Toronto Burglar Caught After Chase—Hon. Sam. Hughes Upheld by British Riflemen—Coal Delivered in Toronto on Sunday

COAL DELIVERED ON SUNDAY IN TORONTO

Three Hundred Tons Distributed in Small Loads by Permission of the Mayor to Relieve Shortage and Consequent Suffering Caused by Cold Spell.

Mayor Hocken yesterday allowed the Bliss Rogers Coal Co. to deliver nearly 300 tons of furnace coal to householders whose supply had become exhausted by the extreme zero weather.

Last week's spell of frigidly kept the people heaving the black nuggets into the hungry maw of the cast-iron monster in such quantities that Saturday night found hundreds of citizens without enough in the cellar to keep him alive over Sunday. Accordingly, Alfred Rogers was besieged by so many appeals for tons and half-tons that he was forced to invoke the mayor's aid to relieve the situation. The permission being forthcoming, men and wagons worked from 10 a.m. until 4 in the afternoon and delivered supplies to more than 200 residences, receiving double pay for their time.

"We have never had to deal with a situation like it before in my experience," said Mr. Rogers last night. "This second cold spell cleaned out supplies that in ordinary mild weather might last well on into the month of March. So many people called us up on Saturday night and on Saturday afternoon and implored us to send them coal, that there was nothing else to do but request the indulgence of the authorities. And this was in the face of the fact that the wagons of nearly every coal company in town were busy until 10 o'clock every night last week delivering orders."

Mayor Hocken said last night that the permission had been granted on the strict understanding that the privilege was only to be used in cases of actual necessity or where suffering was likely to ensue.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS MAY FOLLOW N.T.R. GRAFT EXPOSURE GOVERNMENT ACTION IS URGED

Borden Ministry May Suffer Serious Loss of Prestige if Scandal is Merely Used as Campaign Material—Laurier Expected to Make Inquiry Today.

(Special to The Toronto World)

OTTAWA, Feb. 15.—There is considerable speculation as to what the next move will be in the matter of the National Transcontinental Railway scandal, with the accompanying evidence, has not yet been printed, but the summary given to the press indicates that a vast sum of money has been squandered, and that many persons have become enriched thereby. Censure, of course, will fall upon the Laurier government for what has happened, and the present government is being commended for bringing the facts to light. But it is hardly to be expected that the matter is to end here.

Government's Move.

Some government supporters say that it is up to the opposition to move in the matter of the report, but it is pointed out on the other hand that it is primarily the duty of the government to recover money if the country has been defrauded, and take steps to punish all persons responsible therefor. Indeed, the only duty devolving upon the opposition in a case like this is the duty of urging the government to take appropriate and immediate action. The Liberals may not be at all anxious to have the government do anything. But it is likely that Sir Wilfrid will interpellate the prime minister at the opening of the house tomorrow respecting the report of the royal commission, and as to what action, if any, the government intends to take upon it. The answer, no doubt, will be that the report is in the hands of the printer, and that the general subject is "under consideration."

Public Arousal.

The report when printed will be a good campaign document for the Conservatives and constitutes a striking indictment of the Laurier government, but the feeling gains ground that something more should result from the findings of the commission than the circulation of a campaign document. The scandal is too big to be disposed of by a want of confidence vote, in a defect government. Indeed enough has already been heard from various parts of the country to make it evident that public opinion will demand the institution of civil and criminal proceedings, and if this demand is ignored and no effective action is taken, the net result of the investigation and report will be embarrassment instead of prestige for the present government. It is altogether likely, however, that the government is in possession of many facts and much evidence not discussed by the papers presented to parliament, and that the opposition's demand for punitive action may be answered in a way that will startle the country.

NOTED CRIMINALS AGAIN HELD BY POLICE

John Warren and Charles Quackenbush Taken into Custody While Prowling Around East End Coal Yard, and Warren Was Armed With a Heavy Loaded Club.

John Warren and Charles Quackenbush, two of Toronto's most noted criminals, were arrested again Saturday evening on Pape avenue, near the Grand Trunk crossing, charged with carrying concealed weapons and vagrancy. Searched at No. 8 station, Warren was found to have a wooden club, loaded, and two feet in length, concealed inside his shirt.

All last summer Warren worked at the Rogers coal yard, outside which they were caught, and it is the belief of the police that the pair were waiting for the night man to come out of the office with the day's takings, which, in this instance, would have amounted to nearly $700. Officer 258 first saw the two men circling the premises of the coal company. One would go one way and another the other, meeting again in the rear. Leach watched them do this for half an hour, and eventually when Acting Detective Nurey came along, arrested them on the nominal charge of vagrancy.

For two hours at the police station the desk sergeant endeavored to find out what they were doing there, eventually giving up in despair. Only then, when committed for vagrancy and searched, was the formidable weapon found, and a more serious charge laid against Warren.

Warren was mixed up in the robbery of Ward's pawn shop seven years ago, for which both received long terms in the penitentiary. Quackenbush has spent the greater part of the last 15 years in jail, and on one occasion escaped from the Toronto jail. He can only be charged with vagrancy.

HUGHES POSITION IS SUPPORTED IN BRITAIN

National Rifle Association Gave War Office Severe Raking Over for Instituting Bisley "Reforms"—Resolution Asked That No Change Be Made This Year.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Members of the National Rifle Association mustered in great force for the general winter meeting, held Saturday.

Primarily the meeting was called together to adopt the past year's report and to elect new members to the council board. A great deal of discussion, however, took place later upon the new rules of the army council, several of those present expressing their feelings towards the war office and the proposed regulations in no vague terms. Even Lord Chelmsford, the chairman, wasn't spared a certain amount of criticism. One member openly accused him of having done his best, for some time past, to bring about the present crash.

Major Eiley, Major Fletcher, Mr. Tipples and a number of others hoped it would go from that meeting to Colonel Hughes that the N.R.A. hadn't created the present difficulty in reference to the Ross rifle, but that it was entirely the work of "a jumping jinnie showman" at the war office. They commended Col. Hughes for the bold attitude he had taken.

King Not Informed.

Lord Chelmsford read a letter he had received from King George expressing the hope that Canadians wouldn't be prevented from attending Bisley Theroupan a member jumped to his feet.

"Have you, sir," he asked, "explained the real position of things to his majesty?"

"No," said Lord Chelmsford, a reply that was received with a chorus of disapproval.

Lord Chelmsford went on to give a brief account of the serious situation, and said that the N.R.A. had received in April an ultimatum from the committee to go into relations between the N.R.A. and the war office.

