MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7.

General News.

A lynx measuring four feet, and of immense weight, was shot one day last week by Mr. Joseph Crandon, on his farm in the township of Blanshard.

THERE is a firm in West Troy whose business last year amounted to $130,000, but whose losses by bad debts were only twenty-eight dollars!

THE St. John (N.B.) Morning Journal, wants to know who is to be Governor of New Brunswick, and says: "Will it be the Hon. George Brown, the Hon. Dr. Tupper, or the Hon. Adam Archibald?—These are all good men."

A BENCH of Magistrates has been sitting for a week down at Newmarket to endeavor to ascertain who broke the peace by cracking the shells of a large number of ancient eggs on the night of the election. Their enquiries have as yet amounted to nothing, but they intend to renew them on the 17th inst.

THE Nova Scotia Antis has been in council at Halifax, and, notwithstanding the stories about "not going to Ottawa," "resisting the collection of the revenue," &c., we learn by telegraph from Halifax last night that the Howe party "are going to fall in with the Union; they say they won't oppose the Government." So says the St. John, N. B., Telegraph.

NOTWITHSTANDING the report, the Emperor Napoleon will pay a visit to Berlin during the present month, public opinion in Paris, not only in military but in civil circles, continues to exhibit a warlike tendency. Many persons, it is said, have made up their minds that there must be a war with Prussia, and, that as it is inevitable, the sooner it is over the better.

THE Montreal Gazette says that the first business to be despatched by the General Parliament will be—I. A Bill of indemnity to cover the public expenditure from the 30th of June last, the close of the financial year for Ontario and Quebec. II. The transfer to Provincial control of local public works and buildings. III. The local organization of the Federal departments. IV. The equalization of the tariff for all the Provinces. V. The admission of the North-West territory, British Columbia and Vancouver to the Union. VI. The provision for securing the Intercolonial Railway guarantee. VII. The Fisheries.

THE British infantry soldier is to move six pounds lighter than heretofore. The old knapsack is discarded and a bag introduced, which is placed low down on the back and suspended from a leathern yoke, by which the weight is distributed in three different directions. The ammunition is distributed in two long, narrow pouches made of soft leather, and each holding thirty rounds. The kit-bag has also, two small pouches for ten rounds each, and ten more loose rounds are contained in a little bag worn on the right side, making a total of ninety rounds. The breech-loading system renders it necessary for the soldier to carry a double quantity of ammunition.

POULTRY SHOW.—The Poultry Association of Toronto intend to hold an Exhibition in Fetherland, it appears that the prizes and valuable cups to be competed for, and judging by the number of entries papers applied for, the competition will be keen. Many well-known winners of first-class prizes at the Provincial Exhibitions, and who, on account of the inferior accommodation offered exhibitors in this department, refrained from sending their birds this year to Kingston, will, we understand, be competitors at the November exhibition.

THE Saginaw Enterprise says that a well-known German merchant in that city was notified on Tuesday that a suit for breach of promise of marriage is about to be commenced against him. Years ago, in Fetherland, it appears that he loved this maiden—not wisely, but too well—but his affection cooled toward her and eventually turned to aversion, she still had a hankering after him, and several years after he had chosen America as his adopted home, she followed him, perhaps with an idea of bringing him back. Not succeeding in this, she had him arrested for a crime of which he was afterwards acquitted, and latterly she conceived the idea of suing him for breach of promise. Counsel was accordingly employed, and the German notified, but rather than carry the matter into litigation, the lady agreed to accept $70, as a compensation for wounded pride and lost reputation, and let the affair drop.

CRITICAL OPERATION.—The Hamilton Times relates the following: A little boy, son of Michael Gaghan, residing on Rebecca street, aged eight years, on Monday last accidentally swallowed part of a glass pen-handle. As he did not suffer any inconvenience, the case did not demand any interference until early Friday morning, when it very nearly terminated fatally, during two or three prolonged attacks of suffocation. Drs Macdonald and Rosburgh having been called in, they decided that the article had passed into the windpipe, and as it slipped up and down it brought on the attacks of suffocation. The doctors explained to the parents that death was imminent, but an operation might enable them to remove the obstruction and thus save the little sufferer's life. The parents desired them to make the attempt, and the doctors made an opening in the front part of the windpipe and by passing a pair of forceps some distance down the tube, they fortunately caught the pen-handle and brought it out. We are happy to learn that the little boy obtained immediate relief.

