Town and County News

St. James' Feast. — Remember the minstrel to-night in the Town Hall. The programme is a splendid one, and no doubt there will be a large audience.

FIRE ON THE GRAND TRUNK.—On Monday morning, two miles east of Cornwall, the express freight car going west took fire and a portion of the goods, and the newspapers and parcels for Cornwall and other points, were consumed.

FANCY PRINTING.—We have pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of the latest novelties in commercial printing sent by Messrs. Louis Perrault & Co., printers of Montreal. The specimens are beautiful samples of the art, and are executed in a style and taste extremely creditable to the Messrs. Perrault.

SEVERE SNOW STORMS IN THE WEST.—Omaha, Jan. 29.—A train from the west that left Laramie station on Friday last arrived at Cheyenne today. The train is reported again blocked between Cheyenne and Laramie as well as west of Laramie. The train from the west passed Laramie at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There is high wind and snow drifting tonight. At Rawlins, there are about 200 cars of through freight from the west.

CELESTIAL PHENOMENON.—A strange phenomenon was witnessed here on Monday morning. A rainbow, consisting of two parts, north and south, divided by the sun, different from ordinary rainbows. It seemed like two perpendicular lines slightly curved at the top; it lasted from 7:30 to 8:15. On Monday night also the moon was surrounded by beautiful rings of light, sometimes very brilliant, and at other times dimmer.

LEMPERING IN BRUCE.—On the 12th concession, Bruce township, three gangs of lumbermen were engaged in getting out railway ties for the Grand Trunk and telegraph poles for the American market. 140,000 feet of pine timber is being taken out of the Greenock pinery for Goderich harbor, and 50,000 feet for Chantry Island. Mr. C. Mickle has 20 men engaged in getting out saw logs off his leased property. He intends building a large saw mill at Paisley next spring.

THE NOTORIOUS MASON.—This worthy is again causing trouble in Toronto. On Monday morning while on his way to Court with a Constable, he sprang from his side knocked a man down, and kicked him violently. He was tried for having stolen an information from the desk of the Police Court. The prisoner defended himself. His Lordship had frequently to protect witnesses from the abuse of Mason, and the scene in court at times was most violent.

FIRE IN BELLEVILLE.—On Sunday morning a fire broke out in the Mechanics' House, which was occupied by Miss Macpherson as the boys' home, totally destroying the building and burning one of the boys to death. There were fortunately only ten boys in the home at the time, of whom a little boy, about six years of age, perished in the flames. His remains were found this morning among the ruins. It appears he had been taken out with the other children, but again entered the burning building for what purpose is not known.

FIRE IN BRUCE.—A fire broke out in Bruceville early on Sunday morning when the residence of David Johns was entirely consumed. The flames soon spread to the adjoining building, occupied by Mr. Hugh McIntosh as a wagon and carriage factory, which was speedily shared the same fate. Mr. McIntosh's residence was for some time in great danger, but by the efforts of the villagers it was saved. Mr. Johns lost much of his personal effects. Mr. McIntosh lost part of his tools and stock, but was partially insured.—The cause of the fire is unknown.

THE NEW REGISTRY OFFICES.—The Clinton News says:—"The general feeling among members at Toronto is that if the present Riding Registry offices are not called for by the people for whose benefit they are presumed to be established, and if the people through their representatives petition against them, that they will be abolished, and the registrars' fees funded and a fair salary paid to them. The County Council of Huron has petitioned against the Birth Registry office, and several municipalities have likewise done so. All the papers of the County have strongly protested against it, and we fear that it is doomed."

RAILWAY CONTRACT.—The St. Thomas Home Journal says:—"We understand that another railroad contract has just been awarded to our enterprising townsman, Mr. Richard Horsman. The chief contractors for the construction of the line, Messrs. Stratford, Nicholson and Chisholm, are so well satisfied with the manner in which Mr. Horsman has completed his former contract for the supply of the wrought iron work for the bridges at Tilsonburg and Fredericksburg, that they have just given him a further contract for supplying all the galvanized sheet iron for the roofing of the whole of the bridges on the first and second divisions of the line, from Glencoe to Simcoe."

THE Y. M. C. A. of Toronto are succeeding very well in raising subscriptions for their proposed new building.

Social Gathering.