Two members of the N. R. A., including Lord Chelmsford, attended the meeting at the army council's request, and he did his best to put the position of the association before them, he could see that they would ultimately be left with Henson's choice.

The war office practically issued an ultimatum that unless they conformed with their suggestions about the King's prize and other territorial competitions, they should not give them any assistance in the shape of camp equipment, ammunition, etc.

The council was put into a difficult position, indeed.

Wed Defers Charges.

After serious consideration they decided there were only two courses open to them, one being absolutely to refuse the conditions of the war office. The council, however, unanimously came to the opinion that without the assistance of the war office at Bisley they would be perfectly impossible for them to keep up the reputation of the association. The second course was that they should accept these conditions and get the best concessions they possibly could from the war office, and he (Lord Chelmsford) could not help thinking they would agree that the council could not take any other course.

The following motion carried unanimously: "The meeting hopes that means can be found whereby the war office conditions, as now understood, do not take effect until the Bisley meeting of 1914 in order that their effect on a number of competitors from our overseas dominions may be fully realized."

CRAZY MOTORIST HAD MOST EXCITING RIDE

So Did His Chauffeur at Whose Head Two Revolvers Were Held to Insure Speed.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—An extraordinary escapade of Lee Bond, a wealthy man, living in Lyndhurst, Hampshire, was reported to the police today. Bond, who is 23 years old, hired a motor car and a chauffeur Saturday afternoon and compelled the driver to make a wild ride of 30 hours' duration through the Counties of Wiltshire, Dorset and Hampshire and Somerset, holding pistols at the man's back and threatening to shoot if he dared to stop without permission. By similar threats he compelled various farmers in different towns to deliver petrol and other supplies for the motor car without paying for them.

Bond was found tonight in the garden of his residence, holding a revolver in each hand. A posse of policemen who had been trailing Bond surrounded and arrested him.

BURGLAR CAUGHT AFTER A CHASE THRU LANES

John Gowans Entered Mrs. Fenton's Home at Bloor and Church, Escaped After Struggle, Ran Thru Lanes and Yards, Jumped Fences Before Being Captured by a Member of World Staff.

A bold sneak thief walked right into the home of Mrs. Fenton, widow of the late Dr. Fred Fenton, at the corner of Church and Bloor streets, on Saturday night, and after ransacking several rooms and terrifying the occupants and struggling with Mrs. Fenton, escaped to Church street. Passers-by heard Mrs. Fenton's cries for help and chased the would-be burglar along Hayden street, over fences and thru back lanes, for nearly twenty minutes before he was finally rounded up in a lane off Charles street. Mrs. Fenton, who was without male protection, only her maid and two small children being in the house at the time, was prostrated by her experience.

To the police the prisoner gave his name as John Gowans, thirty years of age, no home. He refused to tell anything about himself, but it is thought that he has a record. Various articles, supposed to have been taken from the Fenton home, were found in his pockets. Owing to the severe shock to her nerves, Mrs. Fenton has been unable as yet to identify Gowans.

The man entered the house by a rear entrance about 8.30, and exactly what happened, Inspector Dilworth, who investigated the case, has not yet been able to ascertain. While Mrs. Fenton was trying to prevent him from getting upstairs, the prisoner lost his cap, which was found in the house after he had been locked up.

Heard Calls for Help.

E. S. Golden, 95 Hayden street, who was waiting for a street car at the corner, first heard Mrs. Fenton's cries for help when she ran out of the front door. The burglar, in the meantime had run out of the back door thru a garage to Church street. Golden saw him running and gave chase. The fleeing man turned on Hayden street and was trying the back door of Golden's own house, when he caught up with him. He dodged and tried to get over a fence. Golden tried to stop him, but slipped on some ice and fell down. By this time Lawrence Ely, 80 East Charles street, and several others had joined in the chase, which continued thru a labyrinth of lanes and back yards in the deep snow and darkness, the fugitive taking shelter in fence corners and porches every time he got a chance. After a hide-and-seek scramble thru at least eight back yards, the fugitive finally jumped a fence and made his way out on Charles street thru a passageway between two houses. His pursuers by this time numbered a dozen. Three of them reached Charles street thru another narrow lane and caught up with him in the lane opposite, close beside the home of George Biggar, a local broker. When cornered by E. Y. Watson, of The Toronto World, the prisoner submitted without resistance, and allowed himself to be led back to the corner of Bloor and Church streets, where a policeman took him in hand.

Large Crowd Gathered.

The chase created much excitement in the district, and a large crowd followed the burglar and his captors to the Yorkville police station. The police think that some of the things found in the prisoner's pockets belong to other houses in the district. He was unharmed and refused to give any account of himself when questioned.

During the last two or three weeks numerous cases of sneak thieving have been reported in the north end of the city. The police made one capture two weeks ago which accounted for several of them and the apprehension of Gowans may explain the rest.

Gowans three weeks ago was released from the Central Prison where he served six months for theft.

ESMERALDAS IS STILL IN REBELS' POSSESSION

QUAYQUIL, Ecuador, Feb. 15.—Notwithstanding the bombardment by federal gunboats and heavy artillery of Esmeraldas, the capital of the province of the same name, the city still remains in the hands of the rebels. Government forces have been landed to the north and to the south of the city, with the intention of again surrounding the insurgents. It is believed that a decisive battle will occur next week.

'BLACK HUNDRED' AGAIN AROUSED

Second "Ritual Murder" Trial Seems to Be Looming Up in Russia.

KIEV, Feb. 15.—The murder of the boy at Fastoff, which it is alleged was committed for ritualistic purposes, is assuming the dimensions of the Beilless case. As in the earlier tragedy, stories of mysterious characters have been introduced, such as "a red-headed man" and "a lamp lighter," both of whom have disappeared. The Black Hundred and the Union of Russian People are showing their old-time anti-Semitic activity.

The minister of justice and other judicial officials have arrived at Kiev and are sifting the evidence. On their arrival they were acclaimed by deputations from the Union of Russian People and the Two-Headed Eagle organization.

The leaders of the Black Hundred, after first asserting that the victim was a Christian, subsequently declared that he was a Jew, and that he had been murdered by Jews in connection with the Beilless case for the purpose of disproving the allegations made in the so-called ritual murders Christians were invariably selected.

LETTER SORTER ADMITS THEFTS

William Cunningham Arrested Last Night While Rifling Money Letters at Post-office Building.

Charged with the theft of money letters from the postoffice, William Cunningham of 113 Borden street, 30, married, a sorter at the main building on Adelaide street, was arrested by Detective Twigg at the postoffice last evening at 9.30.

