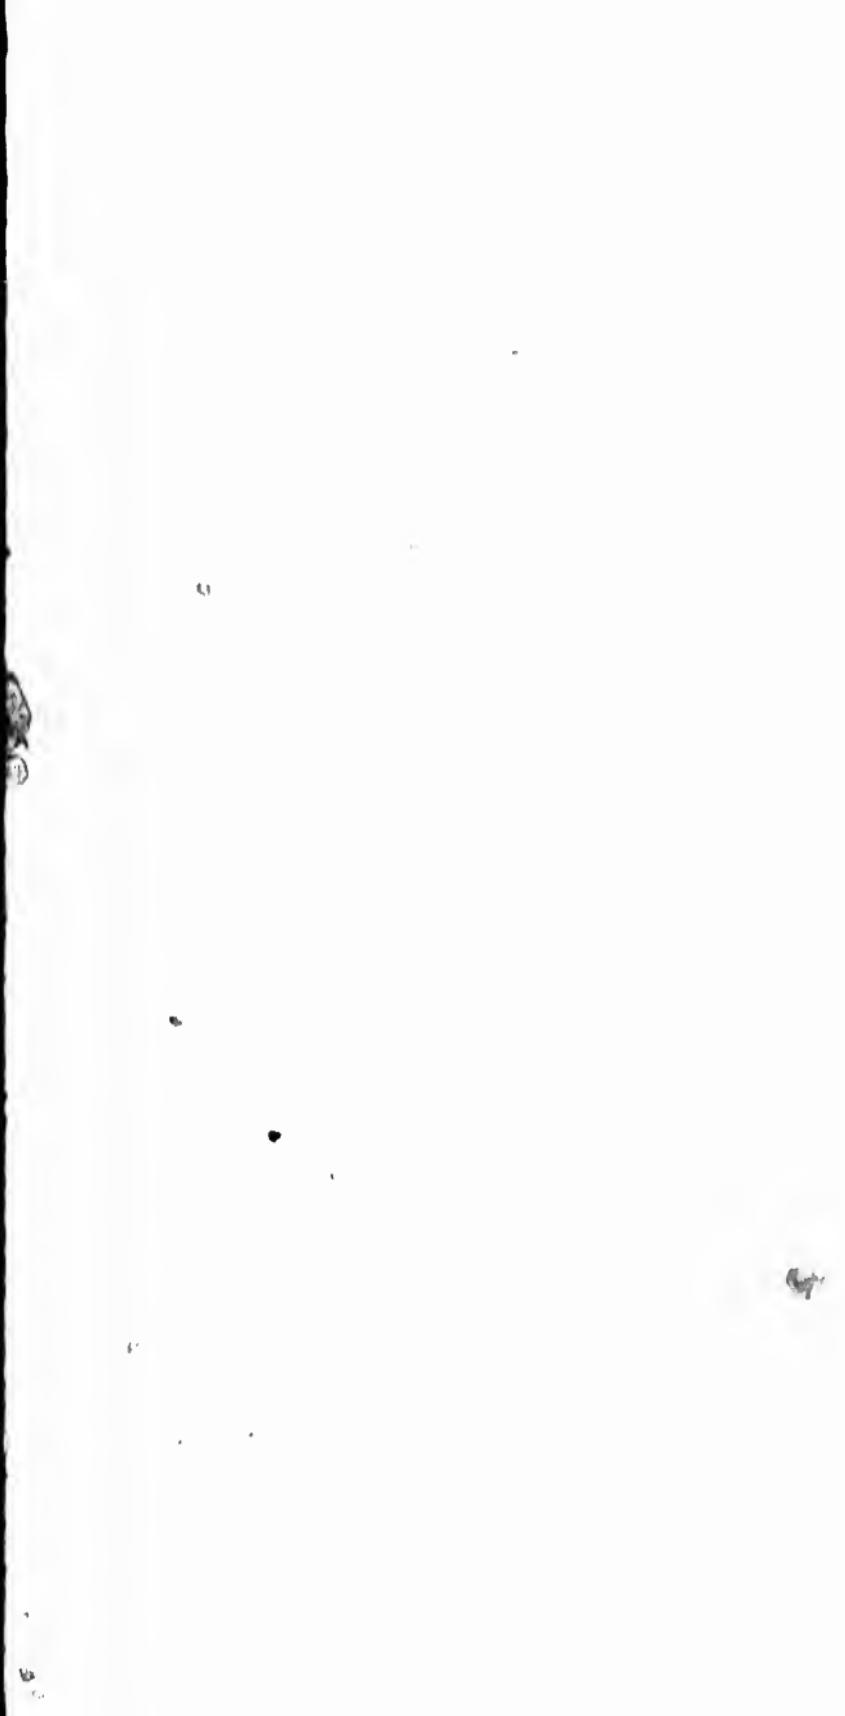

- 2 When sorrow bows the spirit down,
 Or virtue lies distress'd,
 Beneath the proud oppressor's frown
 Thou giv'st the mourner rest.
- 3 The Lord supports our infant days,
 And guides our giddy youth;
 Holy and just are all thy ways,
 And all thy words are truth.
- 4 Thou know'st the pains thy servants feel,
 Thou hear'st thy children cry;
 And their best wishes to fulfil,
 Thy grace is ever nigh.
- 5 Thy mercy never shall remove
 From men of heart sincere;
 Thou sav'st the soul whose humble love
 Is joined with holy fear.
- 6 My lips shall dwell upon thy praise,
 And spread thy fame abroad:
 Let all the sons of Adam raise
 The honours of their God !

WATTS.

1 MY Shepherd will supply my need
 Jehovah is his name;

In pastures fresh he makes me feed
Beside the living stream.

2 He brings my wandering spirit back,
When I forsake his ways:
And leads me for his mercy's sake,
In paths of truth and grace.

3 When I walk through the shades of death,
Thy presence is my stay;
A word of thy supporting breath,
Drives all my fears away.

4 Thy hand in spite of all my foes,
Doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows,
Thine oil anoints my head.

5 The sure provisions of my God,
Attend me all my days;
O may thy house be mine abode,
And all my work be praise.

S. M.

1 A LMIGHTY Maker, God,
How wondrous is thy name!
Thy glories how diffused abroad,
Through the creation's frame!

PROVIDENCE OF GOD.

2 Nature in every dress,
Her humble homage pays,
And finds a thousand ways t' express
Thine undissembled praise.

3 My soul would rise and sing
To her Creator too;
Fain would my tongue adore my King,
And pay the worship due.

4 Let joy and worship spend
The remnant of my days;
And to my God my soul ascend,
In sweet perfumes of praise.

WATTS.

1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations bow with sacred joy;
Know that the Lord is God alone,
He can create and he destroy.

2 His sov'reign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and form'd us men:
And when like wand'ring sheep we stray'd
He brought us to his fold again.

3 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;

Vast as eternity thy love;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

WATTS.

1 POOR and needy though I be,
God my Maker cares for me;
Gives me clothing, shelter, food,
Gives me all I have of good.

2 He will listen when I pray,
He is with me night and day,
When I sleep, and when I wake,
Keeps me safe for Jesus' sake.

3 He who reigns above the sky,
Once became as poor as I:
He whose blood for me was shed,
Had not where to lay his head.

4 Though I labour here awhile,
He will bless me with his smile:
And when this short life is past,
I shall rest with him at last.

STEELE.

1 FATHER of mercies in thy word
 What endless glory shines !
 For ever be thy name adored
 For these celestial lines.

2 Here may the wretched sons of want,
 Exhaustless riches find ;
 Riches above what earth can grant,
 And lasting as the mind.

3 Here the fair tree of knowledge grows,
 And yields a free repast,
 Sublimer sweets than nature knows,
 Invite the longing taste.

4 Here the Redeemer's welcome voice
 Spreads heavenly peace around ;
 And life and everlasting joys,
 Attend the blissful sound.

5 O may these heavenly pages be
 My ever dear delight ;

And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light!

6 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord,
Be thou forever near;
Teach me to love thy sacred word,
And view my Saviour there.

RIPPOX.

1 HOW precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears,
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp through all the tedious night
Of life shall guide our way;
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

23

WESLEY.

1 O THAT I, like Timothy,
Might the Holy Scriptures know,

From mine early infancy,
 Till for God mature I grow !
 Made unto salvation wise !
 Ready for the glorious prize.

- 2 Jesus, all-redeeming Lord,
 Full of truth, and full of grace,
 Make me understand thy word ;
 Teach me in my youthful days
 Wonders in thy word to see,
 Wise through faith which is in thee.

- 3 Open thou mine eyes of faith ;
 Open now the Book of God ;
 Show me here the sacred path
 Leading to thy bless'd abode ;
 Wisdom from above impart,
 Speak the meaning to my heart.

L. M.

24

TAYLOR

- 1 THIS is a precious book indeed !
 Happy the child who loves to read !
 'Tis God's own word which he has given
 To show our souls the way to heaven !
- 2 It tells us how the world was made,
 And how good men the Lord obey'd,

Here his commands are written too,
To teach us what we ought to do.

3 It bids us all from sin to fly,
Because our souls can never die;
It tells of heaven, where angels dwell,
And warns us to escape from hell.

4 But what is more than all beside,
The Bible tells us, Jesus died;
This is its best, its chief intent,
To lead poor sinners to repent.

5 Let us be thankful that we may,
Read this good Bible every day;
'Tis God's own word which he has given,
To show our souls the way to heaven.

S. M.

25

WATTS.

1 BEHOLD the morning sun
Begins his glorious way;
His beams through all the nations run,
And light and life convey.

2 But where the gospel comes,
It spreads diviner light!
It calls dead sinners from their tombs,
And gives the blind their sight.

THE SCRIPTURES.

29

3 How perfect is thy word,
And all thy judgments just!
Forever sure thy promise, Lord,
And men securely trust.

4 I hear thy word with love,
And I would fain obey;
Send thy good spirit from above,
To guide me lest I stray.

5 My gracious God ! how plain
Are thy directions given !
O may I never read in vain,
But learn my way to heaven !

S. M.

26

WATTA

1 THE praises of my tongue
I offer to the Lord,
That I was kindly taught so young
To read his holy word.

2 That I am brought to know
The danger I was in,
By nature, and by practice, too,
A wretched slave to sin.

3 That I am led to see
I can do nothing well:

And whither may a sinner flee,
To save himself from hell.

4 Great God, this book of thine
Informs me where to go
For grace to pardon all my sin,
And make me holy too.

5 Here I can read and learn
How Christ, the Son of God,
Did undertake our great concern:
Our ransom cost his blood.

6 O may his spirit teach,
And make my heart receive
Those truths which all thy servants preach,
And all thy saints believe.

C. M.

27

WESLEY.

1 FATHER of all in whom alone
We live, and move, and breathe,
One bright celestial ray dart down,
And cheer thy sons beneath.

2 While in thy word we search for thee,
(We search with trembling awe!)
Open our eyes and let us see
The wonders of thy law.

3 Now let our darkness comprehend
 The light that shines so clear;
 Now the revealing spirit send,
 And give us ears to hear.

4 Before us make thy goodness pass,
 Which here by faith we know:
 Let us in Jesus see thy face,
 And die to all below.

A. M.

28

WESLEY.

1 COME Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire,
 Let us thine influence prove;
 Source of the old prophetic fire,
 Fountain of Light and Love.

2 Come, Holy Ghost, (for moved by thee,
 The Prophets wrote and spoke,)
 Unlock the truth thyself the Key,
 Unseal the sacred book.

3 Expand thy wings, celestial Dove,
 Brood o'er our nature's night;
 On our disorder'd spirits move,
 And let there now be light.

4 God, through himself, we then shall know
 If thou within us shine;

And sound with all thy saints below,
The depths of love divine.

S. M.

1 BEHOLD the lofty sky
Declares its maker God;
And all his starry works on high,
Proclaim his power abroad.

2 The darkness and the light
Still keep their course the same,
While night to-day, and day to-night,
Divinely teach his name.

3 In every different land
Their general voice is known;
They show the wonders of his hand,
And orders of his throne.

4 But let us more rejoice,
That he reveals his word;
We are not left to nature's voice,
To bid us "know the Lord."

5 His statutes and commands
Are set before our eyes;
He puts his gospel in our hands,
Where our salvation lies.

6 His laws are just and pure,
 His truth without deceit;
 His promises for ever sure,
 And his rewards are great.

1 HOLY Bible! book divine!
 Precious treasure! thou art mine;
 Mine, to tell me whence I came;
 Mine, to teach me what I am.

2 Mine, to chide me when I rove;
 Mine, to show a Saviour's love;
 Mine art thou to guide my feet,
 Mine, to judge, condemn, acquit.

3 Mine, to comfort in distress,
 If the holy spirit bless:
 Mine, to show by living faith,
 Man can triumph over death.

4 Mine, to tell of joys to come,
 And the rebel sinner's doom;
 O thou precious book divine!
 Precious treasure! thou art mine.

Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me.—JOHN v. 39.

1 GREAT God, with wonder and with praise
 On all thy works I look;
 But still thy wisdom, power, and grace,
 Shine brightest in thy book.

2 The stars, that in their courses roll,
 Have much instruction given;
 But thy good word informs my soul
 How I may climb to heaven.

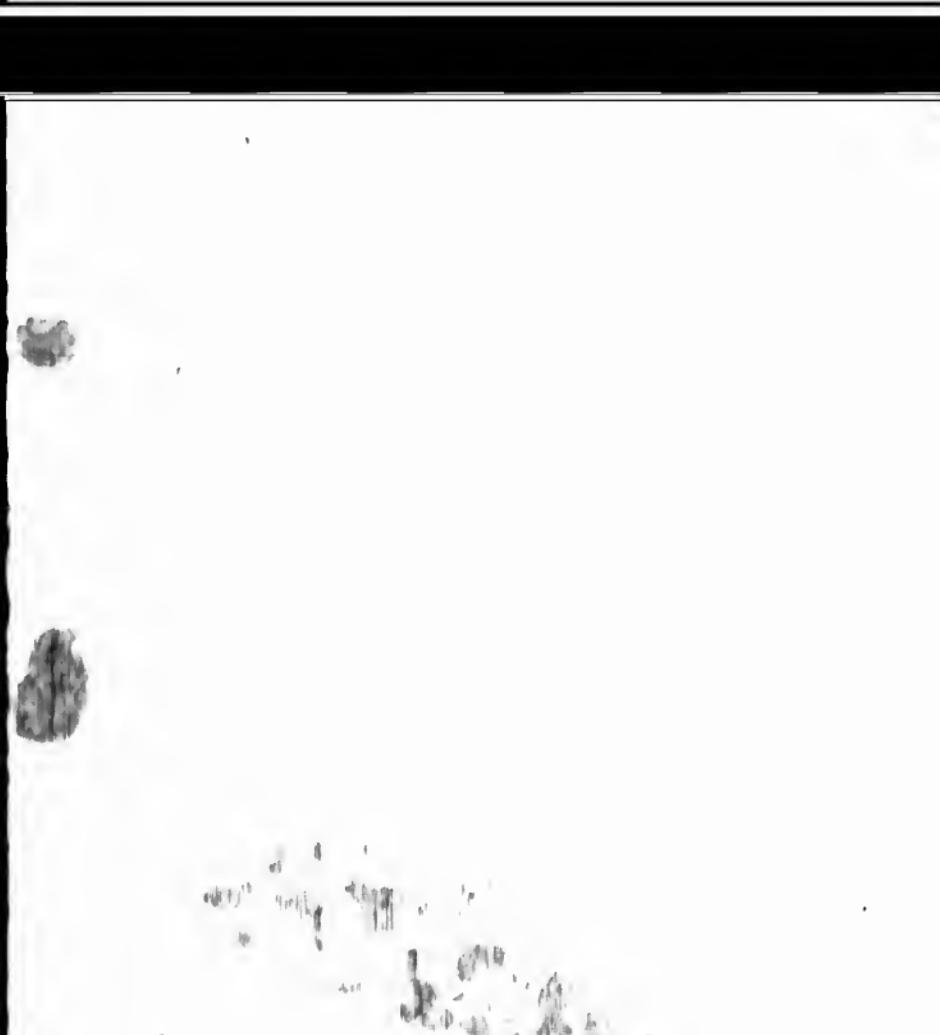

3 The fields provide me food, and show
 The goodness of the Lord:
 But fruits of life and glory grow
 In thy most holy word.

4 Lord, make me understand thy law,
 Show what my faults have been;
 And, from thy gospel, let me draw
 Pardon for all my sin.

5 Here would I learn how Christ hath died,
 To save my soul from hell;
 Not all the books on earth beside
 Such heavenly wonders tell.

The pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day to lead them in the way.—NEHEMIAH ix. 19.

