Labor Candidates in Municipal Elections—The King's Thanks—A Suicide.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 18.—As a result of an interview with the management of the iron moulders of the Vulcan Iron Company, who were on strike, have decided to go back to work.

KINGSTON, Oct. 18.—The labor unions of Kingston will place candidates in the field in the forthcoming municipal elections. The question of nominating a labor candidate for the mayor's office is also being discussed.

TORONTO, Oct. 18.—A communication has been received from the governor general conveying on behalf of King Edward VII. his majesty's sincere thanks to the Mayor and citizens of Toronto for their kind message of sympathy on the occasion of the death of Empress Frederick.

James E. Wallace, school teacher of Morrisburg, Ont., was found dead in his room in the City Hotel yesterday. He had committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. The act was apparently a most deliberate one.

KINGSTON, Oct. 18.—Rev. Kenneth McLean, 52 years old, at one time professor at Queen's University, of which institution he was a graduate, is dead.

LORD ROSEBERY SPEAKS.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Lord Rosebery's speech at Birmingham, Oct. 15 on the "Sin of national self complacency," has caused many appreciations in the serious weeklies. One of the most interesting of these is the appeal of a would-be patentee for a revision of the British patent laws. He declares that the British authorities issue a dozen so-called patents for practically the same invention and then leave all the applicants to fight out their rights in the courts.

"Let our government," he says, "give us American patent laws. Let us encourage inventors to stay at home. We need all the brains we can get hold of, let not America drain away too much of our brains."

The Outlook, commenting on the above, says: "England this complacency allows the United States by superior patent laws to drain away inventive skill so much needed in England."

WEALTH OF DAWSON.

SEATTLE, Wn., Oct. 18.—J. Francis Lee, traffic manager of the White Pass and Yukon route, has just returned on the Dolphin. He spent nearly six months in Dawson. Regarding his impressions he said:

"I was favorably struck with the wonderful improvements that have been made this year in the methods of hydraulic mining. I want to emphasize the permanency of these camps. The best possible evidence of this permanency is the decision of the interested parties to construct new lines of railroads reaching out of Dawson. These new roads will open up that tremendously rich country lying between Indian river and Quartz creek, which is incomparably more valuable than any district in South America. Further it is the richest mining district in the entire world."

NO TRACE OF MISS STONE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Samakov correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser cables as follows:

The Rev. J. W. Baird of the Samakov mission has returned from Bonkoo mission without having found the slightest trace of the brigands or Miss Stone, although he went thither at the request of the Turkish minister in the hope of opening negotiations with the captors. A Turkish agent was also present in the hope of minimizing the brigands' demands.

RUSSIA AND BRITAIN AGREE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18.—The British and Russian governments have come to a complete agreement regarding the Afghan situation. It is asserted in high diplomatic circles here that, even should complications arise in Afghanistan in consequence of the death of Abdur Rahman and the accession of Habibullah, these would not lead to concurrent intervention.

LIPATO WILL CHALLENGE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Sir Thomas Lipato will leave for New York tomorrow and sail immediately for home. He said tonight that he would probably challenge again for the America's cup, and if he did not win—"Well, you know there's luck in four-leaved clovers," he remarked. He added that his next boat would not be on the line of Shamrock II. "I've got one on her lines already," he said.

JAPAN AND AUSTRALIA.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 18.—Sir John Madden has received a despatch from Mr. Chamberlain, (secretary of state for the colonies) informing him that the Japanese cabinet says that, if the Australian immigration and post office bills are passed, Japan mail steamers will discontinue service between Japan and Australia, thus greatly affecting commerce.

PRO-BOERS DISTURB MEETING.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Hugh A. Arnold-Forster, M. P., liberal unionist, in an address to his constituents in the west division of Belfast last night, defended the speech and before the resolution of confidence could be put, a crowd stormed the platform and the meeting came to a close in the greatest disorder.

NEW STEEL COMPANY.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 18.—The Post says—"A new independent steel corporation that is shortly to be ready to enter the market in competition with the United States corporation that has been formed in Pittsburgh. The new concern is known as the Everston Steel corporation. The general offices of the company are at present located in Pittsburgh and much interest has been aroused in local steel circles over the outcome of the enterprise. The new company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia and has a capital of $1,000,000. A site for the extensive plant that is to be built has been selected along the river not far from Pittsburgh.