For several weeks letters had been missed, most of which contained small sums of money, and up till last evening all precautions taken by the post-office authorities were of no avail. Special men detailed to watch the staff became suspicious of Cunningham, and last evening when he entered the lavatory one of the watchmen followed him in and caught him in the act of tearing a corner from a letter. Protruding from the opening of the envelope was a bill which Cunningham was about to pocket. Three other letters were found.

Cunningham admitted to Detective Twigg at the detective office that he had stolen more letters than the four found in his possession.

WHAT ONE EARLS COURT MAN DID

W. H. Thompson's shack seven years ago.

Ward Seven citizens feel that they have good cause for complaint in the Sunday street car service they have been receiving a long time past. While they do not expect as good a service as on week days, they feel that the kind given them on Sundays is anything but adequate, and some residents are making of bringing the matter up at the next meeting of the Citizens' Association, and endeavoring to obtain a better Sunday service. The average time between cars appears to be about 15 minutes in the morning from fifteen to twenty minutes occur frequently.

It Takes An Hour.
"I have to allow an hour for the trip on Sundays, but on other days I do it in half the time," said a resident who attends a down town church to the World last night. "On my way home I counted five cars that passed at Howard Park avenue before a Dundas car came, and the passengers transferring from the other five cars made standing room at a premium on the Junction car." It is understood, however, that in the morning the worst service is given West Toronto residents, and the evening service before and after church being usually adequate.

Church Services.
Rev. Canon O'Connell, principal of Wycliffe College, preached at St. John's Anglican, assisted by Mr. Walker. In the evening Rev. Raymond O'Connell, St. Peter's, preached at the Annette Street Baptist Church, which was held in the new Beaver Theatre, Dundas street, and the pastor, Rev. H. Brown, preached on "The Three Appearances."

Considerable dissatisfaction has been expressed at a rumor that the city council is going to raise the rate of taxation on Keele street in the old West Toronto city. The habit of going to the city to pay taxes and water rates, but to obtain in return a bill for the same amount, public works, etc., and the ratepayers seen to be unanimously against its removal.

PRESENTATION TO CHURCH ORGANIST
The main feature of the Valentine occasion, held last night at St. Andrew's Church, was the presentation of a beautiful gold wristlet watch to Miss Bryan, a faithful worker in recognition of her three years' service in the church. The watch was presented by the Rev. A. B. Chambers, pastor of the church, and was presented to her at a service held on Sunday at the organ, and at the three or four times.

RIVERDALE.
Rev. Dr. A. B. Chambers, governor of the jail, had a birthday last week which was celebrated by the Rev. C. E. Scott, pastor of the Simpson street Baptist church, by preaching a sermon on "The Birth of Christ" on his birthday. Mr. Chambers said that he was not yet in the prime of his life, but he had not yet attained the age of his father.

WANT REASON FOR DELAYED DECISION
Railway Board's Order Appealed in August, No Judgment Issued.

"West Toronto is just being trifled with as far as transportation is concerned," said W. H. Weir, 180 High Park avenue, to the World last night. "Citizens in this section have to walk long distances to reach the Dundas car line, which is far from present in severe weather we have had this winter. We are all well aware that the Ontario Railway Board ordered the Suburban Railway Company to commence building the Pacific and Annette street line not later than May 1, 1913, but this was not done. The Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association then sent a deputation to the board in August, 1913, and the company was ordered to build the new line at once. The company appealed the board's order, and the judgment was withheld, and has not yet been issued."

"We want to know why the judgment has been withheld. Girls and others working down in the city have to walk a mile or a mile and a half to Dundas cars, and the situation is now intolerable. West Toronto pays its own car to use, and we should be compelled to do that and have no street car service in our own district."

CALEDON.
The report of the auditors at the annual meeting of Caledon Agricultural Society showed the finances to be in good condition. The total receipts for the year were $1355.55, with a balance from 1912 of $248.81, and the expenditure was $1184.80, leaving a balance of $1419.56. The following officers were elected: President, T. Smith; vice-presidents, P. Garrity and C. Atkinson; directors, W. J. Wilson, G. Patterson, H. McLeish, R. J. Tetter, G. Fines, R. Armstrong, W. H. Loeck, E. Currie, D. Smith, and directors, Mrs. E. J. Ellis, Mrs. J. A. McBride, Mrs. A. Smith; auditors, W. J. Limebeer, W. J. Warnock.

BALMY BEACH.
The regular meeting of the Beaches Association will be held in the club house tomorrow night and several important matters, including "the stub," will be discussed.

There will be a meeting of the organ committee on Friday evening at the church tomorrow, when a final decision regarding the purchase of the new organ will be arrived at. At the vestry meeting last week the matter was left in the hands of this committee.

AURORA.
A hockey tournament will commence on Friday evening in the Arena. Two teams of players are expected to take part, and seven diamond rings will be given to the winning team, and seven diamond rings to the runners-up.

The monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held in the Disciples' Church on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Residents Complain That Half-Hour Trip Takes an Hour.

The Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association then sent a deputation to the board in August, 1913, and the company was ordered to build the new line at once. The company appealed the board's order, and the judgment was withheld, and has not yet been issued."

"We want to know why the judgment has been withheld. Girls and others working down in the city have to walk a mile or a mile and a half to Dundas cars, and the situation is now intolerable. West Toronto pays its own car to use, and we should be compelled to do that and have no street car service in our own district."

MEXICAN FINANCES IN TANGLED STATE

Exchange Rate Phenomenally High, Due to Corner in Hemp.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—Exchange on New York today closed at three for one, and a short time previously touched 3.10. It is explained that the increase was not due to the demand of concerns having foreign payments to meet, so much as to the fact that the shippers of henequen, better known as sisal hemp, who have heretofore distributed their exchange receipts, have opened an office of their own, thus creating something like a corner.

Smart Little Hats of Taffeta, Moire and Crepe

With the Small French Sailor as a Prime Favorite

These are the craze in New York at the present moment, and will be appreciated by many who have been watching for their appearance here. Prices range from $5.50 to $7.25. They are obtainable in deep sweet pea pink, in Labrador blue, in tan and in black.

Another collection of tailored hats consists of turbans, and small hats with a high left-side flare, the same fashioned in black, blue, brown, mahogany and tan taffeta and in black moire. Pom-poms perched on the edge of the brim, back and front, are a favorite form of trimming, with the tall slender mount of silk or fancy feather as a modish alternative. Prices for these run from $3.75 to $5.50.