- 1 WHEN Israel through the desert passed
A fiery pillar went before,
To guide them through the dreary waste,
And lessen the fatigues they bore.
- 2 Such is thy glorious word, O God,
'Tis for our light and guidance given;
It sheds a lustre all abroad,
And points the path to bliss and heaven.
- 3 It fills the soul with sweet delight,
And quickens its inactive powers,
It sets our wandering footsteps right,
Displays thy love and kindles ours.
- 4 Its promises rejoice our hearts,
Its doctrines are divinely true;
Knowledge and pleasure it imparts,
It comforts and instructs us too.

THE SABBATH.

STENNELL.

- 1 A NOTHER six days' work is done,
 Another Sabbath is begun;
 Return, my soul, enjoy the rest—
 Improve the day thy God has blessed.
- 2 O may our prayers and praises rise,
 As grateful incense to the skies;
 And draw from Heaven that sweet repose,
 Which none but he who feels it, knows.
- 3 This heavenly calm, within the breast,
 Prepares for that eternal rest,
 Which for the sons of God remains,
 The end of cares, the end of pains.
- 4 In holy duties let the day
 In holy pleasures pass away;
 How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
 In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

C. M.

S. WESLEY.

- 1 THE Lord of Sabbath, let us praise,
 In concert with the bless'd;

Who, joyful in harmonious lays,
Employ an endless rest.

2 Thus, Lord, while we remember thee,
We blest and pious grow;
By hymns of praise we learn to be
Triumphant here below.

3 On this glad day a brighter scene
Of glory was display'd
By God th' eternal Word, than when
This universe was made.

4 He rises, who mankind hath bought
With grief and pain extreme;
'Twas great to speak the world from naught,
'Twas greater to redeem.

So early from the dead.

And love my sins so well?

3 To-day with pleasure Christians meet,
 To pray and hear thy word;
 And I would go with cheerful feet
 To learn thy will, O Lord.

 And so prepare for heaven;
 O may I love this blessed day
 The best of all the seven.

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it —PSALM cxviii. 24.

1 THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
 He calls the hours his own;
 Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
 And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day he rose and left the dead
 And Satan's empire fell;
 To-day the saints his triumphs spread,
 And all his wonders tell.

3 Hosannah to the anointed King;
 To David's holy son;
 Help us, O Lord; descend, and bring
 Salvation from thy throne.

4 Hosannah ! in the highest strains
 The church on earth can raise;
 The highest heavens in which he reigns,
 Shall give him nobler praise.

L. M.

TAYLOR.

1 THIS day belongs to God alone,
 He chose the Sabbath for his own;
 And we must neither work nor play,
 Because it is God's holy day.

2 'Tis well to have one day in seven,
 That we may learn the way to heaven;
 Then let us spend it as we should,
 In serving God and growing good.

3 We ought, to-day, to learn and seek,
 What we may think of all the week;
 And be the better every day,
 For what we hear our teacher say.

4 And every Sabbath should be passed
 As if we knew it were our last:
 What would the dying sinner give
 To have one Sabbath more to live !

1 TAHUS far we're spared again to meet
Before Jehovah's mercy seat;
To seek his face, to praise and pray,
And hail another Sabbath day.

2 Let every tongue its silence break,
Let every tongue his goodness speak,
Who deigns his glory to display
On each returning Sabbath day.

Redeeming the time. —EPHESIANS V. 16.

1 SEE, another week is gone !
Quickly have the minutes passed;
That we enter now upon
May to some here prove their last;
Mercy hitherto has spared,
But have mercies been improved ?
Let us ask, are we prepared,
Should we be this week removed ?

2 If from guilt and sin set free,
By the knowledge of thy grace,
Welcome then the call will be,
To depart and see thy face.

To thy saints while here below,
 With new days, new mercies come,
 But the happiest day they know,
 Is their last, which leads them home.

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord.—PSALM v. 3.

- 1 A SSEMBLED in our school once more,
 O Lord, thy blessing we implore;
 We meet to read, and sing and pray—
 Be with us then, throughout this day.
- 2 Our fervent prayer to thee ascends,
 For parents, teachers, foes and friends;
 And when we in thy house appear,
 Help us to worship in thy fear.
- 3 When we on earth shall meet no more,
 May we above to glory soar,
 And praise thee in more lofty strains,
 Where one eternal Sabbath reigns.

In all places where I record my name, I will come unto thee,
 and I will bless thee.—Exodus xx. 12.

- 1 H OLY Saviour! thou hast told us,
 When we meet to hear of thee,

In thy love thou wilt behold us,
And amongst us thou wilt be.

2 Lord of hosts ! to seek thy blessing,
We are gathered here to-day;
Help us, all our sins confessing;
Saviour teach us now to pray.

3 May the words we hear, direct us
How to learn and do thy will;
May the Spirit's aid protect us,
And with faith our bosoms fill !

4 Grant that we may love each other,
Mindful of thy holy word,—
He that loveth not his brother
Surely cannot love the Lord.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

42

WATTE

1 L ORD, how delightful 'tis to see
A whole assembly worship thee !
At once they sing, at once they pray;
They hear of heaven and learn the way.

2 I have been there, and still would go,
 'Tis like a little heaven below;
 Not all my pleasures and my play
 Shall tempt me to forget this day.

3 O write upon my memory, Lord,
 The texts and doctrines of thy word;
 That I may break thy laws no more,
 But love thee better than before.

4 With thoughts of Christ, and things divine,
 Fill up this foolish heart of mine;
 That, hoping pardon through his blood,
 I may lie down and wake with God.

L. M.

43

DODDRIDGE

1 L ORD of the Sabbath ! hear us pray,
 In this thy house on this thy day;
 Accept as grateful sacrifice,
 The songs which from thy servants rise.

2 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love;
 But there's a nobler rest above;
 O that we might that rest attain,
 From sin, from sorrow, and from pain !

3 In thy bless'd kingdom we shall be
 From every mortal trouble free !

No groans shall mingle with the songs,
Resounding from immortal tongues.

- 4 No rude alarms of raging foes;
No cares to break the long repose;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun;
But sacred, high, eternal noon.
- 5 O Long-expected day, begin!
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
So shall we leave this weary road,
To sleep in death, and rest with God.

44

E. E.

- 1 A WAKE, my soul, and with the sun,
The daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and early rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Redeem thy misspent moments past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Thy talents to improve take care,
And for thy last account prepare.
- 3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
For God's all-seeing eye surveys
Thy secret thoughts, thy words, and ways.

- 4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
 Scatter my sins as morning dew,
 Guard my first spring of thought and will,
 And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
 All I design, or do, or say:
 That all my powers, with all their might,
 In thy sole glory may unite.

C. M.

45

- 1 WHY should I love my sport so well,
 So constant at my play,
 And lose the thoughts of heaven and hell
 And then forget to pray ?
- 2 What do I read my Bible for,
 But, Lord, to learn thy will ?
 And shall I daily know thee more,
 And less obey thee still ?
- 3 How senseless is this heart, and wild !
 How vain are all my thoughts !
 Pity the weakness of a child,
 And pardon all my faults.
- 4 Make me thy heavenly voice to hear,
 And let me love to pray ;
 Since God will lend a gracious ear
 To what a child can say.

P. M.

1 TO thee, O blessed Saviour,
 Our grateful songs we raise;
 O tune our hearts and voices
 Thy holy name to praise;
 'Tis by thy sovereign mercy
 We're here allow'd to meet;
 To join with friends and teachers,
 Thy blessing to intreat.

2 Lord, guide and bless our teachers
 Who labour for our good;
 And may the holy Scriptures
 By us be understood:
 O may our hearts be given
 To thee, our glorious King;
 That we may meet in heaven,
 Thy praises there to sing.

3 And may the precious gospel
 Be publish'd all abroad,
 Till poor benighted heathen
 Shall know and serve the Lord;
 Till o'er the wide creation
 The rays of truth shall shine,
 And nations now in darkness,
 Arise to light divine.

MONTGOMERY.

1 TO thy temple I repair,
 Lord, I love to worship there,

Heavenly Father, give me grace,
In thy courts to seek thy face.

- 2 While thy glorious praise is sung,
Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord my righteousness.
- 3 While the prayers of saints ascend,
God of love to mine attend;
Hear me, for thy spirit pleads,
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.
- 4 While I hearken to thy law,
Fill my soul with humble awe,
Till thy gospel brings to me
Life and immortality.
- 5 While thy ministers proclaim
Peace and pardon in thy name,
Through thy voice, by faith may I
Hear Thee speaking from on high.
- 6 From thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn,
And at evening let me say,
I have walked with God to-day.

1 LORD of the worlds above !
 How pleasant and how fair,
 The dwellings of thy love,
 Thy earthly temples, are !
 To thine abode My heart aspires,
 With warm desires To see my God.

2 O happy souls that pray
 Where God delights to hear !
 O happy men that pay
 Their constant service there !
 They praise thee still: And happy they
 Who love the way To Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each o'ercomes at length,
 Till each in heaven appears:
 O glorious seat ! Thou God our King,
 Shall thither bring Our willing feet.

4 God is our sun, and shield,
 Our light and our defence;
 With gifts his hands are filled,
 We draw our blessings thence;
 He shall bestow Upon our race,
 His saving grace, And glory too.

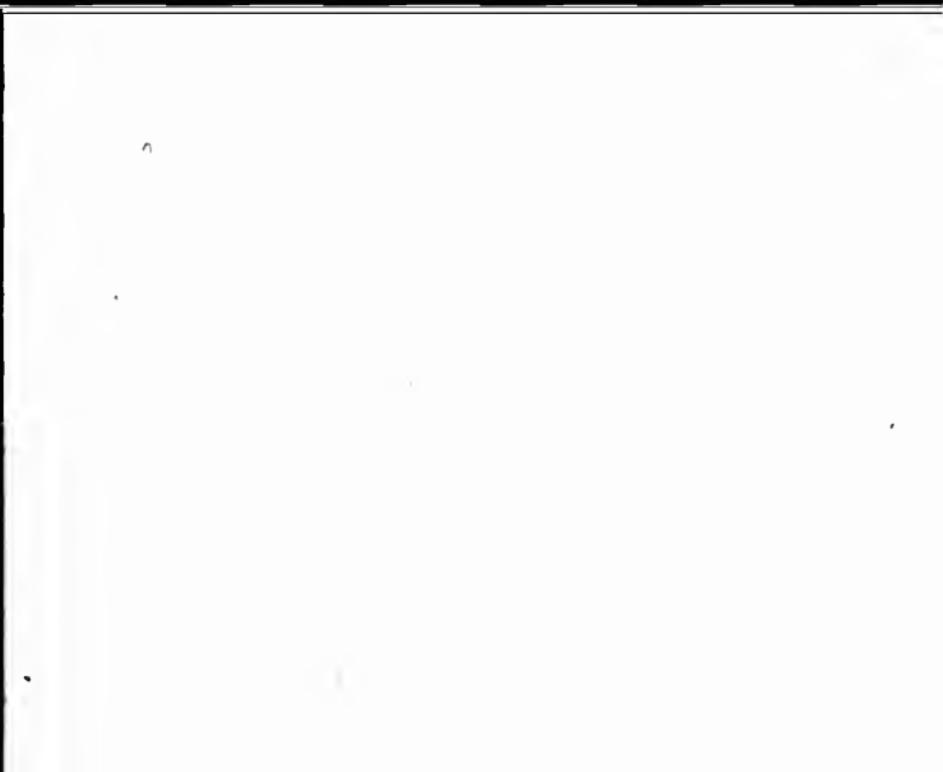

5 The Lord his people loves;
 His hand no good withholds
 From those his heart approves,
 From holy, humble souls:
 Thrice happy he, O Lord of hosts,
 Whose spirit trusts alone in thee !

All thy children shall be taught of the Lord: and great shall be the peace of thy children.—ISAIAH liv. 13.

- 1 GREAT Saviour, who didst descend,
 Young children in thine arms to take,
 Still prove thyself the children's friend,
 And save us for thy mercy sake.
- 2 'Tis by the guidance of thy hand,
 That we within thy house appear:
 Now in thine awful presence stand,
 To hear thy word and join in prayer.
- 3 Like precious seed in fruitful ground,
 Let the instructions we receive,
 With fruits of righteousness abound,
 And make us to thy glory live.
- 4 Then, through the slippery paths of youth,
 Be thou our guardian and our guide;

That we, directed by the truth,
May never from thy precepts slide.

- 5 To read thy word our hearts incline,
To understand it, light impart;
Great Saviour, may we all be thine,
Take full possession of each heart.

C. M.

50

But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy.—PSALM v. 7.

- 1 OUR feeble voices, Lord, we raise,
Before thy gracious throne;
Oh tune our hearts to sing thy praise,
For all thy mercies shown.

- 2 Thy watchful eye, thy guardian hand,
Support us every hour;
And in thy house this day we stand,
Thy goodness to adore.

- 3 Incline our hearts to seek thy face,
The Saviour's name to love;
And form us, by Almighty grace,
For nobler praise above.

S. M.

51

1 COME, sound his praise abroad,
 And hymns of glory sing:
 Jehovah is the sovereign God,
 The universal King.

2 He form'd the deeps unknown:
 He gave the seas their bound;
 The watery worlds are all his own,
 And all the solid ground.

3 Come, worship at his throne:
 Come, bow before the Lord:
 We are his works and not our own;
 He form'd us by his word.

4 To-day attend his voice,
 Nor dare provoke his rod;
 Come, as the people of his choice,
 And own your gracious God.

WESLEY.

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.—PSALM cxii. 1.

1 LORD, help my youthful heart to raise
 A morning song of grateful praise,
 For all thy guardian care,

Which kept me safe through every hour,
Protected by Almighty power,
From death, distress and fear.

2 Thy boundless love has led my way,
And brought me to this sacred day,
The Sabbath of my Lord:
To his blest courts I now repair,
The house of God, of praise, and prayer,
To hear His holy word.

3 Impress my mind with solemn awe,
And on it write thy heavenly law,
And shed thy love abroad;
Convinced by grace of all my sin,
Pardon and make me pure within,
My Saviour and my God.

OUR FALL IN ADAM, AND REDEMPTION IN CHRIST.

53

WATTS.

Praise to the Redeemer.

- 1 PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
 We wretched sinners lay,
 Without one cheerful beam of hope,
 Or spark of glimmering day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of Peace
 Beheld our helpless grief;
 He saw, and — O amazing love !
 He flew to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above,
 With joyful haste he fled;
 Enter'd the grave in mortal flesh,
 And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O for this love let rocks and hills
 Their lasting silence break,
 And all harmonious human tongues,
 The Saviour's praises speak !
- 5 Angels assist our mighty joys,
 Strike all your harps of gold;

But when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.

4-6's and 2-8's.

54

WESLEY.

1 LET earth and heaven agree,
Angels and men be join'd,
To celebrate with me,
The Saviour of mankind;
T' adore the all-atoning Lamb,
And bless the sound of Jesus' name.

2 Jesus! transporting sound!
The joy of earth and heaven:
No other help is found,
No other name is given,
By which we can salvation have;
But Jesus came the world to save.

3 Jesus! harmonious name
It charms the hosts above.
They evermore proclaim,
And wonder at his love;
'Tis all their happiness to gaze,
'Tis heaven to see our Jesus' face.

4 His name the sinner hears,
And is from sin set free,

'Tis music in his ears,
 'Tis life and victory;
 New songs do now his lips employ,
 And dances his glad heart for joy.

1 THREE is a fountain filled with blood,
 Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
 And sinners plunged beneath that flood,
 Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
 That fountain in his day;
 And there may I, though vile as he,
 Wash all my sins away!

10's and 11's.

1 LET children proclaim their Saviour and King,
 To Jesus' name hosannas we sing:
 Our best adoration to Jesus we give,
 Who purchased salvation for us to receive.

2 The meek Lamb of God from heaven came down,
 To ransom with blood and make us his own;
 He patiently suffer'd our souls to redeem;
 Let songs then be offer'd to Jesus' name

3 To him let us give our earliest days,
 And thankfully live to publish his praise;
 Our lives shall confess him who came from above;
 Our tongues ever bless him, and tell of his love

WATTS.

1 A LAS! and did my Saviour bleed;
And did my Sovereign die?
 Would he devote that sacred head
 For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done,
 He groan'd upon the tree!
 Amazing pity! grace unknown!
 And love beyond degree.

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
 And shut his glories in,
 When Christ, the mighty Maker, died
 For man the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
 While His dear cross appears;
 Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
 And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself to thee
"Tis all that I can do.

DUNCAN

1 ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small!
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go — spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 Children and sires, who know his love,
Who feel your sin and thrall,
Now join with all the hosts above,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, ev'ry tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,

To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

- 6 O that with yonder sacred throng,
We at His feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

WESLEY.

1 JESUS, the name high over all,
In hell, or earth, or sky;
Angels and men before it fall,
And devils fear and fly.

2 Jesus the name to sinners dear,
The name to sinners given;
It scatters all their guilty fear;
It turns their hell to heaven.