Within ten months it is proposed to have mill buildings, costing $450,000, completed and many men employed.

BURGLARS SHOOT POLICEMAN.

MENDOTA, Ill., Oct. 18.—Burglars raided this city last night, entering several houses and securing valuable plunder. Several citizens had a fight with the burglars, and in the melee special policeman J. H. Farrow was shot and instantly killed, and Charles Schuch, a citizen, was severely injured. The burglars escaped from Southamptons and are searching the country in all directions for two suspects.

IN MEMORY OF THE DEAD.

Ottawa to Erect Monument to Her South African Heroes.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Steps towards the erection in Ottawa of a suitable monument in memory of the Ottawa Valley soldiers who died in South Africa are progressing favorably. The sum of $3,000 will be spent on the monument, which will be 37 feet high. The design will be the bronze figure of an infantryman standing on a base of Stanstead granite. On the front will be a suitable shield, containing the names of the dead soldiers. The monument will be erected next spring, and a suggested site for it is on City Hall square, facing Queen street.

A HOPELESS CAUSE.

Dutch Pastor Declares That Resistance Now is a Crime.

The Capetown correspondent of the Times wires:—The Rev. Mr. Botha, the Dutch minister at Richmond, has written a letter to the civil commissioner of Richmond on the subject of the Vrdefort Road, Orange River Colony, under date of Aug. 10. Explaining the true position of affairs in order to enlighten his congregation and fellow Cape Colonists, he says:

"A futile resistance cannot any longer be dignified by the name of patriotism. The Boers still fighting have forfeited the sympathies of the Dutch Cape Colonists by the heartless way in which the Boers have fought. They have told the colonists that their case was never more hopeful, whereas they knew too well that it never was more hopeless. The presence of the commandos in the colony and the continued resistance is a crime, because, while there is nothing to gain, it simply ruins for others who have no quarrel with them or the British."

Mr. Botha solemnly states that unless God works a miracle, the Boers will never regain independence, and that, moreover, the feeling of the majority of the inhabitants is that there is nothing else to do but to submit to the inevitable with a good grace. Continuing he says—"I have spoken to many surrendered burghers who have fought manfully, but have given in like honest men when they saw the hopelessness of their case, and they all state that, if they were still fighting toward those who have surrendered, a civil war is sure to break out if the British do not stay. I earnestly beseech the people not to close their ears against every one who recognizes the inevitable, and not to try to dispose of the matter by calling such people jingoes, traitors, or bribed."

Referring to the refugee camps, Mr. Botha says that the commandos still in the colony have to some extent misled the Dutch by drawing harrowing pictures of the ill-treatment and sufferings of the people in the camps, putting forward such misrepresentations for the purpose of fanning the flame of rebellion in the colony. Mr. Botha says that there have been hardships, but that no needless suffering has been inflicted. He considers that the camps are not only an absolute necessity, but a real kindness. If peace were declared tomorrow and the people were sent away, hundreds would die. Mr. Botha also says that nothing so agreeably surprised and disarmed his prejudices as the kindly feeling of the British toward the Dutch, from the administrative downwards. All the officials displayed not only genuine interest in the people, but an evident desire to smooth over all ill-feeling and let bygones be bygones.

HALL CAINE

is a Candidate for the Isle of Man Parliament.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Hall Caine has consented to become a candidate for the Manx (Isle of Man) parliament in behalf of the town of Ramsey. His opponent is a local lawyer. Mr. Caine's address has created consternation even among his own supporters for he advocates sweeping changes that might well be planks in a national platform of some great reform party. First of all Mr. Caine wants to nationalize the steamship service connecting the Isle of Man with England, running it without profit. Then he applies himself to the Manx steam and street railroad, and would furnish the same radical system to them. Land must be treated in a somewhat similar manner, the Manx parliament controlling the drainage, cultivation and tree planting. The banks, of course, are included in this nationalization scheme, by which Mr. Caine believes that such financial soundness as occurred in the Isle of Man would be avoided.

Mr. Caine justifies the apparently unprofitable national undertakings by pointing out that the primary factor in Manx prosperity is the island's popularity as a holiday resort, and that it must prosper or decline as it meets the needs of the visitors.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

The Sad End of Nicholas Flood Davin, ex-M. P.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 18.—Nicholas Flood Davin, ex-M. P. for Assiniboia, shot himself with a revolver in his room at the Clarendon hotel this afternoon. He was found dead with the revolver in his hand.