And in untrimmed shapes is a splendid selection in new upturned designs in tagel, Milan and mohair furs in purple, tan, blue and black.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

Meat recipes BEEF steak and gravy. The best steak for this is the reasonably priced flank as it has no waste of bone or gristle. Score it well on both sides after removing all the tissue and rub flour into the cuts and over the entire surface. Heat two tablespoons of dripping and when this smokes place the steak in it. Cover and let it cook until you know the flour is commencing to brown. Turn it now, cover again and cook as before. Finish cooking slowly, keeping the cover over the meat. Dish on a heated platter and cover. Make the gravy by blending two tablespoons of flour with the dripping and meat juices in the frying pan. When this mixture is smooth pour on a pint and a half of cold milk, or milk and cold water. Stir continually until it is as thick as you like it. If the flour browns too much in the fat it will not thicken the milk, but if it does not brown a little the gravy will lack the rich flavor you want. Stuffed corn beef. This is a different way of cooking this familiar meat. Select a lean, chunky piece and after cooking or soaking it in fresh water to remove the salt, make several deep incisions in it. Fill these cuts with bread stuffing, highly seasoned with pepper and onion. Tie the stuffed meat tightly in a cloth, dip it in vinegar and then immerse it in boiling water. Allow twenty minutes for each pound of meat. Drain well before untying the cloth. Boiled salt pork is so often the target of the dietician's sharp arrow that no one ever admits that the men of the family like it or that they eat cook it for them, but cooking teachers know that there are times when it is cooked and eaten heartily, so why not prepare it in the most wholesome way and then plead guilty to liking it? Salted pork for boiling should have streaks of lean running thru it. Two pounds will not be too much for five men (young people and women seldom eat it). Scrape and wash the meat well and put to cook in three quarts of cold water, add a pinch of soda at the end of an hour, change the water, filling up with boiling water from the sea kettle. Boil it another hour, then place it on a tin in the oven; incline the tin so the grease will draw away from the meat as it tries out. As often as a crust forms on the meat, turn it over until the whole outside is crisp. Serve with hot baked potatoes or other starchy vegetables and see if the men don't like it. Curried meat. Put any chopped cold meat, fish or fowl in a saucepan with a pint of boiling water, cook until the meat is hot; remove it and thicken the liquor with a little flour. Add a teaspoon of curry powder, and salt to suit taste. Pour this over the meat, or have rice boiled and seasoned and add the meat and curry to it. Ham Balls: Chop cooked ham very fine, add other meat or not as you like, mix with cracker crumbs and egg. Form into balls and roll in flour, fry brown in a little butter. Scotch hash (sometimes called "Hamburg" hash): One pound of chopped raw beef browned in a tablespoon of dripping and butter, salt and pepper to season, and add one minced onion and three cold-boiled, diced potatoes and a little parsley cut fine. Cover with hot water and simmer ten minutes. Dissolve a teaspoon of cornstarch in a cup of milk and add; cook five minutes longer and serve over hot toast.

THE GARDEN CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD M.D. Water Gardens Cape Pondweed or Water Hawthorn. As one might easily conclude from the family name, "Pondweed," the various members of this tribe are to be found growing in marshy places, along the low banks of slow-moving streams, in rice-fields and on the submerged banks of shallow lakes. In various parts of the world, one or other members of the family are common, and are used as food for the natives. In some parts of the world, the natives make use of the more or less tuberculous roots, as food. One variety, penicillaria, is definitely known as being used in certain parts of Siberia for food. Several varieties are taken out of the water in India, and dried, afterwards being used as fodder for the cattle. This, just to show our readers how hardy, how prolific and how useful this water plant is known to be, is a native of the Cape of Good Hope. One of the family is known as the cape pondweed; having been introduced into England in the eighteenth century and later named "water hawthorn" from the fragrance of its flowers. This plant is a native of the Cape of Good Hope. While, as we shall presently see, the cape pondweed cannot compare in beauty of blossom with many of our commoner aquatic plants, it is a very welcome addition to our water gardens on account of the peculiar odd character of the floating leaves. These leaves are anywhere from one to six inches long, up to two inches wide, oblong with a rounded base, and we borne up to the surface of the water by long flattened oblong balloons, upheld by the water. While the leaf is odd, the flowers are even more so. These are creamy-white, with a faint sweet odor like the hawthorn, which consist of a double row of alternate, thick, white, wax-like bracts (or small leaves), and a thick, creamy axis, or stem. The whole inflorescence is, therefore, quite unique. There is only one serious trouble with this aquatic, and that is the fact of its determined efforts to spread wherever the seeds fall and germinate. Indeed, it must be kept well within bounds, else, like the myosotis, it will conquer every region in and out of reach. Our water gardeners will need to send to a reliable dealer for a root or two, since this particular member of the pondweed family is not native in Ontario. Once the plant is fairly well started there will be no least difficulty in the culture of the plant. Like the "wandering Jew," and most of the "irises," it is almost impossible to put an end to it. This aquatic will well repay for its care in the water garden. (To be Continued.)

THE CRYING BABY There is usually something wrong with the baby that cries continually, although it may have healthy babies to cry thru habit and bad training. For instance I heard of a young mother who never got her breakfast dishes washed until her mother came in in the afternoon. Her baby was in her arms all day, and he was a big healthy chap—just spoiled. But it is a good thing to know the different cries of babies so as to yield ready to comfort them. There is the fretful cry of the baby who is not happy. He is hot or cold or hungry or uncomfortable. There is the cry of a baby who is disappointed when things do not please his fancy. There is the cry of pain, an unceasing, loud cry which does not yield ready to comfort. There is the hoarse cry of the baby who has cried long and loud. There is the low moaning cry of the sick baby. There is the cry of a baby who ceases when the baby is taken up, as he is expected to be. If he is put down the noise starts again louder than ever. This is the time when he comes up against the discipline of a mother who has his cry out, will learn that to fight is useless. Be careful to find out if your baby has any reason for his cry before you leave him to have it out with himself. If you are sure it is the beginning of the "habit" cry—be very firm, even if it is harder on you than on your baby; him learn his first big lesson and you have started him on the road of obedience to discipline. But, I repeat, never let him cry for a long time. He will learn to howl why he is crying. Sometimes the cry of hunger is hard to distinguish from the cry of indigestion. "Hunger will long flatten oblong balloons, upheld by the water. While the leaf is odd, the flowers are even more so. These are creamy-white, with a faint sweet odor like the hawthorn, which consist of a double row of alternate, thick, white, wax-like bracts (or small leaves), and a thick, creamy axis, or stem. BURFORD, Feb. 13.—The ratepayers of the village will vote on March 9 on a bylaw to authorize the council to contract for hydro power for the municipality. There is considerable discussion, but it is expected that the measure will pass with a large majority.

