What Do You Pay? Daring Rescue of Two Tots at Yonkers, N. Y.

> They Fell From a Bridge Into a Swoilen lcy Stream.

Yonkers, N. Y., Jan. 8.-A rescue at once thrilling and heroic was performed Saturday afternoon, but became generally known only last evening through the grateful parents of the rescued children. Two little tots, hardly 5 years old, sons of John Whalen and John Selensky, of Garden street, were standing on a bridge watching some men kicking a football in a lot on the banks of Nepperhan Creek. While climbing to gain a better view, both children slipped and fell into the rushing water, which at this THRILLING AND HEROIC season is very deep and swift.

A cry at once went up and a crowd rushed to the water side, where the two children could be plainly seen struggling in vain as they were borne along by the rapid current.

Four young men dashed into the stream, and one, Michael Connors, of 32 Garden street, managed to reach the children as they were floating by. His companions, who had followed him and formed a line, took the children and passed them to the shore. The task, which was most difficult and dangerous owing to the tremendous force of the icy water, was applauded by the onlookers.

The men disappeared after the rescubut it was ascertained that Connor's assistants were his cousin, Patrick Conners, of 81 Vineyard avenue, William Connors, of 69 Garden street, and Louis Hopkins, of 88 Garden street. The children had floated nearly 200 yards before they were rescued. Last spring he jumped from the window of a house on the banks of the creek and rescued a child in a heavy freshet. # A TALK WITH HON. GEO. W. ROSS

What the Premier Told the Man From the Mail-Whitney Has Nothing to Say.

Toronto, Jan. 8 .- Premier Ross was seen by the Mail and Empire at his home last night. He was naturally well satisfied with the results of the bye-elections. The Liberal party regarded it as a splendid victory, he said, and felt that it was the turning point in the fate of the Government. With these three seats he was given a majority of five, and he felt now that he could carry on the Government of the Province without any difficulty, as he believed every supporter of the Government would stand by him in any reasonable legislation he might pro-

The hope was also expressed by the Premier that now, at the end of the campaign, the bitterness and party feeling which characterized it would subside, and that the political plat-form henceforth would be used for the discussion of public questions rather than for casting reflections on political opponents. Ontario deserved the best energies of both parties to secure its highest development, and so far as he, as Premier, was concerned, he hoped to be sufficiently relieved from electoral contests for the remainder of his term and apply himself to the proper functions of a legislator. His advice now was, let resentment subside and let Ontario prosper.

Mr. Ross added that he wished to express his indeptedi friends who had given their loyal support to his Government, and also to the party workers for their selfsacrifice in placing their time at the disposal of the party during the last three weeks. "And I might say, too," the Premier concluded, "that the house will be stronger because of the talent and standing of the three successful candidates." During the evening Mr. Ross received a score or more telegrams from various parts of the Province congratulating him on the Government's victory.

MR. WHITNEY SILENT.

Mr. J. P. Whitney, when seen by the Mail and Empire; said he did not care to comment upon the returns at all until full and authoritative details were received from the three constitu-

Fatally Injured.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 7. - As a result of a collision between a passenger train and the rear end of a freight train on the Monongahela division of at Cochrane station, just above Duquesne, seven men are dead and one is dying, and five others are injured. THE DEAD.

The dead are: C. E. Stroud, baggage-master, accommodation train, Home-wood; C. M. Boehner, brakeman of accommodation, Pittsburg; John Stewart, passenger, residence unknown; two unknown foreigners, killed outright; two unknown foreigners, died.

Among the injured is T. D. Cook conductor, accommodation, who probably die before morning. THE CRASH.

The passenger train in the wreck was the West Elizabeth accommoda-tion, which left Pittsburg, at 3:20 p.m. It was on time and had a clear track, according to the signals dis-played. At the siding at Cochrane it ran into the rear of an extra freight, which had taken the switch, but failed to clear the main line. The officials of the road attribute the disaster to the failure of Patrick Quinn, the rear brakeman of the freight, to see that his train had fully cleared. Up to 11 p.m. Quinn had not been

When the passenger train along the caboose of the freight ever-lapped the main track enough to catch the tender of the passenger engine, which was forced back upon the combination baggage and smoking car with terrific force. of the other four were literally roasted to death, and the two who died

She badly hurt that he can hardly live the night through.

