Serious Troubles In Germany Take Precedence Over News Of Allied Gains On Western Front

Strike in Magdeburg Brings Death to Many From Soldiers' Rifles—Berlin Strike Leaders Make Revolutionary Demands—Every Effort Made to Sup- press News But Enough Gets Through to Indicate Disrupting Conditions

Interest in the great French offensive on the Aisne today is second only to the startling news from the interior of Germany, veiled though the situation is in the mists of a rigid censorship, and obscured by the shackled condition of the German press, sufficient has leaked through to indicate that the German empire is facing a great economic and political crisis.

The latest information received is that 10,000 striking munition workers have engaged in a bloody riot in the great Prussian fortress town of Magdeburg, and were prevented from burning the city hall only after a sharp clash with the military. This story comes from the Dutch frontier with sufficient detail to make its claims to authenticity impressive. On its heels arrives the account of demands made by the leaders of the Berlin strike, demands of such a revolutionary character that compliance with them would mean a prompt ending to the military regime in the German empire.

Similar demands have not been voiced publicly in Germany since the imprisonment of Dr. Karl Liebknecht on a charge of treason. It is significant that they include a requisition for the release of all political prisoners, which would include, of course, the noted Socialist leader.

The exact status of the strike movement in Germany is unknown, but it is certain that a very considerable portion of the munition workers have been affected. There are reports of a new strike at Essen and Magdeburg, the site of an important branch of the great Krupp establishment. An indication of the seriousness of the situation is afforded by the fact that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has considered it necessary to make a personal appeal to the workers in which he denounces strikes as inexcusable crimes against the fighting forces.

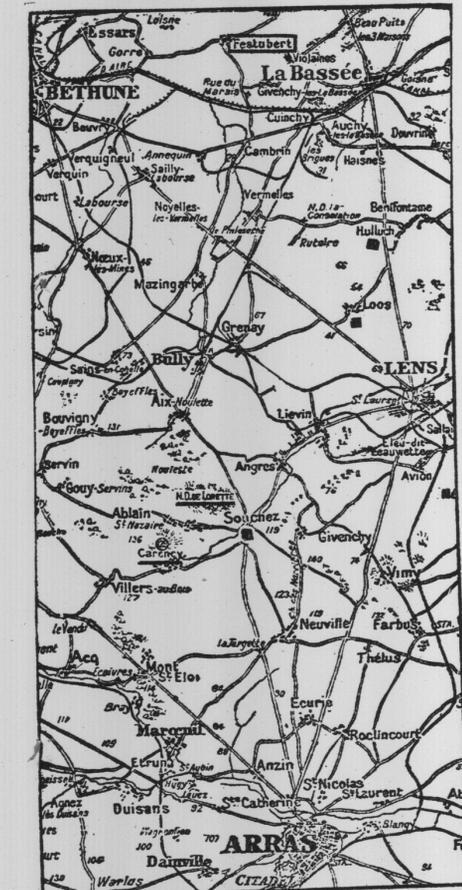

In the meantime, General Nivelle maintains his unrelenting pressure against the enemy at the most vital point of his defenses, the sharp angles at which the German line running south from Lens turns east toward Rheims.

REVOLUTION THREATENS HUNGARY

New York, April 21.—A News Agency despatch from Rome, published today, says:

"A revolution is imminent in Hungary, according to Vatican advisers here. As a result of various disturbances, the information here asserted, Budapest and twenty-five other cities and towns had been proclaimed in a state of siege."

KNOCKING AT DOORS OF LILLE

Map showing the Lens-La Bassée front. Around these two cities cluster the principal outworks of Lille, the principal manufacturing city of Northern France, and which Haig seeks to wrest from the Germans. With Lille gone the Germans will have strategic and no other reasons for clinging to the shreds of the Hindenburg line.

HINDENBURG PLEADS WITH THE STRIKERS

Sends to Berlin A Call For Continuous Work

MUNITIONS THE FIRST NEED

'Present Position on West De- mand Undiminished Produc- tion of War Supplies'—Serious Strike Situation in Magdeburg

London, April 21.—A message sent by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg to General Groener, head of the German munitions department, with reference to strikes in industrial communities, has been received by wireless from Berlin. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg says he recognizes that the population has been hit hard by the reduction of the bread ration, but that undoubtably the increase in meat and the regular delivery of potatoes will compensate. While he is convinced that the authorities will see the proper distribution of foodstuffs, the field marshal said: "I am therefore quite unable to see how the food situation can be made the ground for strikes by workers while our present position on the western front, which must be fought out, demands an undiminished production of war supplies of all kinds. This is the first and foremost consideration of all others."

"Every strike, however small, may be the means of an unjustifiable weakening of our defensive force and is an inexcusable crime against the fighting forces especially the men in the trenches who suffer in consequence."

A Reuter despatch from Amsterdam states that Von Hindenburg concludes his message by asking General Groener to see that all munition workers, tried to burn the town hall at Magdeburg on Friday, according to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Orléans, Holland, soldiers fired on the rioters, killing and wounding many and the town is now in a state of siege.

London, April 21.—Ten thousand strikers, mostly munition workers, tried to burn the town hall at Magdeburg on Friday, according to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Orléans, Holland, soldiers fired on the rioters, killing and wounding many and the town is now in a state of siege.

Chicago, April 21.—Tris Speaker of Cleveland, champion batter of 1916, has not got away to a flying start in the race for hitting honors in the American League. His unofficial average for the first six games of the season is .400, twenty-five points ahead of Beckinbaugh of New York. The averages include games of Wednesday, April 18. Cobb of Detroit is seventh in the list.

In the National League, Hank Gowdy of Boston leads the batters with an average of .500 and Benny Kauff, New York, is next with .558.

SPAIN'S NEW CABINET.

The French And British Both Make Gains In The West

Paris, April 21, Noon—French troops made further gains last night in grenade fighting south of Juvincourt and east of Courcy. A German attack against Mont Haut failed, the war office announced. The artillery was very active over the front of the French offensive. The battle of guns raged with particular violence east of Craonne and north of Rheims.

The statement follows—

North of the Aisne the artillery fighting was active in the regions of Nanteuil Le Fosse and Hurbetiste. We took 100 more prisoners yesterday on this part of the front.

"East of Craonne and north of Rheims the night was marked by violent artillery actions. We made progress in grenade fighting, particularly to the south of Juvincourt and east of Courcy."

"In the Champagne we inflicted losses on enemy troops which made an attack on Mont Haut, west of Maisons De Champagne. French detachments penetrated the German lines and brought back forty prisoners."

"The night was relatively calm over the remainder of the front."

BRITISH CAPTURE VILLAGE

London, April 21.—British troops last night captured the village of Gonnelux on the front between St. Quentin and Cambrai. This was officially announced today. Prisoners were taken in the sharp fighting here.

Attack on Venice Fails

Rome, April 20.—A sea and air battle near Venice on April 17 is reported officially as follows:

"A number of airplanes, aided by torpedo boats, approached Venice on April 17 to effect a reconnaissance in force. A rapid counter-attack by Italian and French airplanes and the fire of our batteries prevented the enemy machines from flying over the city. In a series of aerial duels one enemy plane was shot down. Two Italian hydroplanes have failed to return to their base."

RUSSIA WANTS NO
SEPARATE PEACE

Petrograd, April 21.—Delegates from seven of the Russian armies conferred today with the councils of workers and soldiers' delegates and asked the council whether it favored a separate peace. M. Soyloff, on behalf of the council, replied:—"The council rejects any idea of a separate peace."

Petrograd, April 21.—The official news agency today gave out the following statement:—"Replying to Congressman Meyer London (of New York), who asked for a denial that the Russian Socialists favored a separate peace with Germany, the executive committee telegraphed:—

"As has been stated in a declaration of the council of workers and soldiers' delegates, the entire Russian revolutionary democracy does not seek a separate peace but favors international peace without annexations or indemnities, real or disguised, on the basis of a free development of nations and countries that the proletariat of every country should do its utmost to bring about peace on the above basis."

It was announced in Washington on April 19 that Representative London, the only Socialist member of congress, had called N. C. Talmadge, a Socialist member of the Russian Duma for authoritative information regarding the rumors that Russian Socialists favored a separate peace with Germany.

"The great kindred nation adjoining the dominion from which I come, has been impelled by the relentless and overbearing arrogance and aggression of Germany to take up arms in a common cause of liberty and humanity. From the very foundation of the republic the traditions of American policy have been consistently opposed to intervention in any European war. They would never have committed this fateful step save for the overwhelming cause of honor and right."

"Our neighbors are peace-loving people as we are, but those who imagine they are more greatly influenced by material considerations than other nations fail to realize or comprehend the true spirit of the people of the United States. Their astonishing progress and industry and their remarkable capacity in affairs may have led to a false conception, possibly they have some misconception with regard to us."