Local News.

FIRE FROM LIGHTNING.—We are sorry to learn that about one o'clock Wednesday morning last the barn of Mr. C. Lamb of Peel was struck by lightning and with its contents entirely destroyed. The total loss is estimated at about $1,000, which is partially covered with an insurance of $400 in the Liverpool, London and Globe.

FOX HUNT ON SATURDAY.—The third meet of the Wellington Hunt, took place on Mr. Wm. Hood's farm on Saturday last. The day was favorable, as it was cool and cloudy, and the scent lay well. The hunt was an improvement on the last two, the fox making a better run, and no outrunning the dogs. Mr. James O'Neill had the honor of winning the brush.

CHEAP BOOKS.—In looking over some books the other day in Mr. Shewan's store, we were surprised to notice some of the latest and best editions of popular authors, such as Dr. Guthrie and Dr. Norman Macleod selling at such low prices. The best of literature is now as the old saying goes, sold for a mere song. The reading public cannot do better than inspect Mr. Shewan's new stock, and they will be surprised at the low prices charged for books that will do honor to any man's book shelves.

CHARITABLE CONCERT.—It will be observed by advertisement in to-day's issue, that a Concert will be held in the Drill Shed on the evening of Wednesday the 23rd inst., in aid of the orphans and aged in St. Joseph's Hospital. The claims which the classes mentioned have on the generosity of the charitable need not be set forth. They are known, and we doubt not that the appeal will be duly regarded, and that it will meet with a willing response. First class vocal talent has been engaged for the occasion, and still more the engagements will not terminate with the close of the concert for a Quadrille Band will then be in attendance. This, we take it, means renewed pleasure.

THE GARAFAXA RAILWAY BY-LAW.—The vote was taken on the By-law submitted by the Council of Garafaxa, granting a bonus of $20,000 to the Wellington, Grey, and Bruce Railway, and of $10,000 to the Orangeville Tramway, on Friday. It has been defeated. The junction of the two enterprises in one By-law exercised a bad influence on both; and many friends of the North Western Railway believed that it would be better policy to permit this By-law to be lost, and introduce another which would be more likely to carry. An impression also prevailed that the By-law was illegal, in consequence of the two works being embodied in it, being understood that the County Solicitors had given that opinion; and there was little disposition to pass an illegal By-law.

Police Court. Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., Police Magistrate. MONDAY 7th.—This morning Wm. Carey, of the Red Lion Hotel was brought before the Police Magistrate on a charge of having sold liquor on Sunday. The case was adjourned until Wednesday for further evidence.

There was a second case grew out of this one. Walter Hill was called as a witness against Carey, but refused to be sworn, whereupon his Worship ordered him to pay a fine of $5, or to jail for twenty-one days. A friend forked over the cash.

Curious Proceeding in Garafaxa. To the Editor of the Mercury. An incident that has transpired in connection with the School in S. S. No. 5, Garafaxa, appears to develop some defect in the working of the present school system, excellent as it may appear to be. It is certain that the educational interests of the youth of Canada do suffer in many instances from the ignorance and selfishness above referred to is probably without precedent in this country. The school in this Section is taught by a teacher who gives, so far as we can ascertain, an average satisfaction. On the 30th of September this teacher was re-engaged, the agreement drawn and signed by the trustees and teacher, but not sealed—the seal being not at hand at the time. The document was then snatched up by one of the trustees, who holds it now in his possession, and demands twenty dollars to be paid to himself personally by the teacher for engaging him, and refuses to have the seal affixed or to act upon the terms of the agreement until this demand is complied with. This is a case worthy of the notice of a reform in the school system.

Yours, &c. N. O. L. Garafaxa, October 5, 1867.

South Waterloo Fall Show. The Fair was held at Ayr on Wednesday the 2nd. The number of entries was between 1400 and 1500, being in excess of last year. The stock, especially horses, cattle and sheep, presented a very fine show. Of the first there were 234 entries; of cattle 112, and sheep 215. The show of pigs was, in quality, good, though in point of numbers not in keeping with the other stock, there being only about 36 entries. The samples of grain were very good, especially fall wheat; and from what we can learn, the yield of the present season is above average. The show of roots, as has generally been the case this year, was behind that of other years. A large amount of machinery, implements, wagons, carriages, buggies and extras contributed much to the appearance of the exhibition, and at the same time reflected credit upon the makers. The department of horticultural and garden vegetables made quite a display; while the numerous and excellent samples of cheese, bread, butter and honey had a tendency to create a keen appetite within all such as came into close proximity to them. The departments of domestic manufactures and ladies' work

Pilkington Agricultural Show.