The following is that portion of the Bruce County Council's report bearing on the railway bonus:—
Moved by R. Baird, seconded by R. Purvis, and resolved, That a County By-Law be proposed and submitted to this Council for the sum of $79,000 for the purpose of assisting the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway by way of a free grant bonus to construct the southern extension of their road from the Village of Lucknow, in the Township of Kinloss, to the waters of Lake Huron in the Village of Kincairdine.

The vote being taken on the amendment there were 17 yeas and 9 nays.
A petition signed by the Reeves and Deputy Reeves of Kinloss and Huron, asking the County to submit a sectional By-Law for the sum of $51,000, to embrace the Townships of Kinloss, Huron and Kincairdine, was read.
It was moved by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Henderson, That the prayer of the petition be granted.

It was moved in amendment by Messrs. McLeod and Baird, That the matter of a sectional By-Law be deferred until the June session of the Council.
An amendment to the amendment was moved by Messrs. McKillop and Blair, That the Warden be instructed to obtain the best legal advice, whether the Council is obliged to submit the sectional By-Law.

A discussion followed, during which it was contended by some that the submission of the sectional by-law was not compulsory on the Council.

A vote was taken on the amendment to the amendment, yeas 12, nays 14. On the amendment, yeas 11, nays 15. For the motion 16, against 10. Carried by a majority of 6.

A Wife who Circumnavigated the Globe in Search of her Husband.

Mary Anne Wentworth was the only daughter of respectable New England parents, whose ancestors came over in the Mayflower, and whose grandfathers had fought on the side of freedom in the revolutionary war. At eighteen Mary Anne was the wife of her native village, and had a host of suitors. She married John Thompson, a young English sailor, and soon after their marriage he sailed for London, and three years after wrote for his wife that he was about to sail for China. This letter changed all the young wife's plans. She determined to leave her child with her parents, and take passage for Europe in the next steamer. But before she arrived in London her husband's vessel had sailed, and having ascertained that the destination of the vessel was Hong Kong, she persisted in following in the first ship going thither. A month expired ere the young wife could find such a ship, and on her arrival at Hong Kong she learned that the Clipper in which her husband sailed was on her way to Sydney with a cargo of tea. Again she started, but her trip to Sydney proved so unfortunate as her trip to London and Hong Kong; for there she learned that her husband's vessel had just sailed for New York with a cargo of wool. Luckily an American ship was up for New York in a few days, and the captain, a light-hearted Yankee, hearing her story, and admiring her courage and resolution, bore a passing passenger to her native land. She arrived in New York about two weeks ago, penniless and destitute. This however is not the worst. The man in pursuit of whom she had circumnavigated the globe, she found living here with a worthless woman, and was constrained to submit him to one of our civil courts ere she could compel him to recognize her rights as a wife and to provide for her support. This he did in Justice Hartman's court the other day. —New York Sun.

Destructive Fire at Norwich.

A most disastrous fire occurred at Norwich on Sunday, destroying fifteen buildings. About 9 a. m. a dense smoke was seen rising from the millinery shop of James Barr. The alarm was immediately given and soon quite a number of people had gathered, but the fire had made too great headway before discovery was made, and soon the entire building, including the shop of John H. Walker, watchmaker, was wrapped in flames. The fire then spread to the millinery shop of the west, and almost simultaneously Messrs. D. W. Miller & Co.'s store on the east, after which it spread with such alarming rapidity that at one time fears were entertained that the entire village would be destroyed, and for the great excitement of the issue, the fire did not stop. From the country who came to attend church, such would doubtless have been the case. On the east from Miller's the fire spread in rapid succession to David Todd's tailor shop, W. H. Bradley & Co.'s harness shop, Joseph S. Will's boot and shoe shop, John F. Yates' dry goods shop, the Norwich post office, and R. A. Duncan's dry goods and millinery store. The Bleakley House also caught, but being a large brick building the flames were subdued, thus checking its progress in that direction. On the west from Mrs. Wright's the fire extended to Drs. J. & J. A. Brown's, Dr. J. A. Brown's, boot and shoe and sewing stores, where it was stopped only by the greatest exertions.

One noticeable feature connected with this calamity was the efforts put forth by the ladies. Long lines were formed to the different wells and the river for the purpose of passing water in buckets, the village being destitute of engines or fire organization. In these lines might be seen scores of ladies for hours personally sharing in the arduous work. Total loss $50,000. A good deal of the property is covered by insurance. In almost every instance, the greater part of the contents were removed, though in a very damaged condition.