"I hold that the self-governed nations of the British empire are truly and thoroughly democratic in their purposes, ideals and aspirations as any nation in the world. It has been wittily said that the United States might be regarded as a monarchy under an elective king and the British empire as a republic under an hereditary president and it is perfectly true that the president has much greater executive power than the king. In all essentials the two nations are the same in both countries and the spirit of the two nations is the same."

"In this conflict thousands of American citizens have enrolled in our forces and have fought gallantly and heroically side by side with Canadian troops. It will be a glorious day when the Union Jack and Old Glory advance together in the same cause on freedom's battlefield."

"I have spoken of the responsibilities of our empire; let me emphasize even more strongly the joint responsibility of the American republic and the British commonwealth. Inspired by the same ideals, united in a common purpose and acting in unselfish and loyal cooperation, they possess a power, both moral and material, which can command the peace of the world. May they exercise that power, for this, the highest of all purposes."

MEAT PRICES

Owing to the scarcity of beef and the consequent increase in the price a printed pamphlet has been prepared by some dealers in the local market, setting forth prices arranged as follows:—Sirloin steak thirty-five cents; loin roasts, thirty-two cents; rib roasts, thirty cents; round steak, thirty cents; blade roasts, twenty-four and twenty-five cents; Dutch tops, twenty-four cents; rump roasts, twenty-two to twenty-four cents; shoulder roasts, twenty-four cents; stewing beef, eighteen to twenty cents; flank beef, fifteen cents; fresh plate beef, twenty cents and corned plate beef, twenty cents.

A dealer in the market today said that this was only the beginning and that the prices in beef would have to go still higher. Other prices are: Veal, fifteen to thirty cents; pork, twenty-eight to thirty cents; frozen lamb, thirty cents a pound. Eggs have increased slightly, now selling for forty-two cents. Butter is forty-five to forty-eight cents.

Another Relief Ship Is Sent Down

Amsterdam, April 21.—The relief ship Kongali has been sunk by a mine or submarine. One member of the crew is missing. The remainder have been rescued.

BORDEN'S TRIBUTE TO "OLD GLORY"

"Glorious Day When Union Jack and American Flag Advance
Together in Same Cause on Freedom's Battlefield"

Manchester, April 21.—Sir Robert Borden, premier of Canada, was given the freedom of the city of Manchester today. He predicted that after the war German industries would be supported and developed by the most thorough and powerful state organization ever known.

He said that if the military autocracy remained in control the possessions and integrity of the British empire would not remain unchallenged. Referring to the entrance of the United States into the war he said:

"The great kindred nation adjoining the dominion from which I come, has been impelled by the relentless and overbearing arrogance and aggression of Germany to take up arms in a common cause of liberty and humanity. From the very foundation of the republic the traditions of American policy have been consistently opposed to intervention in any European war. They would never have committed this fateful step save for the overwhelming cause of honor and right."

"Our neighbors are peace-loving people as we are, but those who imagine they are more greatly influenced by material considerations than other nations fail to realize or comprehend the true spirit of the people of the United States. Their astonishing progress and industry and their remarkable capacity in affairs may have led to a false conception, possibly they have some misconception with regard to us."

"I hold that the self-governed nations of the British empire are truly and thoroughly democratic in their purposes, ideals and aspirations as any nation in the world. It has been wittily said that the United States might be regarded as a monarchy under an elective king and the British empire as a republic under an hereditary president and it is perfectly true that the president has much greater executive power than the king. SUPPORT THE PLAN OF DAYLIGHT SAVING

At a meeting of the Senior Epworth League of Portland Methodist Church last evening in their rooms in Portland street, it was unanimously decided to support the movement for daylight saving. The subject was discussed and the opinion was expressed that to discontinue the movement in St. John would be to place an obstacle in the road of making the scheme nation wide.

The members then enjoyed a musical and literary programme. R. H. Maxwell presided, and at the conclusion of the business session he introduced the speaker of the evening, Chester Brown, who delivered an interesting discourse on topics of interest to members of the league.

Miss Mable Rowley sang a very pleasing vocal solo and Miss Laura Finlay gave a reading that all enjoyed.

CANADIANS HAPPY AT THEIR POST ON WESTERN FRONT

(By Stewart Lyon, Canadian Press correspondent in France)—Canadian army headquarters, April 21.—This is an army of Mark Tapleys. Its cheerfulness is invincible. Though up to their eyes in mud during the last ten days the Canadians and Imperial troops with whom they are associated in the operations at Vimy Ridge, laboured incessantly in making a way for their guns across the desert the guns themselves had created. The adverse weather but spared the men to greater exertions.

Irregular lines from Lens south through Mericourt, Acheville and Arras. The present German defences seem to be intended as an aid in delaying action rather than to form a nucleus for a permanent front for the troops driven from Vimy. Douai is only ten miles to the east of our most advanced post and the line taken by the enemy for the present covers the important railway and road centres in northern France.

Good Things Coming to Theatres of St. John

PINAFORE NEXT WEEK
The advance sale for exchange of tickets for the coming presentations of H.M.S. Pinafore opened yesterday at the Opera House, and all day long there was a steady demand. There are still good seats left for both performances. Under the new seating arrangement all seats on lower floor have a clear view of all parts of the stage, and the saloon seats are especially desirable for enjoying a musical production. Holders of exchange tickets will open Tuesday evening next to exchange their tickets, after that the plan will be open for general public sale. To miss Pinafore will be to miss the one gem of many years in St. John amusements.

"THE GATES OF DOOM" COMING

Tonight and Tuesday "The Gates of Doom," a wonderful five-part Red Feather play, released by the Universal Film Co., will be screened at the Palace Theatre, North End. WAR NOTES

The British steamer Berguigal is reported sunk with eight of crew killed; also Norwegian steamer Norden, 700 tons gross, captured by Germans. Argentina demands prompt satisfaction of Germany for sinking of the ship Monte Protegro. The German censorship now is putting the ban on discussion of food conditions. The Canadian victory at Vimy Ridge is proving a boon in freeing a great deal of control of the Germans. The Portuguese cabinet is reported to have resigned because the chamber rejected its decree instituting a national economic council.

Suffer With Heart For Ten Years

There is nothing that brings with it such fear of impending death as to wake up in the night with that awful sense of smothering. The uncertain and irregular heart action causes the greatest distress of both mind and body. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only remedy that can give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity. They strengthen and invigorate the heart, so that it beats strong and regular, and tone up the nervous system, so that the cause of so much anxiety becomes a thing of the past.

In the Cathedral this morning at 9:30 o'clock His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc celebrated a special anniversary mass for the repose of the soul of Right Rev. John Sweeney, D. D., late Bishop of the Diocese of John. Rev. William M. Duke was high priest; Rev. M. P. Howard, deacon; Rev. H. L. Coughlan, sub-deacon and Rev. Francis Walker, master of ceremonies. The service was held on March 23, 1901. Owing to the large number of masses during the season of Lent the anniversary mass was postponed until today. There were many who attended this morning.

FINDS TRUCK ECONOMICAL
The economy of the motor truck as compared with horse-drawn vehicles has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commission on water and the ladies. The two-ton trucks lately have been used for removing the sand, etc., taken from catch basins when they are cleaned. In half a day the truck cleaned the way which formerly required the services of three teams for a full day. A test was made the other day when the truck ran steadily from seven a.m. to 11 a.m. with an hour off at noon, and it was found that the gasoline consumed amounted to only three gallons.

TURKISH WOMEN WHIP GERMAN OFFICERS

Amsterdam, April 21.—Serious rioting took place in Constantinople last week on the occasion of the return of a detachment of wounded soldiers from the Mesopotamian front. A mob assembled at the military hospital, including the German officers, throwing missiles through the windows and clamoring for food. Several soldiers when entering the hospital in front of the mob: "We are betrayed by Enver and the Germans."

The words acted like magic, the crowd repeating them and preparing to attack the German officers as they were leaving the hospital, and two German officers were publicly horsewhipped by Turkish women in front of the minister of war. Hatred of the Germans in Constantinople is reaching extraordinary proportions and Enver, who is generally called the only pro-German in Turkey, has been warned that his days are numbered if he does not resign.

S. base military hospital in that city.

CARS BREAK AWAY

Moncton, N. B., April 21.—An unusual accident occurred here early this morning. Eight loaded box cars broke loose in the National Transcontinental Railway yard and ran down a grade for about a mile. When near the north-south way they collided with a north-bound freight, smashing the pilot of the locomotive and damaging several freight cars. No one was injured.

On April 18, Mrs. A. T. Poole, of Portland, Oregon, passed away. She is survived by her husband and four sons: Herbert, of the U. S. Army; Kenneth, of the U. S. "The Safeguard"

THAT the strong arm of protection is ever about those we love, is a beautiful—a comforting—an inspiring thought. Every man—if he is a man—has an ambition to shield his family from the consequences of what may happen to him. He knows it is a duty he owes to those dependent upon him.

