CHAPTER XIII.
"The Play's The Thing"

DO not think you have kept us waiting. It is very much better late than never in this case.

Her voice, though low and flute-like, was as calm and steady as his; her eyes met his unflinchingly.

And this was all, only two polite, conversation sentences, while the hearts of each throbbled under the strain of the sudden recognition; while each saw not the gay and glittering crowd that filled the handsome room, but a street in the quiet suburbs of San Francisco.

Talk of Spartan heroism, of Roman heroism, they fade and dwindle to insignificance before the very possession and self-restraint of the nineteenth century.

With his white fingers playing with apparent carelessness with the jeweled handle of his sword, stood the man who had suddenly, without a hint of warning, come upon the woman whose face had haunted him, and whom he had longed to see, as only such a man could long, for three weary months; stood carelessly waiting and talking, his heart on fire, his brain reeling with astonishment, delight, curiosity.

And by his side, erect and composed, with her delicate lips curved in a faint, sweet smile, the girl who stood face to face with the detector of a crime—face to face with the man who by a word could ruin her—face to face with one who must either be a passionate lover or a deadly foe! And before her was a task in itself sufficient to try the strongest of the uttermost—a task requiring all the delicate fire of genius, all the calm composure of trained talent.

How could it be possible that she should go through with it with this man—this relentless pursuer watching her every word and look for some sign of weakness?

Realize it; no pen can describe it. "Well," said Gerald, "are you ready?"

Dawson Slade glanced at the whitening face; then put his arm in Gerald's.

"One moment," he said. "It is rather a heavy line for me, old fellow. Is there any champagne?"

"Champagne!" exclaimed Gerald, with eager alacrity. "Of course."

And half a dozen flew to one of the tables.

With a quiet "Thanks," Dawson Slade poured out a glass and turned to Julian.

She shook her head with a smiling negative, but he still held the silver gilt salver before her.

"Take the advice, Miss Woodleigh, of one who has, unfortunately, gone through this sort of thing several times—whereas for you, probably, amateur theatricals are quite a novel experience! One little glass of champagne is of great assistance."

As he speaks, Gerald notices that all the sulky indolence has disappeared from his voice, the dark gray eyes are flashing with unwonted fire; there is scarcely any need for rouge. What has come to the man?

Lilian hesitates a moment, then she takes the glass. Does he know that her throat feels parched and burning, that her heart beats so fast as almost to prevent her speaking? What does it mean? Is he merely playing with his victim, or does he intend to encourage, and, if need be, protect her?

His face, handsome enough at all times, is made like a Titian by the long hair that flows to the broad, shapely shoulders, by the artistic powdering and painting of the face, by the rich color of the satin and the velvet, and antique jewels; the face tells nothing.

"Another glass—permit me?" he says, looking at her with the champagne bottle upraised; but she shakes her head and turns away.

"Why," says Gerald, "you have taken none yourself."

"Ah, no," he said, with arched eyebrows, and slowly, as if a couple of hundred people were not waiting for him, he fills a glass and rises it to his lips; as he does so, he looks over the glass with a strange smile.

"It is bad manners to propose a toast, but if it were not, I should like to drink to Miss Woodleigh's success as Juliet, or any other part she may play! Are we ready? Now for it, then; the play's 'the thing whereby we'll try the conscience of the—'"

"Hush!" says Gerald. "Take your places."

CHAPTER XIV.

Great Acting and Dangerous.

THERE was a delightful ripple of applause at the beautiful scene, another and still another as each actor came on; then, with moody, abstracted step, entered Romeo.

At sight of the tall, richly dressed figure there was loud welcome—then a little buzz and hum of surprise.

"Why—why," said the duke, "that isn't Rayburn! Who can it be?"

"It is—no, it isn't—yes, it is! It is Dawson Slade," said her grace, in a whisper.

"Eh?" muttered Sir Talbot, leaning forward. For him everything faded in interest before the one event—the appearance of his beautiful child. "Dawson Slade, is it? I haven't seen him for years. Where is Rayburn, then?"

"As usual, anywhere but but in the right place," said the duke. "By George! Slade is in his right place. Plays like a professional. That man always had the nerve of three men rolled into one! Didn't know he was here! Won't Gerald be delighted?"

So also were the audience. They had been quite satisfied to get a handsome Romeo in Lord Rayburn, but this was something more.

Composed, self-possessed, Dawson Slade played as if he were earning his bread. Letter perfect, action perfect, but like an admirable machine. For all the time the one question rang in his ears: "How came Hilda Fane to be Lilian Woodleigh?"

He went off to a hearty round of applause. Gerald caught him at the scene—and looked up into his face eagerly.

"Come, Slade, you've forgiven me! How well you played! Didn't I say so?"

"Well, did I?" said Slade, and he smiled, curiously. Then he looked round quickly. But she whom he sought was nowhere to be seen.

"Miss Woodleigh had gone to her own room for a few minutes' rest," said Gerald. "She has been standing so long, and helping everybody, and I thought—we all thought—she looked faint. Ah! here she comes!" he broke off, as Lilian entered. She did not look faint now, and no one could detect the delicate touch of rouge on the olive cheek.

Not faint, but calm, and smiling softly, as one might do whose heart and mind were at peace.

"Have I been called?" she said, looking round, her eye resting for a moment on Dawson Slade's handsome face.

"Not yet," he said; "they are shifting the scene. Will you take a seat?" She declined with a slight gesture, and stood looking past him towards the wings, and his eyes watched her with only half-concealed earnestness.

Suddenly Harold came round, perspiring as usual.

"All ready!" he said, dropping into a chair, and looking at Lilian with admiring, wistful eyes. "Now for your boasted courage, Lilian! Are you sure you feel calm?"

She raised her head and looked at him, then carried her gaze on to where Slade stood watching her.

"Quite," she said. "I have courage enough to carry it through, of that I am confident."

And in her eyes shown, for a little moment, a little gleam of light.

"I also am confident of that," said Slade, significantly.

Harold turned to him with a sort of introductory smile and look of inquiry.

"Mr. Slade," he said, "we have not been introduced, but allow me to congratulate you on your confidence. You took that scene with everything well in hand."

Slade bowed.

"Had a struggle to remember every word," he said. "I am sure I shall break down."

"Juliet!" the nurse, Lady Capulet! called the call boy.

With one glance round, Lilian moved away, followed by the other characters.

