Carlisle

On Friday afternoon at one o'clock the neighbors and friends of James and Mrs. McCartney, upon invitation gathered at their home, "Mount Pleasant Farm," it being their first anniversary in their new home of "threshing and Harvest Home."

Mr. Norman Walker, proprietor of the threshing machine, acted as general superintendent. Mr. Cramer Zimmerman in an efficient manner acted as manager of the separator, while Mr. Stanley Gregson manipulated the water wagon. The guests according to their various abilities, were stationed in the different departments. George Chapman, a returned soldier, was honored by being head officer in the granary department, and was ably assisted by Roy McCartney, son of the host and hostess. In the straw department the host, assisted by Chas. Newell, Carlisle's post-laureate, built a stack that compare favorably with any other in the country. It was claimed by all present that it was much like a cistern, for the rain could easily get into it but would be impossible for it to get out.

Sir Wilfred Coverdale, who was nursing a baby boil on his wrist, was stationed at the helm and ably manipulated the blower. The mow department had as its superintendent, Chas. A. Prudham, and was ably manned by Clark Pegg, Frank Slow-up, Lloyd Fueter and Master Chas. Rolph.

About 6.30 the guests were ushered to the house by Chas. Rolph, who is a man generally noted for having a special capacity for eating pumpkin pie. The host and hostess threw the door wide open to the guests. The first social event of the evening was the gathering around a large tub and with heads bowed the guests washed off the dust that had gathered on their faces while indulging in the afternoon sports. The company then sat down to a sumptuous repast. After ample justice had been done to the inner man, Mr. Norman Walker acted as toastmaster, and a program of speeches was enjoyed by all.

It was regretted that three of the guests had to leave early, they having to attend an ensilage feed, or as some call it a corn roast, at John Harper's, of Harper's Corners. Roy Gladys, in excusing himself from the "At Home" said that he must go as he was to tramp corn at the ensilage feed and Lloyd Fueter was to handle the distributor while Stanley Gregson, who is a separator man, was to relax and slacken belts as the occasion required.

After singing Auld Lang Syne led by Cramer Zimmerman, the guests departed to their several homes.

Mrs. Miles Markle, Sr. Waterdown Creek Stocked with Trout

Following a lengthy illness Mrs. Miles Markle, Sr., passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Burns, 453 Charlton Ave. West, Hamilton, on Monday, September 27th.

To her many friends and relatives it will come as a great shock as although she had been a sufferer for a number of years, the end came very suddenly. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband, four daughters, Mrs. John Crahan of Edmonton, Alta., Mrs. Fred Thomas, Waterdown, Mrs. Stanley Burns, Hamilton and Mrs. Elmer King, Waterdown, also three brothers, Edward Cummins, Millgrove, Geo. Cummins of Chatham, Amos Cummins, Dundas, and one sister, Mrs. Tolbert Carey of Hamilton.

The late Mrs. Markle was born at Millgrove, July 1st, 1865, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shipman Cummins, Sr. She lived all her life at Millgrove where she was highly respected and will be remembered by all as a kind and loving parent and faithful friend.

The funeral took place from her late residence, Millgrove, on Wednesday last to Millgrove cemetery. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The pallbearers were Cameron Begg, Kenneth, Roland, William, George and Shipman Cummins.

Last week 3000 trout from the Government fish hatcheries were placed in the Waterdown creek. Sometime ago Mr. J. F. Vance proposed the stocking of the creek with brook trout, and when the matter was brought to the attention of the Hon. F. C. Biggs, Minister of Fisheries, he heartily agreed with the plan and made arrangements for sending the fish to Waterdown. Last week the little beauties arrived in town and were placed in the creek by one of the fishery attendants who was sent along for that purpose. The fish will be protected for the next two years from molestation. Signs to that effect will soon be posted along the stream.

Ira N. Binkley

Ira N. Binkley, clerk of the Township of West Flamboro, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Percy Morden, Carlisle, on Tuesday morning last. Mr. Binkley had been staying with his daughter during the absence of his wife, who was called to Winnipeg on account of the death of her son's wife. Mr. Binkley was in the village last Monday afternoon and while here called at the Review office and appeared to be in good health.

The late Mr. Binkley was born in West Flamboro township 70 years ago where he followed farming until 33 years ago, when he was appointed Township clerk, in which position he served faithfully until last August when he resigned on account of failing health.

Besides his wife, he leaves four sons, George of Winnipeg, William, Arthur and Aley of Greensville, and one daughter, Mrs. Percy Morden of Carlisle.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, Greensville, on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock to Glenwood Church cemetery, of which church Mr. Binkley has been a life-long member and valued official.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER, 1920

SAVED THE PARTRIDGE.

Three-Year Closed Season Had Good Results.