When the passenger engine struck the rear end of the last car of the freight the beam of the cowcatcher knocked the cylinder on the left side off, and then dug into one end of the tank of the tender, and shoved it from the trucks. The tank was driven back through the combination baggage and smoker. The tank cleaved through the shell of the combination car like a sheath knife. The roof fell car like a sheath knife. The roof fell after the tank had crushed the sides. In the front end of the car was a stove, which was shoved back among the confused jumble. GASOLINE ON BOARD.

Any fire that might have seen caused by the shock could the Pennsylvania Railway tonight, easily have been extinguished with-at Cochrane station, just above Du-out trouble in a short time. But when the tank came through it brought with it a 15-gallon tank of gasoline or oil. This was instantly ignited by the coals of the stove fire. There was a little puff of an explosion and the wreckage commenced to burn furiously. The most singular part of the whole accident was the fact that not one of the old cars of the train nor the numerous other passengers oc-cupying them were injured in the slightest.

SMASHUP ON C. P. R.

Sherbrooke, Que., Jan. 7 .-- On the Canad an Pacific Railway at 2 o'clock this morning a head-on collision took place between two freight trains about a mile and a half from Sherbrooke, just as they reached a 15-foot embankment. The locomotives remained on the tracks, but most of the cars went over. One of the firemen was killed and one brakeman injured.

Sherbrooke, Que., Jan. 8. — A later account of yesterday's accident says:
Two freight trains collided about midnight on the C. P. R., two miles west of Sherbrooke. As a result Fireman La Patrie, alias Patrie of Formbow was killed and Potter, of Farnham, was killed, and Arthur Wright, engineer, also of the westbound train, is in the Protestant Hospital here with a broken leg and other injuries. Fireman George Kervis, of the eastbound train, jumped into a creek, and was in the water an hour before being rescued. Two engines and eight or ten freight cars were badly smashed. The trains were running at a high rate of speed and met on a curve. The blame is expected to be placed upon the dispatcher's office at Farnham, but this is a rest uncertain. is as yet uncertain. The Halifax train came round by way of Newport.

KILLED AT A CROSSING. Toronto, Jan. 8. - Daniel Norris, a traveler for the Queen City Oil Com-pany, was killed at Port Credit yester-day by a Canadian Pacific train which struck his wagon as he was driving across the track. He lived in Toronto and was unmarried.

HER HUSBAND WAS A DRUNKARD

of Her Struggle to Save her Home.

A PATHETIC LETTER.

"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Tasteless Samaria Prescrip-tion treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he of trying the Tasteless Samaria Prescription treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine, and the thought unnerved me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his week's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I sent for your Tasteless Samaria Prescription, and put it in his coffee as directed next morning, and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more, and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something that set every nurve in my body tingling with hope and hapiness, and I could see a bright future spread out before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comforts and everything else dear to a woman's heart; for my husband had told me that whisky was vile stuff, and he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the full course he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept on giving him the medicine till it was gone, and then sent for another lot, to have on hand if he should relapse, as he has done from promises before. He never has, and I am writing you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

THE OMAHA GALE

Damaged 50 Buildings-Wind Blew 90 Miles an Hour.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 7 .- Probably 50 buildings were damaged by the gale which struck Omaha last night. The wind did not abate with the morning, but continued to blow at a furious velocity. Wires are prostrated in all directions and the city was in darkness the latter part of the night. There has been no rain or snow and the temperature is barely below the freezing point.