Mr. Davin had been in Winnipeg for several days and was in apparently poor health. He was stopping at the Clarendon hotel and announced his intention of leaving for home this afternoon. About three o'clock he called a cab and drove over to a hardware store, where he bought a small revolver, telling the clerk he required it to kill cats. Mr. Davin then returned to his hotel, and in a few minutes afterwards the report of a revolver was heard from his room. When the door, which was locked, was broken in, Mr. Davin was found dead on the bed with the revolver in his right hand. The bullet had entered the mouth and came out at the top part of the head, so that death must have been instantaneous. It is believed that Mr. Davin had been worried over financial and political reverses and determined to put an end to his life. The news caused a painful sensation, as Mr. Davin was very popular. The body will be taken to Regina for interment.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The news of the tragic death of Nicholas Flood Davin came as a great shock to his many friends in Ottawa. Mrs. Davin is an Ottawa lady, daughter of the late James Field. Her mother and sister reside here.

INSPECTING BOER CAMPS.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Advices from South Africa state that the commission of six English ladies is travelling about the country in two saloon carriages and inspecting Boer refugee camps with exceptional thoroughness. There are 39 camps, and the commission is not likely to finish its labors before the end of December, although the chairwoman, Miss Fawcett, is most energetic and capable, and is pushing on the work at the risk of wearing out her colleagues. The government is rigid in its requirement for secrecy, and the judgment of the commission on all points relating to the humane treatment of Boer women and children will be reserved for a parliamentary blue book. It will be the most important contribution made by women to the history of the war.

AS TO SUNDAY LAWS.

A new light on the fourth commandment comes from the antipodes: "The man who does not labor during six days of the week is as great a sinner as the Sabbath-breaker." So says an Australian Anglican divine, who lays emphasis on the first part of the injunction, "Six days shalt thou labor." He considers that the part enjoining rest on the Sabbath is naturally more popular and better known than the one ordering work on the six previous days. It is open to argument, says the London Chronicle, whether this reading involves the fallacy of accent, as the logicians call it.

 NICHOLAS FLOOD DAVIN.

Many who have had the pleasure of his personal acquaintance will regret the tragic fate of Nicholas Flood Davin. Some phrase, or epigram, or witty retort, or bit of verse, or rounded period of eloquence, has appealed to them and brought them near to the many-sided, scholarly, gifted man whose name was familiar to all Canadians. The most eloquent of Mr. Davin's recent addresses was that delivered when the soldiers were leaving the west for South Africa, and it was one of the most appropriate and eloquent of the many delivered at that time. Mr. Davin was best known in the great west, but had also warm friends in the eastern provinces, which he visited several times in the last few years.

WEST INDIA TRADE.
 As will be seen by an article in another column, Mr. Pickford, of Pickford & Black, continues his efforts to interest Ontario people in the question of trade with the West Indies. The practical suggestion that the secretary of the Manufacturers' Association should visit the islands as the guest of the steamship company will no doubt be accepted. It would be still more to the purpose if firms producing goods suitable to those markets would combine and send a representative or representatives to the islands to study the markets, note their special requirements, and establish permanent connections with leading houses. Canada's trade with the West Indies is capable of much greater development than it has yet attained. It is regretted that St. John is not given a fairer share in the steamship service to those islands and Cuba, but perhaps in the brighter day which Hon. Mr. Blair signifies us is dawning for this port we may hope for some developments along that line.

AS TO RECIPROCIETY.
 American papers continue to urge the importance of making reciprocity treaties to secure an enlargement of the foreign trade of the United States. The St. Paul Pioneer-Press has collected the following figures from the bureau of statistics, and presents them as an argument in favor of reciprocity:
 From 1855 to 1885 we had reciprocity with Canada, and the result was that between 1832 and 1855 our exports to Canada increased from $10,230,000 to $23,295,000 and our imports from $5,499,000 to $21,577,000. In 1867, after the termination of the treaty, the exports fell to $12,000,000, and the imports which had reached $33,264,000, fell to $5,469,000. The results of the treaty with Hawaii, which endured from 1878 to 1893, were very similar. In 1874, before the treaty went into operation, our exports to Hawaii were valued at $614,623, our imports from those islands at $1,017,000. But in 1897 our exports increased to $1,273,000 and our imports to $2,350,000. From September, 1894, we also had reciprocity with Porto Rico and Cuba. In 1899 our exports to those islands amounted to $1,816,000, and our imports to $5,832,000. In the first year of the treaty imports increased to $5,179,000 and exports to $28,800,000. On the termination of the treaty both exports and imports fell within a year to the level of the years prior to the treaty.