Women, by intuition, sense the need of this protection. Every woman has a grim horror of herself having to face some day the same suffering and humiliation as she has seen become the lot of others.

It would be easy by means of an Imperial Monthly Income Policy for you to build about your loved ones a strong and rugged safeguard—a safeguard which, after you are gone, will remain a permanent, tangible evidence of your affection.

It will place you under no obligation whatever to learn all about an Imperial Life Policy suited to your own particular needs. Write for full information today. Tomorrow you may be uninsurable.

LIKELY WILL SETTLE THE DAYLIGHT SAVING MATTER AT MEETING ON TUESDAY

The fate of the daylight saving plan is likely to be settled at a meeting of the common council on Tuesday. According to the by-law adopted last year, the change to daylight time will go into effect automatically at midnight on Sunday, April 29, a week hence. If any change is to be made it must, therefore, be made at next week's meeting of the council.

If no other action had been taken, it was expected that the mayor would move for the postponement of the date until the rainy time-tables changed, about May 20.

Since this suggestion was made the campaign to abandon the plan until it has been commenced and has been followed by the counter-campaign in favor of the plan. As neither side appears to be limiting the signatures to rate payers there is some question as to how the petitions will be regarded by the common council and some doubt as to how the rival petitions will be compared. As the plan already has been approved by the citizens and made law, it is expected that there will have to be evidence of an overwhelming demand before it is repealed entirely.

POLICE COURT

Gabriel Shortie was in the police court this morning on a charge of assaulting Winnifred Lane, colored, who said that Shortie pushed her from the door and took her to the other end of the room. The woman said that she was a boarder in the man's house. Shortie said he could bring a witness to prove his part in the case. This was allowed him.

William Davidson was remanded on a charge of beating a cook on a steamer now in port.

Carrie Ritchie was before the court on complaint of Mrs. Perkins for wilful damage to the latter's property in Sewell street. The court remanded the woman pending inquiries. She pleaded not guilty.

Four prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined the usual amount.

TO ADOPT CANADA'S AVIATION SCHOOL PLAN

New York, April 20.—A despatch from Washington to the Tribune says that as a result of a report made to the war department by Lieutenant Colonel John B. Bennett and Major B. B. Poulter, who have just returned from Toronto, where they made an investigation of Canadian aviation schools the United States will adopt the Canadian system, which is described as a model of efficiency.

TRUANCY MUST BE LOOKED ON AS SERIOUS

Eight boys were before Police Magistrate Ritchie in the juvenile court this morning. The boys were rounded up for truancy by Truant Officer J. Boyd McMann. Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of the city schools, was present in court as were some of the principals of the school from which the boys were absent. The children were represented by their parents and the magistrate fined all the parents $2 each for every day their children were absent from school. One parent counted his fine up and it reached $69. The children and parents were all sent below to the guard room. The fines ranged from $2 to $69, but the court said finally they were liable to these penalties.

Another boy arrested by Detectives Briggs and McAlbin on the charge of taking a watch from another boy was let go with a warning. The watch was ordered returned to the owner and the boy pleaded guilty.

SCHOONER FLOATED

The schooner Seth W. Smith, owned by Captain Clark of St. Andrews, which was caught in a current yesterday and carried on a ledge at the Narrows at St. George, was successfully floated at high tide this morning. Her keel was broken in one place and her false keel in two places. The tug Wellman from Calais arrived at St. George this morning and took the schooner in tow for Calais, where she will be unloaded and repaired. It was not considered risky to move the schooner, as she was taking in only a small quantity of water. The schooner had a cargo of pulp for Norfolk when she ran aground. Both the schooner and cargo were insured.

DAYLIGHT-SAVING

A Dartmouth man, writing to the Halifax Echo in support of daylight saving, says:—"I get up at six a. m., go to bed at ten p. m. Under the new way I get up at five and go to bed at nine. Now where does the loss of sleep come in? You are in bed exactly the same number of hours and look at the saving in oil or electricity whichever you use. Last summer we never lighted a light in my house until we were retiring. And now when you are urged to plant every foot of ground, just think of the long evening we will have to work in the same. The working people are progressive, and surely it is rich to say they have all the time there is and don't need the extra hour. It has been adopted all over England and France. The United States have about adopted it. Surely we Canadians are not going to fall behind the times, even if we are a slow moving people. We are progressive, and surely it is a mark of progression to save one hour of daylight every day."

CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS TONIGHT

Don't Stay Headachy, Sick, or Have Bad Breath and Sour Stomach.

Wake Up Feeling Fine!—Best Laxative for Men, Women and Children

Enjoy life! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive, and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarels from the drug store and eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarels purges and cleanses the bowels, kills and expels the griping and sickening mucus, and catarrhs. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give Cascarels to their children. A whole Cascarels any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless.

Nancy" by Bandsman Hemmings was heartily received.

The military step, danced by Miss McAvity and Miss Blizard, was exceptionally well done and showed that these young ladies have mastered a popular and difficult dance.

Sergeant Plunkett sang two delightful solos. He has a splendid voice and was encouraged again and again by the appreciative audience.

Miss K. Sturdy and James F. Winston danced two very up-to-date dances and gave a splendid exhibition of clever, graceful and attractive dancing. They were forced to give an encore.

The concert was greatly enjoyed by the large audience and efforts of all who took part were highly appreciated. The proceeds were for Major Birk's Y. M. C. A. fund.

177th AND THE Y.M.C.A. FUNDS

The concert given in the Imperial Theatre last evening, after the regular show, by the boys of the 177th Battalion, under Lt.-Col. McPherson, of Barrie, Ontario, O. D. E., received a generous patronage despite the late hour. The audience was most enthusiastic and followed each of the quartette with the greatest interest. The singing of the quartette was one of the most enjoyable features of the evening and they were forced to reply to no less than four encores. The quartette was well balanced and perfect harmony was in evidence. It was mentioned to a Times reporter last evening that this quartette had been most successful in the recruiting of the battalion and had met with great success. The quartette sang with out accompaniment, which added much to its cleverness and effectiveness. The quartette is composed of M. W. Plunkett, Sergeant Plunkett, Harry Leatherdale and Pte. Nixon.

The music supplied by the regimental band of the unit, was very enjoyable and greatly appreciated. Their pieces were of a high order and the rendition was perfect. The solo "Blue Eyes

Auto Intoxication OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition which Produces Many Well-Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-LIVES"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicine—will Protect You.

Autointoxication means self-poisoning caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the Kidneys and bring on Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema—and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-lives" will always cure Auto-intoxication or self-poisoning—as "Fruit-a-lives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

IMPERIAL RELATIONS

The Times has received a copy of the Empire number of the Manchester Guardian, a newspaper of some eighty pages, issued in connection with the meetings of the Imperial conference.

Inasmuch as this Empire number contains articles written by men representing all parts of the Empire, it is intensely interesting. In the leading article the editor of the Guardian points out that the views of the Empire represented in the issue are as rich in diversity as the Empire itself and he adds:

"Every part of the Empire from India to South Africa, and from South Africa to Canada, speaks for itself, and every shade of opinion is represented from the Imperialism of the Round Table to the Nationalism of Mr. Bourassa."

The editor of the Guardian finds, however, that nearly all are in agreement that the British Empire must remain one in political substance; that this unity has grown out of the internal freedom of its constituent parts, and can only be conserved through the maintenance of such freedom. The difference is that some are more anxious about the unity and others about the freedom. This is set forth more fully and clearly by Lord Bryce, in an article on the relations of Britain and the Dominions. He points out that something must be done, in view of the new conditions that have arisen, "to concentrate more fully and resources of all those who live under the British crown, and especially of all who belong to the British race and speak the English language."

Three things are necessary: 1. A comprehensive scheme for the defence of every part of the Empire by sea and land. 2. Provision for proportionate contributions by all the British possessions to the cost of such defence. 3. Arrangements for enabling the self-governing Dominions to have a voice in determining the foreign policy of the Empire, a privilege long recognized as rightfully due them, and now more than ever since they have come forward so promptly and so heartily to bear their part in its defence.

Lord Bryce discusses the two general schemes which have been proposed as a solution of the problem. One of these is a federation, with a central legislature and executive, and a central judiciary, to deal with matters relating to the navy, the army, foreign policy, imperial financial measures, and others requiring uniform legislation. This scheme would involve a written constitution.

Such a scheme does not commend itself to Lord Bryce, for reasons which he sets forth in general terms. He is of opinion that "the objects in view can be secured without a great organic statute creating, under the form of a rigid constitution a new Imperial legislature and Imperial executive." His views are as follows:

"Some sort of council representing both the mother country and the self-governing Dominions might well suffice for the purpose; and with it there ought, perhaps, to be a sort of ministers who would lead the deliberations and be guided by the resolutions of the council. Various plans for the creation of such machinery have been at various times put forward. The latest and what I venture to think one of the most judicious and practical is contained in a paper by Mr. Herbert Samuel which has, since I wrote the earlier part of this article, appeared in the current number of the 'Nineteenth Century' Magazine.