West Superior, Wis., Jan. 7.—A blizzard from the northwest struck the head of the lakes early today. Drifting snow is interrupting traffic. A suden drop in temperature was accompanied by a high wind. St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 7.—Meager reports reached St. Paul of the terrific blizzard which raged last night in South Dakota and moved rapidly east-The storm struck Sioux City soon after dark, starting in with a fine rain, which quickly turned to The thermometer sank rapidly and the wind rose almost to hurricane velocity, one report putting its speed at 90 miles an hour. RAILWAYS BLOCKED. Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 7 .- Supt. Law, of the Northern Pacific, says it will take about ten days to clear the main line of the Northern Pacific between Palmer Junction and Ellensburg. Three westbound passenger trains are between Palmer Junction and Stampede Tunnel, one at Canton, one at Maywood and one at Lester. Most of the male passengers came into Tacoma last night, walking from the point where the trains are stalled at Kanasaet, and being brought in from there by special train. The women children remaining on the train are being cared for at the expense of the company. The main line is open between Seattle and Portland.

At Snowflake, Man., Eli Shielson's stere, with contents, was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday. Cause of fire unknown.

The man was Jacob Capitol, who lives at 340 East Fifty-second street. Early yesterday morning he was found inhaling gas from a tube in the kitchen. Miss Hanlon, who lives in the same house, ran out without stopping to put on her shoes and went to a doctor's office in East Fiftieth street. Non-Union Men Called On to Give Testimony.

Attempt to Show That Union Miners Were Lawless.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7 .- When the strike commission began its work today the attorneys for the non-union miners, who have been calling witnesses to show that the union miners were responsible for the alleged lawlessness in the anthracite coal region last year, resumed the presentation of test.mony. Five witnesses stated that their houses had been more or less damaged by persons, some of whom were known to be union men, placing high explosives on the property; other witnesses told of a dam being blown up, one locomotive damaged, steampipes in two different collieries either broken or damaged by dynamite, bridges and fences damaged by incendiary fires and attempted wrecking of trains. One youth said he was stabbed; several of the witnesses claimed they were boycotted, and several others told of being beaten by crowds and of their houses being stoned.

Besides this, a young woman told the commission she was dismissed as a school teacher because her brother chose to work during the strike, and a young man testified that he was attacked as he was coming out of church after being married, forcing him to seek refuge in a colliery, while bride got home as best she could. while his Another witness said he was afraid to attend the funeral of his mother,

THE TWO EXTREMES

About the time children begin to go to school they are liable to be confronted with one of two extremesthey may either grow too fast or not grow fast enough. In the former case nature makes unusual demands upon bone and blood; vital organs are overtaxed and growth continues out of proportion to their age. Here is where Scott's Emulsion finds scope for its best workings.

It nourishes the bones, —the hypophosphites of lime and soda do this; it feeds and enriches the blood - this through the pure cod liver oil; it strengthens the whole system, providing firm, healthy flesh and fortifying the tissues so that they are better able to stand the extra strain upon them.

When a child is not growing as it should-undersize, underweight, there will be found in ott's Emulsion the very elements needed to aid in proper development. Bone food for the bones, blood food for the blood, tissue food for the tissues—that is how Scott's Emulsion provides for each demand of the body. There is a uniform change for the better wherever there is need of new strength more and better nourish These claims are not made off-hand. We know from nearly thirty years contact with such cases that Scott's Emulsion will do just what we say it will do. We will be glad to send you a sample free so that you can judge for yourself.

AGAINST COAL COMBINES

Action Taken in U. S. Senate and N. Y. Legislature.

Three Soft Coal Concerns With a Capital of $31,750,000 Unite.

Baltimore, Jan. 8.-The Consolidation Coal Company of Maryland has formed an alliance with the Fairmont Coal Company, of West Virginia, and the Somerset Coal Company, of Pennsylvania. The combined capital stock of the companies is $31,750,000, and the combined annual output 5,000,000 tons. The three companies are among the largest soft coal concerns in the United States: CLEVELAND'S COMBINE.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 8.-The grand jury yesterday heard testimony by several dealers who declared there was an association of retail coal dealers in the city, which had to do with regulating prices, and that they were forced into the combination on penalty of not being able to purchase coal.