The manner in which the citizens' committee were turned out of the depot at the instance of the provincial government on Thursday is not likely to be forgotten. Those gentlemen are not suspected of anarchistic tendencies, and are believed to be able to conduct themselves decorously, even when placed beside the shining lights of the local government. The station building would not have fallen, nor the royal train leaped into the Marsh creek, if they had been permitted to remain to greet the royal party on its arrival in the city.

The royal visit cost Toronto between $17,000 and $18,000. The appropriation was $10,000. But the Mall and Empire says: "The reception committee is not apprehensive of any complaint because the original appropriation of $10,000 was exceeded. In view of the splendid showing made by Toronto, and the crowds of visitors attracted to the city, it is regarded as money well spent."

Despite the anxiety of the committee in charge to spare the royal party a severe shock, it appears that some persons not in evening dress were presented at Thursday evening's reception. And they do say it was done with the duke's approval. His royal highness should have spared the feelings of the local lords of etiquette. It must have been a severe shock to their nerves.

The Toronto ladies who presented a gold library set to the duchess not only raised all the funds they needed, but had a surplus to dispose of.

WEST INDIES.
 Canadians Are Slow to Develop a Good Market.

An interesting interview with a Member of the Pickford-Black Steamship Company—Cane Versus Beet Root Sugar.
 (Toronto Globe.)
 C. S. Pickford of the Pickford & Black Steamship company is a guest at the Queen's hotel. The steamers of this company have a regular freight and passenger service from St. John and Halifax the year round to the British West Indies, and during the winter a fortnightly freight service to Cuba. The company recently invited Mr. Riddell, secretary of the Manufacturers' Association, to take a trip at their expense to the West Indies, with a view to reporting upon trade possibilities with the islands. In conversation with a Globe reporter, Mr. Pickford said that Canadians, as yet, were not half awakened to the trade possibilities with the British Indies. As a consequence the United States, France, Britain, Denmark, Venezuela and Porto Rico were importing products and manufactures, the bulk of which might as well be going from this country. Every item of goods manufactured in the dominion could find a ready market in the West Indies. There was a steady demand for brooms, brushes, soap, confectionery, biscuits, boots and shoes, paints, white ware and ready-made clothing, and the bulk of these goods are now going from the United States and Britain. Oats, split peas, flour and dairy products were in great demand, and Canada could easily supply the greater portion of these, while there was no doubt that the cattle of this country could largely displace the importations in that line from Venezuela and Porto Rico. It was surprising to him and others interested in the question to find that Canadian dairymen did not take more active steps toward securing a share of the West Indies market. Denmark and France, for instance, sent to the islands large consignments of butter, in hermetically sealed tins, and obtained good prices for it, while the export of the same article from Nova Scotia was comparatively insignificant. It would, he thought, be an easy matter for Canadians to manufacture machinery and implements used in the sugar and other industries of the islands, samples of which are on view at the office of the Manufacturers' Association, this city.

In return, Canada could import direct, cocoa, cocoa nuts, nutmeg and spices of all kinds, fruits, with the exception of bananas, apples, and other products. The present method of bringing bananas to New York, then sending them on to Canada, was the best, so far as that particular fruit was concerned. The railway haul in this country was too long, and the proportion of bananas consigned for loss small to admit of any disturbance of the present arrangement of handling the fruit. The sugar trade of the islands is a hotly contested one, and the beet-root article. He was a firm believer in the superiority of cane sugar in open competition considered that it would easily lead beet root. The duties on the United States were in favor of cane and against beet-root sugar, and he thought it should be the same here, adding that he did not think in spite of successful experiments, that the beet-root sugar industry could be conducted on a paying basis in Canada. The Pickford & Black company, he said, would make an effort to have a West Indies exhibit at next year's Toronto Fair, identical with that made at the Nova Scotia Provincial Exposition at Halifax. In the meantime, he could not too strongly impress upon Canadian producers and manufacturers the fact that they were losing a fine market for their goods. He added that so far as he could judge by the experience of the Pickford & Black line Canadian trade with Cuba was increasing.