3 Jesus the prisoner's fetters breaks,
And bruises Satan's head;
Power into helpless souls he speaks,
And life unto the dead.

4 O that the world might taste and see
The riches of His grace;
The arms of love that compass me,
Would all mankind embrace.

WESLEY

- 1 GLORY be to God on high,
 G God, whose glory fills the sky;
 Peace on earth to man forgiven,
 Man, the well-beloved of heaven.
- 2 Sovereign Father, heavenly King,
 Thee we now presume to sing;
 Glad thine attributes confess,
 Glorious all, and numberless.
- 3 Hail, by all thy works adored !
 Hail, the everlasting Lord !
 Thee with thankful hearts we prove,
 God of power and God of love.
- 4 Christ our Lord and God we own,
 Christ, the Father's only son,
 Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
 Saviour of offending man.
- 5 Bow thine ear in mercy bow,
 Hear the word's atonement, thou !
 Jesus, in thy name we pray,
 Take, O take our sins away !

C. M.

MEDLEY.

- 1 MORTALS, awake, with angels join,
 And chant the solemn lay !

Joy, love, and gratitude combine
To hail the auspicious day.

- 2 Hark ! the cherub armies shout,
And glory leads the song:
Good will and peace are heard throughout
The harmonious heavenly throng.
- 3 With joy the choruses we'll repeat,
"Glory to God on high;"
"Good-will and peace" are now complete,
Jesus was born to die.
- 4 Hail, Prince of Life ! for ever hail,
Redeemer, Brother, Friend !
Though earth and time, and life should fail,
Thy praise shall never end.

WATTS.

1 HOW sad our state by nature is !
Our sin how deep it stains !
And Satan binds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.

2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace
Sounds from the sacred word,
"Ho ! ye despairing sinners come,
And trust upon the Lord."

AND REDEMPTION IN CHRIST.

- 3 My soul obeys th' Almighty's call,
And runs to this relief:
I would believe thy promise, Lord!
O help my unbelief.
- 4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
Into thine arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness,
My Jesus, and my All.

63

WATTS.

For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.—PSALM ii. 8.

- 1 L ORD, we are vile, conceived in sin,
And born unholy and unclean;
Sprung from the man whose guilty fall
Corrupts the race, and taints us all.
- 2 Soon as we draw our infant breath,
The seeds of sin grow up for death;
Thy law demands a perfect heart;
But we're defiled in every part.
- 3 Behold we fall before thy face;
Our only refuge is thy grace;
No outward forms can make us clean,
The leprosy lies deep within.

4 When guilt disturbs and breaks our peace,
 Nor flesh, nor soul, hath rest or ease;
 Lord, let us hear thy pardoning voice,
 And bid our mournful hearts rejoice.

C. M.

64

WATTS.

1 COME, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
 With all thy quick'ning powers !
 Kindle a flame of sacred love,
 In these cold hearts of ours.

2 In vain we tune our formal songs,
 In vain we strive to rise;
 Hosannas languish on our tongues,
 And our devotion dies.

3 Great God ! and shall we ever live,
 At this poor dying rate;
 Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
 And thine to us so great.

4 Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
 With all thy quick'ning powers !
 Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
 And that shall kindle ours.

And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them and blessed them.—MARK X. 6.

1 SEE, Israel's gentle Shepherd stands
With all engaging charms;
Hark, how he calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in his arms.

2 "Permit them to approach," he cries,
Nor scorn their humble name;
For I was to bless such souls as these
The Lord of angels came.

3 He'll lead us to the heavenly streams,
Where living waters flow;
And guide us to the fruitful fields,
Where trees of knowledge grow.

4 The feeblest lamb amidst the flock,
Shall be its Shepherd's care;
While folded in the Saviour's arms,
We're safe from every snare.

1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs,
With angels round the throne;

Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus:

Worthy the Lamb! our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

3 Jesus is worthy to receive.

Honour and power divine!
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.

4 The whole creation join in one

To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

WESLEY.

Who is this King of Glory? the Lord of hosts, he is the King of Glory.—PSALM xxiv. 10.

1 OUR Lord is risen from the dead,
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
The powers of hell are captive led,
Dragg'd to the portals of the sky.

2 There his triumphant chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay,—

Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates,
Ye everlasting doors give way!"

3 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the radiant scene;
He claims those mansions as his right;
Receive the King of Glory in.

4 "Who is the King of Glory ?" Who ?
The Lord, that all his foes o'ercame;
The world, sin, death, and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the conqueror's name.

5 Lo ! his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay,—
"Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates,
Ye everlasting doors give way."

6 "Who is the King of Glory ?" Who ?
The Lord, of boundless power possessed,
The King of saints and angels, too,
God, over all, for ever blessed.

By the grace of God, I am what I am.—Cor. xv. 10.

1 COME thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace:

Streams of mercy never ceasing,
 Call for songs of loudest praise.
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He, to save my soul from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood.

2 O ! to grace how great a debtor,
 Daily I'm constrained to be !
 Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee,
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
 Prone to leave the God I love,
 Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it,
 Seal it for thy courts above.

ROBINSON.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me
 beside the still waters.—PSALM xxxiii. 2.

1 SHEPHERD of thy little flock,
 Lead me to the shadowing rock:
 Where the richest pastures grow,
 Where the living waters flow.

2 By that pure and silent stream,
 Sheltered from the scorching beam,

Shepherd, Saviour, Guardian, Guide,
Keep me ever near thy side!

WESLEY.

- 1 O SUN of Righteousness, arise,
With healing in thy wing!
To my diseased, my fainting soul,
Life and salvation bring.
- 2 These clouds of pride and sin dispel,
By thy all-piercing beam;
Lighten mine eyes with faith, my heart
With holy hope inflame.
- 3 My mind, by thy all quick'ning power,
From low desires set free;
Unite my scatter'd thoughts, and fix
My love entire on thee.
- 4 Father, thy long-lost son receive;
Saviour, thy purchase own;
Bless'd comforter with peace an' joy
Thy new-made creature crown.
- 5 Eternal, undivided, Lord,
Co-equal one and three!
On thee all faith, all hope be placed,
All love be paid to thee!

SECTION VI.

REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

S. M.

71

WESLEY.

1 O THAT I could repent;
 With all my idols part,
 And to thy gracious eye present
 An humble, contrite heart !
 A heart with grief oppress'd
 For having griev'd my God ;
 A troubled heart that cannot rest,
 Till sprinkled with thy blood.

2 Jesus on me bestow
 The penitent desire ;
 With true sincerity of wo ,
 My aching breast inspire :
 With softening pity look ,
 And melt my hardness down ;
 Strike with thy love's resistless stroke ,
 And break this heart of stone !

C. M.

72

WESLEY.

1 O FOR that tenderness of heart
 Which bows before the Lord,

Acknowledging how just thou art,
 And trembling at thy word !
 O for those humble, contrite tears,
 Which from repentance flow ;
 That consciousness of guilt which fears
 The long-suspended blow

2 Saviour, to me in pity give
 The sensible distress ;
 The pledge thou wilt at last receive ,
 And bid me die in peace :
 Wilt from the dreadful day remove ,
 Before the evil come ;
 My spirit hide with saints above ,
 My body in the tomb .

1 O THAT I could my Lord receive ,
 Who did the world redeem ;
 Who gave his life that I might live ,
 A life conceal'd in him .

2 O that I could the blessing prove
 My heart's extreme desire ;
 Live happy in my Saviour's love ,
 And in his arms expire !

- 3 Mercy I ask to seal my peace,
 That, kept by mercy's power,
 I may from every evil cease,
 And never grieve thee more.
- 4 In answer to ten thousand prayers,
 Thou pardoning God, descend;
 Number me with salvation's heirs,
 My sins and troubles end.

- 5 Nothing I ask or want beside,
 Of all in earth or heaven;
 But let me feel thy blood applied,
 And live and die forgiven.

1 SAVIOUR, Prince of Israel's race,
 See me from thy lofty throne;
 Give the sweet renewing grace,
 Soften this obdurate stone !
 Stone to flesh, O God, convert,
 Cast a look and break my heart !

2 By thy Spirit, Lord, reprove !
 All my inmost sins reveal;
 Sins against thy light and love,
 Let me see, and let me feel;

Sins that crucified my God,
Spilt again thy precious blood.

- 3 Might I in thy sight appear,
As the publican distress'd;
Stand, not daring to draw near;
Smite on my unworthy breast;
Groan the sinner's only plea,
"God be merciful to me!"
- 4 O remember me for good,
Passing through the mortal vale;
Show me the atoning blood,
When my strength and spirit fail.
Give my gasping soul to see
Jesus crucified for me.

- 1 A UTHOR of faith, to thee I cry,
To thee, who would'st not have me die,
But know the truth and live;
Open mine eyes to see thy face,
Work in my heart the saving grace,
The life eternal give.
- 2 Shut up in unbelief, I groan,
And blindly serve a God unknown,

Till thou the veil remove;
The gift unspeakable impart,
And write thy name upon my heart,
And manifest thy love.

3 Thou bid'st us knock and enter in,
Come unto thee and rest from sin,
The blessing seek and find:
Thou bid'st us ask thy grace; and have;
Thou can'st, thou would'st this moment save
Both me and all mankind.

4 Be it according to thy word;
Now let me find my pard'ning Lord;
Let what I ask be given;
The bar of unbelief remove,
Open the door of faith and love,
And take me into heaven.

1 COME, let us who in Christ believe,
Our common Saviour praise;
To him with joyful voices give
The glory of his grace.

2 He now stands knocking at the door
Of every sinner's heart;

The worst need keep him out no more,
Or force him to depart.

3 Through grace we hearken to thy voice,
Yield to be saved from sin;
In sure and certain hope rejoice
That thou wilt enter in.

4 Come quickly in, thou heavenly Guest,
Nor ever hence remove;
But sup with us, and let the feast
Be everlasting love.

WESLEY

1 O THAT I could repent;
O that I could believe!
Thou by thy voice the marble rent.
The rock in sunder cleave;
Thou by thy two-edge sword,
My soul and spirit part;
Strike with the hammer of thy word,
And break my stubborn heart!

2 Saviour, and Prince of Peace,
The ~~old~~ grace bestow;
Unloose the bands of wickedness,
And let the captive go;

Grant me my sins to feel,
 And then the load remove;
 Wound, and pour in, my wounds to heal,
 The balm of pard'ning love.

3 This is thy will, I know,
 That I should holy be,
 Should let my sin this moment go;
 This moment turn to thee;
 O might I now embrace
 Thy all-sufficient power,
 And never more to sin give place,
 And never grieve thee more.

S. M.

78

WESLEY

1 SPIRIT of faith, come down,
 Reveal the things of God;
 And make to us the Godhead known,
 And witness with the blood;
 'Tis thine the blood t' apply,
 And give us eyes to see,
 Who did for every sinner die.
 Hath surely died for me.

2 Inspire the living faith,
 Which whosoe'er receives,

The witness in himself he hath,
 And consciously believes;
 The faith that conquers all,
 And doth the mountain move,
 And saves whoe'er on Jesus call,
 And perfects them in love.

WATTS.

- 1 FATHER, I stretch my hands to thee,
 No other help I know;
 If thou withdraw thyself from me,
 Ah! whither shall I go?
- 2 What did thy only son endure
 Before I drew my breath;
 What pain, what labour, to secure
 My soul from endless death.
- 3 O Jesus, could I this believe,
 I now should feel thy power;
 Now all my wants thou wouldst relieve
 In this, the accepted hour.
- 4 Author of Faith, to thee I lift
 My weary, longing eyes,
 O let me now receive that gift
 My soul without it dies.

5 Surely thou canst not let me die;
 O speak and I shall live !
 For here I will unwearied lie
 Till thou thy Spirit give.

6 How would my fainting soul rejoice
 Could I but see thy face !
 Now let me hear thy quick'ning voice,
 And taste thy pard'nning grace !

L. M.

WESLEY.

1 O THOU that hangedst on the tree,
 Our curse and sufferings to remove,
 Pity the souls that look to thee,
 And save us by thy dying love.

2 We have no outward righteousness,
 No merits or good works to plead ;
 We only can be saved by grace ;
 Thy grace will here be free indeed.

3 Save us by grace, through faith alone,
 A faith thou must thyself impart,
 A faith that would by works be shown,
 A faith that purifies the heart.

4 A faith that doth the mountains move,
 A faith that shows our sins forgiven ;

A faith that sweetly works by love,
And ascertains our claim to heaven.

5 This is the faith we humbly seek.—

The faith in all thy cleansing blood;
That blood which doth for sinners speak;
O let it speak us up to God !

1 ETERNAL Spirit, we confess
And sing the wonders of thy grace;
Thy power conveys our blessings down,

2 Enlightened by the heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;
Now our imperious will subdue,
And form our sinful hearts anew.

Thy cheering word awakes our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,

Fill me full of heaven and love.

Lead me to the Lamb of God,
Wash me in his precious blood.

3 Life and peace to me impart;
Seal salvation on my heart;
Breathe thyself into my breast,
Earnest of immortal rest.

Keep me in the narrow way;
Fill my soul with joy divine,
Keep me, Lord, for ever thine.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons

1 COME, gracious Spirit, source of love,
With light and comfort from above;
Be thou our guardian, thou our guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.

2 O turn us with a father's care,
From every sin and hurtful snare;
Lead to thy word, that rules must give,

3 The light of truth to us display,
And make us know and choose thy way;

THE HOLY SPIRIT'S INFLUENCE. . 81

Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.

- 4 Lead us to holiness, the road
That we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,

- 5 Lead us to God, our final rest,
In his enjoyment to be blest;
Lead us to heaven, the seat of bliss,
Where pleasure in perfection is.

The Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things.—JOHN xiv. 26.

1 THE Spirit breathes upon the word,

A sanctifying light.

2 A glory gilds the sacred page,

3 The land that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat;

82 THE HOLY SPIRIT'S INFLUENCE.

How much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? — LUKE xi. 13.

1 G REAT God, behold before thy throne
A band of children lowly bend;
Thy face we seek, thy name we own,
And pray that thou wouldest be our friend.

2 Thy Holy Spirit's aid impart,
That he may teach us how to pray;
Make us sincere, and let each heart
Delight to tread in wisdom's way.

3 O let thy grace our souls renew,
And seal a sense of pardon there;
Teach us thy will to know and do,
And let us all thine image bear.

SECTION VIII.

THE IMPORTANCE OF EARLY PIETY.

L.M.

88

- 1 WE are but young — yet we may sing
The praises of our Heavenly King;
He made the earth, the sea, the sky,
And all the starry worlds on high.
- 2 We are but young — yet we have heard
The gospel news, the heavenly word;
If we despise the only way,
Dreadful will be the judgment day.
- 3 We are but young — yet we must die,
Perhaps our latter end is nigh;
Lord, may we early seek thy grace,
And find in Christ a hiding place.
- 4 We are but young — we need a guide;
Jesus, in thee we will confide;
O lead us in the path of truth,—
Protect and bless our helpless youth.
- 5 We are but young — yet God has shed
Unnumbered blessings on our head;
Then let our youth and riper days
Be all devoted to his praise.

1 COME, let us join the hosts above,
 Now in our youngest days;
 Remember our Creator's love,
 And lisp our Father's praise.

2 His Majesty will not despise
 The day of feeble things;
 Grateful the songs of children rise,
 And please the King of kings.

3 He loves to be remembered thus,
 And honoured for his grace;
 Out of the mouths of babes like us,
 His wisdom perfects praise.

4 Glory to God, and praise, and power,
 Honour and thanks be given!
 Children and cherubim adore
 The Lord of earth and heaven.

1 WHAT blest examples do I find
 Writ in the word of truth,
 Of children that began to mind
 Religion in their youth.

- 2 Jesus, who reigns above the sky,
 And keeps the world in awe,
 Was once a child as young as I,
 And kept his Father's law.
- 3 At twelve years old he talk'd with men,
 (His parents wondering stand)
 Yet he obeyed his mother then,
 And came at her command.
- 4 Children their loud hosannas sung,
 And blessed their Saviour's name;
 They gave him honour with their tongue,
 While scribes and priests blaspheme.
- 5 Samuel the child was wean'd and taught
 To wait upon the Lord,
 Young Timothy betimes was brought
 To know his holy word.
- 6 Then why should I so long delay
 What others learned so young?
 Let me not pass another day
 Without his work begun.

WATTS

1 HAPPY the child whose tender years
 Receive instruction well;

Who hates the sinner's path, and fears
The road that leads to hell.

2 When we devote our youth to God,
'Tis pleasing in his eyes;
A flower, when offered in the bud,
Is no vain sacrifice.

3 Twill save us from a thousand shares
To mind religion young;
Grace will preserve our following years
And make our virtue strong.

