Rinder Wins Out With Alibi And Jas. McGlade Likewise Derives the Benefit of It

Magistrate However gives the Pair Five Months Imprisonment on a Charge of Begging; Tells Rinder he Alone Knows If he is Guilty

Magistrate Campbell today decided to give the benefit of the doubt to Rinder, who was accused of holding up Tony Concordia on the night of Dec. 5th of Carleton street and taking him of $66 at the point of a gun. James McGlade who was supposed to be with Rinder and by the way both men were identified by the witness—also got off.

On the charge of vagrancy and begging, however, the Magistrate sent them both to jail for five months. The Magistrate summed up the case at some length.

The evidence was that the robbery was committed at 10.15 on the night of Dec. 5th. Rinder had produced an alibi to prove an alibi to the effect that he was at the Hydro carling house at Stamford—a walk ten or fifteen minutes from Stamford street, the nearest place where he could catch a car for St. Catharines. Men at the boarding house said he was at the boarding house towards nine o'clock. Assuming the men were on time that night it would be reasonable to expect that Rinder would have time to leave the boarding house, catch the car, get to the Hydro and get back by midnight. It would mean quick work, however, it would allow of any time being lost.

Rinder would have to catch the car back to Stamford. McGlade said he went that night to Pyburn, the soldier under arrest at St. Paul street boarding house. The Magistrate said he was quite sure that the men at the boarding house at the Hydro had established the proper night as it was the holiday of one man and Rinder had tried to sell him a neck scarf.

There was no particular reason why Rinder would want to get right back to Stamford unless he had in mind the establishment of an alibi. There was the changing of hats. It seemed a strong point against Rinder.

"Rinder knows whether he is guilty or not, I guess I do not," said the Magistrate. "I believe a jury would find him. In this case the identification of McGlade, also falls to the ground so he, too, is acquitted."

The Magistrate said there was the charge against them, that of begging and vagrancy—the sentence that case would be five months in jail.

Advance Plans For Congress

Twelve Municipalities in the Niagara District Invited to Meeting in Welland to Further Organize For Big Mid-Summer Feature.

A call has been sent out by the secretary for a meeting of municipal Board of Trade representatives to be held at the City Hall, Welland, Friday, Jan. 23rd, at 2.30 o'clock, for the furtherance of plans for the Industrial Conference to be held this year by the municipalities of the Niagara and Power zone.

At the initial meeting, held in December, the scheme was warmly approved. Indeed the plan has great possibilities as a publicity medium.

The following municipalities have been invited to participate by sending two representatives from the municipal council, and, where there is a Board of Trade, also two representatives from that body, Niagara Falls, St. Catharines, Welland, Thorntons, Merriton, Stamford, Crowland, Hamilton Township, Fort Erie, Briceburg, Port Dalhousie and Port Colborne.

It is expected that Friday's meeting will set positively in motion the plans for the big Conference.

Girls Give Up Blood to Save Patient

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—There are men in New York—strong healthy citizens who make an easy living at selling their blood. The trade has been developing rapidly as the blood transfusion process to save the lives of anemic patients has come more and more into vogue.

BOOSTED PRICE OF BLOOD

Until a fortnight ago they had been willing to go on the operating table, allow their arteries to be tapped and the blood passed into the bodies of their customers at $25 a pint. Then the "blood-donors" as they are known, made a demand for $35 a pint straight. Yesterday they raised the price to $40 for half a pint, and $10 for each additional 100 cubic centimeters, which brought the cost of a pint up to approximately $65.

HELD UP HOSPITAL

Flower Hospital, owing to increasing costs has been curtailing its free work in various ways lately, but in a life-and-death matter of this sort it faced the necessity of yielding, until Miss Lillian Olga Jedlicka, one of the student nurses heard of the new demand.

GIRL STUDENTS ROUSED

She called a conference of the other students yesterday morning and choosing from among them the healthiest and most robust girls, she went with them to House Surgeon Marion Bingham and announced that they constituted a corps of real blood donors.