Harold looked after her for a moment, then he turned, to find Slade looking also, and with a strange expression on his handsome face. It struck Harold.

"By the way," he said, "have you met my cousin—Miss Woodleigh, you know—before, Mr. Slade?"

To be continued.

Sing Care Away.

Better be singing than sighing
Whenever a thing goes wrong,
For often our troubles goes flying
Away on the wings of song.

Better be smiling than weeping
Over the cares of life,
For tears have them all in keeping
And lengthen the bitter strife.

Sing, and your load seems lighter,
Smile, and your shadows flee,
As the gray old world grows brighter
When the sunshine floods the lee.

God's in his world above us;
Friends are both near and dear,
And, as long as true hearts love us,
We can have heaven here.

So sing in the time of trouble,
As the robin sings in rain,
And care, like a bursting bubble,
Will pass with the song's refrain.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Gentlemen.—Last August my horse was badly cut in eleven places by a barbed wire fence. Three of the cuts, (small ones) healed soon, but the others became foul and rotten, and though I tried many kinds of medicine they had no beneficial result. At last a doctor advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT and in four weeks time every sore was healed and the hair has grown over each one in fine condition. The Liniment is certainly wonderful in its working.

Typing Letters.

Owing to its inception to the London & Northwestern Railway Co., a time-saving device has been introduced which will be of great advantage to business men, to whom minutes are precious.

Every week day, except Saturday, a corridor express runs from Birmingham to Broad street, London, and this carries a short hand-typist, who takes down from dictation the answers to letters which passengers have received in the morning, and which they have read comfortably at breakfast en route. Then the typist works her machine while the train is travelling through the country at about a mile a minute, and those letters that are not ready are done during the day, and await the signature of the passenger on his return for the homeward journey to Birmingham.

In the execution of her duty, the typist travels a distance of 200 miles a day, or 1,000 a week.

A comedian declared that the officer and others who occupied a box with him had shouted "rotten" and made noises like a motor horn. "I thought they were drunk," he continued. "I said to the audience, 'When you see sardines in a box they are usually well oiled.'"

The gallant officer admitted he had indulged in back chat with the performers, and was sustained by the judge, who quoted old decisions allowing playgoers to express their emotions or hisses, so long as they had not attended with the intention of making themselves unpleasant by condemning an actor or a scene.

Cured His Rheumatism In Three Weeks.

James LeB. Johnstone, a prominent member of the Citizen's Band, of Chatham, writes:

"I contracted Rheumatism by exposure, five years ago, and was ailing for two months and in great pain all the time. I got Father Morrissey's No. 7 Tablets and took them for about three weeks, when the Rheumatism all left me and I have had no return of the pain since."

Father Morrissey's "No. 7" Tablets

Rheumatism is generally brought on by exposure, but is really caused by Uric Acid in the blood. This Uric Acid is an irritating poison, formed from the waste matter of the body. The kidneys should remove it, but when they fail it poisons the blood, and, settling in the joints, causes Rheumatism.

"No. 7" Tablets clear out the clogged-up Kidneys and stimulate them to perform their task of filtering the Uric Acid out of the blood. When this is done the Rheumatism simply and naturally vanishes.

"No. 7" Tablets cost 50c. At your dealer's. 28

Sad and Sudden Death

OF DR. WM. M. ALLAN. "The kindly eye, the skilful hand, the brave yet tender heart. How will we miss thee, friend beloved, how mourn with thee to part! Thy very presence seemed to soothe the dying and distressed. And peace and joy and comfort brought to many a weary breast."—Selected.

Dr. Allan is dead! This sad intelligence passed quickly from one to another of our citizens this morning, and many were doubtful of the truth of the report, as the genial doctor had been about yesterday as usual. But, alas, it proved only too true, and the town generally was plunged in mourning owing to the sad affair. From a friend who was at the railway station at the time we gather the following particulars of the doctor's death. Dr. Allan was seen coming up Garland Street and along Military Road with his usual steady step. He entered the Railway Station about 7.45 with his customary "good morning" to those present. He entered the ticket office and had asked for a ticket for his sister who was to go out on the train, when almost immediately he was seen to fall heavily, and expired in a few minutes. Dr. Strapp was quickly on the scene, but too late to render any assistance, as the doctor was dead when his brother medico arrived.

Dr. Allan was in his 67th year, was a native of this town, and spent his life here administering to the wants of the people. No man was better known in this district than the deceased, his practice being a very large one indeed. Skilful, kind and attentive were among the good points of this much-lamented medical man. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity, and that body's flag floated at half-mast on their hall to-day, as did also flags on a number of business places and residences. The funeral takes place on Saturday after the arrival of the express, which will bring his brother, Rev. J. M. Allan, to be present at the funeral. Three brothers and four sisters are left to mourn their loss, with whom and with the other members of the family the sympathy of the citizens goes out to in their sad and sudden bereavement.

The Morris Loan.

Editor Evening Telegram: Dear Sir,—I have read with some surprise during the past few days the fulsome praise in the Government papers of the feat of Sir E. P. Morris in placing with bankers in London at 96 his railway loan of four million dollars. That this has been done may be deemed by the Premier's supporters to be cause for congratulation, but more should be learned about the matter before that congratulation becomes general. Further, there is a side of the matter that the Government press has of course quite overlooked, and while it may seem at present that our bonds are being placed at a better figure than heretofore, I wish to draw attention to the former issues of railway bonds and the method of handling them. In the first place, under a Liberal Administration—an Administration deemed by many to be violently opposed to the Railway Contractors—it was not necessary to raise any loan, in the ordinary acceptance of the term, to pay the Contractor for the construction of Railways. As I understand it, the Liberal Government of the day agreed to pay the Contractor $15,000 per mile for the construction of the trans-insular line, and the Contractor, on his part, accepted in payment our 3 1/2 per cent. debentures at par, though other issues of our bonds, bearing a similar rate of interest, were selling in the London market at prices varying from 90 to 93, or from $7 to $10 per 100 below the value at which the late Sir R. G. Reid agreed to accept them. Now let us look into the present position. The Morris Administration—an Administration also deemed by many to be unduly favourable to the interests of the Railway Contractors—agrees to pay said Contractors $15,000 per mile for the construction of branch lines, or apparently $600 per mile less than the figure at which the main line was constructed. But, it more so by the rakish pose they are made to assume. Tilted over one eye, it would seem to the exclusion of sight, they convey an impression the reverse of gentility even though they are admittedly chic.