S. W. Agricultural Society.

The Directors of this Society met at the Wellington Hotel on Saturday afternoon—James Laidlaw, Esq., President, in the chair. It was resolved that Messrs. Hall's account be referred to a special committee to examine the items, and report at an early day. It was also resolved to memorialize the legislature, now in session, to amend the Agricultural Act, so as to allow Township Agricultural Societies in one electoral division to unite their funds with those of another Society in another electoral division for exhibition purposes, and also to amend the said Act so as to permit the selection of Directors of County Societies from within the limits of the entire County, if considered desirable. It was likewise agreed that communication be entered into with the Director of the Centre Riding Society to ascertain whether they would be willing to merge their funds with those of this Society for Central Exhibition purposes in 1872. The President and Secretary were authorized to procure a temporary advance from the Bank to enable the Society to discharge all lawful claims against it at present existing. The following compose the Executive Committee of the Central Exhibition for 1872:—Messrs. Jas. Laidlaw (President), D. Stirton, M.P., J. B. Armstrong, J. Holson, L. Parkinson, T. McCrae, Geo. Hood, John Bolton, Joseph Grant and R. S. Brodie. A committee was also appointed to procure suitable designs for Diplomas, to be awarded in connection with the Central Exhibition.

Small-pox in England.

The London Lancet (medical journal) gives the following interesting statistics of small-pox in England during last year.—In 1870 there were registered in the seventeen principal cities and towns of England, 1,259 deaths from small-pox, in the year just closed, there have fallen victims to the disease in the same towns no less than 13,174 persons. The highest small-pox mortality in London during the thirty-one years, 1840 to 1870, was in 1863, when 2,012 fatal cases were registered. In the subsequent years, 1864 to 1870, the annual deaths were successively 567,646, 1,388, 1,882, 605, 203, and 958. Last year they rose to the unprecedented number of 7,876, whereof 2,400 occurred in the first, 3,241 in the second, 1,255 in the third, and 980 in the fourth quarters. This epidemic began in the latter weeks of 1870, and rose rapidly through the first quarter of 1871, until maximum fatality was attained in the week ending May 6, after which period it declined at first steadily, but afterwards with considerable rapidity to less than 100 deaths weekly in August, and the minimum of 41 deaths was touched in the last week of September. Since that time, and especially within the last month, there have been indications of recrudescence, which demand the serious consideration of all entrusted with the care of the public health.

The Bruce Railway By-Laws.

Moved by R. Baird, seconded by R. Purvis, and resolved, That a County By-Law be proposed and submitted to this Council for the sum of $79,000 for the purpose of assisting the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway by way of a free grant bonus to construct the southern extension of their road from the Village of Lucknow, in the Township of Kinloss, to the waters of Lake Huron in the Village of Kincairdine.

Moved in amendment by G. McKillop, seconded by A. McLean, That until the decision of the Government is known, as to whether the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Railway or a competing line will receive aid, and as these lines are a considerable distance from the borders of the County, it would be inadvisable to defer the matter so that judicious action be taken at the proper time.

The vote being taken on the amendment there were 17 yeas and 9 nays.

A petition signed by the Reeves and Deputy Reeves of Kinloss and Huron, asking the County to submit a sectional By-Law for the sum of $51,000, to embrace the Townships of Kinloss, Huron and Kincairdine, was read.

It was moved by Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Henderson, That the prayer of the petition be granted.

It was moved in amendment by Messrs. McLeod and Baird, That the matter of a sectional By-Law be deferred until the June session of the Council.

An amendment to the amendment was moved by Messrs. McKillop and Blair, That the Warden be instructed to obtain the best legal advice, whether the Council is obliged to submit the sectional By-Law.

A discussion followed, during which it was contended by some that the submission of the sectional by-law was not compulsory on the Council.

A vote was taken on the amendment to the amendment, yeas 12, nays 14. On the amendment, yeas 11, nays 15. For the motion 16, against 10. Carried by a majority of 6.

A Novel Land Sale in Ireland.