4 To thee, Almighty God, to thee
Our childhood we resign;
'Twill please us to look back and see
That our whole lives were thine.

5 Let the sweet work of prayer and praise
Employ our youngest breath;
Thus we're prepared for longer days,
Or fit for early death.

1 HAPPY Samuel, to his God
In his infancy restored;
In his Maker's house he stood,
Ministring before the Lord;

Happy child, who gained a place,
 To his heavenly Lord so near !
 Happier still who found the grace
 God's majestic voice to hear !

2 Lord of earth and skies, again
 To a child thyself make known;
 Chosen from the sons of men,
 Make me thine, and thine alone;
 Thine, O Lord, I surely am,
 But to me unknown thou art;
 Come, and call me by my name,
 Whisper to my list'ning heart.

3 Stir me up to seek thy face,
 Claim me in my tender years;
 Manifest the word of grace,
 Speak, for now thy servant hears.
 Now thy gracious self reveal,
 Speak in power and peace divine;
 Pardon on my conscience seal,
 Seal thy child forever thine.

1 Y E hearts with youthful vigour warm,
 In smiling crowds draw near;
 And turn from every mortal charm
 The Saviour's voice to hear.

- 2 The Lord of all the worlds on high
 Stoops to converse with you:
 And lays his radiant glories by,
 Your friendship to pursue.
- 3 "The soul that longs to see my face,
 Is sure my love to gain;
 And those that early seek my grace
 Shall never seek in vain."
- 4 What object, Lord, my soul should move,
 If once compared with thee ?
 What beauty should command my love
 Like what in Christ I see ?
- 5 Away, ye false, delusive joys,
 Vain tempters of the mind;
 'Tis here I fix my lasting choice,
 For here true bliss I find.

- 1 BESET with snares on every hand,
 In life's uncertain path I stand;
 Saviour divine ! diffuse thy light,
 To guide my youthful steps aright.
- 2 Engage this frail and wavering heart
 Wisely to choose the better part:

To scorn the trifles of a day,
For joys that never fade away.

- 3 Then let the wildest storms arise,
Let tempests mingle earth and skies,
No fatal shipwreck shall I fear,
But all my treasures with me bear.
- 4 If thou, my Father, still be nigh,
Cheerful I live, and peaceful die;
Secure when mortal comforts flee,
To find eternal bliss in thee.

- 1 THOUGH children in stature and years,
Religion is needful for you;
Since children, it surely appears,
Must answer for all that they do.
'Tis needful for you that are young,
To cleave to your heavenly Friend,
To praise him with heart and with tongue,
And still on his service attend.
- 2 Go, give him, with Mary, your heart,
And learn without further delay;
He'll teach you to choose the good part,
Which ne'er shall be taken away:

Unless I feel it too.

2 Yet foolish thoughts my heart beguile;
And when I pray or sing,
I'm often thinking all the while
About some other thing.

3 O let me never, never dare
To act a trifler's part,
Or think that God will hear a prayer,
That comes not from the heart.

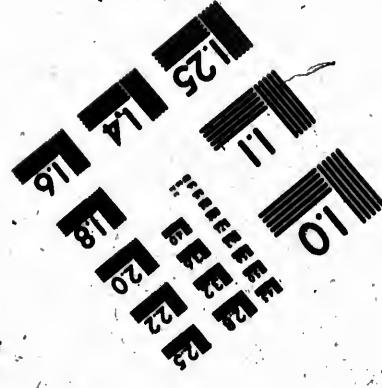

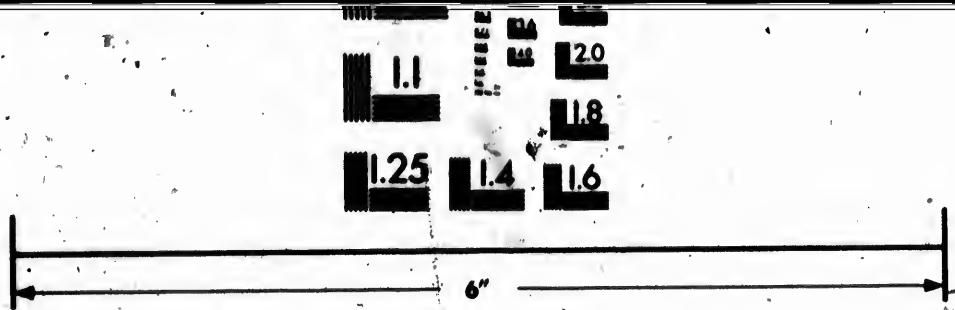

4 But if I make his ways my choice,
As holy children do,
Then, while I seek him with my voice,
My heart will love him too.

1 SINCE Jesus loves to hear his praise
Arise from infant tongues,
Let us not waste our youthful days
In vain and foolish songs.

Nor prize too much his precious word,
Nor learn too soon his fear.

3 To me, O Lord, thy grace impart,

O Lord God, thou art my trust from my youth.—PSALM lxxi. 5.

1. GUIDE of our youth ! to thee we cry ;
Great God ! to us be ever nigh ;
Our minds instruct, our hearts convert,
Nor let us thy good ways desert.
- 2 Ten thousand snares beset our way,
To draw our helpless souls astray ;
Our wants regard, our prayers attend,
And with thy power and grace defend.
- 3 O smile on those whose Christian care

No times should turn you away.

- 2 Though children in stature and years,
Salvation is needed by you ;
For children it plainly appears,
Must answer for all that they do.
- 3 Then give to the Saviour your heart,
And learn without further delay ;
He'll teach you to choose the good part,
Which ne'er shall be taken away.
- 4 His hand shall supply all your wants,
Though ever so many or great ;
His love shall redress your complaints,
And render your portion complete.

1. ALMIGHTY Father, heavenly King !
Who rulest the worlds above,

In aye, the poor and despis'd find
A friend all-powerful, constant, kind,
Who crowns with joy their day.

2 Weak and imperfect is our song;
For how shall mortal's erring tongue,
Thy Majesty address?
Yet thou dost know each want and care,
Ere we can sigh them forth in prayer,
And willing art to bless.

3 Thy guardian care around us spread,
From snares that fill the path we tread,
Protect our feeble youth.

To us his word hath given,

A certain path to heaven.

4 Stretch out, O Lord, thy gracious hand
To guide our erring youth;
And lead us to that blissful land
Where dwells eternal truth.

Us, if we now the call obey

To do what'er thy laws require,
In true simplicity.

From sin and darkness,
From sickness, pain, and grief;
On him for daily bread we call;
He knows our wants, and feeds us all.

From him who gave me love,
From him who gave me grace;
No power can me from him move,
No power can me from the grace

Its ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all its paths are joy and peace,

And never set our spirits free?
Come, Holy Dove, from th' heavenly hill,
And warm our frozen hearts.

6 When you would meekly seem to move,
I'll follow where you lead me.

8 But lest my feeble steps should slide,
Or wander from the way,
Lord, condescend to be my guide,
And I shall never stray.

4 Then I may safely venture through,
Beneath my Shepherd's care;
And keep the gate of heaven in view,
Till I shall enter there.

Through the Lord be it told, you hath he respect unto the lowly.
—Psalms cxviii. 6.

1 HIGH in the shining courts above,
God reigns, the Sovereign King,
And angels round his throne of love,
Sweet anthems sing.

2 How grand the scene appears to me!
And wondrous to think!

Kiss the sorrow from my face.

- 3 Though my sins reach up to heaven,
Higher still thy mercies rise;
Infinite my sin forgiven
How shall I thy goodness prize?
Let me all thy goodness prove,
Let me infinitely love.

To serve the Lord with filial fear,
With loving gratitude:

Are music in his ears;

How great those pleasures are;
They would each sinful joy forego,
And seek such bliss to share.

WATTS.

The Son of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. — Proverbs
xxii. 10.

- 1 RELIGION is the chief concern
Of mortals here below;
May I its great importance learn,
Its sovereign virtue know.

- 2 More useful than these gathering we,
Or aught the world around;

And in our midst appear.

2 Make this thy dwelling-place,
While we assembled stay;
Inhabit our mortal soul with grace,
And give our sins away.

3 O let this morning be
Consecrated to thy ways;
And consecrate our school to thee,
And all thy works with praise.

4 To child and country, Lord,

4 O may my heart, by grace renewed,
Be my Redeemer's throne;
And be my stubborn will subdued,
His government to own.

5 Let deep repentance, faith and love,
Be joined with godly fear,
And all my conversation prove,
My heart to be sincere.

6 Preserve me from the snares of sin,
Through my remaining days,
And in me let each virtue shine,
To my Redeemer's praise.

1 HOW pleasant for a child to sing
The goodness of its God and King,
Who liveth above the sun and stars,
And everlasting glory wears.

And all the powers of earth and hell break,
Joy through my swelling heart will break,
And melt the thickest clouds away.

4 But O! when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to the judgment-seat,
With what glad accents will I speak
To join the ranks of saints.

5 Soon shall I drown the woes
Which echo of the world below,

6 And emulate with joyous hearts
The glowing spirits of the blessed hosts.

6 The cheerful spirit will forever rule to heaven, to glory, and to grace.

1 A LMIGHTY God, to thee I cry,
Assist a child's infirmity;
Nor let me with my lips draw nigh,
While my heart wanders far from thee.

But what with all my soul I mean;
Or lie to thee, thou glorious Lord,
By whom my every thought is seen.

3 With what submissive lowliness
Should I approach thy glorious throne?
How can I hope by words to please
To please a God I have not known.

It is thy love and care that sends
My health and strength, my food and friends,
If I may call them mine.

3 I prize the grace which sent thy Son
To die for crimes that I have done;
O if I could with words look;
O if I could make the strength I need,
I would sing, and word, and deed,
O if I could them from thy book!

4 While here on earth I wait thy will,
Oh, guard, and guide, and bless me still,
And never let them fail:
Then when my days on earth are past,
My soul shall fly to join them in glory,
To praise thee in the sky.

2 Yet foolish thoughts my heart beguile;
And when I pray or sing,
I'm often thinking all the while
About some other thing.

3 O let me never, never dare
To act a trifler's part,
Or think that God will hear a prayer,
That comes not from the heart.

4 But if I make his ways my choice,
As holy children do,
Then, while I seek him with my voice,
My heart will love him too.

1 GUIDE of our youth! to thee we cry;

Ere we can sigh them forth in prayer,

May they be sound with God !

The choicest gift he sends.

3 We bless his name, that we are taught,

To keep his sacred day;

And that we thus are brought to join

With those who praise and pray.

4 O may we prize those favours well,

Their songs to thee again.

O that men would give the Lord for his goodness, and all

Come, sing the glorious song of salvation,

And thank your Saviour Lord.

1 MY life's a narrow span,
A short, uncertain day;
And if I reach the age of man,
It soon shall pass away.

2 I may, for aught I know,
This hour the summons bear,
To call me where the wicked go,
Or where the saints appear.

Though friends and scenes around us change
And time flies on apace.

2 We'll not forget the Sunday School,
Where hopes of sin forgave
Through him alone, who came to save,
Allure our souls to heaven.

3 We'll not forget the Sunday School,
Which taught us to discern
Of Satan's foul, diabolical ways,
Our youthful souls to snare.

4 We'll not forget the Sunday School,
Nor friends long gone we grieve,
Who strove to build the Ark of God,
To them our thanks and bairns.

5 We'll follow in their footsteps now,
And teach, and sing, and pray,
That we may spread the gospel far,
Till we shall stamp abroad.

The soul was poor indeed,
Sinner had sold his birthright.

3 Yet sinners strike, young and old,
Until their dying day:
Then they would give a world of gold
To have an hour to pray.

Let us no longer wait;
For time will soon be past with us,
And death must fix our state.

Watts.

I THERE is no hour when I might say,
Nor do I know how soon "twill come,

How ungodly we live.

3 We for whose sake all nature stands,
And where their courses move;
We for whose guard the angel bands
Came flying from above.

4 We, for whom God the Son came down,
And laboured for our good,—
How careless to secure that crown
He purchased with His blood.

5 Lord, shall we live so ungodly still,
And never act our part?
Come, Holy Dove, fly up thy heavenly hill,
And warm our human hearts.

6 Give us what moved warmth to move,
With fervent ardour rise,
With fervent ardour burn wings of love
To fly and save the perishing.

1 O N Jordon's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

2 All o'er those wide extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God the Son forever reigns,
And scatters night away.

3 Whirling winds, or poison'd breath,
Are but the tempests of creation;
Earth and sea
Are no more.

God in Jesus reconciled,
A poor prodigal, receive me,
As thine own adopted child;
In thy mercy's arms embrace,
Kiss the sorrow from my face.

3 Though my sins reach up to heaven,

Infinite my sin forgiven
How shall I thy goodness prize?
Let me all thy goodness prove,
Let me infinitely love.

DEATH, JUDGMENT, HEAVEN AND HELL.

C. M. 123 WATTS

1 THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
 And humbly own to thee,

 What dying worms we be.

 Leaves but the number less.

3 The year rolls round and steals away;
 The breath that gives it life;
 What'er we do, or what we be,
 We're travelling to the grave.

To seek for heaven or think of death?"
A flower may fade before 'tis noon,
And I this day may lose my breath.

Despise the gracious call of Heaven,
I may be hardened in my sin,
And never have repentance given.

While I refuse to read and pray,
That he'll refuse to lend an ear
To all my groans another day.

As careless of the gloomy evening,
As fearless of the evening cold.

 Parch'd by the sun's director ray,
 The momentary glories waste,
 The short-lived beauties die away.

 When youth its pride of beauty shows;
 Fairer than spring the colors shine,
 And sweeter than the virgin rose.

1 THERE is no hour when I might die,
 Nor do I know how soon it will come,

1 A thousand children, young as I,
Are called by death to hear their doom.

2 Let me improve the hours I have,
Before the day of grace is fled;
There's no repentance in the grave,
Nor pardon offered to the dead.

3 Just as a tree cut down, that fell
To north or southward, there it lies;
So man departs to heaven or hell,
Fix'd in the state wherein he dies.

1 O N Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

2 All o'er those wide extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God the Son forever reigns,
And scatters night away.

3 Not sullying wind, or polluting breath,
Can touch that beautiful abode,
Where all is calm and sound,
And sadness no more.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
That heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But tim'rous mortals start and shrink
To cross the narrow sea;
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And seat the Osman that we love,
With unclouded eyes.
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape afar,
See Jordan's stream, now doubtless cold, then
Would lift us from the shore.

WATTS.

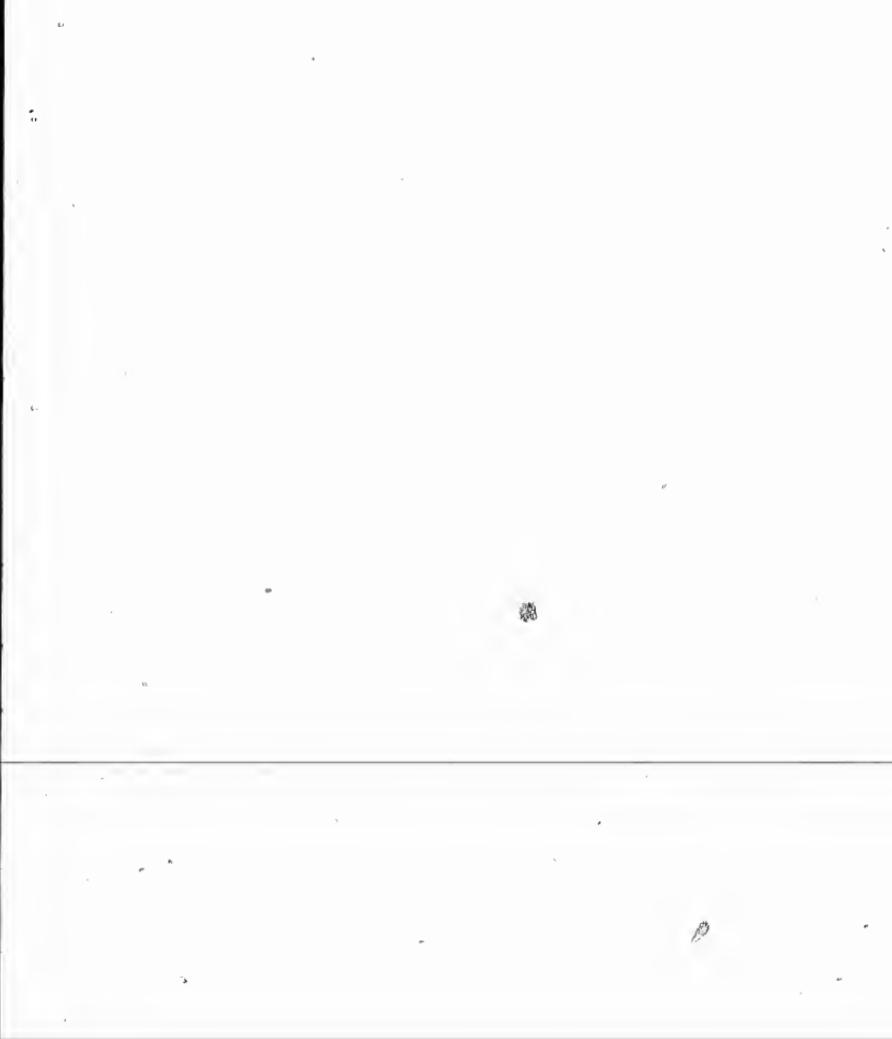

- 1 WHEN blooming youth is snatch'd away
By death's relentless hand,
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay,
Which pity more demands.
- 2 While friendship prompts the rising sight,
O may this teach, improved!
With equal power, I too must die,
Sink deep in every breast.
- 3 Let this vain world engage no more;
Behold the gaping tomb!
It bids us seize the present hour;
To-morrow death may come.
- 4 The voice of this alarming scene
May every heart obey;
Nor be the heavenly warning vain,
Which calls to watch and pray.

