DETECTIVES GOT HIGH UNION OFFICES

Ex-Pinkerton Man Tells of Methods Used in Fight Against the Miners.

BOISE, Idaho, June 30.—Morris Friedman, a former employe of the Pinkerton detective agency at Denver, who published his adventures and many of the confidential reports and records that passed thru his hands in an attack on the agency, was a witness yesterday for Wm. D. Hayward, charged with the murder of Gov. Steunenberg. Friedman testified to how Pinkertons sent spies into many of the important unions of the Western Federation of Miners.

Friedman has a shock of black hair and is of marked Jewish type. Heavy thick glasses magnify his dark eyes. By name and by operating numbers he identified detectives who succeeded in entering or getting close to miners' unions in Colorado. He produced voluminous copies of the reports they made to the agency for transmission to the mine owners. Friedman was a confidential stenographer under Detective McParland, and testified that it was part of his duty to re-copy the reports of the operatives as they reached their office.

Detective Hood High. Friedman swore that in several instances the detectives sent out by the agency at the behest of the mine owners got themselves elected to high offices in the unions, and that in a couple of instances they carried their "long" parts to the extent of sharing all the hardships of strikers and being finally deported from the country with strikers. Ten feet from Friedman's chair sat George W. Redell, who, as a Pinkerton detective, worked up to leadership in the Teulicide Union.

The witness identified Redell, who smiled and touched his chest as Friedman pointed toward him. Friedman said that one Pinkerton operative, A. W. Gratias, became chairman of the union strike relief committee at Globeville, and as such had charge of all the funds and funds distributed there by the local union and general federation. Friedman also said that under instructions from McParland, the Pinkerton agency this man first tried to beggar the federation by lavish expenditures for the strikers, and then, failing in this, he carried the relief down to the lowest point in the hope that the members of the union might congregate in his store.

Orchard's Credibility. Besides the identification of Friedman as a witness, the defence offered a large amount of testimony covering Orchard's credibility, the dispute as to the time Orchard sold his interest in the Hercules Mine, the treatment of Jack Simpson, while a prisoner in the Idaho "bull pen," the motive for the murder of Detective Lytle Gregory, the whipping of men friendly to the miners at Cripple Creek, and the circumstances under which the processes of the civil courts at Teulicide were disregarded by the military authorities. Two witnesses swore that on the day the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill was destroyed Orchard was at Millikan's camp on Gardner, engaged in a poker game, and Patrick McHale, a bartender, swore that he sat in the game. His various means, including a showing that McHale is a gambler, the prosecution endeavored to shake this testimony, but both witnesses stuck to their stories.

J. H. Ramsey, who formerly operated stage lines in North Idaho, testified that Orchard came to him on May 1, 1899, and offered to sell him his interest in the Hercules Mine for $400. Orchard testified that he sold his interest in the mine in February, 1897.

ADRIFF ON THE LAKE.

Party of Eight Lose Control and Are Carried Far Out.

A party of five women and three men who were out in a skiff off Kew Beach on Sunday afternoon lost control of their craft, owing to the breaking of the tiller and drifted a couple of miles out into the lake before a strong west wind. The cries of the women were heard on the shore, and several attempts were made by the beachers to launch a boat to go to the rescue. After several failures, Herbert Staneland, the Yonge-street tobacconist, went out in a rowboat and brought in two of the women, and Harry Morgan of Kewbeach-avenue and the lake front rescued the others with his gasoline launch.

Dominion Day July 1, 1867-1907

Sir Chas. Tupper is one of the two surviving "Fathers of Confederation." The Hon. A. A. Macdonald is the other. Sir Charles is now in England, from whence have come reports of his failing health.

They that dig foundations deep, For realms to rise upon, Little honor do they reap Of their generation.

Any more than mountains gain Statute till we reach the plain.

Load as the voice of her deep-booming waters, Clear as the lilt of her song birds in May.

Canada calls to her sons and her daughters, Lift high your standard of manhood to-day.

Here in the dawn of a great nation's morning, Rines the clear voice of our country's calling for heroes who self-interest scorn.