QUAINT CEREMONY AT ST. FRANCIS' Forty Hours of Devotion Opened Yesterday With Highly-Colored Services.

At St. Francis Church, corner Grace and Arthur streets, beautiful ceremonies inaugurated the opening of the "forty hours" devotion, which will continue today and until the closing exercises Tuesday evening. A large congregation, assisted at high mass at 11 o'clock, three other congregations filling the church at the earlier masses, at the high mass, Rev. Arthur Staley was the celebrant, assisted by Rev. W. McCann, the pastor, as deacon, and Rev. Father Barnago, sub-deacon. Being Sexagesima Sunday, the vestments were of purple and gold, and the main altar, in honor of the "forty hours," was exquisitely decorated in festoonings of white silk, carnations, waxen tapers and colored lights.

IMPRESSIVE PICTURE

Procession of the Blessed Sacrament a Scene of Splendor.

Proceeding by the tall processional crozier came some sixty acolytes bearing lighted tapers, the front ranks in white cassocks with red sashes and surplices, other in black cassocks, and six carrying the red-globed lights were in white, small red cape over their lace surplices. Then came the Girls' Sodality of the Holy Angels, preceded by their strikingly beautiful and white, every girl enveloped in a long flowing white veil and wearing the red ribbon of the society over her shoulders. The members of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, consisting of the greater number of young ladies of the congregation, came next. They were headed by one of the most beautiful banners in Toronto, the "Immaculate Conception" occupying one surface, and the white of pink blossoms embossed in the white of the reverse. Preceding the celebrant, who carried the monstrance, and who was supported by the deacon and sub-deacon, were the Thurifer and seven little maidens in white, with bridal veils on their sunny locks.

Scattered Petals.

The leader, who walked alone, carried a great sheaf of lilies, while the others carried baskets of flowers, the petals of which were scattered along the path over which the Blessed Sacrament should be carried. As the processionalists moved down the aisle and around the church they wound their lace surplices were completely encircled, then the middle ranks opened and formed the aisle of honor for the returning eucharistic and acolytes. Meantime the entire electric equipment had been turned on and amid a blaze of light, the odor of incense, perfume from the fragrant flowers, swelling tones from the organ and hundreds of voices raised in the "Pange Lingua," "Jesus My Lord My God, My All," and "Holy God, Father Thy Name," the procession ended by the intoning of the litany of the saints and the regulation psalms before the grandly illuminated altar.

A Time for Prayer.

The epistle and gospel of the day were read and a short address given by Rev. Father McCann, in which he reminded the congregation that the days of the Forty Hours were a time for special prayer and adoration in atonement for the many irreverences and acts of ingratitude of the world towards our Divine Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. A crowded congregation assisted at the solemn vespers and benediction in the evening. Rev. Arthur Staley preached with special reference to the devotion, and Millard's Oration, "The Eucharist," was given by Mrs. Malone and Miss Tumpson. Gounod's "Ave Verum" was sung as quartet by Mrs. Brooks, Mr. Dickson, Mr. G. Kelly and Mr. Byrne. During the remaining exercises three brothers, Rev. Father Staley, Rev. Father McCann, Rev. Fathers Arthur and Melville Staley of Toronto, will officiate.

FLETCHER BACK AT VERA CRUZ.

VERA CRUZ, Feb. 14.—Rear Admiral Fletcher, with his squadron, returned today from Tampico. It is reported that the constitutional government of Tamaulipas, Gen. Apparently the plans of the rebels have been changed completely, and the attack on Tampico has been postponed indefinitely.

WILLIAM B. YEATS ON THE THEATRE

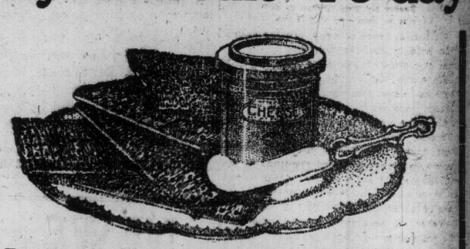

Famous Poet and Litterateur the Guest of Gaelic League IN HIS HAPPIEST MOOD Ready Replies to Numerous Questions Asked by His Audience

Representative of Toronto's highest scholastic culture was the distinguished gathering that filled the Margaret Eaton Hall on Friday evening to hear the address of William Butler Yeats, poet and litterateur, who as the guest of the Gaelic League of Toronto, delighted his audience with his lecture on "Beauty and the Theatre," and by the reading of several of his own poems. Prof. De Lury, president of the Gaelic League, introduced the speaker. As might, perhaps, have been expected, the lecture was not one in which any audience not engrossed altogether in art and its many subtle suggestions could at once get the atmosphere, but as the theme progressed enjoyment in it became deeper.

Elveto the Stage.

Mr. Yeats told his audience that he had conceived the idea that the theatre, which had become somewhat debased of late, might receive some elevating impulse from Ireland, his native land. In dealing with his subject Mr. Yeats described briefly the methods in times past and present in different countries and declared that it was the triumph of democracy in Europe two centuries ago that the realistic drama took first place upon every stage in Europe. Now many are endeavoring to get a theatre where realism is impossible. Poetical drama is essentially that of the aristocracy of good tastes. This being felt now more than ever before and all over Europe there is a

THE VICIOUS CIRCLE.

Nothing more practical has come out of the civic survey reports than the statement embodied in the review of the assessment department that "the population per square mile in the City of Toronto is exceptionally high."

It is well to have an independent body like the New York surveyors come along and state a few facts, however disagreeable, "housing conditions are poor," and this is traced back: "if twenty years ago Toronto had recognized that the way to stimulate building was to subsidize improvements thru a reduction in the rate of taxation upon improvements, it might not be facing today a condition where the city has been forced to furnish the capital for providing decent housing conditions."

Thus we are presented with the vicious circle, the result of unintelligent administration, which begins with the greed of landholders and the determination to restrict the natural expansion of the city in whatever way best supports the interests of the people.

THE GREATEST OF "JOKERS."

The Telegram is strong on the subject of jokers. It discovers three in the Wickett-Spence-Walton resolution providing that the mayor and the board of control and not The Telegram shall determine what kind of agreement is to be drawn up by the corporation counsel. It fails to call attention to Joke No. 4, the most important of all, to wit, namely:

"All details in the matter to be reported for final ratification of the council." This is a joker which even The Telegram cannot get over. It may perhaps account for Ald. Maguire's anxiety to know who was the author of it. The Telegram and Mr. Maguire would have given the Mackenzie interests a 25-years franchise for their radial lines but for just such a joker.

MARKETING SOCIETIES IN NEW YORK STATE.