SAVE THEIR BLOOD FREE

Several patients were awaiting transfusion operations at the time, and five of the girls went on the operating table at once and gave a quart of blood gratis. Two hours later all five nurses were attending a lecture.

Falls Dry Now; Cider Gone, Too

Power Development Continues, However—Women Inspectors Help Keep Tabs on Visitors From Ontario Way

NIAGARA FALLS, Jan. 19.—Old Hard Cider, given the coup de grace some time ago, when the eighteenth amendment was found to be bullet proof, was carried from the Falls arena Friday night. There was no question as to the old chap being out. Hasbeens have come back, but Old Hard Cider is believed to have a slim chance of recuperation. The ten seconds were tolled with long intervals between counts. Every opportunity was given for the come-back in the ring. It was no use. He's not only gone but some to the races.

Among the places that held out to the bitter end with sweet cider and some with the tiniest of kicks in it, there was a decided clearance of wet goods and "the city was dry" by midnight.

Customs and other federal officers were on the qui vive at the bridges to bar the advance of liquor from Canada. Women inspectors were on guard for a personal search was directed where there was reason to suspect an immigrant being unduly and illegally armed with contraband.

Franchise of Lake St. Switch Is Expiring

Question of N. S. & T. Privileges on Certain City Streets Becomes of Immediate Interest and Will Be Problem For New Council.

The franchise of the N. S. and T. Ry. for the operation of its switch along Lake St. to Simcoe Canning Factory expires this month and later in the year it is thought that other local franchises also run out. With the expiry of these rights the company, if the corporation of St. Catharines wished to take an antagonistic position, could not operate except at the will of the municipality. At least this would be the circumstance if the road were still a privately owned and operated line, but in as much as it is now operated as a part of the National system of railways under the authority of the Dominion Department of Railways and Canals, it is possible that the Dominion Government could exercise a power of operation which would not be possible for a private concern.

Important Industry Concerned.

It is quite obvious, of course, that the new Council will be morally obliged to make some satisfactory arrangement so that an important industry of this city would not be placed in jeopardy so far as transportation for its freight is concerned.

It is expected that there would have been large expenditures of money in this city during the next two or three years by the N. S. and T. in railway improvements and extensions, but unless the new Council pursues a more constructive policy than that of last year little or nothing will be done.

It is also worthy of note that the vacant lands, on the right hand side of St. Paul street crossing over to the St. Paul street high level bridge, continue to lie waste and no taxes or other revenue is coming into the treasury therefrom except the rental from the small plot which was leased for a gasoline station. If this year goes by and nothing is done with the property the city will be out the $3,000 which it could have secured as a rental from the N. S. and T. Ry. for a new terminal station. In view of the financial problems which face the aldermanic board this year the receipt of this sum would have helped to pay some of the increased wages and other expenses that will apparently have to be met.

Loss of Revenue.

There have already been four years allowed to pass without getting revenue out of the lands that the public were led to believe in 1913 and 1915 would bring thousands of dollars back to the city in salvage. At $3000 a year rental for four years the income to the city would have been $12,000. It is to be hoped, however, that four more years do not roll around before some disposition will be made of the lands that will reimburse the municipality for the outlays it made in buying the right of way for the new bridge.

WORLD'S JEWISH POPULATION NUMBERS 15,000,000

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The Jewish population of the world is 15,430,000 according to David Trietsch, the well known Jewish statistician. Poland and the Ukraine each have 3,200,000 while there are 3,100,000 in the United States; 900,000 in Russia and 300,000 in the British Isles.

Magistrate Did Not Care To Accept So Much Responsibility in Case

Daniel Pyburn, the one legged soldier who was caught trying to break into Bradley's grocery, appeared in police court today to have his case finally disposed of.

The Magistrate said he had written about him to the Militia Dept. and the Department had asked that Pyburn be sent back to the Newmarket Institution where they had had him under observation, but the Dept. put the full responsibility on the Magistrate for Pyburn's future.

