Parents Objected To Fredericton Wedding

To be married on one day and separated from his bride the next day was the experience of Alonzo Smith, a returned soldier, of Fredericton.
On Wednesday afternoon, at the home of the groom's parents, Alonzo Smith and Miss May Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harding, of Lower St. Mary's were united in marriage. Shortly after the ceremony the bride and groom decided to pay a visit to the bride's parents at their home on the other side of the river, and were anticipating a heavy wet, but their joyful anticipations were soon shattered, as they no sooner entered the house when the irate parents of the young bride seized her quickly and locked her in a room and the groom was asked to leave the house. He did not at once do so, but endeavored to effect a reconciliation, but to no avail and he was forced to leave his bride of a few hours and return to the city.

The groom, undaunted, at once called on Police Magistrate Limerick and explained the situation to him. After some time the magistrate and the bride's parents came to an agreement whereby she would remain under her parents' roof and her husband visit her on Saturdays. It was quite a jolt to the newly married couple, but they had to abide by the verdict, as the bride was under age and had been married without her parents' consent.
Early that evening Mrs. Smith in some manner escaped the surveillance of her parents and came to the city and joined her husband, and they were passengers on one of the outgoing trains to parts unknown.

Large Amount Raised By Hospital Aid

Good Work In Aid of Miramichi Hospital Being Done by New Society

At an adjourned meeting of the Miramichi Hospital Aid, Newcastle, held Thursday afternoon, 6th instant, in the Hospital Building, to complete organization and receive report of the President on Life membership, the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The President, Mrs. L. H. MacLean, being at the previous meeting deputized to solicit life members among the leading men of the town and community, reported that she had met with a most delightful reception among the men as a whole and consequently was able to report, at this early date, after only about one week's canvass, a life membership list of 33 representative men, netting $250.00 and donations of $200.00, and Chatham not yet canvassed, from where the committee is sure an equally splendid response will be made.
As a recognition of this work done by the president, the ladies of St. James' Presbyterian Church, at the close of Mrs. MacLean's report, presented her with a life membership in the Hospital Aid, bringing the total life membership to 34.
Knowing that the Hospital was the free gift of the late Ernest Hutchison, of Douglasston, Mrs. MacLean in closing her report suggested that Mrs. Hutchison be made Honorary President of the Miramichi Hospital Aid, which suggestion was unanimously adopted amid the warmest enthusiasm.
A vote of thanks was tendered the Union Advocate of Newcastle, for printing notice postal cards free of charge.
The Aid would heartily thank all those who have already contributed, and those who yet may, at the same time assuring them they are contributing towards a worthy cause, as the Miramichi Hospital rates even to paying patients are most reasonable, and to all who cannot pay equally good care is given. Hence in supporting the Miramichi Hospital an Institution being supported second to none in its equipment and service, and whose only requirement to give free treatment is that it be assured the patient is unable to pay; after which assurance it receives treatment in no sense inferior to that given to all other patients.
The hospital will give free treatment to those unable to pay.
The Life Members of the Aid are: E. A. McCurdy, Newcastle.
James Robinson, Millerton.

Local House Now In Annual Session

Opening Took Place on Thursday Last—Votes for Women Forecasted by Lt. Governor's Speech