WATTS.

- 1 HE comes! he comes! the Judge severe,
The seventh trumpet speaks him near;
His lightnings flash, his thunders roll,
How welcome to the faithful soul!
- 2 From heaven angelic voices sound;
See the Almighty Jesus crowned!

- Girt with omnipotence and grace;
And glory decks the Saviour's face.
- 3 Descending on his azure throne,
He claims the kingdom for his own;
The kingdom will obey his word,
And hail him their triumphant Lord.
- 4 Shout all the people of the sky!
And all the saints of the Most High;
Our Lord, who now his right obtains,
For ever and for ever reigns.

Redeemed by blood and saved by grace,
- 2 The Saviour whom they loved below,
Hath kindly wiped their tears away,
No sin, no sorrow (now they know,
But dwell in one eternal day.)
- 3 There too their golden harps they sing,
While tens of thousands join their songs;
Hosannas to the Immortal King,
To whom immortal praise belongs.

Be brought with them in raiment to join;
Thy lovely countenance to see,
And sing thy praises all divine?

- 1 THIE Judge of all now comes down,
Bright on his judgment seat,
Summon the nations up to him,
And I shall take my stand.
- 2 Jesus, my Saviour, come to me,
O teach me how to stand before
The judgment-seat of God,
With confidence and fearless.
- 3 O Saviour, come to me,
I have done all that thou commandest,
I have done all that thou commandest,
I have done all that thou commandest.

Quick as the lightning from the skies,
My wasting moments run.

2 My fallen past, O God! forgive;
My every sin subdue;
And teach me henceforth how to live,
With glory in my view.

3 'Twere better I had not been born,
Than live without thy fear;
For they are wretched and forlorn
Who have their portion here.

4 O let thy spirit lead me still,
Along the happy road;
Conform me to thy holy will,
My father and my God.

WATTS

1 THERE is, beyond the sky,
A heaven of joy and love;
And holy children, when they die,
Go to that world above.

2 There is a dreadful hell,
And everlasting pain;
There sinners must with devils dwell,
In darkness, fire, and chains.

3 Can such a wretch as I,
Escape this cursed land?

And may I hope, whene'er I die,
I shall to heaven ascend ?

4 Then will I read and pray,
While I have life and breath;
Lest I should be cut off to-day,
And sent to endless death.

It doth not yet appear what we shall be. —1 John, iii. 2.

1 WE sing of the realms of the blest,
That country so bright and so fair;
And oft are its glories confess'd,
But what will it be to be there?

2 We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation and care,
From trials without and within,—
But what must it be to be there!

3 We speak of its service of love,
Of robes which the glorified wear,
The church of the firstborn above—
But what must it be to be there?

4 Therefore, Lord, midst jacinths or woe,
Send us to heaven our spirits prepare;
And when we are there, let us know
And feel what it is to be there!

New Year.

- 1 THE Lord of earth and sky,
 The God of ages' praise,
 Who reigns enthroned on high,—
 Ancient of endless days;
 Who lengthens out our trials here,
 And spares us yet another year.
- 2 Barren and wither'd trees,
 We cumber'd long the ground;
 No fruit of holiness
 On our dead souls was found;
 Yet doth he then in mercy spare,
 Another and another year.
- 3 When justice bared the sword,
 To smite the nations down,
 The world in terror stood,
 "O God, we perish alone!"
 The Father then inclines his ear,
 And spares us yet another year.
- 4 Jesus, who bled and died,
 From Calvary to the cross,

Who, therefore, hath bestowed
 On us a longer span;
 Thou didst in our behalf appear,
 And lo ! we see another year.

T.S.

156

1 SEE ! another year is gone !
 Quickly have the seasons pass'd !
 This we enter now upon,
 Will to many prove the last.

2 Some we now no longer see,
 Who their mortal race have run,
 Seem'd as fair for life as we,
 When the former year begun.

3 Some — but who God only knows —
 Who are here assembled now,
 Ere the present year shall close,
 To the stroke of death must bow.

4 Mercy hitherto has spared,
 But have virtues been improved ?
 Let us ask, " Am I prepared,
 Should I be this year removed ?

BY HENRY.

1 A LMKGRTY Mother of my soul,
 Teach me the measure of my days;

- Teach me to know how frail I am,
And spend the remnant to thy praise.
- 2 My days are shorter than a span,
A little point my life appears;
How frail, at best, is dying man,
How vain are all his hopes and fears.
- 3 Vain his ambition, noise and show,
Vain are the cares which rack his mind;
He heaps up treasures mixed with woe,
And dies and leaves them all behind.
- 4 O be a nobler portion mine!
My God, I bow before thy throne;
Earth's fleeting treasures I resign;
And fix my hopes on thee alone.

Christmas.

- 1 HARK, the herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.
- 2 Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumphs of the skies;
Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness.

3 Mild he lays his glory by,
 Born that man no more might die;
 Born to raise the sons of earth,
 Born to give them second birth.

4 Come, Desire of nations, come,
 Fix in us thy humble home;
 Rise, the woman's promised Seed,
 Bruise in us the serpent's head.

5 Glory to the new-born King!
 Let us all the anthem sing,
 Peace on earth and mercy mild,
 God and sinners reconciled.

The Same.

1 BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the morning.
 Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid.
 Star of the east, the horizon adorning,
 Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
 Low lays his head with the beasts of the stall;
 Angels adore him in slumbers reclining,
 Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield him in costly devotion,
 Odors of Edom and off'rings divine;

Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forests and gold from the mine.

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly, with gold, would his favour secure;
Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

1 LET children bless the Saviour's name,
And sing his wond'rous grace;
Who from the realms of glory came,
To save our sinful race.

2 Though he was rich in heaven above,
From all eternity,
He left his greatness out of love,
For sinners such as we.

3 The poorest child is scarce so poor,
As Jesus Christ became:
When our salvation to procure,
He bore our sins and shame.

4 A manger for his cradle bed
Received him at his birth;
He had not where to lay his head,
Though Lord of heaven and earth.

5 Lord Jesus ! while we sing thy grace,
 We love thee and adore;
 But when in heaven we see thy face,
 Our souls shall love thee more.

WEDNESDAY.

The Resurrection of Christ.

1 YE humble souls that seek the Lord,
 Chase all your fears away,
 And hove with reverent bough to see
 The place where Jesus lay.

- 2 Thus low the Lord of Life was brought:
 Such wonders love can do;
 Thus cold in death that bosom lay,
 Which throb'd and bled for you.
- 3 But raise your eyes, and tune your song,
 The Saviour lives again;
 Not all the bolts and bars of death
 The Conqueror could restrain.
- 4 High o'er the angelic hosts he stands
 His once dimm'd count'ning head;
 And through unnumber'd years he reigns,
 Who dwelt among the dead.
- 5 With joy like him shall every saint
 His vacant thron's worry,
 There rise with his ascending Lord,
 To realms of endless day.

- 1 ~~Glory~~ The Lord has risen to-day,
 Glory of snow and darkness now;
 The mountains tremble at his high,
 The hills are rent by his might.
- 2 Let us then his praises sing,
 Let us then his praises sing;
 Let us then his praises sing,

- 3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal,
 Christ has burst the gates of hell;
 Death in vain forbids his rise,
 Christ has open'd paradise.
- 4 Lives again our glorious King;
 Where, O death, is now thy sting?
 Once he died, our souls to save,
 Where's thy victory, boasting grave?

 Christ awhile to mortal men,
 Re-ascends his native heaven.
- 2 There the great crowd thronged within;
 Lift your heads, ye nations! —
 Wide unbind the gates of glory,
 Take the King of Glory in!
- 3 Him though millions impious revile,
 Still he loves us, still he spares us;
 Though we sin, though we err,
 Still he loves us, still he spares us.
- 4 Still for me, still for me,
 From my sins thou hast freed me;
 Now I'll sing thy praises,

- 1 GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
 G For all the blessings of the light ;
 Keep me, O keep me, King of Kings,
 Under thine own Almighty wings.
- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
 The ills that I this day have done ;
 That with the world, myself and thee,
 I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
 The grave as little as my bed ;
 Teach me to die, that so I may
 With joy behold the judgment day.
- 4 Let me now, forever share
 The bliss of thy paternal care ;
 'Tis heaven on earth, 'tis heaven above,
 To see thy face, and sing thy love.

 If with thy gracious presence bless'd ;

 I'm still secure, for still with thee.

- 1 GREAT God, before thy sacred throne
G A youthful tribe draws near;
 To praise thee for thy mercy shown
 Through every passing year.
- 2 'Tis thine indulgent care prolongs
 Our transitory days:
 And, in return, demands our songs
 Of gratitude and praise.
- 3 What numbers of our helpless race
 Are left to run astray;

 O may we stand above,
 To sing on heaven's eternal shore,
 Thy kindred love.

 Review the past year, the year,
 And gird up courage to pay.

2 Yes, we adore thee, Lord,
 Within this sacred place;
 Where oft we meet, with sweet accord,
 To seek thy gracious face.

3 To thee, our God and King,
 We glad hosannas raise:
 O deign to hear our voices sing
 The honours of thy praise!

4 Command thy blessing, Lord,
 On all assembled here;
 And may we still thy grace record
 Through every circling year.

MONTGOMERY.

1 HOSANNA, be the children's song
 To Christ the children's King;
 His praise, to whom our souls belong,
 Let all the children sing.

2 From little ones, to Jeems brought,
 Hosannas now be heard;
 Let infants at the breast be taught
 To liep that lovely word.

3 Hosanna, — here in joyful sound,
 Maidens and youths proclaim,
 And hail with voices loud and bound,
 The Son of David's name.

ANNIVERSARY.

- 4 Hosanna — come all hill to hill,
And spread from plain to plain
While louder voices, louder still,
Woods echo to the sound.
- 5 Hosanna — on the wings of light,
O'er earth and ocean sweep,
Till morn to morn, and noon to noon,
And heaven to earth sweep.
- 6 The city to the country call
Let robes with golden thread,
And this their watchword ever and all,
Hosanna — praise the Lord.
- 7 Hosanna, then, our song shall be,
Hosanna to our King;
This is the children's psalm,—
Let all the children sing.

- 1 How good it is when Lord appears
To see thy face, to hear thy voice,
Thy presence fills the earth with peace,
To prove thy love in every place.
- 3 We have a God who loves us well,
Who loves us more than we can tell,
Who loves us so well he gave his Son,
To bring us salvation.

- 3 By them they went along their way led,
To seek the country where Christians tread,
To bear the cross, and to proclaim the gospel,
Glad tidings through all nations' realms.
- 4 Thy blood thy people shall import,
To sanctify our common and holy heart;
And though they fall at length down,
That we may live and stand alone.
- 5 Let thy rich blessing now descend
On every teacher, every friend;
May we with them in heaven above,
All meet to praise redeeming love.

- 1 O N this anniversary happy day,
What incense shall we bring?
What grateful thanks or offering pay
To our Almighty King?
- 2 Be his devout adoration with confidence,
The Master of the world,
What in the judgment of the Most High
But to thank him now?
- 3 That breath of life he giveth we receive
We thus his name extol,
And while we sing his mighty acts
We wonder at his love.

4 Reached from misery and shame
We'll all our power employ
Our great Creator to exalt
And live hereafter happy.

5 May heart and voice sing forth continually
His goodness, love, and power,
May all the world be won by you
And our Redeemer Jesus.

No gift to lay before your throne,
We come with hearts full of love,
To chant the praises of our God,

Their voices of gladness fail them;
Father, except our love,
Our song of thanksgiving.

2. The dearest gift we can bring
Love, which is the gift of God,
To make every heart glad,
To bring the joy of heaven down,
With love we come to you,
With love we offer up our hearts,
With love we sing your praises.

3 Grant me, Lord, a blessing!
O I much entreated you,
The good Lord did hear my voice,
And sent me a blessing, where,
There where the poor are dwelling,
The poor are dwelling,
And sent me a blessing,
With joy and gladness.

C. M.

1 My Father, in thy name I call
 When I have seen thy word, and to those

Why was this fleeting breath renewed,
But to renew thy praise.

2 Thine arms of everlasting love
Did this weak frame sustain,
When health and life both ebbed apace:
From everlasting pain.

3 Back, thou that bards of the grave
At thy command I come;
Nor would I leave a tender flight
To my celestial home.

4 Where thou appointest my abode,
There would I choose to be;
For in thy presence doth life lie,
And earth is heaven with thee.

Death of a Teacher.

1 WHY should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God would him own;
And bids them leave a world of woe,
For an immortal home?

2 Is not even death familiar to those Whom life so often gave?
Gladly we open their eyes when they close,
To open them in heaven.

- 3 The flock must feel the shepherd's loss
And miss his tender care;
But they who bear with joy the cross,
The crown shall soonest wear.
- 4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow,
God has recalled his own;
But let our hearts in every woe,
Still say, "They will be done!"

Death of a Scholar.

- 1 DEATH has been here and borne away
A scholar from our side;
Just in the morning of his day,
As young as we who died.

Our time may be so fast;
O Lord, improve the while we thought,
That this may be the last.

Beneath thy chastening rod;
One must be first, but let us all
Prepare to meet our God.

To thee we have only,
For grace to make us now to live,
And make us fit to die.

It is the place of prayer;

Be solemn at the Sabbath-school,

The Song.

1 I LOVE the Sabbath-school, and I
Where happy children meet to play,
Where rich and poor alike may come,
And sit at Jesus' feet.

2 I love the Sabbath-school,
Where children learn to pray,
And hear about the world come,
And learn God's love to know.

3 I love the Sabbath-school, and I stand all day,
And hear the teacher speak,
This lesson, that lesson, and that lesson,
And give the best lesson of all.

- 4 I love the Sabbath school
 And all its works there;
 But most of all, the name by which
 We come to God in prayer.
- 5 I love the Sabbath school
 And hope in God's glory,
 To meet them in the dove,
 Upon that happy shore.

For Canada.

I TWO Israel's King in praise,
 Our souls we now employ;
 To Britain's God our lays
 Shall sound in notes of joy;
 That Canada has destined for bloom,
 And crowns our labours with success.

2 Transplanted in this land,
 From nations far and wide;
 And nourished by thy hand,
 Which giveth us all good,
 O make us fruitful in thy ways,
 That yield a harvest for thy praise.

3 We thank thee for thy goodness to us,
 And for thy bountiful hand;
 We thank thee for thy goodness to us,
 And for thy bountiful hand;

While arts attempt improvements grand,
May righteousness claim the land.

4 And while our country's morrow
We now rejoice to see,
O while a nation's power,
May it be born to thee,
And may we grow and take our place,
With nations God deigns to bless.

5 Our hearts to thee we bring,
To thee we make our prayer.
Dwell in our midst, O King!
Make Canada thy camp,
And its happy children thine,
Guide them to Canaan's promised land.

A MARY CHILD'S PRAYER.

- 1 GENTLE Jesus, meek and mild,
Look upon a little child;
Pity my simplicity,
Suffer me to come to thee.

Gracious Lord, receive me well;
Give a little child thy love,
In thy dear presence let me prove.

The Youth's Profession.

1. I SWEAR before thee in my youth,
To live a sober life for me,
Thou gavest me all I have on earth;
I give myself to thee.
2. I'll love thee still for ever years,
My life and soul to thine;
The world and all its tempting world,
I'll leave them to resign.
3. Give me now life's decay, my soul
To live a sober life for me;
Dear Saviour still;
Desires of ease shall strengthen me,
To give up all my vanity.
4. When from this earth, with joyful flight,
Triumphant I shall soar,
Then, Saviour, in that glorious heaven
I'll love thee evermore.
5. O Jesus! thou didst ever me
My sins to wash away;
Thou didst my soul to purify;
I'll love thee evermore.