Washington, Jan. 8.-In the Senate a resolution offered by Mr. Stewart (Nevada) was adopted, directing the committee on the District of Columbia to ascertain whether the scarcity of coal here is the result of failure of shipment or whether there is a lack of prompt and efficient distribution among the people. #### WORTH KNOWING

At This Season of the Year. Any cough accompanied by expec-

toration which lasts over three or four days, requires attention and treatment; this does not mean a visit to the hospital, nor to your physician nor wholesale drugging with patent medicines; but it means that some simple, harmless effective antiseptic remedy like Stuart's Catarrh Tablets should used to ward off any possible termination in pneumonia, chronic catarrh, bronchitis or consumption.

All of these formidable diseases start from a common cold, neglected or allowed to run its course and it is only the exercise of common every day caution to cure a cold as quickly as possible, not so much for what it is at the moment, but what it may beome if neglected.

Perhaps no remedy is so safe, reliable and convenient to stop a cold or ob-stinate cough as Stuart's Catarrh

The extract of blood root contained in them combined with the red gum of the Eucalyptus tree seem to put the mucous membrane of the nose, mouth and throat in a condition to throw off the germs of catarrh, bronchitis and consumption, and as they are taken internally they seem to equalize the circulation and place in the body in that condition of health which resists, and throws off the germs of disease. A person in perfect health rarely catches cold and if he does, throws it off in a day or two, but, where the cold hangs on, stopping up the nos-trils, irritating the throat or there is persistent annoying cough it is evident that the system for some reason is unable to throw off the disease germs Chicago, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Katherine Thompson, an aged woman of Waukegan, Ill., who claimed to be a niece of George Washington, has been found dead at her home. dren and adults. Druggists sell these tablets at 50 cents full sized package, higher in price than troches and cheap cough syrups, but Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain antiseptic properties which actually cure colds, catarrh and throat and lung troubles, while it is a notorious fact that cough drops and cough syrups are largely composed of opium, cocaine and similar drugs that have no curative power.

It is also true that many popular liquid medicines and tonics for catarrh depend upon the alcohol they contain which give simply a temporary stimu-lation of no real benefit for any trouble catarrhal or otherwise

HEALTHY WOMEN

Praise Pe-ru-na as a Cure for Colds and a Preventive of Catarrh.

A Serious Mistake Which Thousands Are Making.

The first stage of catarrh is what is commonly known as "catching cold." It may be in the head, nose, throat or lungs. Its beginning is sometimes so severe as to cause a chill and considerable fever, or it may be so slight as to not hinder a person from his usual business. In perhaps a majority of cases little or no attention is paid to the first stage of catarrh, and hence it is that nearly one-half of the people have chronic catarrh in some form.

To neglect a cold is to invite chronic catarrh. As soon as anyone discovers the first symptoms of catching cold he should at once begin the use of Peruna according to directions on the bottle, and the cold is sure to pass away without leaving any bad effects.

Unless this is done the cold is almost sure to end in the second stage of catarrh, which is making so many lives miserable. If Peruna was taken every time one has a cold or cough, chronic catarrh would be practically an unknown

Miss Elizabeth Uber, No. 57 Bassett street, Albany, N. My physician prescribed for me, but somehow his medicine did me no good. Reading of PERUNA, I decided to try it. After I had taken but three bottles I found myself in fine health."—Mrs. M. J. Brink.

The Government's Sweep.

The result of yesterday's bye-elections is more than a cause for party jubilation. It puts an end to a condition which seriously clogged the administration of public affairs. The fate of the Government hung in the balance, and the ministers were not free to map out a programme of legislation or enter upon any large project for the development of the Province without the assurance of being sustained by the Legislature. But now all uncertainty has been removed. Yesterday's clean sweep gives the Government a majority of five, which will in all probability be increased before the House assembles. A Liberal reverse in even one riding would have prolonged the injurious suspense; defeat in two ridings might have forced on the Province another general election. The majority of the electors have taken a common-sense view of the situation. It was a choice between stable administration and a period of party turmoil. If Mr. Whitney had won every bye-election he would still be unable to command a working majority in the Legislature, and a political deadlock would ensue, to the sorry neglect of public business. On the other hand, the Government needed only a slight addition to its strength to confirm it in power for the next four years. It has now a free hand to develop its policy.