Trout fishermen from all parts of the province of Ontario bring glad tidings to gun sportsmen and nature lovers at large.

And that is that the drum of the partridge is once more heard in the land.

Since 1918 there has been a close season on partridge, which ends on November 5 of this year. This close season seems to have had the desired result. For years the unlimited slaughter of Ontario's finest game bird went on unchecked. Then sportsmen took alarm. The partridge, which used to be frequently found in wood lots on farms not an hour's run from Toronto, suddenly disappeared. Even to the desolate stretches of the Georgian Bay and in Muskoka it became a rare bird. His muffled drumming no longer thrilled the early trout fishermen with visions of the autumn hunt.

Three years' close season, in which the killing of any partridge was forbidden and three ideal springs during the resting period have done wonders to repopulate scores of counties with the disappearing bird.

And—more credit still to the department—there is a strictly limited "bag." Only five partridge may be killed on any one day. Only five may be found in a man's possession at any one time. And only ten partridge may be killed by one man in any one season!

If that isn't giving the partridge a chance and at the same time giving all but a game-hog a reasonable amount of sport, what is?

The United States sportsmen are very much worried this year over the game bird and animal situation. Cheap licenses and unlimited bags and long open seasons are blamed for the destruction of game in many parts of the States. William T. Hornaday, director of the New York Zoological Park, had a full page article in the Sunday Tribune recently entitled "Thoughtless American Hunters Are Killing Their Own Sport." He advocates far larger non-resident license fees, much shorter open seasons, and a severely restricted limit to the number of all kinds of game that may be killed.

In some respects Ontario has to co-operate with the States in regard to some kinds of game, such as ducks and geese. If the United States permits the limitless killing of wild ducks there is no use restricting Canadian gunners, as ducks are migratory, and our preserving of them would merely enlarge the United States bags. Ducks may now be shot in Ontario from September 1 to December 15, and the limit of one man is 200 in a season. Sale of any game bird is now prohibited, and that will save some ducks.

In regard to deer, the situation seems good. Mr. D. McDonald, Deputy Minister of Game and Fisheries, says that deer are abundant through the forested parts of the province and especially in the country north and west of Lake Superior. The short season and limit of one deer per hunter has helped increase their number.

There are now three different seasons and three separate zones for deer-hunting in Ontario. South of the line of the French River, Lake Nipissing and Mattawa river, the season is from November 5 to November 20, a period of 15 days. North of that line to the Canadian National Railway, the former G.T.P., the season is from October 25 to November 20, a period of 27 days. North of the Canadian National (G.T.P.), from October 1 to November 30, a period of two months. Thus the Canadian sportsman has plenty of time to select his hunting trip.

Music in Schools.

From recent developments in Western Canadian educational circles, it would appear that the bonds of red tape will soon be cast aside. Saskatchewan provides that music shall be an optional study in the High Schools of that province. This provision states also that credit will be given for a musical education received elsewhere. The candidate presenting official evidence of having obtained a certificate in piano or theory may be exempted from examination in algebra or agriculture, Latin or Greek. This shows what the world is coming to. Imagine music being accepted in place of algebra as part of the training necessary for a second-class certificate in the old days!

For Sea-going Craft.

For sea-going craft a window has been invented containing a disk of glass which is revolved by an electric motor, throwing off rain or spray that falls on it and affording clear vision at all times.

Time Lost in Disputes.

The time lost on account of industrial disputes in Canada during April was much greater than during either March, 1919, or April, 1918. There were in existence during the month 37 strikes, involving 12,415 workpeople and resulting in a time loss of 111,083. Twenty-seven strikes were reported as having commenced during April. At the end of the month 14 strikes affecting approximately 1812 workpeople remained untruncated.

Romance In History.

It was in June, 1671, that the French took over the northern portion of the Province of Ontario. Most Canadians are still interested in the exploits of the coureur des bois, and in the adventures of Perrot, the most picturesque figure in the ceremony of June, 1671, when the Deputy Governor, "In the name of the High High, Most Powerful, and Most Reddoubtable Monarch, Louis XIV. of name, most Christian King of France and Navarre," took possession of "Ste. Marie du Sault, as also Lakes Huron and Superior, the Island of Manitoulin, and of all the lands, rivers, lakes, and streams contiguous to and adjacent here as well discovered or to be discovered which are bounded on the one side by the seas of the north and on the other side by the seas of the south—in its whole length and breadth."

The Most High, Most Powerful, and Most Redoubtable Louis and his successors held the lands about the lakes for less than a century after their annexation, but among the men who carried the badge of Canada on the fields of France these last five years were hundreds who could have traced their descent directly from the hawk-eyed coureurs des bois who stood about Perrot on the day when a great province was added to New France.