Motor bonnets as a head covering have hitherto fulfilled their mission, but an original and unique conceit in the shape of a collapsible motor bonnet is being worn this season. When not desired as a bonnet it collapses and forms a bow for the neck.

Scarves of Persian chiffon, edged with a border of plain chiffon, are among the latest "very" in dainty shoulder wraps. A remarkably stunning scarf is a combination of white, pale gold and black, with a border of white edged with the thinnest edge of black.

Dainty and cool looking are the charming summer silks, shown this season in such a wide range of colors—White, finely striped in shrimp pink; lichen green or ragged sailor blue are among some of the most attractive of these silks.

Very handsome buttons are in demand by high-class garment manufacturers, especially outside coat makers. The variety embraces lines made of metal, imitation gems, cut steel, crocheted and combination effects that are really works of art.

Now that all the summer blouses are cut low, the Dutch collar is again with us, but mounted on a neck band so as to avoid the unpleasant exposure of the whole neck, so frequent last summer. No jabot is worn with these collars, but they are fastened by means of a large cameo or some other pin in the same quaint fashion.

Anxious About School.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—As each one has his own ideas going through life, I wish to make a remark in favor of Miss Kathleen Condon, the school teacher here for the past six months. Miss Condon was asked last December to take charge of the school here by the Rev. M. F. McGuire, who is at present absent from the diocese on a visit to Europe.

Miss Condon gave up teaching and closed the school the 25th of June. The people, and parents of children especially, regretted this very much, because Miss Condon was truly respected by the people and loved by the school children, who have improved more than they have done for some time past. Not only did she prove satisfactory as a good teacher, but she was an improvement in training the church choir both in music and singing.

It will be some time before the vacancy is filled by a teacher that will have the talent, excellent manner and good training qualities of Miss Condon. Miss Condon was educated at the Presentation Convent, Trejassay, and at the Mercy Convent, Military Road, St. John's. She was not obliged to teach for a living. Her father, Mr. M. Condon, is an independent man and has a beautiful home at Admiral's Cove, Cape Breton, where we now hope her parents will have her company and valuable services.

It is now nearly a month since the resignation of Miss Condon and no teacher yet fills the vacancy. Time is fast passing; good days for the training and teaching of those little boys and girls we see every day walking around the roads, the stages and flakes, all idle and so bewildered looking for want of a school. The writer of the above few lines often looks with pity on those little boys, especially losing their valuable time running around in danger oftentimes and left neglected of learning in their happy school days, when we know no care, only take our books and run with happy, gleeful minds to school. Yours truly, ANXIOUS.

Opening of Parliament

Places to be Reserved for the High Commissioners. London, July 18.—Hitherto on the opening of Parliament by the King no official provision has been made for the reception and accommodation of representatives of the self-governing dominions, though the foreign ambassadors have been assigned a seat and appear in uniform. When, however, King George opens Parliament next spring, places will be reserved for the four high commissioners. It is stated that this action is taken on the direct initiative of the King.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

If a man drew out the money he had been putting into the bank for his child's bringing up and education, and lavished it in buying all sorts of unnecessary things for that child in its babyhood, you would hardly be inspired to look upon that man as an exceptionally self-sacrificing and unselfish father, would you? On the contrary, you would probably consider him decidedly selfish in his reckless squandering of his provision for his child's future, wouldn't you? Yes, what you are thinking is quite true—that is all nonsense, and no father would think of doing such a thing. But mothers do. Lots of them. No, I don't mean literally. How, then? Well, let me explain by telling you the way one woman I know did it. Through the hot summer months this mother's baby—like a good many other mothers' babies—was not well; not sick, just bothered with the heat and rather different from his usual happy self. Baby's mother, always of the passionately devoted kind, the kind who regard it as a disgrace to allow anyone else to do anything for their offspring, with baby ailing became ten times as devoted.

"You can't keep it up," warned the family doctor. "You aren't strong. You are wasting strength that you may need very badly some day." "Let me take care of him occasionally while you get a bit of rest," pleaded baby's grandmother. "I'd rather see to him myself. I just can't bear to have anyone else touch him when he feels this way," protested baby's mother. And so she did. And in the fall, having overdrawn her account at the bank of strength, baby's mother gave out completely. The entire care of the baby had to pass into the hand of well paid but careless help. Baby fell ill—in earnest this time—and the mother who had recklessly squandered herself in times of plenty was absolutely poverty-stricken in strength in this time of need.

No, the baby didn't die. God was good. But wouldn't it have been partly the fault of that mother's reckless and shortsighted devotion if he had? There is undoubtedly such a thing as selfish devotion—selfish in its shortsightedness and recklessness. "I would rather," is not always the best criterion even of self-sacrifice and devotion. "Will it be the best in the end?" is a safer one. There is a self-economy as well as a financial economy and it's just as important a thrift to acquire. Or, rather, infinitely more so.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short, establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure, not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English, or Medicine Simplified, 1608 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised up-to-date Edition, paper-bound, sent for 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only. Cloth-bound, 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Fads and Fashions.

There is a tendency at present to use either very light or very heavy laces, with a considerable preference for those of the Russian and Armenian or Oriental hand-made varieties. While much neckwear, is shown, which includes valenciennes and fine chuney. It is noticeable that in high class lines Irish and other crocheted effect laces are almost exclusively used. A characteristic feature of some of the lingerie gowns is the touch of black velvet shown in the girdle or run through the eyelet of the embroidery with which many of these frocks are trimmed. Ruffles of plaiting of net, lawn, batiste and other sheer material stitched to a banding or insertion may be bought by the yard. These are used for cuffs or collars or for frills for the shirtwaist. Paris notes tell of pretty hats of pale blue misty gray basket straw, trimmed with white gathered frills of wide valenciennes lace, above which is a thick roll of gray satin and an immense bunch of marguerites on one side. The effect of the late King Edward's death will undoubtedly be felt here during the summer in thin fabrics, and in the fall with street and house gowns. It is a general strengthening of the vague for subdued colors. Hats bizarre in shape are made

Was Held Against Great Electric Feeder. Washington, July 15.—Joshua F. Myer, an assistant engineer in a street railway power house, fell against a big electric feeder to-day, and while the magnet gripped him tight 600 volts coursed through his body. His fellow workmen saw Myer's form enveloped in sparks and flames, against the big machine as if he had been fastened there for electrocution. When they pulled down the power, lead his charred body fell away lifeless.