DETECTIVE KILLED, IF YOU PLEASE.
 Chief of Police Clark has appointed Officer Patrick Killen to succeed John Ring as detective in connection with the St. John police force. The appointment should give general satisfaction. Officer Killen did special duty for several months, and the fact that Chief Clark has given him the post of detective to indicate that his work in this line was satisfactory to the head of the department. It will be Detective Killen from this out.

RECENT DEATHS.
 Alexander Nelson of St. John's, N. S., died very suddenly yesterday while standing on a platform talking to a friend. He was 67 years of age and leaves a widow, three sons and four daughters.

ALCOHOL AND MORPHINE.
 AN ANTIDOTE DISCOVERED.
 A recent remarkable discovery in medicine which has been found to annihilate the appetite for alcoholic drinks and all drugs, even in the most hopeless cases, is attracting a good deal of attention among those interested in temperance work. The medicine is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless and absolutely free from narcotics. It leaves no evil after effects and can be carried in the pocket and taken in absolute privacy, thus dispensing with the publicity, loss of time and expense of an institute treatment.
 The medicine has been tested and is vouchered for by the Vicar of St. Michael's, Rev. Father Quinlan, Rev. Joseph Egger, Rev. E. L. Fitzgerald, Rev. Father Strubbe, Rev. Father McCallen, Rev. M. Gaughren, Rev. A. M. Coventry, Rev. Father Gaule, Sister Augustine, Sister William, S. S. H. Sister Ethelburga, and many others.
 Full particulars regarding this medicine can be obtained by writing to Mr. Dixon, No. 21 Willocks Street, Toronto, Canada.

A PLEASANT SOCIAL FUNCTION.
 Lieut. Governor McClellan and Mrs. McClellan held a reception at the Royal Hotel yesterday, between 400 and 500 ladies and gentlemen present of themselves. His honor and Mrs. McClellan were assisted by Mrs. Tweedie, wife of the premier of the province, Mrs. Murray, the wife of the attorney general of the province, and many guests were received in the elegantly equipped ladies' parlor of the hotel. The members of the local government, many members of the senate and house of commons of Canada, and scores of prominent citizens outside of the city of St. John took advantage of the invitation to meet his honor and his estimable lady. The attendance of city people was large, too.
 Bicyclists and all athletes depend on BENTLEY'S Liniment to keep their joints limber and muscles in trim.

OTTAWA.
 The militia department has received a cable from Hon. Mr. Chamberlain stating that Richard Douglas Muir was wounded at Riepfontein Oct. 11, and Frank Nott is dangerously ill of enteric fever at Edmundston. Muir is from MacGregor, Manitoba, and Nott from Fort Perry, Ontario. H. Tunstall, an Ottawa man, is reported missing at Riepfontein. Drift since Oct. 12th.

MONTRÉAL STOCK EXCHANGE.
 The members of the Montreal Stock Exchange will vote in a few days on a proposition to raise the membership from 46 to 66, thus creating 20 new seats. As the ruling price of seats is now $12,000, the sale of ten seats would net something like $120,000, which it is suggested might be used as the nucleus for a building fund.

 Head the Star's Want ad. columns. They may contain something of value to you.

STOLENS.
 From Wm. Kirkpatrick of Marsh Bridge at Barrack Square Thursday.

In spite of the presence of many of the expert secret service men from Upper Canada and of the greatly increased strength and efficient work of the St. John police force, the gang of thieves and pickpockets who inevitably follow such a celebration as Thursday's made a little money out of the city, as they have been doing elsewhere along the route of the royal tour.
 Some minor losses are denominated by the victims, but as far as present reports go, the greatest success was William Kirkpatrick of 35 Marsh road, who on the Barrack square Thursday afternoon was relieved of a wallet containing money amounting nearly to $400. He, in company with John Kirvan of the north end, attended the military review on Barrack square during the hours preceding the arrival of the royal party. It was during this time that his pocket-book was stolen, but the loss was not discovered until after the proceedings were over and the crowd had almost dispersed.
 Whoever did the job was an expert. For the heavy leather pocket-book was removed from an inside pocket without the slightest knowledge of Mr. Kirkpatrick, who, though being in close contact with many strangers, has no suspicion as to the perpetrator of the deed.
 The matter has been reported to the police, who are making an effort to locate the missing property, though with the slight information in their possession their task is almost hopeless. The loss to Mr. Kirkpatrick is a heavy one.