Arriving at general conclusions which I had reached by a somewhat different route, Mr. Samuel has worked out in detail some points of importance. He proposes a council of about twelve persons and a ministry of some seventy delegates from the Dominions and the mother country (with others to represent India, Egypt and the Crown Colonies), and suggests that their powers should be those not of compulsive legislation but of discussion and recommendation, recommendations addressed to the several legislatures of the empire, which these would be asked to consider and, if approved, to enact by law. It seems to me that a smaller number, say thirty to forty, might suffice. He also observes with truth that such an organization, the council and the executive, could be called into being without a statute, viz. by the crown, acting on resolutions passed by the British parliament and the legislatures of the Dominions.

"Although the Conference of Dominion Ministers in London has not been summoned to deal with the question of inter-imperial relations here, it may have a useful effect in bringing them prominently before the mind of the country. The end of the war will be the appropriate time for calling a convention of able and experienced statesmen from the Dominions to meet like men from the mother country in order to consider the whole problem and draft a scheme which would be submitted to the parliaments of the Dominions and of Britain. The problem must be promptly faced and some solution found. The impulse which the war has given to the sense of Imperial unity must not be lost. The admiration and gratitude each of the British peoples feels towards the others who have stood together in a common cause bid us turn to account at once, with all the wisdom and earnestness we can command, this supreme opportunity for binding all those peoples even more closely together."

Lord Bryce's views may not please that group of Imperialists who appear to favor centralization at the expense of the autonomy of the various Dominions, but the people of the latter will appreciate his recognition of the fact that they will regard with suspicion any scheme which could materially limit their autonomy. He is quite right in saying in one part of his article that it is far from likely that the Dominions would consent to transfer to a new authority in London any substantial part of their legislative powers. This fact will be made perfectly clear whenever the proposed conference is held. It is still wise to heed Sir George Foster's counsel in the days of the old Imperial Federation League that we should be aware of any cut-and-dried scheme of Imperial federation. A written constitution for the Empire is not one of the needs of the present time, nor of the future. The interests of the different states of the Empire are too varied and diverse for such a union at this time, whatever the future may develop. There must be in the words of the Manchester Guardian, freedom in unity, and the Dominions will watch very jealously any attempt to impose in the name of unity a fiscal system on which they are not agreed. Moreover, the problem of India must confront the ambitious statesmen who would like to run all the states of the Empire into one mould. The task of the after-war conference will be of the most delicate nature, and will call for the very highest qualities of a broad, imperial statesmanship.

That cheerful government of ours at Ottawa appears to have cut across the plans of the western farmers to get farm help. The city men of the west had been urged to help out the farm labor situation and were preparing to do their best, when Ottawa sent out word that forty-four special agents were at work in the States and that 1,600 men had already been sent on to the west. Canadian Finance says that only a few hundreds have reached Winnipeg, and that the shortage of men may become serious. Meanwhile, the Ottawa optimists have dampened the ardor of the city men, who were prepared to help.

Writing of woman suffrage, Judge Russell of Halifax says: "If I were an ambitious young politician with my career ahead of me I should have to have very clear convictions as to the evils to be brought upon this land by woman suffrage before taking the risk of needlessly antagonizing so important an element in the coming electorate. Of course conscience is supreme and no honest man will vote against his conscience. But unless it is really a matter of conscience and a question of principle the public man of the present day who votes against woman suffrage because of some foolish and old-fashioned prejudice is taking a needless and serious risk."

It is now von Hindenburg's turn to worry about munitions. His appeal is quite pathetic. Moreover, it throws a side light on the strikes in Germany, which are more likely to increase than decrease in number and significance.

German forces are being concentrated to resist the French on the western front, but the latter continue to gain ground. While the advance is slow, it is sure.

The war situation at the end of another week is decidedly favorable to the Entente Allies, but there are still tremendous difficulties to be overcome.

Further British success on the Tigris and in Palestine adds to the demoralization of the Turk.

CATHOLICS WILL SUPPORT GOVERNMENT IN ALL WAYS

Fall and hearty support of the Catholic people for the United States government in the war was pledged in a communication to President Wilson, prepared Wednesday by Catholic archbishops of the United States at their annual meeting in Washington. The archbishops will call upon their people to aid the nation and give their services.

Cardinal Gibbons presided over Wednesday's sessions, and Cardinal O'Connell was also present. The archbishops announced they were taking measures to assure service by the Catholic churches and by Catholic women for all kinds of hospital work or for any service they can render the government.

To the Editor of the Times— Dear Sir—In connection with the much discussed daylight time and its adoption by the city of St. John, I do not believe that if the majority are against such a change in the time, that they should be compelled to accept same, nor should those who favor it be compelled to abandon same if they are fifty per cent of the citizens. However, with reference to some of the claims against daylight time, such as the cutting off of the city from the outside districts, the question comes to my mind as to whether there is really such cause of complaint from many who are advancing this difficulty. Do all or many of the working men who claim that they must remain in the city throughout the year have to meet with this so-called inconvenience when they are not compelled to use the trains, telegraph wires or other public utilities every day, or are they falling in line to help out the few who are really so inconvenienced? Again, if the time is advanced during the months of June, July and August, and the men working in factories, or other places where work is started at 7 a. m. should in the majority be opposed to the new time, could they not work the same hours by the sun time as at present, that is from eight to six o'clock, and meet their wishes, and also the wishes of those who feel they are benefited by the daylight time? And could not the play houses advance the opening of their shows one half hour, and meet, by this happy medium, the wishes or desires of all concerned? During the three summer months the schools are practically closed, so that the inconveniences, if any, on this account would be for a very short period. Further, I might say that the C. P. Railway changed their local time table to conform with the daylight time. So that there was little or no complaint regarding this particular railroad service. And should not all concerned in the daylight movement do all in their power to have the C. G. Railway run their local train service in accordance with the daylight time? Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain, H. NEDDHAM.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter, wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug frezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of frezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

UNDER SPEEDY TRIALS

The cases of the King vs. John LeBlanc, William Richard and Hector Robichaud, all charged with theft of goods from the C. P. R. sheds, were dealt with by His Honor Judge Armstrong under the Speedy Trials Act. In strong under of the accused pleaded guilty. The court informed them, that while the value of the articles stolen by each of them, in one case a hat, in another two cups and in a third a small quantity of glue and coconut butter, was not large, still aggregate of the losses by the C. P. R. as claimed by them through stealing by workmen amounted to a very large sum each season. Each of the accused having been in jail for upwards of a week, His Honor allowed them to go on suspended sentence, on making restitution each in the sum of $10 to the C. P. R.

Robichaud, who was accused of taking the cups, pleaded guilty, but said that he had taken them for the purpose of obtaining a drink of water. The court remarked that if the longshoremen were provided with cups at the drinking places, it would at least prevent the working man from making such an excuse. Strong recommendations were made to His Honor, W. J. Mahoney appeared for LeBlanc and Richard, and William M. Ryan for Hector Robichaud.

In the case against Michael Mansfield, Edward Bean and Reed Hill, all soldiers charged with breaking and entering the liquor store of P. Sullivan at Reed's Point, the prisoners said they were under the influence of liquor, and that the breaking of the plate glass window in Mr. Sullivan's store was accidental. There was some evidence of a flask being stolen after the break. As the soldiers belong to one of the overseas battalions now in the city, on making restitution of the amount of damages, which was in the vicinity of $45, they were allowed to go on suspended sentence. Lieut. Montgomery, a barrister of Moosomin, Sask., a member of the same battalion, appeared for the prisoners.

BIRTHS AND MARRIAGES.

The birth of eight infants, four of each sex, and seven marriages were reported to the registrar during the week.

LOCAL NEWS

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The campaign in favor of woman suffrage is making great progress. Friends of the movement in various parts of the province are busy, and in this city a series of meetings is being held in the churches, the pastor in each case presiding, and the warmest sympathy for the cause being manifested. A canvass of the members of the legislature indicates that the bill will have strong advocates when it comes before the house, although there will also be opposition.

MRS. SHANKLIN THOMPSON

Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, widow of Shadrach Thompson of this city, which occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Napier, 118 Duke street, West St. John, this morning. Mrs. Thompson was a life-long resident of the west side, and was well known. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Napier, Mrs. F. J. Goodhue, of Chicago; and four sons, William and Walter, of St. John; Frederick, of Hillsboro, and Robert of Houlton.