Do what they know and dare what they feel, Not in the wealth of her prairies so peerless, Not in her output of silver and gold, But in a people, free, righteous and fearless.

Canada calls! Then let the response be, Canada shall honor our glorious land, Let us be all we would pray that our sons be.

All the our hopes and traditions demand, Pure as the gold in the heart of her mountains, Strong as her torrents that leap to the sea.

Straight as the pine tree and clear as the sky, Lioned and fearless, face forward and free.

—A. D. Watson.

Our is a democratic country in an age of democracy. We here enjoy, at least in theory, what is called the reign of the common people. Now in this democratic country we have but few, and I wish we had no examples, of the class distinctions of the old world. Yet, I am a believer in a certain and in a real sense, in the principle of aristocracy. I believe in the true aristocracy of energy, learning, ability and integrity, an aristocracy whose ranks and titles are found in the earnest efforts of a man to do his duty and to exert in its discharge; and whose distinctions are such as a free people themselves confer by the expression of their confidence. That is the aristocracy and the only aristocracy which is suited to our day and country.

CANADA FIRST TO PAY HONOR

Ottawa Foot Guards Lay a Wreath of Maple Leaves on McKinley's Monument.

BUFFALO, June 30.—(Special.)—Standing with bare heads around the marble shaft on Niagara Square the Governor-General's Guards of Ottawa, Canada's corps d'elite, on Saturday paid a graceful tribute to the memory of the late president, William McKinley, by placing upon the obelisk a wreath of maple leaves—thus having the honor of decorating the monument for the first time.

"Busties were removed as Col. Bato stepped forward and attached the large wreath of maple leaves to the shaft. Stepping down he said: "The Governor-General's Foot Guards wish to pay tribute to the memory of a great man, and I can give assurance that the sentiments of the people of Canada."

His words were greeted by loud cheers. The scarlet clad soldiers were about an hour late in arriving for their visit to the 7th Regiment, and it was almost noon when they detrained at the Exchange-street depot.

The Guards were welcomed by Col. Geo. C. Fox and other officers of the local regiment. The Guards brought their regimental band along with them, forty-five strong, under the leadership of J. M. Brown, at one time attached to the West Point Military Band.

For the second time within a few weeks lower Main-street resounded with the "low-row-row-row" of the "British Grenadiers." This favorite marching air of the regiment was replaced by "The Maple Leaf" and the American martial airs as the regiment swung up the street and down Genesee to the McKinley monument.

Here they were drawn up by Lieut. Col. Bato, who was in command, and the blaring tones of the marching airs softened into a delicate pianissimo rendering of "Nearer My God to Thee," the favorite hymn of the dead president.

On Monday they cross the river to participate in the Dominion Day celebration there. Mr. Brown, at one time attached to the West Point Military Band, will decorate the soldiers' graves and the monument at Lundy's Lane.

NAMING A CITY.

The World's "spontaneous" name for a new city—closed last night, and upwards of 5000 suggestions have been received. A complete list of the names submitted will be forwarded to the mayors of Port Arthur and Fort William, who, along with the World, will decide the contest.

The list includes a great many duplicates, and the prize may have to be divided.

DEATH OF MRS. WEIR.

Inquest Will Be Held on Wednesday by Coroner Young.

The inquest into the death of Mrs. Weir, who was killed by a trolley at Yonge and Czar-streets on Saturday morning, will be conducted by Dr. W. A. Young, on Wednesday evening next at the city hall.

The remains will be taken to Seaforth for interment. Her brother, Rev. R. E. Welsh of the Upper Canada Bible and Tract Society, returned to the city Saturday evening, from Gravenhurst, at which place a telegram informed him of the accident. Mr. Welsh was on his way to Winnipeg. On his way to the train the car on which he was a passenger passed the car under which Mrs. Weir met death, from under which the body had not then been removed.

GIVE BIG SUMS FOR MISSIONS

Over $19,000 Contributed During 2 Hours' Services Conducted By Rev. A. B. Simpson.

Nineteen thousand dollars for an afternoon is some going, as our western friends put it. Rev. A. B. Simpson got that amount, or, to be exact, $19,223.75, for the missions in a two-hour meeting at Zion Congregational Church yesterday, between 3 and 5.