Little Child's Prayer on going to bed.

- 1 I THANK thee, Lord, for this good day;
For clothes and food, and heart to pray;
Forgive me all my sin, O Lord!
That I may love and keep thy word.
- 2 And now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.
- 3 And when my days and nights are o'er,
Bring me to O掌管的 happy shore;
Where I may dwell with Jesus long,
And all who love their Saviour here.
- 4 Thank you, Lord, I ask of thee
For time and for eternity.
O! bless us now and save us then,
Through Jesus Christ my Lord — Amen.

Children's Prayer.

- 1 YEHOU art our Strength, precious God;
Guard thy little flock, we beseech;
And guide us by thy word and rod,
The children of thy people.
- 2 We praise thee, O our Father, who art straight.
To thy commandments we will cleave.

Where we are watch'd and warn'd and taught,
The children of thy grace.

3 O may our friends who meet us here,
Meet us at last above;
And they and we in heaven appear,
The children of thy love.

WATKINS.

1 WHEN I can read my title clear,
No manions in the skies,
I'll bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts be hurl'd,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.

3 Let comes like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall;
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

4 There shall I bring my weary soul
In ease of heavenly home,
And see a cross of burning gold
Across my peaceful breast.

Miscellaneous.

- 1 FROM Greenland's mountain side,
From India's boundless plains,
Where Arctic's snows
Roll down their frozen streams;
From many an ancient river,
From many a pebbly plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.
- 2 What though the world should
Not see us now or long?
Though every prophet's voice
And every man's
In vain would strive to move
The giant of our race,
One hundred millions
Bows down to Wood and Stone.
- 3 Shall we, while sin abounds,
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we to men proclaim
The lamp of life? O no!
Salvation! O salvation!
How long must we wait?
Till God's own Son
Has come?

- 1 Jesus! I'll sing what's on the sun,
I'll sing what's in the flowers' sun;
Hear me, O my God, I have no more,
Till Jesus comes, I have no more.

2 From earth I come, to earth I go; One foot
Took me down, another took me up;
With all my sins on me, I stand before the Lord,
And I am lost, and I am found.

3 To him shall earthly prayer be made,
And earthly thanks be given at his head;
His name be hallowed, his will be done,
With every heart, with every bone.

4 People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on him as their own, and sing
And magnify him, for he is thy King,
The God of Jacob, and the God of all the world.

Remember me.

- 1 JESUS! thou art the sinner's friend,
 As once I used to be;
Now in thy bowels of pity, Lord,
 O Lord! remember me.
- 2 Remember thy precious word of grace,
 Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy dying groans,
 And then remember me.
- 3 Thou wondrous Advocate with God,
 I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
 O Lord! remember me.
- 4 And when I close my eyes in death
 And creatures leave all else,
Then, oh, my great Redeemer, God!
 I pray remember me.

My love's boast.

 And that no other name were adored:
Thou art the best of all the world,
 May I be numbered with them.

After Meal.

 Let manna no longer be given,
 The bread of life sent down from Heaven.

The Change.

- 1 CREAT God! behold a lowly hand,
 And bear our humble prayer;
 We bless thy kind preserving hand,
 For all the good we share.
- 2 Once, with a sinful, hopeless throng,
 E'en on thy holy day,
 In sin we held our course along,
 And trifled time away.
- 3 But now, instructed, with delight,
 Thy spirit we implore,
 To guide our youthful foot aright,
 That we may see no more.
- 4 O may thy word and truth divide,
 Our erring steps; and when we fall,
 Our Master's grace and mercy call,
 And crown our growing age.

Children in Heaven.

- 1 CHILDREN, listen to the strains,
 Echoed through the Heavenly plains!
 Hear ye not the chorus sweet,
 Which the happy ones repeat?
 Unto him that bled and died,
 Endless praises be ascribed!
- 2 Hosts of children praise the Lamb—
 Would you know from whence they came?
 They were once like you below,
 But were saved from sin and woes!
 O how happy now they feel—
 Joys they have unspeakable!

- 3 Some are there from India's strand;
 Some from this our favour'd land !
 Some from Afric's burning plains;
 Some from Greenland's cold domains;
 But their songs of praise are one—
 No distinction there is known.
- 4 Some are there whom you have known,
 Deck'd with an immortal crown !
 Palms of victory in their hand !
 Round the throne of God they stand !
 Hark ! what anthems sweet they raise !
 Hear ye not their songs of praise ?

True Penitence.

- 1 As once the Saviour took his seat—
 Attracted by his fame,
 And lowly bending at his feet,
 A humble suppliant came.
- 2 Ashamed to lift her streaming eyes
 His holy glance to meet,
 She poured her costly sacrifice
 Upon her Saviour's feet.
- 3 Oppress'd with sin and sorrow's weight,
 And sinking in despair,
 With tears she washed his sacred feet,
 And wiped them with her hair.

- 4 "Depart in peace," the Saviour said,
 "Thy sins are all forgiven!"
 The trembling sinner raised her head
 In peaceful hope of heaven.

The Lord's Prayer.

- 1 OUR Father, full of grace divine,
 To thy great name be praises paid;
 Thy kingdom come, thy glory shine,
 And be thy will on earth obey'd.
- 2 Give us our bread from day to day,
 And all our wants do thou supply;
 With gospel truths feed us, we pray,
 That we may never faint or die.
- 3 Extend thy grace, our hearts renew,
 Our daily offence in love forgive;
 Teach us divine forgiveness too,
 And let us free from evil live.
- 4 For thine's the kingdom and the power,
 And all the glory waits thy name;
 Let every land thy grace adore,
 And sound in song their loud Amen.

"Behold I stand at the door and knock."

- 1 BEHOLD the Saviour at the door!
B He gently knocks — has knocked before,
Has waited long — is waiting still —
You use no other friend so ill.
- 2 Rise, touch'd with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine;
Turn out that hateful monster sin,
And let the heavenly stranger in.
- 3 Admit him, ere his anger burn,
Lest he depart and ne'er return;
Admit him, or the hour's at hand,
When at his door denied you'll stand.
- 4 Yet know, sir, of the better Government,
When Jesus comes, he comes to reign,
To reign, and with no partial sway;
Thoughts may be clear that day.

209

"Sister the Lord Comes to call me."

- I TTHINK, when I am laid low & helpless,
When I am weak & weary, & have no strength,
How he will come, & take me to himself,
I should like to see him, & be with him.

2 I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,

That his arms had been thrown around me;
That I might have seen his kind look when he said,
"Let the little ones come unto me."

3 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in his love;
And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
I shall see him and him above —

4 In that beautiful home he will give to prepare
For all who are weak and feeble;
And many dear ones are gathering there,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

WESLEY.

1 SINNER, then why art thou dead?
S God, wherefore art thou dead? why?
God who didst me make,
Made you wise; —
He that made you wise;

2 Sinners, turn, why will ye die ?
 God, your Saviour, asks you why :
 God, who did your souls retrieve,
 Died himself, that ye might live,
 Will you let him die in vain ?
 Crucify your Lord again ?
 Why, ye ransom'd sinners, why
 Will ye slight his grace and die ?

3 Sinners, turn, why will ye die ?
 God, the Spirit, asks you why :
 He who all your lives hath strove,
 Woo'd you to embrace his love :
 Will ye not his grace receive ?
 Will ye still refuse to live ?
 Why, you long-sought sinners, why
 Will you grieve your God, and die ?

The Children's Friend.

1 THOU Guardian of our youthful days,
 To thee our prayers ascend ;
 To thee we'll tune our songs of praise
 Jesus ! the Children's Friend.

2 From thee our daily blessings flow --
 Our life and health depend ;
 O save our souls from sin and woe --
 Thou art the Children's Friend.

- 3 Teach us to prize thy holy word,
 And to its truth attend;
 Thus shall we learn to fear the Lord,
 And love the Children's Friend.
- 4 O may we feel a Saviour's love —
 To him our souls commit.
 Who left his glorious throne above
 To be the Children's Friend.
- 5 Lord, draw our youthful hearts to thee,
 And when this life shall end,
 Raise us to live above the sky,
 With thee, the Children's Friend.

The Sabbath.

- 1 COME, Jesus, like a sun to those,
 From childhood we have set at free;
 Now move our fancies to sing thy praises,
 And teach our lips thy righteous laws.
- 2 O help our mem'ry to remember
 The precious knowledge we may gain:
 Keep us from sin and error wide,
 And make us like a wise man.
- 3 Delight us with thy word, we pray,
 Our pleasure is to know thy ways;
 Dear Lord, we long to be thy sons,
 To share thy love and thy grace.

He shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom.—ISAIAH, xl. 11.

1 YOUNG children once to Jesus came,
His blessing to entreat;
And I may humbly do the same,
Before his mercy seat.

2 For when their feeble hands were spread,
And bent each infant knee;
Forbid them not," the Saviour said,
And so he says to me.

3 Well pleased these little ones to see,
The dear Redeemer smiled;
Oh, then, he will not frown on me,
A poor unworthy child.

4 If babes, so many years ago
His tender pity drew,
He will not surely let me go
Without a blessing, too.

5 Then while, this favour to implore,
My youthful hands are spread,
Do thou thy sacred blessing pour,
Dear Jesus, on my head.

"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not."

1 JESUS Christ loves little children,
J And he waits to do them good;
Should not children then love Jesus?
Yes, indeed, they always should.

2 When they sing a hymn to praise him,
He delights that hymn to hear;
When they kneel to pray unto him,
He attends, for he is near.

3 He can keep them safe from danger,
Guide them all the time they live;
Then let children come to Jesus,
Who has so much good to give.

1 HOW happy every child of grace,
H Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven:

2 A country far from mortal sight,
Yet, O! by faith I see
The land of rest, the saints' delight
The heaven prepared for me.

3 A stranger in the world below,
 I calmly sojourn here;
 Nor can its happiness or woe,
 Provoke my hope or fear.

4 Its evils in a moment end:
 Its joys as soon are passed;
 But, O ! the bliss to which I tend,
 Eternally shall last.

Thanks for Christian Privileges.

1 L ORD, I ascribe it to thy grace,
 And not to chance, as others do,
 That I was born of Christian race,
 And not a heathen or a Jew.

2 What would the ancient Jewish kings,
 And Jewish prophets once have given,
 Could they have heard those glorious things,
 Which Christ reveal'd and bro't from heav'n.

3 How glad the heathen would have been,
 That worship'd idols, wood and stone,
 If they the book of God had seen,
 Or Jesus and his gospel known !

4 Then if this gospel I refuse,
 How shall I e'er lift up mine eyes;
 For all the Gentiles and the Jews
 Against me will in judgment rise.

I would not live alway.

I WOULD not live alway: I ask not to stay
 Where storm after storm rises dark o'er
 the way;
 The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here,
 Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

2 I would not live alway; no, welcome the tomb,
 Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
 There sweet be my rest till he bids me arise,
 To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

3 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,

Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
 Where rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,

And the noon-tide of glory eternally reigns?

4 There saints of all ages in harmony meet,
 Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet:
 While anthems of ~~capture~~ ^{glory} ceaselessly roll,
 And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

Christ's invitation.

1 OUR Saviour bids the Children come;
 He bids us come to him;

And as in other days, he spreads
His arms to take us in.

2. Forever blessed be his name;
No earthly love like his!
O may it draw our hearts to him,
And to the world of bliss!

3 There may we come at last to sing
In nobler strains his praise;
And join the little ones who stand
Before our Father's face.

The Christian Soldier.

1 A M I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies,
On flowery beds of ease;
While others fought to win the prize,
And sail'd through bloody seas!

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend of grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure, I must fight, if I would reign:
 Increase my courage, Lord;
 I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
 Supported by thy word.

 Who have sought the Lord by prayer,

 O that will be joyful, &c.

 Shall meet to part no more.

We come with song to greet you.

1 A NOTHER year has passed away,

 And sing our greeting song.

Chorus—

We come, we come, we come with song to greet you,
 We come, we come, we come with song again.

 To sing the wondrous love
 Of him who guards us all our days,

Sunday-school Celebration.

- 1 O COME, let us sing !
Our youthful hearts now swelling,
To God above, a God of love —
 O come, let us sing !
Our joyful spirits, glad and free,
With high emotions rise to thee
In heavenly melody —
 O come, let us sing !
- 2 The full notes prolong
Our festal celebration :
We hail the day with cheerful lay,
 And full notes prolong.
But cheerful youth and silvery age,
And childhood pure, the gay, the sage,
These thrilling scenes engage,
 Full notes to prolong.
- 3 O swell, swell the song,
His praises oft repeating;
His Son he gave our souls to save —
 O swell, swell the song !
The humble heart's devotion bring,
Whence gushing streams of love do spring,
And make the welkin ring
 With sweet-swellung song.

4 We'll chant, chant his praise —
 Our lofty strains now bending;
 A tribute bring to Christ our King,
 And chant, chant his praise.
 Our Saviour, Prince, was crucified:
 "Tis finish'd," then he moanly cried,
 And bow'd his head and died —
 Then chant, chant his praise!

5 All full chorus join —
 To Jesus condescending
 To bless our race with heavenly grace,
 All full chorus join !
 To God, whose mercy on us smiled,
 And Holy Spirit reconciled
 By Christ, the meek and mild,
 All full chorus join !

Anniversary Hymn.

1 A LMIGHTY God! to thee we raise
 Our tribute of united praise,
 On this returning day;
 Teachers and children meet once more,
 Thy spirit may we move,
 And for thy grace we pray.

2 Before thy face, O Lord, we stand,
 A large and still increasing band,
 Thy blessings may we seek;

While our glad voices thus combine,
 O, touch our hearts with grace divine,
 That we thy praise may speak.

- 3 Our happy eyes this day behold
 What kings and righteous men of old
 Desired in vain to see;
 And we shall see yet greater things,
 When thou, Almighty King of kings!
 Shall draw all men to thee.
- 4 Lord Jesus! let the rising race
 Become the children of thy grace,
 To reign with thee above;
 Into thy fold the wand'rors bring,
 That they, with us, may learn to sing
 The wonders of thy love.

Hymn

By the Children and Choir.

CHILDREN.

- 1 RICH is the sacred song that swells
 Where God in light and glory dwells,
 What joyful choir their notes combine?
 Who utter music so divine?

CHORUS.

- 2 'Tis the sweet song of our old bards,
 Which round the mountain-sides resounds,
 Early to find the notes of home,
 And now they dwell no more in bower.

CHILDREN.

- 3 O, who may hope with them to be,
And join their tones of harmony?
Who can escape from earth and sin,
And pure and holy be within?

CHOIR.

- 4 In strength divine the youngest may
Begin a holy life to-day;
Through him that loved us, hopes remain,
That none shall seek the Lord in vain.

CHORUS.

- 5 Dear Saviour, may thy Spirit's call
Produce the best effects on all:
Thine be the remnant of our days,
And every breath be love and praise.

Rural Celebration.

- 1 HAIL, great Creator, wise and good!
To thee our songs we raise:
Nature, through all her various scenes,
Invites us to thy praise.

- 2 Thy glory beams in every star
Which gilds the gloom of night,
And decks the smiling face of morn
With rays of celestial light.

- 3 The lofty Hill, the humble vale,
The mountain, and the plain divine;
The forest grove, the vocal shore,
Proclaim thy power divine.

- 4 Great God of nature! may those scenes
 Our serious thoughts engage;
 Still may our grateful hearts consult
 Thy works' instructive page.
- 5 And while in all above, around,
 Thy varied love we see,
 O may our hearts, great God, be led
 Through all thy works to thee!

Sunday-school Celebration.

- 1 L ORD, we are spared again to meet
 On this rejoicing day,
 To bow before thy mercy-seat,
 To praise thee and to pray.
- 2 Many, since last we gather'd here,
 Have pass'd away like leaves;
 Perhaps, before another year,
 Their dwelling may be ours!
- 3 To Jesus every eye we raise—
 On him for mercy wait:
 Young children in their mortal days,
 He folded to his heart.
- 4 Young children, while their Father's side,
 He still with joy surveys;

And, pleading that for such he died,
Their sinful hearts renew.

5 Lord, to thine open arms we fly
And seek our safety there:
Then shall we have no fear to die,
If thou our hearts prepare.

- 1 O UR Father, bless this youthful band
That stands now before thee here;
Uphold us by thy mighty hand,
And lead us in thy love and truth.
- 2 O fill our minds with thoughts of thee,
Help us to walk in thy sight;
Grant us thy grace from sin to flee,
And in the ways of truth delight.
- 3 And O! when 'tis a sad day is done,—
Its burdened bosom in labours o'er—
Grant, through the merits of thy Son,
That we may henceforth do more!
- 4 In that sweet home, thy better land,
To which our souls are drawn we hie,
A happy, anxious, glorious band,
Together ever singing thy praise.

a. M.