The annual exhibition of the Pilkington Agricultural Society was held in Elora on Thursday, and was largely attended. The weather was fine, and the roads in first rate condition. There was a good show of cattle, and though the exhibition of horses was not large some fine animals were entered for competition. Sheep and swine were well represented. The show inside was not large, but most of the articles exhibited were good. The following is the

One field containing 9 acres which was earliest sown, averaged 47 bushels to the acre; and the other 9 acres averaged 40.

MONTREAL PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE.—The new College in Montreal in connection with the Canada Presbyterian Church, was opened last week. The object of this institute is to train students for the Christian ministry, in connection with the Canada Presbyterian Church; and it is intended that it shall be affiliated as a theological college to the McGill University. The Board last summer appointed the Rev. Mr. Young as its Principal, but he declined the office, for reasons of his own. They then invited Mr. Gregg, of Toronto, and Mr. Aitkins, of Smith's Falls. Both of these gentlemen have acceded to the request. The Rev. Mr. Gregg, Principal, delivered the opening address, on the "Sufficiency of the Scriptures as a Rule of Faith and Life." The Rev. Dr. Taylor and Rev. Mr. McVicar also delivered short addresses. $30,000 endowment has been subscribed, and $4,000 of that has been paid up.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.

Special and Exclusive Despatches to the Evening Mercury.

From New York. New York, Oct. 6.—By means of the Gulf Cable we have advices from Vera Cruz and Mexico to the 2nd instant. The news is unimportant.

New York, Oct. 6th.—The Herald's Havana special says the French str. Louisiana from St. Thomas, brings intelligence that a serious engagement took place on the 13th before Fort Blasen on the borders of St. Domingo, but on Haytian soil. The Paos (Haytian) revolutionists, specially opposed to President Salnave, who were in possession of the fort, hoisted a white flag on the fort and while Salnave's troops proceeded to take possession of the fort, they were fired upon and cut to pieces by the revolutionists. Some members of the first families of Port au Prince are among the fallen.

New York, Oct. 6th.—The Herald's Chicago telegram says the stories concerning Mrs. Lincoln's poverty which appear in the New York papers occasion much surprise here, as they are untrue. They are looked upon as an advertising dodge of the parties engaged in disposing of property which she does not wish to retain.

New York, Oct. 7.—The gold reduction and assay works of Mr. John M. Wickoff, of Greenpoint, were burned last night. Loss $30,000.

From Mexico. Havana, Oct. 6.—A late arrival from Vera Cruz brings the following from Mexico. Santa Anna's wife has petitioned Juarez for the release of her husband without trial. Seven houses in the City of Mexico have been confiscated by the government and will be sold at auction. Valued at $100,000.

Cable News! OF TO-DAY.

Stirring News from Italy. Fight between the Garibaldian and Papal Forces.

THE PAPAL TROOPS DEFEATED! The Revolutionary Feeling on the Increase!

GARIBALDI'S MANIFESTO! (MIDNIGHT DESPACHES.)

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A message has just been received from Florence announcing that the insurgent troops holding a strong position near Baginara, in Viterbo, were attacked by the Papal forces. A short sharp fight ensued, which resulted in the defeat of the attacking party, who were obliged hastily to withdraw. The losses in the engagement are not stated. The effect of this victory is very inspiring to the party of action.

A public meeting of the friends of Garibaldi was held at Turin yesterday. Revolutionary speeches were made by many distinguished persons. Great crowds of people were present and the enthusiasm was unbounded.

Meetings of a like character are in contemplation in other cities of Italy. Though a prisoner at Caprea, General Garibaldi has issued a stirring address to his followers, which is published to-day all over Europe. He recites at length the grievances of Italy and asks his countrymen to redress them now. He appeals strongly to their patriotism, and urges all his friends to march forth to Rome.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The report that a policeman had been shot by Fenians at Rochdale is contradicted. GLASGOW, Oct. 4.—It is reported that Buchanan & Co., of this city, who were recently announced as having failed, will be fully able to pay all their indebtedness.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Standard of this city, in a leading article this morning, says that the general arming of France is exciting apprehensions of a winter campaign.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—There were apprehensions of a Fenian attack on one of the armies last night, but the disposition of troops and other measures prevented it.