There was absolutely nothing sensational about the methods pursued, allowing for the theological views expressed and the somewhat frisky music. The first collection was taken up before the sermon. Afterwards the offerings were distributed and pledges taken, and the plates were sent around a second time, with the result mentioned. The amount included one sum of $2500, one of $2000, one of $1500, two of $1000, one of $800 and several $500 each.

The names of the contributors are not disclosed, following the usual policy of the alliance. "The names of the contributors are not disclosed, following the usual policy of the alliance."

SEEK REFUGE IN BARN TWO BURNED TO DEATH

Couple Caught in Storm Meet Death in Building Which Was Protecting Them.

BROCKVILLE, June 30.—(Special.)—Miss Jennie Grant of Clinton Mills and James Bond of Effenberg Centre, aged respectively 20 and 23 years, were burned to death in a barn recently when they took refuge during a severe thunderstorm.

The couple were driving home, but the storm became so severe that they sought shelter in the first building in sight.

They had no more than entered the barn, when it was struck by a bolt of lightning and burned to the ground, both of them perishing.

It is thought they were either killed or stunned by the shock and thus rendered helpless.

Their charred remains were found in the ruins.

UNWRITTEN LAW GOOD ENOUGH FOR VIRGINIA

Jury in 45 Minutes Acquits Ex Judge Loving—Say They Accepted Informal Plea.

HOUSTON, Va., June 30.—After forty-five minutes deliberation, the jury last evening returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of ex-Judge Wm. G. Loving of Nelson, manager of the valuable Virginia estate of Thomas F. Ryan, who was placed on trial here last Monday in the circuit court of Halifax County for the murder of Theodore Estes, the son of Sheriff M. K. Estes, of Nelson County. Loving shot and killed young Estes on the afternoon of April 22 at Oakridge, after a bugey ride Estes took with the defendant's daughter, Miss Elizabeth Loving, who told her father that her escort drugged and assaulted her.

Loving Thanked Jury. After the jury had been discharged, Loving, his wife and other relatives shook hands with and thanked each juror for the verdict. The defendant and his wife both wept. Loving was congratulated by many of his friends, who in obedience to the warning of Judge Barksdale there was not a demonstration in the court room. Foreman McGraw, a merchant and farmer, said that when the jury entered its room one of them did not exactly understand all of the instructions of the court, which were read to him. Mr. McGraw said that when he called for a vote, he requested all who favored the acquittal of the defendant to hold up their right hands. On the first vote every hand promptly went up. When asked what the basis of the verdict was he said: "Insanity," and that he and other members of the jury believed that Loving was out of his mind at the time he killed Estes. The mental stress, they believed, was brought on by the story told by his daughter.

Plea of Insanity. Attorneys Barksdale, Moore and Lee for the defence spoke practically along the same lines. They pleaded for acquittal on the ground that Loving was insane at the time he killed Estes, having lost control of himself upon hearing the story of the ruin of his daughter.

TORONTO MAN IS ROBBED AND MURDERED

Sidney Moss, Manufacturers' Agent, Missing in New York and Crime is Feared.

NEW YORK, June 30.—(Special.)—Sidney Moss, a representative of woolen and cotton manufacturers in Toronto, is believed by the police here to have been robbed and murdered.

He arrived here at the beginning of last week and was to have sailed Thursday night on a White Star liner for Europe.

He was missed, however, and the police started an investigation with the result that his hat and coat were found in an uptown apartment house, but no trace of Moss could be found. In the room where the police discovered his belongings his empty wallet was also found.

A minute enquiry revealed the fact that he was to have sailed on a White Star steamer, and the police enquired at the steamship office. There they were told that he had not sailed.

A general alarm to the police of New York was sent out to-night, to look up the missing man.

According to the directory, Sidney Moss has an office at 8 Colborne-street, and boards at 296 Jarvis-street, but enquiries at that address failed to yield information that he left there some time ago.

TWO-CENT RATE IN FORCE.