Not Popular.

In the London Daily Telegraph of Monday of last week appears a notice that "subscriptions will be received by Messrs. Glyn, Mills, Currie & Co. for £800,000 Newfoundland Government 3 1/2 p.c. Inscribed Stock at 97 1/2 p.c."

In the Montreal Star of Saturday of last week appears a message of the same date signed Windermere with the words:

"London, July 16. The underwriters take 93 per cent of the Government of Newfoundland £800,000 three and a half per cent."

The meaning of the two messages is obvious. It is this. Previously arrangements had been made to offer £800,000 of bonds to the public last week, and an agreement had been entered into, also previously, for underwriting to take up what the public did not buy. The issue price to the public was 97 1/2. The underwriters £100 bond was offered to the public at £97.10s. out of this the agents' expense would come. After the deduction had been made, a clear £96 was expected.

Windermere reports that the public only bought £66,000, and left £734,000 unbought. This the underwriters take under the agreement made prior to the issue of last week. It is the text of this agreement about which the public are curious. They wish to know the price, the charges and conditions generally under which the underwriters hold £772,000 out of the £800,000 of this loan.

The reception of this issue of the 3 1/2 at 97 1/2 cannot be regarded as encouraging. The public gave it a distinctly chilly reception. To describe this reception by the British investing public as a "financial triumph" was farcical. To congratulate Sir Edward Morris on it was fulsome. To extend congratulatory notes on it was fatuous.

The paeans of praise at the success of the flotation of the loan were as misplaced as the sneers at Sir Robert Bond.

We have no desire to gloat over Sir Edward Morris's lack of success at selling the loan to the public at the issue price. We would rather condole with him on his failure. The event forbids us to cry "Well done!" But like the public, we desire information. We would like to see the texts of the agreement relating to the underwriting, the arrangement as to price to the underwriters, expenses, conditions, &c., and also the text of the agreement relating to the deposit of the proceeds with "financial corporations."

Found Old Souvenir.
Yesterday a man named Kennedy in digging out the foundation of the new clothing factory west of the Telegram Office, found a silver medal dated 1873. Enquiries about it elicited the fact that it was owned by Mr. D. J. Greene, K.C., and was won by him for fancy skating in the old Avon Rink on Military Road. Mr. Greene, who was an adept in the art, won over such expert competitors as the late I. R. McNelly, Jno. Lindberg, Colin Campbell, and a very clever skater, a Frenchman, named Bachard. Mr. Greene had the trophy in his residence and lost it in the fire of 1892. Mr. Greene will get the medal this afternoon and is glad to have it again.

Labrador Report
by S. S. Invermore.
The s.s. Invermore, Capt. Parsons, arrived here from Labrador at 7 a.m. to-day. The ship went as far north as East Bay and called at all the usual ports both in Newfoundland and Labrador going and returning. The weather going down was fairly good with a little fog, but the return trip was stormy and cold with almost continuous thick fog.

AT MACOVICK.
where Capt. Parsons arrived on the 15th, Capt. Bartlett had 60 qtls. for three traps. The prospects were much better and he expected to do well when the weather improved.

AT ALLIK.
not much is being done with the fish. There is a good sign with jiggers but nothing worth speaking of with traps. Dune of Harbor Grace is here, but up to the 15th had done nothing with traps. The weather had been too stormy to trust twine in the water.

AT MACOVICK AND IRON BOUND ISLANDS
there was the best fishing of any part of the whole coast. It was impossible in the weather prevailing—sea, N.E. gale and thick fog—to keep traps in the water. There were five schooners at Iron Bound Island with from 100 to 150 qtls. each, including the Mercers and Normans of Bay Roberts, and Nolan of Catalina. Norman had 150 qtls. in salt, and Nolan and Mercer 100 qtls. each.

RAGGED ISLANDS.
Nothing doing here; did not call there returning, but had heard a report that the fishermen could not jigger to east.

CAPE HARRISON.
Glavinie of Harbor Grace, one of Ryan's dealers, is fishing there. He had 30 qtls. on the 14th. Ledrew had about the same and all the other traps here had from 50 to 60 qtls. The prospects looked good when the Invermore was going down, but on the return trip, two days after, there was nothing doing owing principally to the stormy weather and impossibility of overhauling traps.

SHOOP COVE.
Notwithstanding the report that seems to have come from there by wireless about Capt. Kennedy of Carbonear doing well with fish, Capt. Parsons says there is nothing doing there and that the fishermen can't get enough to eat.

KING'S BAY AND BYRON BAY.
Not much doing, especially in traps. Weather killing fishing operations.

HOLTON.
Fair sign of fish here, especially with the jigger. The men get from 2 to 4 qtls. a day for a boat. Traps almost nil.

EMILY HR. AND HORSE HR.
Crews trapped from 20 to 30 qtls. Just week and boats with jiggers got from three to four quintals a day. Much better work would be done only that there is no bait to be had. The weather was too bad most of the time to get on the grounds—N.E. winds, a gale, heavy sea and fog.

WHITE BEARS.
From 2 to 3 qtls. being got a day when civil on jiggers. Nothing with traps.

GROSS WATER BAY.
Indian Island, Smokey, Cut Throat.—A little was being done when the Invermore was going down, but coming up the fishing was a blank.

PACK'S HARBOR AND LONG ISLAND.—NIL.

GRADY.
It was estimated that there were less than 20 qtls. of fish landed there for all the crews fishing there up to the 15th.

Indian Tickle to Battle Harbor, including Spotted Island, Seal Islands, Hawke's Bay, Venison Tickle, Square Island, Occasional Harbor, Francis Harbor and Spear Harbor, the men were getting from 2 to 3 qtls. a day with hook and line when they could get there, when the Invermore came south. At Battle Harbor, J. Murphy, the high liner, got 100 qtls. ashore there; others 30 to 50 qtls.

Capt. Parsons says that all the floaters are hastening to get down the shore, and that on the 20th and 21st he met from 800 to 900 schooners between Battle Harbor and Battle Harbor all making for Iron Bound Islands, Allik and Macovick as soon as they got the report. Capt. Parsons continued to operate at Battle Harbor all under sail. The skippers had been lying up in the harbors on the upper part of the shore the past few weeks, since once on an account of the fog, sea and N.E. and N. gales ranging nearly all the way down almost without a let up.