New Brunswick's first-after-the-war session of the Provincial Legislature—officially known as the third session of the seventh Legislature—was opened Thursday afternoon with one of the most elaborate military displays that has ever characterized the event.
The guards about the Legislature were dispensed with after having been kept on duty during the war-time sessions and all these features of the military display which had been passed up during the war were in evidence once more.
Returned soldiers were everywhere in evidence. The party who fired the 12-pounder guns from the usual position on the river bank in front of the Parliament building was composed entirely of returned men under the command of Lieut. deB. Millidge, M.C. officers recently returned from overseas, were in command of the Guard of Honor, while Lieut. Governor Pugsley's military staff was composed entirely of officers who had been with the Canadian Corps.
Under most auspicious weather conditions, with a warm sun shining after a light fall of snow during the night which served to make everything appear clean and fresh, a larger gathering than usual viewed the out-of-doors features in connection with the opening of the House, while the ceremonies in the Assembly Chamber were witnessed by probably the largest and most brilliant gathering since before the war. In fact, the out-of-door visitors were even more numerous than usual, the galleries being crowded, while all the available space on the floors of the House was taken up.
The Speech from the Throne was read by Lieut. Governor Pugsley, was a somewhat longer document than usual but referred to many matters of interest and gave a comprehensive programme for the session.
Premier Foster and his government were all present at the opening ceremonies but Hon. Jas. A. Murray, leader of the Opposition, was not in as yet and it is said will probably not be here for at least a week, as a result of a relapse of an attack of influenza which he has suffered, Hon. J.B.M. Baxter acted as leader of the Opposition and will continue to do so until the arrival of Hon. Mr. Murray.
The first official ceremony of the day, after the opening prayers had been offered by Rev. Z.L. Fash, pastor of the George Street United Baptist Church, the new chaplain of the House was the election of a new speaker to succeed Hon. William Currie, who resigned the Speakership, as a result of the findings of Commissioner Friel.
The new Speaker is Dr. J.E. Hetherington, M.L.A., for Queens, but his election was entirely a formal matter the House assenting to Premier Foster's proposal for the elevation of the popular member for Queens to the Speakership. The new Speaker then took up his duties amidst applause but soon retired as the arrival of the Lieutenant Governor was announced by the Sergeant at Arms, S.S. Wetmore, A.A.G. of No 7 Military District, lined up on either side of the Throne, extending almost the entire distance across the Assembly Chamber while Lieutenant Governor Pugsley, accompanied by Lieut. Col. W.J. Osborne, ADC and Mr. R.S. Barker, his private secretary, proceeded to the Throne from which the Speech was read.
It was just about 3 o'clock when the strains of the National Anthem played by the New Brunswick Depot Battalion Band announced the arrival of the gubernatorial party, and as Lieutenant Governor Pugsley alighted from his barouche the guard of honor from the 7th Canadian Garrison Battalion, St. John, under command of Capt. Smith, M.C., presented arms. About the same time the salute of 15 guns fired by the party of returned soldiers under command of Lieut. deB. Millidge, M.C., also burst forth with more noise than is usually made by the salute as the bigger guns than usual were utilized.

Romantic Maiden Meets Disappointment

English Lass Wedded N. B. Indian in England and Had Dreams of Life in The Wilds of Canada

A strange case of romance mingled with tragedy was brought a few days ago to the attention of patriotic women workers who attend the arrival of returned soldiers at West St. John and care for the soldiers' dependents.
In receiving and conversing with the many English brides who have cast in their lot with Canadian lads and who have come to this country to settle with their soldier husbands, their notice was attracted to a particularly distinguished looking young lady, cultured and of fine attainments. On enquiry they learned that this English girl of splendid family had become acquainted with a New Brunswick Indian in the ranks of the army. He presented himself to her, in imagination as being chief of a great tribe and wielding immense influence over a vast territory. The possibility of being queen of such a realm no doubt appealed to her romantic nature after her quiet life among the peaceful pastoral surroundings of the English country village, and the two were wed.
The young lady's conversation betrayed the castles she had built in the air; how she proposed to govern with queenly grace a great band of Redskins, and how, in her charitable nature, she was planning to improve their "primeval" conditions.
It took but few minutes for the women to realize that the pretty bride had been victimized as much by her own false conceptions perhaps as by the misrepresentations, but at the same time they approached with reluctance the task of disillusioning her.
Sympathetically they advised her that she had made a mistake and urged her not to proceed to her husband's home. She insisted, however, that she should go and rule the tribe of which he was chief. As delicately as possible she was told that there were no "big chiefs" now. She was still unmoved, however, interpreting the solicitations of the kind women as advice against adopting the redman's life. She still believed her husband was head of a tribe and a big ruler.
Finally the young bride consented that two of the women should accompany her to her husband's home to see if she was satisfied with conditions. Still in good spirits, she traveled with the two local women to a place not many miles from St. John, where the Indian had made his abode. There her romantic vision received a rude jolt. Instead of the encampment that was pointed in her imagination she found but a few rude huts and her husband's relatives living in squalor without one relieving touch of romance. The shock was so great that she fainted away.
The next train back to St. John brought the bride of a few weeks and her two guardians. After but a few minutes' visit to what she expected would be her home, she gave up the dreams of future glory, and, incidentally, parted from her Indian husband. The next boat took her back to England to rejoin her family.—St. John Telegraph.