In his message to the state legislature of Tuesday last Governor Glynn of New York made an urgent plea for an appropriation to promote the organization of co-operative marketing societies among the farmers of the state. To his judgment the necessity for their establishment is due to the fact that the farmer has hitherto been dealing as an individual, buying his raw products at retail and selling his finished product at wholesale prices.

proved farms in New York and the lesser acreage.

A state such as New York, with its large and numerous centres of population, ought to present exceptionally profitable markets for the food producer. Governor Glynn points out that other states and other countries thru improved organization have succeeded in establishing a regular trade in the local markets of New York for goods of inferior quality to the produce of the home farms.

CANADIAN LIBRARY IN PARIS.

Elsewhere on this page will be found a letter from the general commissioner for Canada in France, Mr. Philippe Roy, proposing the establishment in Paris of a complete library of Canadian publications as possible. The project is an admirable one, and must not be regarded merely from the point of view of the comparatively few Canadian travelers who may, while in Paris, desire to consult such a collection.

France itself is a great literary centre, and on account of the connection with New France and the high quality of much of the literary output of present day French Quebec, there is a predisposition of interest towards Canada among the French which it is well to encourage.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

In the February number of the Canadian Municipal Review Colin Mackay of St. John, N.B., regards the experience of that city as disproving the claim that civic government by commission is more efficient and advantageous than the older system.

UNITARIANISM NO BAR.

Editor World: Owing to the many enquiries received and the widespread interest shown in the report that the children's Aid Society of this city refuse to place a child with this unitarian family, otherwise unobjectionable, it is desirable that I should explain that there is absolutely nothing in the act nor in the procedure to prevent a child being placed with a respectable family. It is true that in one particular case there was some hesitation on the part of the officials of the Toronto society, but the matter was definitely and satisfactorily adjusted as soon as the board meeting was held.

point, which is first marked in Jennings' plan of the harbor in 1880. This place has been kept open since by dredging, and the situation has been so changed that it is impossible now to ascertain, with any accuracy, the real condition before these acts of illegal displacement. The only protection I can see to claim water has been or access as of right to the water in front of these lots, originates with these acts of spoliation and trespass, and the origin indicates the illegality. By dredging, and by the construction of Keating's cut, the place has been altered in a riparian and navigable aspect; but the user of the water has been permissive and not as of right, and the really navigable part has been created by art and science. After coming to the end of a necessary and devious course in the consideration of this contest, I have reached, for the various reasons given, the conclusion that the plaintiffs have no claim to riparian rights and have no right of access by water to what may be the navigable water or next to the navigable water in Ashbridge's Bay. This disposes of the main causes of action as to water rights. The plaintiffs vindicate their claims for nuisance, but the nuisance created by the discharge of sewage, especially by the additional output in the year 1913, should be restrained and next to the plaintiff Schofield that damage should be given for the injury done thru opening Carlaw avenue and interfering with the plaintiff's access to his premises. As to nuisance from the pollution of the water and the air by reason of the discharge of fecal and other malodorous substances into Ashbridge's Bay, no case is made out for interference on behalf of an individual. In these respects of water and air, no special and particular injury to the plaintiffs has been proved by the evidence at the date of the writ. It was a public nuisance. Both causes of injury might have been proper matter of investigation by the court at the instance of the attorney-general, or upon criminal prosecution. This damage to the business of the plaintiff on the water side, is not recoverable from the city. The plaintiff has no right to go to and fish with boats over the slip of the marsh, which belonged to the city. No obligation rested on the defendant in completing the restoration of Carlaw avenue to a navigable condition. The whole of Pickup's front as occupied, is an encroachment over the line and on the slip. To the great extent—all but the slip, there is some evidence to show that the city failed to exercise reasonable expedition in completing the restoration of Carlaw avenue to a navigable condition. It appears to have sustained loss of business probably for some months on account of this action. For other injuries, if any, arising from the method of construction, compensation must be sought by process of arbitration and not by action. It will be referred to a master to assess damages for injury suffered by the plaintiff Schofield for

THE HIGHLANDERS WALLOP THE GREN.

A.M.C. Beat Queen's Own—Two Surprises Handed Out in Officers' League.

The Officers' League handed out a couple of surprises to their patrons Saturday night. The A.M.C. defeated Queen's Own in the first game. Opportunistic hitting and taking advantage of every slip or misplay by their opponents gave them the victory.

Yellowless pitched a nice steady game. He kept the hits scattered and gave but two passes. Muntz for the Queen's Own experienced considerable difficulty in locating the plate, and the whole team lacked the speed and aggressiveness that is necessary in a first division team.

MacBeth and White contributed to the home run each. It was left to the Highlanders to furnish the real surprise of the season, and they did it in a beautiful game and battering. The whole team played splendidly, but Muntz must have his dues.

He pitched a beautiful game and batted like a hero. These wins make the race much more interesting for all the teams still in the race for special mention. The Queen's Own Chorus, led by Billy Macdonald, rendered several selections, which was very much appreciated.

Wolfe's Pilsener Lager

"JOHN BULL" RETURNS TO BEER. "What is the cause of the revival in popularity of Beer and Ale as table beverages?" asks the London "Pall Mall Gazette."

That there is a return of their ancient vogue in the restaurants of London is noted by Charles Pond, restaurateur-owner. "Beer has been coming into fashion again for some time," he says, "and the tendency is becoming more marked. I was dining in a West End restaurant last night and was surprised to notice how many men were drinking beer. People have found out, I suppose, that beer is one of the best and purest of foods, and realize its value as they have not before."

O'KEEFE'S PILSENER LAGER is Canada's favorite light beer. Rich in food values, delicious in flavor, mildly stimulating.

If your dealer will not supply you, phone us, Main 4202, and we will see that you are supplied at once.

QUEBEC IN OVERTIME DEFEATS WANDERERS

Even Game, Fast and Clean, With No Choice Between Teams for Three Periods.

QUEBEC, Feb. 14.—One of the most exciting and hardest contested hockey matches seen here for many moons was that which took place last evening when Quebec succeeded in defeating the Wanderers, after seven minutes overtime play, by a score of seven goals to six.

The play was very even for the three periods, and a remarkable part of the contest was that in each period both teams scored exactly a similar number of goals. The regular time ending with Quebec 4, Wanderers 4. Although the teams were evenly matched up to this time, the overtime was all Quebec, as they were nearly the whole time ending with Quebec 7, Wanderers 6. The seven-death game would have been scored in shorter time, had the play been fast and the checking hard.

There was a number of changes on both teams during the evening. Referee: H. Purford. Judge of play: H. Westwell.