The Marquis of Waterford's estates in Ireland were recently sold for $1,500,000. They were divided into one hundred and twenty-one lots, and the remarkable feature of the sale was that the lots were bought by tenants, some of whom paid at the rate of fifty, others forty, and none less than thirty years' time. The great success of Ireland, and the most fruitful source of oppression and misery, has always been that the tillers of the soil were not the owners of it. Vast estates were handed down from generation to generation, the tenants of the soil, subdivided might have been successfully cultivated, had been allowed to run to waste or made into parks and hunting grounds for the aristocracy, and cruel and impudent hirelings, acting as stewards for absent proprietors, have bitterly oppressed the tenants. In an Irish town, a traveler passing through streets filled with the most abject poverty to some one, or two, or three massive and costly residences of the gentry, walled in and set apart from the desolation and misery everywhere present. If the change seemed inaugurated by the disposal of the vast estates of the Marquis of Waterford, can be carried on to its legitimate completion, the event will prove that the dawn of a better day has arisen upon Ireland, and Fenianism, agrarianism, Communism and all the other "isms" that have their birth in oppressing and their ending in blood will pass naturally away, by reason of their very necessities.

A Strange Man and a Strange Book.

There died in Paris, just in time to have his name included in the obituary of 1871, a somewhat remarkable person. His name was Charles Ferteois Ferte, and his business in life was to receive the bodies of persons whose crime, accident or suicide led to the Morgue. Ferte, by reason of his taste in waistcoats, popularly known as "Monsieur Rouge," is described as a man who, under a somewhat rough demeanor, had a kind heart. Many stories of his acts of humanity are current, but suffice to know that he has left behind him a child which the double suicide of his parents had left behind unprovided for, and who attended the Lycee de la rue de Valenciennes, and had been properly educated. But he left behind him something more interesting still. Day by day, during the twenty-six years of his service at the Morgue, Ferte was composing a book to which he has given the singular title Registre de Morsures. The book, which extends to many volumes, is nothing more or less than the register of the names and addresses of the bodies received by him, which reach a total of 20,000. Ferte appears to have spent his leisure hours in making inquiries into the antecedents of the more interesting of his charges, and the results are given in numerous notes appended to the register of death.

HALTON AGRIC. SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of this Society was held on the 29th. The amount of prizes paid in the past year amount to the sum of $88.74, being an increase over the previous year of $169. The admittance of non-members amounts to the sum of $536, showing an increase of $32 over last year. The members' subscriptions have also been increased, being $325, $81 more than for 1870. There has been paid on the purchase of the show grounds $224, leaving on hand $5.78 after paying all liabilities for the year. The following gentlemen were elected officers of the Association for the current year: President, G. C. McKindsey; Vice-President, C. P. Preston; 2nd Vice-President, John Hamsey; Secretary, W. C. Beatty; Directors, Nelson—Jos. Albert, R. Hunter, H. P. Zimmerman, Nassarogava, James Menzies, T. M. Taylor, Trafalgar, Wm. Hagar, Jas. B. Bussell, Esquimaux, Jos. B. Dessey, Joseph Brownridge, Auditors, Johnston Harrison, Finlay McCollum. Mr. George Murton, of Guelph, was elected to represent the Association at the Provincial Convention, Mr. Joshua Norrish and Mr. Sheriff McKindsey were appointed to attend the Provincial Exhibition in Hamilton for 1872, as delegates of this Association.

THE PRODUCE MARKET at WALKERTON.

The Walkerton Herald says:—"The sight of a number of teams on the streets, with wheat, pork, &c., for sale, is something new to Walkerton. There has probably been purchased within the last ten or twelve days, on our streets, more grain than there ever was since the place came into existence. The railway has done all this, and given the farmers a market at their doors. We are glad to see, also, that though no trains are running to take away the grain, considerable competition exists between buyers, and as good prices are given here as at Clifford. This is a good omen for the future of Walkerton as a market when the road is in full operation."

On Saturday a carter in Montreal

Colliers on the Strike.

Sult Lake, Jan. 29.—In the Council today the reading of the Governor's veto on the Admission Bill was followed by groans and hisses. The members spoke of it with mingled anger and contempt. Mayor Medell has vetoed the resolution by the Council to permit the completion of half finished frame buildings within the fire limits.