STEAMER ASHORE.
 HALIFAX, Oct. 12.—The comparatively new steamer Manchester Bhipper, of the Manchester line, ran ashore in Low Point light, Sydney, during a thick fog and heavy rain last night. She was commanded by Capt. Goddard, and was bound from Hamburg for Montreal. She is fast aground on Petrie's ledge, about a mile west of the lighthouse and about a quarter of a mile off shore.
 SYDNEY, N. S., Oct. 12.—The Manchester Shipper has not been floated off yet. The passengers are still on board. The wind is blowing stiffly from the west and quite a sea is running, but the steamer is in no danger. It is likely the passengers will be landed tomorrow and the steamer lightened of all ballast and another attempt made to float her. Her position is quite exposed, and she is saved largely by the quarter from which the wind is blowing.

ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC. It is one continuous song of praise from Cape Breton to Vancouver Island, across our broad Dominion, from the thousands of owners of Nordheimer Pianos, that the exquisite quality of tone these famous instruments produce, unquestionably makes them the artistic standard pianos of Canada.

The steadily increasing sales, together with the unstinted admiration of their thousands of purchasers, is, after all, the best proof of their sterling merit. The Nordheimer Piano is a musical instrument of the highest quality, retaining its own peculiar charm and sweetness of tone, after many years of use and wear.

MOOSE OF THE ROYAL VIRTU.
 The handkerchiefs which Mrs. Geo. H. Ross, of Montreal, made for the members of the Moose of the Royal Virtue were only presented and her royal highness expressed great pleasure on receiving it.

During her drive about the city yesterday morning the duchess visited the Suspension bridge alighted from her carriage and viewed the falls.

The Boston veterans have made a host of friends in St. John. They are a fine body of men, and have borne themselves like true Britons.

The Duke and Duchess expressed themselves highly pleased with Caverhill Hall and the arrangements made for their comfort. Lord and Lady Minto were equally complimentary in their acknowledgments concerning the MacSally residence.

The state school house with 1000 persons at Thursday evening's reception. The royal train stopped at Sussex.

Monday and Amherst yesterday and great crowds were at the depots. Leading citizens were presented to their royal highnesses and great enthusiasm marked each occasion.

To Col. McLean the duke said, before leaving St. John that he wished to compliment the troops who took part in the review. He and the duchess warmly praised the soldierly bearing of the men.

While the royal train was being shunted at Kingston, Ont., a fur cape, belonging to Mrs. (Major) Maude, fell unnoted from a window. The police were notified and an officer recovered the article, forwarding it to St. John.

LL. Governor McClellan told Col. Blunt, yesterday that the government of the provinces would pay the expenses of the Boston veterans incurred in their visit to St. John.

The Telegraph estimates that 25,000 visitors came to St. John to welcome the royal party, and spent not less than $100,000. Of the cost of the affair it says: "The expenses of the provincial government, it is learned on good authority, will be between $30,000 and $40,000 for the celebration. A grant of $5,000 was voted by the common council, but when the bills directly and indirectly are received, the expenditure will probably reach $8,000 or over."

NEXT WEEK'S EVENT.
 What the Cincinnati, O., Commercial Tribune Says About the Faddettes.

There is something in their music that is not only most grateful to the ear, but borrows an additional interest from the association of ideas. The program was light and breezy, and it was astonishing how much strength they had at their command. The strings especially are of even, musical quality, and their attack prompt, the woodwind excellent; the brass vigorous and even. The conductor wields the baton with dignity and engaged forces under fine control. On the whole, their work is remarkably clever. No point in coloring or grouping is passed over to make these concerts a feast for the eye as well as for the ear. There was an audience of over 3,000 people.

SEEKING INFORMATION.

He is a printer by trade, and is about thirty-four years of age.

MOORE GAMES.

Most of the members of the U. N. B. team went home last evening, but several stayed here until Monday. The men were given two days' holiday to see the duke and duchess. This fall the team expects to play both Mt. Allison and Acadia colleges. The game with the former will be played on Thursday, and with Acadia probably about the second week in November. These teams will likely play in St. John.

POLICE COURT

Flipping Ends Found.—The defendant, Eugene Sullivan, who had been unable to attend his presentation earlier in the day, was introduced to the court, and being short of the four dollars required was assigned to quarters in the lower portion of the building.