(TO-DAY'S DESPACHES.) London, Oct. 6.—Despatches from Rome state that great excitement prevails in that city. Deputations are arriving there and memorials are pouring in from all the cities of the kingdom, demanding that Rome be made the capital of Italy. The press throughout the country are urging subscriptions and money for the Garibaldian volunteers who have been wounded in the fights which occurred at Viterbo.

Paris, Oct. 6.—It is reported Napoleon informed the Italian government that it may occupy the Roman frontier with its troops, but they must not enter the city of Rome. London, Oct. 6th.—The report that Sir Augustus B. Paget is to be sent to Washington as British Ambassador, to replace the late Sir A. Bruce, is contradicted. London, Oct. 6.—There was decline of one-sixteenth per cent. in consols at the close yesterday. Liverpool, Oct. 6th.—Steamers of the Washington and Manchester, from New York, arrived.

MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7.

HUDSON'S BAY TERRITORY.

EVER since the Hudson's Bay Co. obtained their charter from Charles II., stipulating to give in return for the monopoly the paltry and nominal compensation of two or three skins of wild animals yearly, if they were deemed, their conduct has always been considered arbitrary and tyrannical. They have exercised the privileges thus bestowed on them exclusively to their own aggrandizement, and for the oppression of others. Fortified by their charter, their long conceded prerogatives, and a vast amount of arrogance, the extensive tract of land known as the Hudson's Bay Territory has been kept as a cover for wild beasts and a mine of wealth to a number of avaricious speculators, instead of being allowed to come in natural course under the fructifying influence of agriculture, and being converted into a broad habitation for a numerous, industrious and more civilized population. Man was made to till the ground, and the ground itself should rather be affected by his ingenuity and energies than the wild animals which subsist on its spontaneous productions. The red man is driven back, and the inheritance which he claimed as his by right of prior possession is appropriated without compensation. And why? For no other reason than his occupation can scarcely be designated a calling that is in accordance with the Scriptural laws; or at least, that the claims of civilization are paramount, and that he has no right to claim that a country shall lie in a wilderness state to afford him a hunting and fishing ground when in the course of human progress civilization demands that there shall renew her labours. What higher claims have the Hudson's Bay Company to regard than the aboriginals of America, or why entrench themselves behind old customs, or a charter granted them when the Territory was not, as it now is, required for the comfortable maintenance of those who will cultivate it.

The feeling against the Company in the Red River settlement is daily growing stronger; it is denounced in unmeasured terms as being a nuisance strongly in the way of the prosperity and development of that interesting portion of the British North American possessions. Tyranny and misrule will provoke the disapprobation and indignation of others than the sufferers, and the actions of the Company have exposed them to general condemnation. Their days as monopolists are apparently fast drawing to a close, and the shareholders who are amassing riches by contributing to the unnatural demands of opulence, and ignoring the claims of industrious poverty, will probably soon have to repel themselves to the loss of one wide source of income. Notwithstanding their misdeeds, the Imperial and Canadian authorities evince a disposition to deal generously with them, and a fair amount of commutation will scarcely be denied them. Of course we understand they have threatened to sell the Red River Territory to the Americans. They have been allowed to do a good many impudent things, but they dare not attempt this. American traders are now competing with the Company; and they are said to be fast losing the respect of the Indians, who regard them as in no manner superior to other traders. Combined circumstances point to the fact that the great North-West will ere long form an addition to the new Dominion, and agriculture and manufacture supplant the less civilized pursuits of hunting and fishing.

Yellow Fever in New Orleans.

A New York paper says that the yellow fever still rages with frightful violence in New Orleans, and a renewed appeal is made to the citizens of New York for help. There is urgent need of courses, of medicines, and of food to keep from starvation the families of those who are stricken down. The startling assertion is made by the Committee who put forth this call that twelve thousand human beings, the majority of whom are either comparative strangers, are perishing for want of help. It has been reported that New Orleans never enjoyed a happy immunity from the dread scourge as during the time the city was under the rule of General Peck. It appears, however, that the reformer that was never the wholesome regulator of the city, he virtually saved the lives of almost any one of whom he was in his at the time, had it not been so.