The result in North Perth, North Grey and North Norfolk gives the quietus to the campaign of slander which the Opposition has waged in the absence of any alternative policy or any effective criticism of the record of the Ross Administration. The Province has been reeking with turgid rhetoric, written let its readers have the proof, but and spoken, accusing the Government cease quibbling and "keep to the of all the crimes in the calendar. Hon. S. H. Blake's tumid letter was grasped man clutches at a straw; but it was so easily punctured by the Premier that out any explosive effects. Mr. Whitney's speeches in the contested ridings a windy repetition of stale charges the course of his address, he said: against the Government, disproved by the records of the election courts. On the part of himself and his supporters it was a campaign of calumny from beginning to end. The result is a bitter blow to Mr. Whitney's hopes, but it will not be without profit if it teaches him to be more moderate and dignified and to take higher ground in the discussion of public questions. He has come to be regarded as a common scold, a reputation fatal to the usefulness or success of any public man. The electors have simply brushed aside all scandal-monging and looked at the plain practical issues. The Government appealed to them solely upon its record, and was able to offer something better than flatulent abuse.

We may expect to hear a furious clamor about the work of the "machine" in yesterday's bye-elections, but bribery and corruption cannot explain away Mr. MacKay's magnificent victory in North Grey. It must be partly attributed to Mr. MacKay's personal strength. He is a young man of talent and energy of character, and seems destined to make his mark in public life. Gental John Brown, who has again redeemed North Perth, was one of the most popular and amiable members of the last Legislature. His defeat in May was a surprise to everyone, but it was due entirely to over-confidence. It is noteworthy that both Mr. MacKay and Mr. Brown polled large majorities in the municipalities in which they reside. In North Norfolk we believe a tactical error was made in changing the candidate, on the principle of 'never swap horses while crossing a stream." Under ordinary circumstances Mr. Little might be a stronger candilate than Mr. Carpenter, who ran in May, but the latter was barely defeated then and should have done battle again. His retirement would tend to weaken confidence in the party, but Mr. Little did exceedingly well under adverse conditions.

A great triumph is registered for Premier Ross. He has been on the anxious seat for months, but has never once relaxed his energies or shown a sign of giving up the fight. He appeared to rejoice in political combat, and communicated his own enthusiasm and confidence to the rank and file of his party. The manner in which he braved the rigors of a midwinter campaign is an assurance that he is physically in good shape for the hard work of the session. His speeches in North Grev and North Perth were full of the old-time vigor, and no doubt did much to swell the Government's majoriti s. He is now in a position to give Ontario four years of progressive legislation, and the public may shortly expect to hear comething of his plant.

"Keep to the Text." Under the above heading, the Free

Press this morning comments at length on The Advertiser's interview with Dr. Ferguson as published in last night's issue. It says: "The school doctors and The Advertiser between them are trying to confuse the hospital question in the public mind." And then the Free Press starts out to unravel its imaginary tangle, and not only creates confusion, but ends by making it worse confounded; in fact to its readers the issue must now be "clear as mud." It tries to tell its readers (1) that under the Beck-Waterman regime the ward patients have been given some privilege in the choice of a doctor that they did not have formerly. This is not so. So far from this being the case, the Beck-Waterman trust passed a bylaw providing that a privilege, which had never been questioned or denied ward patients, should now be granted only upon conditions so loaded with redtape as to practically bar a patient from having his own doctor. The first man to run up against this bylaw was Dr. James Wilson. The public will remember the episode and the sequel.

(2) The Free Press in the course of meandering says: "They (the schoolmen) want to rescind the bylaw that gives a patient who pays as much as $2 80 per week the privilege of choosing his or her own physician. This is what they are petitioning for." Why does the Free Press deliberately misinform its readers? It knows full well that it cannot produce a shadow of proof in support of this assertion.