"That is too much of a responsibility to place on me," said the Magistrate, "and I cannot accept it. Your record has not been such as to warrant it. I cannot see anything for me to do but put the responsibility on the government by sending you to Kingston Penitentiary. The sentence will be two years. Had your record been such as to justify me in placing confidence in you as to your conduct, I might act differently."

VINCENT GRIFFIN IS FOUND GUILTY ON THREE CHARGES AND MAY HAVE TO SERVE A YEAR IN PRISON NOW

ARE CURIOUS ABOUT FATE OF PRISONERS

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Thirty thousand Rumanian prisoners in Germany have completely disappeared, according to a telegram from Bucharest to Red Cross headquarters here. The Rumanian Government refuses to accept the German theory that such a large number might be included in those listed as missing. Investigation of the matter, begun some time ago, is continuing, according to the telegram.

No Mention of Book at Meet

NOTHING EXCEPTIONAL TRANSPIRES WHEN FORT ERIE PUBLIC LIBRARY DIRECTORS MEET—THE REV. CANON SMITH IS SPEAKER.

BRIDGEBURG, Jan. 19.—The expected meeting of the Fort Erie public library was held Friday night, which was largely attended, owing to the controversy which has raged Fort Erie in the meantime, but nothing exceptional developed in connection with the book in question.

The book, which has caused so much trouble in Fort Erie is one written by May Sinclair, "Mary Oliver, a Life," and is declared to be immoral. The Rev. Canon Smith of St. Paul's resigned recently, owing to the fact that the board of directors of the library board refused to take the book out of circulation.

At the meeting Friday night, the Rev. Canon Smith did not bring up the mooted question of the book nor did any of the other members of the board.

An important move was arrived at, however, at the meeting Friday night. It was decided to make Fort Erie library a free library and to eliminate the circulation method that is in existence at present. The Fort Erie library will be under the jurisdiction of the town council and the board of school trustees. The two latter bodies will have complete jurisdiction over all books in circulation, and the present library board will be eliminated.

Over 450 Cases of Booze Have Arrived in Fort Erie, Reports From There State

Express Offices in the Border Town Have About All the Work They Want Toting the Booze Around.

The Bridgeburg Review says: Of the 450 cases, 5,400 quarts, or 108,000 ounces of whisky, which have reached the express offices at Bridgeburg since January 1st—when the ban on shipments of liquor was lifted automatically with the death of the war measures act of the Dominion parliament—more than 400 cases 4,800 quarts, 96,000 ounces has been consigned to Fort Erie. Some cellars are filled to the rafters.

Real estate men are busy. For probably the first time in history there isn't an empty house in the village in the middle of winter. It heretofore has been a summer resort only.

"Of course," said Billy Hunt of the estaminet last night, "the rush at the shipyard this winter makes it busier here."

The estaminet, by the way, has a stock of all kinds of prohibition wines, but nothing else. Two government officers are willing to testify as to that. An official communique

Golfer Plays Game In London Streets

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—So far as recorded no golfer has ever tried to drive a ball through the streets of New York. This feat, however, has been attempted in London, on a particularly damp and dreary morning.

The player drove off at Piccadilly Circus, went via Lower Regent street, Pall Mall, the lower side of Trafalgar Square, the Strand, Fleet street, Ludgate Hill, round to Queen Victoria street, "holing out" at The Lamp at the Royal Exchange. No damage was done, the few policemen about smiled good humoredly, and the golfer won his wager.

TRY OBTAIN WORLD'S GOLD "Wild-eyed Reds" Then Will Destroy It—Perhaps.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Russians who put their trust in the wild-eyed Reds, who they thought would prove their saviors, are now lamenting their impulsive action. Now instead of being comrades of the rulers, they are the victims of "anatics who rule them with an iron hand, bound about by weird doctrines, according to F. J. McGuire, of New York who recently returned from Russia, where he toured on behalf of American banking interests.

"The Reds are having a hard time vainly trying to put their fanatic doctrines into practice. Not only are the Lenin and Trotsky gang trying to force their theories on Russia, but they are also trying to grip the rest of the world into the coils of Bolshevism," he said.