The London Free Press of Saturday says—"The losses attending the stoppage of the firm of Buchanan, Hope & Co., of Hamilton, appear to have further ramifications. The New York and Glasgow houses have failed also, and out of the whole range of affiliated establishments, that in Montreal alone stands untouched. In this Mr Isaac Buchanan has a share. The proximate cause of the stoppage seems to have been the failure of a large tea firm in New York, though it is now evident that for some time past the affairs of the firm have been involved in difficulty. It is understood that Mr A. Hope and Mr Wemyss will make a proposition on their part to the creditors to continue the business, and that another proposition will come from Mr I. Buchanan. That no joint action is likely, arises from the fact that no little personal difficulty exists between Mr Hope and Mr Buchanan. It is quite probable that one of the offers may be accepted, and that the house will continue its operations."

In reference to the above, the London Advertiser has the following:—"The Free Press states that the losses of Buchanan, Hope & Co. have further ramifications, viz: the stoppage of the New York and Glasgow houses. The Free Press is under a mistake, as the New York and Glasgow houses referred to were merely offices kept open in these cities for the accommodation of the Hamilton house; facilitating exchange operations and the exportation of purchases. The partners were identical but had no independent capital and no distinct business, hence the stoppage of the Glasgow and New York houses were contemporaneous with that in Hamilton, being simply distinct portions of the same Hamilton firm. I. Buchanan & Co., Montreal, Adam Hope & Co., and Buchanan, Hope & Co., of Hamilton, formed three distinct firms, based upon distinct capital, and the present temporary difficulty arises only with the last named, the two former being untouched. It is generally understood that the liabilities are confined to certain banking institutions at home and in Canada, and the probabilities are that a complete arrangement will be carried out within a few days, leaving the business itself unimpaired, but causing a considerable loss to the individual partners of the firm."

Political Movements in the Lower Provinces.

Either the Privy Councillors belonging to the Maritime Provinces are very communicative to their newspaper friends, or our contemporaries are given to the circulation of rumours. The other day, the journals of New Brunswick informed us that General Doyle is to be Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, and that a distinguished New Brunswick Judge is to be Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. Now we are told by the Halifax Unionist—the organ of the Liberal section of the Unionist party—that Mr. Archibald has already been offered by one of his colleagues a choice between a seat in the Senate of the Dominion and the Lieutenant-Governorship of New Brunswick. If Mr. Archibald wishes it, a vacancy will at once be made in the list of Nova Scotia Senators, and the vacancy filled by the appointment of Mr. Archibald. If he does not care to be a Senator, says the Unionist, he may be Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick. Mr. Archibald had better take the Lieutenant-Governorship. It is much the better position, and he would probably fill it very satisfactorily. His appointment would, no doubt, be well received in New Brunswick. But the Anti-Unionists of Nova Scotia are already complaining that the Senators from that Province are all Unionists except one, and claiming that the Province is virtually unrepresented in the higher branch of the Federal Parliament. They would make a great ado were Mr. Archibald appointed to the polls. Let him take the Governorship, and cheat his opponent out of the grievance which they would make of his appointment to the Senate.

DEATH OF AN INVENTOR.—Mr. Elias Howe, jr., the inventor of the sewing machine, died at his residence in Brooklyn on Thursday night last, in the forty-eight year of his age. Mr. Howe was born in Spencer, Massachusetts. Until his seventeenth year he worked for his father on a farm and in a Mill. Then he learned the trade of a machinist, and began to experiment in that department of invention in which he has since obtained fame and wealth. He procured the first patent for a sewing machine, September 10th, 1847. He built four machines and then went to England, where he remained for two years, returning in 1849 a poor man. For the next seven years he worked at his trade and persistently maintained his claim to his invention in the courts. In 1854 he won the battle, and since then has enjoyed the fruits of his inventive genius in peace.

JEFF. DAVIS.—The New York Times says:—"We have from Washington a renewal of the usual blather about the trial of Jefferson Davis. The public was long since utterly disgusted with this whole controversy. It seems to have no other objection than to shuffle from one set of officials to another a responsibility which none have the courage to meet. The whole thing has been degenerated into a contemptible farce, and nobody is inclined even to read the special pleas by which each party seeks to show that everybody else is wrong in the course that has been pursued. Why cannot all parties agree either to put Davis on his trial or discharge him? Any course will be acceptable if it is only known to be final."