Sad Death Of Popular Young Man

Frank Noonan Formerly Clerk in Hotel Miramichi Died Monday After Short Illness

The death occurred at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Chatham, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, of Frank Noonan under very sad circumstances. The deceased, who recently obtained his discharge from the Canadian Militia, left on the 24th ult. for Toronto, to accept a position in the Hotel Carls Rite, and had only been in the city a few days when he was taken sick, and not desiring to be ill in a strange city started for home, arriving here Sunday morning, but was in such a condition when he arrived here that he had to be carried from the train, and was at once taken to the Hotel Miramichi, and Dr. Nicholson summoned, but the long journey, together with his weakened condition, proved too great a strain and when it was seen that the end was near, he was hurried to the Hotel Dieu in the hope of saving his life, but without avail, and he passed away yesterday afternoon from pneumonia.
The deceased was for some years clerk in the Hotel Miramichi, and made many friends, who were shocked to hear of his sudden and untimely death.
The late Mr. Noonan was twenty-three years of age, and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Michael Noonan, Douglasfield, one brother John, at home, and two sisters, Misses Gertrude and Marie, of New York.
The funeral will take place at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon at St. Michael's Cathedral, Chatham.

Canadian Troops Riot In England

Five persons are known to have been killed, and from twenty-five to seventy-three wounded in rioting during the past three days at the Kilmel military camp at Rhyl, Wales.

The riot was started by about two hundred malcontents. There were 25,000 Canadians in the camp awaiting demobilization and embarkation. The casualties who had served for three years or more in France. They complained that their embarkation had been postponed while other men who had seen less service were sent home.
The outbreak began Tuesday night with the signal cry "Come on Bolsheviks" uttered by a man said to belong to the Canadian forces. A large number of men then wrecked the stores building and thousands of loaves of bread were trampled into the mud. The women's auxiliary quarters were rushed and the women's clothes carried off. The rioters seized stores of ammunition, fired on the officers' quarters and then began a march in the direction of Abergel, but were held up.
A staff officer flew from the war office in London by airplane and addressed the men, undertaking that their grievances regarding demobilization and pay, which caused the outbreak, should be immediately removed. He declared that ten thousand men would be away by the week after next and that four transports, would be placed at the disposal of the colonials.
Canadian military headquarters in London issued a statement which says the disturbance was entirely due to the delay in getting the men back to Canada. It was impossible to keep the promises given the men, owing to the shortage of vessels to convey them home. The authorities, however, do not regard the rioting as justified and the offenders, many of whom already are under arrest, will be vigorously dealt with.
A number of civilians took part in the disturbance, and twenty of these also have been arrested and handed over to the civil authorities.
In the course of the trouble three rioters and two sentries were killed, and twenty-one persons were injured, including two officers, according to the statement.

Fredericton, Mar. 6.—A provincial grant of $5,000 will be given to the Chatham 1919 exhibition it was announced today. Last night a delegation composed of President George Watt, manager; George E. Fisher, secretary; Fred M. Tweedie, and A. G. Dickson, members of the board of directors of the Miramichi Agricultural Exhibition Society arrived by C.N.R. from Chatham, and accompanied by Hon. J.P. Burchill, M.L.A., appeared before the government. The delegation requested that a provincial grant of $5,000 be given to the society as assistance towards carrying on the Chatham exhibition, which will be held during the week of September 22nd to 27th. The government were favorably impressed with the proposals and promised the delegation that a grant would be made. It was said that the full amount asked for $5,000, would be given.

Missing Cartier Statues Are Found

Were Hidden in Brussels Safe Away From German Vandals

Montreal, Mar. 5.—The missing statues needed for the completion of the Cartier monuments in Montreal, Quebec and St. Antoine sur Richelieu have been found in Brussels and will be shipped to Canada shortly, according to a message received by George W. Hill, the sculptor. At the outbreak of the war, the statues were hidden in Brussels by the Belgians in charge of the country where the casts were made. Thus the statues escaped destruction at the hands of the Germans. The missing statue for the Montreal monument on Fletcher's Field depicts a soldier defending the flag. The defence of the flag is one of the bases of Confederation is the inscription. The statue of Cartier has been in Montreal since 1914, but has not yet been placed. The statues for Quebec and St. Antoine sur Richelieu that will soon be shipped from Brussels are both of Cartier.