SUMMER PORT BUSINESS

The prediction, made in the 'Times' after the United States' declaration of war, that the anticipated Russian business might not come through the port of St. John this summer seems likely to be confirmed. In spite of this, however, it is likely to be a busy and profitable one. The winter season is continuing to show heavy business with prospects that it will continue until later than usual. It is known that there will be a large number of grain boats here later than May 1, which usually marks the close of the season. In addition, it has been learned that a large number of vessels will load lumber here this summer for the imperial government, thus swelling the usual summer shipments. There is also a prospect of some other business for the port, and Commissioner Russell is carrying on negotiations which he hopes may result in adding to the volume of the summer traffic through the port.

GRATEFUL FOR PARCELS

Mrs. D. B. Dudgeon has received the following letter relative to parcels sent to No. 5 Co., 2nd Div. Train, in France, last fall through the Soldiers' Comforts Association:

"The parcels were received in good condition and distributed to the men on Christmas morning, and I can heartily assure you that the interest and thanks of myself and those who assisted in providing them was fully appreciated by the men, not only for the comforts they afforded, but also in showing them that they had not been forgotten by their friends at home. Will you please accept, on behalf of myself and the other officers of this company, my sincere thanks for your thoughtfulness in reminding the men that, although so far away, kind friends at home are thinking of them at this particular season."

Yours sincerely,
J. A. MacLENNAN,
Com. Headquarters Co., 2nd Divisional Train.

The Man In The Street

Hindenburg is too busy retreating to volunteer entirely adequate explanations of the recent developments of his strategy.

So far none of the German leaders have claimed that the strikes and riots at home are part of their new plan.

"Turkish women whip German officers," says despatch from Constantinople. Everybody's doing it.

The United States flag flew yesterday from the topmost tower of the British parliament buildings. Our neighbors to the south are looking forward even more eagerly to the day when they can fly the stars and stripes from a similar edifice in Berlin.

The Standard makes a piteous plea for the protection of street railway interests against the competition of the humble jitney. The editor must have in mind what happened to Gooley.

The Main street man who turned out with an axe and chopped the ice from the street pavement in front of his store, says that this plan of letting nature take its course has its drawbacks; he suggests that it would be more successful if someone would arrange to have the sun shine equally on both sides of the streets.

The Daylight Scheme.

The present controversy anent Daylight Savings reminds a friend of the Man in the Street of conversations he had with two citizens last year shortly after the measure became effective.

He says that one of them was engaged with a whitewash brush on his backyard fence and he announced that the new act was a blankety blank nuisance. Hitherto, he said, his wife had performed all the chores about the house, but now that her hubby had an extra hour of daylight she had tugged some of them over to him.

The friend says he sincerely hopes that fear of the whitewash brush, the garden hoe and the woodpile is not the basis of much of the opposition to the measure this year.

Another citizen with a nose of vermilion hue, he says, was very much opposed to having to arise in the wee small hours instead of retiring about that time. He was informed that the bars kept open an hour later. "A good law. I'm in favor of it," he said in the most emphatic way. He probably will be opposed to it this year, as with the closing of the bars, the compensation will be removed.

Premiers Confer

Heads of British, French and Italian Governments Meet in Savoy

Paris, April 21—A conference of French, British and Italian premiers on Thursday at St. Jean de Maurienne in Savoy was marked with great cordiality. The three premiers reached a complete unanimity on all diplomatic and military questions and on the subject of the sacrifices that the war calls for from each of the allied countries.

The conference was held in a parlor car on the ministerial special train and lasted from nine o'clock in the morning until nine o'clock in the evening. The result was learned here following the return of Premiers Ribot and Lloyd George to Paris.

Men of 165th Saw Large Vessel Sunk by a U Boat on Voyage Across

A letter reporting the voyage of the 165th battalion across the ocean to England has been received by Mrs. Henry Hachey, of 482 Main street, from her nephew, Frank Frenet, of that unit. He says that they spent sixteen days on the water, but had fine weather and enjoyed the trip.

He writes of seeing a large vessel sunk by a submarine not far from them when they were near the end of their voyage. It was an exciting time for those on board the transport, but it escaped without encountering a torpedo and reached port safely.

Private Frenet is one of five brothers who are fighting for their king and country. The other four are already at the front with other units.

ALLIES' FLAGS, BOUGHT HERE, DISPLAYED IN MONTANA

A collection of flags of the allied nations, which were purchased in this city, figure prominently in a display which gives evidence of the change of heart among the citizens of one of the western states since the United States entered the war.

In a copy of the Kallispell Bee of Kallispell, Montana, of April 6, which has been received in this city, appears the following paragraph:

"The Kallispell Mercantile Company's windows this week are showing the national colors in a way to cause much comment and approval. Gregory Short has loaned a collection of flags which is interesting, as it is the only complete set of flags of the allies in the city, a miniature flag of Italy, Roumania, Belgium, Great Britain, France, Russia and Serbia being displayed."

The comment is made that this shows a change in the times as it was not considered good policy to make such a display in that city even a few months ago. Gregory Short, who loaned the flags, is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gregory of this city. Accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Charles Short, formerly of Sussex, he visited St. John last summer and while here secured the flags mentioned.

MOVING VAN

Dear Mary:—

Well, isn't it fine that we can both move into larger, pretty new homes at the same time? Don't you remember my having told you that if my husbands would fix up our homes for us that it would help them in their business as well as help us socially?

We women know more than our husbands give us credit for, don't we?

I've been so well pleased with my new furniture and rugs that I'm going to the same store again.

Affectionately—HELEN

P. S. Let's go together and buy our new things for our new homes. Of course, you too are going to 91 Charlotte St.

PRODUCE PRICES

Hartland Observer—Potatoes have again soared to such a high price that they are beyond the reach of ordinary people. On Tuesday The Observer man was able to purchase a bag containing fifty pounds for $2.30, and hopes by serving them only as a delicacy on Sundays and "when company comes," they last until a new crop arrives. Today dealers quote $6 a barrel, and some farmers have been offered more during the last week. Eggs are more plentiful but the price is still good. Butter continues high. Oats bring around a dollar a bushel.

The Way You Feel About Buying Hats

SOME MEN go to a Hat-shop with their minds made up regarding what they want. Others go with an open mind, inviting recommendations. Here you get advice if you wish it, but no attempt is ever made to make you buy what you don't want or only half want.

The Best is Cheapest in the Long Run

WHEN you finally select your new car, your ultimate satisfaction of that car will depend upon the comfort you get out of it.

As far as the actual price of the car is concerned, $100 one way or the other makes little difference to you financially. But—to pay less than Studebaker prices for your car may mean a sacrifice of safety and comfort; a constant source of expense and endless trouble.

Experience has built perfection into the Studebaker. Studebaker has spent four years in refining, improving and perfecting this one basic design, selecting the right material, developing the right manufacturing organization.

If it were mechanically possible to produce a car that would give the maximum of comfort and satisfaction for any less than Studebaker prices—Studebaker is better equipped to do it than any other maker.

The beauty of a Studebaker goes beneath its beautiful paint and varnish work, beneath its conservative, dignified lines—beneath its luxuriously soft upholstery. The beauty that makes the Studebaker a joy forever is the beauty of quality—the quality that gives durability, that gives uninterrupted usage, that makes your car as good at 50,000 miles as it was at 5,000.

IDIOSYNCRASY AND RULES OF HEALTH

Fixed rules should never be taken otherwise than in a general sense. Individuals who have the intelligence, judgment, and will to experiment for themselves, to profit by the experiments, and to practice accordingly, can frequently disregard the conventions which yet form safe guides for the great majority who have no strength of character. A good illustration of the successful disregard of the normal laws was afforded by the great American humorist, Mark Twain, who, on the occasion of the celebration of his seventieth birthday, in replying to the toast of his health, told his admirers the secret of his longevity. "Since forty," he said, "I have been regular about going to bed and getting up—and that is one of the main things. I have made it a rule to go to bed when there was not anyone left to sit up with; and I've made it a rule to get up when I had to. In the matter of diet—which is another main thing—I have been persistently strict in sticking to the things which don't agree with me, until one or the other got the best of it. Until lately I got the best of it myself, but last spring I stopped frolicking with mince pie after midnight. In regard to smoking it has always been my rule never to smoke when asleep, and never to refrain when awake. As for drinking, when the others drink I like to help; otherwise I remain dry by habit and preference." He concluded: "These are good rules—I mean for me, but they wouldn't answer for everybody who's trying to get to be seventy. We can't all reach age by another man's road. My habits protect my life, but they would assassinate you."

Gentlemen:—I had a severe attack of LaGrippe this spring which left me in a weak run down condition. I had no appetite and hardly strength enough to walk. I purchased a bottle of your "OLIVEINE EMULSION" and I had only taken it a few days when I felt quite well again. In fact, when I had taken the third dose I noticed a change.

Dear Sirs:—I would like to say that I think the "OLIVEINE EMULSION" is splendid. My little daughter had a hard dry cough and had no appetite whatever. Before she had taken the "OLIVEINE EMULSION" a week the cough was decidedly looser and her appetite had greatly improved. I followed the directions and implicitly and honestly believe "OLIVEINE EMULSION" is all it is recommended.