"All newspapers now being under the control of the Bolsheviks, no news except that favorable to the cause of the Reds can now be printed. "One of the fanatic schemes for Bolshevizing the world is the destruction of all gold. The perverted minds of the Bolsheviks think that with the destruction of gold, will come the collapse of the capitalist system, the downfall of the bourgeoisie and the rule of the workers."

"But I notice that the Bolshevik leaders are trying to get hold of all the gold in sight," said Mr. McGuire, "though I didn't know until they told me that they aimed to destroy it!"

Vincent Griffin was charged in police court with perjury in connection with the James J. Battsby inquest. He was given a year in prison on three convictions.

He pleaded guilty to two charges against the Ontario Temperance Act in that he drank and had liquor illegally.

The perjury charge consisted in the fact that Griffin claimed at the inquest that he had not gone to the rooms of three men, Charles McKeen, William Fairhurst and Manager McCarron, at seven o'clock in the morning and told them that he had found Battsby dead in the Griffin Opera House.

Chief Greene stated that Griffin had given evidence at the inquest that he had not gone to the men's rooms until about nine o'clock. The three men had testified that Griffin had come to their rooms at seven.

Terence McCarron questioned the Chief as to Griffin's condition while testifying at the inquest and he said he thought the man was under the influence of liquor at the time.

Manager McCarron of the Griffin Opera House, stated that Griffin came to the room he and Fairhurst occupied about seven on the morning Battsby was found and telling them Battsby was dead. Griffin looked at McCarron's watch lying on the dresser and remarked that it was ten minutes after seven.

To Mr. McCarron, Manager McCarron stated that for some time previous to the Battsby incident, Griffin had been drinking and he himself had had considerable difficulty in keeping him on the job.

"That morning Griffin was so drunk that I didn't pay any attention to him," said the theatre manager.

"On the night of the inquest, McCarron said Griffin appeared to be drunk. He rambled considerably in giving his evidence.

"Do you say he was drunk he didn't understand the questions I put to him?" queried Crown Attorney Brennan.

The witness still felt sure Griffin had not been quite rational.

Fairhurst corroborated McCarron's evidence regarding Griffin coming to the room and saying that Battsby was dead and Charles McKeen told a similar story.

The Magistrate found Griffin guilty on the perjury charge and sent him to prison for six months.

He was fined $200 on the two liquor charges, $400 in all and if he doesn't pay the $400 at the end of the sixth month he will have to serve the full year.

AFTERBIRTH RETAINED
The Cause and Cure of a Not Uncommon Trouble.
Cows of All Ages Are Sometimes
Affected—Remedies Suggested
Where Veterinaries Cannot Be
Had—Grape Pruning For the Garden.
(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

