THE BIBLE CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Anniversary of the Society was held at Bowmanville, Ontario, June 5th and 6th, 1870. The Sermons were preached at 10½, 2½, and 6½, by the Brethren D. Cantlon, W. Jolliffe, and W. Hooper. The chair of the Annual Meeting was occupied by Thos. Ford, Esq., of Fullarton.

RES. I.—That the Report, extracts of which have been read, be received, printed, and circulated under the direction of the Missionary Committee.

Moved by Bro. W. S. Pascoe, and seconded by Bro. A. Clark.

RES. II.—That considering the financial state of the country, we are happy to report an increase in our Missionary receipts; the income of the year amounting to upwards of $8000; while by careful management the expenditure has been reduced, so that there is an available surplus for the partial reduction of the heavy debt. But as a large deficiency yet remains due the Treasurer, while we gratefully acknowledge past liberality, we most respectfully invite our friends and supporters to continued and increased contributions, that the debt may be wholly removed, and your Committee enabled to embrace all the openings, inviting the labors of this Missionary Society.

Moved by Bro. J. Whitlock, and seconded by Bro. G. Webber.

RES. III.—That the cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to Thos. Ford, Esq. for his kindness in presiding on the occasion of this Annual Meeting.

Moved by Bro. C. Barker, and seconded by Bro. W. S. Pascoe.

REPORT.

It is no longer necessary to vindicate the existence, propriety and necessity of christian missions. The day was, and that so recently as the latter part of the last century, when a proposal to establish foreign missions was rebuked as a daring spiritual ambition. Happily, the mission cause has now a history of its own, to which it can refer the skeptical and timid, who enquire after its results. And when the many Missionary Reports of the many Missionary Societies, exhibit proofs that the great work in all parts of the world has been owned of God, in the subjugation of millions to the hallowed sway of Jesus, we are more than ever encouraged to keep the machinery in operation. Now, wherever the Missionary has gone, or wherever the gospel has been humbly and faithfully proclaimed, there success, on a limited or extended scale has been realized. The discouragements may have been many, the difficulties great, the hardships severe, the progress slow, the fruits comparatively hidden, yet success, sure, certain and sublime, has and always will mark the diffusion of the gospel. When christianity appeared, and commenced her march over the continent of Europe, the nations, then sunk in barbarism, ceased to sacrifice human victims, to wear the skin of their enemies for apparel, to murder the aged and infirm, to devour the hearts of their captives, to commit suicide from principle, to cast their prisoners and children to the flames; whilst people who could not be approached because of their ferocity, became gentle and mild. And what Christianity has done for one country or age, it can do for every one, where introduced—Civilizing the savage tribes, raising the idolater from moral degradation to the spiritual worship of the true God, banishing ignorance by the enobling education of truth, rescuing the fallen from the dominion of satan, opening the prison doors of the foulest moral dungeon, and making the half-demon, a man, a christian. Imparting to social and civil intercourse, a principle of equity, limiting and directing the wishes of the monarch, the purposes of the statesman, the laws of the senate, the decisions of the magistrate, the sentence of the judge. From its piercing glance, fraud, trickery, and corruption fly appalled. At its voice, merit rises to distinction, and worth emerges from the shade. Under its auspices, literature, science, and the arts have flourished. It has reared a thousand salutary institutions. It has meliorated the condition of society by diffusing a principle of justice, and a feeling of benevolence through all its ranks. It has made every renovated country, a theatre of wonders, such as excite the admiration and gratitude of the world. But gladdened and stimulated as we are by success, Duty is the watchward of the christian church, and the christian missionary. Ill prepared as we may be to appreciate the force of abstract duty, apart from the encouragements which success brings, yet the plain, positive, imperative command of Christ should be our one rule of action. And in this great enterprise, the Divine Founder has revealed that duty most clearly in the great charter of all missionary operations:—"Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature!"—a commission covering all space, all time, and all men. We have not to do with results, but duty; therefore we are not at liberty to neglect or despise our work, even though we see no fruit; but living principally, if not wholly, for the good of others, and the glory of God, we should persevere, despite all difficulties, remembering ever the sublime old battle cry: Country, Manhood, Brotherhood, God, expect every man to do his duty. In looking at the proper and only spirit in which christian duty should be carried out, we say, be active, be earnest, kindle not with a wild visionary enthusiasm, but with a glowing, wise, ever-working enthusiasm. Instead of stopping to argue with gainsayers, on doctrine and methods of action, while souls perish, work with an ardor that shall put them to silence. Going along every bye-way and avenue, where good may be done. Like Paul, captivating men by a spirit of earnestness. A free, warm, genial, intelligent enthusiasm will keep you abreast of this intensely active age. Mighty, tireless agencies are ever building up and tearing down; and everything and everybody is at work, either benevolently or mischievously to day. Gigantic enterprises are pushed to rapid completion. The globe itself is bound round by slender but mighty cords, running under its seas and oceans, and across its lands, bringing the ends of the earth together; while across prairie and river, valley and mountain ravine, haling from either ocean, the iron horse thunders on its way, showing the adventure of man. In the face of this, let us show to the world that the love of Christ is a far more inspiring passion than the love of gold or travel. That it illicit a more daring courage, a sublimer faith, a more enduring patience and persistent constancy. While the love of Christ constrains, let us go on unostentatiously, but unfalteringly, proclaiming the gospel, and spreading scriptural holiness throughout the land. And to this not only the promises, and predictions, and purposes of God converge, but the events of the year strongly encourage, shewing, by contrast, the weakness of the most mighty and corrupting of all human superstitions, and the design of the gospel in the final overthrow of all systems of error, and the gathering of all nations to Christ.