Railways in State of Illinois Must Cut Their Rates To-Day.

CHICAGO, June 30.—(Special.)—Railway rates between all points in the State of Illinois will be reduced to two cents per mile on Monday, July 1, by all the railroads operating in the state.

The eastern lines will delay reducing their interstate rates as long as possible, but the Chicago-Cincinnati rate will drop to-morrow from $7 to $8.

Other reductions will be made from day to day in interstate rates between points in those states which have made two cents per mile the maximum fare.

The general reduction in interstate rates of the eastern roads will be made Sept. 1, when the two-cent fare law of Pennsylvania goes into effect, if the other roads can keep an unwritten agreement to that intent.

The decision of the Washburn road to reduce its rates to a basis of two cents per mile between all points on its lines between Pittsburg and Omaha may force the other eastern roads to cut down their interstate rates long before Sept. 1.

An agreement made Saturday by the western roads is that "THESE LINES WILL AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE REISSUE THEIR LOCAL TARIFFS, REDUCING INTERSTATE FARES TO THE COMBINATIONS PRODUCED BY THE VARIOUS STATE FARES."

The states which have passed two-cent fare laws are: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania.

The Kansas railroad commission has ordered roads in that state to reduce rates to a basis of two cents per mile.

JAPAN'S ATTENTION GIVEN TO RELIGION

Politics Take Secondary Place—Rev. Dr. Carman Home From Far East.

Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada, has returned from Japan, where he and Dr. Sutherland, secretary of missions, were engaged in uniting the different branches of the Japanese Methodist bodies into one church.

Speaking of the conference, he said that in Japan there had been three Methodist churches, the Canadian Methodist, the Episcopal Church of the United States and the Methodist Episcopal South.

The mission boards of Canada and the United States will continue to help the Japanese church in educational work.

The new church begins its new life with 10,000 members, with from sixty to eighty effective ministers.

A MEETING OF SUFFRAGISTS

A Rather Lively Controversy Marked Friday's Meeting of the Society.

At the home of Mrs. Campbell, Balm Beach, a meeting was held by the Suffrage Society last Friday night, with Mrs. James L. Hughes in the chair. The Rev. R. Hutcheon was the guest of honor, and the meeting opened with an address from him.

His polished and eloquent remarks were touched with sarcasm directed against the illiberal opponents of suffrage for women. "Woman," he declared, with both sense and magnanimity, "is a genius for organization as well as for action."

Following Mr. Hutcheon, Mrs. Lewis, formerly of London, England, addressed the meeting. She is a woman of striking individuality, a little intense, fluent and enthusiastic politician, never losing in self-control when she gains the floor. She has been her husband's assistant in political campaigns in London for years, and it was the custom of her party to select her as canvasser for the forlorn hopes.

Mrs. Morrison spoke next with admirable force and conviction. Not only was suffrage a matter of justice, but of sentiment as well. Where was the chivalry of the other sex when they denied woman what she had a right to claim? Was woman, indeed, inferior? Mrs. Morrison cited instances of woman's activity in varied spheres.

scribes to the budget thru their representatives. What guarantee have they that the tax is just. Dr. Gordon advised us to draw the attention of women who are taxed thus to the suffrage movement, where they belong, and induce them to join it in protesting against this totally unconstitutional and unprecedented proceeding.

Mrs. Hughes disagreed totally with Dr. Gordon. She averred that we are taxed, whether citizens or not, that we receive police protection in return for our taxes, and that taxation and representation are two wholly separate things. That it is a false principle to make proselytes for the sake of expediency. That these women would simply be malcontents, not suffragists, and so were agitators. Mrs. Hughes desired peace; agitation was an evil in itself, and had no good results. Time would give us the measure if we only waited. Some young and ill-advised enthusiasts might be anxious to make a row, but that was not the proper spirit.

Miss McCully disputed Mrs. Hughes' opinions, and repudiated her attitude "in toto." No movement ever succeeded in effecting a radical change by conservative methods. All was grid that came out of the mill. No great change came about except thru extremists and agitators. No government ever considered the time ripe for reform till it was compelled thereto by reform from it. This was just. If we cannot and dare not seize our rights, it will always be doubted whether they really are our rights or not.