Labrador Notes.
The Invermore brought up ten sick people from Labrador, who were landed at Carbonear and Harbour Grace, including W. Duddy, J. Cole, G. Pike, G. McGrath, and J. Carroll. They had heavy colds, chills, and one a bad case of pneumonia.

The S. S. Invermore met the Susu off Bolster's Rock going down last week. She was evidently taking the outside run for Nain.

Capt. Parsons sums up the fishery condition by saying that from Ragged Islands to Battle Harbor all the traps included have not landed 1,500 qtls. of fish amongst them.

The Invermore, operating at Hawke's Harbor, has twelve whales to date.

The S. S. Pelican got to Cartwright last Monday. She is on her way to Hudson Bay.

William Austin, a Gloucester fisherman, who had a fish bone driven into his back, was operated at Battle Harbor Hospital for treatment a week or ten days ago, was brought on here by the Invermore. His wound is now better. His vessel has gone on to Greenland.

Amongst the passengers who came up from Labrador in the Invermore were Mr. Purchase and Jordan Miller of Cartwright; Mr. J. Coleman and G. C. Turner who had been surveying timber areas at Rigoulette; Mr. Laurel, Rev. Mr. Purchar and Jordan Miller.

The S. S. Harmony, the Moravian Mission ship, was met at Holton coming south.

Mr. D. Baird Married.
At the parish Church at Trinity today Mr. David Baird of the firm of Parker & Monroe this city, led to a late Mrs. Baird, daughter of Capt. Ash, and sister of Mr. R. Ash, Commission Merchant. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Holburn, Rector of St. John's, and Miss Emma Ayre assisted the bride, while the groom was attended by Mr. Arch Munn. The Telegram wishes Mrs. Baird many happy years of wedded life.

Bell Island Regatta.
There is great enthusiasm this year in Bell Island over its regatta which takes place on the 20th. It is the only one day in the year that Bell Islanders can meet together for a whole day's recreation. A few nights ago a large number of sportsmen formed and the programme of sports for the day outlined. The forenoon will be occupied with the boat races, which include four-oared races for all-comers, a four-oared race confined to boats from Lance Cove and other sections of Bell Island, and from St. Peter's, Keggs, Horse Cove, Portugal Cove and Broad Cove. The field sports will include football, one mile race, relay and triple races, 100 yds. race. Three or four new boats will be added this year, and there seems to be more enthusiasm shown. The committee are busy making the regatta more successful than last year.

Mr. Sullivan Improving
It affords us sincere pleasure today to be able to state that Inspector General Sullivan is rapidly recovering. His illness was not of a character to cause his friends any undue apprehension and with skilled treatment and proper attention he will be enabled to resume his duties in due course.

Marine Notes.
The Olive, Capt. T. Doyle, arrived at Sydney yesterday morning having made the triple run in 2 1/2 days. Capt. Doyle will load coal for Goodridges' dealers at Renew's.

The Bella Rosa, Capt. Fitzgerald, arrived here from Oporto yesterday, Ladiz, with a load of salt for A. Goodridge & Sons. Capt. Fitzgerald says the passage was one of the worst he ever made.

Whale Attacks Steamer
The Cachet, we learn by the Invermore, put a harpoon into a enormous whale on Tuesday past. The maddened animal rushed with great speed away from the ship and brought all the cable with him until it was brought up. The intense pain this created increased the Leviathan's ferocity, when it turned suddenly and charged at the ship. It struck the ship with great force on the port bow, lacerated the plates there, and the vessel shivered from stem to stern with the force of the blow. The whale dived and coming up under the ship partly lifted it out of the water. Fearing serious damage to the ship she had to cut and run into Bateau and lost the fish. Two harpoons were in him.

To-day the two men, John Lindstrom and A. Noonan, who pleaded guilty to burglarizing and stealing money from the Anglo-American Telegraph Co's. office, as exclusively reported in the Telegram, were before the court for sentence. They stated that the sum taken by them was $150 in cash and some notes, but they would not admit the theft of the $315 charged against them. I.O.U.'s and other papers representing cash they destroyed, and officer Byrne, who cleverly worked up the case, recovered most of the money from parties from whom the men had made purchases. Mr. Hutchings, Deputy Minister of Justice, presided and each was given 12 months' hard labor.

Rescued from Drowning.
Tuesday a young chap named Crews was out pleasureing in a boat off the Bruce pier at Port aux Basques when a squall up set the boat and being heavily ballasted sunk like a rock at once. The occupant was left struggling in the water and all was excitement on the pier. Customs Officer Ford jumped into a boat and saved his life. The chap was greatly exhausted and could not have held out much longer.

Regatta Meeting.

Another largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Regatta Committee took place at Wood's last night, Hon. John Harvey presiding. Secretary Noonan stated that he had sent the rules governing the swimming contest to the commanding officers of the city brigades. The President saw Mayor Ellis as to the Boulevard at Quidi Vidi Lake, and he had promised to have the place looked after. Since then Mr. Harvey had been informed by a citizen that rubbish was being dumped there. He will again interview the Mayor as to this. Mr. Higgins had spoken also to Mr. Woodford on the subject. V. P. Hiscock interviewed Mr. Horwood who had written to Gambo for the men for the log rolling contest. He will have an answer Monday, and at least two or three, if not more, experts in the art will be available for the day. Mr. W. D. Reid kindly consented to bring these men on the railway and return them at one way first class fare. This arrangement was received with applause. Messrs. Higgins and Bennett had met Mr. Curran, of Gambo, who thinks that the log drives will be finished on August 1st, and he will write to get MINARD'S LINIMENT CURE FOR COLDS, Etc.

the best men available for this very interesting competition. Mr. P. F. Moore intimated that the Unions would hand in their donation for the Regatta by next Friday night. Secretary Slatery intimated to Mr. Noonan that the Committee could have the ground bordering the Lake for the day. The Band, Bugle, Medals, Cups, Luncheon and other sub-Committees are perfecting their various tasks and will have everything in readiness for Regatta Day. The cups which will be given as trophies for the Brigade, Swimming and Society Races were placed before the Committee by V. P. Hiscock. They are of silver, are of beautiful design and workmanship and are far ahead of anything of the kind heretofore imported as prizes for our annual derby. As regards the Society Race, Secretary Noonan read a letter he had received from the S.U.F., N.B.S., C.E. T.S. and Odfellows, strongly protesting against any club crews entering for such a race. There was a good deal of adverse comment upon the reading of this letter. Mr. Higgins thought it absurd and presumed all of them do not strike in during this week the consequences will be very serious for the people.