RETENTION OF the afterbirth, foetal membranes or placenta, commonly called "the cleanings," is not uncommon in cows. Its cause is more frequently met with in cows in low condition
and unsanitary surroundings, no care, food, attention or surroundings act as preventives. It is noticed in cows of all ages, all breeds, cows in all conditions and at all seasons. We cannot understand why it occurs, or why it cannot be prevented, but experience teaches us that such is the fact. Good care, comfortable surroundings, avoidance of cold and dampness, especially in cold weather
and giving a warm mash for a day or two after calving tend to aid expulsion of the membranes, but even all precautions frequently fail. The administration of medicines is of little effect. In ordinary cases the membranes are expelled shortly or in a few hours after parturition, while in other cases they are retained for 24 hours or longer and then spontaneously expelled. In other cases spontaneous expulsion does not take place until after decomposition, when they are expelled in pus and small pieces.
The symptoms are usually evident
by the protrusion through the vulva of a portion of the membranes, but in rare cases this symptom is not present, the membranes being wholly contained within the uterus. In such cases, provided the cow has been tended it is hard to know whether they are retained or have been eaten by the cow. Cows have the objectionable habit of eating the afterbirth.
We cannot account for this taste, and when possible it should be prevented.
In some cases the consumption of the membranes does not appear to affect the health or general condition of the animal. In others it causes trouble, and in some cases death from various conditions.
Treatment.—When the membranes have been retained for 24 hours or over in warm weather or for forty-eight hours in cold weather they should be carefully removed by hand.
Where a veterinarian can readily be procured it is probably wise for the ordinary stock owner to employ him, but a stockman who understands the anatomy of the parts, and is not afraid of a dirty and sometimes tedious job can operate himself. The lining membrane of the womb is covered with many little lumps (called cotyledons) which are attached by constricted necks, with surfaces varying from one inch or less to three or four inches in diameter, to which the membranes are attached. The operator should have an antiseptic lotion as a 2 per cent. solution of one of the coal tar antiseptics in warm water. A gallon of two of this should be injected into the womb. The operator then disinfests his hand and arm with the same, introduces the hand into the womb and carefully separates the membrane from each cotyledon, being careful not to tear off any of them. If a few are removed the consequences are not likely to be serious, but it is better to remove none.
When the whole has been removed a little more of the antiseptic should be injected into the womb. It is good practice to give the cow 40 to 50 drops of carbolic acid in a part of cold water as a drench, or syringed
into her food three times daily
until all discharge ceases.—J. H. R., O. A. College, Guelph.

Grape Pruning For the Garden.
The average neglected grapevine is generally such a tangled mass that it is very difficult to describe how to prune it. The owner should determine what sort of a trellis he means to fasten his vine on. If there are a number of vines in a row the general practice is to grow it on two wires, these to be drawn tight on posts about 16 feet apart, first wire
three feet and second wire five feet from the ground. If only one or two vines are in a place it can be grown on a trellis made of two narrow strips of board nailed to posts.
One thing never to be overlooked is all fruit is produced on last year's wood. Most neglected vines have too much old wood. Try to get one or two upright canes of two-year-old wood or older with four arms or younger canes equally distributed on the two wires. These arms should not be over six feet long, giving four arms of this length. This is sufficient bearing wood for any vine. Suppose the upright part is satisfactory and there are four arms on it, from these arms laterals or side shoots will grow, on which the fruit is produced. A vine should be pruned after it freezes before winter and before it thaws in the spring. Pruning in mild weather causes bleeding from the cuts. The laterals that bore fruit should be cut back, only leaving one bud to sprout the following season and the fruit will grow on that sprout. It is quite easy occasionally renew one or more arms by training a young branch to take the older one's place. When that is done cut off the old branch. With a little practice pruning is easy, the common fault being to leave too much wood.
If in doubt as to the above method of pruning, write for Illustrated Bulletin 237, "The Grape in Ontario."

Scarcity of Feeder Cattle.
With the growing scarcity of feeder cattle and the advance in value
of farm lands, the baby-beef industry is of increasing importance and is receiving the attention of farmers in all live stock sections of the country.
Frank Fitch, a prominent farmer
of Oriel, dropped dead in a feed stable in Woodstock Saturday after driving into the city.

FRIENDLY ENEMIES
Millions of people have already seen
"Friendly Enemies," the international comedy success which A. H. Woods will present at the Grand to-night,
and millions more will see it before the phenomenal run of the piece is brought to a close. It is safe to assume that when the history of "Friendly Enemies" is written, it will be found that more than three-fourths of the present generation of English-speaking playgoers have seen the piece. Not only does "Friendly Enemies" embody the timeliest problem of today, but it presents that problem in so moving and dramatic a story, with so deft a mixture of humor and pathos, of jest and gravity, of fun and seriousness, that it has proved irresistible. It has appealed to men and women and children of all classes and conditions, not only in the United States but in "Grand and Australia. In these three countries its success has been equally sensational and equally unprecedented.
Its story is too familiar to theatregoers to need repetition. Briefly, it concerns the clash of two lovable,
human and eccentric German Americans who are the greatest friends in

BACKACHE, LUMBAGO, RHEUMATISM, STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES, ACNE, SKIN DISEASES, CATARRH, ASTHMA, RECTAL TROUBLES, PILES, FISTULA AND BLOOD CONDITIONS.
The knowledge gained from many years' experience in treating diseases just like yours is of much value to you and assures the ailing man of prompt relief. When a man knows that he is again feeling well—he is rid of his ailment—he feels that a heavy load has been lifted from his shoulders, I give everyone the benefit of the knowledge acquired through the long experience of a graduated, licensed and registered specialist, in order to bring about the most satisfactory results in the shortest possible time.