Nat Goodwin Tonight.
A strong combination is booked for the Alexandra this week, commencing tonight, when Nat C. Goodwin will appear in "Never Say Die," a comedy in three acts, by William H. Post. "Never Say Die" comes very highly recommended, for no less a person than Charles Hawtrey, England's premier comedian, has scored the conspicuous success of the London season at the Apollo Theatre, the record of nine months of capacity and success attesting to the popularity of this merry comedy. That Mr. Goodwin will give the customary highly polished performance is conceded by all who for years have followed the fortunes of America's foremost actor.

Miss Margaret Moreland, the new leading lady, is reputed to be quite a beauty, as well as an accomplished actress, and like all leading ladies, she does not overlook the opportunity to wear some very striking costumes. A brisk sale of seats now going on at the box office gives promise of a successful engagement.

"Ziegfeld Follies."
The "Ziegfeld Follies" edition of 1913, said to be the latest musical comedy entertainment in the world, is to be seen at the Princess Theatre for one week, commencing this evening. "Ziegfeld Follies," which was established in Atlantic City, N.J., in 1907, has developed into a musical comedy institution, and the engagement here is expected to have been the most interesting of the latest work by George V. Hobart. The score is from the pen of Raymond Hubbell, with lyrics by Buck and Stumper. It is in two acts and 13 elaborate scenes, and was staged by Julian Mitchell in the most popular play-cast is made up of such popular players as Joseph Collins, Elizabeth Brice, Florence Gardner, Flo Hart, Lottie Vernon, Leon Errol, Nat M. Willis, Charles Purdy, William Le Brun, Murray Queen, J. Bernard Dyllin, Bert, Eleanor Dell, Max Hentzen, Dorothy Godfrey, Val Dayne, Almee, Edna Tashman, Doris Young, Reta Spear, Edna Schick, Fats Swift, Charles Mitchell, Charles Scribner, Arthur Rose and Frank Tinney. During the engagement there will be two matinees, Wednesday and Saturday.

"What Happened to Mary."
A new pastoral play, entitled "What Happened to Mary," and commended by critics as one of the best comedy dramas since "Shore Acres," will be the offering at the Grand Opera House all this week with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. This play was adapted from the famous "Mary" stories which were published in a ladies' journal and which created a great deal of comment for the charming manner in which the adventures of this country girl were described. As a play the author has constructed a stage offering that combines both dramatic and comedy situations, and back of it all a beautiful love theme. Miss Anne Bradley, who will be seen in the title role, displays clever and artistic work, and has the support of an exceptionally able company of character actors. When the play was first produced in New York the press was unanimous in pronouncing it one of the most delightful stories ever presented, compelling in its interest and winsome in its simple charm. The production has many realistic scenes. The first shows the waterside of an exotic shipping village on Chesapeake Bay. The quaint old boatswain, the rowboat hauled up on shore, and the sailing boat at the wharf. When the shades of night fall the revolving light in the lighthouse and the gleams from the windows of the houses along the shore emphasize the realism of the scene. The second act is a boarding house scene in New York, and the last act shows the interior of a lawyer's office, where Mary is employed as a woman-hating lawyer.

Joseph Jefferson at Shea's.
The headline attraction at Shea's Theatre this week is Joseph Jefferson with Blanche Bender and Company in William C. DeMille's farce, "Poor Old Jim." Joseph Jefferson is a son of the noted actor, whose name he bears, and is well-known in Toronto. He has a delightful offering in "Poor Old Jim," and is capably assisted by Miss Bender and George A. Wright Jr. The special attractions for this week are the Kirksmith Sisters, six dainty artistes in a musical interlude, "Dainty Marie, She's Not What She Seems to Be," and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, second week of America's greatest exponents of society dances in motion pictures. Other features included in this week's bill are Percy Bronson and Winnie Baldwin, Edda Morris, Charles Weber and Dickin's oops and monkeys.

"Queens of the Cabaret"
Mary Adams of the "Queens of the Cabaret," which appears at the Star this week, is one of the most original German comedians that have ever appeared on our stage. She is well spoken of as one of the few comedians that never lose their character when upon the stage. No matter what may happen to go wrong he is always the comedian, never leaving his character (as some performers sometimes do) until out of sight of the audience. At one of the houses that Mr. Adams was playing at one time some fool shouted "Fire!" and in an instant Mr. Adams lunged quickly the words: "It's in your head, you fool," which brought a laugh instead of a panic, as there was no fire at all, a man had stepped on a dropped match which had made a crackling noise.

"The Shepherd of the Hills."
The popular book play, "The Shepherd of the Hills," will be the offering at the Grand next week. This is the play which attracted so much attention last season and played to capacity business.

Martin Harvey.
The eminent English romantic actor, Martin Harvey, will be here next week at the Princess Theatre, presenting three notable successes—"The Bred of the Bush," "The Only Way," and "A Cigarette Maker's Romance."

Shriners Will See Goodwin.
The members of Ramesses Temple will have their theatre night Thursday, when the Mystic Shriners will attend the Alexandra in a body to see Nat C. Goodwin in his latest comedy success, "Never Say Die."

Loew's Winter Garden.
Probably the most brilliant opening of a theatre in Toronto was the initial performance of Loew's Yonge street theatre shortly before Christmas, and this promise to witness the most important gathering which will be present at the opening ceremonies of Loew's Winter Garden, a new place of amusement, situated atop of Loew's Theatre, commencing with a matinee number of artists from New York solely for the Monday evening performance. The profits of the evening are for the Riverdale Settlement, an east-end philanthropy in which a number of well-known people are interested. The boxes have been disposed of by private sale, and the seats are for disposal the same way by the following committee: Mr. W. R. Johnson, president; Mrs. Carolyn Warren, secretary; Mrs. Leonard McMurray, Mrs. Jarvis, street, treasurer; Mrs. Hume Blake, Mrs. R. R. Bongard, Mrs. A. P. Burritt, Mrs. Hartley Dewart, Mrs. Ross M. Gooderham, Mrs. W. H. Gooderham, Mrs. Stephen Haas, Mrs. W. G. A. Lamb, Mrs. Gordon Osler, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Small, Mrs. Gerald Strathy, Mrs. Strachan Johnston and Mrs. A. E. Walton. The accommodation will be limited.

"The Watson Sisters."
Those who are lovers of rich humor and fun will be glad of the opportunity to witness the Watson Sisters in the new production which has been staged and produced for them this season by Max Spiegel and which will be at the Gayety Theatre for the entire week, with daily matinees. The show is entitled, "Morocco Bound," and is said to possess many new and original features. The Watson Sisters in "Morocco Bound" are making their initial appearance with this vehicle here at the Gayety Theatre, commencing with a matinee Monday, and remaining for the week's engagement.