New York, Jan. 29.—The Times will publish to-morrow seven columns of figures derived from the investigation of the committee of 70, showing in detail alleged fraudulent transactions of the Department of Public Works when under Tweed's management, in the purchase of supplies. It says that thousands of dollars were thus obtained from the Bureau of Supplies on fraudulent vouchers, approved by Tweed and certified to by his subordinates, acting under his orders. The committee of 70 have nearly established the fact, that supplies furnished to the city from Tweed's department, except in very few instances, were purchased under his personal direction. The total amount of supplies furnished under exhibit to be published is $1,666,525.

London, Jan. 29.—A meeting of the electors of Birmingham last night, a letter was read from the Hon. John Bright, in which he expressed hopes of being able to attend a portion of the forthcoming session of Parliament. He also advised efforts to decrease the expenditure of the Government.

A large number of colliers have struck work, and disturbances are apprehended at Blamavon. The military are under arms.

NEWS ITEMS.

NEW PRINCIPLE IN COOKING.—Mr. Anderson is at present at Mr. Wm. Sunley's stove store exhibiting stovefurniture which completely revolutionizes the old method of cooking. The change is simple, yet effectual. It is effected by making the sides of all the cooking utensils, above the fire, of a space between the two. A portion of the inner side of the top is taken away so as to give room for the escape of all the gases, steam, &c., which, when anything is being cooked. The consequence is that with this cooking apparatus, in the closest room there is not the slightest smell, it being all carried off through this opening in the inner side, down to the bottom of the vessel, where it escapes into the fire place, and is carried up the chimney. The same principle is applied to washing boilers, and in fact every utensil ordinarily used in cooking. It is simple yet valuable, for not only are the vessels much stronger—and they are only a little dearer—but by using them there is not the slightest smell in the house, no matter what you may be cooking. Mr. Anderson will be here only this week, and we would advise all interested in the subject to go and inspect his samples of furniture.

A MODEL FARM.—We had the pleasure last week of going over Rosebank farm, in Howick, 9 miles from Harriston. It is the property of George Anderson, Esq., Produce Merchant, Guelph and Harriston, and contains 150 acres of good land.—The first demer was made 10 years ago and there are now 125 acres under cultivation. Anderson has already fed 34 head this season, 6 of which have been sold and 28 ready for sale, 15 head were shipped for the Liverpool market on Tuesday, 2nd January, 1872. There are some fine colts for teaming purposes, worthy the attention of purchasers, good working horses, and splendid stock of thorough bred Berkshire swine. We have always admired the farming which sends produce to market neatly stuffed into cattle and pigs and Mr. Anderson finds the system a profitable one.—Harriston Tribune.

DEATH OF A VALUABLE HORSE.

The Sporting Times says: "We regret to learn of the death by accident of a valuable stallion named 'Royal George,' owned by Mr. Manasseh Leeson, of the township of Caledon, which took place on the 19th. The horse was announced to be held on Shaw's Lake near Orangeville, and Royal George being one of the competitors was harnessed up for a preliminary trial. He became frightened at being hitched too short, commenced kicking and having overturned the cutter to which he was attached, started on a run for the shore. On reaching the woods at the edge of the lake he ran with great violence against a dead tree, a limb of which penetrated his chest inflicting a fatal wound, of which he died in about eight hours. The races were postponed on account of the accident."

EDITORIAL NEWS.

Mr. Blake's bill to make further provisions for the election of members to fill the vacancies in the Legislative Assembly, will provide for the issue of writs where a member resigns or an election is declared void by the Judges, and there is no Speaker to issue the writs under the present law, as was the case before the opening of the present session.

SEVERE CENSURE.—Says the London Advertiser:—The Middlesex County Council on Friday passed a resolution offering a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of Riel, the murderer of Thomas Scott. A collateral resolution was the next day adopted, requesting the Ontario and Dominion Governments to offer rewards also to the same end.

This Conservatives in the House are very much dissatisfied with the course taken by Mr. Cameron and the Telegraph. There is talk of deposing him and electing a new leader; but the trouble is to find a man qualified for the position and willing to take it.

Another proclamation has been issued by His Excellency, proroguing the Dominion Parliament to the 27th of February next, but it does not contain the important words to meet then for the despatch of business.

Hence it is not known when the Dominion Parliament will meet, but probably not till some time in March.

A brother of the Czar of Russia, who has visited the Pope, has been cordially received by His Holiness.—The inference drawn is that the Czar wishes to be on more friendly terms with the Papal authorities.