- 1 W E thank thee, Lord and King,
Who givest us thy Holy Spirit,
In whose help we daily live.

- 2 God sets the glorious sun in heaven,
By day to give us light;
And draws the starry shades of even
Around us every night.
- 3 His ear is open to our prayer,
His mercy never fails;
And we may sing his tender care,
For still his love prevails.
- 4 In him may youthful hearts rejoice,
And hallelujah sing;
While men of might lift up their voice,
To bless our God and King.

6's and 7's.

Sabbath Morning.

- 1 SAFELY through another watch
God has brought us on continuing;
Let us now a blessing seek,
Waiting in his courts to sing.
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest.
- 2 While we are supplies of grace,
Through the Son the Father's name,
Show thy reconciled face,
Take away our sin and shame;

From our worldly cares set free,
May we rest this day in thee.

- 3 As we meet, thy name to praise,
Let us feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes
While we in thy house appear;
There afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.
- 4 May the gospel's joyful sound,
Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
Make the fruits of grace abound;
Drive relief from all complaints;
Let us all our Sabbath prove,
And join the Church above.

Native Teachings Sought,

- 1 HOLY Lord, our hearts prepare
For the solemn work of thyself;
Grant that while we stand before thee,
All our thoughts may turn to thee;
Let thy presence like a dove,
Breathing power and comfort.
- 2 While we come before thy throne,
Make thy power and glory known;

OPENING.

167

As thy children may we call
On our Father, Lord of all;
And with holy love and fear
At thy footstool now appear.

3 Teach us, while we breathe our woes
On thy promises to repose;
All thy tender love to trace
In the Saviour's work of grace;
Let us all in faith depend
On a gracious God and Friend.

L. M.

287

Father, hear us.

1 ONCE more assembled on thy knee,
O Father, hear us when we pray;
And teach us thankfully to own
The love that draws us near to thee.

3 Lord, let thy grace our souls inspire,
With holy love and heavenly fire;
And let our songs of praise arise
In grateful incense to the skies.

3 O may our souls on wings of love
Soar upward to the realms above;
And grant us fervency in prayer,
That we thy richest grace may share.

5^e and 7^a.

Object and End of Sunday-schools.

- 1 O N this holy Sabbath morning,
We again together meet,
To unite our hearts and voices,
And approach the mercy-seat.
- 2 Lord, may we possess a spirit
In accordance with thy word;
Feeling, praying, acting, giving,
That thy name be spread abroad.
- 3 Here we come to search the Scriptures,
Here our offerings, too, we bring,
That the wilderness may blossom,
And the desert places sing.
- 4 That the many now in darkness
May ere long see light divine;
That the gospel in its brightness
O'er the darken'd earth may shine.

THE LORD'S DAY.

239

The Day of Rest.

- 1 O FOR a sweet, a holy calm,
To rest upon my soul to-day;
That sacred peace, which, like a balm,
The pains of care can take away!

- 2 From the long labour of the week,
 The toil of ministerial cares;
 Gladly would I refreshment seek,
 In such delightful scenes as these.
- 3 The Christian Sabbath, to mankind—
 A day of sacred rest is given:
 An emblem to the peaceful mind—
 A foretaste of the joys of heaven.
- 4 Come, heavenly spirit, light and peace,
 And every holy gift send thence;
 Grant me this day thy rich increase,
 And with new gladness glory shine.

L. M.

190

The Day of Rest.

- 1 THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
 The day to us in mercy given:
 The holy Sabbath of his people,
 The pledge and type of rest in heaven.
- 2 Lord, in thy presence we will stand,
 To thee devote our sacred day;
 Our earthly cares and sorrows leave,
 Look upon us with thy favoring eye.
- 3 May we by every blessing given to man,
 In grace, in beauty, and love,

And thus the holy rest below
Shall fit no far thy rest above.

L. M.

261

Joy in the Sabbath.

- 1 WELOCOME, sweet morn, we hail with
Thy holy light, thy blest employ;
And come a little favoured band,
One sacred hour with Christ to spend.
- 2 Our youthful hearts would humbly pray
That he will bless our school to-day;
To him our joyful notes of praise
With our united voices we raise.
- 3 A joyful shout to the heavenly King
Of gladness which we now we bring!
And hope at last in his embrace,
Secure, where'er we place.
- 4 O Hallelujah! we exulting sing
The joyful strain which we share;
The joyful strain which we sing
A joyful strain, a joyful band.

L. M.

242

Morning Hymn.

- 1 AGAIN returns the Sabbath day,
Another week has passed away;
Again we meet to serve the Lord,
To sing his love and read his Word.
- 2 Before our God let us appear
With reverence and with holy fear;
Let every knee before him bend,
Our Judge, our Saviour, and our Friend.
- 3 Let our united voices rise
In songs of praises to the skies;
To him who hears our humble cry,
And sees us with a Father's eye.

C. M.

243

Love for God's Day and House.

- 1 I LOVE the Sabbath day,
Which I have made my joy;
When we meet to sing and pray,
And give thanks to God above.
- 2 It leads me to the house of God,
Where we meet to sing and pray;
A place where we may meet with him,
While we sing and give thanks to him.

2 I love to hear that Jesus died,
 And how he rose again;
 Exalted at his Father's side,
 A Saviour to reign;
 To him the angels sing strong,
 Raise their swelling strain;
 And yet a child's responsive song
 His listening ear may gain.

3 I love to sing on earth his grace
 To fallen sinful man;
 But, when in glory, him I'll praise
 More than the angels can.
 Then will we sing a louder strain,
 Through all eternity,
 Worthy the Lamb who once was slain,
 To him all glory be.

L. M.

The Joy of the Sabbath.

1 SWEET is the rest my God, my King,
 To lie still and sing; and sing;
 To sing, and sing, and sing;
 And when I sing,

2 SWEET is the rest my God, my King,
 No noise, no bustle, no strife;
 Only the birds sing,
 LIES DAY,

- 3 When grace has purified my heart,
Then I shall share a glorious part;
And fresh supplies of joy be shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.
 - 4 Then shall I see, and bear, and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

Sabbath-school Teacher's Prayer.

- 1 TEACHER divine! we bow the knee,
Submissive at thy throne;
Our fervent cry we raise to thee:
Ah! leave us not alone.
- 2 In vain we teach unless thy grace
Instruct each simple heart;
Then deign to hear, hide not thy face,
And we thy love shall share.
- 3 We trust thy promises, O Lord,
And wait thy coming glory;

O ! change our hearts, our minds renew,
And teach us how to pray.

4 And may the sacred tie of love
Bind us together here;
A fortunate giv^e of joys above,
Life's pilgrimage to cheer.

5 Thus while on earth we would adore,
When death shall close our eyes,
May teachers, children, meet once more,
Transplanted to the skies.

Prayer for Children.

1 DEAR Saviour, if these Lambs should stray
From thy secure enclosure's bound;
And, lured by earthly joys away,
Among the thoughtless crowd be found,-

2 In all their erring, sinful years,
O let them never forgotten be;
Remember all their sorrows and tears
Which have drawn them to thee.

3 And when these Lambs no more can pray,
These eyes of thine for them no more,
Turn thou their steps in thy way,
The way of salvation.

L. M.

1 INTERNAL Being! Source of love,

 H Permit us to approach thy seat!
We have an Advocate above,
 And plead his merits at thy feet.

2 Us thou hast called to labour here,

 To train the rising race for heaven.
O may we do it in thy fear,
 And use the talents thou hast given.

3 What can we do without thine aid?

 Therefore to thee for help we fly:
O may we never be dismay'd,
 For thou canst every want supply.

4 In some thy laws a curse were wrought,

 Which time we know will not return.
May all their twelve minutes be brought
 To taste the riches of thy grace.

- 2 Thanks for Sunday-Schools so dear,
 Where we're taught thy word and fear,
 From that Holy Book of thine
 Will'd, with precious truths divine.

 Through the cares and ill's of life,
 May the precepts thou hast given,
 Guide us in the path to heaven.

Sabbath-school Hymn.

- 1 O THOU! who when upon our sphere
 Wast man's best friend;—
 Be now, as ever, our redeemer
 To them that labor here.
- 2 Here we have met to learn thy word,
 And read, and pray; and pray;
 And here we join with one accord
 To seek the narrow way.

- 3 O Jesus! we thank thee for thy love,
 Our Saviour, and our Friend;
 And we will strive to do thy will,
 Our Master, and our Friend.

4 A home above! O yes, for this
 We'll gladly labour on,
 Until we join our friends in bliss
 Before the Saviour's throne,

Tune "Benedic domum meam."

- 1 Come, ye children, and see how I do for you
 When I am gone, and you are grown up,
 My house will be your home, and you
 My children, and I will be your father.
- 2 When I am gone, and He has been born,
 Who else will care for you?—None,
 When over the world you have to go,
 The sun will rise, and set, but I will be there.
- 3 O holy place! how often we stood
 To see the sun arise, and set,
 Where you are, we will go, and stand
 In peace, and quietness, and rest.
- 4 When I am gone, and you shall see it,
 In the bright light of day,
 In the clear light of noon, and in the light
 Of the moon at night.

Remember thy Creator.

1 Dear Master, how rememberest God,
Whom I have so ill treated now;
I've o'erdone, I've sinned much;
It's hard to leave a bad life.

2 I'm now in a dark valley of dying
But I'll get out of it again,
I'm still living,

3 Look at me, I'm a poor, old man,
I'm failing fast, I'm failing fast,
I'm failing fast.

4 I'm failing fast, I'm failing fast,
I'm failing fast, I'm failing fast,
I'm failing fast.

Life a Summer's day.

1 THIS life is but a summer's day
 Of shadows and of light;
 Its brightest sunbeams pass away,
 And soon give place to night.
 Fair childhood is the early-dawn,
 And youth to morning gay;
 Manhood's the noon, so quickly gone,
 And age the evening ray.

2 This life was giv'n us to prepare
 For that which is to come;
 O may I gain admittance there,
 And find a heavenly home!
 And will the Lord my sins forgive
 Through his redeeming love,
 And bid me to his glory live,
 And write my name above?

C. M.

253

Children may come.

1 I KNOW that I am but a child.—
 Let children play as I
 Have often done; I have trusted the Lord,
 All the year round o'er.

2 And in his holy Wor! I read,
 That those who seek in youth
 Shall surely taste his pard'ning love,
 And find the way of truth.

3 How careless then, in me to live,
 As none would dare to die!
 With active zeal I should secure
 A home beyond the sky.

4 How much I need the grace of God
 To keep this thought alive!
 Whoever gains the Christian's crown
 Must, like the Christian, strive.

Remember thy Creator.

1 R E M E M B E R thy Creator
 While youth's fair spring is bright;
 Before thy cares are greater,
 Before comes age's night;
 While yet the sun shines o'er thee,
 While stars the darkness cheer;
 While life is all before thee,
 Thy great Creator fear.

2 Remember thy Creator,
 Before the dust returns.

To earth — for 'tis its sphere —
 And life's last lesson I learn
 Before the God who gave it
 The spirit shall depart,
 He cries who died to save it,
 Thy great Creator Bear.

255

I am to live forever, if God will.

- 1 THE sun that lights the world shall fade,
 The stars shall pass away;
 But I, a child, innocent, simple,
 Shall witness their decay.
- 2 Yes, I shall live when they are dead,
 Though now so bright they shine;
 When earth and all it holds, and man,
 Eternity is mine.
- 3 For I shall never, never die,
 While God himself remains;
 But either live in heaven on high
 Or bound in hell in chains.
- 4 If then — when thy life's gone away,
 To Christ O Jesus go;
 If pain be here for the short day,
 We'll meet forever, so;

The Wise Choice.

- 1 WHY should we spend our youthful days
 In folly and in sin,
 When wisdom shows her pleasant ways,
 And bids us walk therein ?
- 2 Folly and sin our peace destroy;
 They glitter and are past:
 They yield us but a moment's joy,
 And end in death at last.
- 3 But if true wisdom we possess,
 Our joys shall never cease;
 Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
 And all her paths are peace.
- 4 O may we in our youthful days,
 Attend to wisdom's voice;
 And make these holy, happy ways
 Our own delightful choice !

God will be our Guide.

- 1 BLESSED, beyond all earthly blessing,
 Is the child whose tender youth,
 In the Lord's service passing,
 Walks in paths of love and truth.

- 2 He will govern those who love him,
 Those who walk in truth and fear,
 In all danger still shall prove him,
 Gracious, kind, and ever near.
- 3 Heavenly Father, let us prove thee
 An all-wise, protecting Friend !
 Make us fear thee, make us love thee
 Constant, to our latest end !

253

Progress and Consequence of Sin.

- 1 O UR evil actions spring
 From small and hidden seeds;
 At first we think some wicked thing,
 Then practice sinful deeds.
- 2 Wherever sin begins,
 It tends to death and woe;
 And he who heeds not little sins,
 A sinner's doom shall know.
- 3 O for a holy fear,
 Of every evil way,
 That we may never venture to leave
 The path that leads to joy.

THE BIBLE.

L.M.

259

Samuel.

- 1 ONCE in the silence of the night,
The lamp of God was clear and bright;
And there, by holy angels kept,
Samuel, the child, sweetly slept.
- 2 An unknown voice, the stillness broke;
"Samuel," it called, and thrice it spoke;
He rose — he asked whence came the word!
From Eli? no, it was the Lord.
- 3 Thus early call'd to serve his God,
The paths of righteousness he trod.
Wisdom and mercy ruled his breast,
And Israel, taught by him, was blest.
- 4 Speak, Lord, and from our earliest days
Incline our hearts to love thy ways;
O let thy voice now reach our ear;
Speak, Lord, and let thy servants hear.

We'll not give up the Bible.

- 1 WE'll not give up the Bible,
God's holy Book of truth;

The blessed staff of hoary age,
 The guide of early youth!
 The sun that sheds a glorious light
 O'er every dreary road;
 The voice that speaks a Saviour's love,
 And calls us home to God.

2 We'll not give up the Bible,
 For pleasure or for pain;
 We'll buy the truth, and sell it not,
 For all that we might gain;
 Though man should try to take our prize
 By guile or cruel might,
 We'll suffer all that man could do,
 And God defend the right!

3 We'll not give up the Bible,
 But spread it far and wide,
 Until its saving voice be heard
 Beyond the rolling tide;
 Till all shall know its gracious power,
 And, with one voice and heart,
 Resolve, that from God's sacred word,
 We'll never, never part!

My Mother's Bible.

1 THIS book is all that's left me now;
 Tears will unbidden start --

With faltering lip and throbbing brow,
I press it to my heart.
For many generations past,
Here is our family tree:
My Mother's hand this Bible clasp'd —
She, dying, gave it me.

2 Ah! well do I remember those Whose names these records bear —
Who round the hearth-stone used to close
After the evening prayer,
And speak of what these pages said —
In tones my heart would thrill:
Though they are with the silent dead,
Here they are living still.

3 My father read this holy book
To brothers, sisters dear:
How calm was my poor Mother's look,
Who lov'd God's word to haer!
Her angel face — I see it yet!
What thronging mem'ries come!
Again that little group is met
Within the halls of home.

You truest friend man ever knew,
Thy constancy I've tried:
Where all were false, I've found thee true —
My counsellor and guide!

Children's Hosanna.

- 1 CHILDREN of Jerusalem
Sang the praise of Jesus' name;
Children, too, of modern days,
Join to sing the Saviour's praise;
Hark! while infant voices sing
Loud hosannas to our King!
- 2 We are taught to love the Lord.
We are taught to read his word,
We are taught the way to heaven;
Praise for all to God be given;
Hark! while infant voices sing
Loud hosannas to our King!

3 Parents, teachers, old and young,
 All unite to swell the song:
 Higher, and yet higher rise,
 Till hosannas reach the skies:
 Hark! while infant voices sing
 Loud hosanna to our King!

Love of Jesus.

1 LITTLE child, do you love Jesus?
 Oh, how he loves!
 Do you wish to go to heaven?
 Oh, how he loves!
 First of all, ask his forgiveness
 With your heart, altho' quite helpless,
 Jesus little children blesses:
 Oh, how he loves! how he loves!
 How he loves! how he loves!

2 He will listen to your prayer:
 Oh, how he loves!
 Feed you by his tender care:
 Oh, how he loves!
 He became a child just like you;
 Here he suffered to redeem you;
 And at last he died to save you:
 Oh, how he loves, etc.

3 Trust him, he will ne'er forget you:
 Oh, how he loves !
 No, he never will forsake you;
 Oh, how he loves !
 None from his strong hand can pluck you;
 His Almighty arm protects you;
 Loving once, he ever loves you:
 Oh, how he loves, &c.

Vesper Hymn.

1 NOW we raise our infant voices,
 We would, too, the strain prolong—
 While both heaven and earth rejoices;
 Hallelujah is our song !
 Hallelujah ! Hallelujah ! Hallelujah ! Amen.