The Cartier Centenary Committee, which E.W. Cilleneuve is the chairman, will complete arrangements for unveiling the statues this summer. Hortense Cartier, the surviving daughter of Cartier, will come from France for the ceremony.

Teething Troubles

Baby's teething time is a time of worry for most mothers. Baby's little gums become swollen and tender; his bowels get out of order and constipation, colic or even diarrhoea sets in. To make the teething period easy Baby's Own Tablets should be given the little one. They soothe the stomach, regulate the bowels and keep away good natured. Concerning them Mrs. Marcel D. LeBlanc, Montserrat West N.B., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past six years and have found them indispensable. To my mind nothing can equal them in allaying the fever accompanying teething. I would not be without them and can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Were Victims Of Bolshevik Fury

Esthonians Met Terrible Deaths; Appalling Crimes

Copenhagen, March 4.—An appalling narrative of inhuman crime is revealed in the official report of the Esthonian authorities committed in Estonia especially Veenberg and Dorpat. The graves of those murdered at Wessenberg were opened on February 20. Three graves were found to contain 82 corpses. Skulls were shattered, bodies bayoneted and even excruciated. An eye-witness of the execution who escaped, described the terrible scene when the victims were placed on the edge of the graves and shot indiscriminately, trampled into the graves and finished with bursts of rifles. The vicinity of the graves was littered with torn clothing, brains, fragments of skulls and hair, while the grass was covered with congealed blood. Similar bloodthirstiness was evinced at Dorpat, where the murdered victims were dropped into the river through holes in the ice. Recovered bodies revealed many arms and legs broken, and one with a eye put out.

The prisoners captured were robbed of clothes and valuables, led to a cellar and killed with hatchets and bombs. Examination of the cellar showed bodies piled up thickly in unnatural positions. The walls were splashed with blood. Bolshevik fury also raged against the peasantry, many of whom were mutilated and murdered. Thirty women were killed at Narva by stones being tied round their necks and being thrown into the river.

New Brunswicker's Gift To Cathedral

John Rankin Gives Great Porch to Liverpool Cathedral

(Church Family Newspaper) At the last meeting of the Liverpool Cathedral Finance Committee, a very striking and welcome piece of information was conveyed to those present when it was announced that £20,000 had been given to the Cathedral Building Fund. The beneficent donor is Mr. John Rankin. The gift is to be devoted to the erection of the great southern porch of the Cathedral. This porch is destined to become the chief entrance to the Cathedral and will make a very imposing feature. The Finance Committee unanimously agreed that the porch should be specially dedicated to the Rankin family. For the past century this family have closely identified themselves with Liverpool's prosperity. They have been large contributors to the city's charitable and philanthropic work. The present donor was born in New Brunswick, in 1845, and in early boyhood came to Liverpool. After completing his studies at a leading Liverpool school, he went to St. Andrew's University. At the close of his scholastic career he joined members of his own family in the shipping enterprise of Liverpool. The well-known firm of Messrs. Rankin, Gilmore and Co. of which he has for many years been the head, has interests of a business nature all over the world. He has assisted very much in maintaining the overseas trade supremacy of Liverpool.

Weak Worried Women

Can Find New Health and Strength Through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