VALUABLE HINTS FOR AMATEUR GARDENERS

(Bangor Commercial)
The following hints with the quantity of vegetable seed to plant for a family of four:
Vegetable seed for planting should be ordered at once so as to be on hand as soon as the weather and condition of the soil make planting possible. Before ordering seed the home gardener would do well to look over his garden plot, decide on the best location for each vegetable and determine how much seed he will require for the space available for each variety.

The following amounts of seed, the garden specialists of the United States department of agriculture say, are needed to plant approximately 100 feet of row, or enough to supply vegetables for a family of four:
Beans (snap), 1 pint.
Beans (pole lima), 1/2 pint.
Beans (bush lima), 1/2 to 1 pint.
Cabbage (early), 1/2 ounce.
Carrot, 1 ounce.

TUCKETTS MARGUERITE
THE "3 FOR A QUARTER" CIGAR

Its mildness makes it the favorite selection for the constant smoker.

Cauliflower, 1 packet.
Celery, 1 packet.
Cucumber, 1/2 ounce.
Eggplant, 1 packet.
Kale (or Swiss chard), 1/2 ounce.
Parsley, 1 packet.
Parsnips, 1/2 ounce.
Salsify, 1 ounce.
Squash (summer), 1/2 ounce.
Squash (Hubbard type), 1/2 ounce.
The following vegetables, the specialists say, will undoubtedly be planted in larger amounts than those just mentioned, and the amounts of seed given will be a guide for ordinary requirements. Some families may need more of the various vegetables and others would need less:
Beet, 4 ounces.
Cabbage (late), 1/2 to 1 ounce.
Corn (sweet), 1 pint.
Lettuce, 1 ounce.
Muskmelon, 1 ounce.
Onion sets, 2 quarts.
Peas (garden), 2 to 4 quarts.
Radish, 1 to 2 ounces.
Spinach, 1/2 pound in spring and 1/2 pound in fall.
Tomatoes (late), 1/2 ounce.
Turnips, 1/2 pound.
Watermelon, 1 ounce.
In oats, wheat and mixed grain of ordinary land about three bushels of the seed per acre is about the standard sowing.
Successive Plantings Needed
The string beans, bush lima beans, sweet corn, lettuce, peas, and radishes will not all be planted at one time, but successive plantings two to three weeks apart will be made so as to have a fresh supply throughout the season.

Of early Irish potatoes one peck to one-half bushel will be required, and of late potatoes one-half bushel to one bushel or more, depending upon the amount of ground available for this purpose. If possible, enough Irish potatoes should be grown to last throughout the winter.
In the event that the family wishes to raise vegetables to supply current needs and also to supply a surplus for canning, the amounts indicated above should be considerably increased.

How the Blood Is Purified

By the Searching and Painstaking Work of Healthy Kidneys.

left in the blood and the whole system is poisoned by impure blood.

In due course the blood passes through the kidneys to be purified of these poisonous impurities, and these filtering organs extract each day about 50 ounces of liquids and 2 ounces of solids, 500 grains of urea and 10 grains of uric acid, the material which is found in rheumatic joints.

Pains in the back and limbs, severe headaches, lumbago and rheumatism are the natural result. Hardening of the arteries, excessive blood pressure, weakening of the heart's action, Bright's disease may be anticipated unless prompt action is taken.

Sudden changes of temperature throw a great strain on the kidneys, but it is overeating and drinking that are the usual cause of trouble. In a vain effort to remove the excess of waste matter the kidneys break down, uric acid and other poisons are

We like to think of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as preventive treatment, for by their timely use you can readily prevent all these dreaded disorders. Unlike other medicines for kidney troubles, they awaken the action of liver and bowels as well as the kidneys, and thereby effect a prompt cleansing of the whole filtering and excretory systems.

There is no way by which the action of the kidneys can be so quickly aroused and the blood cleansed of impurities as by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. It is therefore the greatest of blood purifiers and much sought for at this time of year, when everybody feels the need of a medicine to cleanse from the system the accumulation of poisonous matter.

SLAVE HORRORS DUPLICATED BY GERMAN FORCES

Families in Evacuated Villages Ruthlessly Broken Up by Deportations—Cruelty Was Liberated

With the French army, April 21.—By this time the whole civilized world has an idea of the crimes against civilization which have been committed by the Germans in the districts watered by the Somme, the Oise and the Aisne, from which they have been driven out by the combined French and British forces, but the accounts published limited the descriptions to the way they had destroyed property. Little has been said of the brutal behavior to the inhabitants themselves.

The Germans have acted towards the French as the Babylonians did to the Jews. As soon as they saw retreat inevitable, especially in February and March of this year, they began a systematic deportation of the population. They carried away captive people of both sexes and of all ages, from 14 to 60, to break up families of the unhappy innocents in their power. As they broke up the homes of the victims, children were torn from their parents, parents from their children and brothers from their sisters without the slightest regard to the cruel sufferings inflicted. No worse crime was committed by the most brutal masters in the bad old days of negro slavery. About these modern German deportations there is no redeeming spirit. They are sheer, unabashed vindictiveness. They are carried out without the slightest regard for the feelings or comfort of the victims. From one village they carried off the people at half-past three in the morning. Another village received only one hour's warning of its impending fate. The people of a third they kept shut up for two days in bitterly cold weather in a building, the windows of which were broken, and the only bed being the floor, before they were sent off on their long journey to the fatherland. No regard was paid to the state of health of those chosen for this form, enlightened form of slavery. In many cases, in spite of the Arctic conditions, no opportunity was given them of providing themselves with the necessary extra clothing.

So much for the treatment of actual captives, who, needless to say, are still being employed in many instances in work of a military nature, contrary to the conventions agreed on before the war by all civilized nations and by Germany. The plight of those left while others were taken was hardly less wretched. They were forced to do work that their oppressors had no right to exact. These people were terrorized by a deliberate system of fine and imprisonment, inflicted for either trivial offences against the rules or no offences. As individuals and as communities, their goods and money were stolen or deliberately smashed and burnt. The list of spoils included not only the dregs of the German soldiers, but were headed by highly-placed military officials—they do not deserve the titles of officers—such as General von Pleck and the Grand Duke of Hesse.

These things are not vague generalities. They are known to be true. They happened all over the district now happily re-occupied. By what its armies have done under orders and, after the example of its officers in this part of France, where the French have been able to find out for a certainty what happened these past two years under German rule, the whole German nation—until it repents in sackcloth and ashes—has put itself outside the pale of ordinary erring humanity, because its wickedness is no error, nor yielding to overmastering temptation, but deliberate setting up of calculated cruelty as

GYPSY BAND WEALTHY

Boston, April 19.—A gypsy band has been engaged in selling horses and various wares in the vicinity of Worcester, called at the United States Sub-treasury and the officials, were startled when the old woman treasurer of the band, Mary Mark, from her waist took a belt which contained $15,000 in bills of $1,000 denominations, which she requested Cashier Lincoln to exchange for gold coins.

The gold, consisting largely of $20 and $10 pieces, was weighed in bags, but the astute leader of the band wanted to gaze on the shining "yellow boys" and consumed nearly an hour in counting and toying with them.

After the counting was at an end the woman said: "I am sending the gold to my husband, who has a big farm in Oklahoma." A younger woman, her daughter, wore more than twenty gold coins as a neck chain, and wore a costume of crimson.

The party consisted of Mary Mark, the head of the family; George Thompson, about thirty years old, who married Mary, the husband of the daughter; George Thompson, Jr., a lad of six years, and Nicholas Thompson, aged twenty. They said they were going to send the gold to Oklahoma by express and departed, as they arrived, in an automobile. The war scare was probably the reason for the exchange.

The Test of Time

It is nearly forty years since Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham first prepared a botanic remedy for her women neighbors who suffered with ills peculiar to their sex. The roots and herbs—the same as are used today—she steeped on her kitchen stove.

Since which time the fame of this wonderful remedy has spread all over the world. There is barely a town or hamlet in the United States or Canada where you cannot find some woman who has been relieved of suffering by

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Thousands upon thousands of such letters as the three following tell why this famous medicine has stood the test of time.

Maryland Woman Testifies.
Cambridge, Md.—"I wish all women who suffer from female troubles would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be convinced of its worth as I have been. At one time I was a great sufferer and my husband bought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me right away. Again, after my second child was born, it overcame a female weakness after everything else had failed. I know how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me, and I know it will help others."—Mrs. JAMES A. BERNT, 107 Maryland Avenue, Cambridge, Md.