In order to destroy as much as possible all historical recollections among the Poles, it has been determined that Warsaw shall cease to be the capital of Poland. A wide awake fire company in West Newton, Mass., turned out the other night to put out the aurora borealis but it had got under such headway that they returned without action. Nevertheless, their intentions were honourable.

exhibited at the Paris Exposition for illustrating the postage stamp, and at the same time marking the place where posted, the date and the number of the mail despatched, is extremely elegant. At the same pressure of the dies a pair of rollers supplies them with ink. The revolving lift for raising the heavy mail boxes from beyond seas to the upper floor of the post office, shows how every late invention has been applied to this department. No model attracts greater crowds than the perfect one of the travelling railway post office, with all its contrivances for the accommodation of the sorters. The apparatus by which mail bags are delivered and received without stopping the train are seen in perfect working order.

THE PAIN-KILLER CASE.—Some years ago, Mr. Kennedy, formerly of Dunham, but for a few years back of Hamilton, and well known in the patent medicine trade, brought out a medicine which he called "Pain-Killer." Lately, Messrs. Perry Davis & Son, of Providence, Rhode Island, applied to the Court of Chancery here for an injunction restraining Kennedy from using a designation which they claimed to be theirs exclusively, and a trade mark. Evidence in the case was taken at the sitting of the court in May last, and early in September, Vice-Chancellor Mowat gave an injunction, which, substantially, seems to be a judgment, in favor of the plaintiffs. It has been stated that they have thus obtained in Canada a judgment which they could not obtain in their own courts; but this I believe is incorrect, for the counter statement is made on good authority, that in 1834 they obtained in Rhode Island just such a decree as they have obtained against Mr. Kennedy here.

A case of courtship of forty-five years standing is reported at East Lynn, Mass. The gentleman has paid his visits on each alternate Sunday evening.

NORAH CUSHALEEN OR THE HAUNTED CASTLE.

Lady Blantire sank into a deep thought, and in this state of mental abstraction, she remained for several hours, during which time the troubled expression of her stern, unbending countenance did not change. Evidently her long and deep meditation produced nothing, at least nothing satisfactory; though her face did once or twice show a faint gleam of satisfaction, as if she had obtained a glimpse of the solution of the problem yet it presently elapsed into perplexity, and the gloom remained on her knitted brow.

It is often the case that what a long and laborious search fails to reach comes like a flash upon the mind. It was so now. After having vainly spent several of the hours of early morning in meditation, Lady Blantire rose from her seat, without a happy plan having occurred to her, and, advancing to the window, gazed dreamily out upon the park, now smiling in bright summer sunshine.

All at once she gave a start, for an idea leapt into her mind which she knew in a moment contained a successful solution of the problem that baffled her. How it came, or by what law of association, she could not conjecture, but there it was, and its value she instantly recognized. A few brief moments only served to show her the plan in its details, and a smile of triumph and satisfaction once more animated her hard features.

This was the notable scheme, the influence and nature of which we detailed in last chapter. Probably Mary Kendal was right when she characterized it as the device of a fiend.

Throwing a large Indian shawl over her shoulders, Lady Blantire sought her son's sleeping apartment. He lay in his bed, but partially undressed, and was in a calm and deep slumber. She stood for some moments steadfastly regarding him.

'And he can sleep thus,' she murmured in a reproachful tone, 'though the events of the night have been so disastrous. Alas! were I as careless of the honour of the house of Blantire, ruin and disgrace would soon overtake it. Yet, let youth and strength husband themselves for action, I, old as I am, can plan and work too.'

When Malvira opened his eyes they fell on the tall form of his mother, as she stood erect and motionless by the side of his couch. He looked for a moment bewildered, but presently his mind reverted to the situation of affairs.

'Ha, mother!' he exclaimed 'have you devised another scheme?'

'I have,' she sternly rejoined; 'but what signifies a scheme when its execution is so miserably marred?'

'Oh! hang it, don't harp longer on that strain. If I failed once, I shan't do so again. Tell me what your plan is, and, if practicable as all, I swear that I will accomplish it.'