It is useless to tell a hard working woman to take life easily and not to worry. To do so is to ask the almost impossible. But, at the same time it is the duty of every woman to save her strength as much as possible; to take her cares as lightly as may be, and to build up her strength to meet any unusual demands. It is a duty she owes herself and family or her future health may depend upon it. To guard against a complete breakdown in health the blood must be kept rich, red and pure. No other medicine does this so well as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This medicine actually makes new, red blood, strengthens the nerves, restores the appetite and keeps every organ healthily toned up. Women cannot always rest when they should, but they can keep their strength and keep disease away by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which have done more to lighten the cares of weak women than any other medicine. Among the many women who have reason to be thankful for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. Milan Bailey, Utterson, Ont., who says: "Two years ago I got weak and badly run down, and could scarcely do my housework. I grew so thin that my friends used to comment on it. At that time my baby was six months old and the care of it and my housework was almost too much for me. It was at this stage that my husband got me a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and before I had been taking them long we could see an improvement in my condition. For months I had not been sleeping well and my natural sleep returned and I wasn't so nervous. Then my friends began to comment upon my improved condition and tell me how much better I was looking. By the time I had taken six boxes I felt completely cured and have since enjoyed the best of health. Now I never fail to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when any of my friends are ailing."

German Dignity Feels Outraged

Coblentz, March 6.—All German officers and men on duty in the zone occupied by American troops are to wear uniforms when they appear in the street, according to an order issued by General Dickman. The order is a result of a tendency on the part of certain German senior officers to wear civilian clothes, because of their dislike to being compelled by a general order issued some time ago to salute all American officers. The Germans claimed that it was very distasteful for German officers of rank to have to salute American lieutenants.

My Limbs Would Twitch

And Waken Me—Unable to Rest or Sleep, I Walked the Floor in Nervous State—When Specialists Failed I Found a Cure.

This is the kind of cure that has set Windsor people thinking and talking about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The action of this food cure is so radically different to the usual treatments for the nerves that everybody wants to try it. Gradually and certainly it nourishes the starved nerves back to health and vigor and the benefits obtained are both thorough and lasting. Mrs. M. Smithson, 27 Arthur street, Windsor, Ont., writes: "I was suffering from nervous breakdown, which was caused by a shock when fire broke out in the adjoining house. My nerves were in such a state that, after going to bed I could not get my nerves quieted down sufficiently to go to sleep. I used to get up and walk around the room, or go downstairs. Even when I would be dropping off to sleep my limbs would twitch and waken me. I used to have cold, nervous, night sweats, sometimes would become unconscious and lie that way for quite a little while. It was always cold and it seemed impossible for me to get warm or keep warm. When on the street I would see two or three objects at once, and did not want any person to speak to me or bother me. Any little noise irritated and annoyed me very much. I had consulted specialists and tried many remedies during this time, but could not gain relief. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and before long could see that this treatment was proving of benefit. I am now feeling so much better that I can go out on the street without any difficulty, can go across the river and go about the same as usual. I sleep well at night, and am feeling more like myself every day. I am pleased to be able to write you to tell you how truly good the Nerve Food has done me. It has strengthened and built up my whole system. I am recommending it to everybody I find suffering from nervousness of any kind." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Many friends were sorry indeed to hear of the death of Mrs. David Ward of Blissfield, who was a capable nurse and her loving and cheerful disposition made her beloved by all.

Many friends were pleased to welcome home from overseas, Captain Ralph Holmes, who arrived Tuesday morning from Halifax, having arrived a few days previous on the Belgic.

Capt. Holmes who went overseas with the 132nd North Shore Battalion, deserves much credit, for while in England, he gave up his commission as Captain, and went to France as a Lieutenant. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes, the well known lumberman of Doaktown.

Miss Freda Wier, P.A., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Wier, arrived home last Wednesday evening from Alberta where she has been teaching for a few years. It takes a joint of beef to make a bottle of Bovril

Bovril contains the goodness of the beef. The vital elements that give beef its special place and value as a food are concentrated and stored in Bovril.

Just as the equivalent eight of 32 ounces is concentrated in one ounce of Bovril, so the vital elements of beef—of which 100 lbs. of beef are concentrated in a single bottle of Bovril.

But Bovril is not merely a precious food in itself; it possesses the peculiar power of enabling you to extract maximum nutriment from a few cups. This gives Bovril its wonderful quick-acting power, proved by independent experiments to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken. Bovril, therefore, in the true sense of the word, is a Great Food.

Always keep Bovril in the house.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Stock Of Whiskey At New Glasgow

Contraband Goods to the Value of $5,000 Found in a Car Load of Hay

New Glasgow, Mar. 6—Eighty four cases of Canadian whiskey, one hundred and ninety-one cases of Redmond Irish whiskey, and five packages of other liquor in tanks, was the amount seized by Chief Watters and Inspector Soy in the car which was destroyed by the railway policemen recently.