Ontario Legislature.

Toronto, Jan. 29. Mr. Rykert introduced a Bill to prevent corrupt practices at municipal elections. Mr. Arlidge enquired of the Ministry if it was their intention to bring before the House, during the present session, any measure having for its object the promotion of the settlement of the wild lands, fit for cultivation, still held by the Crown in this Province, or in respect to which the Crown has the right to forfeit for non-payment of purchase money, or non-fulfilment of settlement duties.

Hon. Mr. Scott said it was not the intention of the Government to ask any special legislation on the subject. They had the power, by the existing law, to promote in every reasonable way the settlement of the wild lands fit for cultivation, and they proposed to do so.

Mr. Scott said it was the intention of the Government to repeal the Order in Council made by the late Administration, under which squatters who settled prior to the passage of the Free Grant Act would have to pay 20 cents an acre. The present Government felt that those settlers ought to be placed under equally favorable conditions with those who settled after passage of the Act.

Mr. Baxter enquired of the Ministry whether they intended during the present session to propose any amendment to the common or grammar school law.

Mr. Blake.—That subject is under the consideration of the Government.

In answer to a question, Mr. Blake said it was under the consideration of the Government whether they should send the Statutes free to Reeves, Deputy Reeves and Clerks of municipalities.

A motion was passed for a return showing the revenue derived from timber sold on lands set apart as Clergy Reserve Lands, and how the same has been appropriated since 1854.

One of the orders of the day was Mr. Lander's motion for a committee of enquiry into the election of South Grey. On the order being called, however, the mover was found to be absent, and the motion dropped.

Stokes was brought into court on Monday to be arraigned upon an indictment charging him with murdering Fisk. His counsel moved to quash the indictment, principally on the ground of irregularities and of the alleged inconsistency of the Act under which the grand jury acted.

Some idea may be formed of the extent to which re-building operations will be carried on in Chicago, during the year 1872 from the fact that already contracts for $3,000,000 worth of buildings are on hand. The Sherman House is to be rebuilt on its old site, as a seven-story structure.

A delegation from a number of States visited Washington to protest against the present duty on hatters, and the manufacture of hats in the United States. They are reported to have secured a very large number of signatures.

THE MURDERER TRAVISS.—The young man John Traviss, lying in the Toronto gaol under sentence of death on the 22nd prox., for the murder of the man Johnston, in East Gwillimbury, in November last, is daily visited by one or more clergymen from the city, in his intercourse with whom he begins to manifest a due appreciation of the awful nature of his position in which he has placed himself.

The success of the working men's meeting in Hamilton on Saturday night, to inaugurate the nine hour movement, has led to the subject being talked of in Toronto.

There were thirty-two deaths from small-pox in Montreal last week, being an increase of nine over the preceding week.

A despatch from London, via New York, states that England is determined to oppose any further encroachment upon Central Asia on the part of Russia.

The Dunkin Bill was defeated at Napanee yesterday after a severe contest.

PEOPLE naturally go where they can get the Best Selection of Goods, the best value for their money, and the best attention and the consequence is that, while others are complaining about dull times, &c., we are as busy as ever, selling away at our Dresses, Millinery, Shawls, Jackets, &c. &c.

THIS WEEK, we will show a remarkably cheap lot of Beautiful Silk Finished Black Lustres, bought at a great bargain about six weeks ago, the prices are 20c, 25c, 30c, and 40c, and they are not equalled in this town at a much higher figure.

We are also clearing out this week another lot of Choice Fancy Dress Goods at 12c per yard. Still on hand, a good selection of PURE WHITE and Fancy Clouds, of every kind.

REMEMBER THIS, LADIES! Our stock is all new, and composed of First Class Goods of every description. We must have the best Goods produced in the British and Foreign Markets in order to give our customers satisfaction.

N. B.—The recent advance in Cotton Goods will not affect our prices for the present, as we have a large stock on hand.

CHAPTER XIII.—THE FULL REVELATION.