Wisconsin Woman Testifies.
Milwaukee, Wis.—"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a physical wreck. I had been going to a doctor for several years but he did me no good. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I decided to give it a fair trial, and I gave me relief from bearing down pains which had been so bad that I would have to lie down. I also used the Sanative Wash and it has done me a great deal of good, and I am not troubled with a weakness any more."—Mrs. P. L. BRILL, 1229 Booth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Ohio Woman Testifies.
Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I began taking your remedies and took $5.00 worth and in two months was a well woman after three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women and it surely has proved a godsend to suffering women."—Mrs. JENNIE MOYER, 842 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Every sick woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, for it cannot harm her, and there is great reason to expect that it will completely restore her health. For special advice write The Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

LA BASSEE-HAIG'S NORTH-EASTERN GATEWAY TO LILLE

London opinion is that Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's principal object in his advance on Lens is to turn La Bassee from the south, La Bassee and Lens forming the principal outworks of Lille, which is the key to the whole German position in Flanders, and once these two towns are in the hands of the British, Lille will be seriously threatened.

New York Scots in Kilted Unit

If you see a youth speeding down or up Broadway or Fifth Avenue clad in strange garments of tartan fashioned into a short skirt, with streaming sashes and the like, and the same floating behind him, while he holds a wooden cross, tipped with fire on its three arms, don't be alarmed or call the police, warns the New York Telegram. It merely means that the Scots of New York are preparing for war, and the youth in the tartan, following the ancient tradition, is signalling the word to the clan by carrying the "fery cross" on high. They are going to fight for Uncle Sam, too, and not for the first time.

MOBILIZE N. Y. BOYS IN CADET FARM UNITS

Youths Who Would Serve Country Are to Till Long Island Soil

New York, April 21—Mobilization of the farm cadet unit of the New York state corps of cadets, established by the State Military commission, was begun here on Thursday. Under the new compulsory military training laws, boys who enlist to do farm work will be given the same legal recognition as if they took part in military drills. Fifty thousand enrollment blanks are being distributed to boys of sixteen, seventeen and eighteen years.

Veterans of the civil war recall the famous 79th Regiment New York, who fought, clad in kilts, under the Stars and Stripes, and dashed into battle to the "skirl" of the inspiring war "march." Now since they have killed warriors served as part of the war establishment of the United States. Now, in effect, the fery cross has been carried throughout the metropolitan district, and several hundred Scots have responded to the call. Within a few weeks it is expected that New York again will have a Scottish regiment recruited to the strength prescribed in the war department regulations and prepared to take the field under the Stars and Stripes as an integral part of the United States mobile land forces. The leaders in the movement are working hard, and in order to effect the organization and avoid difficulties which are always incident to equipping a military organization before it is admitted to the forces recognized by the state or federal government arrangements are being made to purchase full equipment by private subscription. The New York Scottish Highlanders, an infantry battalion by United States army standards, will be used as the basis unit upon which will be formed two other battalions necessary to the regimental organization. The eight companies necessary to make complete the regimental unit are being located by the local branches of the Order of Scottish Clans.

A CHIEF RECIPROcity PLANK (Halifax Recorder). "No truck or trade with the Yankees" This was the leading election cry of the Tories in the campaign of 1911, a cry accompanied by endless columns of crude abuse against the Americans in the Tory press. Every plank in the Reciprocity platform was denounced as a path leading straight to the destruction of the political absorption of Canada by the United States. And no plank in all the platform received such fierce abuse as that of the removal of the wheat duties. The western farmers were told by the Eastern Tory press that they did not understand their own business, that the removal of the duty on wheat and its products would ruin the agriculture of the prairie, and that what the prairie farmer needed to do was to go into mixed farming and quit wheat to a large extent. The western farmer resented the insult and voted for reciprocity, and he has given up hope of the ultimate adoption of the same. He has again and again since 1911 declared himself on the subject of free wheat and free binder twine and has been kicking Tory administrations out of office at every opportunity in order to emphasize his opinion on the subject. And now at length the Borden government has taken alarm and concluded that the men of the prairie mean business. Accordingly a hurriedly passed bill has been adopted which removed the duty from wheat and wheat products, and the foremost plank in the reciprocity platform has been adopted by the administration which came into power on the cry of "No truck or trade with the Yankees." If any article of the reciprocity creed is to be denounced from A to Z as disloyal and certain to lead to annexation, it was the removal of the wheat duties. And the denouncers have taken the step. Now, what about the disloyalty, the certainty of annexation and all that sort of thing? It is done too late. The west, shamed and humiliated by Toryism and furious with a just resentment, has definitely and decidedly turned against the Tory party, and no eleventh hour concessions can avail to alter that attitude.

WITH THE CADETS Captain R. Robinson Black, organizer and inspector of cadet corps for M. D. No. 6, was in the city yesterday and held a conference with the public school teachers of the city. Dr. Bridges spoke in support of the cadet movement. Before the meeting was brought to a close it was the unanimous opinion of all present that cadet work in the public schools should be developed on a much larger scale. St. Andrew's Cadet Corps had a route march last night. The boys had just issued their new rifles for drill purposes and made a fine showing. Puffing from Steamers Following a raid made on the premises occupied by William Richard, a longshoreman, at 68 Ludlow street, West St. John, by Inspector C. R. Froot, and Constable Dryden of the C. P. R. police and Sergeant O'Neill, Richard and John LeBlanc, longshoremen of the same address were arraigned before Judge Armstrong in the county court yesterday, charged with the theft of articles from holds of steamers. Both pleaded guilty. Hector Hotchaux, charged with stealing china from one of the C. P. R. sheds, was arraigned at the same sitting. He pleaded guilty. The three were allowed to go on suspended sentence for their agreeing to restitution to the extent of $10.

Had Violent Coughing Fits Looked Like Consumptive

Mrs. Marty Wheten, North Forks, N. S., writes: "Having taken five bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general throat trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thanks as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became subject to violent coughing fits at night and directly after rising in the morning. I began losing weight, and all my friends cheerfully informed me that I was going into consumption.

After taking the 'Dr. Wood's' I am pleased to relate that the cough has entirely disappeared and I have since regained the lost weight. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

There are many imitations of "Dr. Wood's" on the market, so see that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." It has been on the market for twenty-five years, is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, price 35c. and 70c. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MEXICO'S CONGRESSWOMAN

Senorita Hermilda Calindo, Mexico's new "congresswoman," elected a deputy from one of the electoral districts of Mexico City to sit in the next session of the national legislature opening next month, hails from Yucatan, though under Mexican law she is permitted to sit for a Mexico City constituency. She has long been prominent in the feminist movement not only in Yucatan but in all of Mexico and Cuba. The fact that a woman of this type—or, indeed, of any type—has won a seat in the centre of conservative forces of the new state is of high significance. Latin American women, it was generally conceded, had not kept pace in political and intellectual development with their northern sisters, and the election of this Mexican Jeanette Rankin came as much of a surprise.

Secretary of Contracting Firm Which Built Railway in British Columbia Refuses to Tell Where Money Went

Victoria, April 20.—A political sensation of the first magnitude developed here in the course of an inquiry into the financial affairs of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, whose bonds have been guaranteed by the province of British Columbia. About thirty million dollars have been spent on the railway, which remains uncompleted, between Vancouver and Prince George. It will require another ten million dollars to finish the work. The contractors, who were Messrs. Foley, Welch and Stewart, are now under investigation. The last mentioned member of the firm is now General Stewart, in charge of building light railways in France.

Last Friday Darcy Tate, general counsel for, and vice-president of the Pacific Great Eastern, refused upon the witness stand to give details of expenditure of half a million dollars, which he said was his own money. The legislature, which was in session last evening, passed a resolution forcing him to tell. This morning it was found that Mr. Tate had gone to Seattle, leaving word behind that he declined again to appear.

It is learned that Pat Welch, a millionaire and chief member of the contracting firm, has also returned from Vancouver to his home in Spokane. Mr. Foley lives in Minneapolis and has never taken an active part in this contract.

Refuse to Give Names.

R. D. Thomas, secretary of the company, on the witness stand this morning, said that he knew of two checks of fifty thousand dollars each and of another of fifteen thousand, which had been used for campaign purposes. He declined to say whether any of the funds went to Sir Richard McBride or W. J. Bowser, former premier, or to any leaders of the Liberal party, which now composes the movement of British Columbia. In refusing to tell the committee the names of political personages to whom Mr. Tate had previously told him he had given funds for campaign purposes, Thomas said he did not propose to go to jail, but he would not disclose the information, as it was given in strict confidence.

"Did he tell you he had paid any money to Sir Richard McBride?" demanded S. S. Taylor, counsel for the government.

"I refuse to answer."

"Or to W. J. Bowser?"

"I refuse to answer."

"Or to R. F. Green?"

"I refuse to answer."

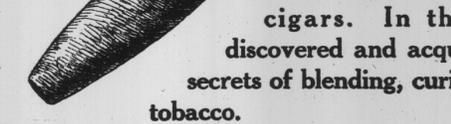

"Did he tell you he had paid money over to members of the Liberal party?"