It took more than two hours to remove the stuff from the car to the jail, where Chief Watters with coat and vest laid aside, worked hard piling to the ceiling in the largest cell at the lockup. During the past several months rumors have been current that much liquor was being brought to New Glasgow where it was partly unloaded. It was then, for some reason, moved to Stellarton where the liquor was taken out and brought back to New Glasgow by team.

Just what proceedings will be taken in regard to this big haul is not known, but it is certain that the prospect of the owners regaining possession of it is quite remote.
The market value of this whiskey must be nearly five thousand dollars, and the man who takes the risk of sending that amount of booze into a prohibitory province is surely some plunger.

Bolshevik Orders Incurable Typhus Cases Be Killed

Stockholm, March 6—Typhoid is raging with increased force in Petrograd, according to advices from that city. In one single hospital eight thousand persons die monthly. In the provinces the mortality is so great that the Bolsheviks have issued a secret order to kill the incurable cases, hoping thus to counteract the contagion which is almost impossible to stop by any means. Hardly any medicine is available.

Britians Biggest Airship Makes Most Satisfactory Trip

London, March 7—Great Britain's biggest airship, the R33, which is 670 feet long, made a trial flight today and covered thirty miles in half an hour on a perfectly even keel. It landed successfully in spite of unfavorable weather.

Mr. Carvell is a former abductor of Chatham, and it is understood that he will be put on trial against the soldier who made affidavit that he (Carvell) had a deal with him with liquor. It is claimed the affidavit was made after Mr. Carvell had put the soldier off his lively stable premises on account of being drunk—Gleaner.

Chatham World—M. S. Stewart, of Neguac, has just secured Canadian and United States patents on an invention which he recently perfected after years of study and experiment. It is an axe with adjustable bits. When the workman desires that his axe is getting dull or worn he wants it to be very sharp for some nice cutting he doesn't have to stop work and visit the grindstone, but knocks out the bit with a sharp tap of a hammer and inserts another bit in the sickle shape groove that is provided for the purpose.

These short skirts are rather bewildering.

An incident which drew forth considerable attention took place at the Opera House on Saturday evening. When the orchestra was playing God Save the King and the audience was standing in respect to His Majesty, a young man put his cap on his head and started from the hall. Manager Richards, of the Happy Hour Theatre, announces that he has booked Vitagraph's newest and greatest serial, "A Fight for Millions," and will show the first episode on Friday and Saturday. Thereafter he will run one episode per week for 15 weeks.

William Duncan, "the strong man of the screen," and the dashing hero of "The Fighting Trail" and "Vengeance and The Woman," will again be seen as the hero, with Edith Johnson as the heroine and Joe Ryan, "the Sheeple," of "The Fighting Trail," as the leading heavy.

As in the other Vitagraph serials, there is plenty of action in "A Fight for Millions," and a great deal of wonderful riding by Vitagraph's famous cowboys. The story was written by Albert E. Smith, president of the Vitagraph company, and Cyrus Townsend Brady, noted as one of the leading fiction writers of the country. The same authors gave us "Vengeance and The Woman" and "The Woman in the Web."

Like its predecessors, the story of "A Fight for Millions" will be in fifteen episodes and Manager Richards, who has already seen most of the serial screened, declares that it exceeds in thrills and feats of daring any of the serials which have gone before. It was made in the Northwest, mostly in the Canadian Rockies, and most of the story transpires along the Canadian border, with Northwest Mounted Police, the relentless foes of crime and criminals playing a prominent part in the narrative.

William Duncan who directed the big picture in addition to playing the leading role in it, appears to greater advantage in this than in his previous efforts. Right in the early part of the story he begins a career of perilous adventure by plunging into a mountain torrent after being shot from a horse as it gallops across a swinging bridge hundreds of feet in the air. This is described by Manager Richards as one of the most terrifying stunts he has ever seen performed on the screen. In the same episode a man is shown ablaze from head to foot after the heroine huris a lighted lamp at him. Subsequently he forces her to leap from the top of a mountain, using an improvised parachute.