"For my part, I had most lost hope together, as day after day I gazed into the post office and got ayo the same answer. I didna ken what tae think, I couldna believe that Maister Winthrop was a scoundrel, and had basely deserted his bonny young wife. Everything that I had seen about him forbad that thoct, sae I imagined that some terrible thing had happened him, and dreaded that evil tidin's wad come ere lang. Hech nae, but little did I dream o' sic evil tidin's as did come. What a loup o' joy my heart gied ane day, as wi' dejected and hopeless air, I gazed into the post office, I heard a loud cherric voice cry out: 'Weel, Ritchie, here's a letter for ye the day.' What a spring I made forrit tae the counter, and wi' what a glam I gripit the letter. I was out o' the door wi' it in a moment, and tearin' awa' up the lock side for Glenfruin like a man deimentit. It wasna till I was far up the glen that I thoct o' takin' oot the letter tae look at it. It wasna addressed to yer mither, as I expected, but tae Maister Tammas Moir, farmer, Glenfruin, by Sand Bank, in a big round hand. I had nae doubt it was Maister Winthrop's writin', though I had never seen his hand; but I thoct it strange that he had addressed it tae yer grandfather, and no tae yer mither. The postmark I saw was Liverpool, and it had a big red seal on it, about the size o' a twa shillin's piece.

"I hardly stoppit runnin' a' the road up, and the moment I got sight o' yer mither, stannin' as usual on the Foxes' Knowe, I took it oot and waved in the air wi' mony loud hurraays. I saw her throw up her arms wi' wildest rapture, and floo down the brae tae meet me. She ran, and I ran, and in five minutes the letter was in her shakin' hand, and she was about tae tear it open, when she saw it wasna addressed tae her. It cost her a sair effort tae keep frae breakin' the seal on the instant, but pittin' on a strong resolution, she flew back tae the house, and I w' her, where yer grandfather was sittin' by himself, haein' a sleep after demoor.

"Oh, that letter and its terrible contents, read by them baith at ance, and destined tae prove their death-warrant—her's immediately, and his after two years o' wearin' grief. It was frae a stranger, but written at Maister Winthrop's desire, though I doot he had little to do wi' the wordin' o' it. In ten or three brief, blasterin' sentences, it stated that Waldgrave Winthrop had committed a great crime—a forgery—and tae save himself from the consequence, he required tae leave the country immediately; that already he was aboard a ship that was sailin' with a week frae Liverpool for Australia, and that he wad never return to England or Scotland again. There was another letter enclosed in the big ane, frae Mr Winthrop himself tae yer mither, implorin' her tae accompany him tae a foreign land, but that letter she never saw or read, for nae sinner had her een scanned the stranger's lines than wi' a wailin' cry—sic as I ne'er heard afore, and hope tae God I shall never hear again—she fell tae the ground in convulsions. What need I harrow yer feelin's by describin' that waeft, night at Glenfruin. Before the mornin' licht ye were born, and yer pair mither was at rest for ever."

"And—my father," gasped Helen, "has he never heard o' me?" "I gae tae Liverpool and saw him afore he sailed," replied Ritchie.

"Oh, Ritchie, did you see him? Tell me—oh, tell me all that passed between you."

"The time was short, my pet, and the meetin' atween us waeft ane. It was on board the ship I saw him, and just when they were about tae sail. Sic a change had come ower him; and sic misery, sic fraintie despair, I ne'er beheld when I tellt him o' yer mither's death. I thought he wad hae dashed his head tae pieces on the side o' the cabin. The captain and the doctor cam and held him, and I was tellt tae gang awa'. That was the last I saw o' him, for half an' oor after the ship sailed."

"And he has never been heard o' since," "Never my dadin'—never."

"He may be alive still."

"He may—but it's no likely. It's my belief that the terrible grief has killed him langyne."

"Did—did he say anything to you concernin' the child which had been born to him?" faltered Helen, with a sob.

"My dadin'—he ne'er kemed that a bairn had been born."

"He never knew that?" "No; yer grandfather charged me no tae mention it, and I never did. Was it no as weel?"

"Perhaps it was," sighed Helen in a tone of woe. "Yet the knowledge of my existence might—might—Oh, his pain now to think of that, and doubtless, as you say, it was as well. But did you learn the particulars of—of—his—crime?"

"Very little o' that could I gather, and that little only frae his ain wild words," answered Ritchie. "What tempted him tae commit the forgery, I couldna guess, except it was that he was short o' monee, and was refused it by his friends."

The enormous demands which the Americans intend to place before the Geneva Conference, is causing some uneasiness in England, and is having a depressing effect upon American securities.