gramme had been given this club of about 60 members to row a boat, and he thought that such a club was eligible for that event as any society properly so-called. If it was a bona fide club whose members reside in the city he could not see how it could be distinguished from any Society. What the Committee had to deal with was an aggregation of men. If they were together as an aggregation it did not matter, they called such a club or society. The case of the old Academia Club rowing against the T. A. & B. and other societies was cited. The race was to be between representatives of organizations partaking of the nature of clubs or societies, as distinct from unions, whose objects were other than social. One of the signers of the protest had informed Mr. Williams that he had heard that fishermen would row with the People's Club. Such the Committee would not tolerate, especially if they were fishermen not resident in the city. Mr. Higgins stated that one of the members rowed with the Black-head crew years ago, but he is now several years residing in St. John's and works with the Reid Nud. Co. The subscribers of the protest will be written to and the resolution of the previous meeting will be quoted, wherein it is laid down that members of clubs are eligible for the Society Race.

Mr. John Johnson wrote from Grand Falls saying that his son Tom, who though only 15 years of age is an expert swimmer and 5 feet 10 inches in height, is anxious to be allowed to contest in the Swimming Race. Mr. Croty protested that boys of such tender years should not be allowed to compete as there was danger of drowning accidents. Men far stronger and older were used up last year and did not finish the course but were taken from the water in boats. Mr. Higgins thought that if properly trained this boy should be permitted to compete. There was a general discussion on the matter, and Mr. C. Ellis pointed out the necessity of having all the boats procurable follow the swimmers. He showed that last year some of the contestants became exhausted and he and Mr. Higgins had to take them on board a boat in which they followed, while Mr. Higgins once was on the verge of jumping in after one of the men. The President will see that boats are provided to follow the contestants and prevent accidents. The lad Johnson will be allowed to swim.

The Secretary will ask the commanders of the brigades to look after their boys in boats. Mr. Higgins asked that the Telegram men be allowed to row in the Press Race combined with some of Bowden & Co's. printers. As the crews of the Herald and Chronicle will not object a place was given the combined team in the Press Race. The News, it was regretted, could not put a crew on this year. As at next Friday's meeting in the T. A. Armoury all boats must enter and other business of importance must be performed, a full meeting of the Committee is of the greatest importance.

The collectors reported and their work to date is not up to the standard of last year. After the transaction of some minor business the meeting adjourned.

The Ulunda Here.

The Furness Liner Ulunda, Capt. Dew, arrived here from Halifax yesterday afternoon after a run of two days. For the first day and night out she had fairly fine weather, but on Thursday dense fog was met and the ship had to run slowly. She brought 500 tons cargo, including a shipment of dynamite which occasioned the vessel to anchor in the stream and transfer the cargo to the S. S. Mary for Bell Island. She sails this afternoon for Liverpool.

Boats Must Enter.

At last night's meeting of the Regatta Committee it was made a rule absolute that all boats and crews for the Regatta to be held on Wednesday, August 3rd, should enter on Friday night next in the T. A. Armoury. Heretofore some whole crews and parts of crews absented themselves on this night and created endless confusion and put the committee to much unnecessary bother and no little expense. This season the committee intend not to deviate from this regulation for any cause whatsoever. Friday night's meeting will be absolutely the last, and crews not entering then cannot row on Regatta Day. The meeting begins at 8.30 sharp, and crews will be entered at 9.30. All intending to row should govern themselves accordingly.

Salmon Scarec.

People who came from Rigolette by the Invermore say that all around Sandwich Bay salmon are practically all dead. They do not strike in during this week the consequences will be very serious for the people.

League Football.

Stars Defeat B. I. S.—1 Goal to Nil.

Heretofore when the Irish and Stars met on the football field it was a case of "Greek meets Greek," and though this season, evidently through the apathy of some of the team, the B. I. S. have exhibited signs of decadence and are at the foot of the scale. Last evening's contest shows that there is much latent ability in the combine and their work agreeably surprised the many spectators present on St. George's Field.

The weather was perfect with a nice "down" wind, and winning the toss the boys in green and gold defended the western goal.

The teams lined up:—
Stars.—P. Keefe, goal; F. Hartery, J. Carew, backs; J. Hart, T. Jackman, W. Duggan, halves; F. Brien, J. Morgan, J. Adams, A. Evoy, E. Power, forwards.

B. I. S.—W. Brophy, goal; L. Stapleton, J. Kavanagh, backs; J. Bennett, N. Vinicombe, J. Cooper, halves; G. Downs, H. Pedigrew, E. Brophy, W. Cantwell, S. Baird, forwards.

At the start the Stars shone in their old luminous way and passed the leather up field, sending in several shots to Brophy who all through the game gave a clever exhibition of goal keeping. Giving a nice demonstration of passing and playing a good combination game the Stars were almost continually in Irish territory but the back divisions put up a fine defence, and Brophy's good work in goal prevented the aggressive Stars from scoring. The half time whistle blew without either side getting a goal.

When the ball was re-centered it was thought that in playing with the wind in their favour the Stars would wipe out the Irish but the excellent defence of the first half was continued by that team, and Brophy particularly was invincible in goal. Play was very fast and the fans were wrought up to a high pitch of excitement. Both teams worked hard and fast play was a marked feature of this half. Power, Evoy, Adams and Morgan worked hard for the Stars, and Nix Vinicombe and E. Brophy for the Irish. Evoy getting a run found the net, but being "off sides" his effort was of no value. Stars now secured several corners which the Irish kept out of goal, until Evoy once again getting control passed to Power from the left wing and he deftly heading the sphere into the net scored the winning goal for his side, shortly before the final siren was heard. Both teams now put forward their best exertions to score, but soon the match finished with the Stars the winners by 1 goal to nil for B. I. S.

Mr. W. J. Higgins capably performed the office of referee. The Star team to date has shown its superior ability as a football aggregation and its chances for the championship of the 1910 season are bright indeed.

Nutritive Hypophosphites

When a person feels "blue"—"all tired out"—doesn't feel like doing anything"—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares overstudied, etc. Nutritive Hypophosphites forms the best nerve and brain food known, and has restored thousands of sufferers to health. ## A Horrible Affair.