2 Lo ! the lofty heavens are bending—
 Jesus hears the voice of praise
 From our infant choir ascending,
 Higher now our song we raise:
 Hallelujah ! &c.

3 Once did infants prove thy favour,
 And were in thine arms entranced;
 "Oh, thou kind, indulgent Saviour !
 Great Redeemer of mankind !
 Hallelujah ! &c.

1 LET infant early bring,
 Hosannas to the Lord,
 And little children sing,
 In hymns of sweet accord:
 To God alone all praise belongs,
 Who loves to hear those infant songs.

2 Let youthful voices raise
 Anthems of heavenly joy;
 And with melodious praise,
 Their tuneful harps employ:
 To God alone all praise belongs,
 Who loves to hear those youthful songs.

God sees, hears, and knows me.

1 GOD is in heaven — can he hear
 A feeble prayer like mine?
 Yea, little child, thou need'st not fear:
 He will attend to thine.

2 God is in heaven — can he see
 When I am doing wrong?
 Yea, that he can — he looks at thee
 All day and all night long.

AND YOUNG CHILDREN.

282

- 3 Forever blessed be his name;
No earthly love like his!
O may we draw our hearts to him,
And to the world of bliss.
- 4 There may we come, at last to sing
In nobler strains his praise;
And join the little ones who stand
Before our Father's face.

God is Good.

- 1 MORNING amid the mountains,
Lovely solitude,
Gushing streams and fountains,
Murmur — God is good.
- 2 Now the glad sun, breaking,
Pours a golden flood:
Deepest vales awaking,
Echo — God is good.
- 3 Hymns of praise are ringing
Through the leafy wood;
Songsters, sweetly singing,
Warble — God is good.
- 4 Wake, and join the chorus,
Child, with soul endued!
He whose smile is o'er us,
God, our God, is good.

Early Conversation.

1 NOW that our journey's just begun,
Our road is so little broad,
We'll come before we further run,
And give ourselves to God.

3 And lest we should be ever led
Through sinful paths to stray,
We would at a time begin to tread
In wisdom's pleasant way.

3 What sorrows may our steps attend
We never can foretell;
But if the Lord will be our friend.
We know all will be well.

G. and G.a.

299

Children, Supplicating.

1 OUR Father, hallow'd be thy name,
The sweetest infant lips can frame,
We lift our prayer to thee;
Do thou the Holy Spirit send,
Our guardian, guide, instructor, friend,
And comforter to us.

2 Protect and lead our erring youth
In paths of piety and truth,
Nor ever let us stray;
But, through the Saviour's dying love
Bring us to dwell with thee above
In everlasting day.

The Happy Land.

1 THERE is a happy land,
Far, far away,—
Where saints in glory stand,
Bright, bright as day!
Oh how they sweetly sing,—
Worthy is our Saviour King:
Loud let his praises ring
For evermore!

2 Come to this happy land,
Come, come away;
Why will ye doubt stand?
Why still delay?
O we shall happy be,
When, from sin and sorrow free,
Lord, we shall live with thee,
Blest evermore.

~~224 INFANT CLASSES AND YOUNG CHILDREN.~~

3 Bright in that happy land,
Beams every eye;
Kept by a Father's hand,
Love cannot die.
O, then, to glory run;
Be a crown and kingdom won;
And bright above the sun,
Reign evermore!

Children brought to Jesus.

1 YOUNG children were to Jesus brought,
His blessings to obtain;
And never was his blessing sought
By old or young in vain.

2 When his disciples would have sent
Those little ones away,
Jesus rebuked the harsh intent,
And kindly bade them stay.

3 "Let little children come to me,
Nor from my arms be driven;
For these, and such as these, shall be
The blessed heirs of heaven."

4 "Forbid them not to ask my grace,
Though with a feeble tongue;
Forbid them not to seek my face—
They cannot be too young."

S. M.

272

Come to Jesus.

1 COME to the mercy seat—

Come to the place of prayer;
 Come, little children, to His feet,
 In whom we live and are!

2 Come to your God in prayer—

Come to your Saviour now—
 While youthful skies are bright and fair,
 And health is on your brow.

3 Come in the name of Him

Who all your sorrows bore,
 Who ever lives to pardon sin,
 And will be sought by prayer.

THE FUTURE WORLD.

273

Glory to God in the Highest.

1 A ROUND the throne of God in heaven,

A Thousands of children stand;

Children whose sins are all forgiven,
 A holy, happy band —
 Singing glory, glory, glory.

2 What brought them to that world above,
 That heaven so bright and fair —
 Where all is peace, and joy and love? —
 How came those children there,
 Singing glory, glory, glory?

3 Because the Saviour shed his blood
 To wash away their sin;
 Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
 Behold them white and clean —
 Singing glory, glory, glory.

4 On earth they sought their Saviour's grace,
 On earth they loved his name;
 So now they see his blessed face,
 And stand before the Lamb —
 Singing glory, glory, glory.

The Land of Rest.

1 THERE is an hour of peaceful rest.
 To mourning wand'lers given;
 There is a joy for souls distress'd,
 A balm for every wounded breast; —
 'Tis found above — in heaven.

- 2 There is a home for weary souls
 By sin and sorrow driven,
 When toss'd on life's tempestuous shoals,
 Where storms arise and ocean rolls,
 And all is drear but heaven.
- 3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
 To brighter prospects given:
 And views the tempest passing by,
 The evening shadows quickly fly,
 And all serene in heaven.
- 4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
 And joys supreme are given;
 There rays divine disperse the gloom—
 Beyond the confines of the tomb
 Appears the dawn of heaven.

Preparation for Heaven.

1 O HAPPY land! O happy land!
 Where saints and angels dwell;
 We long to join that glorious band,
 And all their anthems swell.
 But every voice in wonder strong
 On earth has breathed a prayer;
 No lips untainted may join that song,
 Or learn the music there.

2 Thou heavenly Friend! thou heavenly Friend,

O hear us when we pray;
Now let thy saving grace descend,

And take our souls away,
Be all our friend, our youthful days,
To thy blest service given;
Then we shall learn to sing thy praise,
A hymn of thanksgiving.

270
The Bright World, far away.

1 TWO that bright world where the Saviour

has gone;
Far, far away — far, far away;
He has invited his children to come,
There, there to stay — there to stay —
Never to part as we part here below —
Never to suffer temptation or woe —
Never from Jesus their Saviour to go —
There, there to stay — there to stay.

2 Sweet are the flowers that bloom on that shore,

Far, far away — far, far away;
Sweet will be our brief life in o'er,
There, there to stay — there to stay;
Then, ere we leave this world to die,
Let them go up to the bright home in the sky,
Thus be thy will, O Saviour;

There, there to stay — there to stay.

3 Often we mourn for our friends that are gone,
 Far, far away — far, far away;
 Sighing, — we fear they may never return,
 With us to stay — with us to stay;
 But those who meet in the Saviour's sweet home,
 Never — no ! never, shall wearily roam;
 Happy the day when the ransom'd shall come,
 There, there to stay, — there to stay.

Rest for the Worry.

1 IN the Christian's home in glory,
 There remains a land of rest,
 There my Saviour's gone before me,
 To fulfill my soul's request;
 There is rest for the weary,
 There is rest for you,
 On the other side of Jordan,
 In the sweet fields of Eden,
 Where the trees of life do blooming,
 There is rest for you.

2 He is fitting me for my home,
 Which is far, far away;
 For my soul is weary and faint,
 In that holy land.

3 Pain nor sickness ne'er shall enter,
 Grief nor woe my lot shall share,
 But in that celestial centre,
 I a crown of life shall wear.
 There is rest, &c.

4 Death itself shall then be vanquished,
 And his sting shall be withdrawn;
 Shout for gladness, O ye ransomed,
 Hail with joy the rising morn.
 There is rest, &c.

5 Sing, O sing, ye heirs of glory:
 Shout your triumph as you go;
Zion's gates will open for you,
You will find an entrance through
 There is rest, &c.

Canaan.

1. O H! what has Jesus done for me?
 He came from the land of Canaan;
 He groan'd and died upon the tree,
 That I might go to Canaan;
 A glorious cross now stands in view,
 In that precious land of Canaan;
 A palm of rest is spread in view,
 Come, let us go to Canaan.

Chorus—Canaan, bright Canaan,
 The glorious land of Canaan;
 O Canaan is a happy place,
 Come, let us go to Canaan.

- 2 When I shall join that blessed throng,
 In the glorious land of Canaan,
 I'll sing the great Redeemer's song,
 With happy saints of Canaan.
 There Jesus sits upon his throne,
 Exalted high in Canaan;
 Inviting all his children home.
 To dwell with him in Canaan.
Chorus—Canaan, &c.

No Night shall be in Heaven.

NO night shall be in heaven! no gath'ring gloom.
 Shall o'er that glorious landscape ever come;
 No tears shall fall in sadness o'er those flow'rs,
 That breathe their fragrance thro' celestial bow'rs.

- 2 No night shall be in heaven! no dreadful hour
 Of mental darkness, or the tempter's power,
 Across those skies no envious cloud shall roll,
 To dim the sunlight of the raptured soul.

3 No night shall be in heaven. Forbid to sleep,
These eyes no more their mournful vigils keep;
Their fountains dried, their tears all wiped away,
They gaze undazzled on eternal day.

4 No night shall be in heaven — no sorrow's reign,
No secret anguish, no corporeal pain;
No shivering limbs, no burning fever there.
No soul's eclipse, no winter of despair.

5 No night shall be in heaven — but endless
noon;
No fast-declining sun, nor waning moon;
But there the LAMB shall yield perpetual light,
Mid pastures green, and waters ever bright.

Evening — Solitude.

1 I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumb'ring care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love in solitude to shed
The painful loadier,

And all his promises he plead,
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on morrow past,
And future good implore,—
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

4 I love my faith to take a view
Of what our scenes in heaven;—
The present doth my strength renew,
While come by tempest driven.

5 Thus when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May the departing ray
Be calm as this imperious hour,
And lead to another day.

Triumph.

JOYFULLY, joyfully onward I move,
I sound the glad note of bright spirits above;
Apathetic, listless, dead I was,
"Is there no one to give me a name?"
Soon I find a name, and it is glory,
Home, and health, and friends, and power,
Fame, and wealth, and all the world over.
Joyfully, joyfully onward I move,

2 Friends fondly cherish'd have pass'd on before;

Waiting, they watch me approaching the shore;
Singing, to cheer me through death's chilling gloom,

"Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home."
Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear;
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear!
Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome,
"Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home."

3 Death, with thy weapons of war lay me low;
Strike, king of terrors, I fear not thy blow;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb:
Joyfully, joyfully will I go home.
Bright will the morn of eternity dawn;
Death shall be banish'd, His sceptre be gone;
Joyfully, then shall I witness his doom;
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

Homeward Bound.

OUT on an ocean all boundless we ride,
We're homeward-bound, homeward-bound,
Toss'd on the waves of a rough restless tide,
We're homeward-bound, homeward-bound,
Far from the morn of morn we've rode,
Seeking our Father's golden shade.
Promise of which can never be break'd,
We're homeward-bound, homeward-bound!

2 Wildly the storm swoops us on as it roars,
 We're homeward-bound, homeward-bound.
 Look ! yonder lie the bright heavenly shores,
 We're homeward-bound, homeward-bound.
 Steady, O pilot ! stand firm at the wheel,
 Steady, we soon shall outweather the gale,
 O, how we fly 'neath the load-breaking sail,
 We're homeward-bound, homeward-bound.

3 Into the harbour of heaven now we glide,
 We're home at last, home at last.
 Softly we drift on its bright silver tide,
 We're home at last, home at last.
 Glory to God ! all our dangers are o'er,
 We stand secure on the glorified shore,
 Glory to God ! we will sing evermore,
 We're home at last, home at last.

MISSIONS.

1 NOW be the gospel banner
 In every land unfurld ;
 And be the shout Hosanna
 Re-echoed through the world,
 Till every lake and nation,
 Till every tribe and tongue
 Receive the great salvation,
 And join the happy throng.

Now is the Gospel banner,
In every land unford'd;
And be the shout Hosanna.
Be-spread through the world.

- 2 Yes, now shall reign forever,
O Jesus, King of kings !
The right, thy love, thy power,
Good ransom'd captive sings;
The law and sin are waiting,
The doves hear thy psalm,
The hills and valleys preceding,
The song responsive psalm.
Now is the Gospel banner,
In every land unford'd;
And be the shout Hosanna.
Be-spread through the world.

L. M.

284
Universal Praise.

- 1 FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Gospel banner arise;
Let the shout Hosanna be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.
- 2 Eternal are thy righteous Word,
Eternal are thy mighty Word;
The world above thy Word,
The world below thy Word.

S. M.

285

Sow Beside all Waters.

- 1 SOw in the morn thy seed;
At eve hold not thy hand,
To doubt and fear give thou no heed,—
Broadcast it o'er the land.
- 2 Thou know'st not which shall thrive,—
The late or early sown;
Grace keeps the precious germ alive,
Where and wherever strown.
- 3 And daily shall appear,
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn by length.
- 4 Then comes the fall in vain:
Cold, hard, and moist, and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.

285

Meeting for Charity.

- 1 I TTYL, I'll go and feed the rill;
I'll go and gather golden grain;
I'll go and bring the flowers in,

- 2 So the dew-drops gather'd here,
 Mites from willing childhood's hand,
 Shall those streams of bounty cheer,
 That with greenness clothe the land.
- 3 With that sea of love shall blend,
 Which the gospel's grace doth pour,
 And the name of Jesus send
 E'en to earth's remotest shore.

Love for Zion.

- 1 I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord,—
 The house of thine abode,—
 The Church our blest Redeemer saved
 With his own precious blood.
- 2 I love thy Church, O God !
 Her walls before thee stand,
 Dear as the apple of thine eye,
 And graven on thine hand.
- 3 For here my tears shall fall;
 For here my prayers ascend;
 To here my cause and joys be given,
 Till told and known shall end.

- 4 Beyond my highest joy,
I prize her heavenly ways;
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

CLOSING HYMNS.

S. M.

238

Sympathy and Mutual Love.

- 1 BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayen;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our care.
- 3 We share our mutual woes;
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 From sorrow, tell and pain,
And sin we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

CLOSING.

8^a and 7^a

250

A Blessing Sought on Instruction Given.

- 1 HEAVENLY Father, grant thy blessing
On the teaching of this day;
That our hearts thy dear possessing,
May from sin be turn'd away.
- 2 Have we wander'd? O forgive us;
Have we wish'd from truth to rove?
Turn, O turn us, and receive us,
And make us truth to love.

L. M.

250

Lord Dismiss us.

- 1 ETERNAL Father, God of Grace!
E, Who dwellest in this holy place,
Hear us, O hear us, while we pray,
And send us not without away!
- 2 Look on us now, and bless us here;
We faint would wimble in thy fear;
O be thy shadow round us spread,
O be thy Spirit on us shed.

3 Not many years our feet have run,
 Yet hast thou watch'd them every one:
 May all our future years be bright
 With beams of heavenly love and light.

4 Life, and when we come to die,
 Be thou our guardian ever nigh;
 And may the pang that sets us free,
 Waft every spirit home to thee.

Saviour, protect us.

1 FOR a season called to part,
 Let us now ourselves command
 To the gracious eye and heart
 Of our ever-present Friend.

2 Jesus, hear our humble prayer,
 Tender Shepherd of thy sheep;
 Let thy mercy, and thy care,
 All our souls in safety keep.

3 What we lack have now been taught,
 Let us now only retain:

May we, if we live, be brought
Here to meet in peace again.

4 Then, if thou instruction best,
Songs of praise shall be given:
We'll our thankfulness express,
Here on earth and when in heaven.

Parting Hymn.

1 GUIDE of our youth, to thee we pray;
G Help us to tread thy holy way;
And may each day of life be pass'd
As if we knew it were our last.

2 Smile, Lord, on those whose toil and care
Are spent for our instruction here;
And let our conduct ever prove
Our gratitude for all their love.

3 Through life may we perform thy will—
Our various duties all fulfill;
Then join the friends we have have known,
In nobler song around thy throne.

Parting Hymn.

- 1 COME, children, ere we part,
 Bless the Redeemer's name.
Join every tongue and heart
 To celebrate his fame.
 Jesus the children's Friend,
 Him whom our souls adore,
His praises have no end;
 Praise him for evermore.
- 2 Lord, in thy grace we came—
 That blessing still impart;
We meet in Jesus' name—
 In Jesus' name we part.
 Jesus, &c.
- 3 If here we meet no more,
 May we in realms above,
With all the saints, adore
 Redeeming grace and love,
 Jesus the children's Friend,
 Him whom our souls adore,
His praises have no end;
 Praise him for evermore.