NERVE EXHAUSTION
A CONDITION AFFECTING MANY MEN—THE GREAT AM-ERICAN DISEASE—IT IS BROUGHT ON BY OUR MAN-NER OF LIVING—OUR WORRY AND HURRY—AMERI-CANS EXHAUST MORE NERVOUS ENERGY THAN ANY OTHER RACE OF PEOPLE.
There are a great many men who need treatment for their nervous system. These men do not know what is the reason they don't feel right—why they can't work like they used to—why they tired so easily and why they are irritable, nervous, despondent, weak, pale and lack ambition. These conditions require the expert knowledge and treatment of a specialist who has had many years' experience in just such ailments. A specialist learns by experience to know just the right treatment at the right time so that the patient can be dismissed at the earliest possible time. Man affected with nervous exhaustion have no endurance—no ambition —everything they attempt is an effort. Life to them appears as a long, gloomy future. Their appetite is poor and variable—they become irritable, cross and discouraged. They have pains and aches in various parts of the body and there is often indigestion, and pains in the stomach. Sleepless, wakeful and restless nights follow.

RHEUMATIC AILMENTS
SCIATICA AND OTHER FORMS OF RHEUMATISM, LUMBA-GO, PAINS IN BACK, SWELLING, ACHING, PAINFUL
CONDITIONS IN ANY PART OF THE BODY—INFLAMED AND SWOLLEN JOINTS OF LEGS AND ARMS—MANY OTHER SYMPTOMS.
Hundreds of men are suffering with some form of Rheumatism. Many of these men go from day to day suffering untold agonies thinking they cannot be cured. They have tried liniments, rubbing, massage, salts and other treatments without experiencing any relief, and they are now going through life thinking they are martyrs to that burden called Rheumatism. If these men could only know how easy it is to get rid of many rheumatic conditions
I know they would suffer another single day. Then all sufferers of rheumatism would be strong and healthy if they could get rid of the condition. Rheumatic patients are nearly all strong and robust before being attacked by this ailment, and therefore it is so hard for the man to understand why he should suffer the agonies of such a condition. When a man gets rid of such a condition he feels that a heavy burden has been lifted from his life, and he starts right out to make up for lost time both in money and pleasure. When a man comes to my office suffering with the above condition he is given a most careful examination, and he is given treatment that he feels is giving him great benefit.

WOMEN WHO HARMED FRIEND

Bessie Barriscale, who will be seen on the screen of the Grand Thursday, Friday and Saturday in "Beckoning Roads," in this film has the part of a woman who forces her own happiness from the fingers of an unwilling fate. The locales of this Robertson-Cole picture are the Canadian Northwest, the City of St. Louis and New York City.

"Beckoning Roads," which is a Barriscale production, opens with Marquita Shay (Miss Barriscale) as a child, showing how she lived during her entire early life amid the loneliness of a vast Canadian ranch, the ward of her kind guardian, John Grayson. Grayson is busy, and has little time to give to the girl, and she gets most of her education from Cecil Barrington, a young Englishman.

Takes Her Revenge.

After a time Grayson sells his ranch, desiring to take Marquita to the United States and place her in school. Unfortunately he sells to a swindler who induces him, after he and Marquita have moved to St. Louis, to invest in worthless stocks. Grayson kills himself, a broken man. Marquita, who has wedded the "son of the swindler," leaves him and goes to New York.

There she meets the very man who was responsible for the financial ruin and death of her guardian. She sets a trap for him. Becoming his confidential clerk she engineers a stock manipulation which ruins the criminal who had ruined her former guardian. Then she is reunited with her husband, who is a worthy young man who had never entered into the "crooked" work of his father.