Popery has succeeded through its Ecumenical Council, in directing all eyes to itself, and if we mistake not, there have not been symptoms of an approaching crisis, so well calculated to alarm the friends of the Papacy, since the Reformation, as are discernable in the Roman Catholic world to day. He who calls himself Christ's vicar, vice God, universal bishop, the husband of the Church, who holds the keys of heaven and hell, is now a very feeble old man, crowning the disasters of a sadly changeful life, by asking very fallible men whether he is infallible. The response is by no means uncertain in utterance or tendency. Gratry, a prominent priest in France, says, his duty to God, and love to the church, constrain him to declare the infallibility dogma a lie, crowning an edifice of deceit, and falsifying all history. The Archbishop of Milan rejects, with disdain this assumption of Rome, while the large minority of 326 of the most influential bishops and scholars in the Roman Catholic world, have not hesitated, in Council, to declare that Infallibleism is founded on real or affected ignorance, and no intelligent or honest mind can believe it; while secessions from Rome are being witnessed in many parts, not excepting our own Dominion, giving the lie to that Church's boasted unity, and shewing, like the first Reformation, that from her own bosom the reformer and revolution shall come. Because of this, Romanist Belshazzars already smite their knees in fear; and praying, rather than prophetic Daniel's, are reading up the handwriting of their destiny.

Now as we see the lights in the temples of error extinguished one by one, and the ever-brilliant lamp of truth substituted; the crucifix falling and the crescent waning, while the cross is becoming more resplendent, we have signs unmistakable, that the kingdom of Christ is coming with power. Floating, as we do in this land, in an ark of safety, over a world deluged with ruin, we can look out at the windows of the missionary reports, and see whether the tide ebbs or flows; and looking through them we see now the tops of the mountains dotting the surface of the sea, and indicating that the waters are receding; now patches of land spread beautifully before the eye, clothed with verdure and glory; now vast forests wave in the breeze of heaven, clothed with summer; now the valleys smiling with luxuriant harvest, golden and ripe for the garner; now the millennial report, when all trace of the desolating flood shall disappear, and the emerged world, fair as a paradise, fragrant as virtue, vocal as heaven, shall gather around the Saviour's throne, to celebrate the jubilee of man.

Every friend of the Missionary Society will find in the Pastors' Reports, things to awaken gratitude, things to stimulate to renewed exertion, things to produce humility and sorrow. The state of some of the Stations is quite satisfactory and hopeful.

The condition of a few is saddening, if not painful. God has visited some with showers of blessings, so that they bear trace of real advancement; others drag heavily and are too unproductive.

PETERBORO' Societies have been quickened. A few precious souls have been hopefully converted. Old members have been revived. The attendance at the means of grace improved; and with increased numbers and finance, it has asked what your Committee has readily granted, to be a self-supporting circuit.

LAKEFIELD, after a year of toil and anxiety, presents a most encouraging aspect, notwithstanding the disaffection of a few of the friends in Smith, at first. The wisdom of the course adopted in the re-arrangement of that field of labor last year, is apparent to all. Dummer dependent, almost despised, has disappeared, and a liberal, discerning people are now placed in the foremost rank of our Canadian missions; while the important village of Lakefield has been most successfully opened, soon to be followed by a handsome church and parsonage. At Douro, the erection of a new and commodious church, is succeeding a gracious revival.