As for taxation and representation, Miss McCully considered the two things inseparable. We receive protection, it said, in return for the taxes we pay. The speaker denied that women received the same consideration from employer, member of parliament, policeman, municipal authority as a voter would. The meeting expressed its approbation in applause. It evidently thought not, and perhaps, had had its experience with street car conductors and similar functionaries. "Taxation and representation went together," the speaker insisted. "We are not citizens. We have no voice in the laws, and we should not be taxed. Women were not represented formerly because the community did not expect them to work outside the home. It was incumbent on father, brother or husband to keep his women. Nowadays men are expected to step out and take an occupation for herself, if she does not marry. Even wealthy women do it. Times have changed, and we must be represented."

Mrs. Hughes expressed her regret that her remarks had been the means of having the meeting so prolonged. It was not customary to pass the usual hour. In the course of the meeting it was pointed out that the suffrage association has been in existence for 20 years in Toronto. It has so far never done anything to disgrace itself in the way of agitation. Young and fiery spirits are not desired, but the equality of the sexes, and the confined until the last few months to a membership of 50, it has so far despised the blazon of publicity, and is to be congratulated on the course of mastery inaction which it has pursued. It is to be regretted that it is unlikely to be its future policy. Two hundred members have been added by Miss Helen Cunningham to the Juniors recently, and it is to be anticipated that an explosive yarn may soon be emitted from the newly awakened and somewhat overgrown infant association.

When a Woman is a Cad.

"How!" someone says. "Why how can a woman be a cad? It's only a man who is a cad." A woman can violate the code of her class just as a man can, and when she does she's a cad. Listen to a true story of something which actually happened, and happened in Toronto during this year of grace, nineteen hundred and seven. A girl who was young, inexperienced-looking, and obviously of the working-class got into an open car. She had on a poor, foolish dress of faded green and white, none too nicely laundered, and her neck was low, even for a Dutch neck. Her hair, which was very pretty in itself, was too elaborately dressed, and a stray strand had been pinned in by a heavy, fancy brooch which kept dragging the puff at the back looser and looser. Even then it looked pretty. She had powdered her face much too obviously.

WHAT TO WEAR.

"Learn Bon Ton and see the world." Empire necklets are to be worn much this summer. The familiar form of the red and white interlacing pendants, necklace is varied by threading with a black velvet ribbon, whence the jeweled festoons hang gracefully. The pasturium brown, at once so popular and so excessively difficult, is very much abused in the wearing. How many people does it suit? How many appear anything but aggressively loud in it? Ask yourself these questions before you invest. If you have invested already, then tone down the color to a dark brown or white. Never wear it with brilliant tan shoes. The only brown tolerable color is a positively iron-brown, unadorned leather shoes, with gloves to match. There are some shades of pasturium brown that are very disagreeable to look at that the really pretty colorings will probably soon fall into disfavor also. Don't buy brown if you haven't done already. It won't last into September, except in very modified tints, and is already vulgarized. The color of the immediate future is green. Do not mistake it. It is not the bright, light-colored shade so popular in linens, but that is also good style, but a very different one. It is not the delicate grey-green to the faintest water shade, and none of the prettiness which will be between green and blue. Olive and myrtle green will also be worn.

Now that pale mauve and deeper purple shades are being so much worn, why, oh why, does not some artist in color rediscover the delicate lavender of our ancestors? It never faded anywhere. The mauves and purples are respectively too pink and too red to even approximate the desirable shade. It seems to be almost a lost color, except in old pictures and remnants of old ribbon. Lavender is far nearer a delicate opalescent pink and yet it is neither. It is a color so suggestive, so romantic in the very name, so associated with the desirable shades of the past, that it is a wonder no enterprising woman of taste and fashion cares to revive it. It formed an ideal background for face. Among the most distinguished dresses I have ever seen, pictured or worn, was one which an old-fashioned lady wore in church as a child. It never went out of my memory. The material was a soft, and heavy, blue that was simply, almost severely, plain. The beauty lay in the color, which was of such a deep, cool, blackish green that it suggested night on the water with the faintest glimmer of starlight in the sheen of the satiny surface. A bit of lace like foam finished it at neck and throat.