By the Invermore we get confirmation of the story that a little girl named Davis had been killed by dogs on the Labrador coast, as exclusively reported in the Telegram. The awful affair occurred on July 1st, at Barrow Brook, Sandwich Bay, and when found was partially eaten by the brutes and not a sign of life was in her. The brutes were destroyed. Wm. Davis, the father, and his wife are distracted over the awful affair.

THE COUNCIL AUDIT.—Owing to the absence of Mayor Ellis, Councilor Mully's motion for an audit of the City Council books was deferred last night till next Friday. Councilor Mully telegraphed to Mayor Ellis asking him would he wish the matter deferred till his return, to which he replied intimating his desire to be present before anything would be done in the matter.

Board of Trade.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Board of Trade, held yesterday evening, a discussion took place in reference to the exporting of berries from the Colony. A deputation from local purchasers had called on the Board complaining that they had suffered losses in shipping berries on account of the shortage when the berries were opened in the foreign market. The deputation asked that an inspector be engaged who would see that honest packing was done. The leaders here in St. John's ask the Board to do this and to be responsible for the shipments by a system of certificates, otherwise the dealers abroad will not take the shipments under the condition prevailing up to last year. The Board of Trade will do as the deputation desired.

The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon. The corpse of the man Tremblett, who died suddenly in a shack at the Bonavista Branch, was put off the train at Holyrood to be sent to St. Mary's.

BOAT DRIVES ASHORE.—Goodridge's boat Kitty, lying at her moorings in To's Cove, burst her chains in the storm that raged a few days ago and she drove ashore and was badly wrecked.

Attempted Suicide.

Last night shortly before 11 o'clock, as two boys were passing in near Rennie's Mill Road, they described a hat and coat owned by a female on the parapet of Rennie's bridge and found a young woman named Alice Dwyer, who lived as a servant with a family on Military Road, out in the water to her waist. This was on the south side of the bridge, where the water was deepest. The boys were frightened and told a young man passing and also cabman Jas. Newell, who was driving along near the place with Mr. W. C. Job in his rig. The girl, who was drenched with water, was taken from the river and repeatedly declared that she would drown herself. She was driven to the police station where matron Walsh looked after her. She was to-day examined by Dr. Rendell, pronounced to be insane and sent to the Lunatic Asylum.

Here and There.

WEAR A DOROTHY DODD

And forget your foot troubles. You will no longer feel that drag to your step, that dead weight, that tired feeling.

THE ELEGANCE OF Gold Medal SHOES IS THE RESULT OF BOTH BEAUTY OF DESIGN and BEAUTY OF FIT.

MOST SHOES SIMPLY COVER THE FEET.

Both Dorothy Dodd and Gold Medal Footwear support, brace and aid the feet. One well fitted pair will prove this.

Geo. A. Slater's Famous Invictus Shoes are Flexible.

The foot feels as if it is rested on a cushion instead of a hard leather bottom.

The most thing about breaking in New Shoes is the hard stiff feeling of the soles. Every step is an effort to make the leather bend. You instantly notice the difference when you put on a pair of G. A. Slater's Invictus Shoes.

Arbitration Probable.

Special to Evening Telegram. MONTREAL, July 22. As far as the public can see, there is no change in the strike situation, although well posted people state that an arbitration is near at hand. So far Hon. MacKenzie King has made little progress towards the end. From the man's side comes the statement that they will accept the minister's offer to create an Arbitration Board, but they demand American-Arbitrators, which could not be accepted either by the Government or the Railway. It is believed here that if the fight continues for some days more without either side scoring success they will likely accept the Government's good offices. The passenger trains are moving freely, and better work is being done on the Suburban, although it does not look as if much was being done on the freight. In

Liberian Troops Defeated.

Mormon Missionaries Expelled.

Special to the Evening Telegram. BERLIN, July 22. Dallwitz, Prussian Minister of the Interior, upon the recommendation of the political police have signed orders for the expulsion of 21 Mormon Missionaries, most of whom are Englishmen or Americans, and they will be conducted to the frontier to-day. The status of the Mormons in Germany was taken up in exchanges between the Foreign Office and the U. S. Embassy in 1903 when the Government took the position that the teachings of the missionaries were subversive of morality. It was then arranged with the Mormons through the United States Embassy that all Mormon Missionaries should withdraw from the country within a month, transferring their European headquarters from Berlin to Switzerland. Subsequently 140 foreign leaders departed, leaving German societies with a total membership of 8,000 in the care of German pastors.

The members of the C. C. C. Band arrived by train yesterday, but on account of the death of Dr. Allan, their concert was postponed.

Very little fish around this place at the present time, and that fact, with the reported likely rise of flour is talked of by our people. We must hope for better news shortly.

Goats are now making a lot of enemies for themselves about here. A resident of Victoria Street who left his hall door open for fresh air purposes is minus a couple of dollars worth of property. Another family on LeMarchant Street is now convinced that goats possess high notions. A vase of flowers in water were on the table, surrounded by photos, valuable books, and these animals, who were upset and broke the vase, spilling the books and photos with water. The housekeeper entered, and the intruders left in a hurry.

A recital will be given by Miss Cody's music pupils before the closing of her classes for summer holidays. It is expected to take place on Thursday next, 28th inst., in the Academy Hall. The programme will consist of instrumental solos, duets, trios, to be followed by a musical sketch entitled: "Old Maid Tea Party," by a number of her ex-pupils. The programme will close with a vocal quartet, entitled: "Florida, or the Rose and Pearl." It is sufficient to say the recital is under the management of Miss Cody to guarantee a pleasant evening.

The Knights of Columbus and their friends visited Bell Island by the S. S. Euphrates on Wednesday and had a pleasant visit, even if Neptune was not as good tempered as they would wish. A dance was given at the Island and the party returned at five o'clock Thursday morning.

A young lady who had her basket packed and her hat and motor veil on a few mornings ago waiting for her young man who promised to take her for an outing by train, felt very much disappointed when he failed to come, and told a girl friend that he was a mean fellow, and she would never forget him. This will be good news to the young man, who is a CORRESPONDENT.

Prominent Newspaper Men Here.

Mr. Thomas Lumergan, Manager in the Borough of the Bronx for the New York World, came here on the Florizel for the round trip. He has been connected with the world for 17 years past, and is a Knight of Columbus, is a very clever writer, and has made a special study of Socialism on which he has written voluminously. Not long since he was appointed a lecturer for the Board of Education of New York. Mr. Lumergan was here about 2 years ago, and is highly pleased with the climate and the country generally.

Captain Praises Pilots.