This morning six persons were on the bench, four of whom charged with fighting, one with theft and one with drunkenness. The four were Peter Petersons, John Melanson and Fred Knudson. Of these both of the Petersons and Fred carried many decorations. One of the Petersons had a red and blue sash across his right chest, surrounded by a dark globe of swollen eye. He bore no mottoes but showed plainly that he was not one of the fortunate beings, "quorum jam memora surgunt." He thought that the walls around him had risen entirely too high. The other Peter had a greater variety of decoration, but the general effect was not so pleasing. His exterior gave evidence of the hearing reception accorded by his face to the data that had visited it. Among the features exhibited were several cuts, a bleeding nose, blackened eyes and a generally bruised appearance. Fred Knudson had devoted particular attention to inside decoration, and exhibited only a swollen lip, which silently hinted at the state of affairs behind it.

None of these were sure that they had been fighting on Market square last evening, but Officer White, who happened to be there, explained to them how the affair had occurred. They were each fined twenty dollars or thirty days. Melanson, who had a witness to prove that he had not sought the trouble, but had been dragged into it by the others, was let go.

Joseph Demajo, when asked what he had to say in regard to stealing the watch from Wm. K. Vaughan, stated that he had certainly found the watch in his pocket but did not know whether he had stolen it or not. He was remanded.

Peter Britt for drunkenness was fined eight dollars or two months in jail.

BLOOD ALLEY.

And Laura Burns' Definition of the "Contents" of an Oath.

The Blood Alley scandal is again to the fore, and Dan Taylor may get his wife back again.

Yesterday Laura Burns, who lives in the alley, in the house next to the one occupied by Harry Ford, had used some language to her. She is a cousin of the wife Harry has left behind him in Nova Scotia, and consequently takes an interest in his children. The trouble occurred over their management and resulted in the parties appearing before the magistrate this morning.

Dan was on hand, wearing a nobby fox hat, fawn coat and carrying a gold-headed cane. He did a cake walk across the courtroom and engaged in earnest conversation with the complainant. She took the stand and stated how the affair had occurred, related the bad words that had been used and demanded justice. Harry acquiesced of the magistrate if he might ask the lady a question, and being given permission said, "I never called you names." He was reminded that he must ask only questions and having collected his thoughts, demanded of Laura whether she knew the "contents" of an oath. She did. It meant that she must not tell lies like he did. This seemed satisfactory, and the case was decided against Harry and Dan's wife. They were each fined eight dollars and Mrs. Taylor was ordered to leave Ford. She was told to either get service elsewhere or go back to live with her husband. Dan is lonely since she left, but she isn't!

POOR STREET CAR SERVICE.

During the past couple of days the street car service has been in a demoralized condition. Owing to heavy traffic on some of the cars they lost time and for this cause the proper crossings have not been made. It has been no unusual thing to see six or eight cars following each other in the space of two or three minutes and a chance observer might be led to suppose that St. John had an efficient service. On several occasions most of the cars have been bunched and people have had to wait fully fifteen or twenty minutes for one of them. On those occasions they had the advantage—perhaps not properly appreciated—of being able to choose from half a dozen cars.

THE EXODUS.

It is said that so many immigrants are entering Maine from New Brunswick that a second immigrant inspection is needed at Vanceboro. The other day, it is reported, immigrant inspectors Peter Miller stopped a car load of immigrants from St. John at Vanceboro, and detained them for 15 hours before he could complete his inspection. —Portland Press.

THE MISSION. Dedication of a New Altar in St. John the Baptist Church This Evening.

The ceremony of dedicating a new altar will take place at St. John the Baptist church (Broad street) tonight. Very Rev. Thos. Connolly, V. G., has gone to great trouble in erecting the altar, which is really a beautiful piece of architecture.

The scene at the church tonight should be an imposing one. The acolytes and the children will march through the aisles of the edifice in solemn procession. The Monsigneur, assisted by Rev. W. C. Gaynor and Fathers Feeney and Bader, C. S. R., will participate in the event.

Many floral offerings will embellish the altar, while hundreds of burning candles will add a beaming light to the effect.

The mission will close tomorrow. Frs. Feeney and Bader are to be congratulated on the success attending their arduous labors in this parish. The clergyman have had many communications during their short stay. The congregations in every case, early five o'clock morning mass until late at night have been very large.