The last census of the United States shows that out of a population of over thirty-eight millions there are 5,969,074 who cannot write—more than fourteen per cent. Of these, 4,820,210 are natives, while 777,864 are of foreign birth. The great bulk of the former is made up of the freedmen in the Southern States.

HOW TO BORE HOLES IN GLASS.—Any hard steel tool will cut glass with great facility when kept freely wet with camphor dissolved in turpentine. A drill blow may be used, or even the hand alone. A hole may be readily enlarged by a round file. The ragged edges of glass may also be thus smoothed with a flat file. Flat window glass can be readily saved by a watch spring saw by the aid of this solution. In short, the most brittle glass can be wrought almost as easily as wood by the use of cutting tools kept constantly moist with camphorized oil of turpentine.

Many people, particularly children, suffer with the ear ache; and for the benefit of such, we give a sure but simple remedy. Put in two or three drops of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, stop the ear with undressed wool, bathe the feet in warm water before going to bed, and keep the head warm at night.

CAPT. CHARLES SAGER, who keeps a superb stock of livery horses in Portland, Me., informed us recently that he uses Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, regularly in his stables, and that the expense is more than offset by the diminished amount of grain necessary to keep his horses always in good order.

Husband—You have great faith, Mary, in the Pain-Killer. The Parson's wife and Mrs. Judge Jones are very positive in favor of it, but I am inclined to think that if it did all it professes to do, sickness and death would soon be out of fashion, for it cures everything.

Wife—The Parson's wife and Mrs. Judge Jones are not the only ones that I have heard strictly recommend the Pain-Killer, everywhere I go they have it and everybody praises it, all the Linnæus, Chalmers Mixtures and Pain Medicines have disappeared since Perry Davis' agent came round. (To little George, does your tooth still ache, my dear?)

George—No, mother, Pain-Killer stopped it.

Wife to Husband—The Pain-Killer does not profess to cure everything either in the directions about the bottle or in the "Annual," I have read them carefully. It claims to be the best family medicine in existence. Perry Davis & Son do not say what it can do, but prove what it does say by giving certificates from reliable persons whose testimony cannot be doubted.

Husband—Do you think these certificates are bona fide, I believe they are made up to sell the goods.

Wife—Judge Jones was as incredulous as you till he wrote to Perry Davis & Son and was satisfied, they sent him a quite of certificates received from reliable parties within five miles of his own house.

Wife—The Pain-Killer is an internal and external remedy for internal pain, Cramps, Spasms, Sudden Colic and Headaches, a few drops in water will give immediate relief. As a liniment it is without an equal; it stops pain almost instantly. Be sure and get the genuine, made by Perry Davis & Son, and sold by Druggists and Grocers.

COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES

All life-endowed bodies, whether they be Beasts, Birds, Reptiles, Insects, or even Zoophytes, and subjects of the Vegetable Kingdom are governed by vital force, which binds all the springs of existence, and as nothing can save them from destruction when this principle leaves them, the discovery of means whereby vitality may be sustained, or the living body is in lead a boon to the world.

Modern Chemistry has ventilated the question and discovered the ingredients constituting the brain, muscles and nerves, and finds that by introducing these ingredients in proper proportions the brain and nervous system are strengthened.

This is substantially the basis on which FELLOWS' HYPOPHOSPHITE is built, its direct action is upon the Blood, the Brain and Nervous System, and the Muscles, Strengthening the Nerves, it causes the rapid distribution of vitalized Blood in the Muscular Organs of the Body.

Rousing the Stagnant Heart and Liver, Strengthening the Action of the Stomach and Bowels, and enabling the Lungs to be fully inflated with Oxygen.

It is adapted for all cases of Weakness and Excitation, whether arising from a Sedentary Life, a tropical climate, from fever, or debility from any cause, and is efficacious in Pulmonary Consumption, many confirmed cases having been cured and all benefited, where its use has been continued over a fortnight.

In Bronchitis it is a specific, and in Asthma it gives relief where every other remedy fails.

For Nervous Debility, it stands unrivalled, and may be used with confidence in all cases.

As this is entirely distinct and different from every other preparation of Hypophosphites, be careful to ask for Fellows' Syrup, and take no other.

SOLD BY APOTHECARIES. PRICE, $1.50. SIX FOR $7.50