(3) Once more the Beck-Waterman organ says: "The new management has not altered the bylaws, so as to curtail the school privileges. It gives the schoolmen the whole year to work in, with leave to name their own staff." The Free Press knows that the Beck-Waterman trust has cut the privileges of the school in two. It gives the clique staff half the cases during the college session and the schoolmen the other half, and that is all the privileges schoolmen have. To say that they are given half the cases the year round is a subterfuge, as the school is in session but half the year. The school asks for its half of the work in the six winter months while the college is in session. There can be no possible object in refusing this request but to cripple the school. If the Free Press can give any other valid reason, let us have it. If the school is petitioning for anything more,

At a recent meeting of the New York Academy of Medicine. Dr. William at by the Whitneyites as a drowning Osler, professor of medicine in Johns Hopkins University, delivered an address on hospital reform which exactly fits the case in London. Dr. William Osler, as nearly everyone knows, is a Canadian by birth and training, and one of the greatest medical were as usual reckless and defamatory; authorities in the United States. In

"In the interest of the medical stusent, the profession, and the public, the hospital authorities should be asked for much greater facilities than were at present enjoyed by the of the majority of medical schools. The work of the third and fourth years should be taken entirely out of the medical schools and be put into the hospitals. But an extraordinary difficulty would present itself. While there were institutions where students had all the privileges desired, there were others to which they were admitted by the side entrance, and quietly, to the amphitheater—by the back street if possible; and there were others which barred the student entirely. The work in a hospital in there was no teaching was rarely first-class, and the hospital physician was apt to become slovenly unless he taught and was himself taught by his house physicians and students. The objection often raised that the patients did not like to have students in the wards was entirely fanciful, and in his experience it had been exactly the reverse, and he could claim to speak with some authority, as he had served as a hospital physician for 25 years, and had taught chiefly in the ward. With the exercise of ordinary discretion, and if one were actuated by kindly feelings toward his patients, there was not the slightest difficulty. In the present state of medicine it was difficulty to carry on a modern hospital without the help of students, for the house staff has too much to do to attend to all of the routine

Could anything be more apropos? Or will to local pooh-bahs who run Victoria Hospital presume to set up their own opinion against the deliberate judgment of so eminent a practitioner as Dr. Osler?

There were some disappointed officeseekers in London last night.

Ross seems to have inherited tenacity as well as the traditions of Mowat.

Premier Ross has done a good deal in three years and will do a great deal more in the next four.

How glad I am that I did so; two bottles brought me immense relief, and after using three bottles more I felt new life and blood surging through my veins. The mining village of Denaby, between Sheffield and Doncaster, was the scene of evictions by the wholesale, similar to those that have occurred in Ireland, although they were not attended by violence. Several months ago the miners struck because of a dispute with the owners. Many efforts were made to settle the trouble, but they all failed. The owners recently notified about 700 of the strikers who were occupying houses owned by the colliery company that if the strike was not settled they would be evicted. The ultimatum expired. A number of families voluntarily left their dwellings. The others stood in resigned silence while their furniture and other household effects were removed to the streets. The scene was pitiful enough, but it was mitigated by the sympathetic tact of the police and by the abundant help bestowed upon the people evicted by tradesmen, co-workers, and others, who provided tents and other shelter.

> London, Jan. 8.—With reference to the attitude of Boer leaders toward the visit of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, the Times' correspondent at Pretoria says that they have so far shown no more than the passive loyalty which Mr. Chamberlain referred to during his visit to Natal. They cannot grasp the situation from a British standpoint. There still remains a feeling that they have handed over the country to the British Government, and are consequently entitled to have their requests granted. British sacrifices have been persistently ignored. The Boer leaders do not seem to recognize the futility of troying to reopen negotiations on the basis which might have been tenable before the war.

It is a story which holds the reader's expectant interest to the very last. In securing a story of this high class for the readers of The Advertiser we did so regardless of the expense entailed, but with the end in view of giving our readers one of the very best stories procurable, one which readers of all ages will find attractive, pleasing and intensely interesting. #### MURDER NOTICE TO TEDDY Negro Appointees To Be Killed If He Keeps On.