Keep Uric Acid Out of Joints

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat; but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

U. S. Gives Such Reasons For Withdrawal From Siberia.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The U. S. is deciding to withdraw its troops from Siberia, where it has participated in guarding the districts under allied control, did so because of present conditions there, which make it impracticable to send reinforcements and for the added reason that the purpose for which the troops were sent into Russia has been accomplished, the State Department has informed the Japanese Government. A note replying to a recent communication on the subject from Tokio was made public last night.

After setting forth its reasons for adopting the course announced the American reply expressed the belief that to maintain the status quo might involve the Government of the U. S. in an undertaking of such indefinite character as to be inadvisable.

Religion Is Patriotism

It is the Root of Personal Righteousness, the Mainstay of Social Order, the Bulwark of International Peace

The Makers of Canada

The earliest settlers in Canada were roused by the Call of the Church to develop a noble and useful citizenship. Young and old were invited to turn their eyes from material things, and to regard the splendor of unseen realities. Knowing that Religion is the only true safeguard of stability in the State, they built Churches, Schools and Colleges, to train men for the Christian Ministry, and to spread abroad in the land the benefits of education. This they did in their poverty, and thus directed the course of history in Canada to this day.

The Testing of Canada

Because of such sacrifices, there arose in Canada a public spirit hostile towards all injustice, dishonesty and cruelty. The War tested the moral fibre of the Canadians of a later day. Would they choose material ease and wealth, or would they risk all in defence of freedom and the rights of the weak?

Over 400,000 men voluntarily offered their lives, and endured hardship as good soldiers for the defence of equity and fair dealing in all human relationships, and for the vindication of public right. Nor were the people at home less steadfast. Besides bearing the national cost of the War, they gave voluntarily for the help of the soldiers more than $90,000,000. Canada nobly stood the great trial.

The Menace of To-day

That conflict is ended. Now comes another test. Not only in Canada, but all over the world, sectional and class struggles for material rewards and for mastery threaten the present basis of Society. The vision of spiritual values gained in the War is in peril of being forgotten. The supremacy of sacrifice, the nobility of service, the reality and glory of the Unseen and Eternal, the promises of Christ; these were the things by which we lived during the War. Now there is great danger that they may fade from view, giving place to selfishness and the love of ease.

The great non-Christian peoples of the world comprise two-thirds of the human race. They are mastering our modern scientific knowledge, and if they remain Pagan may yet turn it to our destruction. Paganism stands for the supremacy of Might, the very ideal we fought and conquered in more than four years of war.

Victory only through Christ

How can we retain the heavenly vision? How can the world be guarded against another attempt to establish the Pagan ideal? Only through the Church of Jesus Christ. There is no other agency or society that has any possibility or hope of bringing about a full realization of the brotherhood of all mankind, and the reign of the Prince of Peace.

What the Church Has Done

All the progress of humanity in Civilization for the last 2000 years has been inspired, directly or indirectly, by the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It has ended slavery, protected life, ennobled women, educated the children and safeguarded their lives, sanctified the home, established schools, missions and charities.

The World's Need is Spiritual

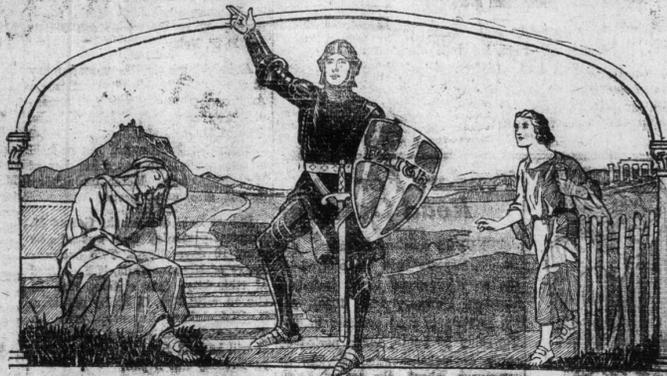

I speak as one standing upon the watch-tower, and know what the need of the land is. It is not material, it is spiritual. Get the spiritual, and the material will follow. The wounds of the world are bleeding, and material things will never heal them. And that is why I hail any movement which brings the great spirit of brotherhood. The one need of England and France today is the healing and the brotherhood of the Cross of Christ.