I never expected to see that color again. It seemed part of the woman, and of my own childhood. But the other day I went into a department store here in Toronto, and there lay the very same colored silk on the counter. It was tafeta, however, and some of the delicate effect was lost. But the clerk told me they had it in satin. Just beside that dream of color lay a bolt of the glowing nasturtium brown. The contrast spoke all in decision of the latter. If you want to look like a moss in its deepest shade, and wear delicate pink ribbons, or, better still, real pink roses with it.

The delegates to the Zionist convention are agreed upon two plans to assist this school, one to contribute to the maintenance and the other to create a market in the United States for its products, chief among them being carpets which are woven in pure Hebrew design.

The Toronto World CHILDREN'S HUMANE LEAGUE

Now that the holiday season is so soon to turn our children out into the fields and woods, parks and gardens, it is right and necessary that a word should be spoken about the treatment of animals and the care of trees and plants. It is very deplorable that in the hurly-burly of modern life so little time is given by parents to the subject. Children seem to be, for the most part, incapable of realizing, unless explicitly told, that animals have the same feelings as themselves, and that it is degrading to hurt or tyrannize over them. A silver pin, with the letters, "T. W. H. L.," will be awarded the boy or girl of 14 years or under who shall send the best letter of 200 words, or less, to this column. The letter must reach the editor on or before July 6. The subject to be "Why We Should Love and Protect Our Birds." Contributions are to be written on one side of the paper only, and must be plainly signed with name and address of writer. Only members of the Toronto World Humane League can compete. If you are not a member, fill out the blank beneath, and send it with your letter:

Important News For Ford Owners:

FORD PATRONS, PRESENT AND PROSPECTIVE, will be pleased to learn that we have just established our own Branch Retail Sales Store in Toronto—at No. 6 Adelaide Street East.

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT MOVE in the local motor car situation and its results will be far reaching.

IT IS NO SECRET that the agent's discount on Ford cars is very much less than on any of their competitors.

THIS FACTOR HAS HAD AN IMPORTANT BEARING on the sale of Ford cars and in the treatment, afterwards, of Ford buyers.

NO MATTER HOW HONEST or how able the commission agent, so long as he handles several different makes of cars, on all others of which his profit is greater than on Fords, he is liable to consult his own immediate interests.

TORONTO IS THE MOST IMPORTANT distributing point in Canada. The Ford interests here are great.

OUR ENORMOUS OUTPUT—now nearly twice that of any other maker in the world—makes feasible, and the conditions—the interests of our patrons and of ourselves—makes imperative, this move.

WE HAVE A REPUTATION for what is termed "Ford Courtesy," of which we are most jealous, and which we are desirous to promote.

FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME, it is to our interest to see that every Ford car is running all the time and is in such condition as to be a credit to us as makers.

OUR BROADER EXPERIENCE teaches us not to be penny wise; teaches us that courtesy pays bigger dividends and costs us less than anything else that goes with a sale.

WE'LL LAY A SOLID FOUNDATION for the successful future of the Toronto branch—can afford to, because Ford will always make, and Ford will always sell, Ford cars, and the interests and welfare of Ford owners will always be inseparable from the interests and welfare of the Ford Motor Company.

WE PROPOSE TO SELL MORE FORD CARS in Toronto and vicinity than are sold of any other four makes—just as we do in New York, Chicago, Detroit, and other large centres.

JOHN CATTO & SON King-street-Opposite Postoffice, TORONTO. TRADE RELATIONS WITH STATES ARE THREATENED Japanese Chambers of Commerce Adopt Strong Resolutions—Attitude at Washington.