At its second meeting the enquiry committee decided that before it would report with a request for official proceedings for contempt, formal summons should be served on D. McLeod and R. J. Cromie, of the Foley, Welch and Stewart offices in Vancouver. If it is found that one or both of them have left the jurisdiction of the committee a resolution will be presented to the house from the committee meeting tomorrow, naming Messrs. Tate and Welch and the other two, if necessary, and asking the House to take such steps as will force them to appear before the committee and answer questions.

CAPRI, TWIN-HUMPED CAMEL

Capri, a great twin-humped camel of an island, kneels in the blue just off the tip of the Sorrentine peninsula. From the away-backed huddle of white, pink, blue, cream and drab houses along the large harbor, up the break-neck road to the fascinating town nestling among the hills, white-roofed and Moorish, and on still higher, by the winding road or up the nearly perpendicular flights of rock stairs, which furrow the frowning crag with their sharp, zigzag outlines, to Anacapri, 500 feet as so above, every step of the way breathes the pride and splendor and degradation of the island's greater days.

Here a cyclopean mass of shattered masonry in the warm emerald water tells of a Roman emperor's bath; yonder, on a chimney-like cliff, the sinister ruins of a stout castle keep whispers of ancient garrisons and pirates, not armed with automatic rifles or high-powered artillery; and here, overlooking the sea, the vast ruins of a villa recall "that hairy old goat" Tiberius and his wastrel voluptuousness that turned fair Capri into satyrdom.

Capri today is richly dowered for sightseer, artist, historian, antiquary, and geologist. On every hand are shaded walks and sequestered bowers in the thick groves of orange and lemon, laurel and myrtle; wild backgrounds of tumbled rock; titanic rifts in the coast into which the sea has thrust long, insidious blue fingers.—National Geographic Magazine.

"THE BIGGEST THING YET ON BED SPRINGS"

The DUPLEX

"Two Springs in One" No Rolling to Centre
Guarantees 20 years of sleep comfort

No Rolling to the Centre on This Bed!

Instead of the spring fabric being suspended at the ends only—as in other bed-springs—the "DUPLEX" has a steel "backbone" right down the centre, and similar steel strips at the sides, to which the fabric is also suspended.

This practically makes an ordinary double bed into two single beds—and affords that perfect support to tired muscles that means restful, refreshing sleep.

20 Years of Sleep Comfort Guaranteed

The "DUPLEX" is the only bed-spring of the kind made in Canada. It's patented—so ask for it BY NAME. Made either of patented twisted link or woven wire fabric, as you prefer. Fits regular or reversed rails on beds of any width. Has protected corner-castings that won't tear bed clothes.

Be sure to see the "Bed-spring with a Backbone." Your dealer has it, or will get it for you ON REQUEST.

MARTIN-SENOUR

PAINT & VARNISHES

The Paint That Costs The Least

is the Paint that covers the greatest surface—that takes the shortest time to apply—that wears the longest. Martin-Senour "100% Pure" Paint does all three. Here's the proof. "100% Pure" Paint covers 900 square feet of surface per gallon.

Hand-mixed-lead-and-oil, and cheap prepared paints, cover only about 500 square feet.

The greatest cost of painting is for labor. It takes less time to apply Martin-Senour "100% Pure" Paint because its fine, even texture spreads much easier.

MARTIN-SENOUR

"100% PURE" PAINT

(Made in Canada)

is guaranteed to be exactly as represented. The purity of the White Lead and Zinc Oxide—the high quality of the Linseed Oil—the minute fineness of the grinding by powerful machinery—insure a paint that gives years of protection and beauty to your home.

Why use cheap paint—that is expensive to put on—when Martin-Senour "100% Pure" Paint wears nearly twice as long?

WILL RE-ORGANIZE SCHOOL BOYS' LEAGUE Teams from Public Schools Will Compete for Baseball Championship Now that the snow has disappeared and the balmy days of summer are soon due, the school boys have commenced playing the ever popular game of baseball. It is their ambition to have a school boys' league again this year and an effort is being made to assist them in securing grounds and equipment. Two years ago the league was organized and flourished and at the termination of a well contested schedule the boys representing Winter street school won the series and a beautiful silver shield emblematic of the championship, which had been put up for competition by the Evening Times. As the present holders of the trophy have had the honor of retaining it since that time, they are anxious again to defend and, if possible, retain it for another year. They have signified their intention of organizing a team and it is understood that all or nearly all of the schools in the city are anxious to be represented in a league. Suitable grounds are available and an endeavor is being made to secure an organizer to assist in arranging a schedule, etc.

In the course of her warfare upon France and Belgium, Germany has committed crimes that can never be forgotten. Britain may forgive her for the Zeppelins, the United States for the torpedoes that sank the Lusitania, and her enemies may, in time, agree to forget the rapine and arson and murder that have strewed her course. But those who love art, who reverence antiquity, will never, so long as the world lives, forget or forgive some of the incidents of her invasion and occupation of France. She has destroyed what can never be replaced. A baby is born every second; a Rheims cathedral or a Cloth Hall at Ypres is born only occasionally in world history. It is like to say that blood is more than brick and plaster and glass and dye. In war it is expected that blood will be shed. It is not expected that memorials of a human race shall be bestially destroyed, that links which join the dim past with the pulsing present, shall be broken. It is unthinkable, for instance, that an invading army should burn the Louvre or dynamite the Parthenon.

Making the "Unthinkable" Common
Rather, it used to be unthinkable. Germany has made commonplace of what three years ago seemed beyond the bounds of imagination. In her recent retreat along the Somme she has committed atrocities that have moved the world as not even her ravages in

History Desecrated

On the morning of March 21, as the French troops advanced, their eyes fastened upon what had been a landmark since the thirteenth century, the tower of Coucy, in the hands of the Germans for more than two years, they saw the dungeon tower start suddenly into the air. Then came a cloud, and then the sound of a terrific explosion. It all meant that the Germans in retreating had left in a ruin of brick and mortar one of France's greatest memorials, a building that had no match in all the world. When the French troops reached the spot they saw simply a pile of debris. A monument treasured by architects as the Apollo Belvedere might be treasured by sculptors had been reserved "to the vile dust from whence it sprang." There was not the slightest military excuse for this destruction. French troops could not have taken advantage of the tower to harm the retreating Germans. The massive brick and stone were not worth a machine gun as far as modern war is concerned. It was killed just like a hundred thousand young apple trees were killed, because Germany hated them and hated France.

It Defied Mazarin
Though it was off the beaten track of tourists, the chateau was in some respects one of the most significant monuments in France. In the first decade of the Tenth Century a castle stood on this site; the ruins that were made dust by the Germans had stood since 1228. For hundreds of years they had withstood war and the weather. In the middle of the seventeenth century, Cardinal Mazarin ordered the destruction of the castle, which was then in his hands. His best engineers did their utmost. They burned every stick and panel of wood, tore down the roof, blew up the outer wall and toppled the heads off the four flanking towers. But the keep defied his engineers with their saltpetre, and as the cardinal's wreckers left it so it stood until the retirement of the Germans to the Hindenburg line. Then high explosives turned to dust the art of the old French architect and left a ruin and desolation where had lately stood a time-defying challenge to posterity.

An Ancient Landmark
Few buildings in France were so deeply woven into the legend and history of the country as the old chateau. Its builder was Enguerrand III, who Belgium in the early days of the invasion moved it. She has fouled wells; she has cut down trees and uprooted vines, she has sought to make the earth sterile, to turn into a deserted brickyard one of the fairest parts of Europe. This has moved nature-lovers as they have not been moved even by the crimes committed against women and children. To the antiquary, the love of ancient architecture, which not the combined energy and genius of the modern world could duplicate, her destruction of the Chateau Le Coucy crowns with immortal infamy her crimes not against a nation, but against a universe.

proudly boasted, "King am I not, nor prince nor duke nor count am I. I am the Lord of Coucy." The king himself would have been proud to be able to claim so much. The Lord of Coucy died the king, for his home was the strongest fortress in France, perhaps the strongest castle in the world at that time it was built and for long after. Truth compels the confession that for ages the castle was merely a robbers' stronghold; but later on it became an artistic treasure. The guns that laid Lige low would have made short work of it; but they did not need to turn against it; in their retreat in August, 1914, the French sought to save this great pile from attack, and in their Somme advance they fired no shell toward it. The destruction came only when all thought of turning it to military advantage had been forgotten. Its ruins are merely what Kultur offers as an encore to the "Hymn of He-c."

His Money's Worth
The customer picked up a knife from the counter and handed it to the butcher, with a friendly smile. "I don't really want it," he said, "but if you will cut it off I will take it along with the rest." "Cut what off?" demanded the butcher in blank surprise. "Your hand," was the gentle reply. "You weighed it with the sausages, and I like to get what I pay for."