PERRYTOWN has received a few additions; but it is too stationary.

SEYMOUR continues to improve, under signal manifestations of divine blessing. Two new churches have been erected in the year, at a cost of $500, and opened free of debt. A lot, eligibly situated, has been purchased in Campbellford, for the erection of an attractive and substantial church.

HUNTINGDON, while slightly improved, is far from prosperous.

HUNGERFORD has witnessed some hopeful conversions. Bethesda church has been opened free of debt, but there is much need of greater liberality among some of its members.

OSHAWA holds its own, in spite of difficulties and opposition, but the scar of former strife is not wholly effaced. Still, its attached friends do not bate one jot of heart or hope.

PRINCE ALBERT has sustained serious loss through removals and death, yet manifestations of the divine presence and blessing have not been wanting. Its financial prospects are most encouraging. $650 have been raised toward the new and elegant parsonage. We hope soon to see it self-sustaining.

PICKERING is steadily progressing. Duffins' Creek is especially improved, and a new and encouraging opening has been found in the Township of Scarboro'.

SCOTT is Scott still, with its worst features yet apparent.

FENELON has unquestionably improved. Clouds, so portentous and stormy, at the beginning of the year, have passed away, fringed with amber and gold. A large membership, an additional church, and improved finance, present the station in a more healthy aspect.

USBORNE presents the strange paradox of a large increase to its members, yet a decrease in numbers. The past year has not been its most prosperous. It needs a gracious revival, greater liberality, and deeper spirituality. It is this year raised to the rank of Circuits.

CLINTON has been visited with a blessed work of grace, resulting in some clear and sound conversions, so that it continues slowly to advance.

COLBORNE is moving forward under the influence of a revival shower. With increased members, good congregations, and flourishing schools, it prays for yet greater prosperity.

GREY has erected and opened a new church, free of debt, and added much to the interest of its Sabbath schools, yet its prospects are far from encouraging.

LONDON, while grieving over the unfaithfulness of some, has yet to rejoice with gratitude over the prosperous state of the Mission. The church at Lambeth, is undergoing renovation and repairs. The cause at Westminster is most hopeful. The liberality of the friends worthy of praise and imitation.

INGERSOLL AND DEREHAM was favored at the commencement of the year with a reviving shower; and a number of those who were brought to Jesus, are still walking in the fear of God, and the comfort of the Holy Ghost. But its success has not been all that was anticipated. It mourns over a disease, the symptoms of which are too general and wide-spread—the worldliness and formality of some professors, and their non-attendance at the means of grace, especially the Class Meeting, of precious memory.

OWEN SOUND presents a more encouraging prospect than twelve months ago, some prejudices have been removed, whilst the churches have been quickened, there has been an increase in the number and size of the congregations gathered to hear the word, the friends as yet contribute but little to the support of the cause.

LISBON rejoices in a steady, healthy growth. The new church at Brookfield dedicated to the Lord, free of debt, has greatly strengthened the cause in that place. We are pleased to add this has also become a self-supporting Circuit.

LITTLE PRAIRIE Station is gaining strength, the want of better church accomodation is its chief draw-back, but the friends hope soon to arise and build.

ROCKLAND has suffered much from the severe affliction of its

PORTAGE LAKE, while blessed with union and peace among its members, has had to encounter much opposition, and misrepresentation from without, together with the removal of many influential friends through stoppages in the Mines, the neat and commodious church at Hancock, is heavily in debt, while money is scarce and business unusually dull, the Stations on Lake Superior, are just now passing through severe and exceptional trial.

THE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND Missions still want in prosperity. The severe affliction of Bro. Hunt, and the lack of additional Missionaries have seriously affected the cause on the Island, while Financial difficulties still exist, but God hath not left his servants without proofs of His presence and power in the vivification of some churches and salvation the of souls, and with the additional help that your Committee have arranged to send, we yet hope that the Missions there, will again become aggressive and flourishing.

The Statistical returns will show an apparent decrease, as three of the Stations on the list of Missions last year are now self-sustaining Circuits, but notwithstanding the apparent decrease there is an actual increase.

The following statistical table will show that the Society occupies 28 Stations, employing 36 Missionaries, assisted by 99 Local Preachers, preaching in 83 churches and 69 other places, having 2658 members, 489 teachers, and 3103 scholars.