Alice Lloyd.
William Morris will present at the Alexandra Theatre next week, with matinees Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, Alice Lloyd, England's most celebrated comedienne, and a company of seven comedians. The box office will be seen in a new offering full of fun, "D'ne Mac," which will be the title of the second part of the program, in which every member of the company will take part, offering every form of dancing, including the sensational "X-Ry Dance," "Tango" and "Turkey Trot." The seat sale opens Wednesday.

T.M.A. Benefit.
An event that is well looked for is to be held at the Grand Opera House on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Feb. 20, under the auspices of the Theatrical Mechanical Association, composed as it is of all the leading acts from the different theatres in the city. The augmented orchestra of the best musicians in the city will render an overture that will not be forgotten, and the course of the lengthy program will commence sharp at 2. The box office will open Tuesday morning. This is one treat that the theatre-going public cannot afford to miss.

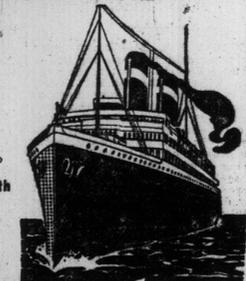

A Lady of Quality at The Strand.
Visitors to the Strand Theatre will be charmed with the presentation of that fine artist, Cecelia Loftus, in the delightful play "A Lady of Quality," by Frances Hodgson Burnett. It is the first of the famous Mayers Film Company productions to be released this year, and is mounted in settings lavish even for that firm. The play is one of the most attractive on the stage, and is an idyllic instinct with the romance, beauty and daring of the palmy days of knightdom. Miss Loftus finds in Florida, the heroine of the story, a part entirely suited to

WHEAT ADVANCED ON EXPORT SALES

Europe's Demand Checked Decline at Chicago—Corn Also Firmer.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Export sales which were said to have reached a large total brought about a rally today in wheat. The market having shown a declining tendency most of the day wound up steady at the same as last night to a shade off. Corn and oats also closed virtually unchanged. In provisions the outcome was a setback of 10c to 2 1/2c.

Buying of wheat for European shipment took place chiefly here and at Duluth. The business was chiefly evenly divided between the two cities and did not receive any publicity until near the end of the session. Previously the market had been depressed by continued snowfalls in the winter crop region and by reports of rain through the central provinces of India. Moreover, receipts for the week at Chicago were the largest in five years during this part of the season.

Estimates that country elevators' stocks northwest had been depleted five million bushels since Feb. 1 helped the late recovery. There were also statements that much of the wheat in Montana had been sold to go to the Pacific coast.

Corn Turned Stronger. Corn swung upward when wheat developed returning strength. At first however, the corn market was heavy on account of heavy overnight offers having failed to attract eastern buyers. Prime weather for shelling and hauling counted also against the bulls.

In oats the trading consisted chiefly of hedging against rural purchases. Hog prices at a higher level gave a lift to provisions. Stock yard interests led the buying.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET. Receipts of farm produce were not as large as usual on Saturday—four loads of hay, no grain, twenty loads of apples, and a fair quantity of other produce.

Trade was fairly active, and many buyers, notwithstanding the cold weather. Hay—Four loads sold at $17 to $19 per ton. Potatoes—Prices easy, at 90c to $1.05 per bag.

Corn—There were few sales on account of the cold weather. Baskets of apples sold at from 25c for the small basket to as high as 50c for the large basket.

Eggs—The bulk of the eggs sold at 45c, although prices ranged from 40c to 50c, the latter price being paid for eggs laid the day before, which would be on Friday.

Butter—Market steady with a good supply, prices ranging from 30c to 35c, the bulk going at 32c to 33c, with very little at 35c.

Poultry—Receipts were not as large as for some weeks past, and prices were firmer. Turkeys, dressed, 18c to 20c; ducks, 20c to 22c; chickens, 18c to 22c; the latter price being paid for milk-fed birds of very good quality.

Market Notes. Brown Bros. bought 28 choice young turkeys from C. J. Brock of Markham Township, at 24c per lb., wholesale. These birds had been well fed and were of fine quality.

HALIFAX, Feb. 15.—The Gloucester schooner Harmony was driven Saturday in a disabled condition, her steering gear out of commission, back stripped from its fastenings, deck strained and hatches in great danger of being blown away by the sea.

THE vessel was on the Bank Quay when she was driven, and returned to Gloucester. Sails were set, and in the teeth of a gale which at times reached a velocity of 30 miles an hour, the little schooner bravely ploughed along. Giant waves swept over her, and more than once the men were swept off their feet and almost overboard. The crew said their plight for a time was terrible and it was a great relief when they sighted Halifax.

Dadd and Sergeant Herbert Marcus of the First Aero Corps, today performed what Capt. Arthur S. Cowan, commanding the army aviation camp, tonight termed the most finished flight ever made in the United States by either an army officer or a civilian aviator.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—Charge O'Shaughnessy made a second protest today to President Huerta against the newspaper impartial which continues to publish personal attacks on President Wilson.

THAT KIKUYU INCIDENT IS GREATLY MAGNIFIED. MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—Rev. Dr. Symonds of Christ Church Cathedral, this morning said he had never for a moment believed in the possibility of a split in the Anglican Church over the Kikuyu incident. It was not a question of upsetting old faiths, but the formation of a united national church in East Africa to combat strong Mohammedanism.

The preacher took issue with Dr. Weston, the bishop of Zanzibar, who has preferred charges of heresy against the bishops of Mombasa and Uganda, who took part in the conference. The charges of heresy, he thought, were of the lightest and even frivolous description.

GOOD YEAR FOR CALGARY POWER

Gross Earnings Amounted to Near a Quarter Million—New Development.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Calgary Power Company will be held in Montreal on March 16, and from an advance copy of the report and balance sheet the following information has been obtained.

For the year ending Dec. 31, 1914, the gross earnings of the company amounted to $246,116.28; operating expenses, $52,066.99, leaving net earnings available for bond interest, $189,049.29.

During the year the fourth unit at Home Shoe Falls plant was installed, bringing the equipment at that point up to its ultimate capacity.

When the Kananaskis plant is in full operation, which will be about the middle of February, the net earnings should show a very substantial increase, and the company be in a position to fill all requirements for power, and provide efficient and satisfactory service to its customers.

Among other contracts the company is providing for a supply of a minimum of 5000 h.p. by the city for operation of its municipally-owned street railway, electric lighting and power departments.