TOKYO, June 30.—At a joint meeting of seven chambers of commerce here it was resolved to address the principal chambers of commerce in America, in part as follows: "It has always been a matter of profound satisfaction to the people of Japan to witness the constant growth of cordial relations between our two countries and of our community interests in the fields of trade and commerce. "But since last year the people in a section of your country have unfortunately acted in a manner calculated to prejudice the legitimate rights of Japanese people, who have been frequently subjected to unjust and humiliating treatment at the hands of a lawless element prevailing there. "We therefore, venture to address you, confident of hope they will be shared by you and that you will, considering the matter upon the right principles of national intercourse and the mutual advantages of trade relations, do your best to speedily eliminate the present causes of discord and insure our common prosperity for the future. "A resolution was also addressed to President Roosevelt, stating the resolutions they had sent to the chambers of commerce, and asking him to use his power in bringing about a solution of the existing difficulties.

OPPOSED TO RELIGION MIXED WITH POLITICS Rev. Dr. Milligan Criticizes Demand That Laurier Invite Methodist to Cabinet.

The attitude taken by Rev. Dr. Douglas at the recent Methodist conference in Toronto, that the Dominion government was under obligation to appoint a Methodist as a member of the cabinet, in recognition of denominational strength, drew some remarks of rather pointed criticism from Rev. Dr. Milligan in his sermon last night.

"We are told we should have a Methodist minister in the cabinet," he remarked, referring to the sentiments expressed before the conference. "What do you think of that? That's joining religion and politics."

Dr. Milligan flatly declared that he was personally opposed to such a conjunction. The only way to clean out politics and everything else was by insisting on the appointing of men of good citizenship.

The speaker, touching on the subject of the visiting regiment, intimated that it was, the existence of such an organization, which caused him to hesitate in becoming an advocate of such a movement.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 30.—Hoke Smith was inaugurated governor of Georgia yesterday. In his inaugural address Governor Smith suggested special legislation to prevent corporations from using improper influence to control legislation.

"Any plan for the negroes which fails to recognize the difference between the white and black races will fail. The honest student of history knows that the negro had full opportunity for generations to develop before the days of slavery; that the negro race was improved by slavery and that the majority of the negroes in this state have ceased to improve since slavery."

CLOSE SCRUTINY NEEDED IN NEW YORK MARKET

Rally on Wall St. Dependent on the Public Following—The Situation Locally.

World Office, Saturday Evening, June 29.

Monday witnessed the closing transaction of the present gold movement from New York, the total export reaching upwards of $2,000,000.

Concurrent with the close of the incident, wall street assumed a different appearance, the attitude of dejection, accompanied by weak prices, which has been present over a month, being replaced by an atmosphere of buoyancy.

The sudden change from pessimism to optimism was, as usual, not accomplished except by the direction of inside manipulators, who, taking advantage of a sold out market and an outstanding short interest, advanced prices in the way of least resistance.

The rally was continued through the week, and in instances prices were raised from 5 to 10 points.

The sharp improvement in prices is nothing more than a temporary reaction, and it is anticipated that conditions warrant the change, but that the speculative operations of the market called for the transition.

Investors are being urged to be very cautious in the market, and to be prepared for a possible relapse into the conditions which have been the rule for several months.

The market is being watched closely, and it is expected that a further advance in prices will be followed by a sharp reaction.

was of a more favorable complexion than had been generally expected. Immediately following the publication of the statement, the market reacted strongly, but then developed fresh strength and rose to the highest of the day.

The consensus of opinion regarding the general situation is that the worst has been over and that confidence is gradually being restored.

With prices at the present level, and July 1 being upon us, with less flurry in the money situation than had been generally expected, it is not difficult for manipulation to advance stocks, and, while we do not believe that any sustained upward movement is likely to take place in the near future, trading on the long side of the market for a quick turn may probably be indulged in as freely as selling for the short account has been for some time past.

Following the sharp break of Friday afternoon in the market, a better tone this morning, the more earlier effect of bank statement anticipations, and New York City bond sale, the market was noted in a selling movement which the weather reports, may have been light and support was forthcoming in the market.

These, of course, are important, but they should not occupy a foremost place in our considerations. What we need to-day is a more moral, more ethical, and more spiritual type of citizenship. In no sphere of life is there more need for moral reform than in politics, and our duty is to use our voice and vote for a purification of politics and life. We love our country, we are proud of her achievements and her future possibilities."