—Rt. Hon. David Lloyd-George, Before the Brotherhood Convention, London, September, 1919.

The Coming Era

Victory places upon the shoulders of the Allied Nations the responsibility for directing new conditions to right ends. Canada must do her share.

The Church must prepare to meet the needs of the new day. Old standards of life with old habits of thinking and of giving will be wholly inadequate. We must do in our day what our fathers did in theirs. The hope of the world is bound up with the strengthening and extension of the Church of Jesus Christ.

Fight the Good Fight

The Forward Movements

FIVE Christian Communions, Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, and Presbyterian, are convinced that the time has come to rouse all Christians to a clearer understanding of their calling and stewardship in Christ, their King. They believe that the Church should be equipped adequately with men and money to enable it to meet the needs and opportunities of the New Day.

These five separate Communions are of one mind as to their belief in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, and in Jesus Christ, His Son, Our Lord. They now declare to their respective constituencies, and also unitedly, to the Canadian people, that the only effective method of EACH of the Communions named is in the midst of a Forward Movement. Each is seeking by prayer and by earnest effort to accept all its responsibilities. Each is striving to extend its activities in Canada and in Foreign Lands.

Your Church needs your help, but, far more, you need the help of your Church to learn the difficult art of living wisely and well.

Consult your Clergyman. He serves you and your children. Ask him how and when you can serve in this day of national emergency. Give yourself to the task. Say: "Here am I, send me."

making good citizens is by urging men to a more faithful practice of Christianity, by inculcating personal faith in Jesus Christ. They insist that there is no other dependable way of correcting evil tendencies in individual and national life. They call the people to repentance. To all Christians their message is, "Awake, Arise. Fight the Good Fight, For Canada and For the World."

D. Wright was the first with resumed military enquiry y afternoon into the 10th Re finances. He gave evidence applying pies to the Welb force in 1915. He supplied direct to Ed Richard Greenw and a monthly arrangement of about $75 to $100; worth to the regiment at about $1000. He couldn't give an approximate total of his account. He must have supplied 1000 pies.

He supplied these pies every day. Greenwood paid me in cash. I can't remember ever getting a pie.

"They must have been a regiment of eaters," observed General Shank.

Frank A. Wilson, grocer, was next. He identified a bill of $100 and butter sold to Greenwood, told him, for which they were paid than the regular ration. Greenwood told him, for which they were paid extra.

In 1914, Wilson supplied 4340 pies for the force at about 12 cents each. Were these pies furnished by Wright was supplying them?" as President.

Did Bradley supply some pies? Yes, I think Bradley's did. Greenwood asked me if we could supply them.

Wilson said he supplied groceries to the force but had no books or anything else. He was speaking from memory.

Wilson and Wilson had a contract to supply with the Government. He had left the Swift Company.

Wilson's contracts were changed by the Government. Wilson admitted under questioning by the President.

Bradley's supplied pies at 12 cents each and you got twelve? Well, they complained that Bradley's pies had nothing in them. They complained that about ours, they were supplying to Colonel Young, who was the firm of Evans and Wilson formed in 1915 to handle pies.

Who supplied you with pies? Simmons.

Have you any idea why Greenwood didn't get direct to Simmons? There seemed to be an objection. Dealers supplying boarding houses and this was looked on as a boarding house?"

Wilson stated that at the beginning of the war each post with quantities, delivering the quantities.

Trades and Labor Will Discuss At Sp

The Trades and Labor Council itself an honor last night at a regular meeting by presenting the President, Frank Greenlaw, P.P., with a beautiful silver watch engraved, as a token of esteem in which he is held in local organized labor movement.