Capt. Morris, of the English schr. David Morris, yesterday in conversation with a Telegram representative said that he deemed a pretty deserving compliment to the St. John's pilots. He has been coming here now for about 20 years, and often wondered what he would do if he were to pick up shipping in rough weather. He was agreeably surprised Monday at mid-night to see a staunch motor boat come out and put a man on board his ship and take her to port with safety and despatch. The captain thinks the motor boat is a great improvement on the old system.

Itching Piles For 27 Yrs.

Despaired of ever getting relief until cured 3 years ago with use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT. Mr. John Johnson, Cawley, Alta., writes: "Three years ago I was cured of itching piles of twenty-seven years' standing by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. I used to think that death would be the only relief I could ever get from the terrible misery of piles. Dr. Chase's Ointment is worth sixty dollars a box instead of sixty cents a tin. I am a different man since using it. I am farming all the time now and never miss a day. Words fail to express my gratitude for the cure that has been made for me. I cannot tell half as much about it as it deserves. Any one doubting this can write direct to me." Do not accept an imitation or substitute in place of Dr. Chase's Ointment, there has yet to be discovered a treatment which so promptly and surely cures every form of piles. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. ### The Language of the Wise.

Language in itself is of no special importance. One language expresses thought as well as the other. Still, one has a love for his mother-tongue above all other tongues. Joseph the Vice-King of Egypt spoke to his brethren in their own language: "I am Joseph." "Loveth yet my father?" And when he noticed the astonishment of his brothers, then he said: "I speak to you in your language," see Genesis XI. v. 12. But Solomon said: "The language of the wise improves knowledge." Therefore we are speaking to you in the language of the wise. Get your Clothing, Dry Goods and Furniture, for cash or credit, from B. FRIEDMAN, 301 Water Street (Water Side). Phone 545. P.O. box 5. ### Obituary.

MRS. CATHERINE FOSTER. It is with sincere regret we record the demise of Mrs. Catherine Foster, of Plymouth Road. Deceased passed peacefully away last evening after an illness of long duration. Mrs. Foster, who was highly respected in the community, was the widow of the late Henry Foster, who for many years conducted a flourishing plumbing business on Duckworth Street. She leaves two sons and a daughter, to whom the Telegram extends its sympathy.

Circular Road Affairs.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir.—It struck the writer as he proceeded home a few nights ago and in the dark walked too near the "binders" of horses grazing on Bannerman and Circular Roads that the Council might in justice to the public and to protect them against injury, put an end to the practice of animals being turned loose to graze on the public thoroughfares. If such however is to be permitted in future it might be a matter of economy with the Council to turn the Sanitary horses out there to graze. Though the people of Circular Road do not often complain, yet this place and Bannerman Street demand some little attention. The side drains are overgrown with grass and weeds, cesspools full there, and odours, dangerous to health arise from them, when hot weather succeeds a down-pour. I might suggest to one resident of the road that he emulate his neighbors and keep unsightly vessels filled with refuse of the street. Other residents do not think it too expensive to give the poor sanitary men a tip occasionally to remove ashes from the rear of their houses. Yours truly, CIRCULAR ROAD RESIDENT.

Crops Are Improving.

Winnipeg, July 12.—Reports from various parts of the province indicate spring wheat is picking up. Showers and cool weather have been very beneficial. Rosthern, Sask.—Heavy rains of the last few days have added five or six bushels to wheat yield. East of some fields is not very good and the wheat being ploughed up. West of the town there is plenty of splendid wheat, much being over three ft. high and in head. Wheat average in this district may be sixteen or seventeen bushels per acre.

Good Work Continues.

Cable News.

Special to the Evening Telegram. DETROIT, Mich., July 22. Canadian immigration officials at Windsor late last night turned back a party of strike breakers who were crossing the Detroit River to take the places of the striking Grand Trunk employees in Canada. Special Evening Telegram. NEW YORK, N.Y., July 22. A report has reached here from Johannesburg, South Africa, of the finding of another large diamond in the Premier mine. The gem is said to weigh more than 191 carats, and is described as a pure white stone absolutely flawless and measuring two inches thick. The Premier mine became world-famous in January, 1905, when the Cullinan diamond was discovered there. This gem, the largest ever found, weighed 3,032 carats in the rough. It was cut into smaller stones and presented to King Edward VII by the Transvaal Government. The latest large diamond to be taken will probably rank also among the world's famous gems. Special to Evening Telegram. NEW YORK, July 22. The New York police have about given up all hopes of catching Dr. Crippen on board any of the incoming steamers from Europe, and have called off the special detectives who for a week past have been searching the boats looking after the much sought doctor. ### An Eskimo Drowned.

From people who came up by the Invermore from Labrador, we learn that late last fall a half-breed Eskimo named Tooktashima, while looking for seals near Ragged Islands, fell through the ice and was drowned. Next morning his parents traced his footsteps to the spot in which he met his death, and with jiggers recovered the body. The weather the past two weeks has been very bad with a succession of N. and E. gales and rain and fog.

Regatta Funds Wanted

At last night's meeting of the Regatta Committee the all-important subject of funds was discussed, and it was gleaned that the collectors had not received as much in the shape of donations as they had to a similar date last year. Some $900 are now in hand and fully $200 more are required to run a successful Regatta. The Committee feel confident that the public will back up their efforts to afford the people of St. John's and suburbs a most enjoyable day. They therefore indulge in the belief that next week the cash required will be forthcoming.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Cannot be cured with ordinary soothing syrups. The disease must be attacked at the root to eradicate the irritation of the lungs, heal the wounds and strengthen the respiratory organs. The composition of of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other Medicinal Extracts marks it amongst all other remedies as the true specific for the diseases of the throat, the bronchial tubes and the lungs. Here are a few conclusive proofs:

SPRINGHILL, N.S., April 4

Fillmore & Morris, Amherst, N.S.
Dear Sirs,—In reference to your inquiry as to the selling qualities of Mathieu's Syrup, we might say that it is of no use whatever for us to keep any other Cough Medicine in stock. When you first began to sell it here, the Druggists did not handle it, and now every Druggist in town has it, and we are sure they find a ready sale for it. Mathieu's Syrup is sold by at least 18 dealers in Springhill. FERRIS & PEELE.

AGAINST HEADACHE there is no remedy so active as Mathieu's Nerve Powders which contain no opium, morphine or chloral. 25 cts. per box of 18 powders.