Democratic Organ Says Colored Officials Will Be Murdered.

New Orleans, Jan. 8.-The New Orleans newspapers all comment in savage terms on the action of the President in closing the Indianola, Miss., postoffice because of the resignation of the colored postmistress. The strongest expressions are from the New Crleans States, the Democratic organ. That paper says:

"In discussing the Indianola postoffice incident we do not believe it to be wise for either the people of the South or their newspapers to mince words. President Roosevelt, in closing the postoffice at Indianola, has suspended the law for the deliberate purpose of offending and insulting the white people of the South, and, inci-

for the sole purpose of cinching the Presidential nomination in 1904, and it is well that the South should proclaim its knowledge of his motives, and also to impress upon the mind of the country the fact that if President Roosevelt has made up his mind to outrage and insult people of the South by ap-pointing and keeping in office obnoxious negroes, his negro appointees will be killed, just as the negro appointees of other Republican Presidents have been put out of the way.

"Some persons will say, no doubt. that these are intemperate and violent views, but we are confident that they will be indorsed by the majority of the people in the Southern States."

Washington, Jan. 8 .- United States Minister Bowen transmitted to the State department today another reply from President Castro touching arbitration proposal. As heretofore, President Castro expresses willingness to submit the matter to arbitration, and, in addition to his former communication, he is now willing to recognize the propriety of submitting the claims referred to in the British and German notes to The Hague, something that he has not up to this point been willing to do.

Some details remain to be arranged before the next step-the appointment of commissioners-can be taken.

MUSIC CLUB'S RECITAL

Rarely-Enjoyable Event Attended by Large Audience.

Those who heard Mr. Dwight-Edwards sing at the Woman's Morning Music Club's recital yesterday were given a very great treat. Mr. Dwight-Edwards has a voice of rare brilliancy and power, and showed a power of interpretation of a high order. It is seldom that Londoners are favored with such high-class song, and the hearty applause which greeted Mr. Dwight-Edwards' efforts showed that he had an interested and appreciative audience. As on the preceding evening at the Auditorium, his numbers called for a variety of treatment, and each was given with artistic feeling.

An eight-hand symphony was a very pleasing number, and Mr. Mitcheltree's rendition of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" is deserving of high praise. As an encore he gave Mendelssohn's 'Duetto." Mr. Jordan handled the accompaniments in his usual delightful manner. The ladies are to be congratulated on having given a recital of such interest and merit. The programme was as follows: Symphony No. 7-Allegretto, Presto ..

"That is the way I have reasoned it." replied Kenneth, "and I cannot help believing that her brother must have been secretly married, and for some reason he and his sister were desirous of concealing the fact. If such was the case, of course nothing would be more natural, when she died, than that they should seek to hide the child, and let the world imagine him to be still unmarried."

"I—don't—know." returned Dr. Frothingham, thoughtfully; "that certainly seems a reasonable solution of the mystery, and yet it does not seem at all in accordance with Allan Kavanagh's character. I know that he went abroad the accordance with Allan Kavanagh's character. I know that he went abroad the last of the summer of that year, and his father, who had long been an invalid, died early in October. He dropped away suddenly, so there was no time to send for Allan, who had urgent business in London, and this I happen to know was not settled until about the first of the ensuing year. He did not return then; his sister told me that he was going to travel for a year in Europe, and the next I heard he had married the peer's daughter, taken the family name, and settled in England for good."

CHAPTER XLI.

Have you been lot in Greenwood, to see if the girl was buried there?" Dr. Frothingham asked abruptly, after a thoughtful silence of several minutes. Kenneth answered "I had not Suddenly his anxious eyes espled a single grave, inclosed by itself in a small lot just back of the Kavanagh burial place. There was a very simple, though elegantly polished headstone to mark the spot. A few rapid strides brough thim to the place, and, stepping over the low iron relling that surrounded the lot, he bent D examine the inscription. Too Many Curiers Stated to Meet Scotchmen Here-General Sport.