'It is so easy, so practicable,' returned her ladyship, 'that I will not admit you again to my presence till it is accomplished. At the same time it is the last that can be carried out, and if by any unaccountable blundering it fail, you may never see my face again.'

'Bless me! are you serious?' asked Malvira.

'Quite serious,' replied his mother, with stern severity. 'But do not alarm yourself, for, except from wilful mismanagement, it is not possible that the scheme should fail. One thing let me ask: Is Captain Jack to be implicitly relied on?'

'To the death!' answered Malvira.

'You are certain that the youth now in his charge cannot by any possibility escape?'

'I am as certain of that as I am of my own existence.'

'Good. Then all is secure. Now, listen. Let a letter be concocted, purporting to be written from Captain Jack to Squire Kendal, informing him of the capture of Hargreave, and declaring that unless a ransom of two hundred pounds be sent him in one month, the young man will, by the laws of their association, be put to death. Let this epistle be shown by the squire to Mary, and let her be told the hour she marries you the ransom will be sent. If she refuses to do so to the altar, let her know that her obstinacy will cause Hargreave's death. If I know anything of the romantic girl, I am convinced that she will sacrifice herself, as she no doubt calls it, for the young man's sake.'

'Faith, mother I haven't the least doubt of it,' cried Malvira starting up. 'The scheme is a brilliant one. It will be successful—I know it will.'

A quiet smile played for an instant round the compressed lips of Lady Blantire.

'And the best of it is,' added Malvira, 'that Mary will go voluntarily and openly to the altar, and we shall have a marriage worthy of the families who form the alliance. The spirit of Norah will not appear on the occasion, for it will take place in a regular consecrated chapel.'

As Lady Blantire listened to these words, the quiet smile vanished from her face, and the impression of a dark and stern resolution succeeded it. She majestically waved her hand, and glided from the room.

Next day Lady Blantire was not to be seen in the Castle. Malvira went to her chamber, and saw that it had not been tenanted, or the night.

'She has carried out her purpose,' he muttered. 'She means not to be seen till I have led Mary Kendal to the altar. Be it so. I will not seek to invade her retirement, and doubtless she will re-appear, and be ready to welcome my bride when I bring her home.'

Canada Depot, 23 Hospital Street, Montreal.

THE India and China Tea Company beg to call the attention of the Canadian community to their directly imported Teas, which for purity and excellence will be found unequalled.
The Company have made arrangements whereby they have secured the entire produce of some of the best plantations in Assam and on the slopes of the Himalayas, and by a judicious blending of these magnificent Teas with the best varieties of China produce, they are enabled to offer to the public Teas of quality and flavour hitherto unknown to the general consumer. These Teas are in high favour in England and France, and a single trial will prove their superiority.
The Company supply two qualities only, either Black, Green or Mixed. Their Black Teas will be found to possess great briskness and flavour, combined with colour and strength, and to be entirely different to the flat and vapid article usually sold as Black Tea; while their Green Teas are altogether free from the deleterious mineral matter so commonly used for coloring the leaf.

The above can be had either Black, Green or Mixed.
To be had in packets of Quarter Pound Half Pound, One Pound, and upwards, or in tin canisters of 5 lbs. and upwards from the Company's Agents in all the chief towns of Canada—N. B. All the packages are lined with tin foil paper, and the Tea will consequently retain its flavour any length of time.

RUSSELL WATCH!

A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL COMERS.

1st—It proves itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question.
2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, it must follow as a natural consequence that it will keep time.
3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine which, under skillful direction, it is produced.
4th—Truth is the essential of each part.
5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together.
6th—Reproduction, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration.
7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH.
8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage.
9th—Proofs of the foregoing—the universal testimony of all Watchmakers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Robert Cuthbert, Watchmaker, Wyndham Street, Guelph.
If Society was as perfect in its organization, and was as obedient to the dictates of truth as the RUSSELL WATCH I bought from you is in indicating time, evil would be swallowed up in good, and happiness would become monotonous.
G. RENNIE, Guelph

IMPORTANT!
ROBERT CUTHBERT,
WATCHMAKER, WYNDHAM-ST., GUELPH,

has always on hand a large variety of the celebrated RUSSELL WATCHES. His stock of Clocks, Jewellery and Fancy Goods will be found equally large and attractive.