By Way of Comment.

In the light of Jack Munroe's recent humiliation of Jim Jeffries, the Olympic A. C. of San Francisco again comes forcibly to mind. This temple of the fistic art at the Golden Gate fathers another champion if Jack Munroe really did, as he and many others assert, show Jeffries that the coming pug-flist of the world was three weeks ago a miner in Butte, Mont. It was at the Olympic that Munroe's pugilistic abilities were nurtured and trained. In this club the shy little light of James J. Corbett was fanned and tended un-til it burst forth in all the brilliance of a fistic star of the first magnitude. There, also, Young Corbett was taught. There Al Neil was taught to put up his hands in the approved way; Dal hawkins' fists were educated to the point of nicety, and Jimmy Britt was hammered until he could take his med. hammered until he could take his medicine without squirming, and turn the squirming part of the performance over to the other fellow. In 'Frisco there is no surprise when a graduate of the strenuous Olympic suddenly aspires to championship honors. Such aspirations seem to be taken as a matter of course. The utterances of the great chiefs at the Olympic are oracular; so, when they declare that Munroe's confidence in his ability to wrest the championship from its present custodian is not unfounded, that setties it so far as the Olympic and ways of it, so far as the Olympic's army of friends is concerned. Jim Corbett, af-ter he had passed his hard and pitiless exacting novitiate at the club, be its boxing instructor, and coule any of the members down on the war until the watch had ticked ten. Green's star was another brilliant one, and Dal

Hawkins, after his graduation from the Olympic, captured the lightweight championship of the west and came here to add to his laurels, defeating many star performers. The record of this famous San Francisco club is probably unparalleled in the United States, and bids fair to remain so, as the instructors there bend all their energies to the production of a finished product when they recognize in a novice the spark of pugilistic genius.

Kenneth was registered to sail three days later, and the intervening time he spent in an examination of the city recerds, hoping to find the record of Allan Kavanagh's marriage, but the search was useless. He arrived in London on a rainy day in June. His last letter from Queen Bess, received just before he left New York, had told him that she would be in that city on a certain date, on her way to Scotland, and had mentioned the hotel where Dr. Ashton had said they would be while there. Contrary to his first intention, not to seek her until he had seen Miss Kavanagh, he concluded to seek an interview with her and learn SEVENTH TEAM VICTORS. The best game that the Seventh Regiment team has yet played was played at Watford last night, when the local team defeated Watford's sturdy little aggregation by a score of 11 to 7. #### THE RING. STAYED FOUR ROUNDS.

Anaconda, Mont., Jan. 7 .- Jack Sullivan, a local boxer, last night stayed four rounds before Jack Munroe, the man who did the same thing with Jef-fries. Sullivan is much the lighter man and has never been in a finish fight. Munroe did all the aggressive work, chasing Sullivan around the ring, when they were not clinched. Sullivan is clever. He gave very little punishment, but managed to avoid most of what was intended for him.

THE OIL STRATUM on this property lies only from 300 to 450 feet below the surface, thus making the expense of drilling wells very much less than in the deep fields of Texas and California. The oil itself is an exceptionally high grade illuminating oil, for which there is always a demand far in excess of the supply.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY is now purchasing this oil at $1 93 per barrel at the well, having immediately upon the discovery constructed a pipe line to the field and extensive storage facilities at the railroad. The Independent Refinery of Petrolea is also now making connections from the Michigan Central Railroad tracks to the field, in order to secure a share of the output, for which it offers $2 per barrel. The Dominion Oil Company, Limited, therefore has a CASH MARKET IM-MEDIATELY AT HAND FOR ITS ENTIRE PRODUCTION, and NO TRANSPORTATION CHARGES to interfere with its distribution.

THE SHREWD INVESTOR will instantly note the wide contrast between a property like this, with cash customers eager to absorb every barrel of the output at a high price, as against the Beaumont Fuel Oil, at 5 cents, and the Kern River product, at 20 cents a barrel, with almost prohibitive freight rates.
